1067. Sayyiduna Abu ad-Darda رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "There never are three people in a village or a desert who do not form a congregation for the salah without the devil prevailing over them. Hence bind yourself to the congregation because the wolf devours only the sheep that separates from the herd (and is alone)."[2]

COMMENTARY: There is success in togetherness but failure in separation. Islam calls upon its adherents to keep together. There is strength in it and most acts of worship in Islam lay stress on it. Separation spells disaster.

[2] Abu Dawud # 547, Nasai # 847, Musnad Ahmad 6-446.

When people are well-knit they have a strong voice and are feared The devil is quick to overwhelm the individual but cannot cast a spell on the group.
This hadith speaks of this by way of an example of a lone, straying sheep.

STAYING AWAY FROM THE CONGREGATION WITHOUT EXCUSE

(۱۰٦۸) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَمِعَ الْمُنَادِيَ فَلَمْ يَمْنَعْهُ مِنِ اتِّبَاعِهٖ عُذْرٌ قَالُوْا وَمَا الْعُذْرُ قَالَ خَوْفٌ اَوْ مَرَضٌ لَمْ تُقْبَلْ مِنْهُ الصَّلٰوةُ الَّتِیْ صَلّٰی۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد و الدار قطنی)

1068. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone hears the mu'adhdhin and no excuse prevents him from obeying him (by going to the mosque)..." The listeners asked him, "What can an excuse be?" He interposed "Fear of an enemy), illness.." continued, "then his salah that he offer (by himself) is not accepted from him."[1]

COMMENTARY: While Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated the hadith, his listeners asked him about the kinds of excuse. He interrupted his narration and enlightened them that it could be fear of an enemy to life or honour, or of property being lost, or a serious illness.

Ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ said that fear could be of an enemy of oppression, of a creditor when he cannot repay the debt. Other reasons have been mentioned earlier in the beginning of the chapter (just before Section I).

As for his individual salah not being accepted from him, it means that while he will have discharged his obligation, he will not earn its reward. It is like a person who offers salah on a piece of land snatched from another, his salah will have been offered but he will get no reward. It is also like one who performs Hajj (Pilgrimage) with unlawful money then his responsibility will cease but no reward will accrue to him.

The ulama (Scholars) agree that on the basis of these two hadith, no one is allowed at all the deliberately, without excuse, stay away from the congregation.

ANSWER NATURE'S CALL FIRST

(۱۰٦۹) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ اَرْقَمَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا اُقِيْمَتِ الصَّلَاةُ وَوَجَدَ اَحَدُكُمُ الْخَلَاءَ فَلْيَبْدَأْ بِالْخَلَاءِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی وروی مالك و ابوداؤد و النسائی نحوہ)

1069. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Arqam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "If the iqamah for the salah is called and any of you gets the call of nature then he must first answer that (even if he misses the congregational salah)."[2]

THREE THINGS FORBIDDEN

(۱۰۷۰) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثٌ لَا يَحِلُّ لِاَحَدٍ اَنْ يَفْعَلَهُنَّ لَا يَؤُمَّنَّ رَجُلٌ قَوْمًا فَيَخُصَّ نَفْسَهُ بِالدُّعَاءِ دُوْنَهُمْ فَاِنْ فَعَلَ ذٰلِكَ فَقَدْ خَانَهُمْ وَلَا يَنْظُرُ فِيْ قَعْرِ بَيْتٍ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَسْتَأْذِنَ فَاِنْ فَعَلَ ذٰلِكَ فَقَدْ خَانَهُمْ وَلَا يُصَلِّ وَهُوَ حَقِنٌ حَتّٰی يَتَخَفَّفَ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد والترمذی نحوہ)

1070. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Three things are not lawful for anyone to do. He must not lead a people (as their imam) who singles himself for prayer at the exclusion of those people. If he does that then, indeed, he has cheated them.
He must not peep into a house before getting permission to enter. If he does that then he has cheated them, Indeed. He must not offer salah while suppressing nature's call till he has relieved himself."[1]

DELAYING SALAH FOR MEAL NOT ALLOWED

(١٠٧١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُؤَخِّرُوا الصَّلَاةَ لِطَعَامٍ وَلَا لِغَيْرِهٖ۔

1071. Sayyiduna Jabir صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "Do not delay salah because of a meal or any other reason."[2]

COMMENTARY: The hadith # 1056 and 1057 narrated previously assert that if a meal is placed before anyone, he must finish eating first before joining the congregation. This hadith seems to differ but actually means that if the time of the salah is running out then it should not be delayed. The previous two hadith imply that if there is sufficient time for the salah and a desire to eat too, then one should first have one's meal.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

JOIN THE CONGREGATION

(١٠٧٢) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنَا وَمَا يَتَخَلَّفُ عَنِ الصَّلَاةِ إِلَّا مُنَافِقٌ قَدْ عُلِمَ نِفَاقُهٗ أَوْ مَرِيْضٌ إِنْ كَانَ الْمَرِيْضُ لَيَمْشِيْ بَيْنَ رَجُلَيْنِ حَتّٰى يَأْتِيَ الصَّلٰوةَ وَقَالَ إِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَّمَنَا سُنَنَ الْهُدٰى وَإِنَّ مِنْ سُنَنِ الْهُدٰى اَلصَّلَاةُ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ الَّذِيْ يُؤَذَّنُ فِيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ مَنْ سَرَّهٗ أَنْ يَلْقَى اللّٰهَ غَدًا مُسْلِمًا فَلْيُحَافِظْ عَلٰى هٰذِهِ الصَّلَوَاتِ الْخَمْسِ حَيْثُ يُنَادٰى بِهِنَّ فَإِنَّ اللّٰهَ شَرَعَ لِنَبِيِّكُمْ سُنَنَ الْهُدٰى وَإِنَّهُنَّ مِنْ سُنَنِ الْهُدٰى وَلَوْ أَنَّكُمْ صَلَّيْتُمْ فِيْ بُيُوْتِكُمْ كَمَا يُصَلِّيْ هٰذَا الْمُتَخَلِّفُ فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ لَتَرَكْتُمْ سُنَّةَ نَبِيِّكُمْ وَلَوْ تَرَكْتُمْ سُنَّةَ نَبِيِّكُمْ لَضَلَلْتُمْ وَمَا مِنْ رَجُلٍ يَّتَطَهَّرُ فَيُحْسِنُ الطُّهُوْرَ ثُمَّ يَعْمِدُ إِلٰى مَسْجِدٍ مِنْ هٰذِهِ الْمَسَاجِدِ إِلَّا كَتَبَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ بِكُلِّ خَطْوَةٍ يَخْطُوْهَا حَسَنَةً وَرَفَعَهٗ بِهَا دَرَجَةً وَحَطَّ عَنْهُ بِهَا سَيِّئَةً وَلَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنَا وَمَا يَتَخَلَّفُ عَنْهَا إِلَّا مُنَافِقٌ مَعْلُوْمُ النِّفَاقِ وَلَقَدْ كَانَ الرَّجُلُ يُؤْتٰى بِهٖ يُهَادٰى بَيْنَ الرَّجُلَيْنِ حَتّٰى يُقَامَ فِي الصَّفِّ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

1072. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "We observed that only those hypocrites stayed away from the congregational salah whose hypocrisy was manifest (but even those whose hypocrisy was concealed attended the congregation), or the ill, but if he could walk between two men, he would come for the salah."

[1] Abu Dawud # 91, Tirmidhi (similar) # 357, Ibn Majah # 923, Musnad Ahmad 5-280.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3758, Baghawi in Sharah as sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) # 800.

Then, he said, "Indeed, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did teach us the paths of guidance. Among the paths of guidance is salah in the mosque in which the adhan is called."
According to another version, he narrated, "He to whom it pleases to meet Allah tomorrow as a Muslim should continue to offer these five times salah where the call is made for them (in the mosques with congregation) because Allah has defined for your Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the paths of guidance and they (the five times salah) are among the paths of guidance. If you will offer the salah in your homes as this one who stays behind (the hypocrite) does, you will be abandoning the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) of your Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and if you will abandon the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) of your Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم you will be straying. If anyone purifies himself making ablution very well and goes to a mosque among these mosques, then Allah records for him a blessing at every step he takes (to it), raises him a degree for it and erases a sin from him for it.
Indeed, I have seen (previously) that no one stayed behind from the congregation save a hypocrite known for his hypocrisy. And, indeed, a man would be supported by two men (dragging himself) till he was made to stand in a row."[1]

COMMENTARY: The paths of guidance are those that lead them who pursue these paths to proper guidance and nearness to Allah and His pleasure.

NATURE OF PROPHET's صلى الله عليه وسلم DEEDS: The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم deeds were of two kinds. Those that were part of his worship and those that formed his habit. The latter were known his habit. The latter were known as (سنن الزوائد) (sunan us zawa'id - additional paths or practices or sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم)) and the former as (سنن الهدى) (sunan ul huda - right guidance paths or practices).

The sunan ul huda are of two kinds

(i) muwakkadah (emphasized) and

(ii) ghayr muwakkadah (not stressed).

The sunan muwakkadah: he did with consistency and constantly, and exhorted the people to do it.

The sunan ghayr muwakkadah were deeds that he did not perform regularly and he did not call upon the people to do them (regularly).

This hadith refers to the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) muwakkadah. Those who regards the congregation as wajib (expedient), this definition does not contradict them because wajib (expedient) too is within the definition sunan al huda.

Ahmad and Tabarani رحمه الله have reported a hadith in a marfu form that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He is guilty of wrong doing, complete wrong doing, disbelief and hypocrisy who hears the crier of Allah calling to the mosque but he does not respond positively." This is a very strong warning from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to those who keep away from the congregation.

The reference to 'this one who stays behind offers salah in his house' seems to refer to a particular person. Ibn Mas'ud رحمه الله warns those who emulate him that their doing will be tantamount to neglecting the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم). Such a one falls into the pit of straying.

NEGLECTING IT IS GRAVE SIN

(١٠٧٣) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَوْ لَا مَا فِي الْبُيُوْتِ مِنَ النِّسَآءِ وَالذُّرِّيَةِ أَقَمْتُ

[1] Muslim # 256-654, Abu Dawud # 550, Nasai # 849, Ibn Majah # 777, Musnad Ahmad 1-414.

صَلٰوةَ الْعِشَاءِ وَاَمَرْتُ فِتْيَانِي يُحَرِّقُوْنَ مَافِي الْبُيُوْتِ بِالنَّارِ۔ (رواه احمد)

1073. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Were there not women and children in homes, I would begin the salah of isha and instruct my young men to burn whatever is in the houses (of those do not join the congregation with fire."[1]

COMMENTARY: Since it is not wajib (expedient) for women and children to join the congregation, they ought to be spared and should not be punished for the fault of other people. This is proof that those who neglect the congregation are great sinners.

AFTER THE ADHAN

(١٠٧٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ اَمَرَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا كُنْتُمْ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَنُوْدِيَ بِالصَّلٰوةِ فَلَا يَخْرُجْ اَحَدُكُمْ حَتّٰى يُصَلِّيَ۔ (رواه احمد)

1074. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "If you are in the mosque and the adhan for the salah is sounded then none of you must go out without offering the salah."[2]

COMMENTARY: According to the Hanafi scholars, this command, of not departing from the mosque after the adhan, applies to one who is not responsible for any other mosque as its imam, or to one who intends to go out and come back before the salah. If anyone has offered the salah already then it is not makruh (unbecoming) for him to go out, but, if the iqamah is being called for the salah of zuhr and isha, then, though he has offered the salah, he must join the congregation to acquit himself from blame of neglecting the congregation. However, other imams say that he must join every salah not merely zuhr and isha.

(١٠٧٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي الشَّعْثَاءِ قَالَ خَرَجَ رَجُلٌ مِّنَ الْمَسْجِدِ بَعْدَ مَا اُذِّنَ فِيْهِ فَقَالَ اَبُوْهُرَيْرَةَ اَمَّا هٰذَا فَقَدْ عَصٰى اَبَا الْقَاسِمِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1075. Sayyiduna Abu Ash-Sha'tha رحمه الله narrated that a man went out of the mosque after the adhan was called in it. So, Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه said, "This man has disobeyed Abu al-Qasim صلی الله علیه وسلم."[3]

(١٠٧٦) وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنَ عَفَّانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَدْرَكَهُ الْاَذَانُ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ لَمْ يَخْرُجْ لِحَاجَةٍ وَّهُوَ لَا يُرِيْدُ الرَّجْعَةَ فَهُوَ مُنَافِقٌ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1076. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Affan رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone hears the adhan while he is in the mosque and then he goes out but not for a need and not intending to return, then he is a hypocrite."[4]

RESPONSE TO ADHAN

(١٠٧٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ فَلَمْ يُجِبْهُ فَلَا صَلَاةَ لَهُ إِلَّا مِنْ عُذْرٍ۔ (رواه الدار قطنی)

1077. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who hears the adhan but does not respond to it his salah is not (perfect or not) accepted unless he has an excuse."[1]

COMMENTARY: The response to the adhan is both verbal and physical. When a man comes to the mosque, he gives a practical answer.

BLIND IS ALSO BOUND

(١٠٧٨) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ أُمِّ مَكْتُوْمٍ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّ الْمَدِيْنَةَ كَثِيْرَةُ الْهَوَّامِ وَالسِّبَاعِ وَ أَنَا ضَرِيْرُ الْبَصَرِ فَهَلْ تَجِدُ لِي مِنْ رُخْصَةٍ فَقَالَ هَلْ تَسْمَعُ حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلٰوةِ حَيَّ عَلَى الْفَلَاحِ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَحَيَّ هَلًا وَلَمْ يُرَخِّصْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1078. Sayyidah Abdullah ibn Umm Maktum رضی اللہ عنہ said, "O Messenger of Allah, there are, in Madinah, plenty of venomous creatures and wild beasts, and I am blind, so do you permit me to stay away (from the congregation)." He asked, "Do you hear (Arabic) He said, "Yes." So, he said, "Then you must come (to the congregation)." He did not allow him concession.[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mentioned (حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلٰوة) and (حَيَّ عَلَى الفَلَاحِ) particularly because these expressions call to salah.

(١٠٧٩) وَعَنْ أُمِّ الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَتْ دَخَلَ عَلَيَّ أَبُوْالدَّرْدَاءِ وَهُوَ مُغْضَبٌ فَقُلْتُ مَا أَغْضَبَكَ قَالَ وَاللّٰهِ مَا أَعْرِفُ مِنْ أَمْرِ أُمَّةِ مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَيْئًا إِلَّا أَنَّهُمْ يُصَلُّوْنَ جَمِيْعًا۔ (رواه البخاری)

1079. Sayyidah Umm Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (one day) Sayyiduna Abu Darda رضی اللہ عنہ came to her in anger. She asked him, "What makes you angry?" He said, "By Allah, I do not see any good thing about the ummah of Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم except that they offer salah in congregation."[3]

FAJR IN CONGREGATION

(١٠٨٠) وَعَنْ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ أَبِي حَثْمَةَ قَالَ إِنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ فَقَدَ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنَ أَبِي حَثْمَةَ فِي صَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ وَإِنَّ عُمَرَ غَدَا إِلَى السُّوْقِ وَ مَسْكَنُ سُلَيْمَانَ بَيْنَ الْمَسْجِدِ وَالسُّوْقِ فَمَرَّ عَلَى الشِّفَاءِ أُمِّ سُلَيْمَانَ فَقَالَ لَهَا لَمْ أَرَ سُلَيْمَانَ فِي الصُّبْحِ فَقَالَتْ إِنَّهُ بَاتَ يُصَلِّي فَغَلَبَتْهُ عَيْنَاهُ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ لَأَنْ أَشْهَدَ صَلَاةَ الصُّبْحِ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ مِنْ أَنْ أَقُوْمَ لَيْلَةً۔ (رواه مالك)

[1] Ibn Majah # 793.
[3] Bukhari # 650, Musnad Ahmad 6-443.

1080. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr ibn Sulayman ibn Abu Hathman رحمه الله narrated that (one morning) Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضى الله عنه did not find (his father) Sulayman ibn Abu Hathmah رضى الله عنه in the fajr salah. When, in the morning, Umar رضى الله عنه went to the market, Sulayman's رضى الله عنه house was between the mosque and the market, he met Sayyidah ash-Shifa رضى الله عنه the mother of Sulayman رضى الله عنه and asked her why he did not see sulayman in the salah of fajr. She said, "He spent the night offering salah till sleep overtook him." So, Umar صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "That I should join the congregational salah of fajr is nearer to me than that I should stand all night in salah."[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone keeps the vigil (all night) to pray and also offers the salah of fajr with the congregation then this is the best thing. But, if after the vigil, he fails to join the fajr salah then that is not good.

TWO MEN IN CONGREGATION

(١٠٨١) وَعَنْ اَبِي مُوْسٰى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِثْنَانِ فَمَا فَوْقَهُمَا جَمَاعَةٌ۔

1081. Sayyiduna Abu Musa al-Ash'ary رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Two and more than them (can) form a congregation."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is not necessary that there should be a large number of people to form a congregation. The minimum is an imam and a muqtadi.

1082. Sayyiduna Bilal ibn Abdullah ibn Umar رحمه الله narrated from his father that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not deny the women their portion in the mosques then they seek youı permission." Bilal رحمه الله remarked, "By Allah, we shall certainly deny it to them." So, Abdullah رضى الله عنه said, "I tell you what Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم has said, yet you insist that you shall deny them (their portion)."[3]
According to another version:

(١٠٨٣) وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ سَالِمٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ فَاَقْبَلَ عَلَيْهِ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ فَسَبَّهٗ سَبًّا مَا سَمِعْتُ سَبَّهٗ مِثْلَهٗ قَطُّ وَقَالَ اُخْبِرُكَ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَتَقُوْلُ وَاللّٰهِ لَنَمْنَعُهُنَّ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1083. Sayyiduna Saalim رحمه الله narrated that his father, Abdullah رضى الله عنه faced him and reviled him to such an extent that he (saalim) had never heard him revile

[1] Muwatta Maalik # 8.2-7.
[2] Ibn Majah # 972, Musnad Ahmad 5-69.

(anyone) like that. And he said, "I inform you what Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said and you insist that you shall deny the women (their share)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Ssayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه was very angry at his son Bilal رحمه الله and reviled him because he seemed to challenge the hadith. He should have pointed out politely that, in their times, it was not reasonable to let women go to the mosques. In that case, his father, Abdullah رضى الله عنه would not have been angry. The ulama (Scholars), too have seen the current times and disallowed women from going to the mosques. It is stated in the Hidayah, "In our times, the imam should not form an intention to lead women in the congregational salah."

The ulama (Scholars) are unanimous, as stated in the foregoing lines, that it is mukruh for women to go to the mosques.

(١٠٨٤) وَعَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَمْنَعُنَّ رَجُلٌ اَهْلَهٗ اَنْ يَأْتُوا الْمَسَاجِدَ فَقَالَ ابْنٌ لِعَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ فَاِنَّا نَمْنَعُهُنَّ فَقَالَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ اُحَدِّثُكَ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَتَقُوْلُ هٰذَا قَالَ فَمَا كَلَّمَهٗ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ حَتّٰى مَاتَ. (رواه احمد)

1084. Sayyiduna Mujahid رحمه الله narrated that from Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Let no man forbid his wife from coming to the mosques." A son (Bilal) رضى الله عنه of Abdullah رضى الله عنه said, "We shall forbid them." So, Abdullah رضى الله عنه said, "I narrate to you a hadith of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and you say as this." Then Abdullah رضى الله عنه did not speak to him till he died."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is explained in the same way as the previous was explained. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه did not speak to his son for the rest of his life because of his seeming contradiction of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying.

We learn from this hadith that if any one abandons the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) or seems to differ from it, then his father may stop speaking to him.

We now expound the methods for joining the congregation.

SOME RULING FOR THE CONGREGATION[3]

If anyone goes to a neighbourhood or nearby mosque only to find that the congregational salah is over then it is mustahab (desirable) for him to go to another mosque to catch a congregation. He also has an option to return home and gather some people to form a congregation.

If anyone has begun a supererogatory salah and, meanwhile, the congregation is called, he must end his salah after two raka'at even if he had resolved to offer four. The some procedure applies to the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) muwakkadah of zuhr and Friday. If the congregation is called while he is offering the salah, he must end at two and offer this sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) after the fard (obligatory) and, in the case of zuhr, after the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) that usually follow the fard (obligatory prayer).

If the fard salah (obligatory prayer) is being offered, then sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم), etc. must not be commenced if there is possibility of missing a raka'ah if it is perfectly certain that no raka'ah will be missed then one may offer the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم).

As regards the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) of fajr then are more stressed. They may be offered even if the fard salah (obligatory prayer) has begun, provided one is hopeful of joining at least by the last qa'dah. If there is no likelihood of getting even the last tqadah then one may not offer the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) while the fard (obligatory) is in progress).

If one is apprehensive that by being particular of the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) acts and mustahab (desirable) acts of sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) salah of fajr, one may miss the congregation, then only the fard (obligatory) and wajib (expedient) actions of the salah must be observed and the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) and mustahab (desirable) must be overlooked. When the fard (obligatory) salah anyone who begins his sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) whether of fajr or any other salah, must offer them at a place aside of the mosque because it is makruh tahrimah (strictly disapproved) to offer any other salah where the fard (obligatory) is being conducted. If one cannot find such a place, then he must keep away from the row in a corner of the mosque. If even this is not possible, then he must not offer that salah (and must join the congregation).

If one joins the congregation at its qa'dah but does not get any raka'ah, then too he will earn the reward of the congregation, even though it is not called the salah of congregation in the terminology of the jurists. They hold that a salah is offered with the congregation only when all its raka'at are Offered with its or most of them. For example, if there are four raka'at in a salah , then one should get at least three. If there are three, then one should get at least two. In spite of that, some jurists say that unless one manages to offer all the raka'at of the salah with the congregation, he will be deemed not to have joined the congregation.

A man will have offered the rak'ah even when he joins while the imam is in the ruku. If he does not join him in the ruku then that raka'ah will not be counted.

CHAPTER - XXV

ARRANCING ROWS STRAIGHT

بَابُ تَسْوِيَةِ الصَّفِّ

To keep the rows straight is that when the worshippers stand for the congregational salah they must stand close together leaving no space in between, they must not be in a haphazard position but in a straight line.

It there are many rows then there should be an unequal distance between every two of them.

The ahadith:- this chapter will speak on the importance of keeping rows straight. They will explain the rules and commands.

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْأَوَّلُ

STRAIGHTEN ROWS

يُسَوِّىْ بِهَا الْقِدَاحَ حَتّٰى رَاٰى اَنَّا قَدْ عَقَلْنَا عَنْهُ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ يَوْمًا فَقَامَ حَتّٰى كَادَ اَنْ يُكَبِّرَ فَرَاٰى رَجُلًا بَادِيًا

صَدْرُهٗ مِنَ الصَّفِّ فَقَالَ عِبَادَاللّٰهِ لَتُسَوُّنَّ صُفُوْفَكُمْ اَوْلَيُخَالِفَنَّ اللّٰهُ بَيْنَ وُجُوْهِكُمْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1085. Sayyiduna an numan ibn Bashir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to straighten there rows in such a way as though arrows could be straightened with them until he observed that they had learnt it from him. One day, he came out and stood till he was about to call the takbir when he detected a man whose chest protruded from the row, so he said, "O slaves of Allah, straighten your rows, otherwise Allah will put your faces against each other.[1]

COMMENTARY: the straight arrow was so well accepted by the Arab's that they gave its example when referring to any thing as straight. Here, the arrow, too, was straightened with those rows. This is an allegorical statement because arrows are used to straighten other things but here rows are said to be so straight that they put arrows straight. Some translations have it the other way: rows were straightened with arrows.

Mawlaha Mazhar explained the last sentence to warn that if you will not respect and obey outwardly then your out word disobedience will put your inward hearts to differ. This will lead you to detest each other, be obstinate and antagonistic. Then these will crop up and mar your outward life. You will be bereft of compassion.

Anyway, the hadith emphasizes that rows should be straightened. When the congregation is about to begin, everyone should put himself in a correct position and not be ahead or behind his neighbour. If this command is not obeyed then Allah will punish you by creating a rift among you depriving you of peace and tranquility.

COMPLETE ONE ROW BEFORE BEGINNING THE NEXT

(١٠٨٦) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ اُقِيْمَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَاَقْبَلَ عَلَيْنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِوَجْهِهٖ فَقَالَ اَقِيْمُوْا صُفُوْفَكُمْ وَ تَرَاصُّوْا فَاِنِّيْ اَرَاكُمْ مِنْ وَرَآءِ ظَهْرِيْ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ وَ فِي الْمُتَّفَقِ عَلَيْهِ قَالَ اَتِمُّوا الصُّفُوْفَ فَاِنِّيْ اَرَاكُمْ مِنْ وَرَآءِ ظَهْرِيْ۔

1086. Sayyiduna Anas narrated that as the iqamah was called one day, Allah's Messenger turned towards them and said, "het your rows be straight and stand close to each other. Surely, I can see you behind my back (while offering salah.

And according to another version: "complete your rows, for I do see you behind my back."[2]

COMMENTARY: Complete your rows mean begin to form a new row only after the previous is complete. Do not leave any row incomplete.

(١٠٨٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَوُّوْا صُفُوْفَكُمْ فَاِنَّ تَسْوِيَةَ الصُّفُوْفِ مِنْ اِقَامَةِ الصَّلَاةِ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ اِلَّا اَنَّ عِنْدَ مُسْلِمٍ مِنْ تَمَامِ الصَّلَاةِ۔

1087. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "keep your rows straight, for straightening of the rows is part of the observance of salah' the words in Muslim are part of the perfection of salah تمام الصلوة instead of (اقامة الصلوة)[3]

COMMENTARY: The Quran says:

اَقِيْمُو الصَّلٰوةَ

{establish the salah} [2:43] meaning be steadfast and offer it with rules and regulations as taught by the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The same words in this hadith refers to these words in the Quran keeping the rows straight is also part of establishing salah.

1088. Sayyiduna Abu Masud al-Ansari رضى الله عنه narrated that (when he intended to begin the salah,) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم touched their shoulders before the salah and said, "keep straight. Do not be out of line lest your hearts be at odds with each other, the wise and sagacious should be nearer to me. Then they who are next to them. Then they who are next to them."

Abu Masud رضى الله عنه said "Today, you are at logger heads with each other severely."[1]

COMMENTARY: The rows should not be haphazard and uneven otherwise it will reflect on the hearts and they will disagree with each other. There is a very fine relationship between the limbs and the heart of a person. It the limbs are uneven inwardly.

ARRANGEMENT OF ROWS

The second portion of the hadith defines the arrangement of the rows. The grown up, intelligent and learned should stand near to me' in the first row so that they might study the nature of salah and its commands and rules. Then they might reach the other people of the ummah. Then, those who are nearer adulthood and boys should stand in the next row and after them the eunuchs and behind them the women in their row, the hadith does not mention women in their row. The hadith does not mention women because it is fixed that women stand in the last row.

Sayyiduna Abu Masud رضى الله عنه wound up his narration with the remark that they were experiencing disagreement among people and trials. They could get rid of that if they corrected their outward differences by aligning their rows, Allah will remove their inward differences.

NOISE IN MOSQUES

(١٠٨٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِيَلِنِيْ مِنْكُمْ اُولُواالْاِحْلَامِ وَالنُّهٰى ثُمَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَلُوْنَهُمْ ثَلَاثًا وَاِيَّاكُمْ وَهَيْشَاتِ الْاَسْوَاقِ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

1089. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Masud رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said "The wise and sagacious among you must be nearer to me followed by those who are near to them, "He said this three times. "And, you must refrain from noise and tumult (:-mosques) as is found in markets."[1]

COMMENTARY: There are four stages of the rows
(i) Adults and intelligent men.
(ii) Adolescents and boys.
(iii) Eunuchs.
(iv) Women.

(١٠٩٠) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ رَاٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ اَصْحَابِهٖ تَأَخُّرًا فَقَالَ لَهُمْ تَقَدَّمُوْا وَائْتَمُّوْا بِيْ وَلْيَأْتَمَّ بِكُمْ مَنْ بَعْدَكُمْ لَا يَزَالُ قَوْمٌ يَتَأَخَّرُوْنَ حَتّٰى يُؤَخِّرَهُمُ اللّٰهُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1090. Sayyiduna Abu saeed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw that his sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہ incline to keep back (in rows). So, he said to them, "Come forward and follow me then those behind you should follow you. Some people will not cease to keep back so that Allah will put them behind (in dispersing his bounty and mercy).[2]

COMMENTARY: while every worshipper follows the imam in reality, the apparent following of a row is of the row ahead of it.

(١٠٩١) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ خَرَجَ عَلَيْنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَرَاٰنَا حَلَقًا فَقَالَ مَالِيْ اَرَاكُمْ عِزِيْنَ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ عَلَيْنَا فَقَالَ اَلَا تَصُفُّوْنَ كَمَا تَصُفُّ الْمَلَائِكَةُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهَا فَقُلْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَكَيْفَ تَصُفُّ الْمَلَائِكَةُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهَا قَالَ يُتِمُّوْنَ الصُّفُوْفَ الْاُوْلٰى وَيَتَرَاصُّوْنَ فِي الصَّفِّ۔ (رواه المسلم)

1091. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (one day) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to them and found them sitting in circles. So, he asked, "Why is it that I see you in separate groups?" (This was a sign of disunity.)
Again (one day), he came to them and said "why do you not form rows (in salah) as the angels do before their lord?" They asked, "O Messenger of Allah, how do the angels form themselves in rows before their lord?" He said, "They complete the first rows (before beginning another) and stand in the row close together."[3]

THE BEST ROWS

(١٠٩٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُ صُفُوْفِ الرِّجَالِ اَوَّلُهَا وَشَرُّهَا اٰخِرُهَا وَخَيْرُ صُفُوْفِ النِّسَاءِ اٰخِرُهَا وَشَرُّهَا اَوَّلُهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1092. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The best of the rows for men is the first of them and the worst is the last of them. The best of the rows for women is the last of them and the worst is the first of them."[4]

COMMENTARY: The best row is so described in terms of reward, men should Endeavour to get space in the first row and women should try to be in the last.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِىْ

NO SPACE IN BETWEEN

(١٠٩٣) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رُصُّوْا صُفُوْفَكُمْ وَقَارِبُوْا بَيْنَهَا وَحَاذُوْا بِالْاَعْنَاقِ فَوَالَّذِىْ نَفْسِىْ بِيَدِهٖ اِنِّىْ لَاَرَى الشَّيْطَانَ يَدْخُلُ مِنْ خَلَلِ الصَّفِّ كَاَنَّهَا الْحَذَفُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1093. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "keep your rows close together and let them be near to each other and keep your necks straight (by standing on an even place). By him who has my soul in his hand, I see the devil sneak through the gaps on your rows like the black young of a sheep."[1]

(١٠٩٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتِمُّوا الصَّفَّ الْمُقَدَّمَ ثُمَّ الَّذِىْ يَلِيْهِ فَمَا كَانَ مِنْ نَقْصٍ فَلْيَكُنْ فِى الصَّفِّ الْمُؤَخَّرِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1094. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Complete the leading (or first) row, then the one after it. So, whatever shortness there is, will be in the last row."[2]

MERIT OF THE FIRST ROW

(١٠٩٥) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهٗ يُصَلُّوْنَ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ يَلُوْنَ الصُّفُوْفَ الْاُوْلٰى وَمَا مِنْ خَطْوَةٍ اَحَبَّ اِلَى اللّٰهِ مِنْ خَطْوَةٍ يَمْشِيْهَا يَصِلُ بِهَا صَفًّا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1095. Sayyiduna al-Bara ibn Aazib رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, often, "Surely Allah and His angels bless those who are near the first rows. And no step is dearer to Allah than one taken to join a row."[3]

COMMENTARY: Since the second row too is excellent over the ones after it, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم included it in the first rows.

(١٠٩٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهٗ يُصَلُّوْنَ عَلٰى مَيَامِنِ الصُّفُوْفِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1096. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, Allah and His angels bless those who are on the right sides of the rows."[4]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that to stand to the right of the imam how so much away from him is better than standing to his left how so much close to him. However if there is unfilled space to his left then, to balance the two sides, it is better to stand on his left.

(۱۰۹۷) وَعَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيْرٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُسَوِّى صُفُوْفَنَا إِذَا أُقِيْمَتْ إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ فَإِذَا اسْتَوَيْنَا كَبَّرَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1097. Sayyiduna Numan ibn Bashir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the iqamah was called (and they stood for salah), Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to make their rows balanced and straight. When that was done, he called the takbir (Allahu Akabr)[1]

(۱۰۹۸) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ عَنْ يَمِيْنِهِ اِعْتَدِلُوْا سَوُّوْا صُفُوْفَكُمْ وَعَنْ يَسَارِهِ اِعْتَدِلُوْا سَوُّوْا صُفُوْفَكُمْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

SOFT SHOULDERS

(۱۰۹۹) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خِيَارُكُمْ أَلْيَنُكُمْ مَنَاكِبَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1099. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The best of you are they whose shoulders are the softest in salah."[3]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) have given many meanings of this hadith.

(i) It anyone stands in a row out of line and another man behind holds his shoulder to put him straight, he responds politely and corrects himself without demur.

(ii) It anyone finds a space in a row and tries to fill it up, the man there does not object but makes room for him.

(iii) It is a figurative way of describing someone's humility in salah. The best one in salah is he who is most attentive and composed while offering salah.

(۱۱۰۰) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اسْتَوُوْا اسْتَوُوْا. اِسْتَوُوْا فَوَالَّذِيْ نَفْسِيْ بِيَدِهٖ إِنِّيْ لَأَرَاكُمْ مِنْ خَلْفِيْ كَمَا أَرَاكُمْ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيَّ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1100. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to say, "Keep straight! Keep straight! Keep straight! For, by him who has my soul in his hand, I do see you behind me as I see you in front of me."[4]

(۱۱۰۱) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهٗ يُصَلُّوْنَ عَلَى الصَّفِّ

1101. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Surely, Allah and His angels bless the first row." The sahabah (companions) said, "O Messenger of Allah and the second? He said, "Allah and His angels bless the first row." They (again) asked, "O Messenger of Allah, and the second? He confirmed, "And the second."

And, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Straighten your rows. Keep your shoulders together. Be mild in the hands of your brothers. Fill up the gaps, for, the devil sneaks into the spaces between you like the young of sheep."[1]

COMMENTARY: Clearly, the hadith shows that the merit of the second row is lesser than the merit of the first.

(١١٠٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَقِيْمُوْا الصُّفُوْفَ وَحَاذُوْا بَيْنَ الْمَنَاكِبِ وَسُدُّوْا الْخَلَلَ وَلِيْنُوْا بِاَيْدِيْ اِخْوَانِكُمْ وَلَا تَذَرُوْا فُرُجَاتِ الشَّيْطَانِ وَمَنْ وَّصَلَ صَفًّا وَصَلَهُ اللّٰهُ وَمَنْ قَطَعَهٗ قَطَعَهُ اللّٰهُ۔ (رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَرَوَى النِّسَائِيُّ مِنْهُ قَوْلَهٗ مَنْ وَصَلَ صَفًّا اِلٰى اٰخِرِهٖ)

1102. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Keep the rows straight. Let the shoulders be balanced. Fill in the gaps. Be mild in the hands of your brothers. Leave no space for the devil. He who joins a row, Allah will join him (with his favour and mercy) but he who breaks a row, Allah will breaks a row, Allah will break him (by distancing him from himself).[2]

Nasa'i has it only from "he who joins a row...."

IMAM IN CENTRE

(١١٠٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَوَسَّطُوا الْاِمَامَ وَسُدُّوا الْخَلَلَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1103. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said "Let the imam be in the center (so that the right and the left to him are balanced). And fill in the gaps."[3]

FIRST ROW

حَتّٰى يُؤَخِّرُهُمُ اللّٰهُ فِي النَّارِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1104. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "People will not cease to keep back behind the first row till Allah puts them in hell somewhere back."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words somewhere back in hell' could also mean that the people who do not try to join the first row but keep to the back rows, Allah will consign them to hell as a last resort. Or, Allah will put them to a place to the back in hell.

SOLITARY MAN IN LAST ROW

1105. Sayyiduna wabisah ibn Mabad رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله عليه وسلم saw a man offering salah alone (in a row) behind the row (of worshippers). So, he instructed him to repeat the salah.[2]

COMMENTARY: There was space in the row ahead, yet he stood alone in the next row. So the prophet صلی الله عليه وسلم told him to repeat his salah as a mustahab (desirable) procedure.

If anyone stands alone in the last row, imam Abu Ahmad رضی الله عنه says that his salah will not be valid. However, Imam Abu Hanifah رضی الله عنه Imam Shafi رضی الله عنه and Imam Maalik رضی الله عنه say that while the salah will be valid, yet one should not stand alone. It is makruh (unbecoming).

CHAPTER - XXVI

WHERE MAY THE MUQTADI STAND — بَابُ الْمَوْقِفِ

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

(١١٠٦) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ بِتُّ فِيْ بَيْتِ خَالَتِيْ مَيْمُوْنَةَ فَقَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّيْ فَقُمْتُ عَنْ يَسَارِهٖ فَأَخَذَ بِيَدِيْ مِنْ وَرَاءِ ظَهْرِهٖ فَعَدَلَنِيْ كَذٰلِكَ مِنْ وَرَاءِ ظَهْرِهٖ إِلَى الشِّقِّ الْأَيْمَنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1106. Sayyiduna Abdullah Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that one night he slept at the house of his aunt sayyiduna Maymunah. رضی الله عنه Allah's Messenger صلی الله عليه وسلم stood up (for the tahajjud) and offered salah. So, he too stood at his left side, but he took him by his hand from behind his back and shifted him in this manner (here Abdullah رضی الله عنه indicated how he did it) from behind his back to the right side (of him).[3]

COMMENTARY: Sharah us Sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله عليه وسلم ) deduces many rulings from this hadith. They are:

(i) It is allowed to form a congregation for the supererogatory.

(ii) If there is only one muqtadi with the imam, then he should stand to the right of the imam.
(iii) Some movement or action is allowed while offering the salah.
(iv) The muqtadi is not allowed to come before (in front of) his imam. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not shift sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه from in front of him but brought him from behind his back to the right side.
(v) It is allowed to follow one who had not begun his salah with an intention to be an imam.

The Hidayah writes that, in the stated case, if a single muqtadi offers salah standing behind the imam or to his left, then it is allowed, but not good.

THREE MEN

1107. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم stood up to offer the salah. So, he too came and stood to his left, but he took him by his hand and brought him round to his right side. Then, (Sayyiduna) Jabbar ibn Sakhr رضى الله عنه came and stood to the left of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, but, he took them by their hands together and pushed them back till he had made them stand behind him.[1]

COMMENTARY: If there is only one muqtadi, he may stand to the imam's right side. More than one may stand behind the imam.

Qadi رحمه الله deduced from this hadith that if any one moves his hands in action once, or twice in succession, then his salah does not become invalid.

MEN & WOMEN MUQTADIS

(۱۱۰۸) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ صَلَّيْتُ اَنَا وَيَتِيْمٌ فِيْ بَيْتِنَا خَلْفَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَ اُمُّ سُلَيْمٍ خَلْفَنَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1108. Sayyiduna Aans رضى الله عنه narrated that he and an orphan offered salah in their house behind the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and (Sayyidah) umm Sulaym رضى الله عنه was behind them.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنه was the mother of Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه while the orphan was his brother. Some people say that the word yatim (orphan) was actually the boys name yatim. Others give his name damirah. This hadith is evidence that women must stand behind men in the congregation.

(۱۱۰۹) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلّٰى بِهٖ وَبِاُمِّهٖ اَوْخَالَتِهٖ قَالَ فَاَقَامَنِيْ عَنْ يَمِيْنِهٖ وَاَقَامَ الْمَرْاَةَ خَلْفَنَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1109. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم led him and his mother or his maternal aunt in salah. He said, "He made me stand to his right and made the woman stand behind us."[3]

(۱۱۱۰) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بَكْرَةَ اَنَّهُ اِنْتَهٰى اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ رَاكِعٌ فَرَكَعَ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّصِلَ اِلَى الصَّفِّ ثُمَّ مَشٰى اِلَى الصَّفِّ فَذَكَرَ ذٰلِكَ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ زَادَكَ اللّٰهُ حِرْصًا وَلَا تَعُدْ۔ (رواه البخارى)

1110. Sayyiduna Abu Bakrah رضى الله عنه narrated that he reached the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he was in the bowing posture. So he bowed before joining the row (to get that rakaah having formed the intention and called the takbir tahrimah). Then he walked (slowly) to the row. He mentioned that to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he said." May Allah multiply your zeal But, do not do it again."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Bakrah رضى الله عنه came to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when the congregational salah was in progress and he had gone into ruku so, he went into ruku after forming an intention and calling the takbir tharimah from his position without joining the row. Then he walked two steps or more up to the row without raising his feet but trailing slowly. The couple of steps do not necessitate repeating the salah though it is better not to do it.

The last words of the hadith (do not do it again) are reported in many ways:

(i) Exactly as they are reproduced here with a fathah (ˊ) on taa ت and dammah (ʹ) on ayn ع , from (to repeat), so, is do not repeat.

(ii) With a sukun (ʹ) on ayn ع and dammah(ʹ) on daal د to mean run, so do not run. In future, do not run to join the salah but be patient and walk to it, calmly and than begin the salah.

(iii) With a dammah (ʹ) on taa ت and a fathah (ˊ) on ayn ع, so would mean do not return, to say do not repeat the salah that you have offered.

However, only the first rendering seems sensible (do not do it again). This also means that if anyone forms his own row, it does not invalidate the salah because the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not ask Abu Bakrah رضى الله عنه to repeat the salah. Of course, it is disliked.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

ONE OF THREE IS IMAM

(۱۱۱۱) عَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ قَالَ اَمَرَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا كُنَّا ثَلَاثَةً اَنْ يَّتَقَدَّمَنَا اَحَدُنَا۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1111. Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded them, "when you are three (to offer the salah), one of you must (step forward to) head you,"[2]

MAKRUH (UNBECOMING) IF IMAM IS AT A DISTANCE

(۱۱۱۲) وَعَنْ عَمَّارٍ اَنَّهُ اَمَّ النَّاسَ بِالْمَدَائِنِ وَقَامَ عَلٰى دُكَّانٍ يُّصَلِّيْ وَالنَّاسُ اَسْفَلَ مِنْهُ فَتَقَدَّمَ حُذَيْفَةُ فَلَمَّا فَرَغَ عَمَّارٌ مِنْ صَلَاتِهٖ قَالَ لَهُ حُذَيْفَةُ اَلَمْ تَسْمَعْ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا اَمَّ الرَّجُلُ الْقَوْمَ فَلَا يَقُمْ فِيْ مَقَامٍ اَرْفَعَ مِنْ مَقَامِهِمْ اَوْ نَحْوَ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ عَمَّارٌ لِذٰلِكَ اتَّبَعْتُكَ حِيْنَ اَخَذْتَ عَلٰى يَدِيْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1112. Sayyiduna Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he was leading the people (in salah) in al-Mada in (a city near Kufah) standing on a raised platform to offer the salah while the people were lower than he was Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ stepped forward, took him by the hands and Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ followed him till Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ asked him, Had you not heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that when a man leads the people in salah, he must not stand in a place that is higher than their position? Or, something like that?" Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ said, "It is because of that I followed you when you held my hand.[1]

COMMENTARY: If the imam is in a higher place with some muqtadis and other muqtadis are lower than they are, then it is not makruh (unbecoming). But, if only the imam is at a higher position than all the muqtadis, then it is makruh (unbecoming). Sayyiduna Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ was alone in a higher place than all the muqtadis, so Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ broutht him down.

IF THE IMAM IS LOWER.....

If it is the other way about and the imam is lower than his followers, then the scholars differ on this question. Imam Tahawi رضی اللہ عنہ said that it is not makruh (unbecoming) because it does not resemble the procedure of the peoples of the book whose leader is always positioned at a higher level. However, common sense says that even this is makruh (unbecoming) because it places the imam in a disrespectful position and hurts his authority.

WHEN MAKRUH (UNBECOMING): Imam's standing higher alone than (all) his muqtadis is makruh (unbecoming), but how much higher? Some people say that it is makruh (unbecoming) if he stands higher than his followers up to the height of a man, but others put it at the height of a hand. The jurists have given their verdict on this last opinion, imam being higher by a hand's height. (is makruh (unbecoming)).

THE HADITH ITSELF: The words of the hadith do not say if Sayyiduna Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ had begun the salah or had merely decided to offer and was about to stand when Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ brought him down. It seems that he had not begun the salah but was about to form the intention.

Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ also said, "or something like that" about the exact words of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He did not remember the exact words of the hadith, so he gave the words he remembered and qualified with these words 'or ... like that?

Also Sayyiduna Ammar رضی اللہ عنہ was aware of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم command. Then why did he do as he did? The answer is that he had not remembered it till Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ told him of it. On remembering it, he got down obediently as a true, faithful sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ.

LOWER & ALONE TO TEACH

1113. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Sadi Said رضی اللہ عنہ is reported to have been asked, "of what was the pulpit (of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) made?" He said, "It was made of species of tamarisk from a thicket,[1] made by a certain man who was the freedman of a certain woman, for Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when it was ready and put in its place in the mosque Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم climbed it, faced the qiblah and called the takbir (for the salah). The people stood behind him. He recited the quran, made the ruku and they too made the ruku and he raised his head (from ruku). Then he moved back wards and prostrated himself on the ground (below the pulpit)." These are Bukari's words. In another version by both Bukhari and Muslim, after similar words, there is an addition: "when he finished the salah, he faced the people and said, 'O people, I did this only that you follow me and that you may know my salah (meaning its nature and procedure)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The thicket is near Madinah from where the wood was brought. It is about nine leagues from there.

The man belonged to Rome and the woman was Sayyidah Ayshah Ansariyah رضی اللہ عنہ.

Mawlan Mazhar رضی اللہ عنہ said that three steps led to the top of the pulpit and they were close together and it was very easy to climb up with just one. Footstep, or tow. Hence, it did not involve fil kathir (much activity) to cause the salah to be invalid.

This hadith is evidence that an imam is allowed to stand in a higher position alone (without any) muqtadi with him at the height) to let others far and near watch his movements.

This hadith ought to have been placed in section I because it belongs there, being a transmission of Bukhari and Muslim. The compiler of Mishkat has followed the compiler of Masabih in this regard.

I'TIKAF AND IMAMAH

(١١١٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ صَلّٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي حُجْرَةٍ وَالنَّاسُ يَأْتَمُّوْنَ بِهِ مِنْ وَرَاءِ الْحُجْرَةِ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

1114. Sayyiduna Ayashah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger offered the salah in his (makeshift) room and the people followed his lead from outside (that) room.[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith pertains to the month of Ramadan. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was observing I'tikaf in a portion of the mosque and had put up a makeshift recluse for himself. He offered the tarawih in it for some nights and the sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہ followed him from outside the recluse.

(١١١٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مَالِكٍ الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ اَلَا اُحَدِّثُكُمْ بِصَلَاةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَقَامَ الصَّلَاةَ وَصَفَّ الرِّجَالَ وَصَفَّ خَلْفَهُمُ الْغِلْمَانَ ثُمَّ صَلّٰى بِهِمْ فَذَكَرَ صَلَاتَهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ هٰكَذَا صَلٰوةُ قَالَ عَبْدُ الْاَعْلٰى لَا اَحْسِبُهُ اِلَّا قَالَ اُمَّتِيْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1115. Sayyiduna Abu Maalik al- Ashari رضی الله عنه narrated, "Shall I not describe to you the nature of the salah of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم? He had the people stand for the salah (with the iqamah) and had the men stand in row, followed by the boys behind them. Then he led them in salah." He mentioned his salah and (then said) the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم (offered the salah and) said, "I think he (Abu Maalik رضی الله عنه) said, 'of my ummah." In other words Abu Maalik رضی الله عنه concluded the hadith: the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said (هٰكَذَا صَلٰوةُ اُمَّتِيْ) (This is how the salah of my ummah is)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The concluding words of the hadith mean, "The members of my ummah should offer the salah as described to them. Those who do not follow the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) in offering the salah show by their deeds that they are not obedient members of the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم ummah.

(١١١٦) وَعَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ عُبَادٍ قَالَ بَيْنَا اَنَا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فِي الصَّفِّ الْمُقَدَّمِ فَجَبَذَنِيْ رَجُلٌ مِنْ خَلْفِيْ جَبْذَةً فَنَحَّانِيْ وَقَامَ مَقَامِيْ فَوَاللّٰهِ مَا عَقَلْتُ صَلَاتِيْ فَلَمَّا انْصَرَفَ اِذَا هُوَ اُبَيُّ بْنُ كَعْبٍ فَقَالَ يَا فَتٰى لَا يَسُوْءُكَ اللّٰهُ اِنَّ هٰذَا عَهْدٌ مِنَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِلَيْنَا اَنْ نَلِيَهُ ثُمَّ اسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ فَقَالَ هَلَكَ اَهْلُ الْعَقْدِ وَرَبِّ الْكَعْبَةِ ثَلَاثًا ثُمَّ قَالَ وَوَاللّٰهِ مَا عَلَيْهِمْ اٰسٰى وَلٰكِنْ اٰسٰى عَلٰى مَنْ اَضَلُّوْا قُلْتُ يَا اَبَا يَعْقُوْبَ مَا تَعْنِيْ بِاَهْلِ الْعَقْدِ قَالَ الْاُمَرَاءُ۔ (رواه النسائی)

1116. Sayyiduna Qays ibn Ubad رحمه الله narrated that (one day) while he was (offering salah) in the mosque in the first row, someone pulled him from behind him, moved him aside and took his place. He swore by Allah that he (was so angry that he) lost count of his salah. When that man finished his salah and Qays looked at him, he was (Sayyiduna) Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی الله عنه who said, "O young man, may Allah not grieve you. (I did what I did because) this is an instruction of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم to us that we should stand near him (so, after him we keep standing near the imam)." Then, he faced the qiblah and said three times, "By the lord of the Ka'bah, ahl ul- aqd have perished!" (He meant the chiefs). Again, he said, "By Allah, I do not grieve for them, but I grieve for those whom they have misled." Qays asked (him),"O Abu Ya'qub, what do you mean by ahl ul-aqd?" He said, "The amirs (chiefs and rulers)."[2]

[1] Abu Dawud # 677

[2] Nasa'i # 808, Musnad Ahmad 5-140.

COMMENTARY: Syyiduna Ubayy Ibn Ka'b رضی الله عنه referred to the saying of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم :

لِيَلِيَنِي مِنْكُمْ أُولُو الْأَحْلَامِ وَالنُّهٰى

"The wise and sagacious among you must be nearer to me."

Since Qays ibn Ubad رحمه الله did not qualify for that Ubayy Ibn Ka'b moved him from there and himself took his place.

The ahlul-aql have perished because they fail in their responsibilities which include taking care of their subjects, their conduct, religion, worldly affairs, even straightening their rows. Those chiefs and rulers who supervised these things have disappeared now, they do not guide their subjects to the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ). The result is that people have become lazy and have gone astray.

Sayyiduna ka'b رضی الله عنه died in the times of Syyiduna Uthman رضی الله عنه, so clearly he did not refer to the caliph. Perhaps, he had in mind some of his amirs who did not discharge their duties faithfully.

CHAPER - XXVII

IMAMAH (THE OFFICE OF THE IMAM) بَابُ الْإِمَامَةِ

The imam for the salah has a very significant place and duty imposed on him by shari'ah (divine law), He is responsible for the salah of all the muqtadis. Shari'ah (divine law) has laid some conditions for appointing an imam and has defined the qualities of this man. This chapter includes ahadith about those things that must be considered before appointing an imam.

The correct procedure is that the muqtadis should choose the most deserving man among them. If there are many who qualify as imam then they must go by majority opinion and choose their imam. If they ignore the deserving and appoint an unworthy and unqualified man, then all the worshippers will be guilty of abandoning the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ).

1. The most deserving for the office of imam is he who is the most learned in the rulings of the salah and is not known for any kind of sin and such other things, and has committed to memory the minimum of the Qur'an prescribed by the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ).
2. He recites the Qur'an in a good voice according to the rules of reciting.
3. He is the most good - looking.
4. He is the oldest.
5. He is the most polite.
6. He is the most God fearing and abstinent.
7. He is the most well-dressed.
8. He has the biggest head,
9. He is a resident relative to travellers.
10. He is a born free man.
11. He who has offset hadath asghar (min impurity) by tayammum compared to one who has offset hadath akbar (major impurity) by tayammum.

He who possesses two qualities is more deserving to be imam than one who possesses one quality. For example, he who is more learned in rules of the salah and the qur'an is more deserving than he who knows the rules of the Quran only.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE DESERVING

(١١١٧) عَنْ اَبِیْ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَؤُمُّ الْقَوْمَ اَقْرَأُهُمْ لِكِتَابِ اللّٰهِ فَاِنْ كَانُوْا فِی الْقِرَاءَةِ سَوَاءً فَاَعْلَمُهُمْ بِالسُّنَّةِ فَاِنْ كَانُوْا فِی السُّنَّةِ سَوَآءً فَاَقْدَمُهُمْ هِجْرَةً فَاِنْ كَانُوْا فِی الْهِجْرَةِ سَوَاءً فَاَقْدَمُهُمْ سِنًّا وَلَا يُؤَمَّنَّ الرَّجُلُ الرَّجُلَ فِیْ سُلْطَانِهٖ وَلَا يَقْعُدُ فِیْ بَيْتِهٖ عَلٰى تَكْرِمَتِهٖ اِلَّا بِاِذْنِهٖ) رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَفِیْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهٗ وَلَا يُؤَمَّنَّ الرَّجُلُ الرَّجُلَ فِیْ اَهْلِهٖ۔

1117. Sayyiduna Abu Masud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, He should lead the people as imam who is (well aware of the rules governing salah and is) most read in the Qur'an (and learned in rule of recital and the best reciter of all men). If they are at par in reciting the quran then he who has most knowledge of the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم*)*. If they are at par in the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم*)*, then the first of them to have emigrated (to Madinah). If they had emigrated togather, then the oldest of them. (should lead them). No man should lead another in the latter's dominion (where he is imam) and not sit in his place of honour in his house unless he has his permission." According to another version: "And a man must not lead another as imam in his house (without his permission even if he is more learned than the owner of the house)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allamah teebi رحمه الله said about possessing most knowledge of the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم ) that sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم ) means the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم ahadith. The person who knew most ahadith was regarded by the sahbah رضی الله عنه as a great faqih. Imam Ahmad رحمه الله and Imam Abu Yusuf رضی الله عنه abide by this hadith and prefer a qari (one who recites the qur'an according to the rules) over a scholar.

Imam abu Hanifah رحمه الله, Imam Muhammad رحمه الله, Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Shafi رحمه الله hold that the more learned and faqih is more suitable as imam than a great qari, because reciting the Quran is called for only in one posture (while knowledge is necessary throughout). The ahadith that prefer a qari over a scholar may be explained that in the times of the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم the qari was also a great scholar. They learnt the qur'an with its commands. However, in our times most qaris are unaware of the rules, so the scholar is preferred. Moreover, in his illness that led to his death the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم instructed sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه to lead the salah though he was not a qari but the best scholar (among the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنه). There were better qaris than he.

As for emigration (hijrah), Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that since hijrah is over, instead of true hijrah (emigration) the figurative emigration is done from sins. Hence, the ulama (Scholars) have placed the most righteous and abstinent after the most learned and (will-versed) reciter of the Qur'an as eligible as imam.

The jurists have mentioned other characteristics. If all are of equal age then respectively age, manners, looks, dress and nobility are considered. If they are at par in these things then either lots should be drawn or the choice be left to the people.
No one may take over as imam where another is leading or represents a ruler. This is more marked on eeds and Friday.

Indeed, we have the example of Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ that, in spite of his excellence, knowledge and righteousness, he offered salah behind an oppressor and sinner like hajjaj ibn yusuf.

(۱۱۱۸) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ سَعِیْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰہِ صَلَّی اللّٰہُ عَلَیْہِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا کَانُوْا ثَلَاثَۃً فَلْیَؤُمَّھُمْ اَحَدُھُمْ وَاَحَقُّھُمْ بِالْاِمَامَۃِ اَقْرَأُھُمْ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

1118. Sayyiduna Abu sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When there are three (to offer the salah), one of them must act as their imam. The one most deserving of them to act as imam is the most learned of them."[1]

COMMENTARY: Though the hadith mentions three, even if there are two or more than three, the some command applies, one will be imam. Allamah teebi رحمہ اللہ said that most of the sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہ were old when they embraced Islam. So, before reciting the Qur'an, they acquired knowledge of religion. Later, however, people learnt to recite the Qur'an in early life before acquiring religious knowledge.
As for imam, a scholar will be preferred to a good qari, but he will not gain preference over a qari who has more knowledge of the concerned field.
The hadith of Maalik ibn al- Huwayrith رضی اللہ عنہ is mentioned in the chapter (VII) (#682): "some rules about adhan" (The complier of al- Masabih had placed it here, but we have retained it there.)

(۱۱۱۹) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰہِ صَلَّی اللّٰہُ عَلَیْہِ وَسَلَّمَ لِیُؤَذِّنْ لَکُمْ خِیَارُکُمْ وَلْیَؤُمَّکُمْ قُرَّاءُکُمْ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

1119. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The best among you should call the adhan for you and the most learned among you should act as your imams."[2]

COMMENTARY: The responsibility to observe the hours of salah and fasting rests on the muadhdhin. When he stands on a higher place to call the adhan, his sight may fall into homes. If he is honest and religious, he will respect the hours of fasting and salah and keep his gaze away from stranger women.

(۱۱۲۰) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ عَطِیَّۃَ الْعُقَیْلِیْ قَالَ کَانَ مَالِکُ بْنُ الْحُوَیْرِثِ یَأْتِیْنَا اِلٰی مُصَلَّانَا یَتَحَدَّثُ فَحَضَرَتِ الصَّلٰوۃُ

يَوْمًا قَالَ اَبُوْ عَطِيَّةَ فَقُلْنَا لَهُ تَقَدَّمْ فَصَلِّهْ قَالَ لَنَا قَدِّمُوْا رَجُلًا مِنْكُمْ يُصَلِّي بِكُمْ وَسَأُحَدِّثُكُمْ لِمَ لَا اُصَلِّي بِكُمْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ زَارَ قَوْمًا فَلَا يَؤُمَّهُمْ وَلْيَؤُمَّهُمْ رَجُلٌ مِنْهُمْ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ اِلَّا اَنَّهُ اقْتَصَرَ عَلٰى لَفْظِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔

1120. Sayyiduna Abu Atiyah al-uqayl: narrated that (Sayyiduna) Maalik Ibn Huwayrith رضی الله عنه came to their mosque. He narrated to them the ahadith of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. One day (while he was there), it was time for salah, they requested him to step forward and lead the salah. However, he said that they should let one of their own step forward and conduct them in salah and added that he would disclose to them why he would not lead them in salah. Then he said that he had heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "If anyone visits a people, then he must not lead them as imam but one of their own must act as their imam."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Maalik رضی الله عنه preferred to abide by the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم command rather than seize their invitation to lead the congregation.

BLIND IMAM

(١١٢١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ اسْتَخْلَفَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ابْنَ اُمِّ مَكْتُوْمٍ يَؤُمُّ النَّاسَ وَهُوَ اَعْمٰى۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1121. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم appointed (Sayyiduna) Ibn umm Maktum رضی الله عنه as his deputy to lead the people in salah though he was blind.[2]

COMMENTARY: This proves that a blind man may be imam. If he also is learned then he is preferable.

DISLIKED IMAM

(١١٢٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثَةٌ لَا تُجَاوِزُ صَلَاتُهُمْ اٰذَانَهُمْ اَلْعَبْدُ الْاٰبِقُ حَتّٰى يَرْجِعَ وَامْرَاَةٌ بَاتَتْ وَ زَوْجُهَا عَلَيْهَا سَاخِطٌ وَاِمَامُ قَوْمٍ وَهُمْ لَهُ كَارِهُوْنَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1122. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The salah of three people does not go beyond their ears (meaning is not accepted): a runaway slave until he returns (to his master), a woman whose husband is displeased with her all night (while she sleeps) and an imam whose people dislike him."[3]

COMMENTARY: The runaway slave includes both male and female slaves.

The woman's salah not being accepted is when she is bad mannered and her husband is displeased with her because of that and her disobedience. But, if he himself is bad mannered and is displeased with her for no fault of hers then she is not sinful.

The imam's case is when he is an innovator and sinner but if his people dislike him for a worldly reason then he is not a sinner. The hadith does not censure him. The muqtadis will be sinners in that case. As for the imam, he is the imam who leads the salah and also he who reules as a ruler or a khalifah.

THREE MORE PEOPLE

(١١٢٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثَةٌ لَّا تُقْبَلُ مِنْهُمْ صَلَاتُهُمْ مَنْ تَقَدَّمَ قَوْمًا وَهُمْ لَهُ كَارِهُوْنَ وَرَجُلٌ اَتَى الصَّلَاةَ دِبَارًا وَالدِّبَارُ اَنْ يَّاْتِيَهَا بَعْدَ اَنْ تَفُوْتَهُ وَرَجُلٌ اعْتَبَدَ مُحَرَّرَةً۔ (رواه ابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

1123. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The salah of three people is not accepted from them he is the imam (leader) of a people and they dislike him, he who comes to the salah behind time, meaning after the (mustahab (desirable)) time in over; and, he who regards a free person to be a slave."[1]

COMMENTARY: To regard a free person as a slave is to emancipate a slave but continue to press him to work for him. Or, to emancipate him but conceal the freedom of the slave from the slave. Or, two say about a free man that he is his slave and treat him as a slave, or, to buy a slave illegally (not as sanctioned by shari'ah (divine law)) and treat him or her as his property, as people buy male and female slaves in a way not allowed by Shari'ah (divine law). The jurists explain a slave, male or female, as recognized by Shari'ah (divine law) in these words.
"If an army of Muslims from the land of Islam invades deer ul- harb (enemy territory) and conquers it and captures men and women, young and old who are disbelievers and treats these captives as slaves and brings them to the land of Islam (Darrul - Islam), and so, too, the warring infidels of a country conquer the warring infidels of another country and bring them as captives,
Then, in both cases, the captors, whether muslims or infidels, are owners of the captives. They are allowed to buy and sell them sexual intercourse with the female slaves without marrying them. All these kinds of uses as owners are allowed.
Moreover, the children of the female slaves also fall in the same category as the slaves, provided they are not sired by the owner or his descendant, for, if they are sired by one of them, then they will be free."
The jurists have also mentioned other kinds besides these two. They have said about some that they are not recognized by Shari'ah (divine law), and they disagree about the legality of some others. However, the correct thing is that apart from the two aforementioned, all other kinds are not recognized by Shari'ah (divine law), so their buying and selling is also not allowed by Shari'ah (divine law).
Hence, Muslims must be careful in this regard. It they are not recognized by Shari'ah (divine law) then Muslims should not treat them slaves and they must not have sexual intercourse with a woman who is not recognized as a female slave by Shari'ah (divine law) for that is unlawful and adultery. Similarly, they must not be compelled to do other kind of work as if they were their properties.

REFRAINING FROM IMAMAH

(١١٢٤) وَعَنْ سُلَامَةَ بِنْتِ الْحُرِّ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ مِنْ أَشْرَاطِ السَّاعَةِ أَنْ يَتَدَافَعَ أَهْلُ الْمَسْجِدِ لَا يَجِدُوْنَ إِمَامًا يُصَلِّي بِهِمْ۔ (رواه احمد و ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

1124. Sayyidah sulama (Scholars)h bint al- Hurr رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "One of the portents of the Last Hour is that people of the mosques will put off imamah (meaning, will refuse to act as imam) and they will not find anyone to lead them in salah."[1]

COMMENTARY: This is an allegorical picture of the last times when ignorance and sin will prevail. There will be no one worthy of imamah. People will ask each other to lead in salah but everyone will refuse to act as imam.

Of curse, if anyone regards another as better than him and requests him to lead then he does not fall in the purview of this hadith. There is no harm is stepping down for a better man.

SINNER AS IMAM

(١١٢٥) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْجِهَادُ وَاجِبٌ عَلَيْكُمْ مَعَ كُلِّ أَمِيْرٍ بَرًّا كَانَ أَوْ فَاجِرًا وَإِنْ عَمِلَ الْكَبَائِرَ وَالصَّلَاةُ وَاجِبَةٌ عَلَيْكُمْ خَلْفَ كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ بَرًّا كَانَ أَوْ فَاجِرًا وَإِنْ عَمِلَ الْكَبَائِرَ وَالصَّلَاةُ وَاجِبَةٌ عَلٰى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ بَرًّا كَانَ أَوْ فَاجِرًا وَإِنْ عَمِلَ الْكَبَائِرَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1125. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Jihad is wajib (expedient) on you under every (kind of) commander be he pious or evil, even if he perpetrates grave (or major) sins. And, salah is wajib (expedient) on you behind every Muslim be he pious or evil, even if he commits major sins. And, (the funeral) salah is wajib (expedient) on every Muslim be he pious or evil, even if he commits major sins."[2]

COMMENTARY: That jihad is wajib (expedient) means that in some conditions it is fard (obligatory) ayn (obligatory duty on all) and in some cases it is fard (obligatory) kifayah (an obligation that may be discharged by some to absolve all of the duty).

Salah may be offered behind any muslim even if he is immodest but provided his indecency does not fall into infidelity. While one's salah behind an immodest, grave sinner is discharged yet it is makruh (unbecoming) to offer it behind him. The ulama (Scholars) say that in the presence of the pious, a sinner should not lead the people in salah.

It is fard (obligatory) kifayah for every Muslim to offer the funeral salah.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

MINOR AS IMAM

(١١٢٦) عَنْ عَمْرِو ابْنِ سَلِمَةَ قَالَ كُنَّا بِمَاءٍ مَمَرِّ النَّاسِ يَمُرُّ بِنَا الرُّكْبَانُ نَسْأَلُهُمْ مَا لِلنَّاسِ؟ مَا لِلنَّاسِ؟ مَا هٰذَا الرَّجُلِ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ يَزْعَمُ أَنَّ اللّٰهَ أَرْسَلَهُ أَوْحٰى إِلَيْهِ أَوْحٰى إِلَيْهِ كَذَا فَكُنْتُ أَحْفَظُ ذٰلِكَ الْكَلَامَ

1126. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Salimah رضى الله عنه narrated: We lived at the edge of water by which people passed. The caravans used to travel by us. We used to ask them, "what is it (the religion that a man, meaning the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, has brought) for the people? What is it? What are the attributes of this man?" they would tell us, "He asserts that Allah has sent him (as His true messenger)." And, (they recited the Qur'an and would say,) "He gets revelation. He gets a revelation like this..." I would memorise that saying. Meaning the verses that they recited as though they were glued to my heart (the verses came to memory automatically). The Arabs (other than those with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) waited for the conquest of Makkah (before embracing Islam). They would say, "leave him and his people. If he emerges victorious then he is a true prophet (because that will be a miracle which only a true Prophet can show)." Then, (Allah gave him supremacy and) Makkah was conquered, people accepted Islam in large numbers. My father was the first man of my tribe to accept Islam. When he returned, he said (to his tribe), "By Allah, I have come from a true Prophet. He said, 'Offer (such) salah at (such) time and (such) salah at (such) time. When the time of salah comes. Let one of you call the adhan and one among you who knows the Qur'an most should act as your imam." They sought (when it was time for the salah) but there was none who knew more of the qur'an than I did because of what I had retained from the men of the caravan. So, they made me stand in front of them. I was just six years or seven years old. I had on me a mantle which, when I prostrated myself, slipped off from me (baring my back). A woman of the tribe (saw this and) asked," Why do you not cover the back of your imam from us?" So, they bought and cut out a shirt for me. Nothing delighted me as much I was delighted with that shirt.[1]

COMMENTARY: Normally, the name is spelt salamah, but this man who became the imam of his tribe, Amr رضى الله عنه, his father was salimah.

The ulama (Scholars) differ on whether Amr had gone with his father salimah to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم or not to embrace Islam. Again, because of this, they also differ on whether Amr was a sahabi or not. On the face of it, he seems not to have gone and his father had gone alone to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Imam shafi رضى الله عنه goes by this hadith and says that a minor boy may act as imam. It is allowed. As for Friday, two verdicts are known from him.

(i) He regards that it is allowed for a minor to lead the Friday prayers.

(ii) He holds that a minor is not allowed to lead the Friday prayer.

Imam Hanifah رحمه الله, Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله hold that the imamah of a minor boy is not permitted. As for the imamah of a minor boy over the supererogatory salah, the Hanafi ulama (Scholars) disagree on whether it is allowed or disallowed. The scholars of Balkh hold that a minor boy is allowed to act as imam over (the optional) salah, and they do put it into practice. This is also acted on in Egypt and shaam (Syria). Other scholars, apart from these, regard it as unlawful for a minor boy to act as imam over the optional salah and this is abided by in Ma wara an nahr[1] ZayI رحمه الله has explained that the Hanafis go by the saying of Sayyiduna Ibn Masud رضی الله عنه "the boy who cannot be awarded the huddud (prescribed punishments) cannot be an imam." Also, Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said, "Only when one attains maturity may he qualify to be an imam."

Hence, one is not allowed to offer the fard (obligatory) salah behind a minor boy. As for Amr ibn salimah, he did not act as imam on the instruction of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, but his tribesmen made their own independent judgement in this regard because he had learnt the Qur'an from the travellers of the caravan, and made him Imam.

It is astonishing that the shafis do not follow the opinions of the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنه like Sayyiduna Abu Bakr, رضی الله عنه umar رضی الله عنه and other, but cite the action of a miner boy, Amr ibn Salimah.

FREEDMAN AS IMAM

(١١٢٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ لَمَّا قَدِمَ الْمُهَاجِرُوْنَ الْاَوَّلُوْنَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ كَانَ يَؤُمُّهُمْ سَالِمٌ مَوْلٰى اَبِي حُذَيْفَةَ وَفِيْهِمْ عُمَرُ وَاَبُوْسَلَمَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْاَسَدِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1127. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that when the first muhajirs (emigrants) came to Madinah, Sayyiduna Saalim رضی الله عنه the freedman of sayyiduna Abu Hudhayfah رضی الله عنه led them in salah. Among them (the muqtadis) were Umar رضی الله عنه and Abu Salamah ibn Abdul Asad. رضی الله عنه[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Saalim رضی الله عنه was a great qari (re_iter of the Qur'an). He was among the greats of very high rank.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had instructed the Muslims, "Learn the Quran from four men... "He had named Saalim رضی الله عنه as one of them.

He was made imam in the presence of Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه and Sattiduna Abu salamah ibn Abdul Asad رضی الله عنه and other great and meritorious sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنه. This was either because he was a great reciter of the Quran or for some other reason.

WHOSE SALAH IS NOT ACCEPTED

1128. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said "Three people there are for whom their Salah does not rise even a span above their heads: a man who is imam of some people but they do not like him (in religious matters); a woman who passes the night while her husband is angry at her (because of her disobedience or violation of his nights) and two brothers who are on bad terms with one another."[1]

COMMENTARY: The salah of two brothers who are not on good terms with one another is not accepted if they continue to stop greeting one another and converse for over three days.

CHAPTER - XXVIII

THE IMAM'S DUTIES — بَابُ مَا عَلَى الْإِمَامِ

In this chapter, those ahadith will be reproduced as tell the imam what is due from him towards showing consideration to his muqtadis.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْأَوَّلُ

LET SALAH BE LIGHT

(١١٢٩) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ مَا صَلَّيْتُ وَرَاءَ إِمَامٍ قَطُّ أَخَفَّ صَلَاةً وَلَا أَتَمَّ صَلَاةً مِنَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَ إِنْ كَانَ لَيَسْمَعُ بُكَاءَ الصَّبِيِّ فَيُخَفِّفُ مَخَافَةَ أَنْ تُفْتَنَ أُمُّهُ۔ (متفق علیه)

1129. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that he had never offered salah behind an imam whose salah was shorter and more complete than the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم. And, if he heard a child cry, he would shorten the salah for fear that its mother would be put to trial (being worried).[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم did not make an extraordinarily lengthy recital and the tasbihs, and did not stretch the letters in reciting the Quran. It was a straight forward unpretentious recital in the tartil form of reading. It was the characteristic of his recital that even if it was lengthy, people found it to be graceful and unburden some.

According to the hanafis, the imam must not make his salah long both while reciting and making ruku and sajdah. If it is prolonged, people loose concentration and this is makruh (unbecoming). But, if the muqtadis themselves wish for it then he may prolong the salah, further, an imam must not shorten his salah beyond the shortest masnun level in order to gratify the muqtadis.

About the last sentence of the hadith that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم made concession for a child when it wept, khattabi has this to explain: "There is evidence in it that if while the imam is in ruku and hears the footsteps of someone, coming to the congregation, he is allowed to wait for him that he may catch up with him in ruku. However, some people have said that it is makruh (unbecoming) and say that he might approach polytheism. This is the opinion of Imam Maalik رحمه الله Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that if the imam prolongs the ruku not with an intention to gain nearness to Allah but to accommodate the person approaching then it is makruh (unbecoming) tahrimi and it is possible that he might be guilty of a greater sin but not to the limit of disbelief or polytheism because it was not his intention to worship someone other than Allah.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that if the imam does not recognize the person coming to join, then there is no harm in prolonging the ruku. The correct thing, however, is that this should not be done.

If the imam prolongs the ruku to gain nearness to Allah and has no other intention then there is no harm. However, extreme caution should be exercised because this is a rare case and this is known as ostentation.

(١١٣٠) وَعَنْ اَبِي قَتَادَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّي لَاَدْخُلُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ وَاَنَا اُرِيْدُ اِطَالَتَهَا فَاَسْمَعُ بُكَاءَ الصَّبِيِّ فَاَتَجَوَّزُ فِي صَلَاتِي مِمَّا اَعْلَمُ مِنْ شِدَّةِ وَجْدِ اُمِّهِ مِنْ بُكَائِهِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1130. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "when I begin the salah, I hope to make it long. But, I hear a child cry and I make my salah short knowing that its mother will find it very trying because of its crying."[1]

(١١٣١) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا صَلَّى اَحَدُكُمْ لِلنَّاسِ فَلْيُخَفِّفْ فَإِنَّ فِيهِمُ السَّقِيْمَ وَالضَّعِيْفَ وَالْكَبِيْرَ وَإِذَا صَلَّى اَحَدُكُمْ لِنَفْسِهِ فَلْيُطَوِّلْ مَاشَاءَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1131. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When any of you leads the people in salah, he must make it short, for, there are among them the sick, the feeble and the old. But, when any of you offers salah by himself, he may make it long as much as he wishes."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith dvises the imam to be considerate to the muqtadis. He must not burden them with a lengthy salah; and they might stop joining the congregation. Anyone who is offering the salah by himself then he is at liberty to lengthen it as much as he likes. Also, if all the muqtadis are willing and there is no sick, weak or handicapped among them then the Imam is at liberty to offer a lengthy salah.

(١١٣٢) وَعَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ اَبِي حَازِمٍ قَالَ اَخْبَرَنِيْ اَبُوْمَسْعُوْدٍ اَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ وَ اللّٰهِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنِّي لَاَتَأَخَّرُ عَنْ صَلَاةِ الْغَدَاةِ مِنْ اَجْلِ فُلَانٍ مِمَّا يُطِيْلُ بِنَا فَمَا رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي مَوْعِظَةٍ اَشَدَّ غَضَبًا مِنْهُ يَوْمَئِذٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ إِنَّ مِنْكُمْ مُنَفِّرِيْنَ فَاَيُّكُمْ مَاصَلَّى بِالنَّاسِ فَلْيَتَجَوَّزْ فَإِنَّ فِيهِمُ الضَّعِيْفَ وَالْكَبِيْرَ وَذَا الْحَاجَةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1132. Sayyiduna Qays ibn Hazim رحمه الله narrated that (Sayyiduna) Abu Masud رضی الله عنه said to him that a man complained (to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, I keep away from the salah of fajr because of so and so who leads us through an very lengthy salah." Abn Masud رحمه الله said that he never saw Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم more angry while admonishing anyone as he was that day. He said. "Some of you cause people to detest (by prolonging the salah). Know! Whoever among you leads the people in salah must make it brief because among the muqtadis are the weak, old and with some work to look after."[1]

IMAM WHO IS CARELESS

(۱۱۳۳) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلُّوْنَ لَكُمْ فَاِنْ اَصَابُوْا فَلَكُمْ وَاِنْ اَخْطَأُوْا فَلَكُمْ وَعَلَيْهِمْ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1133. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "They lead you in salah and if they perform well, then for you is the reward (and for them, too), but if they commit mistakes then for you is (still) the reward and on them is the sin."[2]

COMMENTARY: If the imam leads the salah in a proper way as taught by shariah then clearly he and the muqtadis will get reward. If he ignores the way taught by shariah and sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* then the muqtadis will not be responsible. Even in this case, they will earn reward for their effort and joining the congregation. The imam will bear the repercussions of his carelessness and mistakes.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructs the Muslims through this hadith that the wrongdoing rulers who will act as imams will neglect the commands and etiquettes. So, they must offer their salah in a correct way while the imam will shoulder the consequences of his blunders.

1134. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Abul Aas رضى الله عنه narrated that the final instructions that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم gave him were: "when you act as imam of some people, make the salah brief for them."

According to another version from him, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "Act as imam for your people." He pleaded, "O Messenger of Allah, I find some problem in myself." He said, "Come near and sit down before me." Then he placed his hand on his breast between his nipples and then asked him to turn about and put his hand on his back between his shoulders, and said again, "Act as imam for your people. Whose leads his people, must make the salah short, for there are among them the old, and among them are the sick, and among them are the weak, and among them they who have to attend to work. And, when one of you offers salah by himself, he may offer it as he wishes."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna uthman ibn Abul Aas رضی الله عنه felt that he was not able to discharge the duties of imam or he get some doubts and had misgivings or while leading in salah, he felt proud and naughty. The prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم stroked his chest and back to remove those things from him.

As for the individual one engaged in salah, the ulama (Scholars) say that it is better for him to make his salah longer.

It is very strange with the imams these days. When they lead the people in salah, they make it very lengthy, but when they offer their own salah, they make it the very minimum that is enough to make it valid. They need to ponder over it.

1135. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم instructed them to make the salah short. As their imam, he recited surah as. Saffaat.[2]

COMMENTARY: While he instructed others to make their salah brief, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم himself recited a lengthy surah, as-Saffaat. The ulama (Scholars) explain that he recited many verses in a very short time and it did not prove hard on the people. This characteristic was not available to other people.

CHAPTER - XXIX

THE DUTIES OF THE MUQTADI & THE RULES ABOUT THE MASBOOQ

بَابُ مَا عَلَى الْمَامُوْمِ مِنَ الْمُتَابِعَةِ وَحُكْمِ الْمَسْبُوْقِ

The ahadith in this chapter outline how much the muqtadi in required to follow the imam and how should he do it.

There also are ahadith that give the rules that apply to the masbuq and how may he complete the part of his salah he had missed. In the previous pages, the masbuq is defined as one who joins the congregation after the imam has offered one raka'ah or more.

The rules that apply to the muqtadi have been explained against these ahadith. Apart from this, the overall rule is that those actions of the salah that are fard (obligatory) or wajib (expedient), are wajib (expedient) for the muqtadis to follow. Those actions that are sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم*)*, etc.the muqtadis are not bound to follow. Thus, if the imam is a Shafii and makes rafa yadayn while going to ruku or arising from it, then the Hanafi muqtadis are not required to raise hands because rafa yadayn is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) even in their sight on these two occasions. Also, a shafii imam recites the qunut in the salah of fajr then it is not wajib (expedient) on the hanafi muqtadis to recite the qunut. It is wajib (expedient) to recite it in the night. Also, if a shafi imam recites the qunut after ruku the hanafi muqtadis too must emulate him and recite it after ruku (Ilmul-fiqh).

SECTION I الفصل الأول

FOLLOW THE IMAM

(١١٣٦) عَنْ بَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ كُنَّا نُصَلِّي خَلْفَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَإِذَا قَالَ سَمِعَ اللّٰهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ لَمْ يَحْنِ أَحَدٌ مِنَّا ظَهْرَهُ حَتَّى يَضَعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَبْهَتَهُ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1136. Sayyiduna Al-Bara ibn Aazib رضى الله عنه narrated "We offered salah behind the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and when he said سمع الله لمن حمده (on arising from ruku), none of as bowed his back (to get down) until the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had put his fore head on the ground."[1]

COMMENTARY: Mawlana Mazhar رحمه الله said that it is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) for the muqtadi to make his postures of the salah this much after the imams. postures as stated in this hadith, but if there is not as much gap between their actions then too it is allowed. However, it is essential for the muqtadi at the time of takbir tahrimah to wait for the imam to complete it, and then call it himself.

However, the Hanafi fiqh ruses that for the muqtadi it is wajib (expedient) to follow the imam simultaneously without any delay, even the takbir tahrimah. Only in the first qadah if the muqtadi has not finished the at tahiyyat while the imam gets up, he must complete it before getting up. But, if the imam arises from ruku and sajdah before the muqtadi has completed the tasbihs, then the muqtadi must join the imam without completing the tasbihs.

If the muqtadi raises his head from ruku or sajdah before the imam has raised his, then he must revert to ruku or sajdah as the case may be. Then he must arise with the imam, and this will not count as two ruku or two sajdah, but just one.

DO NOT PRECEDE IMAM

(١١٣٧) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ صَلَّى بِنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ فَلَمَّا قَضٰى صَلَاتَهُ أَقْبَلَ عَلَيْنَا بِوَجْهِهٖ فَقَالَ أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنِّي إِمَامُكُمْ فَلَا تَسْبِقُوْنِي بِالرُّكُوْعِ وَلَا بِالسُّجُوْدِ وَلَا بِالْقِيَامِ وَلَا بِالْإِنْصِرَافِ فَإِنِّي أَرَاكُمْ مِنْ أَمَامِي وَمِنْ خَلْفِي۔ (رواه مسلم)

1137. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم led them in salah one day and when he finished his salah, he faced them and said, "O you people, I am your imam. So do not precede me in the ruku, the sajdahs, the standing posture and finishing (turning away). I see you in front of me and behind me."[2]

(١١٣٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُبَادِرُوا الْإِمَامَ إِذَا كَبَّرَ فَكَبِّرُوْا وَإِذَا قَالَ

مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ إِلَّا اَنَّ الْبُخَارِيَّ لَمْ يَذْكُرْ وَإِذَا قَالَ وَلَا الضَّالِّيْنَ۔

1138. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said," Do not precede the imam. When he says Allahu Akbar, say Allahu Akbar. When he says at end of surah al-fatihah), say (ولا الضالين، امين) (may it be so). When he goes in to ruku, go yourselves in to ruku. When he says (سمع الله لمن حمده), say (ربنا لک الحمد) (Allah listens to one who praise, Him – O Allah, our lord, praise belongs to you)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words say aameen' (امين) imply that when the imam recites surah al-Fatihah, the muqtadi must observe silence and listen to him. He must not recite surah al-fatihah.

WHEN IMAM OFFERS SALAH SITTING DOWN

(١١٣٩) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَكِبَ فَرَسًا فَصُرِعَ عَنْهُ فَجُحِشَ شِقُّهُ الْاَيْمَنُ فَصَلّٰى

صَلَاةً مِنَ الصَّلَوَاتِ وَهُوَ قَاعِدٌ فَصَلَّيْنَا وَرَاءَهُ قُعُوْدًا فَلَمَّا انْصَرَفَ قَالَ إِنَّمَا جُعِلَ الْإِمَامُ لِيُؤْتَمَّ بِهِ فَإِذَا صَلّٰى قَائِمًا

صَلّٰى بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَالِسًا وَالنَّاسُ خَلْفَهُ قِيَامٌ لَمْ يَأْمُرْهُمْ بِالْقُعُوْدِ وَإِنَّمَا يُؤْخَذُ بِالْاٰخِرِ

تَخْتَلِفُوْا عَلَيْهِ وَإِذَا سَجَدَ فَاسْجُدُوْا۔

1139. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (once) while riding a horse Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم fell from it and his right side badly bruised. So (being unable to pray standing,) he offered one of the salahs sitting down and they too offered salah behind him sitting. When he finished, he said, "The imam is made an imam only to be followed. When he offers salah standing, you too offer it standing. When he bows, you should bow and when he arises from it, you should arise, too. When he says (سمع الله لمن حمده) you should say (ربنا لک الحمد) When he offers salah sitting down, you all must offer it sitting,"

Al- Humaydi رحمہ اللہ said that his words, "When he offers salah sitting, you must offer it sitting" were spoken during his first illness. Afterwards, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered salah sitting (during his illness one day before death), but the people behind him were standing and he did not instruct them to sit. Only the last is chosen and the last of the deeds of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is abided by (and the previous is abrogated).

Muslim agrees with these words of Bukhari up to (اجمعون) (you all must offer it sitting). He added in another version, "Do not differ from him, when he prostrates himself, your must prostrate yourselves."[1]

COMMENTARY: This Humaydi رحمه الله is not the compiler of Jama Bayn us-Sahihayn but he is Bukhari's teacher. Most of the imams agree with him that if an imam offers salah sitting, the muqtadis should pray standing.

1140. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was very ill and (Sayyiduna) Bilal رضى الله عنه came to call him for the salah, he said, "Ask Abu Bakr to lead the people in salah." So, (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه led the salah during those days. Then when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم found himself some what better, he got up supported by two men, his feet barely touching the ground till he came into the mosque. When Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه heard him (come), he began to move back but he indicated to him not to move. He came and sat to Abu Bakr's رضى الله عنه left. Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه offered the salah standing and Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم offered it sitting. Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه followed the salah of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and the people followed the salah of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه.

Another version has the words: Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه made the people hear the takbir.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sharah us-Sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) cites this hadith to prove that sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was the most superior of all people ofter the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. So, the most deserving of succeeding him as his khalifah. He appointed him to the most important office of imam. On the basis of this some sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه said, "The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم chose Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه as our leader in religion. So, shall we not choose him to guide us in our worldly affairs." This was what the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had indicated to the sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه during his life time.

The two men who supported him were Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abbas رضى الله

عنہ They brought him to the mosque, while he was weak, from his room.
The people followed Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. These words refer to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offering the salah sitting down and Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ standing next to him. So, he did as the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did and whatever Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ did, the other muqtadis did. Here the word 'followed' simply imply that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was Abu Bakr's رضی اللہ عنہ imam and Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was the imam of the other muqtadis, because it is not allowed to be led by a muqtadi.
So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was the imam. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and all the others were his muqtadis offering the salah behind him.
CAN THE IMAM BE REPLACED DURING THE SALAH: A question arises here: once the salah has begun led by an imam and another person comes and take, the place of the first imam and begins to lead the people in salah, is this allowed? This is as happened when Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ began as imam till the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came and took over as imam. Allamah Ibn Abdul Bari رحمہ اللہ said that the ulama (Scholars) agree that this case was exclusive to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and it is not allowed to anyone else to replace the imam in this way. However, Imam Shafi رحمہ اللہ said that it is allowed to do as in the foregoing case in respect of imamah and iqtidah (leading and following). (see mirqah sharah Mishkat).
Some ulama (Scholars) have also said that it is not established from this hadith that sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had begun the salah. They assert that he had not commenced the salah and, on arriving, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم began to offer the salah as imam. Allah knows best.
It is also clear from this hadith that an imam may lead in salah while he prays sitting down because of some reason, and the muqtadis may offer salah behind him standing. It is stated in Hidayah that salah may be offered standing behind an imam who offers it sitting.
It is also clear from this hadith that in a large congregation of Friday, eed, or otherwise, and even in everyday salah, the mu'adhdhins may call the takbirs in a loud voice with the imams. Thus, the muqtadis who are far off from the imam may hear the takbirs (and understand the progress of the salah).

RAISING HEAD BEFORE IMAM

(١١٤١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَمَا يَخْشَى الَّذِيْ يَرْفَعُ رَاْسَهٗ قَبْلَ الْاِمَامِ اَنْ يُّحَوِّلَ اللّٰهُ رَاْسَهٗ رَاْسَ حِمَارٍ۔ (متفق علیه)

1141. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Does he who raises his head before the imam (from ruku and sajdah) not fear that Allah might change his lead into a donkey's head,"[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is a severe warning to one who precedes the imam in the pustures of the salah, like ruku and sajdah. The ulama (Scholars) say that this hadith should not be taken in its true meaning but allegorically it means that the man who precedes the imam will become dumb like a donkey who is the most stupid of all animals. It is not a metamorphosis in a literal sense but in an allegorical sense. However, they also say that this hadith may be interpreted in its real sense because even this ummah is liable to undergo a metamorphosis as tated in the chapter on the portents of the hour (باب اشراط الساعة). There is another tradition:

أَنْ يُّحَوِّلَ اللّٰهُ صُوْرَةً حِمَارٍ

"that Allah may change his face into a donkey's."

Khattabi رضی الله عنه said, "Metamorphosis is possible in this ummah too. So, it is allowed to take this hadith in its literal sense."

Allamah Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that this metamorphosis is specific while the metamorphosis that is probable for the ummah is general. This is also known from the sound ahadith.

A DIDACTIC EXAMPLE

A great scholar of hadith reported that he went to Damascus to acquire knowledge from a scholar who was known for his learning and excellence. He began his studies but throughout the period he studied, he was perplexed that his teacher never came before him. A screen separated them always. He longed to see his teacher, if only once. When he had remained with his teacher for a very long period of time, the teacher sensed his devotion to studies and to the shaykh. So, one day, the teacher removed the screen between them. The student was stupefied! He could not believe himself! The extraordinary teacher whose learning and merit were renowned far and wide was deprived of a human face but had a face like a donkey's. the teacher's words are worth learning from: "O my son, beware of preceding the imam in the salah. When I heard this hadith: does he not fear that Allah might change his head into a donkey's that he overtakes the imam while rising from ruku and sajdah? I was amazed and thought that it was farfetched. So it is my misfortune that I decided to try it and I preceded the imam in moving though the postures of salah. The result, O my son, is what you see!"

Mulla Ali Qari said that the Prophet's saying is actually a strong warning. Or, a caution that such a person will be given this punishment in barzakh or in hell.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

DO AS IMAM DOES

(١١٤٢) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ وَمُعَاذِ ابْنِ جَبَلٍ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَتَى أَحَدُكُمُ الصَّلَاةَ وَالْإِمَامُ عَلٰى حَالٍ فَلْيَصْنَعْ كَمَا يَصْنَعُ الْإِمَامُ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1142. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Muadh ibn Jabal رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When one of you comes to the salah and the imam is at a posture, let him do as the imam does."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith says that the imam must be followed and not be overtaken or left too much ahead.

Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that a late comer must join the imam in whatever posture he is. If he is standing, in ruku or in sajadah, the late comer must go in that posture. Some people keep standing for the imam to go into ruku and join him at that time. But, this is a very wrong thing to do and it violates the shari'ah (divine law). It should not be done.

The isnad of the hadith is weak, but the ulama (Scholars) abide by it. Shaykh Muhyuddin ibn Arabi رحمه الله said about the hadith that if anyone recites (لا اله الا الله) seventy thousand times then he is forgiven or to whoever he consigns its reward is forgiven. So, he recited this expression for that number of times but formed no intention until one day at a meal a young man began to cry. This young man was able to learn of some hidden: things and on being asked, he said that he could hear his mother being punished. The shaykh immediately resolved in his heart to consign the reward of the seventy thousand expressions to the young man's mother. The young man began to laugh and said, "Now, I see my mother in paradise!"
The shaykh said that at the same time he was convinced of the young man's ability to know some of the unseen through kashf through that he was sure of the soundness of the hadith through which he knew of the young man's kashf to be correct.

THE COMPLETE RAKA'AH AT RUKU

(١١٤٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا جِئْتُمْ اِلَى الصَّلَاةِ وَنَحْنُ سُجُوْدٌ فَاسْجُدُوْا وَلَا تَعُدُّوْهُ شَيْئًا وَمَنْ اَدْرَكَ رَكْعَةً فَقَدْ اَدْرَكَ الصَّلَاةَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1143. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When you come to the salah and we are prostrating ourselves, prostrate yourself but do not count it as anything. But, he who gets the ruku (with us) has got the rakah,"[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) agree that if anyone joins the imam in prostration then his raka'ah is not counted. But, if he joins him in the ruku then his raka'ah is counted.
The final sentence of the hadith could mean two things:

(i) The word (ركعة) stands for (ركوع) and (صلوة) for (ركعة) (raka'ah for ruku, salah for raka'ah). This would mean as translated in the text: He is thus as if he got the entire raka'ah.

(ii) The words (ركعة) and (صلوة) (raka'ah and salah) are used in their actual sense (unit of salah and prayer). In this case, the last sentence in the hadith would mean: 'He who gets even one raka'ah of the congregational salah, is as though he has got the entire salah with the imam. So he will receive its reward in full and the merit of the congregation.

FORTY DAYS WITH THE FIRST TAKBIR

(١١٤٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلّٰى لِلّٰهِ اَرْبَعِيْنَ يَوْمًا فِيْ جَمَاعَةٍ يُدْرِكُ التَّكْبِيْرَةَ الْاُوْلٰى كُتِبَ لَهٗ بَرَاءَتَانِ بَرَاءَةٌ مِّنَ النَّارِ وَبَرَاءَةٌ مِّنَ النِّفَاقِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1144. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone offers the salah in congregation for forty days, for Allah's sake, such that he joins it with the takbir oola (the very first takbir) then two freedoms are recorded for him: freedom from hell and freedom from hypocrisy."[2]

COMMENTARY: To join with the first takbir is to join from the very beginning of the salah. Some ulama (Scholars) say that even those who join the congregation when the imam has recited the thana are included among the very beginners at the first takbir.

FREEDOM FROM HYPOCRISY: It is that Allah will keep him free from the habits of the hypocrites. He will cause him to do good deeds. On the day of gathering, the testimony will be given that he was not a hypocrite. May Allah enable us to earn this good fortune! Aameen!

REWARD TO LATE-COMER

(١١٤٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَوَضَّأَ فَأَحْسَنَ وُضُوْءَهُ ثُمَّ رَاحَ فَوَجَدَ النَّاسَ قَدْ صَلُّوا أَعْطَاهُ اللّٰهُ مِثْلَ أَجْرِ مَنْ صَلَّاهَا وَحَضَرَهَا لَا يَنْقُصُ ذٰلِكَ مِنْ أُجُوْرِهِمْ شَيْئًا۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1145. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who performs ablution and does it well and then goes (to the mosque) only to find that the people have offered the salah, Allah grants him a reward like that of those who had offered the salah and were present at it without diminishing anything from their reward."[1]

COMMENTARY: This applies to one who goes sincerely but does not delay coming to the mosque deliberately. He is late by chance for some reason. An intentional late comer gets no reward.

MERIT OF THE CONGREGATION

(١١٤٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ وَقَدْ صَلَّى صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَلَا رَجُلٌ يَتَصَدَّقُ عَلٰى هٰذَا فَيُصَلِّيَ مَعَهُ فَقَامَ رَجُلٌ فَصَلّٰى مَعَهُ۔ (رواہ الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

1146. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al- Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man came but Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had finished the salah. So, he asked, "Is there no man who will give charity to this one, and offer salah with him?" So, a man got up and offered salah with him.[2]

COMMENTARY: Charity to that man is to be kind to him and offer salah with him so that he gets reward for the congregation. Thus, if anyone guides another to a pious path or becomes a means for him to go on a pious path then he will get the reward equivalent to that charity in Allah's path.

Mawlana Mazhar رحمہ اللہ said that to offer salah with a late comer is said to be charity because this man gets reward twenty-six times over because he offers the salah in congregation.

1147 Sayyiduna ubaydullah ibn Abdullah رحمه الله said that he visited Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها (one day) and requested her to tell him about the illness of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم she narrated that when the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم condition worsened, he asked, "Have the people offered the salah?" they answered, "No, o Messenger of Allah. They await you." He asked for a tub full of water they did that and he had a bath, but as he was about to stand, he fell unconscious. When he recovered, he again asked if the people had prayed and on being told that they expected him, hc called for water in a tub, had a bath but fell unconscious as he tried to stand. When he regained consciousness, he asked again if the people had prayed and they told him that the people awaited him. The people were sitting in the mosque waiting for the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for the salah of isha So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent word to (sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه that he should lead the people in salah." So, a messenger (Sayyiduna Bilal) went to him and said Indeed, Allah's Messenger commands you to lead the people in salah. So, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه who was a mild-hearted man, said, "O Umar lead the people in salah Umer said to him You are more deserving of that." So, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه led (them) in salah during those days. Then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم found some improvement in himself and went out between two men, one of them was Sayyiduna Abbas, for the salah of zuhr while Abu Bakr was leading the salah of zuhr while Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه saw him, he began to step back, but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم beckoned to him not to step back and said (to the two men), "Make me sit by his side." They made him sit next to Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was seated there.

Sayyiduna ubaydullah said, "I visited Abdullah ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه and asked him if I might relate to him what (sayyidah) Ayshah رضی الله عنه had narrated to me about the illness of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. He said, "Go ahead! So, I related to him har hadith and he did nit deny anything of it except that he asked, did she name to you the man who was with Abbas?' I said, No! he said he was Ali'"[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه named only Sayyiduna Abbas رضی الله عنه but not the other man because while Abbas رضی الله عنه was constantly on one side, the men on the other side took turns and Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه was one of them. This is more explicit in another version: "On his other side was someone from the ahl ul-bayt (supporting him).

NOT RECITING AL-FATIHAH

(١١٤٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ اَدْرَكَ الرَّكْعَةَ فَقَدْ اَدْرَكَ السَّجْدَةَ وَمَنْ فَاتَتْهُ قِرَاءَةُ اُمِّ الْقُرْاٰنِ فَقَدْ فَاتَهُ خَيْرٌ كَثِيْرٌ۔ (رواه مالك)

1148. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه used to narrate, "If anyone joins at the ruku then, indeed, he has got the full rakaah. And, he who misses the recitation of surah al-fatihah, has lost much good."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith says that it is not fard (obligatory) to recite surah al- fatihah in salah. If it was fard (obligatory) then the non-reciter would not have missed much good but would have lost all reward because his salah would have been void.

OVERTAKING THE IMAM

(١١٤٩) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّهُ قَالَ الَّذِيْ يَرْفَعُ رَاْسَهُ وَيَخْفِضُهُ قَبْلَ الْاِمَامِ فَاِنَّمَا نَاصِيَتُهُ بِيَدِ الشَّيْطَانِ۔ (رواه مالك)

1149. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه (also) said that if anyone raises his head or lowers it (for ruku or sajdah) before the imam, then indeed his forehead is (as if) in the hand of the devil.[3]

CHAPTER - XXX

HE WHO OFFERS A SALAH TWICE

بَابُ مَنْ صَلّٰى صَلٰوةً مَرَّتَيْنِ

What if a man offers the same salah twice whether in reality or in theory? How will he offer each of them, both fard (obligatory), or one optional? This chapter will answer these questions.

1150. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that (Sayyiduna) Muadh ibn Jabal رضی الله عنه used to offer salah with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, then go to his people and lead them in salah. [1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Muadh ibn Jabal رضی الله عنه used to offer the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم) or supererogatory of isha with the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم he thus gained the blessings of offering the salah with him and in the Masjid Nabawi. Then he went to his clan and led them in the fard (obligatory), salah (of the same time).

(۱۱۵۱) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ مُعَاذُ يُصَلِّي مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْعِشَاءَ ثُمَّ يَرْجِعُ إِلَى قَوْمِهِ فَيُصَلِّي بِهِمُ الْعِشَاءَ وَهِيَ لَهُ نَافِلَةٌ۔ (رواه البیهقی و البخاری)

1151. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that (Sayyiduna) Mu'adh رضی الله عنه offered the salah of isha with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم then he returned to his clan and offered the isha with them. This was for him an optional salah.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Mu'adh رضی الله عنه used first to offer salah with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم with an intention to offer the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم) of isha or of the supererogatory salah. Then he went and acted as imam of his people offering the fard (obligatory).

There are two options when one offers a salah twice.

(i) If anyone has offered a salah with the congregation or alone, and he comes to a mosque and finds the same salah being offered, so to gain blessing of congregation he joins it but since he has already offered the fard (obligatory), this second salah will be for him an optional salah.

(ii) If an imam of a mosque, before he goes to his mosque, finds an opportunity to earn blessings of salah behind an auspicious person or at an auspicious place and offers that salah with an intention of the optional, and goes to his mosque and leads in that very salah (here, isha), then the second salah will be fard (obligatory), (prescribed). The first will be optional.

Thus, the second salah, whether with an intention of ford or optional, is an additional reward-fetching salah for the worshipper. It is in this sense that the last words of the hadith say, this was for him an optional salah.

It is incorrect to say that the second salah was supererogatory or optional for Sayyiduna Mu'adh رضی الله عنه and fard (obligatory) for his people behind him because this can only be confirmed if he himself had disclosed this intention (so, the optional in the hadith is in the sense of additional reward). He had formed his intention in his heart and not audibly. Ibn Hamman رحمه الله said that it is a bid'ah(an innovation) to make the intention with the tongue because the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and his sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنه were not known to have made it with the tongue. Moreover, the words (وهی له نافلة) (This was for him an optional salah) are not words of the hadith, but are appended and are not found in the sound ahadith. Some people have written that Imam Shafi رحمه الله had added them to accommodate his ijtihad (judgement) and opinion. In the original manuscript of Mishkat this portion is left out blank which shows that the compiler of Mishkat did not find them in any text of the sunan.

Allamah Turpushti رحمه الله said that the scholars of hadith hold that these are not (the preserved) words of the hadith of (Sayyiduna) Jabir رضى الله عنه.

As for offering the fard (obligatory) salah behind one who offers the optional salah, the imams differ on this question. It is treated exhaustively in the chapter (باب القراة فى الصلوة) recitation in the salah, harith #833 (commentary).

REPEATING SALAH WITH CONGREGATION

(١١٥٢) عَنْ يَزِيدِ بْنِ الْأَسْوَدِ قَالَ شَهِدْتُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَجَّتَهُ فَصَلَّيْتُ مَعَهُ صَلَاةَ الصُّبْحِ فِيْ مَسْجِدِ الْخَيْفِ فَلَمَّا قَضٰى صَلَاتَهُ وَانْحَرَفَ فَإِذَا هُوَ بِرَجُلَيْنِ فِيْ اٰخِرِ الْقَوْمِ لَمْ يُصَلِّيَا مَعَهُ قَالَ عَلَيَّ بِهِمَا فَجِيْءَ بِهِمَا تَرْعَدُ فَرَائِصُهُمَا فَقَالَ مَا مَنَعَكُمَا اَنْ تُصَلِّيَا مَعَنَا فَقَالَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّا كُنَّا قَدْ صَلَّيْنَا فِيْ رِحَالِنَا قَالَ فَلَا تَفْعَلَا إِذَا صَلَّيْتُمَا فِيْ رِحَالِكُمَا ثُمَّ اَتَيْتُمَا مَسْجِدَ جَمَاعَةٍ فَصَلِّيَا مَعَهُمْ فَإِنَّهَا لَكُمَا نَافِلَةٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1152. Sayyiduna Yazid Ibn al-Aswad رضى الله عنه narrated: I was with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم during his hajj and I offered the salah of fajr with him in the mosque al-khayf. When he finished his salah and turned, he beheld two men at the back of the people who had not offered salah with him. He said, "Bring them to me." They were brought. But they shook with fear (at the shoulders). He asked, "What prevented you from offering salah with us? "They said, O Messenger of Allah, we had already offered salah at our dowelling. He said "Do not do that. When you have offered salah at your dwelling and then come to a mosque where the congregation is in progress, offer salah with them. That will be for you supererogatory salah." [1]

COMMENTARY: The salah that is offered the second time will be considered as optional irrespective of whether the first was offered along with the congregation or outside the congregation. This is what the concluding words of the hadith mean.

(١١٥٣) عَنْ بُسْرِ بْنِ مِحْجَنٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ اَنَّهُ كَانَ فِيْ مَجْلِسٍ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأُذِّنَ بِالصَّلَاةِ فَقَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَصَلّٰى وَرَجَعَ وَمِحْجَنٌ فِيْ مَجْلِسِهٖ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مَنَعَكَ اَنْ تُصَلِّيَ مَعَ النَّاسِ اَلَسْتَ بِرَجُلٍ مُسْلِمٍ فَقَالَ بَلٰى يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَلٰكِنِّيْ كُنْتُ قَدْ صَلَّيْتُ فِيْ اَهْلِيْ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا جِئْتَ الْمَسْجِدَ وَكُنْتَ قَدْ صَلَّيْتَ فَأُقِيْمَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَصَلِّ مَعَ النَّاسِ وَاِنْ كُنْتَ قَدْ صَلَّيْتَ۔ (رواه مالك و النسائی)

1153. Sayyiduna Busr ibn Mihjan رحمه الله narrated from his father (who said) that he was in an assembly along with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. The adhan for the salah was called. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم got up and offered salah, and returned. He observed that Mihjan رضى الله عنه was seated at his place (as before). So, he asked him, "What prevented you from offering the salah along with the people? Are you not a Muslim?" He submitted, "Of course, O Messenger of Allah. But, I had offered salah already with my family members. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "when you come to the mosque and have previously offered the salah but the (congregational) salah begins (in the mosque with the iqamah), offer the salah with the people though you may have offered it already."[1]

(١١٥٤) وَعَنْ رَجُلٍ مِّنْ اَسَدِ بْنِ خُزَيْمَةَ اَنَّهٗ سَأَلَ اَبَا اَيُّوْبَ الْاَنْصَارِيَّ قَالَ يُصَلِّي اَحَدُنَا فِيْ مَنْزِلِهِ الصَّلَاةَ ثُمَّ يَاْتِي الْمَسْجِدَ وَتُقَامُ الصَّلَاةُ فَاُصَلِّي مَعَهُمْ فَاَجِدُ فِيْ نَفْسِي شَيْئًا مِنْ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ اَبُوْ اَيُّوْبَ سَأَلْنَا عَنْ ذٰلِكَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فَذٰلِكَ لَهٗ سَهْمُ جَمْعٍ۔ (رواه مالك و ابوداؤد)

(١١٥٥) وَعَنْ يَزِيْدَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ جِئْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ فَجَلَسْتُ وَلَمْ اَدْخُلْ مَعَهُمْ فِي الصَّلَاةِ فَلَمَّا انْصَرَفَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَآنِيْ جَالِسًا فَقَالَ اَلَمْ تُسْلِمْ يَا يَزِيْدُ قُلْتُ بَلٰى يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَدْ اَسْلَمْتُ قَالَ وَمَا مَنَعَكَ اَنْ تَدْخُلَ مَعَ النَّاسِ فِيْ صَلَاتِهِمْ قَالَ اِنِّيْ كُنْتُ قَدْ صَلَّيْتُ فِيْ مَنْزِلِيْ اَحْسَبُ اَنْ قَدْ صَلَّيْتُمْ فَقَالَ اِذَا جِئْتَ الصَّلَاةَ فَوَجَدْتَ النَّاسَ يُصَلُّوْنَ فَصَلِّ مَعَهُمْ وَاِنْ كُنْتَ قَدْ صَلَّيْتَ تَكُنْ لَكَ نَافِلَةٌ وَهٰذِهٖ مَكْتُوْبَةٌ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1155. Sayyiduna Yazid ibn Aamir رضى الله عنه narrated that he came to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم while he was offering salah (leading the people). He sat down and did not join the congregational salah. When Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم finished and saw him sitting, he asked, "Had you not become a Muslim, yazid?" He submitted "Surely O Messenger of Allah, I did embrace Islam" He asked, "Then what stopped you from joining the people in their salah?" he submitted, "I had offered salah at home presuming that you had prayed already." He said, "When you come to the salah and find people engaged in it, join them in the salah. And, if you had already prayed, that will be for you an optional salah though this is a prescribed salah."[1]

1156. It is reported about Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه that a man asked him, "After I offer salah in my house, I catch the salah in the mosque with the imam, shall I pray with him, too?" He said to him, "Yes." The man persisted," which of the two shall I consider to be my (obligatory) salah?" Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه countered, "Is that up to you? It is for Allah, Mighty and Glorious. He may make whichever of the two he likes (as obligatory)."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith upholds the opinion of some Shafi and of Imam Ghazali رحمه الله that one of the two salah will be regarded as fard (obligatory) the first or the second. However, many ahadith determine the first as fard (obligatory) (obligatory). The second is supererogatory.

DO NOT REPEAT A SALAH

(١١٥٧) وَعَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ مَوْلٰى مَيْمُوْنَةَ قَالَ اَتَيْنَا ابْنَ عُمَرَ عَلَى الْبَلَاطِ وَهُمْ يُصَلُّوْنَ فَقُلْتُ اَلَا تُصَلِّي مَعَهُمْ قَالَ قَدْ صَلَّيْتُ وَاِنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَا تُصَلُّوْا صَلَاةً فِيْ يَوْمٍ مَرَّتَيْنِ۔

(رواه احمد و ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1157. Sayyiduna Sulayman, رحمه الله the freedman of Sayyidah Maymunah رضی الله عنه said, "We came to Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه at al-Balat while they were offering the salah. So I asked (Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه, Do you not pray with them? He said, 'I have offered salah already and had heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say: Do not offer a salah twice in a day."[3]

COMMENTARY: Al-Balat is a place outside the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم mosque built by Sayyiduna Umar Faruq رضی الله عنه for people to get together and converse so that they may not do it within the mosque.

RECONCILING WITH PREVIOUS AHADITH: This hadith pertains to one who had previously offered salah along with other people in congregation. (So he cannot do it again). The other ahadith (that permit offering a salah again) concern one who has offered his salah by himself and then finds a congregation. This is the opinion of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله.

Or, this hadith means that the salah second time cannot be regarded as fard (obligatory) but is optional. There is no ham in offering it a second time as optional.

Or, this may have been the salah of fajr, asr or maghrib. These salahs are not repeated. The next hadith specifies the salahs that cannot be repeated.

SALAHS THAT MAY NOT REPEATED

(١١٥٨) وَعَنْ نَافِعٍ قَالَ إِنَّ عَبْدَاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ صَلَّى الْمَغْرِبَ أَوِالصُّبْحَ ثُمَّ أَدْرَكَهُمَا مَعَ الْإِمَامِ فَلَا يُعِدْ لَهُمَا۔ (رواه مالك)

1158. Sayyiduna Nafi رحمه الله narrated that Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه used to say that he who has offered the salah of maghrib or fajr, and then finds them being led by the imam, must not repeat them.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is followed by imam Maalik رحمه الله and only maghrib and fajr are not repeated by him.

The hanafis include asr in this command.

Imam Shafi رحمه الله holds that all salahs may be repeated.

This hadith indicates that it pertains to one, who has not offered the first salah with the congregation, but has offered it by himself.

CHAPER - XXXI

THE SUNAN SALAH & THEIR MERITS بَابُ السُّنَنِ وَفَضَائِلِهَا

In the Shari'ah (divine law), salah is the best and most high ranking form of worship. Of all kinds of worship it is the dearest to Allah. Hence, the more one devotes oneself to it the more blessings accrue to him. Though deep involvement in it, he acknowledge the sovereignty and greatness of Allah.

This is why relative to other forms of worship that are restricted to fard (obligatory) (or the obligatory and prescribed nature), this form of worship has three divisions fard (obligatory), wajib (expedient) and sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم). Thus, there are with every fard (obligatory), salah, some sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) salah too so that they may be offered conveniently with the fard (obligatory) and also they may atone for any deficiency in the discharge of the fard (obligatory). There are two kinds of sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) salah that are offered during day and night with the fard (obligatory).

(i) Rawatib is those sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) salah that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered with regularity.

(ii) Ghayr-rawatib is those sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) salah that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not offer regularly, like the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) at the time of asr.

The sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) salah are offered in the same way as the fard salah (obligatory prayer) are offered, but with the difference that in the fard (obligatory) salah (of four raka,at), a surah is recited after al-fatihah only in the first two rakat) while in the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) salah a surah is recited after alfatihah in all (the four) rakat. Also it is not a contravention of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) (practice) if the surahs recited in the rakat of a sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) salah are not equal. Moreover, during the day, the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) salah may comprise two rakaat and, during the night up to four rakaat together with one salutation, it being imperative to recite the at-tahiyat after two raka'at (Ilm ul Fiqh)

Finally, it must be understood that the words sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ), nafl(optional prayer), tatawwa (extra prayer), mandub, mustahab (desirable), marghub fih(desired) and hasan(good) are synonymous. They have the same meaning which is the salah that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم preferred to offer over not offering. However, some of these are sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) muwakkadah. (emphasized sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم )) relative to others.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

RAKA'AT OF SUNNAH

(١١٥٩) عَنْ أُمِّ حَبِيْبَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى فِيْ يَوْمٍ وَلَيْلَةٍ ثِنْتَيْ عَشْرَةَ رَكْعَةً بُنِيَ لَهٗ بَيْتٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ اَرْبَعًا قَبْلَ الظُّهْرِ وَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ بَعْدَ هَا وَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ بَعْدَ الْمَغْرِبِ وَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ بَعْدَ الْعِشَاءِ وَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ قَبْلَ صَلٰوةِ الْفَجْرِ (رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ) وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ اَنَّهَا قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا مِنْ عَبْدٍ مُسْلِمٍ يُصَلِّي لِلّٰهِ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ ثِنْتَيْ عَشْرَةَ رَكْعَةً تَطَوُّعًا غَيْرَ فَرِيْضَةٍ اِلَّا بَنَى اللّٰهُ لَهٗ بَيْتًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ اَوْ اِلَّا بُنِيَ لَهٗ بَيْتٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ۔

1159. Sayyidah Umm Habibah رحمه الله narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "For him who offers twelve raka'at in a day and a night, a house is built in paradise; four before zuhr, two after it, two after maghrib, two after isha and two before fajr."

The version in Muslim has her narrating: I heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "No Muslim offers for Allah, every day, twelve rakaat supererogatory salah besides the fard (obligatory), but Allah builds for him a house in paradise "or, ".... But a house is built for him in paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: The number of sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) mentioned in the hadith are all sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) muwakkadsh and the two rakaat sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of fajr are the most emphasized of all so much so that Hasan Busri رحمه الله and some Hanafis assert that they are wajib (expedient). Hassan Busri has also classified the two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) raka'at of maghrib as wajib (expedient).But, in the light of this hadith, his assertion is rejected. They are not wajib (expedient) but sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*.

[1] Muslim # 103-728, Tirmidhi # 415, Abu Dawud # 1250, Nasa'i # 1794, Ibn Majah # 1140, Darimi # 1438, Musnad Ahmad 6-326.

1160. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated, "I offered along with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم two rakaat before the salah of zuhr and two rakaat after it, two rakaat after isha in his house." He said that Sayyidah Hafsah رضی الله عنه narrated to him that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to offer two brief rakaat at the rise of dawn.[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ibn umar رضی الله عنه has said the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) before zuhr are (رکعتین) (two rakaat). The scholars say that the dual is not contrary to four. This hadith then conforms to the ahadith that mention four rakaat before zuhr. (Mulla Ali Qari)

Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله said that Imam shafi رحمه الله gives the rakaat before zuhr as two. The Hanafis say that the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) before zuhr are four as stated in many other ahadith narrated by Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه Sayyidah Ayshah, رضی الله عنه Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضی الله عنه and others. Imam Tirmidhi رحمه الله confirmed that most sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنه also offered four rakaat before zuhr and the Hanafi follow it. This also was the practice of Sufyan Thawri رحمه الله Ibn Mubarak رحمه الله and Ishaq رحمه الله. Moreover, Imam Shafi رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله also say that four rakaat are offered (before zuhr) but they offer them in two's (with two salutations).

It could also be that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to offer four rakaat sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of zuhr at home, so his wives mentioned the four rakaat. Then on going to the mosque, he may be offering two rakaat tahiyat ul-masjid which Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه might have presumed to be the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) before zuhr.

Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه mentioned maghrib and isha. He did not say anything of the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of fajr because he did not offer that salah with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, He quoted Sayyidah Hafsah رضی الله عنه in this regard. Thus the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of fajr were also included in his hadith.

THE SUNNAH OF JUMUAH

(١١٦١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُصَلِّي بَعْدَ الْجُمُعَةِ حَتّٰى يَنْصَرِفَ فَيُصَلِّيْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

1161. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did not offer any salah after the (salah of) Friday till he went back (home). There, at his house, he offered two rakaat (sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم )).[2]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi رحمه الله abided by this hadith and offered two rakaat sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) after Friday as after zuhr. But other ahadith disclose that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered four rakaat sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ), both before and after Friday salah. Hence, Imam Abu yusuf رحمه الله said that after the salah of Friday six rakaat sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) must be offered.

As stated earlier, it is more virtuous to offer the supererogatory at home. So, the Prophet صلى

صلى الله عليه وسلم offered these post Friday sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) at home.

(١١٦٢) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ شَقِيْقٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ عَائِشَةَ عَنْ صَلَاةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ تَطَوُّعِهٖ فَقَالَتْ كَانَ يُصَلِّي فِيْ بَيْتِي قَبْلَ الظُّهْرِ أَرْبَعًا ثُمَّ يَخْرُجُ فَيُصَلِّي بِالنَّاسِ ثُمَّ يَدْخُلُ فَيُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَكَانَ يُصَلِّي بِالنَّاسِ الْمَغْرِبَ ثُمَّ يَدْخُلُ بَيْتِي فَيُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَكَانَ يُصَلِّي مِنَ اللَّيْلِ تِسْعَ رَكْعَاتٍ فِيْهِنَّ الْوِتْرُ وَكَانَ يُصَلِّي لَيْلًا طَوِيْلًا قَائِمًا وَلَيْلًا طَوِيْلًا قَاعِدًا وَكَانَ إِذَا قَرَأَ وَهُوَ قَائِمٌ رَكَعَ وَسَجَدَ وَهُوَ قَائِمٌ وَإِذَا قَرَأَ قَاعِدًا رَكَعَ وَسَجَدَ وَهُوَ قَاعِدٌ وَكَانَ إِذَا طَلَعَ الْفَجْرُ صَلّٰى رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَزَادَ أَبُوْدَاوُدَ ثُمَّ يَخْرُجُ فَيُصَلِّي بِالنَّاسِ صَلَاةَ الْفَجْرِ۔

1162. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Shaqiq رحمه الله narrated that he asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه about the supererogatory salah of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. She said that he used to offer at her home before zuhr four rakaat. Then he would go out and lead the people in salah and then come in and offered two rakaat. And he used to lead the people in the salah of maghrib and then come to her house and offer two rakaat. He would offer nine rakaat during the night, the witr among them. He would pray long in the night standing and long in the night sitting and when he recited the Qur'an while standing, he would go into ruku and sajdah from the standing posture. And when it was dawn, he offered two rakaat.Abu Dawud added to it: Then he would go out and lead the people in the salah of fajr.[1]

COMMENTARY: this hadith is strong evidence that sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) must be offered at home preferably, being more virtuous.

The witr being among them means that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to offer three rakaat of witr with his tahajjud salah(super erogatory prayer) (as the Hanafis say), or one rakaah (as the other imams hold).

As for his salah in the night, he offered at different two rakaat eight, nine, ten, eleven and thirteen rakaat.

As for going into ruku and sajdah from the standing posture, when he offered the tahajjud salah while standing, he made ruku and sajdah from the standing posture and did not sit down to make ruku and sajdah. When he offered the salah sitting down, he made ruku and sajdah while in the sitting posture, but it is also said that he would sometimes stand up to go into ruku and sajdah, which means that though he recited the Quran sitting, he would stand up, make a brief recital of the Quran and go into ruku and sajdah.

In the light of all the ahadith (about tahajjud(super erogatory prayer)), we might says that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the salah of tahajjud*(super erogatory prayer)* in three ways:

(i) The entire salah standing.

(ii) The entire salah sitting.

(iii) The recitation of the Quran while sitting after which he stood up and went into ruku and sajdah.

He never did the opposite of the third one method which means that he never recited the Quran standings and the ruku and sajdah after first sitting down. This hadith rejects this method.

THE SUNNAH OF FAJR

(١١٦٣) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ لَمْ يَكُنِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى شَيْئٍ مِنَ النَّوَافِلِ اَشَدَّ تَعَاهُدًا مِنْهُ عَلٰى رَكْعَتَيِ الْفَجْرِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1163. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was never more particular in observing any supererogatory rakaat of the fajr. [1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم never missed the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم) of fajr even during a jurney. The jurists say that the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم) of fajr must not be offered sitting down without a reason.

(١١٦٤) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَكْعَتَا الْفَجْرِ خَيْرٌ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيْهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1164. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The two raka'at of fajr are better than this world and whatever is in it." [2]

COMMENTARY: The sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم) of fajr are better than the world and whatever it has even if they are spent in Allah's path. If they are hoarded than that is stinginess and no good in them and so they cannot even be compared with the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم) of fajr.

The ulama (Scholars) say that the most emphasized sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم) in successive order are: of the fajr, of the maghrib, of the post zuhr (two rakaat), of the post isha and finally of the pre-zuhr (four rakaat).

TWO RAKAAT BEFORE MAGHRIB

(١١٦٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ مُغَفَّلٍ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلُّوْ قَبْلَ صَلٰوةِ الْمَغْرِبِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ صَلُّوْا قَبْلَ صَلٰوةِ الْمَغْرِبِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ قَالَ فِي الثَّالِثَةِ لِمَنْ شَاءَ كَرَاهِيَةَ اَنْ يَّتَّخِذَهَا النَّاسُ سُنَّةً۔ (متفق عليه)

1165. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mughaffal رضی الله عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Offer two rakaat salah before the (fard (obligatory)) salah before the salah of maghrib." The third time he added, unwilling that people should regard it as sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم), "Whoso wishes may offer it." [3]

COMMENTARY: About the two rakaat before the fard (obligatory) salah of maghrib, many jurists disallow it. This has been discussed previously against hadith # 662.

FOUR SUNNAH AFTER JUMMAH

(١١٦٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ مُصَلِّيًا بَعْدَ الْجُمُعَةِ فَلْيُصَلِّ اَرْبَعًا رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَفِيْ اُخْرٰى لَهٗ قَالَ اِذَا صَلّٰى اَحَدُكُمُ الْجُمُعَةَ فَلْيُصَلِّ بَعْدَهَا اَرْبَعًا۔

SUNNAH OF ZUHR

(١١٦٧) عَنْ أُمِّ حَبِيْبَةَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ حَافَظَ عَلٰى أَرْبَعِ رَكَعَاتٍ قَبْلَ الظُّهْرِ وَأَرْبَعٍ بَعْدَهَا حَرَّمَهُ اللّٰهُ عَلَى النَّارِ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی و ابوداؤد و النسائی و ابن ماجة)

1167. Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that she heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "he who preserves the four rakaat before zuhr and four rakaat after it (by continuing to offer them), Allah for bids the fire (of hell) to tuch him."[2]

COMMENTARY: The four rakaat after zuhr are offered in two's as clarified in another tradition. It seems that these four rakaat are apart from the two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) offered after the fard (obligatory). However, Mullah Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ said that these four rakaat comprise two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) muwakkadah and two mustahab (desirable), and it is preferable to offer these four in two's.

(١١٦٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي أَيُّوْبَ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَرْبَعٌ قَبْلَ الظُّهْرِ لَيْسَ فِيْهِنَّ تَسْلِيْمٌ تُفْتَحُ لَهُنَّ أَبْوَابُ السَّمَاءِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

1168. Sayyiduan Abu Ayyub Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "(As for) the four rakaat before zuhr without a taslim (salutation in-between, meaning all four offered together), the gates of heaven are opened for them."[3]

COMMENTARY: These four rakaat before zuhr gain acceptance of the lord Mighty and glorious. Hence, mercy descends from Him.
However, opinions differ on these four rakaat. Are these the four sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) that are offered before the fard (obligatory) of zuhr, or other than that which are called salah fi za-zawal? The preferred opinion is that they are ghayr-rawatib (not offered with regularity). This means that they are salah fiaz-zawal, not the four sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) before the fard (obligatory) of zuhr.

SALAH FI AZ-ZAWAL

(١١٦٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّي أَرْبَعًا بَعْدَ أَنْ تَزُوْلَ الشَّمْسُ قَبْلَ الظُّهْرِ وَقَالَ إِنَّهَا سَاعَةٌ تُفْتَحُ فِيْهَا أَبْوَابُ السَّمَاءِ فَأُحِبُّ أَنْ يَصْعَدَ لِي فِيْهَا عَمَلٌ صَالِحٌ۔

1169. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn saib رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم used to offer four raka'at after zawal (when the sun had passed the meridian), before zuhr. He would say, "This is an hour when the gates of heaven are opened and I love that my righteous deeds should ascend for me at this hour."[1]

SUNNAH OF ASR

(١١٧٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَحِمَ اللّٰهُ امْرَأً صَلَّى قَبْلَ الْعَصْرِ اَرْبَعًا۔

(رواہ احمد و الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

1170. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "May Allah have mercy on him who offers four rakaat salah rakaat salah before the fard (obligatory) of asr.[2]

(١١٧١) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّي قَبْلَ الْعَصْرِ اَرْبَعَ رَكْعَاتٍ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَهُنَّ بِالتَّسْلِيْمِ عَلَى الْمَلَائِكَةِ الْمُقَرَّبِيْنَ وَمَنْ تَبِعَهُمْ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ وَالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

1171. Sayyiduna Ali narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم used to offer four rakkat salah before asr separating them with the taslim to the angels who are near to Allah, and (taslim) to Muslims and believers who follow them.[3]

COMMENTARY: Taslim here means to recite at-Tahiyat. He recited it after two rakaat and made the salutation after four.

1172. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم used to offer two rakaat salah before the salah of asr.[4]

COMMENTARY: The traditions give different number of rakaat for the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم) of asr. So, the ulama (Scholars) say that it is up to the worshipper to offer two rakaat or four as he wishes, but it is better to offer four.

(١١٧٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى بَعْدَ الْمَغْرِبِ سِتَّ رَكْعَاتٍ لَمْ يَتَكَلَّمْ فِيْمَا بَيْنَهُنَّ بِسُوْءٍ عُدِلْنَ لَهُ بِعِبَادَةِ ثِنْتَيْ عَشْرَةَ سَنَةً رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ لَا نَعْرِفُهُ اِلَّا مِنْ حَدِيْثِ عُمَرَ بْنِ اَبِيْ خَثْعَمٍ وَسَمِعْتُ مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ اِسْمَاعِيْلَ يَقُوْلُ هُوَ مُنْكَرُ الْحَدِيْثِ وَضَعَّفَهُ جِدًّا۔

1173. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said "If anyone offers six rakaat salah after maghrib without speaking an evil word in between then there is for him a reward of worship for twelve years."[5]

COMMENTARY: The six rakaat after maghrib are offered in two's and Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ called them *salah*t ul-awwabin. This salah is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم). The two rakaat sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) after maghrib are included in these six and also in the twenty as mentioned in the next hadith. But, Mawlana shah Ishaq Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمہ اللہ said that the six or twenty are a part from the two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) muwakkadah after the maghrib.

Though this hadith is classified by tirmidhi as weak, yet may be abided by to promote good deeds. Sayyiduna Ammar ibn yasar رضی اللہ عنہ used to offer the six rakaat constantly and quoted the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as saying that anyone who offers them then his sins will be forgiven even if they are like the foam of the sea. (Tabarani)

(١١٧٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى بَعْدَ الْمَغْرِبِ عِشْرِيْنَ رَكْعَةً بَنَى اللّٰهُ لَهٗ بَيْتًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1174. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone offers twenty raka'at after maghrib, Allah builds for him a house in paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: The scholars of hadith classify this hadith, too as weak. However, Allamah Ibn Hajar رحمہ اللہ said that there is another hadith of the same purport. "The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to offer twenty rakaat for this salah, saying that it is *salah*tul-awwabin. Whoso offers it, is forgiven."

Considering the different traditions, the ulama (Scholars) say that salatul awwabin is made up of between two and twenty rakaat. The more one offers, the better for him.

THE SUNNAH OF ISHA

(١١٧٥) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ مَاصَلَّى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْعِشَاءَ قَطُّ فَدَخَلَ عَلَيَّ صَلَّى أَرْبَعَ رَكَعَاتٍ أَوْسِتَّ رَكَعَاتٍ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1175. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that never did Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offer the isha (in the mosque) and come to her house without offering four or six rakaat.[2]

COMMENTARY: The ahadith about the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) after isha mention two or four rakaat. Only this one mentions six. Some of the ahadith about two rakaat have been narrated previously, of those that mention four, Saeed ibn Mansur has transmitted one in his musnad, ith is that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If any one offers four rakaat before the tahajjud salah that night. If anyone offers four rakaat after isha, he is deemed to have offered four rakaat in laylatulqadr (night of power)."

As for this hadith, of the four rakaat that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered after isha two were sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) muwakkadah and the other two mustahab (desirable).

The word (او) (or) could have been the narrator's to express that he was not sure. Or, it may denote probability.

IDBARAN NUJUM & IDBARAS SUJUD

(١١٧٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِدْبَارَ النُّجُوْمِ الرَّكْعَتَانِ قَبْلَ الْفَجْرِ وَ اَدْبَارِ السُّجُوْدِ الرَّكْعَتَانِ بَعْدَ الْمَغْرِبِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

1176. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "(To glorify) and idbaran nujum (at the setting of the stars) imply the two rakaat before fajr (which is the two sannah preceding the fard (obligatory)), and (to glorify) and idbaras sujud (at the ends of the Prostrations) imply the two rakaat after maghrib."[1]

COMMENTARY: The last verses of surah at-tur (52:48-49)

{... and glorify the praise of your lord when you arise, and in the night glorify him too and at the setting of the stars}

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that (اَدْبَارَ النُّجُوْم) (idbaran-nujum) is when the stars turn their backs, at that time, glorifying the praises of the lord' is to offer the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of the fajr. These are offered, when the stars set, after the rise of dawn. Again, the verses of surah Qaaf (50:39-40)

وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ قَبْلَ طُلُوْعِ الشَّمْسِ وَ قَبْلَ الْغُرُوْبِ * وَمِنَ الَّيْلِ فَسَبِّحْهُ وَاَدْبَارَ السُّجُوْدِ۔ (ق ٥٠: ٣٩،٤٠)

{... and glorify the praise of your lord before the rising of the sun and before its setting and glorify him in the night and at the ends of the prostrations.}

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the word (سجود) (sujud) prostrations in the verse refers to the three fard (obligatory) rakaat of maghrib and idbaras sujud (ادبار السجود) means after prostrations, glorify Allah which refers to offering two rakaat junnah after the fard (obligatory), of the salah of maghrib.

FOUR RAKAAT BEFORE ZUHR

(١١٧٧) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَرْبَعٌ قَبْلَ الظُّهْرِ بَعْدَ الزَّوَالِ تُحْسَبُ بِمِثْلِهِنَّ فِيْ صَلَاةِ السَّحَرِ وَ مَامِنْ شَيْئٍ اِلَّا وَهُوَ يُسَبِّحُ اللّٰهَ تِلْكَ السَّاعَةَ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ يَتَفَيَّؤُ ظِلَالُهُ عَنِ الْيَمِيْنِ وَالشَّمَآئِلِ سُجَّدًا لِّلّٰهِ وَهُمْ دَاخِرُوْنَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

1177. Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Four rakaat before zuhr and after zawal (when the sun has passed the meridian) are counted equal to as many rakaat of tahajjud(super erogatory prayer). And, there is nothing but glorifies Allah at that hour." Then, he recited:

{Their shadows inclining to the right and to the left, prostrating themselves before Allah while being lowly...} (16:48)[1]
This verse calls for prostration)

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited this verse to exhort the listeners to offer this salah. The Prostration implies obedience. Allah has created different things for different purposes. The achievement of that purpose is really obedience to him.

TWO RAKAAT AFTER ASR

(١١٧٨) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَاتَرَكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ بَعْدَ الْعَصْرِ عِنْدِىْ قَطُّ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِلْبُخَارِيِّ قَالَتْ وَالَّذِىْ ذَهَبَ بِهٖ مَا تَرَكَهُمَا حَتّٰى لَقِيَ اللّٰهَ۔

1178. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم never neglected to offer the two rakaat after asr when he was with me (in my house)." Another version of Bukhari has that she narrated, "By him who took him away, he never neglected them till he met Allah."[2]

COMMENTARY: It has been stated in the preceding pages that the two rakaat after asr were allowed to other people to offer supererogatory salah after asr. There are very many ahadith disallowing it.

SUPEREROGATORY BETWEEN SUNSET AND SALAH OF MAGHRIB

(١١٧٩) وَعَنِ الْمُخْتَارِ بْنِ فُلْفُلٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ اَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ عَنِ التَّطَوُّعِ بَعْدَ الْعَصْرِ فَقَالَ كَانَ عُمَرُ يَضْرِبُ الْاَيْدِىْ عَلٰى صَلَاةٍ بَعْدَ الْعَصْرِ وَكُنَّا نُصَلِّيْ عَلٰى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ بَعْدَ غُرُوْبِ الشَّمْسِ قَبْلَ صَلَاةِ الْمَغْرِبِ فَقُلْتُ لَهٗ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّيْهِمَا قَالَ كَانَ يَرَانَا نُصَلِّيْهِمَا فَلَمْ يَأْمُرْنَا وَلَمْ يَنْهَنَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1179. Sayyiduna Al- Mukhtar ibn fulful said that he asked Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضى الله عنه about the supererogatory salah ofter asr. He said, "Umar رضى الله عنه used to strike at the hands of anyone who intended to offer the supererogatory after asr. But, we used to offer in the times of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم two rakaat salah after sunset and before the salah of maghrib" He asked him whether Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to offer theses two (rakaat). He said, "He would observe us offering them but neither commanded us nor forbade us."[3]

COMMENTARY: This means that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم approved their offering the salah after sunset and before the maghrib salah. If not, then he would have forbidden them. However, the righteous caliphs did not think it proper to offer salah at this time. Hence, it is enough to emulate them, so most of the jurists disallow this because this necessitates delay of the salah of Maghrib.

(۱۱۸۰) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كُنَّا بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ فَاِذَا اَذَّنَ الْمُؤَذِّنُ لِصَلَاةِ الْمَغْرِبِ ابْتَدَرُوا السَّوَارِىَ فَرَكَعُوا رَكْعَتَيْنِ حَتّٰى اِنَّ الرَّجُلَ الْغَرِيْبَ لَيَدْخُلُ الْمَسْجِدَ فَيَحْسَبُ اَنَّ الصَّلَاةَ قَدْ صُلِّيَتْ مِنْ كَثْرَةِ مَنْ يُصَلِّيْهِمَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1180. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that they were in Madinah and (it was such that) when the muadhdhin called the adhan for the salah of maghrib, the people rushed to the pillars and offered two rakaat. So much so that if a stranger came to the mosque, he would presume that the salah was over because of the very many who offered (salah of) the two rakaat. [1]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Teebi رحمه الله shafi said that this hadith is evidence that two rakaat may be offered after sunset and before the salah of maghrib. Mulla Ali Qari Hanafi رحمه الله, however, rejected this argument because this is a rarity, for, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم generally made haste to offer the maghrib salah while these two rakaat will cause a delay in offering it. Some ulama (Scholars) say that it puts the salah beyond its true time.
Hence, it may be said that Sayyiduna Anas رحمه الله did not report a regular practice but perhaps some people did so some day. Or, this may have been done earlier and was abandoned afterwards, so it is now makruh (unbecoming) to offer this salah.

(۱۱۸۱) وَعَنْ مَرْثَدِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ اَتَيْتُ عُقْبَةَ الْجُهَنِيَّ فَقُلْتُ اَلَا اُعَجِّبُكَ مِنْ اَبِيْ تَمِيْمٍ يَرْكَعُ رَكْعَتَيْنِ قَبْلَ صَلَاةِ الْمَغْرِبِ فَقَالَ عُقْبَةُ اِنَّا كُنَّا نَفْعَلُهُ عَلٰى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُلْتُ فَمَا يَمْنَعُكَ الْاٰنَ قَالَ الشُّغْلُ۔ (رواه البخارى)

1181. Sayyiduna Marthad Ibn Abdullah رحمه الله narrated that he went to (Sayyiduna) Uqbah al-Juhani رضی الله عنه and told him of a strange thing that Abu Tamim رحمه الله did offering two rakaat before the salah of maghrib. Uqbah رضی الله عنه said, "we used to do so in the times of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم (now and then)." He asked him what made them give it up and he replied, "Being occupied." [2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith establishes that this salah is not sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم ). If it were then a sahabi like Sayyiduna Uqbah رضی الله عنه would not have omitted a sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم ) for occupation in worldly affairs.

OPTIONAL SALAH AT HOME

(۱۱۸۲) وَعَنْ كَعْبِ بْنِ عُجْرَةَ قَالَ اِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتٰى مَسْجِدَ بَنِيْ عَبْدِالْاَشْهَلِ فَصَلّٰى فِيْهِ الْمَغْرِبَ فَلَمَّا قَضَوْا صَلَاتَهُمْ رَاٰهُمْ يُسَبِّحُوْنَ بَعْدَهَا فَقَالَ هٰذِهٖ صَلَاةُ الْبُيُوْتِ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ

[2] Bukhari # 1184, Musnad Ahmad 4-155. (A Footnote in Urdu says that voluntary salah may be put off to attend to work).

التِّرمِذِيّ وَالنَّسَائِيّ قَامَ نَاسٌ يُصَلُّوْنَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَيْكُمْ بِهٰذِهِ الصَّلَاةِ فِي الْبُيُوْتِ۔

1182. Sayyiduna Kab Ibn Ujrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (one day) the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to the mosque of Banu Abdul Ash.hal (an ansar tribe). He offered the salah of maghrib. When they finished their salah, he observed them glorifying Allah (offering the supererogatory or sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) of maghrib) and said, "These salah are observed at home."

Another version has: the people got up to offer the supererogatory salah, so the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "you must offer these salah at home."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is better to offer the optional salah, sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) muwakkadah or non-muwakkadah at home. This does away with ostentation and also fetches blessings and mercy in homes. But, it is not makruh (unbecoming) to offer these salah in the mosque. It is merely a question of merit. Moreover, this advice to offer the supererogatory at home applies to those who will go home after the fard (obligatory) salah. If they might offer them in the mosque itself.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the supererogatory at home, particularly the Sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) of maghrib. If there was expediency then he offered them in the mosque. Some ulama (Scholars) say that if the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) of maghrib are offered in the mosque then the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice is neglected. But, this command is a recommended type.

The Hidayh quotes Jami Saghir in its marginal notes that if anyone is apprehensive of missing the Sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) of Maghrib if he defers them to offer at home where his night is occupied in some work, then he must offer the Sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) of Maghrib in the courtyard of the mosque. If he is not likely to be occupied and miss them, then he must preferably offer the Sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) of Maghrib at home.

LENGTHY RECITAL

(١١٨٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُطِيْلُ الْقِرَاءَةَ فِي الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ بَعْدَ الْمَغْرِبِ حَتّٰى يَتَفَرَّقَ اَهْلُ الْمَسْجِدِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1183. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (sometimes) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made a lengthy recitation (of the Quran) in the two rakaat (sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم )) after the salah of maghrib such that people in the mosque dispersed (after their salah).[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith says that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the Sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ) of Maghrib in the mosque. There could have been a reason for that precluding him from going to his room. He might have been observing itikaf. He might have offered them in his room and Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ had observed him there, his room being attached to the mosque and the door opening inside.

As for the lengthy recitation of the Quran, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم may have done it some day otherwise he recited short surah in the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of maghrib, like al-Kafirun and al-Ikhlas.

SUPEREROGATORY AFTER MAGHRIB

(١١٨٤) وَعَنْ مَكْحُوْلٍ يَبْلُغُ بِهٖ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ صَلّٰى بَعْدَ الْمَغْرِبِ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَتَكَلَّمَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اَرْبَعَ رَكَعَاتٍ رُفِعَتْ صَلَاتُهٗ فِيْ عِلِّيِّيْنَ مُرْسَلًا۔

1184. Sayyiduna Makhul رحمه الله traced back to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (this hadith): Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone offers two rakaat - or, according to a version, four rakaat - after the salah of Maghrib, before he converses with anyone, then his salah is carried up to the illiyun."[1]
(It is in a mursal form).

COMMENTARY: The two rakaat could mean sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*. The four rakaat could mean two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* and two some other rakaat, or all four could be apart from sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*. These two or four rakaat that are other than sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) are called salatul awwabin. While its merit is mentioned elsewhere, it is stated here that this salah, or with it the fard (obligatory) too are taken up to the illiyun. This means that they attain the extreme degree of acceptance and the worshipper earn a very handsome uncountable reward.

ILLIYIUN: Illiyun is a place in the seventh heaven. The souls of the believers are brought here and their deeds are recorded here.

(١١٨٥) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ نَحْوَهٗ وَزَادَ فَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ عَجِّلُوْا الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ بَعْدَ الْمَغْرِبِ فَاِنَّهُمَا تُرْفَعَانِ مَعَ الْمَكْتُوْبَةِ رَوَاهُمَا رَزِيْنٌ وَرَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ الزِّيَادَةَ عَنْهُ نَحْوَهَا فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

1185. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضى الله عنه narrated the like of it (meaning, the hadith # 1184). and added that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to say, "Make haste to offer the two rakaat after the salah of Maghrib, for, they will be carried up together with the prescribed salah. "[2]
Razin transmitted it and the previous, and Bayhaqi tr^nsmitted the like to the addition:- shuab ul Eeman.

COMMENTARY: There are certain invocations, Supplications and other petitions that are made after the fard (obligatory) salah. These should be deferred to after these two optional rakaat so that the angels have not to wait before carrying them to the illiyun. This includes all kinds of adhkar and remembrance of Allah that are made after the fard (obligatory). If they would not be wrong and continue to be deemed to have been made after fard (obligatory). However, in the light of the recommendation to offer the Sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) and optional at home, these two raka'at should also be offered at home. If anyone's home is at a distance that does not matter. But, Allah knows best.

DISTINGUISH BETWEEN FARD (OBLIGATORY) AND OPTIONAL

أَرْسَلَ إِلَيَّ فَقَالَ لَا تَعُدْ لِمَا فَعَلْتَ إِذَا صَلَّيْتَ الْجُمُعَةَ فَلَا تَصِلْهَا بِصَلَاةٍ حَتَّى تَتَكَلَّمَ أَوْ تَخْرُجَ فَإِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ
صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَمَرَنَا بِذَلِكَ أَنْ لَا نُوصِلَ بِصَلَاةٍ حَتَّى نَتَكَلَّمَ أَوْ نَخْرُجَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1186. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Ata رحمه الله narrated that (Sayyiduna) Nafi Ibn Jubayr رحمه الله sent him to (Sayyiduna) Saib رضى الله عنه to ask him (to confirm) that which (Sayyiduna) Muawiyah رضى الله عنه had seen him do in the salah (and had forbidden him to repeat that. When he met and asked Saib رضى الله عنه, he confirmed, saying "Yes. I offered salah of Friday with him in al Maqsurah (an enclosure). When the imam gave the salutation to terminate the salah, I stood at my place and offered salah (the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) without making a difference with the fard (obligatory)). After Muawiyah رضى الله عنه went in (to his chambers), he sent me a message forbidding me to do what I had done, saying, when you have offered the Friday salah, do not join with it another salah before conversing or going out. Indeed, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had given us this command that we should not join (one) salah (with another salah) till we had made a conversation or gone out (of the mosque)."[1]

COMMENTARY: When the kings or chiefs came to the mosques in those times, they had a separate chamber within the mosque. It was called al-Maqsurah (an enclosure). The offered salah within it.

The command not to join two salahs applies not only to Friday but to any fard (obligatory) salah, and no optional salah should be joined with it. This is confirmed by the words of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated by Muawiyah رضى الله عنه. It speaks of any fard (obligatory) or prescribed salah.

After offering the fard (obligatory), the optional salah should be offered in such a way that the two salahs are clearly distinguished as different for example, after offering the fard (obligatory), another salah (sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) muwakkadah or otherwise) must not be offered at the same place. Rather, one must move a little and begin the other salah at another place. This will make a clear distinction between the two salahs and it will remove any confusion about the optional being a continuation of the fard (obligatory).

The words 'or we had gone out' indicate that movement. These words could imply going out of the mosque to one's home where the optional salah should be offered. They could also be a figurative command to move away from the place where the fard (obligatory) is offered and offer the optional at another place (within the mosque).

There is yet another way to make this distinction. It is to offer the fard (obligatory) and then engage in conversation with another person. This will mark a difference between the two (a discontinuance of the fard (obligatory) and a commencement of the next salah). This is what (حتى نتكلم) (till we had made a conversation) means. It must be borne in mind that this difference can only with Allah's dhikr or such other thing.

1187. Sayyiduna Ata رحمه الله said about (Sayyiduna) Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه that when he had offered the salah of Friday in Makkah, he stepped forward and offered two rakaat and again stepped forward and offered four rakaat salah. But, when he was in Madinah and had offered the salah of Friday, he returned to his home and offered two rakaat. He did not offer this salah in the mosque. When he was asked about it he said, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to do it."

In another version of tirmidhi he said, "I saw Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه offer, after the salah of Friday, two raka'at and after that he offered four rakaat."[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that Ibn Umar's رضى الله عنه conduct in Madinah was different from his practice in Makkah perhaps because his house in Madinah was close to the mosque. Since he was a traveller in Makkah, his house was far off so he offered the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) in the mosque itself by changing his place by a few footsteps.

Another difference in his conduct in the two places was that in Makkah he offered six rakaat after the Friday salah, but in Madinah he offered only two. The excess in much more reward in the Haram of Makkah than in Madinah, so he offered more rakaat in Makkah.

Mullah Ali Qari رحمه الله has said that initially Ibn umar رضى الله عنه used to offer two rakaat after the Friday salah. Then he began to offer four rakaat instead of two. In other words, he added two to make four. This is as Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds. But Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله contend that there are six sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) rakaat after Friday salah, four and two.

SUNNAH* IN FIQH HANAFI: Let us enumerate the rakaat of sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) in all the five times salah. There are two *sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم)*s Muwakkadah before the fard (obligatory) of fajr. They are the most emphasized of all sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) Muwakkadah so much so that some versions say that Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that they are wajib (expedient). Some ulama (Scholars) say that rejecting them might be that amount to disbelief. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had said, "Do not omit to offer the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) of fajr even if the horses trample you. This is merely to stress and encourage otherwise even the fard (obligatory) may be omitted if there is threat to life.

Before the fard (obligatory) of zuhr, there are four rakaat with a single salutation and after the fard (obligatory), two rakaat sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) Muwakkadah. On Friday, before the fard (obligatory) are four rakaat together sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) Muwakkadah and four sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) after the fard (obligatory), also together.

Before the fard (obligatory) of asr, there are four rakaat Mustahab (desirable) with one solution. After the fard (obligatory) of maghrib are two rakaat sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) Muwakkadah.
There are two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) Muwakkadah after the fard (obligatory) of Isha and four rakaat Mustahab (desirable) before the fard (obligatory) of isha with one salutation.
After the witr are two rakaat Mustahab (desirable) known from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

CHAPTER - XXXII

SALAH DURING THE NIGHT بَابُ صَلٰوةِ اللَّيْلِ

The salah during the night is called tahajjud and so on. The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم ahadith on this subject are included in this chapter.
There are different traditions and whichever of them is followed that will amount to obeying the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and will fetch the blessings of the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ). If all the traditions are followed, one by one, then it will be very reasonable and better and exactly in accordance with the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*.
The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم salah during the night consisted of thirteen, eleven, nine or seven raka'at. Some give the figure of five, too. But, he never offered more than thirteen. Some ulama (Scholars) have included the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of fajr in this number and some have not included them, and this better is correct.
There are varying traditions about the witr too. Some give the number of its raka'at as (only) one and some as three. Some traditions include the witr in the salah of tahajjud to count its raka'at. Some traditions exclude witr from the composition of the tahajjud so, some traditions apply witr to one raka'ah, some to three, five or seven. Rather, some traditions apply the nomenclature of witr to all the salah during the night.
This chapter will include all these traditions exhaustively.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

ELEVEN RAKA'AT BETWEEN ISHA & FAJR

(۱۱۸۸) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّي فِيْمَا بَيْنَ اَنْ يَّفْرُغَ مِنْ صَلَاةِ الْعِشَاءِ اِلَى الْفَجْرِ اِحْدٰى عَشَرَةَ رَكْعَةً يُسَلِّمُ مِنْ كُلِّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَيُوْتِرُ بِوَاحِدَةٍ فَيَسْجُدُ السَّجْدَةَ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ قَدْرَ مَا يَقْرَأُ اَحَدُكُمْ خَمْسِيْنَ اٰيَةً قَبْلَ اَنْ يَرْفَعَ رَأْسَهٗ فَاِذَا سَكَتَ الْمُؤَذِّنُ مِنْ صَلَاةِ الْفَجْرِ وَتَبَيَّنَ لَهُ الْفَجْرُ قَامَ فَرَكَعَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ خَفِيْفَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ اضْطَجَعَ عَلٰى شِقِّهِ الْاَيْمَنِ حَتّٰى يَاْتِيَهُ الْمُؤَذِّنُ لِلْاِقَامَةِ فَيَخْرُجُ۔ (متفق عليه)

1188. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated that after he finished offering the salah of isha till (the time of) fajr, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed (generally) eleven raka'at, giving the salutation after every two raka'at and making (their total) add by one raka'ah (witr), in which he prostrated himself for so long as one of you might recite fifty verses before raising his head. When the mu'adhdhin finished the call for the salah of fajr and dawn was clear to him, he stood up and offered two short raka'at (of the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of fajr). Then he lay down on his night side (for some time) till the mu'adhdhin came to him (to get permission) for the iqamah, so he would go out (to the mosque). [1]

COMMENTARY: He made them add by one raka'ah (witr) does not mean that he offered a single raka'ah by itself. Rather, of the eleven raka'at, he offered one raka'ah with the ninth and tenth to make them three (instead of two) and so the witr (an uneven, odd number).

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله Shafi'I said that this hadith confirms two things.

(i) The least number of raka'at for witr is one which means that one may offer a single raka'ah of witr by itself.

(ii) When praying the tahajjud, the salutation is made at the end of every two raka'at.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله subscribe to this contention. As for the prostration, it seems that he made the lengthy prostration in every raka'ah. It could also mean that he made it lengthy only in one of the prostrations of witr or in all the prostration of witr.

Some people make two prostrations after the salah of witr with a seizing ecstasy at some places. Some weak, unsound juristic traditions speak highly of their merit. However, it must be known that there is no evidence at all of these two prostrations in the ahadith and also in the authentic tradition of fiqh. Moreover, these two prostrations are not made either in the two sacred Mosques or anywhere else in the Arab lands. There also is a hadith that classifies these prostrations as simply in invented ruse. Besides none of the four imams hold this practice as masnun or mustahab (desirable) and, in fact, some of the hanafis in the Arab countries do not even know about it and some scholars terms it as makruh (unbecoming). Hence, if this is practiced anywhere it should be abandoned.

As for the two raka'at of the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) of fajr being brief, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited in these raka'at surahs al-Kafirun and al-Ikhlas. While this is mustahab (desirable), it is not binding to recite only these surahs.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم lay down for a while after offering the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) of fajr to ward off fatigue after worship of Allah during the night. Hence, it is Mustahab (desirable) for anyone who engages in worship during the night to lie down for a while after offering the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) of fajr.

CONVERSING BETWEEN SUNNAH & FARD OF FAJR

(۱۱۸۹) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيِ الْفَجْرِ فَإِنْ كُنْتُ مُسْتَيْقِظَةً حَدَّثَنِي وَإِلَّا اضْطَجَعَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1189. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had finished praying the two raka'at (sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم)) of fajr, if I was awake he would converse with me other wise he would lie down.[2]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that it is wrong to presumed that conversation between fard (obligatory) and sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) wipes out all reward. However the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never talked of worldly affairs. He only talked about religion. So, it is not preferable to converse of worldly matters after offering the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) salah and waiting for the fard (obligatory) because the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) are meant to prepare one for the fard (obligatory).

Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahalwi رحمه الله has written that the ulama (Scholars) among the sahabah (companions) have said that it is makruh (unbecoming) to engage in worldly conversation after rise of down till the salah of fajr.

Or, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم discussed some urgent affair as is apparent from another hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رحمه الله:

إِنْ كَانَتْ لَهُ إِلَيَّ حَاجَةٌ كَلَّمَنِيْ

"If he had a need from me then he talked to me."

REST AFTER SUNNAH

(۱۱۹۰) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيِ الْفَجْرِ اضْطَجَعَ عَلَى شِقِّهِ الْأَيْمَنِ۔

1190. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated that after having offered the two raka'at (sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم )) of fajr, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم lay down on his right side.[1]

(۱۱۹۱) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّي مِنَ اللَّيْلِ ثَلَاثَ عَشَرَةَ رَكْعَةً مِّنْهَا الْوِتْرُ وَرَكْعَتَا الْفَجْرِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1191. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to offer thirteen raka'at during the night. Among them were (three raka'at of) the witr and two (sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم )) of fajr.[2]

COMMENTARY: Though the hadith does not mention 'three raka'at' with the salah of witr, yet there is no harm in counting them as three because all the ulama (Scholars) agree that witr is made up of three raka'at. Moreover, another hadith mentions its three raka'at clearly. In his Shama'il, Tirmidhi has mentioned the hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه, namely:

ثم يصلى ثلثا

After that he performed three raka'at.

ثُمَّ أَوْتَرَ بِثَلَاثٍ

Performed three raka'at witr."[3]

This hadith counts the raka'at as thirteen by including the two of the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of fajr, otherwise the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered eleven raka'at in the night inclusive of witr. The two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ) of fajr are counted together because there was not much gap between them and the tahajjud.

Rather, both were offered nearly together, so the two raka'at are counted with the tahajjud.

(۱۱۹۲) وَعَنْ مَسْرُوْقٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ عَآئِشَةَ عَنْ صَلَاةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِاللَّيْلِ فَقَالَتْ سَبْعٌ وَّتِسْعٌ وَإِحْدٰى عَشَرَةَ رَكْعَةً سِوَى رَكْعَتَيِ الْفَجْرِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1192. Sayyiduna Masruq رحمه الله said that he asked SAyyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه about the salah of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم in the night. She said, "(He offered) seven or nine or eleven raka'at (at different times), not including the two raka'at of fajr.[1]

COMMENTARY: The eleven raka'at of tahajjud*(super erogatory prayer)* do not include the two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم ) of fajr but when thirteen are mentioned they include the two.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله says of the hadith that mentions fifteen raka'at, it is possible that the tahajjud comprised thirteen and two of fajr (sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم )) made up fifteen. However, we cannot rule out that twelve raka'at of tahajjud and three of witr added up to fifteen. This contention is drawn from the tradition that when the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was overcome by sleep and he did not offer the tahajjud, he offered twelve raka'at during the day.

THE INITIAL TWO RAKA'AT OF TAHAJJUD

(۱۱۹۳) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا قَامَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ لِيُصَلِّيَ إِفْتَتَحَ صَلَاتَهُ بِرَكْعَتَيْنِ خَفِيْفَتَيْنِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1193. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه said that when the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم got up in the night to offer the salah, he began his salah with two brief raka'at.[2]

COMMENTARY: The kitab Azhar says that the two short raka'at are the two offered after ablution. It is mustahab (desirable) to make them brief. However, the correct thing is that both these were part of the tahajjud and stood for the tahiyat ul wudu and the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم did not offer salah for ablution apart from them.

(۱۱۹٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا قَامَ اَحَدُكُمْ مِّنَ اللَّيْلِ فَلْيَفْتَتِحِ الصَّلَاةَ بِرَكْعَتَيْنِ خَفِيْفَتَيْنِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1194. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When any of your arises in the night, let him begin the salah with two brief raka'at."[3]

1195. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I spent a night with my maternal aunt Maymunah رضی اللہ عنہ while the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was with her. He conversed with his family for some time and then went to sleep. When it was the last one third of the night or somewhat after that, he got up, looked at the sky and recited:

...up to the end of the surah (3:190-200). Then he got up and went to the bucket, loosened its cord and poured some water into a bowl. Then he made ablution well, between two kinds (which was moderate), not pouring two much water. When it was done, he stood up to pray. I too got up, performed ablution and stood to his left side, but he took me by the ear and pulled me round to his right. His salah was completed at thirteen raka'at. Then, he lay down and went to sleep, snoring as he was used to snore. Soon, Bilal announced to him the time of salah (calling the adhan). So, he offered the salah (the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم )) without making ablution. His supplication (between sunnah and fard (optional and obligatory)) was:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ فِي قَلْبِي نُوْرًا وَّفِي بَصَرِي نُوْرًا وَّفِي سَمْعِي نُوْرًا وَّعَنْ يَمِيْنِي نُوْرًا وَّعَنْ يَسَارِي نُوْرًا وَّفَوْقِي نُوْرًا وَّتَحْتِي نُوْرًا وَّ أَمَامِي نُوْرًا وَّ خَلْفِي نُوْرًا وَّاجْعَلْ لِّي نُوْرًا

'O Allah, grow light in my heart, light in my sight, light in my hearing, light to my right, light to my left, light below me, light in front of me, light behind me, and grow in my light.'
Some added:

وَفِي لِسَانِي نُوْرًا وَّذَكَرَ وَعَصَبِي وَلَحْمِي وَدَمِي وَشَعْرِي وَبَشَرِي

'and light in my tongue.'
And also mentioned 'my joints, my flesh, my blood, my hair, my skin.'"

وَاجْعَلْ فِي نَفْسِي نُوْرًا وَّأَعْظِمْ لِي نُوْرًا

According to another version, he said, 'Grow light in my sould and let me have plentiful light.'
In yet another version, he said, 'O Allah, grant me light.'[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not make ablution though he had slept because ablution is not negated simply on sleeping. There is a possibility of ablution being negated during sleep (not because of sleep). Since the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heart never slept and was awake even when he slept, he would have known if his ablution was negated. We cannot assume that he could not have known if his ablution was negated.

This hadith establishes that it is not makruh (unbecoming) to talk, after isha, of religious things or of personal things with one's family.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered thirteen raka'at in the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) inclusive of the two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* of fajr as in the previous hadith, but also exclusive of the two sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* as in this hadith, or different times.

As for snoring, it is a sign of clear nostrils and physical health. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was perfectly healthy both spiritually and internally as well as physically and bodily.

The supplication in the hadith is called du'a tawil (lengthy prayer). Most of the Shaykhs make this supplication Shaykh Imam Shahabuddin Suhrwardy رحمه الله has written in Awarif that whoever makes this supplication regularly possesses one blessing.

WITR COMPRISE THREE RAKA'AT

(١١٩٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّهُ رَقَدَ عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاسْتَيْقَظَ وَتَسَوَّكَ وَتَوَضَّأَ وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ إِنَّ فِيْ خَلْقِ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ حَتّٰى خَتَمَ السُّوْرَةَ ثُمَّ قَامَ فَصَلّٰى رَكْعَتَيْنِ أَطَالَ فِيْهِمَا الْقِيَامَ وَالرُّكُوْعَ وَالسُّجُوْدَ ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ فَنَامَ حَتّٰى نَفَخَ ثُمَّ فَعَلَ ذٰلِكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ سِتَّ رَكَعَاتٍ كُلَّ ذٰلِكَ يَسْتَاكُ وَيَتَوَضَّأُ وَيَقْرَأُ هٰؤُلَاءِ الْآيَاتِ ثُمَّ أَوْتَرَ بِثَلَاثٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1196. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that once he slept in the house of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. He woke up (in the night) used the siwak, made ablution and recited (the verses):

{Surely in the creation of the heavens and the earth....} (3:190 to end of surah). Then, he stood up and offered two raka'at in which he prolonged the postures of standing. Bowing and prostrations. Then, he finished and went to sleep and snored. Then he did that three times, all that coming to six raka'at each times using the siwak, making ablution and reciting these verses. Then he made that odd by offering three raka'at (of witr).[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith says explicitly that witr comprises three raka'at. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله abides by it. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله said that while witr can be only one raka'ah yet it is makruh (unbecoming) to offer only one raka'ah by itself.

1197. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn al-Juhaniy رضى الله عنه narrated that he resolved to observe one night the salah of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. So, (he watched him and) he offered two raka'at briefly, then two long, long, long raka'at. Then he offered two raka'at which were shorter than the two preceding ones and, again, he offered two raka'at which were shorter than the too preceding ones. Once again, he offered two raka'at which were shorter than the two preceding raka'at. Then once again, he offered two raka'at which were shorter than the two proceeding ones. Then he offered (the witr) a single raka'ah adding up to thirteen (in all). [1]

The words; 'then he offered two raka'at which were shorter than the two preceding one's are mentioned four times in Muslim, Humaydi's book of Muslim Maalik's Muwatta, Abu Dawud and Jami ul Usul.

COMMENTARY: We cannot say with certainty whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offerd one raka'ah or three raka'at of witr. If we do not count the two brief raka'at as part of this salah then the witr was made up of three and if we count the two brief raka'at as part of this salah. When witr was just one raka'ah. However, it is correct and clear that the two brief raka'at were not part of this salah; hence, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered three raka'at of witr
As for the words 'then he offered two raka'at which were shorter than the two preceding ones, they are mentioned four times in the books named in the preceding lines but the compiler of the Masabih has mentioned these words there times. Hence the compiler of Mishkat has gone to the trouble to name the book, for, otherwise, the count of the raka'at comes to eleven instead of thirteen.

1198. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم grew old and (because of that) heavy, he offered the (optional) salah mostly sitting.[2]

RECITATION IN TAHAJJUD

(۱۱۹۹) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ لَقَدْ عَرَفْتُ النَّظَآئِرَ الَّتِیْ کَانَ النَّبِیُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْرِنُ بَيْنَهُنَّ فَذَكَرَ عِشْرِيْنَ سُوْرَةً مِّنْ اَوَّلِ الْمُفَصَّلِ عَلٰى تَالِيْفِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ سُوْرَتَيْنِ فِیْ رَكْعَةٍ اٰخِرُهُنَّ حٰمٓ الدُّخَانُ وعَمَّ يَتَسَآءَلُوْنَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1199. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Indeed, I do know the similar or comparable surahs that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used combine." So, he enumerated the twenty surahs at the beginning of al-Mufassal in accordance with his arrangement. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to recite them in pairs in each raka'at. The last of them are Haa Meem ad Dukhan and Amma Yatasa aloon (حٰمٓ الدُّخَانُ وعَمَّ يَتَسَآءَلُوْنَ).[1]

COMMENTARY: The surahs that are comparable are those that are identical in length and brevity. As for al-mufassal, we have explained it in the chapter on recital of the Quran (باب القران), the surahs from al-Hujarat to the end of the Quran.

The twenty surahs that are comparable according to the arrangement of Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ, who had collected the verses of the noble Quran together, are enumerated by Ibn Abu Dawud. They are:

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited pairs of surahs in each raka'at in this manner:

Ar-Rahman and an Najm in one raka'ah. Iqtaratabis sa'ah and al Haqqah in a rakaah. At-Tur and adh Dhariyat in one. Al-Waqiah and Noon (or al Qalam) in one. Sa'il sa'ilun and an-Nazi'at in one. Al-Mutaffifin and Abasa in one. Al-Muddaththir and al-Muzzammil in one. Ad-Dhar and al-Qiyamah in one. Amma Yata salun (an Naba) and al-Mursalat in one. Ad-Dukhan and al-Kuwwirat in one.[2]

Ibn Abu Dawud has clarified that this is put here in the arrangement of Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ in his compilation.[3]

Though according to the hadith the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم should have recited ad-Dukhan and amma yata sa alun (an Naba) in one raka'ah, it is not so. The reason is that these two surahs are not identical in length or comparable, and moreover, in this way the concluding portion of this hadith will differ with its apparent meaning. Hence, these words of the hadith would be said to mean; 'The last of these twenty surah is Haa Meem ad-Dukhan and its comparable surah is at-Takwir (Kuwwirat), and an Naba whose comparable is al-Mursalat." After this explanation, it would imply that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited Haa Meem ad-Dukhan and Izashamsu Kuwwirat (al Takwir) in one raka'ah both of which are comparable, and also amma yatasa alun (an Naba) and al-Mursalat in one rak'ah which two are also comparable.

ORDER OF RECITING THE QURAN: The ulama (Scholars) concur that the Quran must be recited in the order in which it is arranged. It should not be recited in any other sequence. Of course, if it is to teach children, then one is allowed to make them read from the closing chapters. If it is recited in salah out of sequence then it would be contrary to the preferred and, in fact, some ulama (Scholars) say that it is makruh (unbecoming) to do so. Imam Ahmad also contends it to be makruh (unbecoming).

IF AN NAAS IS RECITED IN THE FIRST RAKA'AH: If anyone recites surah an-Naas (the last surah) in the first raka'ah, what should he recite in the second raka'ah? Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that he should recite the same surah, an-Naas, in the second raka'ah. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله said that he should recite from the beginning of surah al-Baqarah from.

The first five verses. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله too, is reported to have said the same thing in one verdict. In fact, this is a better practice.

THE PROPHET'S TAHAJJUD(SUPER EROGATORY PRAYER)

(١٢٠٠) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ اَنَّهُ رَأَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّي مِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ ثَلَاثًا ذُوالْمَلَكُوْتِ وَالْجَبَرُوْتِ وَالْكِبْرِيَآءِ وَالْعَظَمَةِ ثُمَّ اسْتَفْتَحَ فَقَرَأَ الْبَقَرَةَ ثُمَّ رَكَعَ فَكَانَ رُكُوْعُهُ نَحْوًا مِّنْ قِيَامِهِ فَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ فِيْ رُكُوْعِهِ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّيَ الْعَظِيْمِ ثُمَّ رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ مِنَ الرُّكُوْعِ فَكَانَ قِيَامُهُ نَحْوًا مِنْ رُكُوْعِهِ يَقُوْلُ لِرَبِّيَ الْحَمْدُ ثُمَّ سَجَدَ فَكَانَ سُجُوْدُهُ نَحْوًا مِّنْ قِيَامِهِ فَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ فِيْ سُجُوْدِهِ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّيَ الْاَعْلٰى ثُمَّ رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ مِنَ السُّجُوْدِ وَكَانَ يَقْعُدُ فِيْمَا بَيْنَ السَّجْدَتَيْنِ نَحْوًا مِّنْ سُجُوْدِهِ وَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ رَبِّ اغْفِرْلِيْ رَبِّ اغْفِرْلِيْ فَصَلّٰى اَرْبَعَ رَكْعَاتٍ قَرَأَ فِيْهِنَّ الْبَقَرَةَ وَاٰلَ عِمْرَانَ وَالنِّسَآءَ وَالْمَائِدَةَ اَوِالْاَنْعَامَ شَكَّ شُعْبَةُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1200. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی الله عنه narrated that he saw the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offer salah in the night. He said Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Greatest) three times and said:

ذُوالْمَلَكُوْتِ وَالْجَبَرُوْتِ وَالْكِبْرِيَآءِ وَالْعَظَمَةِ

'Owner of the kingdom, power, greatness and might.'

Then he began (the salah with the thana) and recited al-Baqarah and went into ruku and his ruku was nearly as long as his standing posture. In ruku he said (سبحن ربی العظیم) 'Glorified is my Lord (who is) Mighty. He then raised his head from ruku and stood for nearly as long as he had been in ruku, saying (لربی الحمد) to my Lord be praise.' Then he prostrated himself and his prostration lasted about is long as his standing. He said, in his prostration (سبحن ربی الاعلی) 'Glorified is my Lord (who is) most high. Then he raised his head from the prostration and sat down between the two prostrations (which is called jalsah) for nearly as long as he had been in his prostration, saying the while

'My Lord forgive me, my lord forgive me.'

Thus, he offered four raka'at in which he recited al-Baqara, Aal Imran, an-Nisa and alMa'idah or al-Anam. Here, Shuba was uncertain (about which of the two).[1]

COMMENTARY: The words that his ruku was as long as his standing do not mean that in reality it took him as much time. Rather, just as his standing was longer than usual, so too his ruku extended beyond the normal length of ruku. Sometimes, however the ruku was really or the some length as the standing. This is as Nasai has transmitted from Sayyiduna Awf ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ.

As for the words (ربی اغفرلی) 'my Lord forgive me' either he spoke them twice or more then twice, many times. Allah knows best.

PROLONGED STANDING

(۱۲۰۱) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَامَ بِعَشْرِ اٰيَاتٍ لَمْ يُكْتَبْ مِنَ الْغَافِلِيْنَ وَمَنْ قَامَ بِمِائَةِ اٰيَةٍ كُتِبَ مِنَ الْقَانِتِيْنَ وَمَنْ قَامَ بِاَلْفِ اٰيَةٍ كُتِبَ مِنَ الْمُقَنْطِرِيْنَ۔

1201. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who stands (in salah) reciting ten verses will not be recorded among the negligent. He who stands reciting one hundred verses will be recorded among the obedient. He will stands reciting one thousand verses will be recorded along theose who earn very abundant rewards."[2]

COMMENTARY: The distinction as mentioned in the hadith will be available to anyone who recites the verses ten, one hundred or one thousand.

However, two questions do arise:

(i) Have these verses to be recited in one raka'ah or two raka'at.

(ii) Is surah al-Fatihah included in the number of verses mention, or have they to be recited apart from it?

Ibn Hajar رحمہ اللہ said that the number of verses may be recited in two or more raka'at.

As for the second question, though the words of the hadith seem to say ten verses (etc) apart from al-Fatihah, yet the reward will accrue even if surah al-fatihah is included. There are seven verses in al-Fatihah and if one recites three more, he will qualify for reward on ten verses (and so on), and this is the lowest degree of recitation.

The word (القانین) is one who is constantly obedient, or one who stands in worship of Allah and prolongs the standing. This status is available to one who recites one hundred verses in salah and this is a very auspicious and fortunate rank.

Allamah Teebi's رحمہ اللہ explanation of this hadith tells us that it is absolute in its application not limited to day or night and to whichever kind of salah.

However, Allamah Baghawi رحمہ اللہ says that it applies only to salah in the night, the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) and, therefore, it finds a place in the chapter (صلوۃ الیل) salah in the night. Only one who abides by it in tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) will qualify for this reward.

Some ulama (Scholars) have interpreted its word qiyam (قیام) to mean to stand by ten (etc) verses. It is to memorise them, recite them regularly, to reflect on their meaning and to abide by them. Allah knows best.

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم RECITAL

(١٢٠٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَتْ قِرَآءَةُ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِاللَّيْلِ يَرْفَعُ طَوْرًا وَيَخْفِضُ طَوْرًا۔

1202. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that in the (salah at) night, the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم recitation was in a loud voice sometimes and in a low voice sometimes.[1]

COMMENTARY: He made his recitation according to the circumstances. The ulama (Scholars) say that if he was alone with no one around then he recited in a loud voice but if there was someone else close by and his sleep could be disturbed then he recited in a low voice.

(١٢٠٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَتْ قِرَآءَةُ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى قَدْرِ مَا يَسْمَعُهُ مَنْ فِي الْحُجْرَةِ وَهُوَ فِي الْبَيْتِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1203. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the recitation of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in such a voice that anyone in the outer portion of the room could hear it when he was in the inner portion.[2]

COMMENTARY: He was neither loud nor too soft. His voice was audible enough over a short distance from the inside to the courtyard.

RECITATION OF ABU BAKR رضی الله عنه AND UMAR IN TAHAJJUD (SUPEREROGATORY PRAYER)

(١٢٠٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ لَيْلَةً فَاِذَا هُوَ بِاَبِيْ بَكْرٍ يُصَلِّيْ وَيَخْفِضُ مِنْ صَوْتِهٖ وَمَرَّ بِعُمَرَ وَهُوَ يُصَلِّيْ رَافِعًا صَوْتَهٗ قَالَ فَلَمَّا اجْتَمَعَا عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَا اَبَابَكْرٍ مَرَرْتُ بِكَ وَاَنْتَ تُصَلِّيْ تَخْفِضُ صَوْتَكَ قَالَ قَدْ اَسْمَعْتُ مَنْ نَّاجَيْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَقَالَ لِعُمَرَ مَرَرْتُ بِكَ وَاَنْتَ تُصَلِّيْ رَافِعًا صَوْتَكَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اُوْقِظُ الْوَسْنَانَ وَاَطْرُدُ الشَّيْطَانَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا اَبَابَكْرٍ اِرْفَعْ مِنْ صَوْتِكَ شَيْئًا وَقَالَ لِعُمَرَ اِخْفِضْ مِنْ صَوْتِكَ شَيْئًا۔

1204. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم

went out one night. He came by (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ who was offering salah with a soft voice and then he came by (Sayyiduna) Umar رضی اللہ عنہ who was offering salah with a high, raised voice. When they both were together with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, he remarked, "O Abu Bakr I found you offering salah in a low voice." He submitted, "I wished Him to hear with whom I was engaged in intimate conversation, O Messenger of Allah." Then, he remarked to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, "I passed by you and you offered salah with your voice raised high." He submitted "O Messenger of Allah, I wished to awaken those who were asleep and to drive away the devil." So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "O Abu Bakr, raise your voice a bit," and to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ he said, "Lower your voice a bit," (In this way, he guided both of them towards toleration.)[1]

ALL NIGHT WITH ONE VERSE

(١٢٠٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى اَصْبَحَ بِاٰيَةٍ وَالْاٰيَةُ اِنْ تُعَذِّبْهُمْ فَاِنَّهُمْ عِبَادُكَ وَاِنْ تَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ فَاِنَّكَ اَنْتَ الْعَزِيْزُ الْحَكِيْمُ۔ (رواه النسائی وابن ماجة)

1205. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (one night while offering the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer)), Allah's Messnger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stood (in salah) till morning reciting one verse. And the verse was

{If you chastise them, surely they are your slaves! And if you forgive them, surely you are the Mighty, the wise.}[2] (5:118)

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Eesa علیہ السلام will make this supplication to Allah, the Exalted, on the day of resurrection for his ummah. And, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who is mercy personified for the two worlds and the intercessor on the day of gathering recited this very verse with his ummah in mind, seeking forgiveness for them from the time he stood for tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) till dawn.

AFTER SUNNAH OF FAJR

(١٢٠٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا صَلّٰى اَحَدُكُمْ رَكْعَتَيِ الْفَجْرِ فَلْيَضْطَجِعْ عَلٰى يَمِيْنِهٖ۔ (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

1206. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When one of you has offered the two rakaat (sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم)) of fajr, let him lie down on his right side."[3]

COMMENTARY: This command is given that one who has worshipped during the night might get some relief from fatigue and be prepared for the fard (obligatory) salah.

Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that the command is of a mustahab (desirable) nature for one who has kept vigil in prayer during the night.

The hanafi scholar of hadith shaykh sayyid zakariya رحمه الله said that it is better to adopt this procedure in private, in ones home, not before everyone in the mosque. Besides, one must not let sleep overtake him and then arise and join the congregation without making ablution.

(١٢٠٧) عَنْ مَسْرُوْقٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ عَائِشَةَ أَيُّ الْعَمَلِ كَانَ أَحَبَّ إِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَتِ الدَّائِمُ قُلْتُ فَأَيَّ حِيْنٍ كَانَ يَقُوْمُ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ قَالَتْ كَانَ يَقُوْمُ إِذَا سَمِعَ الصَّارِخَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1207. Sayyiduna Masruq رحمه الله said that he asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه "What deed was dearest to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم?" She said, "The deed which one does with regularity." He asked, "At what time did he get up in the night (for the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) salah)? " She said, "When he heard the cock's crow."[1]

COMMENTARY: Doing something with regularity is to do a pious and a purposeful deed always, even if, as some traditions say, it is little.

In Arabic the cock crows after midnight. That was when the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم got up and offered salah.

WORSHIP IN THE NIGHT

(١٢٠٨) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ مَا كُنَّا نَشَاءُ أَنْ نَّرٰى رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي اللَّيْلِ مُصَلِّيًا إِلَّا رَأَيْنَاهُ وَلَا نَشَاءُ أَنْ نَّرَاهُ نَائِمًا إِلَّا رَأَيْنَاهُ۔ (رواه النسائی)

1208. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated, ."If we wished to see Allah's Messenger offer salah at night, we did indeed see him offer salah, and if we wished to see him sleeping, we did indeed see him asleep."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه meant to say that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم exercised moderation in offering the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) and doing other deeds. He did not go to extremes in worship neither did he omit it altogether in sleep. One could see him engaged in worship as one saw him sleeping.

(١٢٠٩) وَعَنْ حُمَيْدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ قَالَ إِنَّ رَجُلًا مِّنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ قُلْتُ وَأَنَا فِيْ سَفَرٍ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاللّٰهِ لَأَرْقُبَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِلصَّلَاةِ حَتّٰى أَرٰى فِعْلَهُ فَلَمَّا صَلّٰى صَلَاةَ الْعِشَاءِ وَهِيَ الْعَتَمَةُ اِضْطَجَعَ هَوِيًّا مِنَ اللَّيْلِ ثُمَّ اسْتَيْقَظَ فَنَظَرَ فِي الْأُفُقِ فَقَالَ رَبَّنَا مَا خَلَقْتَ هٰذَا بَاطِلًا حَتّٰى بَلَغَ إِلٰى إِنَّكَ لَا تُخْلِفُ الْمِيْعَادَ ثُمَّ أَهْوٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلٰى فِرَاشِهٖ فَاسْتَلَّ مِنْهُ سِوَاكًا ثُمَّ أَفْرَغَ فِيْ قَدَحٍ مِّنْ إِدَاوَةٍ عِنْدَهُ مَاءً فَاسْتَنَّ ثُمَّ قَامَ فَصَلّٰى حَتّٰى قُلْتُ قَدْ صَلّٰى قَدْرَ مَا نَامَ ثُمَّ اضْطَجَعَ حَتّٰى قُلْتُ قَدْ نَامَ قَدْرَ مَا صَلّٰى ثُمَّ اسْتَيْقَظَ فَفَعَلَ كَمَا فَعَلَ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ وَقَالَ مِثْلَ مَا قَالَ فَفَعَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ قَبْلَ الْفَجْرِ۔ (رواه النسائی)

1209. Sayyiduna Humayd ibn Abdur Rahman Ibn Awf رحمه الله reported that one of the sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated that he thought to himself during a journey with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should watch his salah till he saw his deed. When he offered the salah of isha, which is al-atmah, he lay down for some time in the night. Then he awoke looked at the horizon and recited the verse from:

رَبَّنَا مَا خَلَقْتَ هٰذَا بَاطِلًا

إِنَّكَ لَا تُخْلِفُ الْمِيْعَادَ

(3:191-194), the he looked into his bedding and brought out the siwak. Then he poured into a bowl some water from a water skin beside him. He cleansed his teeth (made ablution), stood up and prayed. The sahabi رضى الله عنه thought to himself that he had offered salah for as much time as he had slept. Then he lay down till it seemed to him that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had slept for as much time as he had prayed. Then he awoke and did as he had done first time and recited as he had recited. So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did that three times before fajr[1]

COMMENTARY: As for the verses of the Quran it is possible that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited as much as the narrator has reported, or he recited till the end of the surah but the narrator had heard him up to this point only. The hadith # 1195 of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه mentions that he recited up to the end of the surah.

(١٢١٠) وَعَنْ يَعْلَى بْنِ مُمْلَكٍ اَنَّهُ سَأَلَ اُمَّ سَلَمَةَ زَوْجَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ قِرَآءَةِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَصَلَاتِهٖ فَقَالَتْ وَمَا لَكُمْ وَصَلَاتِهٖ كَانَ يُصَلِّي ثُمَّ يَنَامُ قَدْرَ مَا صَلَّى ثُمَّ يُصَلِّي قَدْرَ مَا نَامَ ثُمَّ يَنَامُ قَدْرَ مَا صَلَّى ثُمَّ يُصَلِّي قَدْرَ مَانَامَ ثُمَّ يَنَامُ قَدْرَ مَا صَلَّى حَتّٰى يُصْبِحَ ثُمَّ نَعَتَتْ قِرَآءَتَهٗ فَإِذَا هِيَ تَنْعَتُ قِرَآءَةً مُفَسَّرَةً حَرْفًا حَرْفًا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذى والنسائى)

1210. Sayyiduna Yala Ibn Mumlak رحمه الله reported that he asked Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنه, wife of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the recitation and salah of the prophet. She asked," And how can you compare with his salah? He used to offer salah and sleep for so much time as he had prayed and again offer salah for as much time as he had slept and again sleep for as much time as he had prayed, till morning." Then, she described his recitation, making the description very vivid and word for word.[2]

WHAT DID THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم SAY WHEN HE WOKE UP DURING THE NIGHT

بَابُ مَا يَقُوْلُ إِذَا قَامَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRAYER

(١٢١١) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا قَامَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ يَتَهَجَّدُ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ اَنْتَ قَيِّمُ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيْهِنَّ وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ اَنْتَ نُوْرُ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيْهِنَّ وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ اَنْتَ مَلِكُ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيْهِنَّ وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ اَنْتَ الْحَقُّ وَوَعْدُكَ الْحَقُّ وَالنَّارُ حَقٌّ وَّقَوْلُكَ حَقٌّ وَّالْجَنَّةُ حَقٌّ وَالنَّارُ حَقٌّ وَالنَّبِيُّوْنَ حَقٌّ وَّمُحَمَّدٌ حَقٌّ وَالسَّاعَةُ حَقٌّ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ اَسْلَمْتُ وَبِكَ اٰمَنْتُ وَعَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَاِلَيْكَ اَنَبْتُ وَبِكَ خَاصَمْتُ وَاِلَيْكَ حَاكَمْتُ فَاغْفِرْ لِيْ مَاقَدَّمْتُ وَمَا اَخَّرْتُ وَمَا اَسْرَرْتُ وَمَا اَعْلَنْتُ وَمَا اَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ بِهٖ مِنِّيْ اَنْتَ الْمُقَدِّمُ وَاَنْتَ الْمُؤَخِّرُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ وَلَا اِلٰهَ غَيْرُكَ۔

1211. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم got up during the night to offer the salah of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer), he prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ اَنْتَ قَيِّمُ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيْهِنَّ وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ اَنْتَ نُوْرُ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيْهِنَّ وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ اَنْتَ مَلِكُ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيْهِنَّ وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ اَنْتَ الْحَقُّ وَوَعْدُكَ الْحَقُّ وَالنَّارُ حَقٌّ وَّقَوْلُكَ حَقٌّ وَّالْجَنَّةُ حَقٌّ وَالنَّارُ حَقٌّ وَالنَّبِيُّوْنَ حَقٌّ وَّمُحَمَّدٌ حَقٌّ وَالسَّاعَةُ حَقٌّ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ اَسْلَمْتُ وَبِكَ اٰمَنْتُ وَعَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَاِلَيْكَ اَنَبْتُ وَبِكَ خَاصَمْتُ وَاِلَيْكَ حَاكَمْتُ فَاغْفِرْ لِيْ مَاقَدَّمْتُ وَمَا اَخَّرْتُ وَمَا اَسْرَرْتُ وَمَا اَعْلَنْتُ وَمَا اَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ بِهٖ مِنِّيْ اَنْتَ الْمُقَدِّمُ وَاَنْتَ الْمُؤَخِّرُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ وَلَا اِلٰهَ غَيْرُكَ

"O Allah, praise belongs to you; you are the guardian creator of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them. And praise belongs to you, you are the king of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them. And, praise belongs to you, you are true and your promise is true and the meeting with you is true and your word is true and paradise is true and hell is true and the Prophets are true and Muhammad is true and the Hour is true.

O Allah, to you do I surrender and in you do I believe and upon you do I rely and to you do I turn (in repentance) and with your help do I contend and your judgment do I seek. So forgive me that which I have committed and that which I have put back and that which I have concealed and that which I have disclosed and that which you know better than I.

You are the one who brings forward and you are the one who defers. There is no

God but you. There is no deity other than you."[1]

COMMENTARY: It seems that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made this supplication after the takbir tahrimah or after ruku in the qawmah.

1212. Sayyidah Ayshah narrated that when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم got up in the night, he began his salah praying:

" اَللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّ جِبْرِيْلَ وَمِيْكَائِيْلَ وَإِسْرَافِيْلَ فَاطِرَ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ عَالِمَ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ اَنْتَ تَحْكُمُ بَيْنَ عِبَادِكَ فِيْمَا كَانُوْا فِيْهِ يَخْتَلِفُوْنَ اِهْدِنِيْ لِمَا اخْتُلِفَ فِيْهِ مِنَ الْحَقِّ بِإِذْنِكَ إِنَّكَ تَهْدِيْ مَنْ تَشَآءُ إِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ

"O Allah, lord of Jinbril, Mikail and Israfil, the creator of the heavens and the earth, the Knower of the unseen and the seen, you do judge among your slaves concerning that in which they differ. Guide me out of the differences concerning the truth by your permission, for, you do guide whom so you will to a straight path."[2]

(١٢١٣) وَعَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَعَارَّ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَقَالَ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْئٍ قَدِيْرٌ وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِيْ اَوْقَالَ ثُمَّ دَعَا اُسْتُجِيْبَ لَهُ فَإِنْ تَوَضَّأَ وَصَلّٰى قُبِلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ۔ (رواہ البخاری)

1213. Sayyiduna Ubadah Ibn Samit رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "If anyone gets up during the night and prays:

لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْئٍ قَدِيْرٌ وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ

Or, he said, "And then prays, he will get an answer. And, if he makes ablution and offers salah, his salah will be accepted."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word in the text rendered wakes up, gets up from sleep' is also said to mean disturbed or restless in sleep'. Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said it means, to awakeen with a start." The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم preferred that if anyone wakes up and makes a noise, he should better glorify Allah, this is what pious men of Allah do, when he get up from sleep, they utter the kalimah or a tasbih or a prayer.

Some people call this kind of a prayer on awakening (درهم الكيس) (dirham ul-kes). It is like someone having cash in his pocket and spending from it when he needs. So is this prayer (درهم الكيس) in a believer's heart and mind, well preserved. When he wakes up from sleep and makes this prayer, it gains acceptance of the lord.

(١٢١٤) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اسْتَيْقَظَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ قَالَ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِذَنْبِيْ وَأَسْأَلُكَ رَحْمَتَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ زِدْنِيْ عِلْمًا وَلَا تُزِغْ قَلْبِيْ بَعْدَ إِذْ هَدَيْتَنِيْ وَهَبْ لِيْ مِنْ لَّدُنْكَ رَحْمَةً إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْوَهَّابُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1214. Sayyidah Ayshah narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم awoke in the night, he prayed:

لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِذَنْبِيْ وَأَسْأَلُكَ رَحْمَتَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ زِدْنِيْ عِلْمًا وَلَا تُزِغْ قَلْبِيْ بَعْدَ إِذْ هَدَيْتَنِيْ وَهَبْ لِيْ مِنْ لَّدُنْكَ رَحْمَةً إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْوَهَّابُ

'There is no God but you. You are glorified. O Allah with your praise, I seek your forgiveness for my sin and I ask you for your mercy. O Allah, increase me in Knowledge and do not cause my heart to veer after you have guided me. Grant me mercy from yourself, surely you are the Bestower."[2]

1215. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If any Muslim goes to sleep in a state of purity remembering Allah (as he sleeps) and wakes up (suddenly) in the night and prays to Allah for good then Allah grants it to him certainly (in this world or the next)."[3]

1216. Sayyiduna Shariq al-Hawazani رحمه الله narrated that he visited Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه and asked her, "How did Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم begin (worship) on awakening in the night?" She said, "You have asked me about something that no one ever asked me before you. When he got up in the night, he said, Allah is the greatest' ten times, praise belongs to Allah' ten times, Allah is glorified with his praise' ten times, glorified is the king, the sacred' ten times, I ask Allah for forgiveness' ten times, There is no God but Allah ten times then he prayed:

'O Allah, I seek refuge in you from hardship in this world and from hardship on the day of resurrection, ten times.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Sufis رحمه الله have ten tasbihs that they recite seven times each. They call them: (مسبعات عشره) (seven times the ten tasbihs). This hadith has seven tasbihs that are recited ten times each. The scholars of hadith call these seven tasbihs: (معشرات سبعه) ten times the seven tasbihs).

"Allah is glorified, O Allah and praise belongs to you. Your Name is blessed. You are exalted in honour. There is no God but you."
Then he said, "Allah is the greatest, indeed the greatest!
Then he prayed

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ

"Allah's glorified with His praise," (He would say that) for a long time.

CHAPTER - XXXIV

ENCOURAGEMENT TO GET UP DURING THE NIGHT (QIYAM UL-LAYL)

بَابُ التَّحْرِيْضِ عَلٰى قِيَامِ اللَّيْلِ

Qiyam ul -layl (vigil in the night) means to engage in worship of Allah during the night. Examples are the salah of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer), remembrance of Allah, and so on.

In line with that qaim ul-layl are those who keep vigil in the night. They are the fortunate who get up at night and worship their lord and remember Him.

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

(١٢١٩) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعْقِدُ الشَّيْطَانُ عَلٰى قَافِيَةِ رَأْسِ اَحَدِكُمْ اِذَا هُوَ نَامَ ثَلَاثَ عُقَدٍ يَّضْرِبُ عَلٰى كُلِّ عُقْدَةٍ عَلَيْكَ لَيْلٌ طَوِيْلٌ فَارْقُدْ فَاِنِ اسْتَيْقَظَ فَذَكَرَ اللّٰهَ انْحَلَّتْ عُقْدَةٌ فَاِنْ تَوَضَّأَ انْحَلَّتْ عُقْدَةٌ فَاِنْ صَلّٰى انْحَلَّتْ عُقْدَةٌ فَاَصْبَحَ نَشِيْطًا طَيِّبَ النَّفْسِ وَاِلَّا اَصْبَحَ خَبِيْثَ النَّفْسِ كَسْلَانَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1219. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The devil ties three knots at the back of the head of one of you when one sleeps. He seals each knot with (the words), there's a long night before you, so sleep. So, if he awakes and remembers Allah, one knot is untied. If he makes ablution, one knot is untied. And, if he offers salah, one knot is untied. He comes to morning lively and in good cheer; otherwise he will be in a bad frame of mind and lethargic."[2]

COMMENTARY: Different meanings have been given for the word 'knot' Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that this word stands for lethargy. And the devil causes through deceit extreme laziness to anyone who tries to wake up for worship in the night.

Mirak رحمه الله cites some ulama (Scholars) رحمه الله as saying that the devil actually ties the knot on the sleeping person. It is like a sorcerer's knot. This is supported by a tradition in Mirqat.

Some people say that it is an allegorical statement, like a spell that prevents its subject from doing what he wants to do. The person who is sleeping is prevented from worship in the night by the devil's ruse.

Some scholars say that the devil prompts into the sleeping person's heart convincing him that there still is time. So, he is prevented from offering the salah.

The hadith concludes with the words that he who does not fall prey to the devils deceit finds himself cheerful and active in the morning. Throughout the day, he lives in Allah's mercy and attends to his chores calmly.

In contrast, one who succumbs to the devil's deception not only misses worship during the night but also gets up in the morning lazily. His day he spends unwilling to do any thing, and he is deprived of Allah's mercy.

WORSHIP TO EXPRESS GRATITUDE

(١٢٢٠) وَعَنِ الْمُغِيْرَةِ قَالَ قَامَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى تَوَرَّمَتْ قَدَمَاهُ فَقِيْلَ لَهُ لِمَ تَصْنَعُ هٰذَا وَقَدْ غُفِرَ لَكَ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِكَ وَمَا تَأَخَّرَ قَالَ اَفَلَا اَكُوْنُ عَبْدًا شَكُوْرًا۔ (متفق عليه)

1220. Sayyiduna Mughirah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stood (in salah) in the night to such an extent that his feet became swollen. So, he was asked, "why do you do it when all your sins, past and present, are forgiven to you?" He said "Shall I not be a grateful servant?"[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, "If Allah has forgiven me and placed me at the highest rank, shall I not be thankful to Him?" He said, "Rather, it is my duty to endeavor to the best of my ability to please Him."

SAYYIDUNA ALI'S رضى الله عنه EXPLANATION: Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه is distinguished among the ummah for his intelligence, learning and sagacity. His words about worship are worth remembering and using as guidelines in life. He said:

"Those who worship to seek (paradise and reward), this kind of a worship is a trader's worship. Those who worship out of fear (of punishment in hell), their worship is the worship of slaves. Those who worship to thank their lord for the bounties he has given, their worship is the worship of free men,"

FAILURE TO GET UP DURING THE NIGHT IS WICKED

(١٢٢١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ ذُكِرَ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَجُلٌ فَقِيْلَ لَهُ مَا زَالَ نَائِمًا حَتّٰى اَصْبَحَ مَا قَامَ اِلَى الصَّلٰوةِ قَالَ ذٰلِكَ رَجُلٌ بَالَ الشَّيْطَانُ فِيْ اُذُنِهٖ اَوْقَالَ فِيْ اُذُنَيْهِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1221. Sayyiduna Ibn Masud رضى الله عنه narrated that a man was mentioned before the

[1] Bukhari # 1130, 4836, Nasai # 1643, Ibn Majah # 1419, Tirmidhi # 412, Musnad Ahmad 4-355.

Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He was told that the man kept sleeping till morning and did not get up for salah. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He is a man in whose ear" or, he said, "in whose ears – the devil has urinated." [1]

COMMENTARY: The salah refers to either the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) or the fajr. He missed either of them.The devil urinating in the ear could be exactly so, or it could mean that the devil regards him with contempt.

WOMEN'S TAHAJJUD (SUPEREROGATORY PRAYER)

(١٢٢٢) وَعَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ اسْتَيْقَظَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْلَةً فَزِعًا يَقُوْلُ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ مَا ذَا أُنْزِلَ اللَّيْلَةَ مِنَ الْخَزَآئِنِ وَمَا ذَا أُنْزِلَ مِنَ الْفِتَنِ مَنْ يُّوْقِظُ صَوَاحِبَ الْحُجُرَاتِ يُرِيْدُ أَزْوَاجَهُ لِكَيْ يُصَلِّيْنَ رُبَّ كَاسِيَةٍ فِي الدُّنْيَا عَارِيَةٍ فِي الْآخِرَةِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1222. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه narrated that one night Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم woke up alarmed and said, "Subhan Allah! How many treasures have been sent down today! And, how many trials have been sent down today! Who will awaken the occupiers of the inner rooms meaning his wives, "that they might offer salah? World will be naked in the hereafter"[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had learnt of the treasures that were to be sent down that night and to be disbursed among his ummah. He also knew of the trials that had been decreed for them.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله and other ulama (Scholars) said that the treasures refer to Allah's mercy while trials refer to chastisement.

The women are warned in the last sentence of the hadith. They will wear choicest garments in this world but will lack good deeds for the hereafter.

It also means that they will don the garments of sleep and be neglectful to remembrance of Allah. As a result, they will face deprivation in the next world.

A third meaning is that they will wear such clothes as display their body. In this sense, they would be naked in the hereafter. Women are disallowed to wear garments that are see-through. Those who wear them will be nude in the hereafter.

Women who are very daring these days should take heed from this hadith and beware of displeasing Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم they should know that how so much fashionable people might became and how so much their ideas may have progressed, yet the commands of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم are in force even today. They have to be obeyed. If Islam's commands are ridiculed today in the name of progress, this life is fleeting and they will have to answer to their lord for their evil deeds.

DESCENT OF ALLAH'S MERCY

(١٢٢٣) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَنْزِلُ رَبُّنَا تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالٰى كُلَّ لَيْلَةٍ إِلَى السَّمَآءِ الدُّنْيَا حِيْنَ يَبْقٰى ثُلُثُ اللَّيْلِ الْآخِرِ وَيَقُوْلُ مَنْ يَّدْعُوْنِيْ فَأَسْتَجِيْبُ لَهُ مَنْ يَّسْأَلُنِيْ فَأُعْطِيَهُ مَنْ

1223. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Our lord, Blessed and Exalted, comes every night to the lowest heaven when the last one-third of the night remains. He proclaims, "Who will pray to me that I may grant him? Who will seek forgiveness from me that I may forgive him?"
Anther version in Muslim is:
"Then He spreads out His hands and says, "Who will lend to one who is neither needy nor unjust? This goes on till break of dawn."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah is free of body, its weight and dimensions. He is light, Omnipresent and not limited to any place.

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله and Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that Allah's command, his mercy or his angels descend to the lowest heaven at that time. (They make the aforementioned proclamation). This contention is borne out also from and authentic hadith that is mentioned in Mirqat.

Or, these words are allegorical and only Allah knows their meaning.

To call upon Him is to make a supplication to Him. It is for one to say, 'O lord' and in answer showing approval Allah say 'Here I am, O my slave.

To pray for something is to ask for one's needs. In answer Allah grants that.

This hadith does not contradict the one that says "Allah comes (to the lowest heaven) after one third of the night has passed," or the one that says, "Allah comes after half of the night has passed, or two. Thirds of the night is over." He may descend at any of these times.

As for lending of Him, it is to make physical and momentary worship of Him to earn reward, for Allah is neither destitute nor unable to bestow, and, also, He is not unjust to break His promise or to give an incomplete rewards. In this way, the Muslims are exhorted to do pious deeds so that their reward will be manifold times.

Allah is praised here with two only these two things obstruct repayment of loan. Allah is just and Rich so He will repay and is able to repay with a perfect reward.

PROPITIOUS HOUR EVERY NIGHT

(١٢٢٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ فِي اللَّيْلِ لَسَاعَةً لَا يُوَافِقُهَا رَجُلٌ مُّسْلِمٌ يَسْأَلُ اللّٰهَ فِيْهَا خَيْرًا مِّنْ اَمْرِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ اِلَّا اَعْطَاهُ اِيَّاهُ وَذٰلِكَ كُلَّ لَيْلَةٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1224. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Surely there is in the night an hour which if a Muslim man finds and asks Allah for something that is good in this world and the next. He will grant it to him. And, this (hour) is every night."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say about the propitious hour that it is undisclosed like the laylatul -qadr and the hour on Friday. So these hours cannot be pinpointed. This hour every night is not specified too and it can occur at any portion of the night.

SALAH & FASTING OF PROPHET DAWUD عليه السلام

(١٢٢٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَحَبُّ الصَّلَاةِ اِلَى اللّٰهِ صَلَاةُ دَاوٗدَ وَاَحَبُّ الصِّيَامِ اِلَى اللّٰهِ صِيَامُ دَاوٗدَ كَانَ يَنَامُ نِصْفَ اللَّيْلِ وَيَقُوْمُ ثُلُثَهُ وَيَنَامُ سُدُسَهُ وَيَصُوْمُ يَوْمًا وَّ يُفْطِرُ يَوْمًا۔ (متفق عليه)

1225. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The salah dearest (of all salahs) to Allah is the salah of Prophet Dawud عليه السلام and (of all fasting) the fasting of Prophet Dawud عليه السلام is dearest to Allah. (As for salah) he slept half the night, got up (to offer salah) for a third of it, and (again) slept for the (remaining) sixth. (And, as for fasting), he fasted one day and the next he did not fast (thus fasting on alternate days)".[1]

COMMENTARY: Thus if anyone observes salah and fasting in this way, it is the dearest kind of salah and fasting to Allah.

If anyone wakes up after sleeping for two thirds of the night, he will be fresh and active. Fasting on al ternate days calls for extreme effort and that is the essence of worship.

(١٢٢٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ تعنى رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَنَامُ اَوَّلَ اللَّيْلِ وَيُحْيِيْ اٰخِرَهٗ ثُمَّ اِنْ كَانَتْ لَهٗ حَاجَةٌ اِلٰى اَهْلِهٖ قَضٰى حَاجَتَهٗ ثُمَّ يَنَامُ فَاِنْ كَانَ عِنْدَ النِّدَآءِ الْاَوَّلِ جُنُبًا وَثَبَ فَاَفَاضَ عَلَيْهِ الْمَاءَ وَاِنْ لَّمْ يَكُنْ جُنُبًا تَوَضَّأَ لِلصَّلٰوةِ ثُمَّ صَلّٰى رَكْعَتَيْنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1226. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated that he - meaning Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم - would sleep in the first part of the night and would keep its final part active (by being awake). If he had to go to his wife, he fulfilled his desire and then went to sleep. If, at the time of the first call (to salah of fajr), he was defiled, he would get up and pour water over himself (meaning, would have a bath), but if he was not defiled, he made ablution and offered two raka'at salah.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah's رضى الله عنه hadith in shamail Tirmidhi describes the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم salah in the night in some detail. He offered witr at the time of sahr. He rested after that till the salah of fajr.

As for the first call, it is the adhan itself. The second call is the iqamah.

The hadith tells us that during the first sixth part of the night which is the initial portion of the night he kept awake up to Isha. After that he had rest in the second and third sixth of the night. He woke up for the fourth and fifth sixth of the night and slept again in the sixth portion of the night. Thus, he slept for three sixth portions and kept awake for three sixth portions Allah knows best.

EXHORTATION TO OFFER THE TAHAJJUD (SUPEREROGATORY PRAYER)

(١٢٢٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَيْكُمْ بِقِيَامِ اللَّيْلِ فَإِنَّهُ دَأْبُ الصَّالِحِيْنَ قَبْلَكُمْ وَهُوَ قُرْبَةٌ لَّكُمْ إِلٰى رَبِّكُمْ وَمُكَفِّرَةٌ لِّلسَّيِّاٰتِ وَمَنْهَاةٌ عَنِ الْإِثْمِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1227. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "you must stand (in salah of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer)) in the night, for, it was the practice of the righteous before you. And, it is a means to get you near to your lord. And, it is expiation for bad deeds and a hindrance from sin".[1]

COMMENTARY: The righteous (before) were the Prophet علیہ السلام and the saintly men رحمہ اللہ. In this way the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cautions his ummah that they are more expected to offer this salah because they are better than the previous ummahs. Those people who offer the fard (obligatory) salah but not the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) cannot be bracketed with the perfect righteous. They are in rank like those who pay the zakah in open compared to those who pay it secretly.

THE GOOD FORTUNE

(١٢٢٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثَةٌ يَّضْحَكُ اللّٰهُ إِلَيْهِمُ الرَّجُلُ إِذَا قَامَ بِاللَّيْلِ يُصَلِّيْ وَالْقَوْمُ إِذَا صَفُّوْا فِي الصَّلٰوةِ وَالْقَوْمُ إِذَا صَفُّوْا فِيْ قِتَالِ الْعَدُوِّ۔ (رواه فى شرح السنة)

1228. Sayyiduna Abu Saeed al- Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Three are there towards whom Allah looks and laughs (with delight and the sight of mercy).

(i) A man when he stands in the night and offers salah.

(ii) A group of people when they form rows for the salah.

And, a company of men who form rows to combat with the enemy."[2]

DHIKR IN THE LAST PART OF THE NIGHT

(١٢٢٩) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ عَنْبَسَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَقْرَبُ مَا يَكُوْنُ الرَّبُّ مِنَ الْعَبْدِ فِيْ جَوْفِ اللَّيْلِ الْآخِرِ فَإِنِ اسْتَطَعْتَ اَنْ تَكُوْنَ مِمَّنْ يَّذْكُرُ اللّٰهَ فِيْ تِلْكَ السَّاعَةِ فَكُنْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ إِسْنَادًا۔

1229. Sayyiduna Amr Ibn Anbasah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The nearest the lord is to the slave is during the last portion of the night. So, if you can be among those who remember Allah in that hour, then be (among then)."[3]

COMMENTARY: The last part of the night is of merit because it brings Allah's mercy and blessings. These are the lot of the fortunate who take advantage of Allah's nearness. The deprived, however, get carried away by the devil's spell.

Allah is near to His slave through His pleasure and His mercies.

The last portion of the night is that which begins with the final one-third. This is the time to get up for the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer).

Sayyiduna Amr ibn Anbasah, رضی اللہ عنہ who was the fortunate one to be given this advice by the noble Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was a devoted and close servant of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He was in his native land when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had begun preaching to the stubborn unbending infidels and idolaters of makkah, suddenly, he felt a great dislike for idol worship as he heard of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and he set out for Makkah. He tried to locate him in Makkah and people told him that, indeed, there was such a man as he sought, complaining that he had forsaken the religion of his fore fathers and seemed to be insane. (May both the worlds be ransomed for his wisdom)

Amr ibn Anbasah رضی اللہ عنہ was told that he could be found around midnight in the precincts of the kabah. Radiant faced man coming around midnight towards the kabah. Amr رضی اللہ عنہ asked him about what he preached and he disclosed, "I am Allah's Messenger and my religion is that there is no god but Allah." Hur رضی اللہ عنہ Jumped with joy and exclaimed, "I too like this religion! "Thus, he was the third or fourth person to believe only two or three had preceded him.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم then bid him farewell, saying, "My Lord given me His promise, when that materializes, do come to me," Hence, when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigrated to Madinah, Amr رضی اللہ عنہ went there and met him and stayed with him to attain great excellence under the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم guidance.

ENCOURAGE ONE ANOTHER TO WORSHIP

(١٢٣٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَحِمَ اللّٰهُ رَجُلًا قَامَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَصَلّٰى وَاَيْقَظَ اِمْرَأَتَهُ فَصَلَّتْ فَاِنْ اَبَتْ نَضَحَ فِيْ وَجْهِهَا الْمَآءَ رَحِمَ اللّٰهُ امْرَأَةً قَامَتْ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَصَلَّتْ وَاَيْقَظَتْ زَوْجَهَا فَصَلّٰى فَاِنْ اَبٰى نَضَحَتْ فِيْ وَجْهِهِ الْمَآءَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1230. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "May Allah have mercy on a man who gets up in the night and offers salah and awakens his wife and she too offers salah, but if she does not arise, he sprinkles water on her face.! May Allah be merciful to a woman who gets up in the night and offers salah and awakens her husband and he offers salah, too, but if he does not arise, she sprinkles water on his face!"[1]

COMMENTARY: The salah that is offered in the night is the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) but if anyone has missed a salah then it is also the best time to redeem it.

Husband and wife should co-operate with one another in religious work as they do in their social life. If either of them is derelict then the other must prod him or her and if there is some hindrance keeping one of them away from the salah the other must help remove that. The some advice applies to a number of people living together.

The hadith is evidence that it is allowed, and even mustahab (desirable), to compel someone to do good.

OPPORTUNE TIME TO MAKE SUPPLICATION

(١٢٣١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَيُّ الدُّعَآءِ اَسْمَعُ قَالَ جَوْفُ اللَّيْلِ الْاٰخِرُ وَ دُبُرُ الصَّلٰوةِ الْمَكْتُوْبَاتِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

1231. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that someone asked, "O Messenger of Allah, which supplication gets the best answer?" He said, "The one that is made during the last portion of the night and after the prescribed salah.[1]

RIGHTEOUS DEEDS

(١٢٣٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مَالِكِ الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ غُرَفًا يُّرٰى ظَاهِرُهَا مِنْ بَاطِنِهَا وَ بَاطِنُهَا مِنْ ظَاهِرِهَا اَعَدَّهَا اللّٰهُ لِمَنْ اَلَانَ الْكَلَامَ وَاَطْعَمَ الطَّعَامَ وَتَابَعَ الصِّيَامَ وَصَلّٰى بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّاسُ نِيَامٌ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَرَوَى التِّرْمِذِيُّ

1232. Sayyiduna Abu Maalik Al-Ashary رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "In paradise there are upper chambers whose exterior may be seen from inside and interior from their outside. Allah has prepared them for those who speak a soft word, feed food, fast often and offer salah during the night while people are asleep."[2]

1233. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that like of it with the word (اطاب الکلام) instead of (الان الکلام) but the meaning is identical 'speak a soft word.' And Someone who has asked was 'a villager.'[3]

COMMENTARY: Some ulama (Scholars) contend that the fasting frequently mentioned in hadith is, at its lowest degree, three fasts each month at least.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

DISALLOWED TO NEGLECT TAHAJJUD (SUPEREROGATORY PRAYER)

(١٢٣٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا عَبْدَاللّٰهِ لَا تَكُنْ مِّثْلَ فُلَانٍ كَانَ يَقُوْمُ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَتَرَكَ قِيَامَ اللَّيْلِ۔ (متفق علیه)

1234. Sayyiduna Abdullan ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to him "O Abdullah, do not be like so and so. He used to stand (in salah of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer)) during the night but then gave up the standing during the night."[4]

COMMENTARY: There may have been a sahabi who had abandoned his practice of getting up during the night for the salah. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cautioned Sayyiduna Abdullah

رضی اللہ عنہ against making the same mistake. A good practice must not be abandoned without a valid reason. If anyone does so then he is in the same category as:

تَارِكُ الْوِرْدِ مَلْعُوْنٌ

'One who neglect regular practice of religion) is accursed.'
To withdraw from worship of Allah and to return to the evil ways is tantamount to suffering a decline after an increase in good fortune, righteousness and success. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had sought refuge from this in these words:

نعوذ باللہ من الحور بعد الکور

'We seek refuge in Allah from loss after abundance.'[1]
Hence, one who treks the path to tariqat and Shari'ah (divine law) must not only not give up worship or seek to decrease it but he must also seek to increase in that. It is said that if anyone does not aim for an increase, he faces a decline.

PROPHET DAWUD'S علیہ السلام WORSHIP IN THE NIGHT AND THE OPPORTUNE MOMENT

(١٢٣٥) وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ اَبِي الْعَاصِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ كَانَ لِدَاوٗدَ علیه السلام مِنَ اللَّيْلِ سَاعَةٌ يُوْقِظُ فِيْهَا اَهْلَهٗ يَقُوْلُ يَا اٰلَ دَاوٗدَ قُوْمُوْا فَصَلُّوْا فَاِنَّ هٰذِهٖ سَاعَةٌ يَسْتَجِيْبُ اللّٰهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ فِيْهَا الدُّعَآءَ اِلَّا لِسَاحِرٍ اَوْ عَشَّارٍ۔ (رواہ احمد)

1235. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Abu al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ, narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, that Sayyiduna Dawud علیہ السلام had an hour during the night when he woke up his family, saying, "O family of Dawud, get up and offer salah for this is an hour wh en Allah, Mighty and Gloroius, answers prayer (of everyone) except of a sorcerer or an extortionist."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word (عشار) (ashshar) is translated as extortionist. The dictionary meaning is 'tithe- gatherer.' The highway men who rob wayfarers are included in this as well as the tax-collectors who oppress people.
Even at the opportune and favourable moment the prayer of these people and the sorcerers is not accepted. Allah never shows leniency to those who oppress His slaves.
This is why the saintly men say that perfect servitude is to submit to Allah's command and be compassionate to His creatures.

MERIT OF TAHAJJUD (SUPEREROGATORY PRAYER)

(١٢٣٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَفْضَلُ الصَّلٰوةِ بَعْدَ الْمَفْرُوْضَةِ صَلَاةٌ فِيْ جَوْفِ اللَّيْلِ۔ (رواہ احمد)

1236. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The most excellent salah after the prescribed salah is that which is offered in the depth of the night (the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer))."[1]

COMMENTARY: Shaykh Mirak رحمه الله said that this hadith upholds the opinion of Abu Ishaq Maruzi Shafi'i رحمه الله that the salah of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) is more excellent then the regular sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم ) salah. However, most ulama (Scholars) contend that the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم ) salah are superior, but the opinion of Abu Ishaq رحمه الله is stronger.

The salah of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) is superior because it is taxing on the soul and is not offered ostentatiously. The regular sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم ) salah are excellent in the sense that emphasis is laid on them alongwith the prescribed salah and they complete and perfect the prescribed or fard (obligatory) salah.

Hence, both these salah have merit of their own, distinctly. The salah of the night is excellent because it is made up of the witr too and the witr is wajib (expedient).

Someone dreamt hat Sayyiduna Junayd Baghdadi رحمه الله said on being asked how he fard (obligatory),

تاهت العبادات وفنيت الاشارات وما نفعنا الا ركعات صلينا ها في جوف الليل۔

"Whatever I said about worship are lost, my lectures have perished, Nothing helped me but the raka'at that I offered in the depth of the night."

The seekers of truth and Shari'ah (divine law) and the commuters on the tariqah (mystics paths) are exhorted not to cling to tasawwuf and tariqah, and sermons, but to become soldiers of Character, to correct their practical life and to endeavour to the best to obey and worship Allah. They should devote themselves fully to worship and servitude, for, in it lies the good of both the worlds.

PREVENTS EVIL

(۱۲۳۷) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ جَآءَ رَجُلٌ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنَّ فُلَانًا يُصَلِّي بِاللَّيْلِ فَاِذَا اَصْبَحَ سَرَقَ فَقَالَ اِنَّهُ سَيَنْهَاهُ مَا تَقُوْلُ۔ (رواه احمد و البيهقي في شعب الايمان)

1237. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that a man came to the Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم and said, "So and so offers salah during the night but, when it is morning, he steals." He said, "Soon, his salah will stop him from what you say."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is the peculiarity of salah that it restrains the worshipper from evil and puts him on the path of piety. It is Allah says:

اِنَّ الصَّلٰوةَ تَنْهٰى عَنِ الْفَحْشَآءِ وَالْمُنْكَرِ۔

{Surely, salah forbids indecency and evil} (29:45)

The Prophet صلی الله علیہ وسلم said of the thief that if he offers the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) sincerely then it will cause him, insha Allah to repent and to give up his bad deed.

TAHAJJUD (SUPEREROGATORY PRAYER) WITH WIFE

(١٢٣٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ وَّاَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَيْقَظَ الرَّجُلُ اَهْلَهٗ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَصَلَّيَا اَوْ صَلّٰى رَكْعَتَيْنِ جَمِيْعًا كُتِبَا فِي الذَّاكِرِيْنَ وَالذَّاكِرَاتِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

1238. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When a man wakes up his wife during the night and both of them offer salah, or each of them offers, two raka'ah together then they (both) are recorded among the men and women who remember Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (اهل) (ahl) may mean spouse, or wife, children and slaves. The narrated was unsure of the word the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used (cash offers, or both of them offer), but this does not alter the sense.

The Quran says:

وَالذَّاكِرِيْنَ اللّٰهَ كَثِيْرًا وَّالذّٰكِرَاتِ اَعَدَّ اللّٰهُ لَهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةً وَّاَجْرًا عَظِيْمًا۔

{And the men who remember Allah much and the women who remember, Allah has prepared forgiveness and a mighty reward for them} (33:35)

Thus, if anyone gets up in the night and offers salah himself and remembers Allah, and awakens his wife and all members of his family to engage in salah and dhikr then they would be counted among the pious and fortunate men and women whose characteristic is mentioned in this verse.

THE HIGH-RANKING AMONG THE UMMAH

(١٢٣٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَشْرَافُ اُمَّتِيْ حَمَلَةُ الْقُرْاٰنِ وَاَصْحَابُ اللَّيْلِ۔ (رواه البیهقی فی شعب الایمان)

1239. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The nobles of my ummah are they who carry the Quran (in their memory) and they who keep vigil in the night."[2]

COMMENTARY: Those who carry the Quran are they who have memorized it and abide by its commands to do and not to do. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that they have attained high ranks. Their merit is mentioned in another traditions "He who has memorized the Quran, the doors to the benefits of prophethood are opened for him, but he does not get revelation. He does, however, get wahy khafi (which is an inspiration in his mind and heart of the benefits of wahy jali. In other words, one who memorises the Quran is very meritorious because the light of Prophethood is instilled in his heart in the form of the words of the Quran so that his heart and mind become radiant with wahy khafi through the apparent meanings awareness of the words of the Quran. As a result his faith and conviction becomes stronger on wahy jali which is the prerogative of the Prophet علیہم السلام, because of the blessings of the light of the Quran.

Allamah Yahya رحمہ اللہ said that to memorise the Quran is not only to commit it to memory but also to mould oneself to its teachings in practice, and with regularity. If not, one who merely memorises the Quran is of the same class of whom Allah says:

كَمَثَلِ الْحِمَارِ يَحْمِلُ اَسْفَارًا۔

If books are put on a donkey, it gains not a tiny bit from them. In the same way, one who has memorized the Quran but does not put it into practice, he derives no benefit whatsoever from memorizing it, and he stands no where in terms of rank and merit.

The Arabic words (اصحاب الليل) translated 'and they who keep vigil in the night' are they who stand in salah and who recite the Quran during the night and do it constantly, every night. They are very excellent in the sight of Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم They rank high in the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم ummah.

(١٢٤٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ اَبَاهُ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ كَانَ يُصَلِّيْ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ مَاشَآءَ اللّٰهُ حَتّٰى اِذَا كَانَ مِنْ اٰخِرِ اللَّيْلِ اَيْقَظَ اَهْلَهُ لِلصَّلَاةِ يَقُوْلُ لَهُمُ الصَّلَاةُ ثُمَّ يَتْلُوْ هٰذِهِ الْاٰيَةَ وَأْمُرْ اَهْلَكَ بِالصَّلٰوةِ وَاصْطَبِرْ عَلَيْهَا لَا نَسْأَلُكَ رِزْقًا نَحْنُ نَرْزُقُكَ وَ الْعَاقِبَةُ لِلتَّقْوٰى۔ (رواه مالك)

1240. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that his father. (Sayyiduna) Umar ibn Khattab رضى الله عنه used to offer salah during the night as much as Allah wished. During the last part of the night, he would wake his family for the salah, saying to them, 'As-Salah' Then he word recite the verse (20: 132):

وَأْمُرْ اَهْلَكَ بِالصَّلٰوةِ وَاصْطَبِرْ عَلَيْهَا لَا نَسْأَلُكَ رِزْقًا نَحْنُ نَرْزُقُكَ وَ الْعَاقِبَةُ لِلتَّقْوٰى

{And enjoing salah on your household and persevere therein. We ask not you to provide sustenance, we, indeed, provide for you. And the good end is for righteousness}[1]

COMMENTARY: The verse instructs that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should guide his dependent to offer salah and he should offer it himself too, and endure the resultant effort. He should place trust in Allah and seek his help for outward and inward independence. He should not worry about provision for himself and for other lest he find it difficult to observe worship. He should ignore the world and its affairs and seek only the good of the hereafter. He should occupy himself in correcting the affairs of his dependents only the righteous and the pious are eligible for the good of both the worlds.

CHAPTER - XXXV

DEEDS WITH A JUDICIOUS APPROACH بَابُ الْقَصْدِ فِي الْعَمَلِ

This chapter present a*hadith* that tell us that just as exaggeration is harmful in worldly affairs, so too overdoing is not desired in religious matters, meaning in the voluntary deeds. Rather, it is necessary to observe a moderate course and to adopt a sensible path.

(١٢٤١) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُفْطِرُ مِنَ الشَّهْرِ حَتّٰى نَظُنَّ اَنْ لَّا يَصُوْمَ مِنْهُ وَّيَصُوْمُ حَتّٰى نَظُنَّ اَنْ لَّا يُفْطِرَ مِنْهُ شَيْئًا وَّكَانَ لَا تَشَآءُ اَنْ تَرَاهُ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ مُصَلِّيًا اِلَّا رَاَيْتَهٗ وَلَا نَآئِمًا اِلَّا رَاَيْتَهٗ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1241. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم did not observe fasting in a month (for many days together) so that we presumed that he would not observe (voluntary) fasting during the month. And he fasted till we presumed that he would not go without fasting. If you wished to see him offer salah during the night, you could see him (do so) or (see him) sleeping, you could do so."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم neither did anything beyond limits nor ignored it altogether, and did not do any thing much below the normal. For example, he fasted for some days in a month and went without fasting on other days So, it was with salah. During the night, he offered salah and also went to sleep. He always struck a balance.

PERSEVERANCE

(١٢٤٢) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَحَبُّ الْاَعْمَالِ اِلَى اللّٰهِ اَدْوَمُهَا وَاِنْ قَلَّ۔ (متفق علیه)

1242. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The deeds dearest to Allah are those that are done regularly (without interruption) even if they are little."[2]

COMMENTARY: Mazhar رحمه الله said that in the light of this hadith he Sufis - followers of tasawwuf ad tariqut - regard neglect of routine supplication and petition just as bad as neglect of the obligatory duties. The truth, however, is that the two are not similar. To neglect the obligatory duties is a grave sin, but neglect of their rota is neglect of that which is preferable.
To neglect the obligatory is to abandon obedience without reason and it is to turn away from the worship of the Lord and it invites chastisement. In contrast, neglect of that which is done constantly is to fail to do what make one dear to Allah.

Little deed done incessantly (at its time) is better than what is considerable but lacking regularity and not respecting its etiquettes.

NOT BEYOND CAPABILITY

(١٢٤٣) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خُذُوْا مِنَ الْاَعْمَالِ مَا تُطِيْقُوْنَ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَايَمَلُّ حَتّٰى تَمَلُّوْا۔ (متفق عليه)

1243. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Perform deeds (only) what you are capable of doing, for, Allah does not become weary (of giving you reward) but you get weary (and give up doing deeds)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah rewards the worshipper as long as he performs deeds. If any one gets tired because of too much indulgence and stops doing deeds then Allah to stops giving reward. Hence, a moderate form of worship must be adopted to be able to persist in worship. Allah will continue to grant reward.

STOP WHEN WEARY

(١٢٤٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِيُصَلِّ اَحَدُكُمْ نِشَاطَهٗ وَاِذَا فَتَرَ فَلْيَقْعُدْ۔ (متفق عليه)

1244. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "One who offers salah must offer salah till he is enthusiastic. But when he is tedious, let him sit down."[2]

COMMENTARY: The gist of the hadith is that anyone seeking good of the hereafter should engage in worship within his ability. One should exercise moderation in worship and obedience and refrain from compelling oneself to worship. While worshipping, one should cease when weariness comes over and must do something that is permissible like sleeping or conversing with someone else to regain vitality for worship. This kind of occupation will be counted as a continuation of worship and obedience. This is why it is said, 'A scholar's sleep is also worship.'

There are many ahadith that recommend giving up of supererogatory worship when weariness takes over. The reason is that if this is not done then one might be led to abandon deeds altogether or the spirit might be removed from them.

However, one must gradually accustom oneself to engage in excessive worship so that laziness does not take very even on a little exertion. If one adjust oneself to excessive worship then more effort will make one weary. Thus if a perso n offered two raka'at and recited one juzz (part) of the Quran and could not carry on, he will be able to offer up to one hundred raka'at and ten parts of the Quran after accustoming himself.

STOP WHEN YOU DOZE

(١٢٤٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا نَعَسَ اَحَدُكُمْ وَهُوَ يُصَلِّيْ فَلْيَرْقُدْ حَتّٰى يَذْهَبَ عَنْهُ النَّوْمُ فَاِنَّ اَحَدَكُمْ اِذَا صَلّٰى وَهُوَ نَاعِسٌ لَايَدْرِيْ لَعَلَّهٗ يَسْتَغْفِرُ فَيَسُبُّ نَفْسَهٗ۔ (متفق عليه)

1245. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If one of you feels sleepy while offering salah, let him go and sleep till sleep departs from him, otherwise if he prays while he dozes, he might mean to make istighfar but may revile himself instead."[1]

COMMENTARY: One must not offer salah when one is sleepy because it is difficult to concentrate in that condition. He might say, "O Allah, make me dusty," While he intends to say "O Allah, forgive me." Instead of praying for himself, he curses himself.

DO NOT MAKE RELIGION DIFFICULT

(١٢٤٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الدِّيْنَ يُسْرٌ وَّلَنْ يُّشَادَّ الدِّيْنَ أَحَدٌ إِلَّا غَلَبَهُ فَسَدِّدُوْا وَقَارِبُوْا وَأَبْشِرُوْا وَاسْتَعِيْنُوْا بِالْغَدْوَةِ وَالرَّوْحَةِ وَشَيْءٍ مِّنَ الدُّلْجَةِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1246. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, religion is easy. Do not exaggerate in it lest it subdues you. Follow the middle course aiming at perfection. Rejoice (at the prospect of Paradise). And ask for (Allah's) help in the morning and evening and in some closing part of the night."[2]

COMMENTARY: The hadith says explicitly that religion is very easy to observe. It suits human temperament and conforms to his ability. But, nothing can be done about one who subjects himself to restrictions and makes religious practice difficult for himself.

It is stated here very clearly that one should not impose on oneself commands that smack of celibacy. Anyone who does not finds it impossible to follow religion. So, one must approach religious life with ease and convenience.

Allamah Teebi رحمہ اللہ that the two words are synonymous, (قاربوا) and (سددوا) (follow a moderate course). Some people say that it mean, "Seek nearness to Allah."

The hadith advises that (optional) worship should be restricted to three times beginning of the day, close of the day and last part of the day (the tahajjud(supererogatory prayer)).

REDEEMING THE MISSED

(١٢٤٧) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ نَامَ عَنْ حِزْبِهِ أَوْعَنْ شَيْءٍ مِّنْهُ فَقَرَأَهُ فِيْمَا بَيْنَ صَلَاةِ الْفَجْرِ وَصَلَاةِ الظُّهْرِ كُتِبَ لَهُ كَأَنَّمَا قَرَأَهُ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1247. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone sleeps through his portion of recital of invocation, or part of it, and then recites it between the salah of fajr and of zuhr, it will be recorded for him as though he recited it during the night."[3]

COMMENTARY: If anyone regularly recites the Quran, offers salah or makes invocation or any thing in the night and misses it some night, all or part of it, then he may redeem it between fajr and zuhr before zawal. This will be recorded for him as at its regular time and he will get the reward he gets always.

Similarly, if the rota of the day is missed and one makes it up in the night then it will be deemed to have been made at its time. The day and night deputize for one another.

The hadith, however, speaks only of the rota of the night because generally one misses the rota of the night. This is also why this hadith is placed in this chapter.

WHEN INCAPACITATED

(١٢٤٨) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلِّ قَائِمًا فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَسْتَطِعْ فَقَاعِدًا فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَسْتَطِعْ فَعَلٰى جَنْبٍ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1248. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Offer salah standing. If (for some reason) you cannot then sitting. And, if you cannot (do that) then lying on your side."[1]

COMMENTARY: During incapacity, the last form is to lie down and turn one's side towards the qiblah. These is more ease for one who cannot turn his face towards qiblah. He may offer salah howsoever he is positioned.

The Hanafis say that one must lie on one's back oriented to qiblah with a pillow under his shoulders and pray with signs. A hadith in Daraqutni confirms that a sick person must lie on his back. As for this hadith, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم suggested this concession to Sayyiduna Imran رضی اللہ عنہ because he had hemorrhoids. He could not lie on his back.

This command is for the prescribed salah. So this method is of the category of preferable for optional salah.

OPTIONAL, SITTING DOWN WITHOUT EXCUSE

(١٢٤٩) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّهٗ سَأَلَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ صَلَاةِ الرَّجُلِ قَاعِدًا قَالَ اِنْ صَلّٰى قَآئِمًا فَهُوَ اَفْضَلُ وَ مَنْ صَلّٰى قَاعِدًا فَلَهٗ نِصْفُ اَجْرِ الْقَائِمِ وَمَنْ صَلّٰى نَآئِمًا فَلَهٗ نِصْفُ اَجْرِ الْقَاعِدِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1249. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he asked the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about the salah of a man while sitting. He said, "He who prays standing, it is more excellent. He who prays sitting down gets half the reward of one who stands. He who prays lying down gets a reward half of one who sits and prays."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith refers to the voluntary salah because the fard salah (obligatory prayer) should be offered standing and to offer it sitting without an excuse is not proper. If there is an excuse then the handicapped may offer the salah sitting down.

As for the voluntary salah too, if it is offered sitting without an excuse, it fetches half reward. If there is an excuse then it will fetch a full reward.

As for offering the voluntary salah lying down, some people say that one is not allowed to offer it in this way without reason. But, some others say that it is allowed to offer the voluntary salah lying down without reason too. Hasan Busri رحمہ اللہ and other ulama (Scholars) say that such a person gets half the reward of one who offers the salah sitting.

However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that it is disallowed, He said about this hadith that it concerns the fard salah (obligatory prayer). If any one is seriously ill and cannot offer salah standing or sitting then he may offer it lying down. He will get half the reward of one who offers salah sitting.

DHIKR WHILE ABLUTION IS INTACT

(١٢٥٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ اَوٰى اِلٰى فِرَاشِهٖ طَاهِرًا وَّ ذَكَرَ اللّٰهَ حَتّٰى يُدْرِكَهُ النُّعَاسُ لَمْ يَتَقَلَّبْ سَاعَةً مِّنَ اللَّيْلِ يَسْأَلُ اللّٰهَ فِيْهَا خَيْرًا مِّنْ خَيْرِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ اِلَّا اَعْطَاهُ اِيَّاهُ ذَكَرَ النَّوَوِيُّ فِيْ كِتَابِ الْاَذْكَارِ بِرِوَايَةِ ابْنِ السَّنِّيِّ۔

1250. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "If anyone retires to his bed in a state of purity and remembers Allah till sleep overtakes him, then at every change of side during the night whatever good to this world and the next he asks Allah, He will grant it to him."[1]

(١٢٥١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَجِبَ رَبُّنَا مِنْ رَجُلَيْنِ رَجُلٌ ثَارَ عَنْ وِطَائِهٖ وَلِحَافِهٖ مِنْ بَيْنِ حِبِّهٖ وَاَهْلِهٖ اِلٰى صَلَاتِهٖ فَيَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ لِمَلَائِكَتِهٖ اُنْظُرُوْا اِلٰى عَبْدِيْ ثَارَ عَنْ فِرَاشِهٖ وَوِطَائِهٖ مِنْ بَيْنِ حِبِّهٖ وَاَهْلِهٖ وَاِلٰى صَلٰوتِهٖ رَغْبَةً فِيْمَا عِنْدِيْ وَشَفَقًا مِّمَّا عِنْدِيْ وَرَجُلٌ غَزَا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ فَانْهَزَمَ مَعَ اَصْحَابِهٖ فَعَلِمَ مَا عَلَيْهِ فِي الْاِنْهِزَامِ وَمَا لَهٗ فِي الرُّجُوْعِ فَرَجَعَ حَتّٰى هُرِيْقَ دَمُهٗ فَيَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ لِمَلَائِكَتِهٖ اُنْظُرُوْا اِلٰى عَبْدِيْ رَجَعَ رَغْبَةً فِيْمَا عِنْدِيْ وَشَفَقًا مِّمَّا عِنْدِيْ حَتّٰى هُرِيْقَ دَمُهٗ۔ (رواہ فی شرح السنۃ)

1251. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Our Lord is pleased with two men:
A man who comes out of his soft bed and blanket from among his beloved and his family to his salah. So, Allah says to His angels, 'Look at My slave who has come out of his soft bed and blanket from among his beloved and his family to his salah craving for what is with me (of paradise and reward) and fearing that which is with me (of hell and punishment).
And, a man who wages jihad in the path of Allah, but flees (from there) along with his companions till he realizes the punishment he invites upon himself (for deserting at the battlefield) and the reward he will earn for returning, comes back (and fights) till he is martyred. So, Allah says to His angels, 'Look at My slave who returned (to the battlefield) craving for what is with me (or paradise and reward) and fearing what is with Me (of hell and punishment), till his blood was shed!"[2]

COMMENTARY: It is very trying for anyone to leave his bed and wife in the depth of the night, and offer salah to worship his Lord. He knows that the comforts of the world cannot help him in the grave or on the day of resurrection. Only worship of Allah will help him there.
It is not against sincerity and perfection to worship Allah with reward in mind. However, the more perfect form is to worship Him only for His pleasure without consideration of reward or punishment. In spite of that, if anyone worships Allah only to earn reward and avert punishment, he must not think that his worship is in vain and a waste of time.

(١٢٥٢) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ حُدِّثْتُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ صَلَاةُ الرَّجُلِ قَاعِدًا نِصْفُ الصَّلَاةِ قَالَ فَاَتَيْتُهُ فَوَجَدْتُّهُ يُصَلِّي جَالِسًا فَوَضَعْتُ يَدِىَ عَلٰى رَأْسِهٖ فَقَالَ مَالَكَ يَا عَبْدَاللّٰهِ بْنَ عَمْرٍو قُلْتُ حُدِّثْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّكَ قُلْتَ صَلَاةُ الرَّجُلِ قَاعِدًا عَلٰى نِصْفِ الصَّلٰوةِ وَاَنْتَ تُصَلِّيْ قَاعِدًا قَالَ اَجَلْ وَلٰكِنِّيْ لَسْتُ كَاَحَدٍ مِّنْكُمْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1252. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he was informed of the words of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about a man's salah in a sitting position being counted as half of the salah. So, he went to him but found him offering salah while sitting. He placed his hand on the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم head and he asked, "O Abdullah ibn Amr, what is the matter"" He said, "I was told, O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah, that you had said that a man's salah sitting down counts as half the salah while you yourself now offer salah sitting?" He said, "Right! But I am not like anyone of you."

COMMENTARY: When anyone among the Arabs is astonished at someone's deeds, he puts his hand on his head. It is not bad manners but a sign of intense love, and closeness. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, that he should not be compared with anyone. It is his distinction, howsoever he prays, his salah is not rendered defective.

PEACE IN SALAH

(١٢٥٣) وَعَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ اَبِي الْجَعْدِ قَالَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ مِّنْ خُزَاعَةَ لَيْتَنِيْ صَلَّيْتُ فَاسْتَرَحْتُ فَكَاَنَّهُمْ عَابُوْا ذٰلِكَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَقِمِ الصَّلٰوةَ يَا بِلَالُ اَرِحْنَا بِهَا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1253. Sayyiduna Saalim ibn Abu al-Ja'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man of (the tribe) Khuza'ah said, "I wish I had found peace in the salah I offered." It seemed that the listeners did not like what he said, so he informed them that he had heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "Call the iqamah for the salah, O Bilal, that we may find peace through it."[1]

COMMENTARY: If any one offers salah sincerely, he gets peace of mind and comfort and a sense of satisfaction.

His listeners mistook the man to mean, 'wish I get over with the salah and be at peace.' So, he explained to them what he meant by quoting the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that peace lies in salah, Indeed, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم found peace and comfort in worship of Allah. He had said also:

قُرَّةُ عَيْنِيْ فِي الصَّلٰوةِ۔

"In salah lies coolness of my eyes."[2]

CHAPTER - XXXVI

THE WITR SALAH

بَابُ الْوِتْرِ

Witr [1] is any salah with an odd number of raka'at, but the jurists call that particular salah that is offered after isha as witr. It is generally prayed immediately after isha. This chapter speaks of this very witr.

WAJIB (EXPEDIENT)* OR SUNNAH: Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that the salah of witr is wajib (expedient). Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Qadi Abu Yusuf رحمه الله said that it is sunnah.

ONE RAKA'AH OR THREE RAKA'AT: The Hanafis hold that witr is made up of three raka'at. But most of the imams contend that witr comprises any one raka'ah but even they hold that it is makruh to offer one raka'ah by itself and say that two raka'at may be offered first and the salutation given at the end of the two and then one raka'ah witr may be offered.

THE METHOD: Like the salah of maghrib witr (according to the Hanafis) is three raka'at. It is offered in the same as the fard salah (obligatory prayer) is offered, except that a surah is recited in the fard after al-Fatihah only in two raka'at but in witr it is recited in all three raka'at. In the third raka'ah, after the second surah, both hands are raised up to the ears with the takbir and folded together and the supplication (dua) qunoot is made in a soft voice. The du'a qunoot is:

نَرْجُوْا رَحْمَتَكَ وَنَخْشٰى عَذَابَكَ إِنَّ عَذَابَكَ بِالْكُفَّارِ مُلْحِقٌ۔

'O Allah we seek your help and your guidance and your forgiveness. We repent to you and we believe in you. We praise you in the best manner. We thank you are not ungrateful to you. And, we abandon and steer clear of him who disobeys you.
O Allah, you alone do we worship and offer salah for you alone and prostrate ourselves before you alone. We come running to you and immerse ourselves in worship of you. And, we hope for your mercy and dread your punishment. Indeed, your punishment shall inevitably overtake the infidels."

It is better if the following supplication is made after that.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْدِنِيْ فِيْمَنْ هَدَيْتَ وَعَافِنِيْ فِيْ مَنْ عَافَيْتَ وَتَوَلَّنِيْ فِيْمَنْ تَوَلَّيْتَ وَبَارِكْ لِيْ فِيْمَا أَعْطَيْتَ وَقِنِيْ شَرَّمَا
قَضَيْتَ فَإِنَّكَ تَقْضِيْ وَلَا يُقْضٰى عَلَيْكَ إِنَّهُ لَا يَذِلُّ مَنْ وَّالَيْتَ وَلَا يَعِزُّ مَنْ عَادَيْتَ تَبَارَكْتَ رَبَّنَا وَتَعَالَيْتَ۔

"O Allah, guide me alongwith those whom you have guided. And preserve me alongwith those whom you have preserved (from calamities and trials). Hold me dear (to you) alongwith those whom you hold dear. Bless me in that which you have bestowed (on me). And save me from the evil of what save me from the evil of what you have ordained, for, indeed, you ordain and none can ordain against you. Surely, never is he abased whom you take for a friend, and never can he rise (in honours) whom you antagonize. Blessed are you, our Lord and exalted!"

[1] It is also pronounced watr, but witr is more common.

If anyone does not remember the du'a qunoot, then he may make this supplication:

رَبَّنَآ اٰتِنَا فِى الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِى الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ

'Our Lord, grant us that which is good, in this world and (so) in the hereafter (great us) that which is good. And guard us from the punishment of the hell."

If anyone is unable to make this supplication too, then let him say three times;

اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِيْ يَا رَبِّ

"O Allah forgive me."

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE RAKA'AT OF WITR

(١٢٥٤) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلٰوةُ اللَّيْلِ مَثْنٰى مَثْنٰى فَإِذَا خَشِيَ اَحَدُكُمُ الصُّبْحَ صَلّٰى رَكْعَةً وَّاحِدَةً تُوْتِرُلَهٗ مَا قَدْ صَلّٰى۔ (متفق عليه)

1254. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The salah of the night is in two's But, when one of you is apprehensive of the approach of dawn then he must offer one raka'ah that will make the salah he has offered an odd number for him."[1]

COMMENTARY: In the light of this hadith, imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله have ruled that it is better to offer the optional salah during the night in two's. One who is engaged in salah during the night should offer, after these salah, one raka'ah when he feels that the night is nearing an end and dawn is about to begin. This single raka'ah will make the salah already offered as odd. In this way, the hadith is evidence for Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله who holds that witr is one raka'ah.

Imam Tahawi رحمه الله Hanafi said that the one raka'ah should be offered in such a way that first two raka'at are offered, so it makes the two raka'at an odd number. In other words, the one raka'ah must not be offered separately by itself, but jointly with the two raka'at.

Ibn Hamman رحمه الله said that this hadith does not establish with witr should be offered one rak'ah separately with the takbir tahrimah. Hence, it is not correct to deduce from this hadith that witr has only one raka'ah.

Moreover, the strongest argument of the Hanafis is that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed offering only one raka'h by itself (which is صلوة بتير).

As for the sahabah and the righteous predecessors it can be said with confidence that most of the jurists among them offered three raka'at of witr. In fact, Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضى الله عنه is known to have corrected Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Musayyib رضى الله عنه once when he offered only one raka'ah of witr. "What an incomplete salah this? Offer two raka'at more, or I shall punish you." (an Nihayah)

Tirmidhi[2] has transmitted a hadith of Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه that witr consists of three raka'at. He has also attributed the like of this hadith to (Sayyiduna) Imran ibn Husayn

(Sayyiduna) Umar Faruq and Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ have been cited in Muwatta Muhammad[1] to have regarded witr salah as made up of three raka'at.

Imam Hasan Busri رحمہ اللہ said that the predecessors follows the same thing.

Generally, the People did not even know of the raka'at of witr.

The freedman of Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ saw Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ offer one raka'ah for witr. He was amazed and worried and he reported his observation to Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ. He removed his doubts and worry by saying. "Mu'awiyah is a jurist. He has the honour of the company of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Do not raise objections to his conduct." (Bukhari)

Hence, it may be said with confidence that witr is made up of three raka'at. The ahadith abut one raka'ah of witr are liable to interpretation which we shall to at the proper place, insha Allah.

Or we might say that they refer to the initial practice of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم but ultimately, his witr also consisted of three raka'at and become well known to the sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ For the ummah, only the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ultimate practice should serve as a guidelines to follow.

1255. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The witr is one raka'ah at the end of the night."[2]

COMMENTARY: The witr is one but jointly with the first two raka'at. The third is the witr. This is how the ahadith are reconciled that say witr is one raka'ah and that say witr is three raka'at. In this way, the meaning of the hadith remains intact.

The best time to offer the witr is the last part of the night, after the salah of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) has been offered. Generally, however, people do not arise for the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer), so they offer immediately after the isha.

Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمہ اللہ writes that this hadith is evidence that witr is only one raka'ah. The ahadith that say that witr comprises three raka'at will be reproduced in this chapter and explained.

FIVE RAKA'AT BUT ONE TASHAHHUD

(١٢٥٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّيْ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ ثَلَاثَ عَشْرَةَ رَكْعَةً يُّوْتِرُ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ بِخَمْسٍ لَّا يَجْلِسُ فِيْ شَيْءٍ اِلَّا فِيْ اٰخِرِهَا۔ (متفق علیه)

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم salah in the night is described in many ways. One of those methods was that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم first salutations, which means that he offered them in two's. After that, he finally offered five raka'at with only one tashahhud and one salutation. He formed the intention to offer witr within them. His witr used to be included in those five raka'at, in none of which, but the last, did he sit down for the tashahhud or gave the salutation.

This means that it is allowed to offer five raka'at at a stretch with tashahhud only in the last. However, not all jurists agree on the permissibility of only one tashahhud. Those who say the it is disallowed explain that the word 'sitting only during the last raka'ah means that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave only one salutation at the end of the fifth, not in any other raka'ah as mentioned in some a*hadith* (but sat for the tashahhud).

Some jurists say that he did not prolong the sitting except in the fifth.

Anyway, all the ulama (Scholars) regard it as permissible to offer more than four raka'at together with one salutation. The Hanafis, however, limit the number of raka'at with one salutation to eight. They say that more than eight are allowed, but disliked.

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم WITR AND TAHAJJUD (SUPEREROGATORY PRAYER)

siwak and his water for ablution. Allah. Would raise him for as long as He would wish during the night. He would use the siwak, make ablution and offer nine raka'at. He did not observe the sitting posture except in the eight of them, and made dhikr, praised Allah and made supplication to him (in the at-tahiyat which embraces all this). Then, without making the salutation, he would get up for the ninth, offer it and sit for the qadah, making dhikr of Allah, praise Him and supplicate Him, Then, he would give the salutation audibly for me to hear. Then, while sitting He offered two raka'at after the salutation. That added up to eleven raka'at my son. When Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم grew old and had more flesh on him, he offered seven raka'at witr and the two raka'at as he had been offering before. That made up nine, my son. When Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم offered salah, he loved to persevere with it. But, when sleep overcome him or prevented him from standing in salah in the night, he offered twelve raka'at during the day (before zawal). And, I do not know that Allah's Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ever recited the entire Quran in a night, or offered salah all through a night till morning, or fast throughout a month, except Ramadan."[1]

COMMENTARY: As stated previously the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم liked very much to do whatever optional worship he undertook with a continuous regularity. Of course, if something cropped up that made it necessary to give it up or he himself wished to make it known that it could be put off, then sometimes he omitted to do that.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه is quoted here as saying that the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم fasting was never for a month together, except during Ramadan. However, she is cited to have said in another hadith that he fasted throughout the month of Sha'ban. The seeming difference in these two traditions is removed in her third hadith in which she makes it clear that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم observed fasting in sha'ban for most of the month (not the entire month).

TWO RAKA'AT OPTIONAL AFTER WITR: Apart from this hadith, there are other a*hadith* that permit two raka'at optional salah after offering the witr. However, the hadith that follows gives the command: 'let witr be the last of your salahs in the night.

The ulama (Scholars) have undertaken a tremendous investigation to remove this serous difference.

Imam Maalik رحمه الله has rejected this hadith outright. He says that it is not sound.

Imam Ahmad رحمه الله has taken a middle course. He says, "Neither do I offer two raka'at after witr nor do I forbid any one from offering them."

The majority of the ulama (Scholars) say that since it is established though sahih a*hadith* that two raka'at may be offered after witr, so it should not be ignored utterly. Then are, therefore, agreeable that the two raka'at may be offered (after witr). As for making the a*hadith* compatible, they have done it in two ways.

(i) As for making witr the last salah of the night, it means after these two raka'at. Other optional salah must not be offered. The hadith would mean: 'After offering the witr and these two raka'at, do not offer other optional salah.

(ii) The better course is to alternate between offering the two raka'at after witr and desisting from that in this way, one will abide by both the traditions.

This would mean that the hadith calling to make witr the last salah of the right is of the nature of mustahab, not a wajib (expedient) command.

The next question that arises is whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered two raka'at after witr when he offered the witr in the early part of the night after isha, or when he offered the witr in the last portion of the night after the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer). The hadith of Sayyiduan Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه says simply that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the two raka'at after witr sitting down. He did not specify when he offered them. Early in he night or later. However, the hadith of Sayyiduna Thawban رضى الله عنه specifies that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offerd the two raka'at after witr when he offered the witr in the early part of the night. Both these traditions will be found in close of this chapter (# 1286, 1287) However, the a*hadith* of Bukhari رحمه الله, Muslim رحمه الله and Muwatta say that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the two raka'at after witr when he offered the witr with the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) late in the night. This is correct.
Some ulama (Scholars) maintain that these two raka'at are attached to witr and stand for the sunnah of the witr they are offered after witr and are like the sunnah attached to the fard offered before or after fard.

WITR DURING LAST PORTION OF THE NIGHT

(١٢٥٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اجْعَلُوْا اٰخِرَ صَلَاتِكُمْ بِاللَّيْلِ وِتْرًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1258. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'Let witr be the last of your salahs in the night."[1]

COMMENTARY: As stated in the foregoing lines, this hadith gives the command not as wajib (expedient) but as mustahab.

(١٢٥٩) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ بَادِرُوْا الصُّبْحَ بِالْوِتْرِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1259. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Hasten to offer the witr before down (as its signs appear)."[2]

COMMENTARY: According to the hanafis this command is wajib (expedient). If anyone misses the witr in the night then he should redeem it during the day.

TIMES FOR WITR

(١٢٦٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ خَافَ اَنْ لَّا يَقُوْمَ مِنْ اٰخِرِ اللَّيْلِ فَلْيُوْتِرْ اَوَّلَهٗ

وَمَنْ طَمِعَ اَنْ يَّقُوْمَ اٰخِرَهٗ فَلْيُوْتِرْ اٰخِرَ اللَّيْلِ فَاِنَّ صَلَاةَ اٰخِرِ اللَّيْلِ مَشْهُوْدَةٌ وَذٰلِكَ اَفْضَلُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1260. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone is unsure that he would get up in the last part of the night (to offer witr) then he must offer witr in the beginning of the night (after isha). But, if anyone is hopeful of getting up in the last part of the night, he should offer, if in the last part of the night, for salah at the end of the night is witnessed (by the angels and blessings descend then). And, that is the most excellent."[3]

COMMENTARY: As stated previously, worship in the last part of the night fetches more reward.

1261. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had offered the witr during every portion of the night. The beginning of the night, middle of it and the end of it. His witr finished at down (during his final age, and it was the sixth portion of the night).[1]

THREE ADVICES

(١٢٦٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ اَوْصَانِيْ خَلِيْلِيْ بِثَلَاثٍ صِيَامَ ثَلَاثَةِ اَيَّامٍ مِنْ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ وَرَكْعَتَيِ الضُّحٰى وَاَنْ اُوْتِرَ قَبْلَ اَنْ اَنَامَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1262. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated, "My friend (meaning, the Prophet) صلی الله علیه وسلم instructed me to do three things: to fast three days every month, to offer two raka'at of ad-duha (forenoon salah) and to offer the salah of witr before going to sleep."[2]

COMMENTARY: As for three fasts every month, some ulama (Scholars) say that they are on the 13th, 14th and 15th of every month. Some others say that they are in the beginning of the month, middle of it and end of it. Yet others say that the choice is up to the worshipper and he may fast three days in month at his choice.

The salah of ad-Duha is the salah of ishraq or of chaast. This is offered after the sun rises high. They are from two raka'at on. Ishraq is upto six raka'at and chaast up to twelve.

Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه was instructed to offer the witr in the beginning of the night because he occupied himself in revising and memorizing ahadith for a long time in the night. So, it was very difficult for him to get up late in the night. It is because of his occupation he was also instructed to offer only two raka'at of ishraq or chaast. This shows that to occupy oneself in acquiring religious knowledge is better then occupying oneself in optional worship.

LENIENCY IN AFFAIRS!

اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَرَوَى ابْنُ مَاجَةَ الْفَصْلَ الْاَخِيْرَ۔

1263. Sayyiduna Ghudayf ibn al-Harith رحمه الله said, "I asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه whether Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had the purifying bath after sexual defilement early in the night or towards the end of it. She said, 'Sometimes he had the bath early in the night (forthwith after sexual defilement) and sometimes (he slept and) he had the bath towards the end of the night.' I extolled Allah, saying, Allah is the Greatest. Praise belongs to Allah who has allowed leniency in (religious) affairs! Then I asked whether he offered the witr early in the night or towards the end of it, and she said that sometimes he offered it early in the night and sometimes towards the end of it. So, I remarked, 'Allah is the Greatest. Praise belongs to Allah who has allowed leniency in (religious) affairs! Next, I asked, 'Did he recite the Quran aloud (in the salah of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer), or any salah), or in a low voice?' She said, 'sometimes he recited it in a loud voice and sometimes in a low voice,' So, I exclaimed, 'Allah is the Greatest. Praise belongs to Allah who has allowed leniency in (religious) affairs!"[1]

HOW MANY RAKA'AT

(١٢٦٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ اَبِىْ قَيْسٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ عَائِشَةَ بِكَمْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُوْتِرُ قَالَتْ كَانَ يُوْتِرُ بِاَرْبَعٍ وَّثَلَاثٍ وَسِتٍّ وَثَلَاثٍ وَثَمَانٍ وَّثَلَاثٍ وَعَشْرٍ وَّثَلَاثٍ وَّلَمْ يَكُنْ يُوْتِرُ بِاَنْقَصَ مِنْ سَبْعٍ وَّلَا بِاَكْثَرَ مِنْ ثَلَاثَ عَشْرَةَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1264. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Qays رحمه الله said that he asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه how many raka'at did Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم after with witr. She said, "He would offer witr with four and three, six and three, eight and three and ten and three. He never offerd witr with less than seven and never with more than thirteen."

COMMENTARY: The pairs four and three, etc, mean four raka'at of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) and three of witr, seven in all, and so up to ten and three. These are all descried as witr.

This hadith says explicitly that witr is not one raka'ah, but three.

It does not mean that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not ever offer less then seven and more than thirteen with witr. Rather, this was the general practice he observed, for, he is known to have offered five raka'at and fifteen, too.

WITR IS WAJIB (EXPEDIENT)

(رواه ابوداؤد والنسائى وابن ماجة)

1265. Sayyiduna Abu Ayyub رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The witr is a duty (obligatory) on every Muslim. He who wishes to offer it as five raka'at, may do so. He who wishes to offer it as three raka'at may do so. He who wishes to offer it as one raka'ah, may do so."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word (حق) haqq in the text (duty) stands for wajib (expedient) (obligatory) and established. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said, that witr is wajib (expedient). Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله said that it is es tablished through sunnah, so it is sunnah. Given the raka'at in the hadith, Sufyan Thawri رحمه الله adopted five as too other imams. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله adopted three raka'at and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله adopted one, saying that witr is only one raka'ah.

EXCELLENCE OF WITR

(١٢٦٦) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ وِتْرٌ يُّحِبُّ الْوِتْرَ فَاَوْتِرُوْا يَآ اَهْلَ الْقُرْاٰنِ۔ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد والنسائى)

1266. Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, Allah is witr (one), loves the witr (that which is single). So offer the witr, O people of the Quran."[2]

COMMENTARY: Allah is one and Alone as a Being and in His attributes. He has no co-equal NO one helps him and he has no associate or partner.

He gives too much reward to those who offer the salah of witr. Being one, He loves witr.

1267. Sayyiduna Kharijah ibn HUdhafah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came to them (one day) and said, "Surely Allah has helped you with a salah (other than the five times salahs) that is better for you than red camels - the witr (salah). Allah has assigned it for you between the salah of isha and the rise of dawn."[3]

COMMENTARY: The red camels are very costly in Arabia and a precious possession. The witr being better is more precious than all worldly possessions.

According to this hadith, the salah of witr is wajib (expedient) and it is disallowed to offer it before isha.

REDEEMING WITR

(١٢٦٨) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ اَسْلَمَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ نَامَ عَنْ وِتْرِهٖ فَلْيُصَلِّ اِذَا اَصْبَحَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ مُرْسَلًا۔

1268. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Aslam رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who sleep without offering the witr must redeem it on awakening."[4]

COMMENTARY: If one who is regular, misses the salah of witr, then he must offer it before the fard salah (obligatory prayer) of fajr but, if there is not enough time, then after the fard of fajr. If one is not regular at observing the times, then he may offer the missed witr before the salah of fajr or after it as he wills.

RECITAL IN WITR

(١٢٦٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالْعَزِيْزِ بْنِ جُرَيْجٍ قَالَ سَأَلْنَا عَائِشَةَ بِاَيِّ شَيْءٍ كَانَ يُوْتِرُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَتْ كَانَ يَقْرَأُ فِي الْاُوْلٰى بِسَبِّحِ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْاَعْلٰى وَفِي الثَّانِيَةِ بِقُلْ يَا اَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُوْنَ وَفِي الثَّالِثَةِ بِقُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ وَّالْمُعَوِّذَتَيْنِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَرَوَاهُ النَّسَآئِيُّ

1269. Sayyiduna Abdul Aziz ibn Jurayj رحمه الله said that the asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه what surahs did Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم recite in witr?" She said, "He used to recite in the first rakah (سبح اسم ربک الاعلى) (al a'la), in the second (قل یایها الکفرون) (al-kafirun) and in the third (قل هو الله احد) (al-Ikhlas) and the mu'awwidhatan (al-Falaq and an Naas)."[1]

1270. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Abza رضى الله عنه[2]

(١٢٧١) وَرَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ عَنْ اُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ

1271. Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضى الله عنه[3]

(١٢٧٢) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَلَمْ يَذْكُرَا اَوِ الْمُعَوِّذَتَيْنِ۔

1272. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه[4]
But the last two did not mention the mu'awwidhatan.

COMMENTARY: Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that the Hanafis follow the final version of Darimi رحمه الله which says that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited al-Ikhlas in the third raka'ah. They recite only this surah in the third raka'ah of witr (namely قل هو الله احد). This is also borne out by another tradition of Sayyidah Ayshah. رضى الله عنه

The Hanafis do not recite the mu'awwidhatan with al-Ikhlas in the last raka'ah because the sanad of this tradition is weak and secondly, the method mentioned in it is contrary to the habit of the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who is known to make every subsequent raka'ah shorter than the preceding while this tradition suggests that the third raka'ah would be longer than the first two. Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has spoken on it at length and has presented more arguments on behalf of the Hanafis. These may be seen in his Mirqah.

3 Daraqutni # 3 in Kitab witr.

Further, this hadith is evidence that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the three raka'at of witr giving only one salutation.

THE SUPPLICATION IN WITR

(رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد والنسائى وابن ماجة والدارمى)

1273. Sayyiduna Hasan ibn Ali رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم taught him some expressions that he might recite them in the qunoot (standing, supplication) in witr;

'O Allah, guide me along with those whom you have guided. And preserve me along with those whom you have preserved. Hold me dear (to you) along with those whom you hold dear. Bless me in that which you have bestowed (on me). Protect me from the evil of what you have ordained, for, indeed, you ordain and none can ordain against you, surely, never is he abased, whom you take for a third. Blessed are you, our Lord and Exalted! [1]

COMMENTARY: The words of Sayyiduna Hasan رضى الله عنه mean that their prayer is made all though the year in witr. The Hanafis abide by it. However, the Shafi'is restrict the supplication of qunoot to the second half of Ramadan in witr. They make the supplication of qunoot only in the last half of Ramadan while the Hanafis make it every day in the salah of witr.
The Sha'fi'is make this prayer in witr and fajr. The Hanafis make the prayer in witr:

(mentioned in the beginning of his chapter, before hadith # 1254).

Some ulama (Scholars) maintain that both supplications must be made in witr. Both are mentioned in the beginning of this chapter # 36), with their translation.

VARYING VIEW POINTS: Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that the imam differ on the supplication qunoot in three ways.

(i) Should it be made before going into ruku or after rising from it?
(ii) Should it be made always in witr on only during the last half of Ramadan?
(iii) Should it be made in any salah other than witr?

[1] Tirmidhi # 463, Abu Dawud # 1425, Nasai # 1744, Ibn Majah # 1178, Musnad Ahmad # 1718, Darimi # 1593.

As for the first Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله holds that it should be made on rising from ruku. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله differs and his arguments are strong and may be seen in mirqah. As for the second and third issues, we shall discuss them in detail in the next chapter al-qunoot (37), insha Allah.

TASBIH AFTER WITR

سُبْحَانَ الْمَلِكِ الْقُدُّوْسِ

"without blemish is the sovereign, the sacred."
Nasai added that he said them three times prolonging the words.[1]

(١٢٧٥) عَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ ابْنِ ابْزٰى عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا سَلَّمَ

1275. Abdur Rahman ibn abza رحمه الله reported from his father that he used to say on giving the salutation:

سُبْحَانَ الْمَلِكِ الْقُدُّوْسِ ثَلَاثًا وَّيَرْفَعُ صَوْتَهٗ بِالثَّالِثَةِ۔

Three times, and raise his voice at the third.[2]

COMMENTARY: The version in Daraqutni has the words

سُبْحَانَ الْمَلِكِ الْقُدُّوْسِ رَبِّ الْمَلَآئِكَةِ وَالرُّوْحِ۔

'without blemish is the sovereign, the sacred, Lord of the angels and the sprit."

(رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة)

1276. Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to say at the end of his witr:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُ بِرِضَاكَ مِنْ سَخَطِكَ وَبِمُعَافَاتِكَ مِنْ عُقُوْبَتِكَ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْكَ لَآ اُحْصِيْ ثَنَآءً عَلَيْكَ اَنْتَ كَمَا اَثْنَيْتَ عَلٰى نَفْسِكَ

"O Allah, I seek refuge in your pleasure from your anger, in your forgiveness from your punishment. in you from your wrath. I cannot count the praise due to you. You are as you have praised yourself."[3]

[3] Abu Dawud # 1427, Ibn Majah # 1179, Tirmidhi # 3577, Musnad Ahmad # 751.

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made this prayer in the third raka'ah of witr after the ruku. Hence, Imam Maalik رحمه الله follow this practice, Some people say, however, that he made this prayer after giving the salutation, and some other say that he made this within the at-tahiyat before the salutation. Some other hold that he made this prayer in his prostrations.

Nasai رحمه الله has transmitted a tradition that says clearly that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made this prayer when he lay down on his bed after finishing the salah of witr. Allah knows best.

DETERMINING A PARTICULAR DU'A QUNOOT: Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that a section of the ulama (Scholars) hold that one must not adopt a single supplication to be made in the qunoot (as du'a qunoot) because that comes to the tongue automatically and the heart and tongue do not synchronize with one another. It becomes a habit and the heart fails to throb with it. So, the objective of the prayer is last, for, only that prayer has effect which emerges from the care of the heart and is expressive of one's sentiments.

At the same time, other ulama (Scholars) hold that this instruction applies to prayers other than the regular one; and it is not disallowed to make it a regular, constant prayer but other prayers besides this, must not be fixed for always. They must be made now and then, because the sahabah رضی الله عنه had unanimously adopted:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْتَعِيْنُكَ......... الخ

and they made it always. Of course, other prayers as du'a qunoot are also allowed of and on.

The Muheet has also exempted the supplication:

اللهم اهدنى............الخ

which means that even this is not disallowed to be adopted as a constant du'a qunoot.

MU'AWIYAH & ONE RAKA'AH WITR

(١٢٧٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قِيْلَ لَهُ هَلْ لَّكَ فِيْ اَمِيْرِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ مُعَاوِيَةَ مَا اَوْتَرَ اِلَّا بِوَاحِدَةٍ قَالَ اَصَابَ اِنَّهُ فَقِيْهٌ وَّفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ ابْنُ اَبِيْ مُلَيْكَةَ اَوْتَرَ مُعَاوِيَةُ بَعْدَ الْعِشَآءِ بِرَكْعَةٍ وَعِنْدَهٗ مَوْلًى لِّا بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ فَاَتَى ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ فَاَخْبَرَهٗ فَقَالَ دَعْهُ فَاِنَّهٗ قَدْ صَحِبَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه البخارى)

1277. It is narrated about Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه that he was asked, "What do you say of the amir ul muminin Mu'awiyah offering only one raka'ah as witr?" He said, "He is a jurist and did right."

In another version, Ibn Abu Mulaykah رحمه الله narrated that Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه offered one raka'ah of witr after the salah of isha. The freedman of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه was with him at that time. So, he came and reported it to Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas (R who said, "Leave him alone. Indeed, he was a companion of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم."[1]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah رضى الله عنه offered only one raka'ah of witr. This surprised those who observed him, for witr is three raka'at. It is also possible that he may have offered the single witr with two raka'at but those who observed him remarked that he had not offered the isha or the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer).

EMPHASIS ON WITR

(١٢٧٨) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الْوِتْرُ حَقٌّ فَمَنْ لَّمْ يُوْتِرْ فَلَيْسَ مِنَّا اَلْوِتْرُ حَقٌّ فَمَنْ لَّمْ يُوْتِرْ فَلَيْسَ مِنَّا اَلْوِتْرُ حَقٌّ فَمَنْ لَّمْ يُوْتِرْ فَلَيْسَ مِنَّا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1278. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "The witr is haqq (duty). He who does not offer it, does not belong to us. The witr is haqq. He who does not offer it, does not belong to us. The witr is haqq. He who does not offer it does not belong to us."[2]

COMMENTARY: This should be enough to emphasise that witr is wajib (expedient). The Hanafis go by this dictate.

MUST BE REDEEMED

(١٢٧٩) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ نَّامَ عَنِ الْوِتْرِ اَوْنَسِيَهٗ فَلْيُصَلِّ اِذَا ذَكَرَ وَاِذَا اسْتَيْقَظَ۔ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

1279. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone goes to sleep without offering the witr, or forgets to offer it, then he must offer it when he remembers it or when he awakes."[3]

COMMENTARY: It witr were not wajib (expedient) it would not have been necessary to redeem it.

OR SUNNAH?

(١٢٨٠) وَعَنْ مَّالِكٍ بَلَغَهٗ اَنَّ رَجُلًا سَاَلَ ابْنَ عُمَرَ عَنِ الْوِتْرِ اَوَاجِبٌ هُوَ؟ فَقَالَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ قَدْ اَوْتَرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَوْتَرَ الْمُسْلِمُوْنَ فَجَعَلَ الرَّجُلُ يُرَدِّدُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَبْدُاللّٰهِ يَقُوْلُ اَوْتَرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَوْتَرَ الْمُسْلِمُوْنَ۔ (رواه فى الموطا)

1280. It is reported about Maalik رحمه الله that he learnt that a man asked Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه about the witr whether it is wajib (expedient)? Abdullah (Ibn Umar)رضى الله عنه said, "Indeed, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the witr and the Muslims also offer it." But, the man persisted and repeated his question and Abdullah رضى الله عنه continued to say, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the witr and the Muslim do offer it, too."[4]

COMMENTARY: One way to answer a question is to give evidence for it to be positive. This is what Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ did to say that witr is Wajib (expedient) since Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered, it constantly and the Muslims are one in offering it. One reason why Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ did not give a direct reply was to exercise caution. He had not heard from the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم a clear verdict about it.

RECITATION IN WITR

(۱۲۸۱) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُوْتِرُ بِثَلَاثٍ يَقْرَأُ فِيْهِنَّ بِتِسْعِ سُوَرٍ مِّنَ الْمُفَصَّلِ يَقْرَأُ فِيْ كُلِّ رَكْعَةٍ بِثَلَاثِ سُوَرٍ اٰخِرُهُنَّ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

1281. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to offer three raka'at as witr. He recited in them nine surahs from al-Mufassal, three in each raka'ah and the last of them was (قل ھو اللہ احد) (al-Ikhlas).[1]

COMMENTARY: Some versions give the detail that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited: الھٰکم التکاثر، انا انزلنٰہ، اذا زلزلت الارض in the first. (اذا جاء نصر اللہ، انا اعطینٰک) in the second. (Arabic) and (قل یا ایھا الکافرون، تبت یدا، قل ھو اللہ) in the third. (They are respectively surah # 102, 97, 99, 103, 110, 108, 109, 111, 112.)

1282. Sayyiduna Nafi رحمہ اللہ narrated that he was with Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ in Makkah. The sky was overcast and he felt that dawn was on them, so he offerd one raka'ah of witr. But, the sky cleared and he observed that night still remained. So, he offered one more raka'ah to make it even (a pair). Then, he offered two raka'at two raka'at till when he feared dawn had approached, he offered one raka'ah witr.[2]

ANOTHER METHOD OF SITTING FOR SALAH

(۱۲۸۳) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُصَلِّيْ جَالِسًا فَيَقْرَأُ وَهُوَ جَالِسٌ فَاِذَا بَقِيَ مِنْ قِرَآءَتِهٖ قَدْرَ مَا يَكُوْنُ ثَلَاثِيْنَ اَوْ اَرْبَعِيْنَ اٰيَةً قَامَ وَقَرَأَ وَهُوَ قَآئِمٌ ثُمَّ رَكَعَ ثُمَّ سَجَدَ ثُمَّ يَفْعَلُ فِي الرَّكْعَةِ الثَّانِيَةِ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1283. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (during his final years) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to offer salah sitting (in such a way that) when thirty or forty verses remained he stood up and recited them while standing. Then he bowed into ruku and went into prostration. Then went into prostration. Then, he did in the second raka'ah like that (again).[3]

[3] Muslim # 112-731.

COMMENTARY: It is allowed to offer salah in this way, but it is disallowed to do the opposite of it. This has been explained in the chapter on sunan.
Perhaps this hadith finds place here because it mentions two raka'at that precede the witr.

(١٢٨٤) وَعَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُصَلِّي بَعْدَ الْوِتْرِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَزَادَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ خَفِيْفَتَيْنِ وَهُوَ جَالِسٌ۔

1284. Sayyiduna Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to offer two raka'at after the witr.[1]
Ibn Majah's narration has: 'two brief raka'at while he was sitting.'

(١٢٨٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُوْتِرُ بِوَاحِدَةٍ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ رَكْعَتَيْنِ يَقْرَأُ فِيْهِمَا وَهُوَ جَالِسٌ فَإِذَا أَرَادَ أَنْ يَّرْكَعَ قَامَ فَرَكَعَ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1285. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to offer one raka'ah of witr. Then he offered two raka'at in which he recited the Quran while sitting down. When he had to bow into ruku, he stood up and made the ruku.[2]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Hajar said that sometimes the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the two raka'at after witr sitting throughout without standing. But, sometimes, he stood, after the recitating, to go into ruku and made the ruku.

MERIT OF TWO RAKA'AT AFTER WITR

(١٢٨٦) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ هٰذَا السَّهَرَ جُهْدٌ وَّثِقْلٌ فَإِذَا أَوْتَرَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَرْكَعْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَإِنْ قَامَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ وَإِلَّا كَانَتَا لَهٗ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1286. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "To wake up in the night (for the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer)) is an effort and a burden. So, it one of you (is unsure of getting up in the night and before he goes to sleep after isha) offers the witr, he should offer two raka'at which, if he gets up during the night (for the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer)) good, otherwise will suffice him."[3]
(He will get reward of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) through the two raka'at)

RECITATION IN TWO RAKA'AT AFTER WITR

(١٢٨٧) وَعَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُصَلِّيْهِمَا بَعْدَ الْوِتْرِ وَهُوَ جَالِسٌ يَقْرَأُ فِيْهِمَا إِذَا زُلْزِلَتِ الْأَرْضُ وَقُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْكٰفِرُوْنَ۔ (رواه احمد)

1287. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to offer the two of them after witr while he was seated. He recited in them; (اِذَازُلْزِلَتِ الْاَرْض) and (قُلْ يَاۤاَيُّهَاالْكٰفِرُوْنَ) (Surah # 99 and 109).[4]

CHAPTER - XXXVII

AL-QUNOOT بَابُ الْقُنُوْتِ

The word al-qunoot has many meanings (i) to be obedient, (ii) to stand in salah, (iii) to beseech Allah.

Supplication is also qunoot. In the religious terminology, it is specific supplication which meaning applies here. Thus the Shafi'is say that dua Qunoot is (اللهم اهدنی) (to the end) and the Hanafis say that it is: (اللهم انا) (to the end). Both these prayers have been reproduced in the previous chapter. The Hanafis have traced it from Tabarani and other through a correct line of transmission.

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله has cited Abu Dawud رحمه الله for this hadith; (one day) the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was cursing the members of the tribe of Mudar (for their oppression and terrorism) when Sayyiduna Jibril عليه السلام came and indicated to him to be quiet, saying:

يا محمد ﷺ ان الله لم يبعثك سبابا ولا لعانا انما بعثك رحمة۔

"O Muhammad Allah has not sent you to revile or to curse. Rather, he has sent you as mercy for two worlds." And he recited the verse (Arabic) {You have no authority I the matter} (3:128)

Then, he taught him this prayer:

اللهم انا نستعينك الخ

Shaykh Jalaluddin Suyuti رحمه الله has also narrated this prayer in Durr Manthur with a slightly different set of words.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

DISALLOWED TO CURSE

(١٢٨٨) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَآ اَرَادَ اَنْ يَّدْعُوَ عَلٰى اَحَدٍ اَوْيَدْعُوَ لِاَحَدٍ قَنَتَ بَعْدَ الرُّكُوْعِ فَرُبَّمَا قَالَ اِذَا قَالَ سَمِعَ اللّٰهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهٗ رَبَّنَا لَكَ الْحَمْدُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْجِ الْوَلِيْدَ ابْنَ الْوَلِيْدِ وَسَلَمَةَ بْنَ هِشَامٍ وَ عَيَّاشَ بْنَ اَبِيْ رَبِيْعَةَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اشْدُدْ وَطْأَتَكَ عَلٰى مُضَرَ وَاجْعَلْهَا سِنِيْنَ كَسِنِيْ يُوْسُفَ يَجْهَرُ بِذٰلِكَ وَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ فِيْ بَعْضِ صَلَاتِهٖ اَللّٰهُمَّ الْعَنْ فُلَانًا وَّفُلَانًا لِّاَحْيَآءٍ مِنَ الْعَرَبِ حَتّٰى اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى لَيْسَ لَكَ مِنَ الْاَمْرِ شَيْءٌ۔ الاية۔ (متفق عليه)

1288. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that when Allah's Messenger intended to make a prayer against someone or a prayer for someone, he recited the qunoot after the bowing posture. So, sometimes on saying (سمع الله لمن حمده) and (ربنا لک الحمد) he would pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْجِ الْوَلِيْدَ ابْنَ الْوَلِيْدِ وَسَلَمَةَ بْنَ هِشَامٍ وَ عَيَّاشَ بْنَ اَبِيْ رَبِيْعَةَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اشْدُدْ وَطْأَتَكَ عَلٰى مُضَرَ وَاجْعَلْهَا سِنِيْنَ كَسِنِيْ يُوْسُفَ

"O Allah, deliver (from persecution for their faith) as- walid bin as- walid, Savannah bins His tam and Ayahs bin Abs Rabies! O Allah, give a severe punishment to Mulate and cause them to suffer a famine similar to the famine of you, Yusuf" raising his voice with that.

Sometimes, he would prays in his salah:

اَللّٰهُمَّ الْعَنْ فُلَانًا وَّفُلَانًا

"O Allah, cause so-and-so and so-and-so, naming from the tribes of the Arabs.
But, then Allah revealed:

لَيْسَ لَكَ مِنَ الْاَمْرِ شَيْءٌ ـ الاية

{you have no authority in the matter} (3:128)[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet used to pray for those sahabah who were in the captivity of the idolaters and were tortured severely. He also prayed against those Arab tribes who had made life difficult for the Muslins restricting their free movement and access to necessities of life.
Al-walid ibn al-walid Qurayshi Makhzumi was taken captive by the Muslims in the Battle of Badr. His brother Khalid bin walid (who was an idolater at that time) and His ham came to the prophet and paid a ransom of four thousand dir hams to get release and took him to Makkah. There, the light of Islam made his heat and mind radiant and he became a Muslim. He was asked why he delayed his decision till his ransom was paid and he said, "I did not wish people to imagine that I had succumbed to pressure."
His brothers could not spare him. They imprisoned him and persecuted him. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for him and he escaped to Madinah safely رضى الله عنه
Salamah ibn Hisham رضى الله عنه was the brother of Ban Jail. He had embraced Islam at a very early stag but was nabbed by the infidels of make who subjected him to untold misery he too managed to get out of their hand and meet the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم
Ayyash ibn Abu Rabi'ah was a uterine brother of abu Jahl and a very early Muslim. He had emigrated to Ethiopia with other Muslims. When he came to Madinah, he was restless for him and had vowed not to sit in the shade as long as she did not see him. So, love of Mother dragged Ayyash to a cruel man like Abu Jahl, he put him in fetters and satisfied his lust for savagery and barbarism by tormenting him. But he too managed to escape and come to the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Later on, he attained martyrdom in the Battle of Tabuk against the idolaters.
These were those fortunate ones for whose release the tongue of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was occupied.
The first supplication in this hadith: اللهم انج الخ

"O Allah, deliver...."

is an example that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for the believes, in the qunoot.
The second supplication in this hadith: اللهم اشدد الخ

"O Allah, give a severe punishment ...."

Is evidence that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed against the tyrannical infidels, in the qunoot. The result was that the Makkans were in the grip of famine for seven years continuously going to the extent of eating bones of the dead people to survive.

As for the verse:

لَيْسَ لَكَ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ شَيْءٌ

the gist of it is that since it was not in keeping with the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم nature of mercy to pray to anyone's disadvantage or to curse someone, so Allah forbade him to pray against anyone by name. This has been explained in the introductory passage of this chapter.

DUA QUNOOT AT TIMES OF TRAIL IN FARD SALAH (OBLIGATORY PRAYER): Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that in times of distress, like an enemy's evil intention, famine epidemic, etc, that Muslims might face, they must make the supplication (dua) qunoot in every fard salah (obligatory prayer). The hanafis abide by this practice.

WHEN TO MAKE DUA QUNOOT

1289. Sayyiduna Aasim al Ahwal said that he asked Sayyiduna Anas ibn رحمه الله Maalik about the qunoot in the salah: was it made before the ruku or after it, He said, "Before it. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم made this prayer after the ruku only for one month when he had sent some people, called al-Qurra (reciters of the Quran), numbering seventy men. They were (sent to preach but were) martyred. So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم made the supplication qunoot after the ruku for one month calling for curse on the killers."[1]

COMMENTARY: The making of this prayer after ruku was abrogated. So, Islam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله abides by this edict.

MARTYRDOM OF THE QURRA: The seventy reciters of the Quran al-Qurra as-sabun, were among the ahl us-suffah. They were called al-Qurra because they recited the Qurian very much and memorized it. They were extremely poor and very ascetic Their only task was to stay at the Suffah to learn the Qur'an and acquire religious knowledge, but in spite of that, whenever the general body of Muslims faced difficulty, they came to their help with courage and dedication.

Some or them were wood cutters by day. From the proceeds there of they bought food for their companions and at night they occupied themselves with the Quran and invocation of blessing on the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent these (seventy) fortunate sahabah رضى الله عنه to najd to invite the tribes to Islam. When they were at Bir Maurah, between Makkah and Astfan, Aamir ibn Tufayl Ri'l, Dhakwan and Qarah attacked them and martyred all of them mercilessly, except Sayyiduna ka'b ibn Zayd Ansari He was wounded and nearly lifeless so that the attackers took him for dead and departed. He managed to go out and recover with Allah's will. He survived until he forget and was martyred in the Battle of the Trenches (Khandaq). Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was never as grieved at any occasion as on this tragedy. He made the supplication of qunoot for one month against these wicked infidels. This had happened in 4AH رضی اللہ عنہ.

MORE ON WHEN TO MAKE THE SUPPLICATION (DUA) QUNOOT

(١٢٩٠) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَنَتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَهْرًا مُتَتَابِعًا فِي الظُّهْرِ وَالْعَصْرِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ وَالْعِشَاءِ وَصَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ إِذَا قَالَ سَمِعَ اللّٰهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ مِنَ الرَّكْعَةِ الْآخِرَةِ يَدْعُوْ عَلَى أَحْيَاءٍ مِّنْ بَنِيْ سُلَيْمٍ عَلَى رِعْلٍ وَذَكْوَانَ وَعُصَيَّةَ وَيُؤَمِّنُ مَنْ خَلْفَهُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1290. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ Narrated That Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Made The Supplication qunoot Consecutively for one month in the (salahs of) zuhr, and maghrib, isha and fajr on having said: (سمع الله لمن حمده) in the last rakaah. He invoked (in it) a curse on the sub-tribes of Banu Sulaym (namely) Ri'I, Dhakwan and Usayyah. Those who stood behind him (in salah) said. Aameen.[1]

COMMENTARY: The dua qunoot is not made always. Only when the Muslims of through hardship or trial must this supplication be made in the fard salah (obligatory prayer).

1291. Sayyaiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made the supplication qunoot for one month (after ruku). Then, he gave it up (altogether in the fard salah (obligatory prayer), or after the ruku) [2]

COMMENTARY: Most learned men say that dua qunoot is not legal either in the fajr or any salah other than witr. They deduce from this very hadith.

There are many other a*hadith* that point out to giving up of the qunoot in the fard salah (obligatory prayer). Scholars may refer to the Mirqah for more in formation.

Imam Maalik and Imam Shafi'i say that the dua qunoot must be made in the salah of fajr always. It must be made in other salah when in grip of hardship.

1292. Sayyiduna Abn Maalik Ashja رحمہ اللہ said that he submitted to his father, "O Father, surely you had offered salah behind Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Abn Baker, رضی اللہ عنہ Umar, رضی اللہ عنہ Uthman, رضی اللہ عنہ and for five years here in Kufah, behind Ali, رضی اللہ عنہ Did they make the supplication qunoot, ever?" He said "O son

it is an innovation." [1]

COMMENTARY: Abu MaaliK رحمه الله was told by his father that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made the qunoot in the salah of fajr for only one month and then gave it up. Abn Hanifah رحمه الله abides by it, but shafi رحمه الله says that the a*hadith* calling for giving up qunoot in fajr are weak. Mulla Ali رحمه الله Qari reject his view.

QUNOOT IN SECOND HALF OF RAMADAN & AFTER RUKU

(١٢٩٣) عَنِ الْحَسَنِ اَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ جَمَعَ النَّاسَ عَلٰى اُبَيِّ ابْنِ كَعْبٍ فَكَانَ يُصَلِّي لَهُمْ عِشْرِيْنَ لَيْلَةً وَّلَا يَقْنُتُ بِهِمْ اِلَّا فِي النِّصْفِ الْبَاقِيْ فَاِذَا كَانَتِ الْعَشْرُ الْاَوَاخِرُ تَخَلَّفَ فَصَلّٰى فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ فَكَانُوْا يَقُوْلُوْنَ اَبَقَ اُبَيٌّ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ

1293. Sayyiduna Hasan (Busri) رحمه الله narrated that Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضی الله عنه assembled the people with Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی الله عنه (in Ramadan for the tarawih) as their imam for twenty nights, He did not make the dua qunoot for them except in the second half, when the last ten days remained Ubayy رضی الله عنه stayed away and offered salah in his house So, the people commented, Ubayy has fled." [2]

(١٢٩٤) وَسُئِلَ اَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ عَنِ الْقُنُوْتِ فَقَالَ قَنَتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعْدَ الرُّكُوْعِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَبْلَ الرُّكُوْعِ وَ بَعْدَهٗ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1294. Sayyaiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضی الله عنه was asked about the dua qunoot, and he said, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم made it after the ruku." According to a version he said "Before ruku and after it." [3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn ka'b رضی الله عنه was a distinguished sahabi. He had many distinctions, the chief of which was that he had memorized the Quran in the times of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

He was also recognized as a reciter of the Qur'an of high caliber. This is why he was called as sayyid ul-qurra (Chief of the reciters). So, Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه had appointed him as imam for the tarawih to lead the people.

Both these traditions of Hasan Busri رحمه الله are cited by the Shafits for their point of view.

The first hadith calls for dua qunoot only in the second half of Ramadan. The Hanafis say that dua qunoot is legal for witr. Since it is offered always, so the dua qunoot too is made always. Secondly, must a*hadith* mention dua qunoot in witr without specifying Ramadan So, even on this basis dua qunoot must be made in witr always.

The second hadith is evidence for the Shafiis that dua qunoot may be made after ruku. The Hanafis contend that a larger number of a*hadith* place dua qunoot before ruku. Moreover, the Sahabah رضی الله عنه also pursued these (latter, numerous) a*hadith*. So, we, two, must follow them. As for making dua qunoot after ruku, these a*hadith* applied for only one month where after the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم abandoned that practice. (That was not done always).

Mulla Ali رضى الله عنه Qari said that Ubayy ibn Ka'b رحمه الله may have made the dua qunoot to curse the rebels against Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم during the second half of Ramadan because it is attributed to Umar رضى الله عنه through an authentic line of transmission that he said, "When the month of Ramadan is half way through, it is sunah to invoke curse on the infidels in the second half of Ramadan).
When Ubayy ibn Ka'b رحمه الله did not come to the mosque on the last ten days of Ramadan, the people disliked it and compared him to a runaway slave, saying (أبَقَ أبَيّ) But, he must have had a valid excuse.
The words of the hadith that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made the dua qunoot after ruku imply that he did so only for one month (in the salah of fajr). This is established by the hadith (# 1289) of Aasim Ahmed رضى الله عنه in Bukhari and Muslims.
The last hadith means that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made the supplication qunoot (in witr) sometimes before the ruku and sometimes after the ruku (at the time of defaulters, etc).
This interpretation will reconcile the a*hadith* that say that he made dua qunoot before ruku and those that say after ruku.

CHAPTER - XXXVIII

SALAH DURING THE NIGHTS OF RAMADAN بَابُ قِيَامِ شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ

Standing in the month of Ramadan means to worships Allah in the sacred nights of this blessed month. This includes the salah of tarawit recitations of the Quran and other forms of worship for which one keeps vigil in the night.
TARAWIH: In this chapter, there will be more a*hadith* about the salah of tarawih. The merits of this salah and relative commands will be mentioned. Here, in the succeeding lines we mention same of the commands.

1. The tarawih in Ramadan is sunnah muwakkadah(compulsory) for both men and women.
2. When the moon for Ramadan is sighted, the salah of tarawih begins from that very night. And when the moon of eed is sighted, the tarawih ends that very night.
3. The salah of tarawih is not subservient to fasting. If any one is unable to fast for some reason, the tarawih sometimes to be sunnah for him too and if he will not offer it then he will be a sinner for neglecting the sunnah.
4. The time of tarawih begins after isha. If anyone has offered the salah of isha and the salah of tarawih after which some defect is detected in the salah of isha for which it will have to be offered all over again, then the salah of tarawih will also have to be repeated.
5. If anyone has not offered the salah of isha with the congregation then he must not offer the salah of tarawih too with the congregation because tarawih is second to isha. However, if some people have offered isha with the congregation and follow with the tarawih then this man may join them and offer the salah of tarawih in congregational form, because he wiii be regarded as their follower whose congregational salah is correct.
6. If anyone comes to the mosque after the salah of isha is over, then he must first offer the isha and then join the tarawih. If some raka'at of tarawih have been offered, mean while by the congregation then he must make amends (by offering them) after the salah of witr.

7. It is sunnah muwakkadah to recite the entire Quran in sequence in the salah of tarawih. People must not neglect it out of lethargy. But, if it is feared that if the entire Quran is recited, people might keep away from the congregation then only so much must be recited as they will endure for the rest the last ten surah may be recited one each in a raka'ah and on completing the ten, they may be repeated, or other short Surah may be recited.
8. More than one Quran complete should not be recited unless the people are willing.
9. While it is allowed to recite the entire Quran in one night, yet the people must be consulted. If they are unwilling then it will be makruh to do so.
10. During the tarawih, (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) (the basmalah) must be recited once in a loud voice at the beginning of a surah because it is also a verse of the Quran though not part of any surah. If it is not recited, then the Quran will be incomplete.
11. It is sunnah to after the tarawih for the entire month of Ramadan though the Quran may have been completed earlier, say in fifteen or twenty days. It is sannah muwakkadah to offer the tarawih for the days that remain in Ramadan.
12. The correct thing is that it is makruh to recite (قل هو الله احد) (surah al-Ikhlas) three times in the tarawih as is the custom now-a-days.
13. The intention for the salah of tarawih may be formed in these words:

نَوَيْتُ اَنْ اُصَلِّيَ رَكْعَتَيْ صَلٰوةِ التَّرَاوِيحِ سُنَّةَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَصْحَابِهٖ

(I resolve to offer two raka at of the salah of tarawih which is the sunnah of the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his sahabah رضى الله عنه

14. The salah of tarawih is offered in the same way as any other salah.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

TARAWIH WITH CONGREGATION IS SUNNAH

(١٢٩٥) عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اتَّخَذَ حُجْرَةً فِي الْمَسْجِدِ مِنْ حَصِيرٍ فَصَلَّى فِيْهَا لَيَالِيَ حَتّٰى اجْتَمَعَ عَلَيْهِ نَاسٌ ثُمَّ فَقَدُوْا صَوْتَهٗ لَيْلَةً وَّظَنُّوْا اَنَّهٗ قَدْ نَامَ فَجَعَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ يَتَنَحْنَحُ لِيَخْرُجَ اِلَيْهِمْ فَقَالَ مَازَالَ بِكُمُ الَّذِيْ رَاَيْتُ مِنْ صَنِيْعِكُمْ حَتّٰى خَشِيْتُ اَنْ يُكْتَبَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَلَوْ كُتِبَ عَلَيْكُمْ مَاقُمْتُمْ بِهٖ فَصَلُّوْا اَيُّهَا النَّاسُ فِيْ بُيُوْتِكُمْ فَاِنَّ اَفْضَلَ صَلَاةِ الْمَرْءِ فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ اِلَّا الصَّلَاةَ الْمَكْتُوْبَةَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1295. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit narrated that (in the month of Ramadan) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم erected an enclosure of red mats in the mosque and offered salah in it for same nights till the people gathered around him. (He would come out and lead the fard and tarawih salah) One night (he had offered the fard and retired to his room but did not come out as usual so) they missed him and not hearing him and presumed that he had gone to sleep. They began to cough so that he might (wake up and) come out to them (to lead the tarawih prayer). He said (from inside or on coming out), "I see that you do something constantly, but I fear that it might be prescribed for you and if it is done than you would not be able to stand to it. So, offer salah in your homes because the best salah man offers is that which he offers in his home, except the prescribed salah (which is best offered in the mosque)"[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had put up a temporary enclosure in the mosque to observe the itikaf. He spent the sacred moments of Ramadan here worshipping and remembering Allah. This is evidence that such an enclosure may be raised in the mosque to observe itikaf but only the bare minimum space must be occupied. If other people will not be put to inconvenience then more space may be occupied than necessary. It is prohibited to occupy more space in the days of Hajj(pilgrimage) in the sacred Mosques.

This hadith shows how much concern the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had for his ummah. He did not wish that they should have the tarawih salah prescribed for them (as fard(obligatory prayer)). At the same time this hadith makes it clear that it is sunnah to offer the tarawih with the congregation.

The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم command to the people to offer salah other than fard, at home is of a mustahab not an obligatory nature. It is better and reasonable to offer the sunnah and optional salah at home.

Every sunnah and optional salah which are symbols of Islam, like salah of Kusuf, Istisqa, eed which may be offered in mosques.

Furthermore, the Ka'bah and the Masjid Nabawi do not fall under the purview of this edict for the travellers. It is better for them to offer the sunnah and optional salah in these mosques because they get seize the chance and offer as many raka'at and salah in these mosques as they can.

This exception is deduced from the saying of the scholars that it is better for travellers to make tawaf(circumainbulate) of the kabah than offering optional salah.

MERIT OF WORSHIP DURING RAMADAN

(١٢٩٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُرَغِّبُ فِيْ قِيَامِ رَمَضَانَ مِنْ غَيْرِ اَنْ يَّأْمُرَهُمْ فِيْهِ بِعَزِيْمَةٍ فَيَقُوْلُ مَنْ قَامَ رَمَضَانَ اِيْمَانًا وَّاحْتِسَابًا غُفِرَ لَهٗ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهٖ فَتُوُفِّيَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالْاَمْرُ عَلٰى ذٰلِكَ ثُمَّ كَانَ الْاَمْرُ عَلٰى ذٰلِكَ فِيْ خِلَافَةِ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَّصَدْرًا مِنْ خِلَافَةِ عُمَرَ عَلٰى ذٰلِكَ ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1296. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that while Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم continued to exhort (people ro offer salah in the night, he did not command them to do it as though a Divine ordinance. He said, "He who offers salah during the nights of Ramadan having faith and hoping for reward, his past sins are forgiven him." This continued to be the practice till he died and it continued accordingly during the Khilafah of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and the initial days of the Kilafah of Umar رضى الله عنه (till he gave the command for the tarawih to be offered with the congregation dutifully).[2]

COMMENTARY: Salah during the night of Ramadan implies keeping vigil in the night. It also means worship with a conviction that it will take him nearer to Allah and earn him pardon for his minor past sins.

SUNNAH & OPTIONAL AT HOME

(١٢٩٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا قَضٰى اَحَدُكُمُ الصَّلَاةَ فِيْ مَسْجِدِهٖ فَلْيَجْعَلْ لِبَيْتِهٖ نَصِيْبًا مِنْ صَلَاتِهٖ فَإِنَّ اللّٰهَ جَاعِلٌ فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ مِنْ صَلَاتِهٖ خَيْرًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1297. Sayyiduna Jabir narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said "When one of you offers the (fard) salah in his mosque, let him keep for his home a portion of his salah, for, surely, Allah grows in his house blessing because of his salah."

COMMENTARY: This hadith highlights the excellence of observing the sunan and nafl at home. The inmates of the house are encouraged thereby to do pious work and there is blessing in their lives and provision.

The salah of tarawih is exempted from this command. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the sahabah رضى الله عنه used to offer it in the mosque.

Though this hadith does not seen to belong to this chapter, it emphasizes that even in Ramadan some salah must be offered at home.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

1298. Sayyiduna Abn Dharr narrated: We observed fasting with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. He did not offer salah with us most of the nights of the month till seven (nights) remained when he stood with us (in salah) till a third of the night had passed away. Then the sixth last night but stood with us on the fifth last night till the middle of the night was gone. I submitted, "O Messenger of Allah. Would that you led us in the supererogatory salah for the rest of the night." He said, "He who stands in salah with an imam till he finishes, has a full night's standing (in salah) recorded for him." Thereafter, he did not pray with us on the fourth last night till two-thirds of it had passed. He prayed with us on the third last night and called his folkad his wives from his house, standing so Long that we night miss al-falah.

The sub narrator asked him what al-falah was and he said, "It is sahr" or the predawn meal. (The hadith continues:) Then he did not offer salah with us for the remainder of the month.[1]

Tirmidhi did not mention the last sentence.

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not lead the sahabah رضى الله عنه in tarawih for the first two ashras (meaning twenty days, each ashrah being ten days) of Ramadan.

This was done for the same reason mentioned in previous hadith (#1295): lest it be prescribed for you (as fard):

Teebi رضى الله عنه said about the words till seven nights remained' that it is on basis of the month being of twenty-nine days.

Sahr is described as falah because it serves as a means of energy, falah meaning success.

The vigil during the last nights was commensurate with the merit of each night and was for the entire night on the twenty-seventh. Most ulama (Scholars) hold that it is the laylat ul-qadr. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gathered the folk of his house and his wives on this night and occupied in worship all through the night with all of them.

FIFTEENTH OF THE MONTH OF SHA'BAN

(١٢٩٩) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ فَقَدْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْلَةً فَإِذَا هُوَ بِالْبَقِيْعِ فَقَالَ أَكُنْتِ تَخَافِيْنَ أَنْ يَحِيْفَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْكِ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنِّيْ ظَنَنْتُ إِنَّكَ أَتَيْتَ بَعْضَ نِسَائِكَ فَقَالَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى يَنْزِلُ لَيْلَةَ النِّصْفِ مِنْ شَعْبَانَ إِلَى السَّمَآءِ الدُّنْيَا فَيَغْفِرُ لِأَكْثَرَ مِنْ عَدَدِ شَعْرِ غَنَمِ كَلْبٍ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَزَادَ رَزِيْنٌ مِمَّنِ اسْتَحَقَّ النَّارَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ سَمِعْتُ مُحَمَّدًا يَعْنِي الْبُخَارِيَّ يُضَعِّفُ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثَ۔

1299. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated "One night (When it was my turn), I missed Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. So, I went out (to look for him). He was at Baqi and asked me, 'Did you fear that Allah and His Messenger would be unfair to you. I submitted, 'O Messenger of Allah, I supposed that you had gone to another of your wives. He said, 'In deed, Allah, the Blessed and the Exalted, descends on the night of the fifteenth of shaban to the lowest heaven and forgives sins, more than the hair of the sheep of Banu Kalb." Razin adds: 'for those (be livers) who deserve to be consigned to hell.

Imam Tirmidhi said "I heard Muhammad - Bukhari – say that this hedith is daif."[2]

COMMENTARY: Al-Baqi is a graveyard in Madinah, also called Jannat ul-Baqi.

This incident has been narrated by sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه in another hadith in detail. When I did not find the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the bed, I wrapped my garment on my body and looking for his footsteps walked out, when, behold! He was prostrating himself in al-Baqi. He prolonged the prostration till I was afraid for his life. Luben he rose from it and turned in salutation, he looked at me and asked, "Were you fearful lest Allah and this Messenger had wronged you?"

The mention of Allah in this sentence is to make the statement beautiful.

She said "I did not think so but I presumed that at Allah's command, or at your own discretion, you had gone to one of your other wives."

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that if she had said, "Yes" to the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم question then that would have amounted to disbelief.
The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then explained to her why he had gone out. He mentioned about the fifteenth night of sha'ban (as in the hadith). "This was an opportune time to amass blessings and forgiveness for my ummah. I came here and made supplication to my lord."

(١٣٠٠) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَاةُ الْمَرْءِ فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ اَفْضَلُ مِنْ صَلَاتِهٖ فِيْ مَسْجِدِيْ هٰذَا اِلَّا الْمَكْتُوْبَةَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد الترمذی)

1300. Sayyiduna Zayd Ibn Thabit رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A Man's salah in his home is better than his salah in this the mosque of mine, except for the prescribed salah (which is best offered in the mosque).[1]

COMMENTARY: In spite of the fact that a salah in Masjid Nabvi fetches a reward one thousand times over that in any other place, it is better to offer the optional salah at home than in Masjid Nabawi. The reason is that salah offered at home will be free of ostentation. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had said this when he had stopped offering salah for a few nights in Ramadan with advice that it was more excellent to offer salah in one's house than in the mosque.

WHAT ABOUT TARAWIH: On the basis of this hadith, Imam Maalik, رحمه الله, Imam Abn Yusuf رحمه الله, and some of the Shafi'is رحمه الله deduce that it is better to offer the tarawih alone in one's home. They say about the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he offered it in the mosque to demonstrate that it is allowed to do so and, moreover, he was observing the itikaf in the mosque.

On the other hand Imam Abn Hanifah, رحمه الله Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله, most of the Shafi'i رحمه الله ulama (Scholars) and some of the Maaliks رحمه الله agree that it is better to offer the salah of tarawih in the mosque as Sayyiduna Umar رحمه الله and after him, other sahabah رضى الله عنه had it offered in mosques. After that, Muslims have been diving it continually and the salah of tarawih is a symbol of Islam. It resembles the salah of eed.

It is stated in books of fiqh that if there is a man who is regarded as a leader and guide of Muslims and if he will come, the number of people in the congregation will swell than he must offer the tarawih in the mosque. If he is not that kind of a man then it is allowed that the salah may be offered at home.

CONGREGATION FOR TARAWIH BY UMAR رحمه الله

(١٣٠١) عَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عَبْدِالْقَارِيِّ قَالَ خَرَجْتُ مَعَ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ لَيْلَةً اِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ فَاِذَا النَّاسُ اَوْزَاعٌ مُتَفَرِّقُوْنَ يُصَلِّي الرَّجُلُ لِنَفْسِهٖ وَيُصَلِّي الرَّجُلُ فَيُصَلِّي بِصَلَاتِهِ الرَّهْطُ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ اِنِّيْ لَوْ جَمَعْتُ هٰؤُلَاءِ عَلٰى قَارِئٍ وَاحِدٍ لَكَانَ اَمْثَلَ ثُمَّ عَزَمَ فَجَمَعَهُمْ عَلٰى اُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ ثُمَّ خَرَجْتُ مَعَهٗ لَيْلَةً اُخْرٰى وَ النَّاسُ يُصَلُّوْنَ بِصَلَاةِ قَارِئِهِمْ قَالَ عُمَرُ نِعْمَتِ الْبِدْعَةُ هٰذِهٖ وَالَّتِيْ تَنَامُوْنَ عَنْهَا اَفْضَلُ مِنَ الَّتِيْ

تَقُوْمُوْنَ يُرِيْدُ اٰخِرَ اللَّيْلِ وَكَانَ النَّاسُ يَقُوْمُوْنَ اَوَّلَهٗ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1301. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman Ibn Abdul Qar'y رحمه الله narrated: one night (during Ramadan) I went with Umar Ibn Khattab (KH) to the mosque. Behold! The people were in sections, divided from each other. A man offered (optional) salah here by himself, another offered salah with some people following him. (Seeing this,) Umar رحمه الله said, "If I brought them together under one recite that would be fine." So, he resolved (to do that) and brought (all of) them behind Ubayy Ibn Ka'b رضی الله عنه as (their) Imam (for the salah of tarawih).

He narrated further: Later on, I went with him another night. The people were offering the salah behind their recites. Umar رحمه الله remarked, "An excellent innovation, this! But that (Salah) through which you sleep is better than for what you stand (now); "meaning, (salah) at the end of the night. (He meant that tarawih offered towards the close of the night is better than offering it in the early night.) At that time, people offered the salah (of tarawih) early in the night. [1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه said of the congregational salah of tarawih that it is an excellent bid'ah. He retuned to the one he had initiated not to the actual congregational salah that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had taught and which is known from him. He had led the congregational salah of tarawih after as we have mentioned many times in the preceding lines against earlier ahadith. It we look at it carefully, it moves ahead to the degree of sunnah because the things initiated by the righteous caliphs are also sunnah. Here bida'h is taken in its literal meaning not the terminology of the jurists. (as commonly used).

HOW MANY RAKRAT OF TARAWIH

(۱۳۰۲) وَعَنِ السَّائِبِ بْنِ يَزِيْدَ قَالَ اَمَرَ عُمَرُ اُبَيَّ بْنَ كَعْبٍ وَتَمِيْمًا الدَّارِيَّ اَنْ يَّقُوْمَا لِلنَّاسِ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ بِاِحْدٰى عَشْرَةَ رَكْعَةً فَكَانَ الْقَارِئُ يَقْرَاُ بِالْمِئِيْنَ حَتّٰى كُنَّا نَعْتَمِدُ عَلَى الْعَصَا مِنْ طُوْلِ الْقِيَامِ فَمَا كُنَّا نَنْصَرِفُ اِلَّا فِيْ فُرُوْعِ الْفَجْرِ۔ (رواه مالك)

1302. Sayyiduna Sa'ib ibn Yazid رضی الله عنه narrated that (Sayyiduna) Umar رضی الله عنه instructed Ubayy ibn Kab رضی الله عنه and Imam and ad-Dari رضی الله عنه that they should lead the people during (the nights of) Ramadan through eleven raka'at. The reciter used to recite (those surahs that had more than) one hundred verses.[2]

So that they had to lean on their staff because of the prolonged standing. They did not disperse before dawn was about to break.[3]

COMMENTARY: The two imams led the people by twos either a certain number of raka'at each day or, on alternate nights.

This hadith says that the salah of tarawih is made up of eleven raka'at But, the ulama (Scholars) assert that it is proved beyond doubt that in Umar's رضی الله عنه times twenty raka'at were offered for tarawih. So, we might say that he may have offered twenty raka'at at times and sufficed with eleven at times. Or, since it is known that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had offered eleven raka'at as tarawih, he may have intended to emulate him some nights and given instructions to offer eleven but later twenty were incorporated in tarawih constantly. The Prophet has been stated in a tradition to have offered thirty including three of witr.

LEANING ON STICK IN OPTIONAL SALAH: The recitation was so prolonged in the tarawih salah that the worshippers had to lean on their staff to keep themselves standing. It follows that during optional salah when fatigue overtakes one - and even otherwise - it is allowed to lean or rest on something.

(١٣٠٣) وَعَنِ الْأَعْرَجِ قَالَ مَا أَدْرَكْنَا النَّاسَ إِلَّا وَهُمْ يَلْعَنُوْنَ الْكَفَرَةَ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ قَالَ وَكَانَ الْقَارِئُ يَقْرَأُ سُوْرَةَ بَقَرَةٍ فِيْ ثَمَانِيْ رَكْعَاتٍ فَإِذَا قَامَ بِهَا فِيْ ثِنْتَيْ عَشَرَةَ رَكْعَةً رَأَى النَّاسُ أَنَّهُ قَدْ خَفَّفَ۔ (رواه مالك)

1303. Sayyiduna Arraj رحمه الله said that he never found people but they invoked curse upon the infidels during Ramadan. The Qari (meaning, who led the salah of tarawih) would recite surah al-Baqarah (in those days) in eight raka'at. And , when he recited it in twelve raka'at, the people presumed that he had made the salah lighter.[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith does not say whether curse was invoked on the infidels throughout Ramadan in the salah of witr, yet if this is deduced then all these ahadith will be reconciled. Also in that case, this hadith will not contradict the hadith of Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه that it is sunnah to invoke curse on the infidels when the first half of Ramadan is over.

The disbelievers deserved to be cursed because they did not respect the blessed month of Ramadan whose greatness Allah has declared clearly. And, they did not derive even a little bit of guidance from Allah's Book that was reveled during this month.

We have discussed the number of raka'at of tarawih in the preceding lines. We must know that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not ever specify the number at raka'at of tarawih. Rather, he is known to have offered eight raka'at eleven and thirteen and twenty too.

In his times, however, Umar رضى الله عنه specified twenty raka'at of tarawih and thereafter, all the Sahabah رضى الله عنه observed that number, Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه also retained this number. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had said, "Stick to my sunnah and the sunnah of my righteous caliphs. Hold them by your teeth,"

It, in spite of this command, anyone rejects the twenty raka'at of tarawih because they are not known from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم definitely, then we can say of him that he clearly defies the Sunnah.

THE FINAL HOUR OF THE SALAH OF TARAWIH

(١٣٠٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ أَبِيْ بَكْرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ أُبَيًّا يَقُوْلُ كُنَّا نَنْصَرِفُ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ مِنَ الْقِيَامِ فَنَسْتَعْجِلُ الْخَدَمَ بِالطَّعَامِ مَخَافَةَ فَوْتِ السُّحُوْرِ وَفِيْ أُخْرٰى مَخَافَةَ الْفَجْرِ۔ (رواه مالك)

1304. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard (Sayyiduna) Ubayy رضى الله عنه say, "We used to disperse after the standing in salah (of tarawih) during Ramadan and instruct the servants to place the meal quickly lest we miss it before dawn." According to another version, he said, "lest we miss it before fajr."[2]

BIRTH & DEATH RECORDED ON FIFTEEN SHA'BAN

(١٣٠٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ هَلْ تَدْرِيْنَ مَافِيْ هٰذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ يَعْنِي لَيْلَةَ النِّصْفِ مِنْ شَعْبَانَ قَالَتْ مَا فِيْهَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ فِيْهَا اَنْ يُكْتَبَ كُلُّ مَوْلُوْدٍ بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ فِيْ هٰذِهِ السَّنَةِ وَفِيْهَا اَنْ يُكْتَبَ كُلُّ هَالِكٍ مِنْ بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ فِيْ هٰذِهِ السَّنَةِ وَ فِيْهَا تُرْفَعُ اَعْمَالُهُمْ وَفِيْهَا تُنْزَلُ اَرْزَاقُهُمْ فَقَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا مِنْ اَحَدٍ يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ اِلَّا بِرَحْمَةِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى فَقَالَ مَا مِنْ اَحَدٍ يَدْ خُلُ الْجَنَّةَ اِلَّا بِرَحْمَةِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى ثَلَاثًا قُلْتُ وَلَا اَنْتَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَوَضَعَ يَدَهٗ عَلٰى هَامَتِهٖ فَقَالَ وَلَا اَنَا اِلَّا اَنْ يَتَغَمَّدَنِيَ اللّٰهُ مِنْهُ بِرَحْمَتِهٖ يَقُوْلُهَا ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوٰتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

1305. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked her, can you imagine what happens this night, meaning the night of the middle of Sha'ban" She asked," What is that, O Messenger of Allah." He said, "In it is recorded every child of Aadam علیہ السلام who will be born this year, and in it is recorded every one of the children of Aadam who will die this year, and in it their deeds are taken up (to heaven), and in it their provisions are sent down." She asked. "O Messenger of Allah, (is it that) no one enters paradise without the mercy of Allah, the exalted. "She asked, "And not you, too, O Messenger of Allah." He put his hand on the crown of his head and confirmed, "Not I, too unless Allah embraces me with his mercy," He said this three times.[1]

COMMENTARY: Births and deaths of all human beings have been recorded in a general way on the preserved tablet long ago again on the 15th shaban each year the names of human beings who will be born and who will die during the year are recorded

As for deeds being taken up the deeds that a person will do during the year are recorded on this night and are then taken up to heaven every day after they are performed.

Similarly, the provisions of every person are recorded for the year on this night. According to another hadith: "This night deaths and provisions are recorded. Also, the names of those who will perform Hajj(Pilgrimage) during the year are recorded this night.

The Prophet also confirmed that admittance to paradise depends on Allah's mercy not on one's good deeds. He may admit to paradise whom so He wishes and deny admittance to whom so He chooses. This saying of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم does not differ from the Qur'an's word:

تِلْكَ الْجَنَّةُ الَّتِيْ اُوْرِثْتُمُوْهَا بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُوْنَ۔

{This is the Garden which you are made to inherit for what you used to do.} (7:43)

While righteous deeds are an apparent means of admittance to paradise, the true means is Allah's mercy and compassion and favours. Moreover, the ability to do pioius deeds is also with Allah's mercy. If a person is deprived of Allah's mercy than how will he be prompted to do good deeds? A person can do good actions only when Allah enables him to do that. Hence, entry into paradise depends entirely on Allah's mercy.

[1] Bayhaqi in ad-Dawat al-Kabir

Some Ulama (Scholars) say that while admittance to paradise is because of Allah's mercy. Ranks and degrees will rise according to deeds.

MALICE - BEARER AND POLY THEIST WILL BE DEPRIVED OF MERCY

(١٣٠٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي مُوسَى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى لَيَطَّلِعُ فِيْ لَيْلَةِ النِّصْفِ مِنْ شَعْبَانَ فَيَغْفِرُ لِجَمِيْعِ خَلْقِهٖ اِلَّا لِمُشْرِكٍ اَوْ مُشَاحِنٍ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ

1306. Sayyiduna Abu Musa al Ashary رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Allah, the Exalted, looks (towards the creatures) on the night of the middle of Sha'ban and forgives all His creatures, except a polytheist or one who bears malice to another."[1]

(١٣٠٧) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَتِهٖ اِلَّا اثْنَيْنِ مُشَاحِنٌ وَقَاتِلُ نَفْسٍ۔

1307. Abdullah ibn Ami ibn al-Aas narrated it too and his version has: "except two kinds, one who bears malice and a murderer."[2]

COMMENTARY: On this night when Allah turns towards the earthlings with His perfect mercy, He forgives His rights too as also lapses in worship and obedience. But, He does not forgive disbelief and rights of His creatures (which are rights of fellow-men), though He grants respite to repent. If they do not repent but persist in their disbelief and evil deeds then He punishes them.

A malice bearer is driven not by shari'ah but his personal base self and needlessly detests other people. He hates them and is jealous of them.

This hadith mentions the disbeliever the malice-bearers and the murderer as deprived of Allah's mercy an the night of fifteenth Shaban.

Other traditions also name one who severs ties of relationship. One who drags his lower garment below the ankle, one who disobeys parents, an alcoholic, the adulterer, the extortionist or one who collects tax by force, the sorcerer, the soothsayer, the astrologist and the musician. These are the people who are deprived of Allah's mercy on this sacred night when it descends lavishly for all.

(١٣٠٨) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ رضي الله عنه قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا كَانَتْ لَيْلَةُ النِّصْفِ مِنْ شَعْبَانَ فَقُوْمُوْا لَيْلَهَا وَصُوْمُوْا يَوْمَهَا فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى يَنْزِلُ فِيْهَا لِغُرُوْبِ الشَّمْسِ اِلَى السَّمَاءِ الدُّنْيَا فَيَقُوْلُ اَلَا مِنْ مُسْتَغْفِرٍ فَاَغْفِرَ لَهٗ اَلَا مُسْتَرْزِقٌ فَاَرْزُقَهٗ اَلَا مُبْتَلًى فَاُعَافِيَهٗ اَلَا كَذَا اَلَا كَذَا حَتّٰى يَطْلُعَ الْفَجْرُ۔ (رواہ ابن ماجة)

1308. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "When it is the night of the middle of Sha'ban engage in salah through the night and fast during the day, for, in it, Allah comes down (Meaning) directs His mercy at sunset to the lowest heaven. He says, It there not anyone who seeks forgiveness that I may forgive him? Is there not one who prays for provision that I may provide him? Is there not one in difficulty that I may deliver him.? Is there not such a one...? Is there not such a one.......?(This he says) till the approach of dawn.[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah embraces His creatures with mercy on the right of 15th Sha'ban. Glad tidings to those fortunate ones who seek the shade of the mercy of their lord on this sacred night. They make supplication to Him for their needs and He accepts their requests mercifully. But, also, for the negligent who spend this night in play and fireworks. They involve themselves in amusement and eating sweet dishes and go far away from Allah's mercy.

May Allah enable us to realise the significance of this night. May He cause us to engage in worship. It is said of many sahabah, رضی اللہ عنہ like Sayyiduna Umar, رضی اللہ عنہ Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ that they made this night prayer specifically on this night:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنْ كُنْتَ كَتَبْتَنَا اَشْقِيَاءَ فَامْحُهُ وَاكْتُبْنَا سُعَدَاءَ وَاِنْ كُنْتَ كَتَبْتَنَا سُعَدَاءَ فَاَثْبِتْنَا فَاِنَّكَ تَمْحُوْ مَنْ تَشَاءُ وَتُثْبِتُ عِنْدَكَ اُمُّ الْكِتَابِ۔

"O Allah, if You have recorded us (in the Preserved Tablet) as wretched, do obliterate it, and record us as fortunate. And, if You have recorded us as fortunate then make it firm. Surely, You obliterate what you wish and preserve (what You wish). With You is the umm ul-kitab (preserved tablet)."

This supplication is mentioned in hadith, but that hadith is not strong. The recording is in the suspended book in which amendments may be made. Here, the recording is not made in the Preserved Tablet in which no amendment is made and its record is the final decree. (The translation of the prayer is from the urdu text itself where the words are (لوح محفوظ) meaning, preserved tablet in which an amendment is sought but these subsequent lines reject it.)

THE FACT OF THE SALAH-ALFIYAH: It is stated in Kitab ul-Aali: During this night, the salah alfiyah is offered in such a way that one hundred raka'at optional salah are offered in each of which the qul (قل) are recited ten times. It is reported by Daylami and others. But, this tradition is invented. Ali ibn Ibrahim رحمہ اللہ said that this salah al-fiyah is offered in a congregational from on 15th Sha'ban and move importance is attached to it then the salah of Friday and of the two eeds, but there is no authentic hadith about it and not even a reliable word of a sahabi or a tabi'a through weak and invented traditions are cited. Hence, no one should misunderstand these reports (and begin to offer this salah). The masses are already involved in this mischief and they even find it necessary to result that mostly excess wrong is perpetrated.

Many saintly men got scared of this custom lest it invite Allah's punishment. They departed to wilderness on the pretext of worship of Allah.

This salah is said to have being in Bayt ul-Maqdis in 448AH. The ignorant but greedy imams of mosques sought to retain their positions and improve their image. They craved to get the largest possible following. So, they invented this devious bid'ah. In this way, they acquired a heavy benefit till Allah brought to the surface pious and righteous imams. They left no stone unturned to curb this innovation. Indeed, Allah helped them and by 800 AH this devious bid'ah was eliminated in Egypt and Syria. (Ali ibn Ibrahims quote ends).

However, Mulla Ali Qari رضی اللہ عنہ commented on this quotation that weak hadith do mention that weak hadith do mention the salah al-fiyah and as far as optional deeds are concerned even weak a*hadith* may be followed. The ulama (Scholars) have disallowed this salah because many forbidden deeds were associated with it and introduced (like illumination). If anyone offers this salah without those disallowed things then he is allowed to offer it.

The illumination was made with this salah first of all by the Baramakah who were originally fire worshippers. They introduced their ancient rites in Islam sicnce they made raku and sajdah towards the fire they retained fire worship in their lives.

ILLUMINATION IS NOT MUSTAHAB: It is not mustahab to make illumination at any time when it is necessary. Some pilgrims who are not learned kindle lamps, etc at the Jab Arafat, Mashraral Haraam and Mina This is not sanctioned and is rather a mere waste.

JUBILATION AT END OF TARAWIH: Allamah Tartusi رحمه الله said that it is a bid'ah to gather people (merely to participate in the completion of the Quran) or to put up a pulpit or such like (or to make illumination).

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله said, "May Allah have mercy on Tartusi رحمه الله. How excellent a fact has he discovered! And (most surprisingly) the people of the two harams have adopted this method! On the night when the Quran is completed, there is very large gathering of men, women, children and slaves (with a great adulation). The like of this salah of Friday, the two eeds or the eclipse, At the time of the gathering very many novel reprehensible, wrong and sinful deeds are performed lights and illumination and put their backs to the House of Allah. They stand in the centre of the mutaf (the circle for tawaf) like fire worshippers forming a huge crowd. In this way, those who make tawaf (circumambulation of the Ka'bah) are obstructed and put to inconvenience.

Those who make tawaf, who remember Allah, who offer salah, or very difficult and worrying.

We ask Allah for pardon, safety, forgiveness and pleasure. And Allah is the Helper.

CHAPTER - XXXIX

SALATUD DUHA (THE OPTIONAL IN THE FORENOON) — بَابُ صَلٰوةِ الضُّحٰى

The word duha is derived from al-dahu and ad-dahuh which mean the sun's rising high 'the progress of the day, the time of chaast.' Hence, the salah that is offered after the sun has risen high is called salat ud-duha, the prayer in the forenoon.

There are two salahs in the forenoon, called ishraq and chaast. When the sun is high by about one or two spears length. [1] and the makruh hour is over, the salah of ishraq is offered. When the sun is very high and heat spreads around and the second eight part of the day commences, then, before zawal, the salah of ad-duha is offered. It is called chaast. In Arabic they are called (ad-duha, or) ad-dahuh sughrah and ad-dahuh Kubra.

According to a hadith in Nasa'i When the sun is in the east like it is in the west at the time of the salah of asr, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered two raka'at optional salah and when the sun is in the east, like it is in the west at the time of the salah of zuhr, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to offer four rakarat optional salah.

This is evidence that there are two salahs in the forenoon, ad-duha.
At least two rakarat are offered for the ishraq and a maximum of six. For the chaast, a minimum of two and a maximum of twelve raka'at are offered, but the ulama (Scholars) prefer to offer four raka'at only because the ahadith that say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered four raka'at are more sahih (Sound). Besides, there are more ahadith and aathar about four raka'at.
Very many merits are mentioned about the salah of ad-duha. Many ulama (Scholars) say that it is mustahab. It may be offered after forming this intention:

'I resolve to offer four raka'at salah of ad-duha, the sunnah of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.
Shaykh Wali uddin ibn Iraqi رحمه الله said that there are very many ahadith about salah ud-duha. They are sahih and mashhur It is to such an extent that Muhammad Ibn Jarir Tabarani رحمه الله said that these ahadith attain the degree of tawatir ma'nawi (undoubted traditions from several reliable narrators of some subject).
Qadi Abu Bakr رحمه الله said that this salah is the salah of the past prophets and Messenger عليه السلام.
Allamah Suyuti رحمه الله reported from Daylami the hadith of Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah, رضى الله عنه "The salah of duha was the salah frequently offered by Prophet Dawud عليه السلام.
The Bukhari رحمه الله cited the hadith of Sayyiduna Thawban رضى الله عنه that the salah of duha is the salah that was offered cnstantly by Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام Nuh عليه السلام, Ibrahim عليه السلام, Musa عليه السلام and Easa عليه السلام.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

EIGHT RAKA'AT OF CHAAST

(١٣٠٩) عَنْ اُمِّ هَانِئٍ قَالَتْ اِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ بَيْتَهَا يَوْمَ فَتْحِ مَكَّةَ فَاغْتَسَلَ وَصَلّٰى ثَمَانِيَ رَكَعَاتٍ فَلَمْ اَرَ صَلَاةً قَطُّ اَخَفَّ مِنْهَا غَيْرَ اَنَّهٗ يُتِمُّ الرُّكُوْعَ وَالسُّجُوْدَ وَقَالَتْ فِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اُخْرٰى وَذٰلِكَ ضُحًى۔

1309. Sayyidah Umm Hani رضى الله عنه narrated that, on the day of the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came to her house. He had a bath and offered eight raka'at salah. She said, "I never saw a salah shorter than that, but he made the ruku and the sajdah completely."
In another version, she said "that was (the salah of duha."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Umm Hani رضى الله عنه was the sister of Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه and her name was Fakhtah. She was a great and meritorious sahabiyah. In Makkah, her house was the base for the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم preaching and efforts.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم may have offered the salah of chaast eight raka'at in four's or in two's. He made them short by reciting briefly and curtailing the tasbih etc.

NUMBER OF RAKA'AT VARIED

(١٣١٠) وَعَنْ مُعَاذَةَ قَالَتْ سَأَلْتُ عَائِشَةَ كَمْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّي صَلَاةَ الضُّحٰى قَالَتْ اَرْبَعَ رَكَعَاتٍ وَيَزِيْدُ مَاشَاءَ اللّٰهُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1310. Sayyidah Mu'adh رحمه الله narrated that she asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه about the number of raka'at Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم offered for the salah of duha. She said, "Four raka'at, or more as Allah willed."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered a maximum of twelve raka'at in the salah of duha. More than that is not known from any hadith.
This hadith applies to both the ishraq and chaast salahs.
It is stated in-Kitab Ahbar that it is better to recite in these salah surah ash-Shams, al-Layl, ad-Duha and al-Inshirah.

MERIT OF AD-DUHA SALAH

(١٣١١) وَعَنْ اَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصْبِحُ عَلٰى كُلِّ سُلَامٰى مِنْ اَحَدِكُمْ صَدَقَةٌ فَكُلُّ تَسْبِيْحَةٍ صَدَقَةٌ وَكُلُّ تَحْمِيْدَةٍ صَدَقَةٌ وَكُلُّ تَهْلِيْلَةٍ صَدَقَةٌ وَكُلُّ تَكْبِيْرَةٍ صَدَقَةٌ وَ اَمْرٌ بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ صَدَقَةٌ وَنَهْيٌ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ صَدَقَةٌ وَيُجْزِئُ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ رَكْعَتَانِ يَرْكَعُهُمَا مِنَ الضُّحٰى۔ (رواه مسلم)

1311. Sayyiduna Abn Dharr رحمه الله narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said," With the beginning of morning, sadaqah becomes due on every bone of each of you. So, every tasbih is a sadaqah, every tahmid is a sadaqah, every takbir is a sadaqah, enjoining piety is a sadaqah. All that may be replaced by two raka'at one offers for the salah of duha."[2]

COMMENTARY: When a person finds himself in the morning with all his bones and joints in order, he is able to occupy himself in everyday chores of life. So, he must show gratitude for this blessing by giving sadaqah (Charity) and this is given by uttering a few expressions that are not burden some or elaborate. They are easy on the tongue:

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ، اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ، لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ، اَللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ۔

Respectively.
However, if instead of that, two raka'at salah of duha are offered the gratitude is correctly expressed and it is not necessary to utter these expressions. The reason is that salah is performed by the whole body and limbs. Each limb of the body occupies in worship to be grateful on its part. Hence, this salah may be offered always regularly.

THE BEST TIME FOR CHAAST

(١٣١٢) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ ابْنِ اَرْقَمَ اَنَّهُ رَاٰى قَوْمًا يُصَلُّوْنَ مِنَ الضُّحٰى فَقَالَ لَقَدْ عَلِمُوْا اَنَّ الصَّلَاةَ فِيْ غَيْرِ هٰذِهِ السَّاعَةِ اَفْضَلُ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ صَلَاةُ الْاَوَّابِيْنَ حِيْنَ تَرْمَضُ الْفِصَالُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1312. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضی الله عنه is reported to have seen some people offering the salah of duha. So, he said, "They do know, indeed, that salah at a time other than this is better. Surely, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had said, "The salah of the penitent is offered when the young camels feel the heat of the sun (on their feet)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Zayd رضی الله عنه was astonished on seeing some people offer the salah of chaast without waiting for the best time for it, but offering it at its initial hours. He said, "They do know the most excellent time for it and they had heard the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying in this regard. "He said that the best time is when the feet of the camel's young begin to sense the heat. It is when the sun is considerably high and the ground burns with heat. This happens when about the first eighth and a half part of the day has elapsed. The time for this salah expires before zawal.

(١٣١٣) وَعَنْ اَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ وَ اَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ اللّٰهِ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالٰى اَنَّهُ قَالَ يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ اِرْكَعْ لِيْ اَرْبَعَ رَكْعَاتٍ مِنْ اَوَّلِ النَّهَارِ اَكْفِكَ۔ اٰخِرَهٗ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ

1313. Sayyiduna Abu ad-Darda رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said about Allah, the Blessed, the Exalted, that He says, "O son of Aadam, offer for Me four raka'at at the beginning of the day. I will provide for you enough till the end of the day."[2]

1314. Nuaym ibn Hummar at Ghata fani also narrated it.[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah assured anyone who offers four raka'at early in the day for His pleasure that He will look after all his needs till the end of the day.

مَنْ كَانَ لِلّٰهِ كَانَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ

He who submits to Allah, is for him.

This salah can be either ishraq or chaast.

EXCELLENCE OF ISHRAQ

(١٣١٥) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ فِي الْاِنْسَانِ ثَلَاثُ مِائَةٍ وَسِتُّوْنَ مَفْصِلًا فَعَلَيْهِ اَنْ يَتَصَدَّقَ عَنْ كُلِّ مَفْصِلٍ مِنْهُ بِصَدَقَةٍ قَالُوْا وَمَنْ يُطِيْقُ ذٰلِكَ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ قَالَ النُّخَاعَةُ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ تَدْفِنُهَا وَالشَّيْءُ تُنَحِّيْهِ عَنِ الطَّرِيْقِ فَاِنْ لَمْ تَجِدْ فَرَكْعَتَا الضُّحٰى تُجْزِئُكَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1315. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say. "A man has three hundred and sixty joints (in him) and it is his duty to give sadaqah for each joint, He was asked, "Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم of Allah, who can do that ? "He said "If you bury mucus (that you detect) in the mosque, and remove something (harmful) from the path, but, if you offer two raka'at of duha that would be enough for you:[1]

COMMENTARY: The duty on man to give sadaqah does not mean that it is binding and obligatory, for none of the things mentioned in the hadith is wajib (expedient). However, even commonsense tells us that it is wajib (expedient) to be grateful to Allah for His blessing.

(١٣١٦) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى الضُّحٰى ثِنْتَيْ عَشْرَةَ رَكْعَةً بَنَى اللّٰهُ لَهٗ قَصْرًا مِنْ ذَهَبٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ لَا نَعْرِفُهٗ اِلَّا مِنْ هٰذَا الْوَجْهِ۔

1316. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone offers twelve raka'at salah of duha, Allah builds for him a castle of gold in paradise.[2]

1317. Sayyiduna Muadh ibn Anas al Juhani رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said. "If anyone who has finished the salah of fajr continues to sit on the prayer mat till (the sun has risen high and) he offers two raka'at of duha. Speaking nothing (between the two salah) save a pious word, then his sins are forgiven him even if they are more than the foam of the sea. [3]

COMMENTARY: The synopsis of what Mulla Ali Qari writes is: "It anyone offers the salah of fajr and occupies in remembrance of Allah, doing righteous work like learning or teaching religion, making tawaf of Allah's House, and when the sun is sufficiently high offers two raka'at salah of duha in the mosque or at home, engaging in no talk but pious words between the salah of fajr and duha than his minor sins are forgiven. It is possible that Allah will forgive him his major sins too through His favours and mercy."

Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمه الله said, " Here the salah of duha" Means the salah of ishraq while other a*hadith* imply by duha both ishraq and chaast. It seems that the reward mentioned will accrue to only one who remains seated at the same place where he had offered the fajr salah. If anyone moves to another place then he will not get the reward mentioned. "other ulama (Scholars) say that if he is worried or fearful, or apprehensive of being ostentatious, then he may go to a secluded place and continue his worship. He must sit facing the qiblah and fight off sleepiness.

Shaykh ul-Islam Shahabuddin Suharwardy رحمه الله said "A deed that fetches prompt reward in this world with inner radiance is this deed."

1318. Sayyiduna Abn Hurayarh رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who continues to offer the salah of duha regularly, his sins are forgiven to him even if they are like the foam of the sea.[1]

(۱۳۱۹) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّهَا كَانَتْ تُصَلِّى الضُّحٰى ثَمَانِىَ رَكَعَاتٍ ثُمَّ تَقُوْلُ لَوْ نُشِرَلِىْ اَبَوَاىَ مَا تَرَكْتُهَا۔ (رواہ مالک)

1319. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ used to offer eight raka'at of the salah of duha. She would say. :If my parents were revived for me, even then I would not abandon offering this salah."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ encouraged others to offer the salah of duha.

THE PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم PRACTICE

(۱۳۲۰) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّى الضُّحٰى حَتّٰى نَقُوْلَ لَا يَدَعُهَا وَيَدَعُهَا حَتّٰى نَقُوْلَ لَا يُصَلِّيْهَا۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

1320. Sayyiduna Abn Saeed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to offer the salah of duha continuously so that they felt that he would never stop offering it. Then, he used to cease offering it continuously till they thought that he would never offer it.[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice for the optional salah and deeds was to perform then off and on to distinguish then from the prescribed otherwise the ummah would be burdened.

It was his distinction that if he did something constantly then it would become fard..If his ummah does anything constantly then it would not become a prescribed deed. Hence, the Muslims must now offer the salah of duha with consistency. It will not became fard, but remain mustahab.

(۱۳۲۱) وَعَنْ مُوَرِّقٍ الْعَجْلِىِّ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِاِبْنِ عُمَرَ تُصَلِّى الضُّحٰى قَالَ لَا قُلْتُ فَعُمَرُ قَالَ لَا قُلْتُ فَاَبُوْ بَكْرٍ قَالَ لَا قُلْتُ فَالنَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا اِخَالُهٗ۔ (رواہ البخاری)

1321. Sayyiduna Muwarriq al-Iyli said that he asked Sayyiduna Ibn Umar, رضی اللہ عنہ, "Do you offer the salah of ud duha." He said "No" He then asked, "And Umar.?" He said, "No" Then he asked about Abu Baker رضی اللہ عنہ and he said "No" So, he asked, "The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم?" He said, "I think he did not."[4]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ saying that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not offer the salah of duha could mean:

(i) He did not offer it in the mosque.

(ii) Or, he (Ibn Umar) was not aware of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saying in this regard.

[2] Muwatta Maalik # 9.8-33

(iii) Or, he did not deny it outright but he meant to say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not offer it regularly. So that it would not have been prescribed.

Never the less, it is established through many ahadith that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to offer this salah and encouraged others to offer it. So, we must not misunderstand this hadith (# 1321) of Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه.

Mulla Hanfi رحمه الله said that after the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم death there is no fear of this salah being made fard. So, the Muslims should offer it continuously. It is mustahab. This is what all ulama (Scholars) say.

CHAPTER - XL

OPTIONAL SALAH بَابُ التَّطَوُّعِ

The Arabic word (تطوع) is derived from (طوع) and (طاعت). It means to obey. The optional worship is called (تطوع) (tatawwu) and the doer is called (متطوع) (mutatawwu).

In this chapter, ahadith about optional salah will be reproduced.

Every salah apart from fard and wajib (expedient) is nafl (or optional) even the sunnah and the mustahab, but tatawwu applies generally to those salah that are not regularly offered, or ghayr muwakkadah (not emphasised).

TAHIYAT UL-WADU

(١٣٢٢) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِبِلَالٍ عِنْدَ صَلَاةِ الْفَجْرِ يَا بِلَالُ حَدِّثْنِيْ بِاَرْجٰى عَمَلٍ عَمِلْتَهٗ فِي الْاِسْلَامِ فَاِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ دَفَّ نَعْلَيْكَ بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ قَالَ مَا عَمِلْتُ عَمَلًا اَرْجٰى عِنْدِيْ اَنِّيْ لَمْ اَتَطَهَّرْ طَهُوْرًا فِيْ سَاعَةٍ مِنْ لَيْلٍ وَلَا نَهَارٍ اِلَّا صَلَّيْتُ بِذٰلِكَ الطُّهُوْرِ مَا كُتِبَ لِيْ اَنْ اُصَلِّيَ۔

1322. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رحمه الله narrated that (once) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked (Sayyiduna) Bilal رضی الله عنه at the time of the salah of fajr, "Tell me, O Bilal, of the deed you have been doing in Islam of which you are most hopeful, because I did hear the sound of your sandals ahead of me in paradise, "He said," I have not done any deed more hopeful to me than that whenever I have performed ablution at any hour of night and day, I have offered salah as mush as is decreed for me promptly.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was informed of Sayyiduna Bilal's رضی الله عنه footsteps in paradise through inspiration or an unveiling of the unseen either in his sleep or while he was awake. Or, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heard his footsteps ahead of him in paradise during the night of hiraj.

Sayyiduna Bilal's رضی الله عنه waking ahead of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was like the walking of

servants in front of their masters.[1]

His reference to performing ablution covers not only ablution but also bath and tayammum. It may refer to one of these or all three.

This salah is offered after making ablution. It the terminology, it is called tahiyatul wudu (as "regard to ablution") or greetings or gratitude for having made ablution.

SALAH OF ISTIKHARAH & SUPPLICATION

(١٣٢٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعَلِّمُنَا الْاِسْتِخَارَةَ فِي الْاُمُوْرِ كَمَا يُعَلِّمُنَا السُّوْرَةَ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا هَمَّ اَحَدُكُمْ بِالْاَمْرِ فَلْيَرْكَعْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ مِنْ غَيْرِ الْفَرِيْضَةِ ثُمَّ لِيَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْتَخِيْرُكَ بِعِلْمِكَ وَاَسْتَقْدِرُكَ بِقُدْرَتِكَ وَاَسْاَلُكَ مِنْ فَضْلِكَ الْعَظِيْمِ فَاِنَّكَ تَقْدِرُ وَلَا اَقْدِرُ وَتَعْلَمُ وَلَا اَعْلَمُ وَاَنْتَ عَلَّامُ الْغُيُوْبِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنْ كُنْتَ تَعْلَمُ اَنَّ هٰذَا الْاَمْرَ خَيْرٌ لِّيْ فِيْ دِيْنِيْ وَمَعَاشِيْ وَعَاقِبَةِ اَمْرِيْ اَوْقَالَ فِيْ عَاجِلِ اَمْرِيْ وَآجِلِهٖ فَاقْدِرْهُ لِيْ وَيَسِّرْهُ لِيْ ثُمَّ بَارِكْ لِيْ فِيْهِ وَاِنْ كُنْتَ تَعْلَمُ اَنَّ هٰذَا الْاَمْرَ شَرٌّ لِّيْ فِيْ دِيْنِيْ وَمَعَاشِيْ وَعَاقِبَةِ اَمْرِيْ اَوْ قَالَ فِيْ عَاجِلِ اَمْرِيْ وَآجِلِهٖ فَاصْرِفْهُ عَنِّيْ وَاصْرِفْنِيْ عَنْهُ وَاقْدِرْ لِيَ الْخَيْرَ حَيْثُ كَانَ ثُمَّ اَرْضِنِيْ بِهٖ قَالَ وَيُسَمِّيْ حَاجَتَهٗ (رواه البخاری)

1323. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم used to teach them al-istikharah (which is to seek Allah's guidance) on affairs (Confronting them) just as he used to teach them a surah of the Quran. He would say, "When any of you resolves to do something, let him pray two raka'at salah apart from the fard (prescribed). Then, let him supplicate:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْتَخِيْرُكَ بِعِلْمِكَ وَاَسْتَقْدِرُكَ بِقُدْرَتِكَ وَاَسْاَلُكَ مِنْ فَضْلِكَ الْعَظِيْمِ فَاِنَّكَ تَقْدِرُ وَلَا اَقْدِرُ وَتَعْلَمُ وَلَا اَعْلَمُ وَاَنْتَ عَلَّامُ الْغُيُوْبِ

(O Allah. I seek your guidance through your knowledge and I seek strength through your power, and I beseeh you for your magnificent grace, for, you have power while I do not have it, and you have knowledge and I do not have it, and you are the best knower ot the unseen.

O Allah, if in your knowledge this thing is good for me in terms of my faith, any worldly life and the outcome of any pursuit (or, he said any affairs in this world and the next). Then ordain it for me and make it come easy to me and then bless it for me.

And if in your knowledge, this thing is bad for me in terms of my faith, my worldly life and the outcome of my pursuit (or, he said, 'any affairs in this world and the next"), then put it away from me, make me turn away from it and ordain good for me wherever it is, and then make me be pleased with it.)

And, he should name his need."[2]

COMMENTARY: If anyone intends to do something that is permissible but one is uncertain

[1] See Commentary on hadith # 1326

[2] Bukhari # 1162, Tirmidhi # 479, Ibn Majah # 1383, Abu Dawud # 1538, Nasai # 3253, Musnad Ahmad # 14713, about its goodness and advantage, then it is proper to make istikharah - or consult Allah for guidance. The things for which one may do it are before undertaking a journey or a business venture, contemplating marriage, or any other thing that is permitted.

Istikharah may not be done for eating and drinking and such other determined tasks. It may not be done for that which is definitely good.

It is the blessing of istikharah that whatever is good for one, who makes istikharah, is prompted into his heart and the heart takes the decision for what is better for him.

The method to do it is to perform ablution and, at any time other than a makruh hours, one may offer two raka'at salah with an intention to make istikharah. After the salah, one may make the afore mentioned supplication. It is also allowed to make this supplication of istikharah after the two raka'at of sunnah, tahiyat ul-masjid or tahiyat ul-wadu, but is preferable to offer two raka'at for it separately and specifically. And surah may be recited in this salah and no surah is spelled out. However, some traditions suggest surah al-Kafirun and al-Ikhlas.

As for the words in the supplication (اوعاجل امری) (or, he said, my affairs in this world and the next'). This is nothing but the sub-narrator's doubt. He was unsure whether the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said (فی دینی ومعاشی وعاقبۃ امری) in terms of my faith, my worldly life and the outcome of my pursuit, or (عاجل امری واجلہ) my affairs in this world and the next.' It is better to include both these phrases in the supplication.

The words in the supplication (ھذاالامر) (this thing) are of a general nature. So, the supplicant must name his need at these places, like instead of (ھذاالسفر یاھذاالاقامۃ) (this journey). Or, he may retain the words (ھذاالامر) and then mention his need.

According to another tradition, a brief istikharah may be made by one in a hurry or facing a quick decision. He may pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اخِرْلِيْ وَاَخْتَرْلِيْ وَلَا تَكِلْنِيْ اِلٰى اِخْتِيَارِيْ۔

O Allah. Choose for me what's correct and proper in your (sight) and make me observe it.

Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to me, O Anas, when you decide to do something, make istikharah for it with Allah seven times. Then wait the outcome. Whatever is put into your heart, observe it for, that is better for you.

SALAH OF REPENTANCE

(١٣٢٤) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَصَدَقَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَامِنْ رَجُلٍ يُذْنِبُ ذَنْبًا ثُمَّ يَقُوْمُ فَيَتَطَهَّرُ ثُمَّ يُصَلِّيْ ثُمَّ يَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ اِلَّا غَفَرَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ وَالَّذِيْنَ اِذَا فَعَلُوْا فَاحِشَةً اَوْظَلَمُوْا اَنْفُسَهُمْ ذَكَرُوا اللّٰهَ فَاسْتَغْفَرُوْا لِذُنُوْبِهِمْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ اِلَّا اَنَّ ابْنَ مَاجَةَ لَمْ يَذْكُرِ الْاٰيَةَ وَالَّذِيْنَ اِذَا فَعَلُوْا فَاحِشَةً اَوْ ظَلَمُوْا اَنْفُسَهُمْ ذَكَرُوا اللّٰهَ فَاسْتَغْفَرُوْا لِذُنُوْبِهِمْ۔

1324. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated to me, and Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ spoke the truth, that he heard Allah's Messenger say, "There is not a man who commits sin and (out of repentance) stands up, purifies himself and offers salah, then he seeks Allah's forgiveness, but Allah forgives him. "Then, he recited this verse:

{And those who, when they have committed on indecency or wronged themselves, remember Allah, and seek forgiveness of their sins....} (3:135)[1]

COMMENTARY: The parenthetical words and Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ spoke the truth' are spoken by sayyaiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ to omphasise the superiority and truthfulness of sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. in fact, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had called him as-Siddiq because of his truthfulness.

It is said about Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ that he accepted a hadith only after getting the narrator to say on oath that he was speaking the truth. But, he always accepted the hadith of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ without asking him to take on oath.

As for purifying oneself, the sinner should make ablution and offer salah. But, it is better for him to have a purifying bath. Moreover, it is best to have the purifying bath with cold water. The salah consists of two raka'at. After surah al-fatihah, in the first surah al-Kafirun is recited and in the second raka'at al-Ikhlas. This salah is called salatut-tawbah (salah to repentance). Then, he seeks forgiveness of Allah. Not only does he stop committing that sin, but makes a firm resolve never to perpetrate sin. He remains steadfast on his resolve and if he has to pay someone's right, the pays it to him.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited the verse to show that whatever he said is what Allah Himself has said. The complete verses are reproduced here:

وَمَنْ يَّغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَلَمْ يُصِرُّوْا عَلٰى مَا فَعَلُوْا وَهُمْ يَعْلَمُوْنَ، اُولٰٓئِكَ جَزَآؤُهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّهِمْ وَجَنّٰتٌ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا وَنِعْمَ اَجْرُ الْعٰمِلِيْنَ۔ (آل عمران ۳: ۱۳۶،۱۳۵)

{And those who when they have committed an indecency or have wronged themselves, remember Allah, and seek forgiveness of their sins. And who forgives sins but Allah? And they persist not in that (wrong) which they have done, while they know it.

Those! Their recompense is forgiveness from their Lord, and gardens underneath which rivers flow therein they shall abide. And how excellent is the reward of the (good) workers!}(Aal Imran, 3,135-136.)

The background of revelation to these verses as explained by some exegetes is a specific event. A sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ happened to fall into a sin, out of human fallibility, but he realized his lapse instantly. This caused him deep remorse and a sense of shame. This compunction and pangs of conscience and his sincere repentance brought the revelation of these verses. These are two verses. The words (والذین) (And those) in the first verse are the subject of the sentence. The word (اولئک) (Those!) in the second begins the predicate.

IN DISTRESS

1325. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

[1] Tirmidhi # 406, Abu Daeud # 1521, Ibn Majah #1395 (Without mentioning the verse), Musnad Ahmad1-2

encountered something unpleasant, he offered salah.[1]

COMMENTARY: When anything grieved the Prophet, صلى الله عليه وسلم or he faced a difficulty, he got rid of it, and, in obedience to Allah says:

يَآ اَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا اسْتَعِيْنُوْا بِالصَّبْرِ وَالصَّلٰوةِ۔

{O you, who believe, seek help in perseverance and salah...}(2:153)

The ulama (Scholars) say that the wisdom in offering salah at the time of distress is that the spiritual world is unveiled before him when he offers the salah. The result is that he realizes the worthlessness of this world and the comforts of this life and its distresses are meaningless to him. He does not grieve at losing any worldly possession and is not overjoyed at receiving its bounties. It is like the saintly words:

"If it is possessed, there's no joy If it is lacking, there's no sorrow."

(١٣٢٦) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ اَصْبَحَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَدَعَا بِلَالًا فَقَالَ بِمَا سَبَقْتَنِي اِلَى الْجَنَّةِ مَا دَخَلْتُ الْجَنَّةَ قَطُّ اِلَّا سَمِعْتُ خَشْخَشَتَكَ اَمَامِي قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا اَذَّنْتُ قَطُّ اِلَّا صَلَّيْتُ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَمَا اَصَابَنِي حَدَثٌ قَطُّ اِلَّا تَوَضَّأْتُ عِنْدَهُ وَرَأَيْتُ اَنَّ لِلّٰهِ عَلَيَّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِهِمَا۔ (رواه الترمذی)

1326. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضى الله عنه narrated that one morning Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم called (Sayyiduna) Bilal رضى الله عنه and asked, "O Bilal, with what did you overtake me to paradise? Never did I enter paradise without hearing the rustle of your footsteps ahead of me." He said," O Messenger of Allah, never do I call the adhan without offering two raka'at salah. And, never have I experienced what nullifies ablution without performing (fresh) ablution promptly and I am convinced that to offer two raka'at is Allah's right on me" so Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Because of both these thing (you have preceded me)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The hadith # 1322 is of the same subject. An explanation under it may be seen. It is stated there that Sayyiduna Bilal رضى الله عنه preceded the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as a herald in paradise. This is itself is a great rank. We must not read any other meaning in the hadith. No Prophet or Messenger, too, has the distinction to enter paradise before the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (Prophet Muhammad), so what to say a member of his ummah?

SALAH OF NEED

(١٣٢٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ اَبِي اَوْفٰى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَتْ لَهٗ حَاجَةٌ اِلَى اللّٰهِ اَوْ اِلٰى اَحَدٍ مِنْ بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ فَلْيَتَوَضَّأْ فَلْيُحْسِنِ الْوُضُوْءَ ثُمَّ لِيُصَلِّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ لِيُثْنِ عَلَى اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى وَلْيُصَلِّ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ لِيَقُلْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ الْحَلِيْمُ الْكَرِيْمُ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيْمِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ

1327. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Awfa رحمه الله narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone has a need from Allah or from one of the children of Aadam عليه السلام, let him make ablution, and make it a good ablution. Then, let him offer two raka'at, then glorify Allah and invoke blessing on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, then pray:

There is no God but Allah, the Clement, the Bountiful. Glory be to Allah, Lord of the magnificent throne. Praise belongs to Allah, Lord of the world. I ask you for that which entitles (me) to your mercy, and makes certain your forgiveness. And (I ask for) a safety of every piety and a safety from every sin- leave no sin of mine without being forgiven, no anxiety without being removed and no need of mine with which you are pleased without being fulfilled, O the Most Merciful of those who show mercy!"[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone has a need or desire to be fulfilled either directly with Allah or through a fellow-man, like service, marriage, etc. it is mustahab to make ablution well, offer two raka'at salah, praise and glorify Allah, invoke blessing on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the words used in the salah and make the supplication mentioned in this hadith. After that, he must present his need to Allah. Or, pray for it to him.

This salah is called salat ul-hajah (Prayer for need). It is very effective It is known of some saintly or religious men that they offered this salah and presented their need to Allah and He granted them their request. (Ihu ul-Fiqh)

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that the needy should do this on Saturday morning. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had said, "If anyone presents his need on Saturday morning (after the salat ul-hajah and prayer), I assure him that he will get his lawful and permissible need." (Mulla Ali Qari)

While this salah and supplication are for all kinds of needs, there is another salah for the need of strong memory, called salah ul-hafiza. It is described in at Hisn Haseen.[2]

The exposition in Urdu explains the salah in detail and may be seen there.

CHAPTER XLI

SALAT UL-TASBIH

بَابُ صَلٰوةِ التَّسْبِيْح

The salat ut-Tasbih is mustahab. It fetches uncountable reward. It consists of four raka'at and it is better to offer them together giving one salutation at the end, but it is also allowed to offer them in two's. The tasbih is recited seventy-five times in each raka'at with a total of three hundred in the salah.
The method to offer it is to first form the intention:

نَوَيْتُ اَنْ اُصَلِّي اَرْبَعَ رَكْعَاتٍ صَلٰوةَ التَّسْبِيْحِ۔

"I intend to offer four raka'at salah ut-tasbih."
Then call the takbir tahrimah and fold the hands, recite the thana and the tasbih fifteen times:

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ

Then, recite the taawwudh and the basmalah, surah al-fatihah and any other surah. Again, recite the tasbih ten times.
Then go into ruka and after reciting its tasbih (سبحان ربی العظیم) recite this tasbih ten times.
Rise from the ruku say (سمع الله لمن حمده) and (ربنا لک الحمد) and recite this tasbih ten times.
Go to the sajdah, recite its tasbih (سبحان ربی الاعلی) and this tasbih ten times.
Get up from sajdah and recite this tasbih ten times.
Again go to sajdah and do the same thing: after the tasbih of sajdah, recite this tasbih ten times.
Rise for the second raka'at and recite this tasbih fifteen times before al-Fatihah, ten times after a surah. And ten times each in ruku getting up from ruku, in both sajdah and between them.
Then so in the third and fourth raka'at. The same number is maintained in each pasture as assigned for it.

MERIT OF SALAT UL-TASBIH

ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهِقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ وَرَوَى التِّرْمِذِيُّ

1328. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said to (Sayyiduna) Abbas ibn Abdul Muttalib, رحمه الله "O Abbas, O Uncle! Shall I not grant you? Shall I not present to you? Shall I not inform you? Shall I not grow in you ten characteristics such that, if you observe them, Allah will forgive you your sins their first and last, old and new, accidental and deliberate, Minor and Major, undisclosed and open? (You Should) offer four raka'at (salah), reciting in every raka'at Fatihat ul-Kitab (surch al-Fatihah) and a surah. When first raka'at and you are standing say:

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ أَكْبَرُ

Fifteen times. Then bow into ruku and say it ten times while in ruka. Then raise your head from ruku and say it ten times. Then go down in prostration and say it the times while you are in sajdah. Then raise your head from prostration and say it ten times. Again, prostrate yourself and say it ten times. That is seventy -five times in each raka'at. Do that in four raka'at. If you can offer it every day once, do it. It you cannot do it, then every Friday (or week) once. If you cannot do it, then every month once. If you cannot do it, then every year once. And, if you cannot do it, then (at heart) once in your lifetime."[1]

1329. Sayyiduna Abu Rafi رحمه الله narrated the like of it.[2]

COMMENTARY: [The tasbih, translated: Allah is without blemish. Praise belongs to Allah. There is no God but Allah. Allah is the Greatest.]

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم told his uncle that if he would adopt ten characteristics, then his ten kinds of sins would be forgiven. (These are enumerated in the hadith.)

However, some people say that ten characteristics are the ten tasbih in the postures of the salah, excluding the fifteen in the excluding posture.

In this transmission of Mishkat, the words ten characteristics are not mentioned after undisclosed and open. But they are found in 'usul' and also in al-Hisn al-Haseen.[3]

So, Teebi رضی الله عنه wrote that the context of the hadith suggests that these things stand for the characteristics.

(i) To offer four raka'at salah.
(ii). To recite surah al-Fatihah in each raka'at.
(iii). To recite another surah with it.
(iv). To recite the tasbih fifteen times while standing.
(v). To recite these tasbih ten times in ruku.
(vi). To recite them ten times on arising from ruku.
(vii). To recite them ten times in sajdah.
(viii). To recite them ten times on arising from sajdah, that is, in jalsah.
(x). To recite them ten times on arising from the second sajdah, that is in jalasah istirahat.

METHOD: The method described in this hadith differs from the one we had mentioned at the beginning of the chapter. However, the number of the tasbihs does not differ, seventy-five in each raka'at, three hundred in all, only the positions where they are recited are changed. Either of the method may be followed. It is preferable if each method is followed at one's choice at different times.

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه has also named the surah's that may be recited in this salah. They are: at-Takathur, Al-Asr, al-Kafirun and at-Ikhlas. Some versions name: as-zilzal, al-Asliyat, an-Nasr and al-Ikhlas.

Jalaluddin Suyuti رضى الله عنه has transmitted from Imam Ahmad رضى الله عنه that before concluding the salatul-tasbih with a salutation, this supplication should be made:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْئَلُكَ تَوْفِيْقَ اَهْلِ الْهُدٰى وَاَعْمَالَ اَهْلِ الْيَقِيْنِ وَمُنَا صِحَةِ اَهْلِ التَّوْبَةِ وَعَزْمَ اَهْلِ الصَّبْرِ وَجِدَّ اَهْلِ الْخَشْيَةِ وَطَلَبَ اَهْلِ الرَّغْبَةِ وَتَعَبُّدَ اَهْلِ الْوَرَعِ وَعِرْفَانَ اَهْلِ الْعِلْمِ حَتّٰى اَخَافَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْئَلُكَ مَخَافَةً تَحْجُزُنِیْ عَنْ مَعَاصِيْكَ وَحَتّٰى اَعْمَلَ بِطَاعَتِكَ عَمَلًا اَسْتَحِقُّ بِهٖ رِضَاكَ وَحَتّٰى اُنَاصِحُكَ بِالتَّوْبَةِ خَوْفًا مِنْكَ وَحَتّٰى اُخْلِصَ لَكَ النَّصِيْحَةَ حَيَاءً مِنْكَ وَحَتّٰى اَتَوَكَّلَ عَلَيْكَ فِی الْاُمُوْرِ كُلِّهَا وَحُسْنَ ظَنٍّ بِكَ سُبْحَانَ خَالِقِ النَّارِ۔

"O Allah, I ask you for enablement of the people of guidance, deeds of the people of conviction, repentance of the penitent, resolve of the persevering, of the fearful, longing of the diligent, worship of the abstinent and awareness of the learned, till I fear You.
O Allah, I ask you for fear of You Such as would prevent me from disobeying you so that I perform deeds in obedience to you that entitle me to your for fear of you sincerely, and that I make sincere admonition out of modesty before you, and that I rely on you in all the affairs, having good hope from you. Without blemish are you! Creator of light!

MERIT: Abdul Aziz ibn Dawud writes that he who wishes to enter paradise must bind himself to offer the salah of tasbih.

Abu Uthman Zahid رضى الله عنه said, "I did not find anything part from this salah to remove difficulty and worry. Sorrow and grief. "These thing disappear when this salah is offered. This is why most of the sheikhs and righteous people have been observing this salah. It is mustahab to offer it on Friday after zawal. If it becomes necessary to make the sajdah sahw (remedial prostrations) during this salah then the tasbih should not be recited in these prostrations (of sahw) becomes the count of the tasbihs is only three hundred and must not be exceeded.

To those Muslims whom Allah has given ability to worship Him much, the moderate form of observing this salah is to offer it every Friday. This is what Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رحمه الله did every Friday after zawal. He recited those very surahs that are mentioned in the preceding lines.

1330. Sayyiduna Abn Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say. " The first of his deeds for which a man will be subjected to reckoning on the day of resurrection will be his salah. If it is correct he will prosper and be safe. But, if it is lacking or defective, he will fail and be a loser. If there is some shortcoming in his fard salah (obligatory prayer), the command, "Look, does My slave has any optional salah (in his record of deeds). So, what is lacking in the fard will be compensated with it. Then all his deeds will be (reckoned) on that basis. "Another version has: "Then zakah will be reckoned like that and the deeds (all) will be taken up on the same basis. [1]

1331. A man narrated it (too).[2]

COMMENTARY: According to yet another tradition, the first thing that will be taken into account on the day of resurrection will be blood.

The fact is that as far as rights of Allah are concerned, salah will be the first to be taken into account. As far as rights of fellowmen are concerned, blood will be the first to be taken into account.

Like salah, other fard deeds will be taken into account and any short coming will be made up from the optional deeds. So, fasting and zakah from optional fasts and charity, and hajj from Umrah. Rights of fellowmen will be compensated from his good deeds. In this way, all deeds will be reckoned completely.

SALAH AND WORSHIPPER OF HIGH MERIT

1332. Sayyiduna Abn Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Allah does not listen to anything from His salve more than the two raka'ah he offers because they are the best of all deeds. Piety is sprinkled on the slave's head as long as he is in salah. And, the worshipers gain not nearness to Allah as they gain through that which comes from Him. Meaning the Quran.[3]

CHAPTER - XLII

SALAH WHILE TRAVELLING بَابُ صَلٰوةِ السَّفَرِ

When a person who sets out on a journey is out of the populace of his village or city the qasr (or shortening of salah) becomes wajid on him. Thus, he will offer only two raka'at instead of four raka'at fard salah (obligatory prayer) and it is wajib (expedient) to do so. If a traveller on whom it is wajib (expedient) to avail of the qasr offers a four raka'at then he will be committing a sin. He will also be omitting two wajib (expedient) deeds:

(ii). Not giving the salutation in the last qadah because the traveller's first qadah is also his last qadah after which he has to give the salutation promptly (to terminate the salah) but if does not do so then he neglects a wajib (expedient).

Moreover, No scholar and no imam differs on the question of the qasr salah being allowed to a traveller. However, while Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله regards it as wajib (expedient), Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله holds it to be preferable which means that if a traveller does not observe the qasr, he will not be sinner in Imam Shafi'is رحمه الله view, thought Imam Abu Hanifah's رحمه الله view is that he will be a sinner.

DEFINITION OF TRAVELLER: Qasr becomes wajib (expedient) when setting out on a journey that cannot be completed in less than three days at an average pace of a pedestrian or a camel. A journey of three days presupposes a walk of morning to afternoon, not morning to evening. The jurists have surmised this distance in current times as forty-eight miles. If anyone goes out of his house to undertake a journey of forty-eight miles (or seventy-eight kilometers), beyond the populace of his village or city, then forthwith qasr becomes wajib (expedient) on him. If anyone covers this distance of forty-eight miles on a fast moving conveyance in less than three days then too he will be regarded as a traveller and will have to shorten his salah.

TIME PERIOD: The traveller must centinue to offer the qasr till he returns to his homeland, or resolves to stay on at some place for at least fifteen days provided that place is suitable to stay. Thus, if anyone intends to tarry on a sea, an enemy territory or a desert then this kind of intention is unsound. However, if nomads forms an intention to stay for fifteen days in desert, then their intention is correct because they are accustomed to live their.

If anyone decides, before travelling the distance that qualifies for the journey of a traveller, to dwell at some place or return to his native land, then he will be regarded as a muqim (resident) even if he has decided to stay for less than fifteen days. It will be presumed that he has reversed his decision to travel.

SOME RULINGS ABOUT QASR

(i). In the following cases, if a traveller covers the distance of his journey and stays on for more than fifteen days, then he will not be a muqim (resident) and it will centinue to remain wajib (expedient) on him to make qasr:

(a). He had not intended to stay for fifteen days, but for some reason without an intention, he happens to prolong his stay.

(b). He had made no intention and was scheduled to depart in a couple of days from there, but the continuing uncertainty causes him to stay on for fifteen days or more.

(c). He intends to stay for fifteen days or more, but that place is not deserving of staying on.

(d). He intends to stay for fifteen days at two places provided they are so far away from one another that the sound of the adhan at one place is not heard at another. For example, he intends to stay at Makkah for ten days and at Mina for five days. Mina is three miles away from Makkah. If he intends to stay at one place during the night and at another during the day, then the place where he intends to stay during the right will be treated as his place of residence where he will not be allowed to shorten his salah. As for the second place where he stays during the day, if it is at a distance that qualifiers as a traveller's distance then he will be deemed to be regarded as a resident. Furthermore, if one place is so near to another that the sound of adhan of one place is heard at another, then both the places will be considered to be one and if he intends to stay at both (together) for fifteen days, he will be deemed to be a resident.

(ii). It a resident follows a fraveller (imam in salah) then it is always proper in every condition, whether it is a salah on its proper hour or a salah redeemed on expiry of its time. When the traveller-imam terminates his salah at the end of two raka'ah the resident-muqtadi must get up and complete his salah without reciting the Quran and must observe silence because he is a lahiq (who has missed some raka'ah behind the imam) and the first qadah will be fard on this muqtadi. It is mustahab for the traveller-imam to tell his muqtadis (followers) after giving the salutation, "I am a traveller. The muqtadis must complete their salah."

A traveller, too, may follow a muqim-imam but anly within time, not after expiry of the hour of salah, because when a traveller follows a resident, he will after four raka'ah behind the imam. The first qadah of the imam will be nafl (optional) but for him it will be fard. The imam's tahrimah will be with the first qadah being nafl while traveller-residents will be with its being fard. So, it is that one who offers the fard follows another whose salah is nafl (optional) and this is not correct.

The traveller must not neglect the sunnah of fajr and, preferably, not of maghrib too. He has option to give up other sunnah salah. But, if he offers them, it is better. (Ilm-ul-Fiqh)

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم QASR SALAH

(١٣٣٣) عَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَّى الظُّهْرَ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ اَرْبَعًا وَصَلَّى الْعَصْرَ بِذِى الْحُلَيْفَةِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1333. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the Zuhr at Madinah, four raka'at, and he offered the asr at Dhul Halayfah, two raka'at.[1]

COMMENTARY: When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم decided to go to Makkah to perform hajj, he first offered four raka'at of zuhr in Madinah. Then he travelled from there. When he was at Dhul Hulayfah, he offered the shortened salah of asr, two raka'at. This is a place about three leagues from Madinah,

Both Imam Abu Hanfiah رحمه الله and Imam Sahfi'i رحمه الله adide by this hadith that when one who is recognized by Shariah as a traveller goes out beyond the residences and dwellings of his city or village; he may begin to observe the qasr.

(١٣٣٤) عَنْ حَارِثَةَ بْنِ وَهْبٍ الْخُزَاعِيِّ قَالَ صَلَّى بِنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنَحْنُ أَكْثَرُ مَا كُنَّا قَطُّ وَ آمَنَهُ بِمِنًى رَكْعَتَيْنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1334. Sayyiduna Harithah ibn Wahb al-Khuzart رحمه الله narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم led them in two raka'at salah in Mina at a time when they were in such numbers and such security as they had not been before.[1]

COMMENTARY: This was at the time of the farewell pilgrimage. Muslims were many more in number than they were ever before and the sahabah who performed the hajj with the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم outnumbered every past performance.

Also, they were secure. There was no threat of an attack or invasion by the disbelievers. There was complete peace and security.

These things are mentioned to show that qasr was not observed out of fear of persecution to mischief at the heads of the infidels.

QURANIC VERSE ABOUT QASR EXPLAINED

(١٣٣٥) وَعَنْ يَعْلَى بْنِ أُمَيَّةَ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِعُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ إِنَّمَا قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالَى أَنْ تَقْصُرُوْا مِنَ الصَّلٰوةِ إِنْ خِفْتُمْ أَنْ يَفْتِنَكُمُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا فَقَدْ أَمِنَ النَّاسُ قَالَ عُمَرُ عَجِبْتُ مِمَّا عَجِبْتَ مِنْهُ فَسَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ صَدَقَةٌ تَصَدَّقَ اللّٰهُ بِهَا عَلَيْكُمْ فَاقْبَلُوْا صَدَقَتَهُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1335. Sayyiduna Y'ala ibn Umayyah رضى الله عنه narrated that he asked Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضى الله عنه about Allah's words:

{That you shorten the salah if you fear that those who disbelieve will afflict you} (4:101) He said, "Now the people are safe." (Sayyiduna) Umar رضى الله عنه said, "That which causes you to wonder had made me wonder and I had asked Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and he had said, "This is a favours of Allah over you so accept this concession."[2]

COMMENTARY: The verse mentioned in the hadith is in its complete form:

وَإِذَا ضَرَبْتُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ تَقْصُرُوْا مِنَ الصَّلٰوةِ إِنْ خِفْتُمْ أَنْ يَفْتِنَكُمُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا

{And when you are journeying blame on you if you shorten the salah if you fear that those who disbelieve will afflict you} (4:101)

Though it may seem that qasr is allowed in travel only if one fears persecution at the hands of the disbelievers yet it is not so. The verse speaks of fear only as a great possibility because travellers are of ten in fear particularly when disbelievers are around.

This is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said (فاقبلوا صدقة) (So avail of this concession, a charity or a favours), which means that the command to observe a shortening of salah during a journey is not merely when one fears the infidels but it is for ease during travel for every traveller.

The command 'avail' is of an obligatory (Wajib (expedient)) nature. Every traveller in the sight of shari'ah must observe qasr. This is what the Hanafis follow.

PERIOD OF STAY

(١٣٣٦) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ إِلَى مَكَّةَ فَكَانَ يُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ حَتّٰى رَجَعْنَا إِلَى الْمَدِيْنَةِ قِيْلَ لَهُ أَقَمْتُمْ بِمَكَّةَ شَيْئًا قَالَ أَقَمْنَا بِهَا عَشْرًا۔ (متفق عليه)

1336. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that they went out (during the Farwell Pilgrimage) from Madinah to Makkah with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. He used to offer two raka'at (at each time of salah of four raka'at) Till they returned to Madinah. He was asked, "Did you stay in Makkah at all?" He said, "We stayed there ten days."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his sahabah رضی الله عنه stayed in Makkah from 4th Dhul Hijjah till the Morning of 14th Dhul Hijjah during which time they performed the rites of the pilgrimage. On that morning, they departed for Madinah.

This is evidence that if anyone stays for ten days at any place, he does not become a resident there. He is allowed to offer the shortened salah. One the face of it, this hadith rejects the contention of the Shafi'is that if anyone stays at any place for more than four days then he is not allowed to offer the shortened salah but he must offer the complete salah. This point is covered in the next hadith.

1337. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم undertook a journey during which he stayed for nineteen days and offered salah two raka'at at a time. So, Ib Abbas رضی الله عنه said, "Hence, we offer, whenever we stay for nineteen days (any where) between ourselves (Meaning, here in Madinah) and Makkah, two raka'at each time. And, when we stop longer than that, we offer four raka'at.[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم staying for nineteen days was without intention to prolong the stay. His departure was delayed from day to day and it extended to nineteen days. However, Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه deduced from it that if anyone stays somewhere for nineteen days, he may observe qasr salah, but after nineteen days, he is not allowed to offer the shortened salah. Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه is alone in giving this verdict. No one else holds the same opinion.

We have spoken at length on the question of duration of stay in the beginning of this chapter. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that if anyone intends to stay any where for more than fifteen days then he is not allowed to observe the qasr but must offer the complete salah. If anyone intends to stay at any place for less than fifteen days or fifteen days then he must offer the qasr salah. Rather, if he forms no intention to reside but decides to depart in a day or two and, in this way, without resolve, his stay extends for years together, even then he should go on offering the qasr (or shortened) salah.

Imam Tahawi رحمه الله has reported the same issue from the glorious Sahabah رضى الله عنه like Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه and others.

Imam Muhammad رحمه الله has mentioned in Kitab ul-Aathar that sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه continued to stay in Azarbaijan for six months in this way extending his stay from day to day. He had no intention to stay that long but he had to remain there. All this while he continued to offer the qasr salah. There were with him other sahabah رضى الله عنه too.

Similarly, Sayyiduna Aans رضى الله عنه stayed in Syria with Marwan's son Abdul Malik for two months without really intending to do so. All the while, he continued to offer two raka'at at a time (instead of four).

The contention of Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله is that if anyone intends to stay at any place for four days, apart from two days allowed for travel to and fro, then he is said to be a resident and is not allowed to offer the qasr salah. He should offer the complete salah similarly, if he has no intention to stay beyond a couple of days but his stay extends to over eighteen days without his intention, then too he is not allowed to make qasr. He will have to offer all the raka'at.

In the fiqh of Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله this is the reliable and correct opinion.

A TRAVELLER MAY NOT OFFER THE OPTIONAL SALAH

(١٣٣٨) وَعَنْ حَفْصِ بْنِ عَاصِمٍ قَالَ صَحِبْتُ ابْنَ عُمَرَ فِيْ طَرِيْقِ مَكَّةَ فَصَلّٰى لَنَا الظُّهْرَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ جَاءَ رَحْلَهُ وَجَلَسَ فَرَأٰى نَاسًا قِيَامًا فَقَالَ مَا يَصْنَعُ هٰؤُلَاءِ قُلْتُ يُسَبِّحُوْنَ قَالَ لَوْ كُنْتُ مُسَبِّحًا اَتْمَمْتُ صَلَاتِيْ صَحِبْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَكَانَ لَا يَزِيْدُ فِي السَّفَرِ عَلٰى رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَاَبَابَكْرٍ وَ عُمَرَ وَعُثْمَانَ كَذٰلِكَ۔(متفق عليه)

1338. Sayyiduna Hafs ibn Asim رحمه الله narrated, "I was with Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه during a journey to Makkah. He led us in the salah of zuhr, offering two raka'at. After that, he returned to his base and sat down. He saw some people standing and asked what they were doing. I said, they are offering the supererogatory salah. He said, If I had to offer the supererogatory then I would have offered my fard complete (for, that is more important than the optional but when the qasr is allowed to facilitate a traveller, it is better to omit the optional). I had been in the company of Allah's Messenge. During a journey, he did not pray more than two raka'at. So, too, I had been with Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman. Their practice was the same (offering two raka'at during a journey). [1]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that those who say that the optional salah should not be offered during a journey cite this hadith. As for the regular sunnah, the command for it follows in the section II, insha Allah.

(١٣٣٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَ صَلَاةِ الظُّهْرِ وَالْعَصْرِ إِذَا كَانَ عَلٰى ظَهْرِ سَيْرٍ وَيَجْمَعُ بَيْنَ الْمَغْرِبِ وَالْعِشَاءِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1339. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to combine the salah of Zuhr and of asr during a journey, and so combine the maghrib and isha. [1]

COMMENTARY: The Shafi'is follow the apparent Meaning of this hadith and say that, during a journey, it is allowed to combine these prayers. Zuhr may be offered with asr at the time of zuhr or of asr. And so maghrib and isha may be combined at the time of maghrib or of isha.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله does not recognize such combining two salahs, saying it is disallowed and the purport of the hadith is that the two salah of zuhr and are may be offered at their boarders. Thus zuhr is offered when its time is about to end and are when its time commences. In this sense, they are combined outwardly. In fact, however, each is offered at its proper hour. In the same way, maghrib is offered when its time is about to end and isha then its time begins.

1340. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that, during a journey, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to offer the salah of the night, except the prescribed salah, on his riding beast in whichever direction it turned, making a sign (with his head). And, he also offered the witr on his riding beast. [2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had his face in the direction in which the riding beast had its face and he continued to offer his salah (as it moved). However, at the time of the takbir tahirmah, he invariably had his face towards the qibah. As for making a sign, he made it while going into ruku and sajdah, the sign for the sajdah being more marked than for ruku.

Two rulings are deduced from this hadith.

(I) It is allowed to offer the supererogatory while seated on a riding beast, but not the fard. While this hadith mentions the salah of the night, other ahadith assert that salah are allowed on the beast all the time and they are the sunnah muwakkadah, all kinds of sunnah and nafl. However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله is known to have said that it is mustahab to get down from the riding beast to offer the sunnah of fajr, but according to another version, it is wajib (expedient) to alight from the beast to offer the sunnah of fajr. This is why it is not allowed to offer it in a sitting posture without a reason.

While it is not allowed to offer the salah on a riding beast there are a few exceptions, namely:

(i). Someone is in a desert on a riding beast and fears for his life or property at the hands of highway men or wild beasts, or fears that he may be separated from the caravan.

(ii). He would be unable to remount the riding beast which is unruly.

(iii.) The rider himself is very old and weak so that he cannot alight and mount the riding beast unaided and there is no one to support him.

(iv). The earth is swampy and it is impossible to offer salah the ground. And,

(v). It tains heavily.

In these conditions, the fard salah (obligatory prayer) too, may be offered on a riding beast, because these are justifiable excuses and they are exempted from codes of law.

As for the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم witr on a riding beast, he did it to make people familiar with the salah of witr. Once they realized its wajib (expedient) nature, he used to alight from the riding beast of offer it. This is the explanation of Imam Tahawi رحمه الله.

Imam Muhammad رحمه الله has presented many aathar of the sahabah رضى الله عنه and the tabiun رحمه الله in his book Muwatta that prove that they alighted from their riding beasts during a journey to offer the witr. [1]

Allamah Shammi رحمه الله said that in the same way, these things are not allowed on the riding beast like the fard salah (obligatory prayer) the funeral salah, salah offered against a vow and prostration on recital of a verse calling for prostration when the verse is recited on the ground.

2. (The second ruling deduced from this hadith is:) It is allowed to offer salah on the riding beast only during a journey. All the imams are agreed on this deduction. While both Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله have concurred in one version, the confirmed and correct contention of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله is that salah on the riding beast is conditional to a worshipper's being out of the city irrespective of whether he is a traveller or not a traveller. Hence, according to him, if a traveller is within a city, then he is not allowed to offer even the optional salah on a riding beast. But, according to Imam Muhammad, رحمه الله it is allowed, but makruh. Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله said that if a traveller offers salah on a riding beast, even in the city, there is no harm in it.

The next point of difference is how far out of the city is one permitted to offer salah on a riding beast. Some scholars say that when a traveller is at least six miles outside the city, he may offer salah on a riding beast. Some others have given a distance half of that. Yet others give the distance at one league (which is also three miles). However, the correct thing is that just when anyone is outside the city limits of its populace, he is allowed to offer optional salah on a riding beast. It is like the rule on the qasr (shortened) salah.

(١٣٤١) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كُلَّ ذَالِكَ قَدْ فَعَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَصَرَ الصَّلَاةَ وَأَتَمَّ. (رواه فى شرح السنة)

1341. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did all that. He offered the shortened salah (during a journey) and also offered it completely.[2]

[1] Chapter 77, P 125. Dar ul-Islarat, Karachi. (Comments after hadith # 1:77.252). Also 1.60. 207, 1-60.210 #215

[2] Daraqutni # 43 in the chapter al-qiblah for one who is fasting (القبلة للصائم) Sharah as Sunnah (Baghawi,)

COMMENTARY: During his journey the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم acted in both ways. He offered two raka'at instead of four in a salah, and he also offered all four. Hence, Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله abides by it. He says that, during a journey, a traveller is allowed to offer the complete salah.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that it is not allowed to offer the complete salah during a journey. If anyone does not observe the qasr and offers the full salah, then he will be committing sin.

The scholars say that this hadith is weak because of a sub narrator in its line of transmission, (Sayyiduna) Ibrahim ibn Yahya رحمه الله. The auther of Safar us-Sa'adah also comments on the authenticity of this hadith and says that it is not established that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered a complete salah during a journey. Even if the hadith is accepted, as Daraqutni rates the hadith, it will be presumed that it was in the beginning when both things were allowed during the journey. Subsequently, qasr was made binding.

As for this hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه, the first portion could refer to those salah that are shortened, meaning which comprise of four raka'at. And, the second portion could be about those salah that are never subject to qasr, namely, the salah made up of three or two raka'at. This means that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made qasr of four raka'at, but offered the salah of three and two in full. Clearly, this meaning complies with the hadith, for, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم observed qasr and also observed salah completely. This explanation is very reasonable and nearer to the text.

QASR ON STAYING BEYOND FIFTEEN DAYS WITHOUT RESOLVE AND DESIGN

(١٣٤٢) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ غَزَوْتُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَشَهِدْتُ مَعَهُ الْفَتْحَ فَأَقَامَ بِمَكَّةَ ثَمَانِيَ عَشْرَةَ لَيْلَةً لَا يُصَلِّي إِلَّا رَكْعَتَيْنِ يَقُوْلُ يَا اَهْلَ الْبَلَدِ صَلُّوْا اَرْبَعًا فَإِنَّا سَفْرٌ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1342. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضى الله عنه narrated that the accompanied the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on a battle and was present with him at the conquest (of Makkah). He stayed in Makkah for eighteen days and continued to offer only two raka'at (instead of four). He used to say "O residents of the city, offer four raka'at, for we are travellers." [1]

COMMENTARY: As stated previously, if anyone stays beyond fifteen days at a place without a pre-determined plan, he may observe the qasr. Thus, during the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم stay extended to eighteen days though he contemplated to depart sooner. But, he was compelled by circumstances to overstay. So, he continued to offer the qasr salah.

Since he was the Imam and he offered two raka'at, he said after giving the salutation these of Makkah who followed him, "The residents must complete their four raka'at. I am a traveller. "This shows that it is mustahab for a traveller Imam to announce this to his muqtadis.

If a resident follows a traveller imam, then he must complete his four raka'at and he is not allowed to emulate the imam to end his salah at two raka'at. However, if a traveller follows a resident imam; he must complete the four raka'at with him.

QASR IS ONLY OF FOUR RAKA'AT

رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ صَلَّيْتُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْحَضَرِ وَالسَّفَرِ فَصَلَّيْتُ مَعَهُ فِي الْحَضَرِ الظُّهْرَ اَرْبَعًا وَبَعْدَهَا رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَصَلَّيْتُ مَعَهُ فِي السَّفَرِ الظُّهْرَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَبَعْدَهَا رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَالْعَصْرَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَلَمْ يُصَلِّ بَعْدَهَا شَيْئًا وَالْمَغْرِبَ فِي الْحَضَرِ وَالسَّفَرِ سَوَاءً ثَلَاثَ رَكْعَاتٍ وَلَا يَنْقُصُ فِيْ حَضَرٍ وَلَا سَفَرٍ وَهِيَ وِتْرُ النَّهَارِ وَبَعْدَهَا رَكْعَتَيْنِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

1343. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated "I offered salah with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم the zuhr, during a journey, two ıaka'at and after that two raka'at (Suunah) "Accoring to another version, he said "I offered salah with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم both while at home and during the journey. I offered salah, with him while at home (as a resident), the Zuhr four raka'at and after that two raka'at (sunnah), and the asr two raka'at but did not offer any salah after that. And the maghrib, (I offered), while at home and during the journey, three raka'at, not shortening whether at home or during the journey anything, and it is the wite of the day, and after it (I offered) two raka'at."

COMMENTARY: Qasr is allowed in only those salah that comprise four raka'at, like zuhr, asr and isha. It is disallowed in those salah that are made up of less than four, like maghirb, fajr and witr. These latter will be offered in the same way as they are offered at home.

The maghirb is the witr (odd) of the day. This establishes that, like maghrib, witr is of three raka'at, with one salutation.

Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that the sunnah muwakkadh must be offered during a journey. However, the Hanafis say that when the traveller stops somewhere, he must offer the sunnah but when he is travelling, and is on his route, he must give them up.

1344. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that during the Battle of Tabuk the practice of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was to combine the zuhr and asr if the sun had passed the meridian before he had advanced. If, on the other hand he advanced before the sun had passed the meridian then he put off the zuhr till he alighted for the asr (and offered them together). He did like that for the salah of maghrib, too. If the sun set before his advance, he offered the maghrib and before sunset, then he put off the salah of maghrib till he alighted for the isha, and offered them together.[1] may be combined either by advancing the soecnd or delaying the first. We have spoken on this against have # 1339. They say that it is allowed during a jurney to offer two salahs together at the time of either of the two.

COMMENTARY: The Shafi'is rely on this hadith to back their contention that two salah

The hanafis do not recognize this sort of combining two salahs. They cite the statement of Abu Dawud, " There is no strong hadith about offering a salah before its scheduled time. "This means that this hadith is weak. Moreover , the Hanfis cite the hadith of Bukhari and Muslim as narrated by Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه "I have never seen the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offer any salah outside its time. "So, his hadith will be preferred because he was very careful in narrating a*hadith* and was also very learned.

(١٣٤٥) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا سَافَرَ وَأَرَادَ أَنْ يَتَطَوَّعَ إِسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ بِنَاقَتِهِ فَكَبَّرَ ثُمَّ صَلَّى حَيْثُ وَجَّهَهُ رِكَابُهُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1345. Sayyiduna Ansa رضی الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was travelling and wished to offer an optional salah, he made his she-camel face the qiblah and, calling AllahuAkbar (the takbir), began the salah (offering it) in whatsoever direction the beast turned its face.[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله said that it is necessary to face the qiblah in the condition described. But Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that it is necessary for a fard (prescribed) salah, but not for an optional salah. (See hadith # 1340).

(١٣٤٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ بَعَثَنِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ حَاجَةٍ فَجِئْتُ وَهُوَ يُصَلِّيْ عَلٰى رَاحِلَتِهِ نَحْوَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَيَجْعَلُ السُّجُوْدَ أَخْفَضَ مِنَ الرُّكُوْعِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1346. Sayyiduna Jabir رحمه الله narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم sent him on an errand. When he come back, he was offering salah on his riding beast facing the east. He made prostration lower than he made bowing.[2]

COMMENTARY: He made the ruku and the sajdah by sign making it more prminent for sajdah than for ruku.

UTHMAN'S OBSERVANCE OF QASR IN MINA

(١٣٤٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ صَلَّى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمِنًى رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَأَبُوْ بَكْرٍ بَعْدَهُ وَعُمَرُ بَعْدَ أَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَعُثْمَانُ صَدْرًا مِنْ خِلَافَتِهِ ثُمَّ أَنَّ عُثْمَانَ صَلَّى بَعْدُ أَرْبَعًا فَكَانَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ إِذَا صَلَّى مَعَ الْإِمَامِ صَلَّى أَرْبَعًا وَإِذَا صَلَّاهَا وَحْدَهُ صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1347. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم offered two raka'at in Mina, as did Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه after him and Umar رضی الله عنه after Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and Uthman رضی الله عنه during the early part of his caliphate.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1228, Tirmadhi # 351, Musnad Ahmad 3-332.

Ather that, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ offered four raka'at. As for Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ (himself), when he offered salah behind the imam, he offered four himself, he offered two. [1]

COMMENTARY: While performing hajj, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his two caliphs's after him, offered the traveller's salah at Mina. However, Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ began to offer the complete salah during his caliphate, after the initial period of it.

Man reasons are forthcoming for it. It is said that he had married in Makkah. Imam Ahmad رضی اللہ عنہ quotes him to have said, "O people I have married in Makkah and am a member of a tribe here. I had heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that if anyone marries in a city then he is like a resident there." The mere fact that the people were taken aback at Sayyiduna Uthman's action shows that they knew that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not offer complete salah during a journey and qasr is binding.

Another reason was that very many Muslims gathered in Mina and they included the fresh Muslims. So, he offered four raka'at for their sake lest they presume that zuhr was only two raka'at.

Or, he may have formed the same opinion as Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ who held that during a journey it was allowed to observe qasr or offer the complete salah.

INITIALLY ONLY TWO RAKA'AT

(١٣٤٨) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ فُرِضَتِ الصَّلَاةُ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ هَاجَرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَفُرِضَتْ أَرْبَعًا وَتُرِكَتْ صَلَاةُ السَّفَرِ عَلَى الْفَرِيْضَةِ الْأُوْلَى قَالَ الزُّهْرِيُّ قُلْتُ لِعُرْوَةَ مَابَالُ عَائِشَةَ تُتِمُّ قَالَ تَأَوَّلَتْ كَمَا تَأَوَّلَ عُثْمَانُ۔ (متفق علیہ)

1348. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that initially two raka'at salah were prescribed. Then Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigrated and (at that time) four raka'at were prescribed, but salah during travel was left as prescribed initially.

Zuhri asked Urwah, "Why Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ offers complete salah (during travel)?" He said, "She interpreted the issue as Uthman did." [2]

COMMENTARY: Initially, salah was prescribed as two raka'at. Later, zuhr, asr and isha were made up retained as three. Thus, the two raka'at during a journey were not a concession after the prescription of four but had been two from the beginning.

Hence, the two qasr are ordained, not a concession. This means that a person may offer the qasr or the complete salah.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ holds that qasr is binding during a journey. If anyone on whom qasr is binding during a journey, offers all four raka'at and sits in the first qadah then he does wrong and his additional two raka'at will be regarded as optional. If he does not sit in the first qadah which is, by rule, for him the final qadah then his fard salah (obligatory prayer) will be invalid.

Just as Sayyiduna Uthman interpreted the rules to offer four raka'at during a journey, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ also made the same interpretation. She too offered four raka'at during a journey. They regarded qasr as well as complete salah permissible during a journey.

QASR IS ALLAH'S COMMAND

(١٣٤٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ فَرَضَ اللّٰهُ الصَّلَاةَ عَلٰى لِسَانِ نَبِيِّكُمْ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْحَضَرِ أَرْبَعًا وَفِي السَّفَرِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَفِي الْخَوْفِ رَكْعَةً۔ (رواه مسلم)

1349. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated: Allah prescribed the salah through the tongue of your Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as four raka'at for a resident, two for a traveller and one for him who faces danger.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Hanafi stand is confirmed that there are two raka'at in a journey. Hasan Busri رحمه الله and Ishaq رحمه الله were among those who abided by the prescription of one raka'at salah when in fear. Most ulama (Scholars) say, however, that the units of salah do not differ in peace and during fear. They explain that of two raka'at, one is offered behind the imam and one individually, alone It is the Prayer when in danger as known from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the sahabah رحمه الله. The method is known from the ahadith. In a city when facing real danger four raka'at and three raka'at will be offered as two with the imam and the reaming individually. This will be explained in the chapter on salah ul-Khawf, insha Allah.

QASR ESTABLISHED IN QURAN & SUNNAH

(١٣٥٠) وَعَنْهُ وعن ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَا سَنَّ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَاةَ السَّفَرِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَهُمَا تَمَامٌ غَيْرُ قَصْرٍ وَالْوِتْرُ فِي السَّفَرِ سُنَّةٌ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1350. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم made two raka'at during a journey as the sunnah. They are a complete salah, not a shortened form. And, the during a journey is a sunnah.[2]

COMMENTARY: Shortening salah during a journey is established from thee Quran and the hadith made it clear from the words and deeds of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Moreover, they are a complete salah because only two raka'at are prescribed during the journey. They are not shortened to two from four.

As for witr, they are sunnah during a journey, meaning that it is know from the sunnah about the witr that they must be offered during a journey. It is one of Islam's sunnahs. This does not mean that witr is not wajib (expedient) because witr is wajib (expedient) both at home and during a journey.

DISTANCE THAT CALLS FOR QASR

(١٣٥١) وَعَنْ مَالِكٍ بَلَغَهُ أَنَّ ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ كَانَ يَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ فِيْ مِثْلِ مَا يَكُوْنُ بَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَالطَّائِفِ وَفِيْ مِثْلِ مَا بَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَعُسْفَانَ وَفِيْ مِثْلِ مَا بَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَجُدَّةَ قَالَ مَالِكٌ وَذٰلِكَ أَرْبَعَةُ بُرُدٍ۔ (رواه في الموطا)

1351. Sayyiduna Maalik رحمه الله narrated that he heard that Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه used to shorten the salah on travelling a distance equal to that between Makkah and Taif, or that between Makkah and Usfan, or that between Makkah and Jiddah (Jedda). Maalik رحمه الله said, "That is four bard (about forty eight miles).[3]

[1] Muslim # 6-687.

[2] Ibn Majah # 1194.

[3] Muwatta Maalik # 9.2-17

COMMENTARY: Four bard is the equivalent four manzil, forty-eight miles. This concerns the last mentioned distance between Makkah and Jeddah because the other distance are not the same.

The ulama (Scholars) say that the Quran and hadith do not define but simply mention the journey. If we scrutinise the ahadith on this subject, they do not give the same distance always. The sahabah, رحمه الله the tabiun رحمه الله and the ulama (Scholars) رحمه الله have defined the limit at which qasr is allowed through their independent judgement. Qasr will not be valid before that but will become wajib (expedient) when that distance or more than that is intended to be covered.

Though Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله has defined the distance as what is covered in a day's journey or two day's journey or two days, journey, yet the book Hawi (about his school of thought) defines it as sixteen leagues. The same is the contention of Imam Maalik and Imam Ahmad.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله has defined the distance at which qasr becomes valid as three manzilc (36 miles), each manzil should be such as is covered by a caravan on shorter days from morning to past noon.

Imam Abu Yasuf has defined it as what is covered on the third day when most of it is over.

There people who go only by the apparent meaning of the hadith say that distance is immaterial. Setting out on a journey makes qasr wajib (expedient).

If we look carefully at the verdicts of the four imams, they all say the same thing that qasr becomes wajib (expedient) then anyone sets out on a journey of forty-eight miles.

SALAH DURING THE JOURNEY

(١٣٥٢) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ صَحِبْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَمَانِيَةَ عَشَرَ سَفَرًا فَمَارَأَيْتُهُ تَرَكَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ إِذَا زَاغَتِ الشَّمْسُ قَبْلَ الظُّهْرِ رَوَاهُ أَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1352. Sayyiduna Al-Bara narrated that he undertook eighteen journeys with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم during which he never saw him omit to offer two raka'at salah after zawal but before the salah of zuhr. [1]

(According to the Urdu translation, it was a single journey of eighteen days on which he accompanied the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

COMMENTARY: Perhaps, he may have offered the sunnah of zuhr before the fard and may have sufficed with four raka'at because of the journey.

Or, he may have offered two raka'at tahiyatul wadu.

1353. Sayyidduna Nafi رحمه الله narrated that sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه used to observe his son Ubaydullah رحمه الله offer the optional salah. But he did not forbid him.[2]

COMMENTARY: It is possible that Sayyiduna Ubaydullah ibn Abdullah رحمه الله offered the sunnah muwakkada or the voluntary prayers because of ample time on hand though he knew that it is allowed to omit the supererogatory salah.

[2] Muwatta Maalik # 9.7-26

In the hadith # 1338, Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه is said to have disapproved the offering of optional salah by members of his caravan. Perhaps, that was because they had little time on hand, or they might have presumed that it was necessary to offer the optional even during the journey. Allah is very kind to His creatures and records for them the deeds that they had been doing at home even when they do not do them during their journey. As it is, the salah is such a worship that there cannot be an occupation better than it. Who can discourage anyone who observes it without reason? Besides, Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه knew very well that it is not a good thing to prevent someone from offering salah.
Allah says:

اَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِىْ يَنْهٰى عَبْدًا اِذَا صَلّٰى۔

{Have you considered him who forbids a worshipper when he offers salah?} (96:9-10)

CHAPTER - XLIII

AL-JUMUAH FIRDAY بَابُ الْجُمُعَةِ

The word Jumuah is a day of the week. It is spelt jumuah (جمعہ) in eloquent language, but jumuah (جمعہ) is also used.
It is so called because Sayyiduna Aadam علیہ السلام was created.[1]
And given life on this day. Some people say that it is so called because then sayyiduna Aadam علیہ السلام was sent down to earth from paradise, he met Sayyidah Hawwa علیہ السلام.[2]
On this day. The ulama (Scholars) give other reasons, too, for this name and some of them say that since Muslims gather together.[3]
On this day for worship of Allah (and gathering is جمع), this day is called Jumuah.
Jumuah is the name given to it by Islam. During the Jahiliyah, it was called (یوم العروبة) (yawm ul-arubah). However, same ulama (Scholars) say that arubah was a very ancient name and, even during the jahiliyah it was changed and it used to be called jumu'ah.
In the pre-Islamic days, too as early as before the coming of the last Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, Friday was regarded as a singular, noble and prominent day. Then Islam raised its importance and honour.
We have emphasized in the preceding pages that no worships is dearer to Allah than salah. Hence, as an expression of gratitude to Allah, the salah of five times a day and an exclusive salah on Friday, are prescribed for the creatures Gratitude is due to Allah for His blessings on the creatures from their birth to death, and in fact from before their brith and continuing after their death, in large, heavy doses. Refer to the chapter (# 24) on jamuah, congregational salah. The larger the gathering, the better but it is not possible for people to assemble in large numbers five times a day, so Shariah has fixed a day in the week for people of different neighbourhoods and suburbs to assemble and observe to assemble and observe this worship. Since Friday is the most excellent and noble day, it is chosen for this weekly congregation.

Allah had appointed this day for the other ummahs too, but they were disobedient and unruly with the result that they were deprived of its blessings. The honour was thus the lot of this ummah of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Jews chose Saturday instead on the presumption that on this day Allah had completed call creation and was free. The Christians chose Sunday (instead of Friday) assuming that it was the beginning of the creation.

Both these people continue to observe these days with solemnity and observe them as holidays. Sunday is a day off for the Christians, but some Muslim states are unfortunate and follow in their footsteps.

They could not shake off this specific religious attitude of the Christian states and continue to observe Sunday instead of Friday as a holiday.

OBLIGATORY SALAH OF FRIDAY: The salah of Friday is fard ayn (prescribed on every individual) established so by the Quran Continuously handed down a*hadith* and consensus of the ummah. It is one of the great symbols of Islam. If anyone rejects its obligatory nature then he is disbeliever. He who neglects it without reason is great sinner. Allah says about the Friday salah:

{O you who believe. When the call is made for the congregational} salah on Friday hasten to the remembrance of Allah and leave off your trading. That is better for you, if you know} (62:9)

The words remembrances of Allah in this verse mean the salah of Friday and its sermon. Hasten to it' is to go for it very attentively and with concentration.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had known of the obligatory nature of Friday in Makkah it self, but the dominance of the infidels did not make it possible to discharge it. So, he began offering it in Madinah immediately after hijrah.

Before the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Madinah, Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Zararah رضى الله عنه used his judgment to initiate the salah of Friday there. (Ilm ul-Fiqh.)

Having provided some significant information about Friday in these lines, the commands and rulings about the salah of Friday will follow in the next chapters.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

RELUCTANCE OF JEWS & CHRISTIANS TO ACCEPT FRIDAY

said, "We are the last (in this world) but will precede (all other in rank) on the day of resurrection. Besides, they (Jews and Christians) were given the book before us while we were given it after them. Then, this day of theirs was prescribed for them, meaning Friday, but they differed about it. So, Allah guided us in it (and we obeyed Him and chose it for worship of Him). The people follow us (not only in worship but also) in regard to it. The Jews chose tomorrow (following Friday which is Saturday) and the Christians chose the day after tomorrow (following Saturday which is Sunday).

According to another version in Muslim, he said, "We who are the last will be the first on the day of resurrection. And, we shall be the first to enter paradise.... "(and so to the end as in the previous Para, or similar). [1]

(١٣٥٥)وَفِيْ أُخْرٰى لَهُ عَنْهُ وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ اٰخِرِ الْحَدِيْثِ نَحْنُ الْاٰخِرُوْنَ مِنْ اَهْلِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْاَوَّلُوْنَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ اَلْمُقْضِيُّ لَهُمْ قَبْلَ الْخَلَائِقِ۔

1355. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said at the end of the pervious, "We are the last of the people of the world,. but will be the first (of all) on the day of resurrection and the first to be judged on the day of resurrection of all the creatures.[2]

COMMENTARY: Though we were given the book after than, we are more excellent because the last book abrogates the earlier ones. It is superior to those it abrogates. Thus, we who are the last' is an expression declaring the merit of Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ummah.

The exegetes offer different meanings of Friday being prescribed for Jews and Christians and their differing about it.

Some ulama (Scholars) go by the words any say that Allah had made worship on Friday obligatory on the people of the book just as He has made it obligatory on the Muslims. They were required to gather together for worship but they continued to be obstinate.

Some others said that making Friday obligatory means they were to determine a day on which they should give up their worldly affairs and devote worship of Allah. The Jews chose Saturday as the most excellent day because Allah had finished all work on this day, saying, "We too must finish all work on this day. "The Christians opted for Sunday because on this day creation was begun. It was when perfection and blessings commenced. Allah turned to His creation with His grace and favours on this day, so they too should worship Allah whole heartedly and abandon worldly pursuits.

However, both Jews and Christians failed in their choice. They could not choose the correct day and went off the mark.

As against this Allah has guided the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ummah and favoured them with knowledge of the correct day, Friday. When He gave them the command in the verse of surah al-Jum'uah (62:9) that they should worship Him on Friday, He also enabled them to obey the command. He did not let them go astray. So, the Muslims devoted themselves to worship Allah on Friday as a truly obedient ummah.

Friday is the day when Sayyiduna Aadam علیہ السلام was created. So, it is the first day of human life and the worshippers are exemplars or precedents in worship. Those who worship on the next two days, Saturday and Sunday, are followers or emulators.

This is how the hadith is evidence that, both in terms of Shariah and in reality, Friday is the first day of the week. However, it is surprising that common law denies it.

EXCELLENCE OF FRIDAY

(١٣٥٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُ يَوْمٍ طَلَعَتْ عَلَيْهِ الشَّمْسُ يَوْمُ الْجُمُعَةِ فِيْهِ خُلِقَ آدَمُ وَفِيْهِ اُدْخِلَ الْجَنَّةَ وَفِيْهِ اُخْرِجَ مِنْهَا وَلَا تَقُوْمُ السَّاعَةُ اِلَّا فِيْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1356. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "The best of days on which the sun rises is Friday. On this day, Aadam علیہ السلام was created, on it he was admitted to paradise, on it he was sent out of it (to the earth) and the last Hour will occur not on Friday. [1]

COMMENTARY: Being sent out from paradise to earth on Friday, adds to the excellence of this day because Prophets صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and saintly men were born thereafter. Their sacred lives bought innumerable favours and good things. So, too, Sayyiduna Aadam's علیہ السلام death brought him before his lord. The last Hour will be a means of admittance to paradise for the pious.

The occurring of the last Hour is with the first trumpet. Its sound will cause the earth and the heavens to perish and all living things will die. We may also take it to mean the sounding of the second trumpet to revive all the creatures and present them before Allah, the Judge of all who judge, for reckoning.

Allamah Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that some people regard the day of Aarafah as the most excellent while others insist that Friday is the most excellent day. We may interpret the sayings to mean that the most excellent day in the year is the day of Arafah and Friday the most excellent day of the week.

If the day of Arafah (Which falls on 9th Dhul Hijjah) happens to be a Friday, then that is an added merit. Any deed done on this day will be regarded as the best of all deeds. This is why if Hajj (Pilgrimage) coincides with Friday, it is called Hajj coincides with Friday, it is called Hajj Akbar, because the Hajj(Pilgrimage) that is performed on Friday excels the Hajj (Pilgrimage) on any other day more than seventy times (or, seventy pilgrimages).

Ibn Musayyib رحمہ اللہ said that in the sight of Allah, Friday is dearer than an optional Hajj (Pilgrimage). Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ is quoted in Jami Saghir to have narrated in a marfu manner that Friday is the hajj of the poor.

THE OPPORTUNE MOMENT

(١٣٥٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ فِي الْجُمُعَةِ لَسَاعَةً لَا يُوَافِقُهَا عَبْدٌ مُسْلِمٌ يَسْئَالُ اللّٰهَ فِيْهَا خَيْرًا اِلَّا اَعْطَاهُ اِيَّاهُ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَزَادَ مُسْلِمٌ قَالَ وَهِيَ سَاعَةٌ خَفِيْفَةٌ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهُمَا قَالَ اِنَّ فِي الْجُمُعَةِ لَسَاعَةً لَا يُوَافِقُهَا مُسْلِمٌ قَائِمٌ يُصَلِّي يَسْئَالُ اللّٰهَ خَيْرًا اِلَّا اَعْطَاهُ اِيَّاهُ۔

1357. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "On Friday there is a moment at which if a Muslim asks Allah for anything that is good, He will give it to him."
The version in Muslim adds: He said "It is a brief moment."

[1] Muslim # 18-854, Tirmidhi # 488, Nasi # 1369, Musnad Ahmad # 9218.

According to another version (in Bukhari and Muslim), he said, "On Friday, there is a moment at which if a Muslim stands to offer salah and asks Allah for something that is good. He will grant it to him.[1]

COMMENTARY: The opportune moment has not been disclosed.

Allamah Jazri رحمه الله said that of all the hours when prayer is hoped to be accepted, the hour on Friday is most hopeful.

A person's prayer is approved and granted either in this world or he would be rewarded amply in the next world.

If a Muslim stands to offer salah implies that he observes it regularly and constantly. Or, it could imply that he makes supplication always and round-the clock. Or it might means that he waits for salah.

These interpretations allow for all versions to agree with each other.

WHEN IS THE OPPORTUNE TIME

(١٣٥٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي بُرْدَةَ بْنِ اَبِي مُوْسٰى قَالَ سَمِعْتُ اَبِي يَقُوْلُ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ فِيْ شَاْنِ سَاعَةِ الْجُمُعَةِ مَابَيْنَ اَنْ يَّجْلِسَ الْاِمَامُ اِلٰى اَنْ تُقْضَى الصَّلٰوةُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1358. Sayyiduna Burdah ibn Abu Musa رحمه الله narrated that he heard his father (Sayyiduna Abu Musa رحمه الله say that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say about the (opportune) moment on Friday. "It is between the time the imam sits down (on the pulpit to deliver the sermon) and the end of the salah.[2]

COMMENTARY: While there is no doubt whatsoever that there is a time on Friday at which prayer is accepted the time itself is not known. Some ulama (Scholars) say that it is unknown like the laylat ul-qadr and the great name of Allah (or ism a'zam).

Some others say that the unknown time on Friday is not always the same. It changes from early in the day to mid-day to the end of the day.

However, most of the ulama (Scholars) maintain that this time is fixed and is known, but they differ in pointing it out. There are as many as thirty-five opinions about it. They are:

(1). On Friday, at the time when the muadhdhin calls the adhan of fajr.
(2). Between rise of dawn and sunrise.
(3). Between asr and sunset.
(4). After the sermon between the imams descending from the pulpit and calling the takbir tahrimah.
(5). Immediately after sunrise.
(6). At the time of sunrise.
(7). The last moments of the remaining eight-hour period of the day.
(8). From the beginning of zawal till shades are half of the subject.
(9). From the beginning of zawal till shadows are one cubit long.
(10). When the sun has set one span till it has set one cubit.
(11). Exactly at zawal.
(12). At the time the muadhdin calls the adhan for the commencement of zawal and (15). Till the zawal of the sun.

(16). Between the time out which the imam ascends the pulpit and the salah of Friday begins.
(17). Till the imam completes (or ends) the salah of Friday.
(18). Between the time at which the imam ascends the pulpit and the completion of the salah.
(19). Between the adhan and the end of the salah.
(20). From the time the imam sits on the pulpit till the salah is over.
(21). Between the time buying and selling is prohibited till it is allowed,.meaning, form the time of adhan till the salah of Friday is over.
(22). The time just before the adhan.
(23). From the time the imam begins the sermon till he ends it.
(24). Between the time the imam ascends the pulpit to deliver the sermon and he begins it.
(25). The time when the imam sits between the two sermons.
(26). After the sermon is over, when the imam descends from the pulpit.
(27). From the time the iqamah is called for the salah till the imam stands on the prayer mat.
(28). From the time the iqamah is called till the end of the salah.
(29). Immediately the salah of Friday is over.
(30). The time between the salah of asr till sunset.
(31). Between the salah of asr.
(32). From the time of the salah of asr till the final time for it is mustahab (before sunset).
(33). Exactly after the salah of asr.
(34). The last moments after the salah of asr.
(35). The time when the sun is setting.

It is said about Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه Sayyidah Fatimah Zahra رضى الله عنه and all the members of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم household (رضوان الله عليهم اجمعين), that they had instructed their servants to be mindful of the last moments of Friday. They were deputed to remind everyone so that they should engage in worship of Allah, contemplating and making supplication at this hour.

Balqiri رحمه الله was asked how may one make supplication when the sermon is being delivered because of the command that the worshippers should observe complete silence when the imam delivers the sermon.

He said that is not necessary to coin words to make supplication. Rather, one may contemplate one's desires and needs in one's heart. This means that a supplication need not be spoken with the tongue, but it is enough to make it in the heart. In way, the objective is achieved and the command to remain quiet is also obeyed.

Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله said, "I have learnt that the supplication made on the night of Friday is also accepted."

MERIT OF FRIDAY & THE OPPORTUNE MOMENT

1359. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that he went to (Mount) At-Toor where he met ka'b ar Ahbar and sat with him. He narrated to him from the Torah and Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated to him from Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. Among the things he narrated to him was that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had said, "The best of days on which the sun rise is Friday. On it Aadam علیه السلام was created and on it he was sent down (to earth). On it his repentance was accepted. On it he died. And, on it the last Hour will occur. On Friday, every beast is attentive from dawn till sunrise apprehensive of the last Hour, but not the jinn and mankind. During it, there is a time at which if a Muslim slave stands in salah and asks Allah for anything. He will grant it to him, surely. "Karb said, "That is a day in a year." Abu Harayrah رضی الله عنه said. "It is on every Friday. " So, Karb read the Torah and confirmed, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم has spoken the truth."

Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه then continued to narrate that he met Abdullah ibn Salaam رحمه الله and enlightened him of his meeting with ka'b al ahbar and of his narration to him about Friday and of Ka'b saying , "It is one day in very year." Abdullah ibn Salaam رحمه الله said, "Karb has lied, "but when he disclosed, "Then Ka'b read the Torah and confirmed that it was on every Friday, "Abdullah ibn Salaam رحمه الله said, "Karb spoke the truth."

Then Abdullah ibn Salaam رحمه الله said, "I do know what time it is," and Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه asked him to let him know it and not be miserly about it. He said, "It is the moments on Friday. "So, Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه remarked "How can it be so for Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had said about it, 'A Muslim slave stands in salah and.....Abdullah ibn Salaam رحمه الله reminded him if Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had not said, "Whoever sits waiting for salah is deemed to be in salah until he offers the salah?" Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه said, "Of course, it is so. "He said, "That is that![1]

COMMENTARY: The meaning of the words from dawn till sunrise has been given here as from sunrise till sunset. The last Hour will occur during this period, so all beasts fear its coming on this day. So, man should be more afraid of that and occupy himself in worship on Friday.

This hadith demonstrates the wonderful trait of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Being unlettered, he gave information which even a scholar of the Jews did not know though it was found in the Torah. So, in fact, it was a great miracle, for, Allah had filled his heart with an ocean of knowledge and Divine awareness.

Ka'b Ahbar was a great scholar of the Jews and a very intelligent man. Though he was a contemporary of the Prophet, صلى الله عليه وسلم yet he did not meet him. Later on, during the caliphate of Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab, رضى الله عنه he embraced Islam.

Sayyiuduna Abdullah ibn Salaam رحمه الله too, had been a noted scholar of the Jews. He embraced Islam in the times of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and attained the honour of a sahabi (Comparison) رضى الله عنه.

1360. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Look out for the hour in which hope is placed (for receiving an answer to supplication) from after asr till sunset."[2]

MERIT OF FRIDAY

(١٣٦١) وَعَنْ أَوْسِ بْنِ أَوْسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ مِنْ أَفْضَلِ أَيَّامِكُمْ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ فِيْهِ خُلِقَ اٰدَمُ وَفِيْهِ قُبِضَ وَفِيْهِ النَّفْخَةُ وَفِيْهِ الصَّعْقَةُ فَأَكْثِرُوْا عَلَيَّ مِنَ الصَّلَاةِ فِيْهِ فَاِنَّ صَلَاتَكُمْ مَعْرُوْضَةٌ عَلَيَّ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَكَيْفَ تُعْرَضُ صَلَاتُنَا عَلَيْكَ وَقَدْ أَرِمْتَ قَالَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ بَلِيْتَ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ حَرَّمَ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ أَجْسَادَ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد و النسائى وابن ماجة والدارمى والبيهقى فى الدعوات الكبير)

1361. Sayyiduna Aws ibn Aws رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said. "Surely, among the most excellent of your days is Friday. On it Aadam عليه السلام was created. On it he was taken away (meaning, he died). On it the (second) trumpet will be On blown (and its sound will cause the last Hour and total death). Hence, invoke blessings on me very often on this day, for, your blessings will be presented to me.

"The sahabah رضی الله عنه asked. "How will that be when your body will have decayed?" He said, "Allah has forbidden the earth to consume the bodies of the Prophets.[1] (The earth does not cause their bodies to decay.)

COMMENTARY: The hadith implies that either the day of Arafah is most excellent or both this day and Friday are at par in excellence. (It says, among the most excellent).

Invoking blessings on the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم is one of the superior forms of worship. On Friday, every piety is rewarded seventy times, so invocation of blessings is perferable. The excellence of this is know from other a*hadith* too, and this concerns the night of Friday too besides the day. Hence, the Muslims must invoke blessings on the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, the most that they can.

The Prophets علیه السلام remain intact in their graves just as they were. Allah grants them life as they were in earth. They live actually and physically. It is not a mere spiritual life and there are no two opinions on this subject. It is not like the life of the martyrs, though the martyrs and besides them other dead people also listen to the salutation of their relatives. Sometimes the deeds of their relatives are presented to them too.

(١٣٦٢) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْيَوْمُ الْمَوْعُوْدُ يَوْمُ الْقِيَامَةِ وَالْيَوْمُ الْمَشْهُوْدُ يَوْمُ عَرَفَةَ وَ الشَّاهِدُ يَوْمُ الْجُمُعَةِ وَمَا طَلَعَتِ الشَّمْسُ وَلَا غَرَبَتْ عَلٰى يَوْمٍ اَفْضَلَ مِنْهُ فِيْهِ سَاعَةٌ لَا يُوَافِقُهَا عَبْدٌ مُؤْمِنٌ يَدْعُوا اللّٰهَ بِخَيْرٍ اِلَّا اسْتَجَابَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ وَلَا يَسْتَعِيْذُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ اِلَّا اَعَاذَهٗ مِنْهُ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ لَا يُعْرَفُ اِلَّا مِنْ حَدِيْثِ مُوْسٰى ابْنِ عُبَيْدَةَ وَهُوَ يُضَعَّفُ۔

1362. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said. "The Promised day (الیوم الموعود) is the day of resurrection while the witnessed day (الیوم المشهود) is the day of Arafah and the witness (الشاهد) is Friday. The sun has neither risen nor set on a day more excellent than Friday. There is a moment on it at which if a believing slave (of Allah) supplicates Allah for something good then Allah answers him with approval, and if he seeks refuge from something then Allah grants him refuge from it.[2]

COMMENTARY: Two verses in surah al-Burroj say:

وَالْيَوْمِ الْمَوْعُوْدِ وَشَاهِدٍ وَّمَشْهُوْدٍ۔

{By the Promised Day, By the witness and that which is witnessed.}(8 5 :2-3)
This hadith explains these verses. Allah has given the news of the day of resurrection and promised the believers the bounties of paradise.

On the day of Arafah, Muslims from all over the world assemble there, as do the angles. Although one of the sub-narrators Musa رحمه الله is declared by Tirmidhi to be a weak narrator, yet the text of this hadith is supported by other a*hadith*. So, it is accepted.

(١٣٦٣) عَنْ اَبِي لُبَابَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُنْذِرِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ سَيِّدُ الْاَيَّامِ وَاَعْظَمُهَا عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ وَهُوَ اَعْظَمُ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْاَضْحٰى وَيَوْمِ الْفِطْرِ فِيْهِ خَمْسُ خِلَالٍ خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ فِيْهِ اٰدَمَ وَاَهْبَطَ اللّٰهُ فِيْهِ اٰدَمَ اِلَى الْاَرْضِ وَفِيْهِ تَوَفَّى اللّٰهُ اٰدَمَ وَفِيْهِ سَاعَةٌ لَا يَسْئَلُ الْعَبْدُ فِيْهَا شَيْئًا اِلَّا اَعْطَاهُ مَالَمْ يَسْأَلْ حَرَامًا وَفِيْهِ تَقُوْمُ السَّاعَةُ مَا مِنْ مَلَكٍ مُقَرَّبٍ وَلَا سَمَاءٍ وَلَا اَرْضٍ وَلَا رِيَاحٍ وَلَا جِبَالٍ وَلَا بَحْرٍ اِلَّا هُوَ مُشْفِقٌ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَى اَحْمَدُ

1363. Sayyiduna Abu Lubabah ibn Abdul Mundhir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said "Surely, Friday is the chief of the days and the greatest of them in Allah's sight. It is greater in Allah's sight. It is greater in Allah's sight than the eed ul-Adha and the eed ul-Fitr. It has five characteristics. Allah sent Aadam علیه السلام down to earth on it, Allah caused Aadam علیه السلام to die on it, there is a time on it at which if anyone asks for something, Allah will grant it to him provided he does not ask for what is unlawful, and, on it the last Hour will occur. There is not angel near to Allah, not a heaven, not an earth, not a wind, not a mountain, not a sea – but, they all fear Friday "(because the last Day will come on it and may come all of a Sudden)[1]

(١٣٦٤) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ مُعَاذٍ اَنَّ رَجُلًا مِنَ الْاَنْصَارِ اَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اَخْبِرْنَا عَنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ مَاذَا فِيْهِ مِنَ الْخَيْرِ قَالَ فِيْهِ خَمْسُ خِلَالٍ وَسَاقَ اِلٰى آخِرِ الْحَدِيْثِ۔

1364. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Mu'adh رضی الله عنه narrated that a man of the Ansars came to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and asked him, "Tell us about Friday. What good does it contain? "He said, "It possesses five characteristics ..." and went on to the end of the hadith.[2]

COMMENTARY: It seems that the day of Arafah is more excellent than Friday or that both days are at par in excellence. However, the tradition narrated by Razin رحمه الله makes it very clear that the day of Arafah is the most excellent of all days.

As for the five characterizations, they are not the only ones. There are other distinguishing excellences of Friday over other days. For instance, it is narrated that the vision of Allah will be allowed on Friday. There are other similar distinctions.

(١٣٦٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قِيْلَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاَيِّ شَيْءٍ سُمِّيَ يَوْمُ الْجُمُعَةِ قَالَ لِاَنَّ فِيْهَا طُبِعَتْ طِيْنَةُ اَبِيْكَ اٰدَمَ وَفِيْهَا الصَّعْقَةُ وَالْبَعْثَةُ وفِيْهَا الْبَطْشَةُ وَفِيْ اٰخِرِ ثَلَاثِ سَاعَاتٍ مِنْهَا سَاعَةٌ مَنْ دَعَا اللّٰهَ فِيْهَا اسْتُجِيْبَ لَهٗ۔ (رواه احمد)

1365. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that someone asked the Prophet, صلی الله علیه وسلم "Why is al-Jumah (Friday) so named?" He said, "It is because on this day the dust of your father Aadam عليه السلام was collected (جمع) Jama and a paste of it was made (to fashion has appearance). On it will be blown the first trumpet (causing all to perish) and the (second) trumpet (reviving all creatures). On it will be the sever tumult of the day of resurrection. On it, at the end of its (last) three hours, there is a moment at which if anyone prays to Allah, he will get an answer."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Yahya رحمه الله said that the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying means that Friday is called Jumuah in Arabic because all those great things were put together (jama (جمع) on was collected (jama) at its own place and gives the meaning of being gathered.

INVOKE BLESSINGS FREQUENTLY

(١٣٦٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَكْثِرُوا الصَّلَاةَ عَلَيَّ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ فَإِنَّهُ مَشْهُوْدٌ يَشْهَدُهُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ وَإِنَّ أَحَدًا لَمْ يُصَلِّ عَلَيَّ إِلَّا عُرِضَتْ عَلَيَّ صَلَاتُهُ حَتَّى يَفْرُغَ مِنْهَا قَالَ قُلْتُ وَبَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ قَالَ إِنَّ اللهَ حَرَّمَ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ أَنْ تَأْكُلَ أَجْسَادَ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ فَنَبِيُّ اللهِ حَيٌّ يُرْزَقُ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1366. Sayyiduna Abu Darda رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "Invoke blessings on me abundantly on Friday, for, it is witnessed. The angels are present on it. If anyone invokes blessings on me his invocation of blessing is presented to me till he finishes it."

He said that he asked. "And, after death (too)?" He said, "Surely, Allah has forbidden the earth to consume the bodies of the Prophets. So, (every) Prophet of Allah is alive (like in the world)"[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith upholds the exegesis of verses (2and3) of surah al-Burooj: (واليوم الموعود وشاهد ومشهود) as offered by Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه which conforms to the exegesis of Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه in the hadith (# 1362). In that hadith witness is ascribed to Friday, and here that which is witnessed' is Friday because the angels are present on it. However, it is very possible that the words (فانه) it have the pronominal suffix referring to the invocation of blessings, not to Friday.

Blessings are conveyed to him always, but more particularly with more emphasis on Friday because it is the best of days, even if the invocation is very lengthy and takes a long time. This is why he said, 'Till he finishes it, or stops invocating blessings.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also enlightened Sayyiduna Abu Darda رضى الله عنه that the bodies of the Prophets عليه السلام do not decay in the graves as the bodies of other dead people decay. There is no difference between their apparent worldly life and death and they will remain there in the same way as they were here. It is as is said:

أَوْلِيَاءُ اللهِ لَا يَمُوْتُوْنَ وَلٰكِنْ يَنْتَقِلُوْنَ مِنْ دَارٍ إِلٰى دَارٍ۔

The friends of Allah do not die, They move from one house to anther house.

Thus, anyone's blessings will be conveyed to him in his grave as they were conveyed to him here, in this world.

The Prophets عليه السلام are given provision in their graves in reality. But, if an allegorical meaning is assumed then that too is correct. If the soul of the martyrs are known to feed themselves in paradise, then it is more reasonable to assume that the Prophets عليه السلام are given provision in their graves.

GLAD TIDINGS TO BELIEVER WHO DIES ON FRIDAY

(١٣٦٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَامِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَمُوْتُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ أَوْ لَيْلَةَ الْجُمُعَةِ إِلَّا وَقَاهُ اللّٰهُ فِتْنَةَ الْقَبْرِ رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَلَيْسَ إِسْنَادُهُ بِمُتَّصِلٍ۔

1367. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "A Muslim who dies on the day of Friday or the night of Friday is protected by Allah from the trial of the grave.[1] (Its reckoning and punishment.)

COMMENTARY: Death of a Muslim on Friday or its night is auspicious for him. He is in Allah's protection and mercy. Many glad tidings are narrated in ahadith.

For instance, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The Muslim who dies on Friday is safe from the punishment in the grave. He will come on the day of resurrection (to the gathering place) with a seal of martyrs on him.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said "He who dies on Friday has the reward of martyrs recorded for him and he is preserved from the trial of the grave."

According to yet another saying, "The Muslim man or woman who dies on Friday, during the day or night and is protected from the trial of the grave and the punishment in it will meet Allah in such a condition that he or she will not undergo reckoning of any sort on the day of resurrection, because they will have witnesses who will testify (to their piety). Or, they will have a seal of martyrs affixed on them"

FRIDAY IS DAY OF EED

(١٣٦٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّهُ قَرَأَ اَلْيَوْمَ أَكْمَلْتُ لَكُمْ دِيْنَكُمْ۔ اَلْآيَةُ۔ وَعِنْدَهُ يَهُوْدِيٌّ قَالَ لَوْ نَزَلَتْ هٰذِهِ الْآيَةُ عَلَيْنَا لَاتَّخَذْنَاهَا عِيْدًا فَقَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ فَإِنَّهَا نَزَلَتْ فِيْ يَوْمِ عِيْدَيْنِ فِيْ يَوْمِ جُمُعَةٍ وَيَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1368. It is reported about Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رحمه الله that he recited (the verse):

اَلْيَوْمَ أَكْمَلْتُ لَكُمْ دِيْنَكُمْ الاية

{This day I have perfected for you your religion....}(5:3)

A Jew was sitting in his assembly, He remarked, "Had this verse been revealed to us, we would have taken that day as a day of eed." So, Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said, "Indeed, it was revealed on a day of two eeds, a Friday and the day of Arafah.[2]

COMMENTARY: The day the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had performed the last hajj was Friday. So it had excellence it two ways: the Friday's merit and the merit of the day of Arafah whose excellence is boundless. This verse was revealed on this day. No other eed could be greater than this day.

1369. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when (the month of) Rajab commenced, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed:

"O Allah, bless us (in our worship) in Rajab and Shaban and bring us to Ramadan." Anas رضی اللہ عنہ also narrated that he used to say, "The night of Friday is a bright night and Friday is a shining day.[1]

CHAPTER - XLIV

THE FRIDAY SALAH IS WAJIB (EXPEDIENT) بَابُ وُجُوْبِهَا

We have stated previously that the salah of Friday is fard (obligatory) ayn (an obligatory duty on every Muslim individually). Hence, wajib (expedient) here means fard (obligatory). Allamah Yahya رحمہ اللہ said that the salah of Friday is a command prescribed. It is know from the Quran, the ahadith and consensus of the ummah. If anyone rejects this then he is disbeliever. The relative verse of the Quran which prescribes it is:

فَاسْعَوْا اِلٰى ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ

{Hasten to the remembrance of Allah.} (62:9)
Dhikr or remembrance of Allah is the Khutbah (sermon) and the salah of Friday.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

WARNING TO THOSE WHO NEGLECT SALAH OF FRIDAY

(١٣٧٠) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ وَاَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّهُمَا قَالَا سَمِعْنَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ عَلٰى اَعْوَادِ مِنْبَرِهٖ لَيَنْتَهِيَنَّ اَقْوَامٌ عَنْ وَدْعِهِمُ الْجُمُعَاتِ اَوْ لَيَخْتِمَنَّ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ ثُمَّ لَيَكُوْنُنَّ مِنَ الْغَافِلِيْنَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1370. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that they heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say on the steps of his pulpit, "People should cease to neglect the salah of Friday otherwise Allah will put a seal on their hearts. Then they will be counted among the neglectful."[2]

COMMENTARY: Either people will not neglect the Friday salah or they will have a seal on their hearts. This means that they will become extremely negligent and fail to benefit from guidance. Thus they will receive a severe chastisement.

(١٣٧١) عَنْ اَبِي الْجَعْدِ الضَّمَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَرَكَ ثَلَاثَ جُمَعٍ تَهَاوُنًا بِهَا طَبَعَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى قَلْبِهٖ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ

1371. Sayyiduna Abu Al-Jard ad-Dumariy رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone neglects the salah on three Fridays out of laziness considering it insignificant, then. [1]
Allah puts a seal on his heart.

(١٣٧٢) عَنْ صَفْوَانَ بْنَ سُلَيْمٍ وَاَحْمَدُ

1372 Sayyiduna Safwan ibn Sulaym رضی الله عنه also narrated it.[2]

(١٣٧٣) عَنْ اَبِي قَتَادَةَ۔

1373. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی الله عنه also narrated it.[3]

NEGLECT CALLS FOR SADAQAH

(١٣٧٤) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَرَكَ الْجُمُعَةَ مِنْ غَيْرِ عُذْرٍ فَلْيَتَصَدَّقْ بِدِيْنَارٍ فَاِنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ فَبِنِصْفِ دِيْنَارٍ۔ (رواہ احمد وابوداؤد وابن ماجۃ)

1374. Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رحمه الله narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "He who dose not offer the salah of Friday without an excuse must give a charity of one dinar. But, if he does not have that then half a dinar."[4]

FRIDAY BECOMES WAJIB (EXPEDIENT) ON HEARING THE ADHAN

(١٣٧٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَلْجُمُعَةُ عَلٰى مَنْ سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

1375. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The salah of Friday is wajib (expedient) on him who hears the adhah (for Friday)[5]

COMMENTARY: Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله said that if anyone hears the adhan of Friday, he must make preparations for the salah and go for it, this being wajib (expedient) on him.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله said that if this hadith is taken in its literal meaning, than that will create many doubts. So, it should be taken to mean that Friday will be wajib (expedient) on one who lives at a place that is so much for away from the city as a voice carries through the distance to it. If any one shouts in the city, he hears him where he is.

It is stated in Sharah Muniyah that Friday is wajib (expedient) on a person who lives in the suburbs to which the chain of the houses continues (even if he does not hear the adhan). If there are open fields and grazing grounds between him and the city creating a distance then Friday is not wajib (expedient) on him even if he hears the adhan. However, Imam Muhammad رحمه الله said that if he hears the adhan then Friday is wajib (expedient) on him. The verdict is issued on Imam Muhammad's رحمه الله opinion.

(١٣٧٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَلْجُمُعَةُ عَلٰى مَنْ اٰوَاهُ اللَّيْلُ اِلٰى اَهْلِهٖ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ اِسْنَادُهٗ ضَعِيْفٌ۔

1376. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said "The salah of Friday is wajib (expedient) on one who can spend the night at his home.[1]

COMMENTARY: Friday is wajib (expedient) on very such person whose So far from dwelling is so far from the place where the Friday salah is offered that he may reach home before right fall after the salah of Friday, and he may spend the night with his family.

THOSE ON WHOM FRIDAY IS NOT WAJIB (EXPEDIENT)

1377. Sayyiduna Tariq ibn Shihab رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The salah of Friday with the congregations is a duty, wajib (expedient) on every Muslim, except on four people: a slave owned by someone, a woman, a boy, or a sick person."

COMMENTARY: Friday is a duty that is proved through Allah's Book and the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم sunnah. It is wajib (expedient). This means that it is fard (obligatory) on all Muslims, apart from the four named in the hadith, to offer it with the congregation.

As for the sick person, he is in such a condition that he cannot attend the congregation.

Other ahadith also exempt an insane man, a traveller, a blind man and a lame man. Ibn Hammam رحمه الله also named an old, infirm man among the sick, Also, a nurse or attendant of such a patient who cannot be left to himself is also exempt if the patient's condition is likely to worsen in his absence.

SECTION III ألفصل الثالث

(١٣٧٨) عَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِقَوْمٍ يَتَخَلَّفُوْنَ عَنِ الْجُمُعَةِ لَقَدْ هَمَمْتُ اَنْ اٰمُرَ رَجُلًا يُصَلِّيْ بِالنَّاسِ ثُمَّ اُحَرِّقَ عَلٰى رِجَالٍ يَتَخَلَّفُوْنَ عَنِ الْجُمُعَةِ بُيُوْتَهُمْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1378. Sayyiduna Ibn Masrud رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said about those people who absented themselves from the salah of Friday, "I think that I Should command a man to lead the people in salah, then I should burn down over men who absent themselves from the Friday salah their houses."[2]

COMMENTARY: This is a serious warning to those man who stay away from the salah of Friday without any excuse. They should take heed and never miss the Friday salah.

(١٣٧٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ تَرَكَ الْجُمُعَةَ مِنْ غَيْرِ ضَرُوْرَةٍ كُتِبَ مُنَافِقًا فِيْ كِتَابٍ لَا يُمْحٰى وَلَا يُبَدَّلُ وَفِيْ بَعْضِ الرِّوَايَاتِ ثَلَاثًا۔ (رواه الشافعی)

1379. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone omits to offer the salah of Friday without an excuse than he is recorded as a hypocrite in a book that is neither erased nor altered."
In some versions, it is "Three times.[1]
(He neglects three Fridays, or that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم spoke these words three times.)

COMMENTARY: The book is the record of deeds. In the hereafter, Allah may forgive him if He wishes out of His mercy.

(١٣٨٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللّٰهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ فَعَلَيْهِ الْجُمُعَةُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ اِلَّا مَرِيْضٌ اَوْ مُسَافِرٌ اَوِامْرَأَةٌ اَوْ صَبِيٌّ اَوْمَمْلُوْكٌ فَمَنِ اسْتَغْنٰى بِلَهْوٍ اَوْ تِجَارَةٍ اسْتَغْنَى اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ وَاللّٰهُ غَنِيٌّ حَمِيْدٌ۔ (رواه الدار قطنی)

1380. Sayydiuna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He who believes in Allah and the last Day is bound to the fard (obligatory), to offer the salah of Friday, except the sick, the traveller, the woman, the child or the slave. But, if anyone neglects it for play or trade, then Allah is Independent, Praiseworthy."[2]

COMMENTARY: If anyone occupies himself in play and frolics and in trading unmindful of the Friday salah then he causes his own loss. Allah does not care for such a person and he whom Allah leaves to himself suffers in both the worlds.

CAHPATER - XLV

PURIFYING ONESELF & GOING OUT EARLY FOR THE FRIDAY SALAH

بَابُ التَّنْظِيْفِ وَالتَّبْكِيْرِ

To purify oneself is to have a bath and cleanse, the body, trim the moustaches, clip the nails, shave unwanted hair, clean the garments and apply perfume. These things are sunnah on Friday. This subject has been covered in the Book on purity (taharah) III, chapter III (for instance, hadith # 379).

As for going out early for the Friday salah it is to come to the mosque or the place where the salah is observed at the earliest time. It anyone comes there for the salah in the part of the day then it is the best. Imam Ghazali رضی الله عنه has cited the practice of the predecess ors that they used to come to the mosque in the morning for the Friday salah to be ahead in worship. However, the ulama (Scholars) say that it is not reasonable to occupy one's place in the mosque early morning by putting something, like prayer rugs etc. and then coming at the time of the salah as people do in the Masjid Nabvi. Rather, they should themselves sit there and engage in dhikr, otherwise people would be put to inconvenience. Hence, people should not do this sort of thing in the mosques.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MANNERS TO BE OBSERVED

(١٣٨١) عَنْ سَلْمَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَغْتَسِلُ رَجُلٌ يَّوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَيَتَطَهَّرُ مَا اسْتَطَاعَ مِنْ طُهْرٍ وَيَدَّهِنُ مِنْ دُهْنِهٖ اَوْيَمَسُّ مِنْ طِيْبِ بَيْتِهٖ ثُمَّ يَخْرُجُ فَلَا يُفَرِّقُ بَيْنَ اثْنَيْنِ ثُمَّ يُصَلِّيْ مَا كُتِبَ لَهٗ ثُمَّ يُنْصِتُ اِذَا تَكَلَّمَ الْاِمَامُ اِلَّا غُفِرَ لَهٗ مَا بَيْنَهٗ وَبَيْنَ الْجُمُعَةِ الْاُخْرٰى۔ (رواه بخاری)

1381. Sayyiduna Salman رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone has a bath on Friday and attains purity to the best of his ability with ablution, anoints himself with oil or applies some perfume lying (in his house and goes out mosque by thrusting himself), and offers so much salah as is decreed for him and observes silence while the imam delivers the sermon, then his sins between then and the last Friday are forgiven him.[1]

COMMENTARY: If two men who are related or friends are sitting next to one another then he must not sit between them. Or, he must not force himself between any two men when there is no space there. If then he may sit in the space available. If there is space in the front rows enough for him or he hopes that the people there would accommodate him, then he might jump over people to go there because it is the fault of these people who occupy the back rows instead of filling up the front rows.

Thus, worshippers must come early for the Friday salah to occupy the front rows and leave the back rows for the late-comers.

1382. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone has a bath and comes to the salah of Friday and offers as much salah as is decreed for him and observes silence till the sermon is delivered and offers salah with him (the imam), then he is forgiven his sins between that time and the last Friday, and three more days."[2]

COMMENTARY: The extra three days are because every piety is rewarded ten times. So, three days are added to the seven of the week to make up ten.

(١٣٨٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَوَضَّأَ فَاَحْسَنَ الْوُضُوْءَ ثُمَّ اَتَى الْجُمُعَةَ فَاسْتَمَعَ وَاَنْصَتَ غُفِرَ لَهٗ مَا بَيْنَهٗ وَبَيْنَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَزِيَادَةُ ثَلَاثَةِ اَيَّامٍ وَمَنْ مَسَّ الْحَصٰى فَقَدْ لَغَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1383. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone performs ablution and make it perfect and comes to the Friday salah

listens attentively observing silence, then he is forgiven his sins between then and the last Friday, and three more days. But, he who touches the pebbles has blundered."[1]

COMMENTARY: To touch the pebbles is to brush them aside more than once to level the place of prostration. Or, it is to toy with them during the sermon. This kind of thing is meaningless and interrupts one's attention during the sermon.

MERIT OF EARLY COMERS

(١٣٨٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا كَانَ يَوْمُ الْجُمُعَةِ وَقَفَتِ الْمَلَائِكَةُ عَلٰى بَابِ الْمَسْجِدِ يَكْتُبُوْنَ الْأَوَّلَ فَالْأَوَّلَ وَمَثَلُ الْمُهَجِّرِ كَمَثَلِ الَّذِيْ يُهْدِيْ بَدَنَةً ثُمَّ كَالَّذِيْ يُهْدِيْ بَقَرَةً ثُمَّ كَبْشًا ثُمَّ دَجَاجَةً ثُمَّ بَيْضَةً فَإِذَا خَرَجَ الْإِمَامُ طَوَوْا صُحُفَهُمْ وَيَسْتَمِعُوْنَ الذِّكْرَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1384. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "When it is Friday, the angels stand at the gate of the mosque recording the arrivals, the first one first and the next. He who comes first for Friday is like one who sends a camel (to Makkah) for sacrifice. He who comes next is like one who sends a cow (to Makkah) for sacrifice. He who follows him is like one who sends a sheep, and the next is like one who sends a hen, and the one following him is lay one who sends an egg. When the imam sits on the pulpit for the sermon, they fold up their sheets and listen to the mention of Allah."[2]

COMMENTARY: The angles stand at the mosque's gate from the time of zawal to note down the names of the comers in sequence. These angles are not the same angles who are constantly with every individual.

EVEN PREACHING IS DISALLOWED DURING THE SERMON

(١٣٨٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا قُلْتَ لِصَاحِبِكَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ أَنْصِتْ وَالْإِمَامُ يَخْطُبُ فَقَدْ لَغَوْتَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1385. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said,"If you say to your neighbour, "Quiet! While the imam is delivering the sermon then you have blundered."[3]

COMMENTARY: This means that any kind of speech is disallowed while the imam delivers the sermon. Even enjoining piety and forbidding evil is not allowed. But, this may be conveyed by sign.

Most of the ulama (Scholars) including Imam Abu Hanifah رضى الله عنه hold that it is wajib (expedient) to observe silence during the sermon. Some, however, say that it is mustahab to do so. Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله is among them, but he has alo given the verdict of wajib (expedient) according to Mawahib ladunniyah.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله rules that when the imam walks to the pulpit, the worshippers must cease to offer salah and talk and if anyone is engaged in salah then he must end it at two raka'at as soon as the imam begins the sermon. However, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله held that there is no harm in talking while the imam walks for the sermon (to the pulpit) till he begins to deliver it and also from the time he ends it till he calls the takbir tahrimah because conversation is disallowed only that the sermon may be heard calmly. Imam Abu Hanifah رضی الله عنه points out to the words of the hadith when the imam comes out....'[1]

إِذَا خَرَجَ الإِمَامُ فَلَا صَلٰوةَ وَلَا كَلَامَ

Moreover the sahabah also gave this verdict and their verdicts are evidences. It us wajib (expedient) to emulate them.

The ulama (Scholars) say that it is makruh (unbecoming) to offer even the redeeming salah while the sermon is being delivered.

Though the ulama (Scholars) differ about the men who are at a distance from the imam and cannot hear him, yet the correct verdict is that even they should not talk during the sermon.

ETIQUETE OF LISTENING TO SERMON: The ulama (Scholars) have said very clearly that when the imam delivers the sermon, it is forbidden to eat, drink, write and engage in any kind of worldly activities. It is markruh to respond to greetings and to the sneezer. The Durr ul-Mukhtar gives the gist of it: (كُلُّ شَيْءٍ حَرُمَ فِي الصَّلٰوةِ حَرُمَ فِي الْخُطْبَةِ) Everything that is forbidden during the salah is forbidden during the sermon. So, even the durud (invocation of blessing on the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم must not be made with the tongue, but may be spoken to oneself. It is makruh (unbecoming) to stop someone from doing something contrary to Shari'ah (divine law), but not makruh (unbecoming) to make a gesture to stop him.

The hadith emphasizes that it is virtuous to go the mosque early for the Friday salah. But, if anyone/speaks a word of advice to someone during the sermon, then he might lose his reward.

DO NOT REMOVE ANYONE FROM HIS PLACE

(١٣٨٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُقِيْمَنَّ اَحَدُكُمْ اَخَاهُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ ثُمَّ يُخَالِفُ إِلٰى مَقْعَدِهٖ فَيَقْعُدُ فِيْهِ وَلٰكِنْ يَقُوْلُ افْسَحُوْا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1386. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "let no one of you intend to make his brother get up (from his place) on Friday, then to take over his place and sit in it. Rather, he should request, "Spread out."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is unlawful to occupy someone's place by force and if he gives it willingly then that must be a sincere consent, not out of fear or modesty. It is also unlawful to remove from his place a person whom one has sent early to the mosque to occupy a place for him, because no one becomes eligible to occupy simply by sending someone in advance. Only one who comes early deserves to retain the place where he site. It is makruh (unbecoming) for one to surrender his place to the man who had sent him, but not if the sender is superior to him.

As for the verse (a) of surah al-Hashr (59) about preferring them above themselves, the preference, here, is about natural desires and needs.

There was a time, in the past, when cruel, people sent their menials to the mosque to drive out people from the first rows for their masters to occupy them.
A saintly man commented sorrowfully:
If this is their worship.
What may requesting the people who are already seated to spread out to enable one to find place to sit, this is allowed only when there is adequate space to do so. If there is no possibility to make room, then he should not even make the request. Rather, he must sit wherever he finds space and offer the salah, even if it is in the doorways.
In other words, the hadith encourages people to go to the mosque at an early time.

DON ELEGANT GARMENTS

1387. Sayyiduna Abu Saeed رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He who has a bath on Friday, dons the best of garments he possesses, applies some perfume if he has it and goes to (offer) and Friday salah, without jumping over the necks of the people (assembled there) and after that, offers salah as much as Allah has decreed for him and observes silence as his imam comes out till he finishes his salah, that is an expiation for his sins between that Friday and the last Friday."[1]

COMMENTARY: The best of garments mean white dress. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم loved white garments most.

WALKING TO THE MOSQUE

(١٣٨٨) وَعَنْ اَوْسِ بْنِ اَوْسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ غَسَّلَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَاغْتَسَلَ وَ بَكَّرَ وَابْتَكَرَ وَمَشٰى وَلَمْ يَرْكَبْ وَدَنَا مِنَ الْاِمَامِ وَاسْتَمَعَ وَلَمْ يَلْغُ كَانَ لَهٗ بِكُلِّ خُطْوَةٍ عَمَلُ سَنَةٍ اَجْرُ صِيَامِهَا وَقِيَامِهَا۔ (رواه الترمذی، وابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجة)

1388. Sayyiduna Aws ibn Aws رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone helps (or cause) someone to have a bath and has a bath himself and goes out early (to the mosque to hear the imam's sermon from the beginning), walking not riding, and goes near to the imam, listening to the sermon without speaking during it, when a reward is credited for his against each step of a year's fasting and offering salah in the night.[2] wife so when she will have a purifying bath. Or, it means that he has his clothes washed, or washes his head with marsh mellows. If anyone has sexual intercourse with his wife on Friday then he does not get a temptation to commit adultery and finds it easy to concentrate on the salah.

He walks and doses not ride means that he walks throughout the distance. The words does not ride, suggest that he does not walk part of the distance and ride the rest, but walks throughout to the mosque.

NEW CLOTHES FOR FRIDAY

(١٣٨٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ سَلَامٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا عَلٰى اَحَدِكُمْ اِنْ وَجَدَ اَنْ يَتَّخِذَ ثَوْبَيْنِ لِيَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ سِوٰى ثَوْبَيْ مِهْنَتِهٖ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ۔

1389. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is no harm if any of you takes a pair of (new) garments for Friday apart from the garments he has for everyday use.[1]

(١٣٩٠) عَنْ يَحْيٰى بْنِ سَعِيْدٍ

1390. Sayyiduna Yahya ibn Saeed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated (the same hadith).[2]

COMMENTARY: If anyone gets himself new garments for Friday and the eeds then it is not against piety and asceticism. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had a pair of garments that he had kept aside to wear on Friday.

SIT NEAR IMAM

(١٣٩١) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُحْضُرُوا الذِّكْرَ وَ اُدْنُوْا مِنَ الْاِمَامِ فَاِنَّ الرَّجُلَ لَا يَزَالُ يَتَبَاعَدُ حَتّٰى يُؤَخَّرَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَاِنْ دَخَلَهَا۔ (و رواه ابوداؤد)

1391. Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Come quickly for the sermon and sit near to the imam, for, if anyone keeps away (from pious places without a valid excuse), he will be put back while entering paradise, even though he does enter it (Eventually)."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith motivates to superlative standards in every pious deeds. One must not be content with the lower degrees.

DO NOT PUSH OVER PEOPLE

(١٣٩٢) وَعَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ اَنَسٍ الْجُهَنِيِّ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَخَطّٰى رِقَابَ النَّاسِ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ اُتُّخِذَ جِسْرًا اِلٰى جَهَنَّمَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1392. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Anas al-Juhani رحمہ اللہ reported that his father narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who steps over people's necks on Friday (to go the front rows) will be made a bridge to hell."[4]

[2] Muatta Maalike # 5-8-18

[4] Tirmidhi # Musnad Ahmad 3-437, Ibn Majah # 116.

COMMENTARY: The chain of narrators is mistaken in this hadith because the father of Mu'adh رحمه الله, Anas رحمه الله, was not a sahabi. The correct chain is Sahl ibn Mu'adh رحمه الله from his father (Anas Juhani) as stated by Tirmidhi.
People will walk over him on the day of resurrection.

SITTING STYLE

(١٣٩٣) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنِ الْحَبْوَةِ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَالْاِمَامُ يَخْطُبُ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1393. Sayyiduna (Sahl ibn) Mu'adh ibn Aans رحمه الله narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade the manner of habwah (sitting) on Friday during the sermon.[1]

COMMENTARY: Habwah or ihtiba is to sit on the hips, knees raised and touching the belly with legs tied with a piece of cloth, or grasping then with the hands. Such a style induces one to dose off.

SHIFT WHEN SLEEPY

(١٣٩٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا نَعَسَ اَحَدُكُمْ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ فَلْيَتَحَوَّلْ مِنْ مَجْلِسِهٖ ذَالِكَ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1394. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If one of you dozes on Friday, he must move over to another place.[2]

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ASK NONE TO VACCATE

(١٣٩٥) عَنْ نَافِعٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ ابْنَ عُمَرَ يَقُوْلُ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ يُّقِيْمَ الرَّجُلُ الرَّجُلَ مِنْ مَقْعَدِهٖ وَيَجْلِسُ فِيْهِ قِيْلَ لِنَافِعٍ فِي الْجُمُعَةِ قَالَ فِي الْجُمُعَةِ وَغَيْرِهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

1395. Sayyiduna Nafi رحمه الله narrated that he heard Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrate that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade that anyone should get another man to vaccate his place and sit on it. Nafi رحمه الله was asked, "On Friday! "He said, "Friday and besides it (too).[3]

HE WHO OBSERVES ETIQUETTE OF FRIDAY

(١٣٩٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَحْضُرُ الْجُمُعَةَ ثَلَاثَةُ نَفَرٍ فَرَجُلٌ حَضَرَهَا بِلَغْوٍ فَذَالِكَ حَظُّهٗ مِنْهَا وَرَجُلٌ حَضَرَهَا بِدُعَاءٍ فَهُوَ رَجُلٌ دَعَا اللّٰهَ اِنْ شَاءَ اَعْطَاهُ وَاِنْ شَاءَ مَنَعَهٗ وَرَجُلٌ حَضَرَهَا بِاِنْصَاتٍ وَسُكُوْتٍ وَلَمْ يَتَخَطَّ رَقَبَةَ مُسْلِمٍ وَلَمْ يُؤْذِ اَحَدًا فَهِيَ كَفَّارَةٌ اِلَى الْجُمُعَةِ الَّتِيْ تَلِيْهَا وَزِيَادَةُ ثَلَاثَةِ اَيَّامٍ وَذَالِكَ بِاَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهٗ عَشْرُ اَمْثَالِهَا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1396. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Those who come to the Friday (salah) are of three kinds. He who comes and occupies himself in nonsense (talk and activity), so his share is simply that much. And, a man who comes to make supplication (during the sermon and deprives himself of hearing it), so Allah may grant him his prayer or turn it down as He wishes. And, a man who comes to keep quit (to hear the range) and neither to step over necks of Muslims nor hurt them so for him that is an expiation for his sins till the next Friday and three days more. This is because of Allah's words:

[Whoever brings a good deed shall have tenfold the like of it] (6:160)[1]

COMMENTARY: As for one who makes supplication, Allah may grant him or may not grant him if He will, because he makes supplication at a time when the sermon is being read and ought to be heard with rapt attention. Hence, the Hanafis regard it as makruh (unbecoming) to make supplication while the imam delivers the sermon but some ulama (Scholars) regard it as haraam (unlawful, forbidden).

He doses not hurt anyone means that he does not occupy another's place, does not occupy another's place, does not push any person or does not come to the mosque after eating garlic.

(١٣٩٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَكَلَّمَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَالْاِمَامُ يَخْطُبُ فَهُوَ كَمَثَلِ الْحِمَارِ يَحْمِلُ اَسْفَارًا وَالَّذِيْ يَقُوْلُ لَهٗ اَنْصِتْ لَيْسَ لَهٗ جُمُعَةٌ۔ (رواه احمد)

1397. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "He who speaks on Friday while the imam delivers the sermon is like an ass who carries books. And, he who says to him, "Quiet, is not deemed to have offered the Friday salah.[2]

COMMENTARY: The ass carrying burden of books is a scholar who fails to match his deeds with his knowledge.

The man who asks another to keep quiet does what is disallowed. This is explained in the hadith # 1396

THE PROPHET'S صلی الله علیه وسلم SPEECH DURING SERMON: According to one tradition, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was delivering a sermon on Friday. A villager pleaded (during the sermon), "O Messenger of Allah, I have lost my property. My family is hungry. Do pray for us. "The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم (interrupted his sermon,) raised his hands and prayed for him. There are other such traditions that prove that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم spoke during his sermon. Among the explanations given are that he had not commenced the sermon when the villager pleaded with him, or these things happened in the early days when speech was not disallowed during the sermon. It is also said that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was exempted from this disallowance.

FRIDAY IS EED OF MUSLIMS

(١٣٩٨) وَعَنْ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ السَّبَّاقِ مُرْسَلًا قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ جُمُعَةٍ مِنَ الْجُمَعِ يَا مَعْشَرَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ اِنَّ هٰذَا يَوْمٌ جَعَلَهُ اللّٰهُ عِيْدًا فَاغْتَسِلُوْا وَمَنْ كَانَ عِنْدَهٗ طِيْبٌ فَلَا يَضُرُّهٗ اَنْ يَمَسَّ مِنْهُ وَعَلَيْكُمْ بِالسِّوَاكِ رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْهُ

1398. Sayyiduna Ubayd ibn as-Sabbaq رحمه الله narrated in a mursal form that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said one Friday, "O company of Muslims, surely this day Allah has appointed a (day of) eed. So, have bath and, if anyone of you has perfume with him, then it is not wrong to apply some of it And you must use the siwak.[1]

1399. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated it in a mursil form.[2]

COMMENTARY: Friday is a day of eed for the poor and saintly men. The perfume that they use should be colures. Ibn Hajar said that musk with a tinge of rose is the best because the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used mask frequently.

The statement that there is no harm in using perfume should not mislead anyone. The fact is that some Muslims imagined that perfume was used by women only, so this statement explains that anyone may use it. This may be compared to Allah's words:

فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْهِ أَنْ يَّطَّوَّفَ بِهِمَا

{....there is no blame on him if he goes round them} (2:158), referring to said which is a rite of the pilgrimage.

(١٤٠٠) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَقًّا عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ اَنْ يَّغْتَسِلُوْا يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَلْيَمَسَّ اَحَدُهُمْ مِنْ طِيْبِ اِهْلِهٖ فَاِنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ فَالْمَاءُ لَهٗ طِيْبٌ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ۔

1400. Sayyiduna Al-Bara رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The duty binds every Muslim to have a bath on to have a bath on Friday and each of them must apply perfume available in his house but if it is not available then water is perfume for him."[3]

COMMENTARY: This and the pervious hadith are cited by Imam Maalik to prove that have bath is wajib (expedient) on Friday. Other ulama (Scholars) say that to have a bath on Friday is sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم), yet they say that not to have a bath on Friday is makruh (unbecoming).

CHAPTER - XLVI

THE KHUTBAH AND THE FRIDAY SALAH بَابُ الْخُطْبَةِ وَالصَّلٰوةِ

The word Khutbah means 'speech' 'conversation' and the address to the people. In the terminology of Shariah, it means the speech and collection of words that is made up of advice, exhortation remembrance, guidance invocation of blessing and peace on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the testimonies. (Roughly, it is the sermon.)

The Khutbah is fard (obligatory) (obligatory) and a prerequisite for the Friday salah.

According to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, the briefest Khutabah is (سبحان الله) (subhan Allah), or (الحمدلله) (al-hamdu lillah), or (لا اله الا الله) (al ilaha ill Allah). Though the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is know to have delivered a lengthy sermon, yet a lengthy sermon is either wajib (expedient) or sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم), not a prerequisite or fard (obligatory) and it is not that the Friday salah will not be proper without a lengthy sermon. However, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله said that a lengthy remembrance and exhortation, which in general parlance is called khutbah is essential, and saying merely subhan Allah or al-hamdu lillah is not a khutbah. And, Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله said that if two Khutbahs are not delivered, the khutabah is not valid at all. The books of fiqh may be consulted for the arguments of all these imams.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

(١٤٠١) عَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُصَلِّي الْجُمُعَةَ حِيْنَ تَمِيْلُ الشَّمْسُ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1401. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to offer the salah of Friday when the sun declined past the meridian.[1]

COMMENTARY: In winter, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the Friday salah immediately after the declension of the sun, but in severe heat he offered it as the heat subsided and it was cooler. This is found is another hadith of Sayyiduna Aans رضى الله عنه to follow.

(١٤٠٢) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ مَا كُنَّا نُقِيْلُ وَلَا نَتَغَدّٰى اِلَّا بَعْدَ الْجُمُعَةِ۔ (متفق علیه)

1402. Sayyiduna Sahlibn Sa'd رضى الله عنه narrated that they did not have a short nap or meal till after the salah of Friday.[2]

COMMENTARY: The after noon nap is called qaylulah whether one sleeps or simply rests.

(١٤٠٣) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اشْتَدَّ الْبَرْدُ بَكَّرَ بِالصَّلٰوةِ وَاِذَا اشْتَدَّ الْحَرُّ اَبْرَدَ بِالصَّلٰوةِ يَعْنِي الْجُمُعَةَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1403. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet used to offer the salah early to put it back (in summer) when it was very hot till it cooled down, meaning the Friday salah.[3]

ONE ADHAN ON FRIDAY

(١٤٠٤) وَعَنِ السَّائِبِ بْنِ يَزِيْدَ قَالَ كَانَ النِّدَاءُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ اَوَّلُهُ اِذَا جَلَسَ الْاِمَامُ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ عَلٰى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَّ عُمَرَ فَلَمَّا كَانَ عُثْمَانُ وَ كَثُرَ النَّاسُ زَادَ النِّدَاءَ الثَّالِثَ عَلَى الزَّوْرَاءِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1404. Sayyiduna Sarib ibn Yazid narrated that the first adhan in the times of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Umar رضى الله عنه on Friday was called when the imam sat on the pulpit. Later, in the times of Uthman رضى الله عنه as the people grew in number, he added a third adhan which was called at az-Zawra.[1]

COMMENTARY: In the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم times, the (first) adhan, as we know when the time of Friday commences, was not called. This practice continued in the times of Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه. The Muslims resided near the mosque and mostly stayed in the company of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Then not only did Muslims increase in number but also resided far away from the mosque. They also occupied in their businesses and occupations. So, Sayyiduna Uthman رضى الله عنه decided to add another adhan to enable these people to make preparations and be able to come to the mosque for the sermon. So, the first adhan (as we know) began to be called and this is what the third adhan means. Though in terms of positions it is the first adhan yet it was added after the two adhans of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم times (one of the khutbah and the other before the salah takbir or iqamah), so it is called the third adhan. This adhan, too, is a sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) and cannot be called a bidah because the deeds of the righteous caliphs and their practices are also counted as sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Perhaps it is no more done anywhere, but in earlier days, it was custom in some places to call another adhan while the sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) salah was being offered. There was no precedent for it and it is not known who imitated this bid'ah (innovation).

The ulama (Scholars) write that it is wajib (expedient) to hasten to reach the Friday salah after the first adhan. When it is called, buying and selling (and al worldly pursuits) become unlawful.

TWO SERMONS

(١٤٠٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كَانَتْ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خُطْبَتَانِ يَجْلِسُ بَيْنَهُمَا يَقْرَأُ الْقُرْاٰنَ وَيُذَكِّرُ النَّاسَ فَكَانَتْ صَلَاتُهُ قَصْدًا وَخُطْبَتُهُ قَصْدًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1405. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم delivered two sermons and he sat between them. (In these sermons,) he recited the Quran and urged the people (to be pious and righteous). His salah was of a moderate length and his sermon, too, was of a moderate length (both of them were neither too lengthy nor too short).[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sat between the two sermon only till all his limbs returned to their proper places. The jurists put this duration to be as much as is enough to say subhan Allah three times. It is not wajib (expedient) to sit between the two sermons, but it is a sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم). It is not known certainly whether the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made a supplication during this sitting.

BRIEF SERMON SIGN OF WISDOM

(١٤٠٦) وَعَنْ عَمَّارٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ إِنَّ طُوْلَ صَلٰوةِ الرَّجُلِ وَقِصَرَ خُطْبَتِهِ مَئِنَّةٌ مِنْ فِقْهِهِ فَأَطِيْلُوْا الصَّلٰوةَ وَاقْصُرُوا الْخُطْبَةَ وَإِنَّ مِنَ الْبَيَانِ سِحْرًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1406. Sayyiduna Ammar رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Surely, the length of the salah of a man and the brevity of his sermon are signs of his wisdom. So, let the salah be long and the sermon be short, for in oratory lies magic.[1]

COMMENTARY: During the sermon, people are attentive to the orator but while offering the salah their minds are oriented to wards the Creator. The hadith emphasizes very briefly that a man's sagacity demands that the condition in which people's attention is towards Allah should be prolonged but the state when they concentrate on a creature should be shortened. However, the salah must comply with the sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* and should not exceed the limits set by the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم either in length nor in brevity. The sermon should meet the demands of (قل وقل) say and guide. It should speak a few words but encompass wide knowledge. It is like sorcery that does a lot in the fewest words. The brief sermon should leave a lasting impression. The hadith praises the oratory and also blames it. It a speech moulds the minds of listeners from evil to piety then it is praiseworthy but if a speech diverts them from piety to evil then it is blameworthy.

THE PROPHET'S CONDITION WHILE DELIVERING THE SERMON

(١٤٠٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا خَطَبَ احْمَرَّتْ عَيْنَاهُ وَ عَلَا صَوْتُهُ وَاشْتَدَّ غَضَبُهُ حَتّٰى كَأَنَّهُ مُنْذِرُ جَيْشٍ يَقُوْلُ صَبَّحَكُمْ وَمَسَّاكُمْ وَيَقُوْلُ بُعِثْتُ أَنَا وَالسَّاعَةُ كَهَاتَيْنِ وَيَقْرِنُ بَيْنَ إِصْبَعَيْهِ السَّبَّابَةِ وَالْوُسْطٰى۔ (رواه مسلم)

1407. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم delivered the sermon his eyes turned red, his voice become loud and his anger was apparent as though he was warning an army, saying. "In the morning and in the evening (the enemy will attack you). "He would say, "The last Hour and I Have been sent like these too, and he put together his forefinger and his middle finger.[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم condition during the sermon was influenced by the ummah's shortcomings and their way wardness. He raised his voice that his audience right hear him. He warned them that they night come out of their negligence. He demonstrated with his fingers that he had come to the world just a little before the last day.

VERSES OF THE QURAN

(١٤٠٨) وَعَنْ يَعْلَى بْنِ أُمَيَّةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْرَأُ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ وَنَادَوْا يَا مَالِكُ لِيَقْضِ عَلَيْنَا رَبُّكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1408. Sayyiduna Yarla ibn Umayyah رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recite on the pulpit (the verse 77 of the surah az-Zukhruf):

يَا مَالِكُ لِيَقْضِ عَلَيْنَا رَبُّكَ

{O Keeper, let your Lord make an end of us}[3]

COMMENTARY: The inmates of hell will be subject to such severe chastisement that they world plead with the keeper of hell to recommend to the lord to end their torment. He will tell them that they will not get that (for, there will be no death). The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم recited this verse to let his listeners fear the punishment.

(١٤٠٩) وَعَنْ أُمِّ هِشَامٍ بِنْتِ حَارِثَةَ بْنِ النُّعْمَانِ قَالَتْ مَا أَخَذْتُ قٓ وَالْقُرْآنِ الْمَجِيدِ إِلَّا عَنْ لِسَانِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْرَأُهَا كُلَّ جُمُعَةٍ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ إِذَا خَطَبَ النَّاسَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1409. Sayyidah Umm Hisham رضی الله عنه daughter of Marithah ibn an-Numan narrated that she learned the surah (Qaaf) (قٓ وَالْقُرْآنِ الْمَجِيْدِ) only from the tongue of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم who recited (parts of) it every Friday on the pulpit while delivering the sermon to the people. [1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم recited portions of this surah on Friday. Sayyidah Umm Hisham رضی الله عنه learnt it from him over several Fridays.

(١٤١٠) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ حُرَيْثٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَطَبَ وَعَلَيْهِ عِمَامَةٌ سَوْدَاءُ قَدْ أَرْخَى طَرَفَيْهَا بَيْنَ كَتِفَيْهِ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1410. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Hurayth رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم wore a black turban while delivering the sermon on Friday. He let hang the two ends of it between his shoulders. 91)[2]

COMMENTARY: According to a weak hadith, if a salah is offered with the turban on the head then it is better than seventy salahs without a turban.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله concludes from this hadith that it is sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم) to a dorn oneself on Friday and to don nice garments and wear a black turban with its ends suspended on both shoulders.

Mirak said that this sermon was delivered by the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم during his last illness.

Zil'i رحمه الله said that it is sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم) to wear black garments.

The author of Madkhal' said that the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم turban was seven cubits in length.

Suyuti رحمه الله has named the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنه and the tabirun who wore a black turban. They included sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه ibn Maalik رضی الله عنه Ammar ibn Yasar رضی الله عنه, Muawiyah رضی الله عنه Abu Darda رضی الله عنه, Bakr رضی الله عنه, Abdur Rahman ibn Awf, رضی الله عنه Wathilah, رضی الله عنه Sareed ibn Jubayr, and others.

Nawawi رحمه الله said that it is allowed to wear the turban in two ways:

With the ends hanging on the shoulders or not hanging. Neither of the ways is makruh (unbecoming).

TAHIYAT UL-MASJID DURING THE SERMON

(١٤١١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ يَخْطُبُ إِذَا جَآءَ أَحَدُكُمْ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَالْإِمَامُ يَخْطُبُ فَلْيَرْكَعْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَلْيَتَجَوَّزْ فِيْهِمَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1411. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that, while delivering a sermon, Allah's

Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When any of you comes on Friday and the imam is delivering a sermon, he must offer two raka'at salah but must make them brief.[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله said that this hadith is about the tahiyat ul-masjid and it is wajib (expedient) to offer it even while the imam is delivering the sermon. Imam Ahmad held the same opinion.

The Hanafis do not regard the salah of tahiyatul masjid as wajib (expedient) at all whether during a sermon or otherwise. Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Sufyan Thawri رضى الله عنه and the tabiri subscribed to this view.

These people say that his hadith allows the tabiyat ul-Masjid when the imam arises for the sermon with intention to deliver it but not when he is actually delivering it. They are supported by the ahadith that disallow salah during the sermon. For instance, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said. "When the imam comes out (for the sermon towards the pulpit) neither is conversation nor salah proper." Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه and Umar رضى الله عنه also regarded speech and salah as makruh (unbecoming) once the imam comes out. The sayings of the sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه are evidence and it is wajib (expedient) to emulate them provided they do not contradict a sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم).

A hadith is transmitted by Bukhari and Muslim through Multiple lines of narrators that a man comes to the mosque when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was delivering a sermon. He asked him if he had offered the salah (of tahiyat ul masjid) and he said, 'No' The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed him to offer two raka'at and make them brief. This is explained by suggesting that it happened when offering salah during the sermon was not disallowed. Or, perhaps this permission was given exclusively to this man. Some people say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had not commenced the sermon at that time.

Shaykh Ibn Hammam رحمه الله explained it in a more reasonable manner. He said, "Perhaps the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had stopped the sermon till that man had finished offering the salah."

This opinion is not merely a conjecture but something of Daraqutni makes it very plain and clear : "The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "Offer two raka'at salah and he observed silence till the man finished his salah (Afther that, he resumed the sermon)."

EVEN ONE RAKA'AH WITH THE IMAM

(١٤١٢) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَدْرَكَ رَكْعَةً مِّنَ الصَّلَاةِ مَعَ الْإِمَامِ فَقَدْ أَدْرَكَ الصَّلَاةَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1412. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone gets (only) one raka'at of the salah with the imam then has offered the entire salah with the imam.[2]

COMMENTARY: This command applies to all the salahs, not merely Friday.

Su hadith # 1148. However, Imam Sahfi'i رحمه الله has interpreted it as referring exclusively to Friday, basing his conclusion on the hadith of Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه (# 1419) at the end of this chapter.

The well known book of the fiqh Hanfiyah Hidayah, writes that whatever portion of the salah a man gets with the imam on Friday, he should offer it with the imam and regard it as the base of Friday and complete the rest. Thus if anyone catches the imam when he is at the end of the salah reciting the at - tahiyat or making the sajdah sahw (prostration of for get fullness), then he must join the imam. That is his portion of Friday salah and then he must complete the rest of it. This is also the contention of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Abu Yusuf, رضى الله عنه but Imam Muhammad رحمه الله said that if anyone gets most of the second raka'ah of the salah with the imam then that will be his base of the Friday salah but if he does not get most of the second raka'ah then he cannot make it a base of Friday, but he will have to make it his base for the salah of zuhr.

Most of the second raka'ah means the ruku of the second raka'ah. If he joins the imam by the ruku of the second ruka'ah then he gets most of this raka'ah.

If he joins him after he has raised he head from the ruku then he does not get of the most of the second raka'ah.

Shaykh Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that the hadith on which Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله base their foregoing contention is a general hadith and it is not specific to Friday.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِیْ

STYLE OF THE KHUTBAH

(١٤١٣) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْطُبُ خُطْبَتَيْنِ كَانَ يَجْلِسُ إِذَا صَعِدَ الْمِنْبَرَ حَتّٰى يَفْرُغَ أُرَاهُ الْمُؤَذِّنَ ثُمَّ يَقُوْمُ فَيَخْطُبُ ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ وَلَا يَتَكَلَّمُ ثُمَّ يَقُوْمُ يَخْطُبُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1413. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to deliver two sermons. He sat down on ascending the pulpit till he finished, (the sub-narrator said that) the narrator meant the mua'dhdhin (finished). Then he stood up and delivered the sermon. Then he sat down and did not say anything. Then he stood up and delivered the sermon.[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that it is mustahab to deliver the sermon standing on the pulpit. As for sitting between the two sermons, Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that it is better to sit for the time it takes to recite surah al-Ikhlas.While sitting the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said nothing, made no supplication and did not recite anything.

It is mustahab in the second sermon to make supplication for the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم family and descendants, companions and wives the righteous Caliphs Sayyiduna Hamzah رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abbas رضى الله عنه. It is also allowed to pray for the ruling monarch, but according to Sharah Muniyah it is markruh tahrimi to praise kings with attributes that do not belong to them and are misplaced, for, that is sinful and adding falsehood to worship. In fact, some of our scholars have said that to call the kings of our times as just boarders on disbelief. While Shaykh Abdul Haq Muaddith Dahlawi رحمه الله concurs with the foregoing explanation about not speaking between two sermons, Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has cited Sharah Teebi to say that it is better to recite the verses of the Quran between the two sermons. According to a tradition in Ibn Hibban, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited the verses of Allah's Book when he sat down between the two sermons. So some people say that it is mustahab to recite surah al-Ikhlas during this (Short) period. Perhaps, Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمہ اللہ had not come across this tradition. When he expounded this portion of this hadith.

WORSHIPPERS SHOULD BE ATTENTIVE TO THE KHATIB DELIVERING THE SERMON

رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ لَا نَعْرِفُهُ اِلَّا مِنْ حَدِيْثِ مُحَمَّدِ ابْنِ الْفَضْلِ وَهُوَ ضَعِيْفٌ ذَاهِبُ الْحَدِيْثِ۔

1414. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sat down on the pulpit they turned their faces towards him. [1]

COMMENTARY: It is mustahab for the people to turn their faces towards the khatib. He too, should face the people and look at them while delivering the sermon.

According to the Hanafis when he ascends the pulpit he should not offer salutation to the people. But, Imam Shafi'i رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ disagree with this opinion.

DELIVER SERMON WHILE STANDING

قَائِمًا فَمَنْ نَبَّاَكَ اَنَّهُ كَانَ يَخْطُبُ جَالِسًا فَقَدْ كَذَبَ فَقَدْ وَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّيْتُ مَعَهُ اَكْثَرَ مِنْ اَلْفَي صَلَاةٍ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

1415. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم delivered the sermon standing, then he would sit down, then he would stand and deliver the (rest of the) sermon standing. "If anyone informs you that he delivered the sermon sitting, he has lied, for, indeed, by Allah, I offered salah along with him more than two thousand times, "he said. [2]

COMMENTARY: The two thousand plus salah include every salah besides the Friday salah. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the first Friday in Madinah and he resided here for ten years, so he offered not more than five hundred salah of Friday in Madinah. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ meant to say that he was with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for a very long period of time.

It is stated in Sharah Muniyah that if a city is conquered by force with the sword, as Makkah was then the khatib should carry a sword while delivering the sermon. If it surrenders willingly, as Madinah did, then he should not carry a sword.

It is written in Yanabi that the second sermon should be delivered in a voice lower than the voice during the first.

(١٤١٦) وَعَنْ كَعْبِ بْنِ عُجْرَةَ اَنَّهُ دَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ وَعَبْدُالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ اُمِّ الْحَكَمِ يَخْطُبُ قَاعِدًا فَقَالَ اُنْظُرُوْا اِلٰى هٰذَا

الْخَبِيْثِ يَخْطُبُ قَاعِدًا وَقَدْ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى وَاِذَا رَاَوْا تِجَارَةً اَوْلَهْوَا انْفَضُّوْا اِلَيْهَا وَتَرَكُوْكَ قَائِمًا۔ (رواہ مسلم)

1416. It is reported about Sayyiduna Karb ibn Ujrah رضی اللہ عنہ that he entered the mosque when (Sayyiduna) Abdur Rahman ibn Umm al-Hakam was delivering the sermon sitting. So, he remarked, "Look at this good-for nothing fellow delivering the sermon sitting though Allah has said:

{And when they saw some merchandise or sport, they flocked to it eagerly and left you (o Prophet) standing,}" (62:11)

COMMENTARY: A sever drought had gripped Madinah causing anxiety and misery to the Madinans. During those days while the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was delivering a sermon from the pulpit on Friday standing, suddenly a trade caravan from Shaam arrived. The Sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه who were in distress from hunger rushed out to look at the trade caravan, but twelve of them continued to listen to the sermon a attentively. The verse quoted in the hadith was revealed on this occasion.

Sayyiduna Ka'b رضى الله عنه meant to say that the sermon is delivered standing as is clear form these word from of Allah, Mighty and Glorious. It is also established through sahih ahadith. So, if this man ignores that and delivers the sermon sitting, there is no doubt that he is an evil man. "he said.

Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله said that it is a condition that the sermon must be delivered standing. Imam Abu hanifah رحمه الله said that it is a sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*.

TIME FOR SALAH AND SERMON: The correct time is one of the conditions for the Friday salah. Hence, the salah of Friday is not valid after its time while other salahs may be redeemed after their time expires. The time of Friday is as of zuhr. So, it is disallowed to offer the salah of Friday before its time, but Imam Ahmad ibn Hanbal رحمه الله regards it as correct. And as the time of are begins the salah of Friday is not valid, but the salah of Friday is not valid, but it is allowed in the view is of Imam Maalik رحمه الله.

This hadith is evidence that it is permitted to be stern with and angry on, one who perpetrates what is unlawful or makruh (unbecoming). To do the opposite of what the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was know to be doing is a sign of concealed wickedness.

HANDS SHOULD NOT BE RAISED

(١٤١٧) وَعَنْ عُمَارَةَ بْنِ رُوَيْبَةَ أَنَّهُ رَأَى بِشْرَ بْنَ مَرْوَانَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ رَافِعًا يَدَيْهِ فَقَالَ قَبَّحَ اللّٰهُ هَاتَيْنِ الْيَدَيْنِ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا يَزِيْدُ عَلَى أَنْ يَّقُوْلَ بِيَدِهٖ هٰكَذَا وَأَشَارَ بِأَصْبَعِهِ الْمُسَبِّحَةِ.

1417. Sayyiduna Umarah ibn Ruwaybah رضى الله عنه is reported to have seen Bishr ibn Marwan on the pulpit raising his hands (While delivering the sermon, as orators are want to do now a days). So, he remarked, "May Allah ruin these hands! I had seen Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم gesture not more than this much with his hand" - and he gestured with his fore finger. [1]

COMMENTARY: Bishr was defying the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*, Sayyiduna Ummarah رضى الله عنه was most displeased with it. He made it apparent with strong words. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made a very slight gesture only that people may pay attention and be encouraged to abide by his sayings.

SUMMONS DURING THE SERMON

(١٤١٨) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ لَمَّا اسْتَوٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ قَالَ اجْلِسُوْا فَسَمِعَ ذٰلِكَ ابْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ فَجَلَسَ عَلٰى بَابِ الْمَسْجِدِ فَرَاٰهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ تَعَالَ يَا عَبْدَاللّٰهِ بْنَ مَسْعُوْدٍ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1418. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that (once) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم settled on the pulpit and said (to the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنه, "Sit down!" Sayyiduna Ibn Masud Heard him and sat down (promptly) at the door of the mosque (where he was at that time). Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him and said, "Come here, O Abdullah ibn Mas'ud!"[1]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Teebi رضی الله عنه said that it is clear from this hadith that speech is allowed to one who stands on the pulpit to deliver the sermon. But, the Hanafis hold that it is not allowed to speak from the pulpit while standing for the sermon if the speech is not to enjoin piety. (But, even that must be in Arabic. It another language is used that would be makruh (unbecoming).

Ibn Hajar رضی الله عنه said that it seems that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم may have seen someone stand up to offer the salah. So, he commanded him to sit down because when the khatib is on the pulpit, it is forbidden to offer salah. All the ulama (Scholars) agree on this point.

MISSING THE SALAH OF FRIDAY

(١٤١٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَدْرَكَ مِنَ الْجُمُعَةِ رَكْعَةً فَلْيُصَلِّ اِلَيْهَا اُخْرٰى وَمَنْ فَاتَتْهُ الرَّكْعَتَانِ فَلْيُصَلِّ اَرْبَعًا اَوْقَالَ الظُّهْرَ۔ (رواه الدارقطنى)

1419. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone gets only one raka'ah of the Friday salah, then he must offer the other with it. It he misses two raka'ah then he must offer four (raka'ah). "Or, he said, "Zuhr."[2]

COMMENTARY: This issue has been explained against hadith # 1412.

CHAPTER - XLVII

SALAT UL-KHAWF (SALAH WHEN IN FEAR) بَابُ صَلٰوةِ الْخَوْفِ

The salah that is offered for fear of the infidels and at the time of an encounter with the enemy is called salat ul-khawf. It is confirmed through both the Book and the sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)*. Most ulama (Scholars) agree that it is valid even after the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم though some do say that this salah was allowed only during the times of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

Some scholars, like Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ say that the salat ul-Khawf is limited to a journey only but Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that it is valid both during a journey and at residence.

Ahadith about this salah are transmitted through as many as sixteen lines of transmission, or more or less. All of them are reliable.

Allamah Shamni رحمہ اللہ (شمنی) said that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the salah ul-khawf at four Places: Bhat ur-Riqa, Batn an-Nakh! Us fan and Dhu Qarad This shows that the salah al-khawf was peculiar to journey, but the jurist have ruled that it is allowed to offer it even at residence.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

(١٤٢٠) عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ غَزَوْتُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قِبَلَ نَجْدٍ فَوَازَيْنَا الْعَدُوَّ فصَا فَفْنَا لَهُمْ فَقَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّي لَنَا فَقَامَتْ طَائِفَةٌ مَّعَهُ وَاَقْبَلَتْ طَآئِفَةٌ عَلَى الْعَدُوِّ وَرَكَعَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمَنْ مَعَهُ وَسَجَدَ سَجْدَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ انْصَرَفُوْا مَكَانَ طَائِفَةِ الَّتِيْ لَمْ تُصَلِّ فَجَاءُوْا فَرَكَعَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِهِمْ رَكْعَةً وَسَجَدَ سَجْدَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ سَلَّمَ فَقَامَ كُلُّ وَّاحِدٍ مِّنْهُمْ فَرَكَعَ لِنَفْسِهٖ رَكْعَةً وَّسَجَدَ سَجْدَتَيْنِ وَرَوٰى نَافِعٌ نَحْوَهٗ وَزَادَ فَاِنْ كَانَ خَوْفٌ هُوَ اَشَدُّ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ صَلُّوْا رِجَالًا قِيَامًا عَلٰى اَقْدَامِهِمْ اَوْ رُكْبَانًا مُّسْتَقْبِلِي الْقِبْلَةِ اَوْغَيْرِ مُسْتَقْبِلِيْهَا قَالَ نَافِعٌ لَا اُرٰى ابْنَ عُمَرَ ذَكَرَ ذٰلِكَ اِلَّا عَنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه البخارى)

1420. Sayyiduna Saalim ibn Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated on the authority of his father (Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ that he (Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ went with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to wage battle at Najd. When they encountered the enemy, they formed lines facing them. Then Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stood up and led them in salah, a section standing up along with him while another faced the enemy. He (offered salah) making one ruku and two prostrations along with those who were with him. Then, they took the places of those who had not prayed (with him) and they came (to the salah) and he made one ruku and two prostrations with them. Then he gave the salutation and each of them stood up and made a ruku and two prostrations each by his self.

Nafi' رحمہ اللہ reported the like of it but added that (at the speak of the battle) when there was a greater danger than on that occasions, they offered the salah standing on their feet, or (if that was not possible) mounted, facing, the qiblah or (if that could not be done then) whichever direction they faced.

Nafi رحمه الله said that Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated this (tradition) from Allah's Messenger himself. [1]

COMMENTARY: Najd is the word for a highland. Here, it refers to of the Hijaz, not of Yemen. This hadith is evidence that to offer a number of congregational salahs, many times one after the other, is markruh particularly when all worshippers are present. This hadith is also evidence that it is not allowed to offer the fard (obligatory) salah behind one who offers an optional salah. If it was allowed, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would have led the two sections separately in salah.

This hadith is also evidence that the congregational salah is wajib (expedient). Even when locked in battle against an enemy, the congregational salah must not be abandoned.

Ibn Hamman رحمه الله said that the salat ul-Khawf must be offered in this way only when all the people insist on following the same imam. If this is not the case, then same imam. If this is not the case then it is better that one imam should lead one congregation through a complete salah and another imam should lead another congregation though a complete salah. As for the words and each of then stood up, some of the Hanafi ulama (Scholars) explain that the second section returned to face the enemy after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave the salutation and the first who had joined the first raka'ah returned to their place of prayer to complete the salah and each of them individually offered their remaining salah and gave the salutation and went back to face the enemy. Then the second section came and they too offered their remaining salah each by himself, gave the salutation and resumed their places against the enemy.

Ibn Malik رحمه الله said that some ulama (Scholars) give these details and method. So did Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله. Though the hadith does not give all details, Ibn Hamman رحمه الله said that it up holds one portion of Imam Abu Hanifah's رحمه الله verdict that the first section should go away after offering one raka'ah and the second should come and join the imam in the second raka'ah and while they are there, the imam completes his salah and give the salutation. However, the entire verdict of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and his complete method is proved through another tradition which is narrated by Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه in a mawquf manner. Imam Muhammad رحمه الله has reproduced the verdict and tradition of Abu Hanifah رحمه الله in his book kitab ul-Aathar.

The verdict of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and his detailed explanation is proved by a hadith mawquf. Since reason has no say in this chapter, so hadith mawquf too is of the same rank as hadith marfu.

Further, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله also holds that in the afore mentioned condition, the first section will complete their salah like the Iahiq without reciting the Quran while the second section will complete their with recitation of the Quran as the masbuq do. However, this is done when the salah is offered during a journey and the imam is a traveller, or the salah is made up of two raka'at. If the imam is a resident and the salah comprises four raka'at, then each of the two sections will offer two raka'at with the imam. If the salah is of three raka'at, like of maghrib, then, during a journey as well as at home, the first section will offer two raka'at with the imam and the second will offer one raka'ah. Each of them will then complete their salah in the way mentioned.

[1] Bukhari # 942, Nasai # 1539, Darini # 1521 Musnad Ahmad 2-150

The haidht concludes with the words that they stood on their feet.

This means that they did not perform ruku and sajdah. This means that in the condition mentioned, whether on foot or on mount, they would make the ruku and prostration by gesture.

This method is contrary to reasoning because walking mounting and battle invalidate the salah. It also calls for amal kathir (too many actions) and turning away from the qiblah. However, this is legal because this method of slat ul-khawf is known from the Quran and the sahih a*hadith* of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

ANOTHER METHOD

1421. Sayyiduna Yazid ibn Rooman narrated on the authority of Sayyiduna salih ibn Khawwat from him who had offered the salat ul-khawf along with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم at the battle of Dhat ur-Riqa that a section formed a row with him the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (for the salah) and another section faced the enemy. He led the section that was with him in one raka'at and then stood (waiting) till they finished the salah by themselves. Then, they went and formed ranks against the enemy. The other section came and he led them in the raka'at that remained in his salah. Then he sat still while they completed the salah by themselves and he gave the salutation with them. [1]

Bukhari transmitted it through another line of narrators: from al-Qasim, from Sarlih ibn Khawwat, from Sahl ibn Abu Hathmah from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

COMMENTARY: This man who had offered the salah with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the day of Dhat ur-Riqa was Sahl ibn Abu Hathmah رضى الله عنه. This expedition took place in 5AH, but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم retuned without engaging in battle.

The expedition is named Dhat ur -Riqa because the Muslims had gone on the expedition bare footed. In this way, they got wounds on their feet and broke their toe-nails, so they tied rags (رقاع) (riqa) on their feet. Hence, the name Dhat ur Riqa with the rags.

In this method, too each section offered one raka'ah along with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and one by themselves. The difference is that everyone offered his individual raka'ah while the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم continued to be in his salah while in the first method they had offered it after the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم salah was completed.

Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله have adopted this method as shown in this hadith.

(١٤٢٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ اَقْبَلْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى إِذَا كُنَّا بِذَاتِ الرِّقَاعِ قَالَ كُنَّا إِذَا اَتَيْنَا عَلٰى شَجَرَةٍ ظَلِيْلَةٍ تَرَكْنَا هَا لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فَجَاءَ رَجُلٌ مِّنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ وَسَيْفُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُعَلَّقٌ بِشَجَرَةٍ فَاَخَذَ سَيْفَ نَبِيِّ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاخْتَرَطَهٗ فَقَالَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتَخَافُنِيْ قَالَ لَا قَالَ فَمَنْ يَّمْنَعُكَ مِنِّيْ قَالَ اللّٰهُ يَمْنَعُنِيْ مِنْكَ قَالَ فَتَهَدَّدَهٗ اَصْحَابُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَغَمَّدَ السَّيْفَ وَعَلَّقَهٗ قَالَ فَنُوْدِىَ بِالصَّلٰوةِ فَصَلّٰى بِطَائِفَةٍ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ تَاَخَّرُوْا وَصَلّٰى بِالطَّائِفَةِ الْاُخْرٰى رَكْعَتَيْنِ قَالَ فَكَانَتْ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَرْبَعَ رَكَعَاتٍ وَلِلْقَوْمِ رَكْعَتَانِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1422. Sayyiduna Jabir narrated that they set out with Allah's Messenger till they were at Dhat ur-Riqa. There they came to a shady tree that they left for Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. A man from among the polytheists came there. The sword of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was hanging on a tree. He took the sword of Allah's Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and unsheathed it and asked Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Do you not fear me" He said, "No!" He asked, "Who will protect you from me?"He said,"Allah will save me from you. "The companions of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم warned him and he sheathed the sword and hung it up. The adhan was called for the salah (of zhur or asr) and he led section in two raka'at. So, that salah was four raka'at for Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and two raka'at for the people. [1]

COMMENTARY: This shows that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was very brave and courageous. He endured the persecution at the hands of the disbelievers with patience.

Waqidi رحمه الله said that when this idolater took the sword, he felt a severe pain in his back and he panicked. The sword dropped from his hand and he embraced Islam on undergoing this experience and was instrumental in guiding a large number of the creatures. However, Abu Awanah رضی الله عنه said that he did not embrace Islam but gave a pledge that he would never oppose the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

In any case, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not punish him. He forgave him. For, his aim was always to win over hearts.

Mawlana Mazhar رحمه الله said that the apparent difference in the two succeeding a*hadith* pertaining to the same expedition is because of the difference of time. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had offered salah twice on this occasion at two different times. He offered them in different ways. The hadith of Sayyiduna Sahl رضی الله عنه pertains to the salah of fajr and of Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه to the salah of zuhr or asr. Dr, the two traditions refer to two expeditions.

The ulama (Scholars) explain the hadith of Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه about the Prophet رضی الله

عنه offering four raka'at while other people offered only two. Perhaps, the verse of qasr (shortening of salah) had not been revealed till then or the salah of qasr was not wajib (expedient) at that place. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله prefers this last opinion, and the ulama (Scholars) say that the people offered two raka'at along with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the remaining two by themselves to complete the salah.

1423. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (once) led them in salat ul-khawf. They drew themselves up in two rows. The enemy was between them and the qiblah. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم called the takbir and they called the takbir together. Then, he made ruku and they made ruku all together and the raised his head from the ruku and they raised (their heads) all of them. Then he went in prostrations and the row that was immediately behind him went in prostrations while the row behind them stood facing the enemy. When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم finished the prostrations and the row behind him stood up. Then the row at the rear went down in prostrations and stood up. Then the near row came to the front and the row in front went to the rear. Then, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went into ruku and they all made ruku. Then he raised his head from the ruku and they all raised theirs. Then he went down in prostrations and the row immediately next ot him which had been in the rear in the first raka'at went down in prostrations while the row at the rear stood facing the enemy. When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم finished the prostrations and the row next to him (finished, too), the row at the rear went down and prostrated themselves. Then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave the salutation and they all gave the salutation. [1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the salat ul-khawf in a manner suitable to the occasion. In this cause the enemy was before them so they all stood together, offering the salah facing the enemy. The ulama (Scholars) say that this salah of fear was observed at us fan.

SECTION II ٱلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

(١٤٢٤) عَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُصَلِّيْ بِالنَّاسِ صَلَاةَ الظُّهْرِ فِي الْخَوْفِ بِبَطْنِ نَخْلٍ فَصَلّٰى بِطَآئِفَةٍ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ سَلَّمَ ثُمَّ جَآءَ طَائِفَةٌ اُخْرٰى فَصَلّٰى بِهِمْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ سَلَّمَ۔ (رواه شرح السنة)

1424. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the salah of zuhr when in danger (fear of enemy) at Batn Nakhl. He led a section (of people) through two raka'at culminating with the salutation. Then another section came and he led them, too, through two raka'at and made the salutation.[1]

COMMENTARY: Batn Nakhl is a place between Makkah and Madinah. Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله said that this hadith is based on the fact that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the shortened (or qasr) salah, meaning that he offered two raka'at instead of four and then offered two raka'at optional salah. Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله holds that fard (obligatory) salah may be offered behind one who offers the optional salah.

The Hanafis say that this was not a shortened salah and that fard (obligatory) salah cannot be offered behind one who offers the optional salah. This was the salah that is offered at residence and the reason that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave the salutation at the end of two raka'at may be presumed to be specific to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. this is not allowed to others so those people offered their remaining two raka'at on their own and, in this way, they too completed four raka'at.

The explanation of Imam Tahawi رحمه الله is very reasonable. He said that this case pertains to the time when a fard (obligatory) salah could be offered twice.

1425. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم halted between Dujnan and usfan. There, the idolaters said, "To these people, a salah is dearer than their fathers and their sons, and it is the salah of asr. So combine your strategy and attack them in a single onslaught. "Jibril عليه السلام came to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and instructed him to divide his sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه in two sections and lead one section in salah and let the other stand behind them holding their weapons. (Then he should lead the second section and the first should stand guard.) So, they mould offer one raka'at and Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم would offer two. [1]

COMMENTARY: Dajnan is a mountain between Makkah and Madinah. Usfan is a place about two leagues from Makkah (or two stages of journey).

CHAPTER - XLVIII

SALAH OF THE TWO EEDS بَابُ صَلٰوةِ الْعِيْدَيْنِ

The first of Shawwal is the day of eed ul-fitr and the tenth of Dhul-Hajjah is eed ul-adha. The two together are eedayn (عيدين) two eeds. The two dates are days of festival and happiness in Islam. Two raka'ah salah are offered on each of these days, and they are wajib (expedient) in the sight of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله. But Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله and other scholars hold them to be sunnah muwakkadah(compulsory).

The word eed (عيد) is derived from (عود) awd. It means coming repeatedly. This day comes every year. Also, Allah turns to His slaves with mercy and forgiveness. These are some words of a saintly nature about eed:

لَيْسَ الْعِيْدُ لِمَنْ لَبِسَ الْجَدِيْدَ اِنَّمَا الْعِيْدُ لِمَنْ اٰمَنَ مِنَ الْوَعِيْدِ، لَيْسَ الْعِيْدُ لِمَنْ تَنَجَّرَ بِالْعُوْدِ اِنَّمَا الْعِيْدُ لِلتَّائِبِ الَّذِیْ لَا يَعُوْدُ لَيْسَ الْعِيْدُ لِمَنْ تَزَيَّنَ بِزِيْنَةِ الدُّنْيَا اِنَّمَا الْعِيْدُ لِمَنْ تَزَوَّدَ بِزَادِ التَّقْوٰى۔ لَيْسَ الْعِيْدُ لِمَنْ رَكِبَ الْمَطَايَا اِنَّمَا الْعِيْدُ لِمَنْ تَرَكَ الْخَطَايَا لَيْسَ الْعِيْدُ لِمَنْ بَسَطَ الْبِسَاطَ اِنَّمَا الْعِيْدُ لِمَنْ جَاوَزَ الصِّرَاطَ۔

Eed is not for one who dons new garments, but eed is only for him who lives in peace and is safe from the warning. (He abstains from bad deeds to earn Allah's mercy and forgiveness and be safe from His punishment.)

Eed in not for one who applies the perfume awd, but eed is only for one who repents and does not repeat the sin.

Eed is not for one who adorns with the luxuries of the world, but eed is only for one who fears Allah and is righteous to amass provision for the hereafter.

Eed is not for one who rides conveyances, but eed is only for one who abandons sin.

Eed is not for one who spreads carpets (for luxury), but eed is for one who will go over the sirat (bridge over hell) safely.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

SALAH OF THE TWO EEDS

(١٤٢٦) عَنْ اَبِیْ سَعِيْدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْرُجُ يَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ وَ الْاَضْحٰى اِلَى الْمُصَلّٰى فَاَوَّلُ شَيْءٍ يَبْدَأُ بِهِ الصَّلَاةُ ثُمَّ يَنْصَرِفُ فَيَقُوْمُ مُقَابِلَ النَّاسِ وَالنَّاسُ جُلُوْسٌ عَلٰى صُفُوْفِهِمْ فَيَعِظُهُمْ وَ يُوْصِيْهِمْ وَيَأْمُرُهُمْ وَاِنْ كَانَ يُرِيْدُ اَنْ يَّقْطَعَ بَعْثًا قَطَعَهُ اَوْيَأْمُرُهُمْ بِشَيْءٍ اَمَرَ بِهٖ ثُمَّ يَنْصَرِفُ۔ (متفق عليه)

1426. Sayyiduna Abu Sareed al-Khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would go out on the day of (eed) ul-fitr and of leed ul-adha to the place of the salah. The first thing that he did was to offer the salah. As soon as he finished, he would stand facing the people while they remained seated in their rows. He would exhort them, give them instructions and advice, and issue commands to them. If he had to send out an army (for jihad), he would send them. If he issued the orders. Then he would depart.[1]

COMMENTARY: The place for the salah of eed was outside the city of Madinah. It was about one thousand steps from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم home. It is a very sacred place. It is row surrounded by four walls.

It is stated in Sharh us-sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) that the ruling imam must go to the place of salah for the salah of the two eeds. If he is precluded by something then he must lead the salah in the mosque within the city. Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that for the ruling imam it is massun that he should go himself to the place of the salah for eed and depute someone to lead the weak people in salah within the city. However, Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that the question of going to the place of salah of eed pertains to cities part from the Masjid Haram and Bayt ul-Maqdis because it is better to offer every salah in these mosque owing to their sanctity and greatness and also to emulate the sahabah (companions) رحمه الله and the tabirun رحمه الله.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would stand after he finished the salah to deliver the sermon. He stood on the ground because there was no pulpit in the place of the eed salah during those days. Later when the Muslims grew in number, arrangements were made at the places of the eed salah for pulpits. The voice carries far when the sermon is delivered after standing on the pulpit.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exnorted the people to adopt asceticism and work for the here after. He preached so that they might not he carried away on the festival and engage in celebration to neglect obedience.

He also urged them to adopt taqwa, a God-fearing attitude. The least degree of taqwa is to keep away from polytheism. The next from is obedience to Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and abstinence from the disallowed things. The highest degree of taqwa is to be turned to Allan constantly and to be independent of all others.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would also issue commands and instructions on matters of the state and public interest. On eed ul-fitr, he gave instructions for the fitrah and on eed ul-adha for slaughtering and sacrifice.

(١٤٢٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ صَلَّيْتُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْعِيْدَيْنِ غَيْرَ مَرَّةٍ وَلَا مَرَّتَيْنِ بِغَيْرِ أَذَانٍ وَلَا إِقَامَةٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1427. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضى الله عنه narrated thai he offered the salah of the two eeds along with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم not once or twice (but ofter) without the adhan or the iqamah being called.[2]

COMMENTARY: Similarly, there is no adhan or iqamah for optional salah. The kitab Azhar says that it is makruh (unbecoming) to call adhan or iqamah.

SERMON AFTER EED SALAH

(١٤٢٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَبُوْ بَكْرٍ وَّ عُمَرَ يُصَلُّوْنَ الْعِيْدَيْنِ قَبْلَ الْخُطْبَةِ۔

1428. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and (Sayyiduna) Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to offer the salah of the two eeds before the sermon. [1]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Mundhir رحمہ اللہ said that it is not allowed to deliver the sermon before the salah of the eed but if anyone does that then the salah would have been offered properly. Marwan ibn Hakam as governor of Madinah delivered the sermon before the salh, and the sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہ regarded his action as bad.

ADHAN AND IQAMAH NOT LEGAL FOR EED SALAH

1429. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ was asked, "Had you witnessed (the salah of) eed along with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came out and offered the salah. Then he delivered the sermon." Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ did not mention the adhan and the iqamah. "Then, he went to the (group of) women, preferred them advice and admonition and instructed them to give charity. So, I saw them stretch their hands to their ears and necks and give (jewellerry) to Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ (to disburse among the poor on their behalf). Then, he and Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ went to his home.[2]

COMMENTARY: In the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم times, women also attended the eed salah. After addressing the men, he went to the women's section to address them because his voice had not been heard by them.

ABOUT OPTIONAL SALAH

(١٤٣٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلّٰى يَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ لَمْ يُصَلِّ قَبْلَهُمَا وَلَا بَعْدَهُمَا۔ (متفق علیه)

1430. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered two raka'at on the day of eed ul-fitr and did not offer any salah before and after that.[3]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Hammam رحمہ اللہ said that the disallowance is limited to the place of eed salah because Sayyiduna Abu Saeed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not offer (optional) salah before the salah of eed. When he went home (from the place of eed salah), however, he offered two raka'at there. It is stated in Durr Mukhtar that it is absolutely makruh (unbecoming) to offer optional salah before the salah of eed, both at the place of eed, it is

1431. Sayyidah Umm "Atiyah رضی الله عنه narrated, "We were instructed to take the women, who experienced menstruation (or, had grown to that age) and who observed the veil, on the days of the two eeds to attend the congregational salah of the Muslims and their supplication. However, those experiencing the menses were to keep apart from their place of salah. One woman submitted, O Messenger of Allah, one of us does not have the covering sheet (or, stole). "He said, Her neighbour may share with her, [1]

COMMENTARY: Khattabi رحمه الله said that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم instructed all women to go to the place of eed salah so that those who have no excuse may participate and those who have an excuse may earn the blessing of salah and supplication. Hence, women are exhorted to participate in the salah. Sermon and lectures of the scholars so that they may earn blessings of these pious men of Allah. However, In current times it is not mustahab for women to go to the place of eed salah to avoid mischief and corruption.

Imam Tahawi رحمه الله said that during the times of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم women were allowed to go to the place of the eed salah because that was the early period of Islam and Muslims were very few in number, so if the women also attended the congregational salah, a large gathering would be witnessed to overawe the infidels. Hence, since this is not necessary now-a-days, the ulama (Scholars) disallow women for many wrongs could be perpetrated, they went.

(١٤٣٢) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ اِنَّ اَبَا بَكْرٍ دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا وَعِنْدَهَا جَارِيَتَانِ فِيْ اَيَّامِ مِنًى تُدَفِّفَانِ وَ تَضْرِبَانِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ تُغَنِّيَانِ بِمَا تَقَاوَلَتِ الْاَنْصَارُ يَوْمَ بُعَاثَ وَالنَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُتَغَشٍّ بِثَوْبِهٖ فَانْتَهَرَهُمَا اَبُوْبَكْرٍ فَكَشَفَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ وَجْهِهٖ فَقَالَ دَعْهُمَا يَا اَبَا بَكْرٍ فَاِنَّهَا اَيَّامُ عِيْدٍ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ يَااَبَا بَكْرٍ اِنَّ لِكُلِّ قَوْمٍ عِيْدًا وَهٰذَا عِيْدُنَا۔ (متفق علیه)

1432. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه narrated that during the days of Mina (when the pilgrims half there and which are called days of tashriq, and eed ul-adha is among them), Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه visited her and she had too girls with her. They were beating the duff (tambourine). According to another version: They were singing the poem recited by the Ansars during the battle of Buath and the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was (lying down) with his face covered. Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه scolded the girls (for singing and beating the tambourine), but, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم uncovered his face and said, "Let them both alone, O Abu Bakr, for, these are days of eed." According to a version (he said), "O Abu Bakr, for every people, there is a eed, and this is our eed,"[1]

COMMENTARY: Some translations have that the girls beat the tambourine and skipped in a playful manner.

As for beating the tambourine, the ulama (Scholars) have two opinions (i) It is absolutely permitted at any time and any occasion. (ii) It is absolutely forbidden.

The correct ruling is that it is allowed in a wedding or any occasion of the same kind, and on the day of eed, Moreover, the ulama (Scholars) say that if the duff (tambourine) has bells, then it is makruh (unbecoming) to beat it, but not otherwise, though they differ even about the bell type.

The girls sang or recited the poem about bravery that were composed during the battle of Bueath. They were war songs. Burah is a place two miles from Madinah. The battle was fought during the jahiliyah between Aws and Khazraj. The tribe Aws emerged victorious.

The poem was not indecent. Its verses recalled examples of bravery and urged the believers to wage jihad. If not, then these girls would not have dared to sing indecent songs in the presence of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

A version of Bukhari رحمه الله makes it clear. It says (وليستابمغنيتين) (they were not professional singers).

It is stated in Bukhari that Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه said to them, "Do you play the devils musical instrument in front of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم?" He compared it to a devils musical instrument because, like the devil, the musical instrument diverts the human heart from remembrance of Allah to play and unlawful desires.

The comparison to days of eed of other people is only by way of example. It does not imply that their deeds and ways must be copied. The ulama (Scholars) say that to adopt practices that resemble non-Muslims is itself an act of disbelief. This includes all things contrary to Shari'ah (divine law), exaggerated adornment men applying henna dancing and all such things.

WRONG CONCLUSION: The qawwals (or singers of mystical songs) have misunderstood this hadith. They regard the use of drums, harmonium and such things as allowed with their singing in chorus. But, this hadith certainly does not mean what they say. Clearly, Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه regarded singing in any form as disallowed and he presumed that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sleeping so did not stop them.

Rather, he was unaware that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had give permission to recite verses in a simply way that had nothing to do with singing and amusement.

In a nutshell, the hadith permits reciting of verses of poetry on the day of eed or any such day when it is permitted to celebrate within limits of Sharah. We must also realise that this case pertains to a specific place and time and it does not follow from it that singing and music are allowed altogether.

Some people say that this hadith proves that a short, brief beating of duff and mystical rhyming, or qawwali, on a special occasion, is not disallowed, but a constant involvement is makruh (unbecoming) because it takes away the attribute of taqwe and high manners. The result is that one who does it downgrades himself in the eyes of Shariah.

Ibn Maalik رحمه الله says that duff is allowed according to this hadith, if it is without the ringing bells, and if it is used rarely for a short time. Also, it is allowed to recite such poetry as does not speak ill of anyone and is not indecent. It is stated in Fatawa Qadikhan that it is a sin to listen to music in the light of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "It is wrong to listen to music. It is a sin to participate in a gathering where it is played and it is disbelief to enjoy it."

However, if anyone happens to listen to music without intending to do so, then it is not a sin. But, one must try one's best to preserve oneself from listening to it. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to put his fingers in his ears at such times.

The ulama (Scholars) say that it is markruh to recite Arabic verses of pre. Islamic days which are made up of indecent and vulgar topics, like of wine, love, so on.

A great muhaddith has written exhaustively on the issue of listening and singing and mystical rendering while explaining this hadith. We present a summary of that.

He writes: It is clear from this hadith that to play the duff and to sing is disallowed, but on some occasions. Like eed or other happy times, like wedding, it is allowed to a certain limit. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was the most excellent of the sahabah (companions). He knew the commands of religion very well and he termed singing as the reed of the devil. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم dissuaded him but did not disallow him to call singing the devil's reed.' The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed him only to make allowances for the day of eed. In other words, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not reject the words of Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and he meant that a very small degree of singing and music in which those girls were involved should be exempted that particular day from the prohibition. And, if the girls recite in rhyming verses the praise of courageous conduct keeping themselves within the limits of Shariah and manners, then there is no harm in that. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not himself take any interest in the activity of those girls, and he also did not incline Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to take interest in it. Rather, he displayed no concern with it and though his conduct he indicated that, even on that day. It was disallowed.

Hence this is not an absolute evidence of permission to sing and play music and to listen to it though some people go to lengths to extract their meaning from this hadith.

This was the explanation of the hadith. Now, let us turn to the real question and see what our predecessors said.

The issue of (سمع و غنا) (music vocal or instrumental, and songs) has continued to draw different verdicts from the scholars and jurists. The sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه and the tabi'un رحمه الله too had conflicting opinions about it, but the great, glorious sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه were unanimous about its being disallowed and distasteful. They said that the words of the Quran:

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يَّشْتَرِىْ لَهْوَ الْحَدِيْثِ

{And of mankind is he who buys frivolous discourse}(31:6) mean songs and amusement.

So much so that Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Ibn Masrud رضى الله عنه say on oath that these Quranic words do mean songs and amusement. So, too, Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and Mujahid رحمه الله said that the devil's voice in the following words means song and amusement:

وَاسْتَفْزِزْ مَنِ اسْتَطَعْتَ مِنْهُمْ بِصَوْتِكَ

{And startle whom you can of them by your voice...}(17:64)

Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to forbid singing and listening to songs.

Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "If anyone who has a singing girl with him dies then do not offer his funeral salah."

Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not buy or sell singing girls and do not teach them (keep away from them completely). " This is like the verse (31:6) I

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يَّشْتَرِىْ لَهْوَ الْحَدِيْثِ

Translated previously.

The ulama (Scholars) say that the ahadith that permit singing and amusement belong to the period before they were disallowed. When this verse was revealed and singing was forbidden those ahadith were abrogated.

Sayyiduna Ibn Masrud رضی اللہ عنہ said "Songs grow hypocrisy in the same manner as water grows herbage."

Sayyiduna Jabir said "Just as water cultivates fields, so songs grow hypocrisy".

Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said "Songs, play and amusement grow hypocrisy in the heart just as water grows grass."

Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "love of songs grows hypocrisy in the heart as water grows grass."

The word hypocrisy in these sayings means the practical hypocrisy which belies the apparent conditions and conceals the longing for sins. Fudayl ibn Iyad said, "Songs are the introduction to adultery,"

There are many other sayings of the sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہ and the tabi'un رضی اللہ عنہ of a similar kind. The jurists too have emphasized its disallowance very strongly. Indeed, the unanimous and well-known correct verdict of the four imams is that singing is makruh (unbecoming) though they have also said that it is disallowed.

Qadi Abu Latif رحمہ اللہ has cited Sha'bi رحمہ اللہ Sufyan Thawri رحمہ اللہ, Hammad رحمہ اللہ, and Fakhi رحمہ اللہ as saying that this (singing) is forbidden.

Allamah Baghawi رحمہ اللہ has confirmed is his exegesis Muslim ut-Tanzil, "Singing is forbidden according to the four imams."

Allamah Qurtubi رحمہ اللہ said that there is no difference of opinion that singing (songs) is forbidden, because it is of the family of play and amusement.

It is blamed by everyone of course, the song that is free of the unlawful contents is allowed to some extent in weddings, eed and similar functions. One section of the ulama (Scholars) incline to subscribe to the permission of songs.

Let us clarify that this discourse is about the singing and songs and amusement, and on which opinions about prohibition and permission differ. They are songs that singers sing as an art and profession. They sing songs only to arouse emotions and delight in the heart of the people. These songs mention the forbidden thing only.

Those songs are permissible as are made up of pure verses which instill in the hearts spiritual awakening. They do not have any of the forbidden and disliked things. Examples are hamd (praise of Allah's) Na't (description of the attributes of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, mention of the sanctity of the two sacred mosques (of Makkah and Madinah) or of other sacred things, merits of jihad and the filed of jihad like spurring camels, hostility in war, horse riding. Other examples include songs to delight children and to put them to sleep, lawful description of religious men, to remove tedium of the journey and to demonstrate happiness. These poem may be recited in rhyme in a sing-song way. Rather, it is mustahab to do so, because they promote pious and positive deed.

Those people who hold that singing is permitted attribute it to most of the sahabah (companions) رحمه الله tabiun رحمه الله, scholars of hadith and the ulama (Scholars) who are abstinent and God-fearing. These people say that the imam and others who use stern language against songs really means those songs that are indecent and contrary to Shariah, like those accompanied with musical instruments. This will reconcile their words and deeds because they too are known to hear songs.

There also is a difference of opinion between the sayings and deeds if the religions men and Shaykh if earlier times and of the religious men and Shaykh of later times. The former abstained from these things but some of the latter were beginners of sama (mystical songs, etc.) We can have an idea about the saying and deed of the former from this example of Hammad رحمه الله who was glorious Shaykh of saintly line of the Qadiyah, he was on his way for the Friday salah when his ears picked up sound of ringing. he paused and asked himself what wrong he had committed that day for which he was being punished, but he could not recall any thing wrong. When he returned home later, he resumed his investigation. Much later, he learn that a bowl had been purchased and it had on it a picture and said, "this is why I was punished (and the sound of songs was heard by me)"

Shaykh Ghaws ul Azam رحمه الله also regarded it is makruh (unbecoming).

Shaykh shibli رضى الله عنه was asked once, "Is singing permitted? He retorted, is singing true? (He went if the song had no topic violating Shari'ah (divine law) and good manners). He was told No! He said " if it is enough for it to be makruh (unbecoming) that it arouses it, senses are numbelaid manners surfaces. Rather desires evil feelings and sensual desires and an inclination to women. the evil self loves It, is best for a believer in Allah and the last day to occupy in the remembrance of Allah."

Shaykh Abu Al-Hasan shadili, the pioneer of the shadili line of saints, said," "Those who are occupied in sama (Arabic) and partake the food of the oppressors possess a Portion of Jewism of which Allah says:

سَمّٰعُوْنَ لِلْكَذِبِ اَكّٰلُوْنَ لِلسُّحْتِ

{They are listeners to falsehood, devourers of the unlawful} (5:42)

Imam Ghazali said that there are several degrees of sama?

(i) It is absolutely forbidden to the youth because base desires have a strong say on their temperament. So, instead of having a good effect on them, it pushes them deeper in the Evil of base desires and longing.

(ii) It is makruh (unbecoming) for one who is often engaged in sama as a play and amusement.

(iii) It is permissible to one who is merely interested in rhyming and sweet sound.

(iv) It is recommended to one who is immersed in love of Allah and sama would produce good influence on him.

The shaykh of the chest line of saints were interested in sama but within the limits of etiquette and stipulations. They often listened to it in solitude without any stranger around. The shaykh ul- mashaykh, Khawaja Nizamuddin Awliya was also known to hear Sama but his gathering of sama was without musical, instruments and Qawal and such evils,

Anyway, the Sufi who allow sama, hold the view that it is permitted only to the lovers of Allah and they have outlined etiquette and conditions for it and defined one who is eligible to hear it.

As for the jurists and awliya (saintly men) condemning sama, they refer to the pleasing songs accompanied by musical instruments and such things not recognized by shariah to satisfy base desires, otherwise by itself a sweet rhyming rendering is not disallowed, for it is the true permitted act

We cannot also deny that while there are ills in such rhyming, advantages are not lacking. For example, songs soften unyielding hearts and create an interest and humility in worship. In spite of that, the predecessors did not advise a constant indulgence in it, for, it might lead people to prefer songs to worship, and the devil might spread his net through it to belittle obedience and Shar'iah in the, eyes of the subject who might end up on the wrong path. Hence, while sama is permitted yet it is disallowed because of the accompaniments that are unlawful, like women wine, flutes, reeds, drum, harmonium and so on.

Those people who involve themselves in these things under the impression of gaining divine awareness and love, only to satisfy their emotions and deprive themselves of diker and recitation of the Quran . They are deceived by their base self and the devil. They have strayed from the right path to the wrong path. Day by day, they go further from religion and shariah. How will they engage in more worship when their salah itself is lifeless and only a movement of limbs. In fact, they offer the salah out of necessity to be counted among the religious, or to show-off. Would that had concentrated on salah, fasting and other obligatory duties with a sincere resolve! In that way, at last they would have corrected their religion. People who advocate sama, refer to their elders and other saintly men as having occupied themselves in listening to sama, so they think that they are correct in emulating them. But this is nothing but self-deception. As for the elder, if they listened to sama , they were not selfish and had a check on themselves and they never did it constantly. They engaged in listening to it occasionally. Besides, they never gathered festive people around but listened to it in privacy and with a sincere mind. They never defend any form as essential to follow Moreover, how can compare ourselves with their Frame of mind and firm resolve and a high degree of religious standing. They are emulated only in this thing but not in their pure thought and peons deeds.

In reality, these people have no connection with the elders whom they name, nor does any relationship, as for those who do it because their forbears did it, this verse describe their condition truly:

(37:69-70)

Today, it has become a custom to celebrate us at the graves of the saints or awliya (friends of Allah) It is nothing but a camouflage to ear name and fame and engage in frivolity, dance and vulgarity The qawwals and singers haunt these place to make money. Do they ask3themselves if any elder or shaykh of olden times had done any such thing?

To add to it, they imagine that they draw near Allah by doing these things. Alas, would that they realised where they are heading!

Neither is it wajib (expedient) to obey souch people nor is it necessary to respect them. If they Are honoured then that would be tantamount to supporting their actions May Allah enable us to follow the path that He showed us through his Messenger .

DATE PIECE BEFORE EED SALAH

(١٤٣٣) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَغْدُوْ يَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ حَتّٰى يَأْكُلَ تَمَرَاتٍ وَيَاكُلُهُنَّ وِتْرًا۔ (رواه البخاری)

1433. Sayyinduna anis narrated that Allah's messenger did not go out (for the salah) on the day of al-fitr till he had eaten some dates. He would eat an odd number (of dates).[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet ate dates on the day of eed ul-fitr early. In this way, he showed the difference of day from the days of Ramadan because into as it is wajib (expedient) in Ramadan not to eat, on the day of eed it is wajib (expedient) to eat.
The prophet ate an odd number of dates, like three, five etc. It is batter to observe the odd number in every thing. Allah is witr and loves witr (the odd number)- see habit # 1266.
He ate the dates on that day because he had only dates at that time. Some people said that Dates are sweet and cause eye-sight to improve particularly on an empty stomach. The dates offset any weakness coursed by fasting.
Besides sweetmeat is campalible to the demands of faith. The ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone sees himself eating something sweet then he will enjoy the savior of faith. Also, something sweet softens the heart, so it is better break fast with it.

DEPARTURE& ARRIVAL FROM DIFFERENT PATHS

(١٤٣٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا كَانَ يَوْمُ عِيْدٍ خَالَفَ الطَّرِيْقَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1434. sayyiduna jabir narrated that on the day of eed, Allah s Messenger took different paths. [2]

COMMENTARY: he went to the place of eed salah by one road and returned, after prayers, by another thus, both the paths and the jinn and mankind dwelling on both, would testify to his worship. The ulama (Scholars) have written of many other reasons. But, all of them are mere conjectures. The actual reason is known only to Allah and his Messenger.

THE TIME OF SACRIFICE

(١٤٣٥) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ خَطَبَنَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ فَقَالَ اِنَّ اَوَّلَ مَانَبْدَاُ بِهٖ فِيْ يَوْمِنَا هٰذَا نُصَلِّيْ ثُمَّ نَرْجِعُ فَنَنْحَرَ فَمَنْ فَعَلَ ذٰلِكَ فَقَدْ اَصَابَ سُنَّتَنَا وَمَنْ ذَبَحَ قَبْلَ اَنْ نُصَلِّيَ فَاِنَّمَا هُوَ شَاةُ لَحْمٍ عَجَّلَهٗ لِاَهْلِهٖ لَيْسَ مِنَ النُّسُكِ فِيْ شَيْءٍ۔ (متفق علیه)

1435. Sayyiduna Al-Bare narrated that, on the day of sacrifice, the prophet delivered to them a sermon, he said, "the first thing with which we begin this day of ours is that we after the salah (of eed ul-adha). Then we return and sacrifice. So, he who does that has indeed, observed our Sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)* correctly. But, he who slaughters before we offer the salah, indeed, it is merely mutton that he hastened for his family and there is nothing of the rites (in it). [1]

COMMENTARY: the ulama (Scholars) says unanimously that sacrifice is not allowed before rise of fajr on the day of eed-ul-adha. However, they differ on the time of sacrifice afterwards. So, Imam shaf'i hold that when the sun is considerably high (a bows height) and enough Time has passed during which one may offer at least two raka'at and deliver short sermons, the time to make the sacrifice begins and it is allowed to do it their after, whether the eed salah has been offered or not. It is not allowed to make the sacrifice before the whether one resides in A city or a village. Also, according to Imam Shafi's the time for sacrifice is valid till sunset of the thirteenth of the month.

Imàm Abu Hanifah said that the time of sacrifice for city. Dwellers begins after the salah of eed and for villagers after rise of dawn. The valid time expires at the twelfth of the month. Imam shafi hold that sacrifice is not wajib (expedient), but sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) Imam Abu Hanifah hold that sacrifice is wajib (expedient) on every person who is sahib nisab (who hold the minimum amount of wealth or property when payment of zakat becomes liable), though the prophet doesn't appreciate in value.

(١٤٣٦) وَعَنْ جُنْدُبِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ الْبَجَلِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ ذَبَحَ قَبْلَ الصَّلَاةِ فَلْيَذْبَحْ مَكَانَهَا أُخْرٰى وَمَنْ لَمْ يَذْبَحْ حَتّٰى صَلَّيْنَا فَلْيَذْبَحْ عَلَى اسْمِ اللّٰهِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1436. Sayyiduna Jundub Ibn Abdullah al-Bajali narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone sacrifice before the salah (of eed), then he must sacrifice till we have offered the salah then he must sacrifice in the name of Allah (after the salah)." [2]

(١٤٣٧) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ ذَبَحَ قَبْلَ الصَّلَاةِ فَإِنَّمَا يَذْبَحُ لِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ ذَبَحَ بَعْدَ الصَّلَاةِ فَقَدْ تَمَّ نُسُكُهُ وَأَصَابَ سُنَّةَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1437. Sayyiduna Bara narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said," if any one sacrifices before the salah, he only sacrifice it for himself .he who sacrifices after the salah has, indeed, completed his rites and observed the practice of the Muslims correctly. [3]

COMMENTARY: Most of the ulama (Scholars) abide by this hadith but Imam shafi said that it is allowed to make the sacrifice when the time for it begins whether the salah is over or not as stated against the hadith #1435.

SACRIFICE AT PLACE OF SALAH

(١٤٣٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَذْبَحُ وَيَنْحَرُ بِالْمُصَلّٰى۔ (رواه البخاری)

1438. Sayyiduna Ibn umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to make the sacrifice and Slaughter at the place of eed salah. [4]

COMMENTARY: Sacrifice may be made of goat ram, sheep, cow, buffalo and camel, whether male or female, but of no other animal. These animals, except the camel are sacrificed (ذبح) while the camel is slaughtered (نحر). It is made to stand and a spear is struck

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

TWO FESTIVALS

(١٤٣٩) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَدِمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ وَلَهُمْ يَوْمَانِ يَلْعَبُوْنَ فِيْهِمَا فَقَالَ مَا هٰذَانِ الْيَوْمَانِ قَالُوْا كُنَّا نَلْعَبُ فِيْهِمَا فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ اَبْدَلَكُمُ اللّٰهُ بِهِمَا خَيْرًا مِّنْهُمَا يَوْمَ الْاَضْحٰى وَيَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1439. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that when the prophet came to Madinah, its people had two days on which they played. He asked, "What are these two days? "We used to play on them during the jahiliyah. He said, Allah has changed them for you with days better then them: the day of al adha and the day of al fitr.[1]

COMMENTARY: The two days were nawuz and Mihargan. The former is the new year's day in the Persian calendar. On this day the sun enters arise. The latter is the twenty -first day of the month, mihr. The climate is moderate on these days and days and nights are equal.

The prophet had those days abandoned and replaced them with the two eed days when happiness and worship are combined. This habit forbid play and amusement on the two days of eed. However, a simple, light indulgence is allowed within the limits of shariah with no kind of indecency.

This habit makes it very clear that it is disallowed to celebrate and sanctify the festivals of non-Muslims and to adopt their customs. It disallows participation in their festivals. Some ulama (Scholars) go to the extent of terming it an act of disbelief. Abu Hafs رحمه الله Kabir Hanafi said that if any one sanctifies Nawruz and presents to the idolaters the gift of an egg (pursuance of their custom) then he will be deeds are written off.

Qadi Abu al-Muhsin Ibn Mansur said that if anyone buys on this day such things as he dose not normally buy (and which are peculiar to this day) or sends a gift to sermon on this day) or send a gift to sermon on this day meaning to sanctify it as the polytheists do, then he is a disbeliever. If anyone buys something for his personal use or to give a gift that he is accustomed to give then he is not a disbeliever, but it is mukruh , it means a resemblance to the disbelievers and must be avoided.

Similarly, if anyone observes Aashurah as a day of joy then he resembles the Khwarij . if he mourns on this day then he resembles the Rawafid. So, he must ovoid both. The Rawafid join the Majusis in celebrating the Nawruz because they say that Sayyiduna Uthman رضی الله عنه was martyred on this day and Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه became the caliph.

'Fatawa Dhakirah declares that anyone who goes witness holy and diwali approaches disbelief. The some may be surmised of witnessing Nawruz.

Tajnis mention that if anyone praises or thinks of the creeds of the infidels as laudable then he inters the limits of disbelief. On this basis if anyone lauds or declares as correct the acts or sayings of a needy person or so. Called sufi as clearly against shariah then he too Is a disbeliever.

It is stated in Nawadir ul.Fatawa that if any one regard the customs of non-Muslim as good then he is a disbeliever. "umdatul 'Islam" also mention something similar.

[1] Abu Dawud#1134, Nasari#1556, Musnad Ahmad#3-103.

In short, all convictions and customs that have nothing to do Islam should be avoided.

MEALS ON EED DAYS

(١٤٤٠) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَخْرُجُ يَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ حَتّٰى يَطْعَمَ وَلَا يَطْعِمُ يَوْمَ الْاَضْحٰى حَتّٰى يُصَلِّيَ۔ (رواه الترمذی و ابن ماجة والدارمی)

1440. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی الله عنه narrated that on the day of eed ul- fitr the prophet did not go out (to the place of salah) without eating something , and , on the day of eed ul-adha he did not eat anything till he had offered the salah.[1]

COMMENTARY: Against the hadith # 433. We have mentioned why some fard (obligatory) is taken before the salah on eed ul-fitr. On eed ul-adha, the prophet ate after the salah so that he might share with the poor who got something to eat only after the sacrifice was made.

THE TAKBIRS

(١٤٤١) وَعَنْ كَثِيْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَبَّرَ فِي الْعِيْدَيْنِ فِي الْاُوْلٰى سَبْعًا قَبْلَ الْقِرَاءَةِ۔ (رواه الترمذی و ابن ماجة والدارمی)

1441. Sayyiduna Kathir ibn Abdullah narrated from his grandfather that at the two eeds the prophet called the takbirs seven times in the fist rakaah before reciting from the qui Quran.[2]

COMMENTARY: In the first rakaah, the prophet called seven takbirs before the takbir the reaction, apart from the takbir and the takbir of rukuh. In the second he called five takbirs, apart from the takbir of qayam and ruku. Imam Shafi abides by this nadith. Detailed comments will follow.

(١٤٤٢) وَعَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ مُرْسَلًا اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَبَا بَكْرٍ وَ عُمَرَ كَبَّرُوْا فِي الْعِيْدَيْنِ وَالْاِسْتِسْقَاءِ سَبْعًا وَخَمْسًا وَ صَلَّوْا قَبْلَ الْخُطْبَةِ وَجَهَرُوْا بِالْقِرَاءَةِ۔ (رواه الشافعی)

1442. Sayyiduna Jafar ibn Muhammad narrated in a mursal from that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and (Sayyiduna) Umar رضی الله عنه used to call the takbirs in the salah of two eed and of al -istisqa seven times (in the first raka'ah) and five times (in the second raka'ah) and offered the salah before the sermon. They recited the Quran in a audible voice. [3]

COMMENTARY: The narrator is Sayyiduna Jafar Sadiq ibn Muhammad Baqir ibn Ali رضی الله عنه. He was Imam Zayn ul Aabidin ibn Husayn ibn Ali رضی الله عنه.

[3] Musnad Shafi'I p 76

1443. Sayyiduna Saeed ibn al-Aas رحمه الله narrated that he asked Sayyiduna Abu Musa and Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضى الله عنه, how many takbirs did Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم call in the salah of eed-ul-adha and eed ul Fitr ? Abu Musa said," he called from takbirs as he did in the funeral salah hudhayfah رضى الله عنه Said "he spoke the truth.[1]

COMMENTARY: In the first rakaah before reciting the Quran, he called four takbir including the one for the ruku.

There are different ahadith for the takbir of eed salah, so the contention of the imams also differ. The three imam say that in the salah , there are seven takbirs in the first rakah and five in the second. According to Imam Malik and Imam Ahmad the seven takbirs of the first rakaah include takbir tahrimah and the five in the second include the takbir of Qayam .according to Imam Shafi رحمه الله the seven and five are apart from the takbir tahrimah and the takbir of Qiyam.

Imam Abu Hanifah said that there are three takbirs in the first rakaah apart from takbir tahrima and three in the second apart from the takbir of ruku. Sayyiduna Ibn Masud followed this while Ibn Abbas had an identical contention as of Imam shafi.

The ulma of the Hanafis said that they opted for the ahadith with fewer takbirs because the extra takbirs and rafa yadayn in the salah of eeds are after all ,against the normal , so ,it is preferable to go for a smaller number.

IMAM MAY LEAN THE STICK ETC.

1444. Sayyiduna al-Bura narrated that on the day of eed, the prophet was presented a bow. He leaned on it while delivering the sermon.[2]

COMMENTARY: The bow was used instead of a staff.

(١٤٤٥) وَعَنْ عَطَاءٍ مُرْسَلًا اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا خَطَبَ يَعْتَمِدُ عَلٰى عَنَزَتِهٖ اِعْتِمَادًا۔ (رواه الشافعى)

1445. Sayyiduna Ata narrated in a mursal form that the prophet on his spear when he delivered the sermon.[3]

(١٤٤٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ شَهِدْتُ الصَّلَاةَ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ يَوْمِ عِيْدٍ فَبَدَأَ بِالصَّلٰوةِ قَبْلَ الْخُطْبَةِ بِغَيْرِ اَذَانٍ وَّلَا اِقَامَةٍ فَلَمَّا قَضَى الصَّلٰوةَ قَامَ مُتَّكِئًا عَلٰى بِلَالٍ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَاَثْنٰى عَلَيْهِ وَوَعَظَ النَّاسَ وَذَكَّرَهُمْ وَحَثَّهُمْ عَلٰى طَاعَتِهٖ وَمَضٰى اِلَى النِّسَآءِ وَمَعَهٗ بِلَالٌ فَاَمَرَهُنَّ بِتَقْوَى اللّٰهِ وَوَعَظَهُنَّ وَذَكَّرَهُنَّ۔ (رواه النسائى)

1446. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that he was present at the salah on the day of eed along with the prophet. He began with the salah before the sermon with out the adhan ar the iqamah being called when he finished the salah he stood up leaning on bilal, praised Allah and glorified him. Gave counsel to the people , admonished them and extorted them to obey Allah .he then went to the women Bilal with him,

GOING TO PLACE OF SALAH

(رواہ الترمذی)

1447. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the prophet went on the day of eed (to the place of salah ,) he took one road and returned by another. [2]

COMMENTARY: See hadith # 1434. when going to the place of eed, one should say

اَللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ اللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ۔ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ اللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ وَلِلّٰهِ الْحَمْد

Imam Abu Hanifah said that at the eed ul fitr this must be uttered softy, but at eed ul adha loudly.

EED SALAH IN MOSQUE

(١٤٤٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّهُ اَصَابَهُمْ مَطَرٌ فِيْ يَوْمِ عِيْدٍ فَصَلّٰى بِهِمُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَاةَ الْعِيْدِ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد وابن ماجہ)

1448. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that on a uay of eed rain proud down, so the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم led (the sahabah (companions)) though the salah of eed I n the mosque.[3]

COMMENTARY: The prophet led the salah of eed outside the city the desert when it is better to offer it (meaning, at the place of salah for eed). If there is a valid reason it may be offered in the mosque.

However, in Makkah and Madinah it may be offered in the masjid Haram , Third is as done now a days.

TIMINGS

(١٤٤٩) وَعَنْ اَبِي الْحُوَيْرِثِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَتَبَ اِلٰى عَمْرِو بْنِ حَزْمٍ وَهُوَ بِنَجْرَانَ عَجِّلِ الْاَضْحٰى وَاَخِّرِ الْفِطْرَ وَذَكِّرِ النَّاسَ۔ (رواہ الشافعی)

1449. Sayyiduna Abu Al-Huwayrith رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah .s messenger wrote to (Sayyiduna) Amar Ibn Hazm رضی اللہ عنہ who was in Najran, "Hasten in offer the salah of eed ul adha but delay the salah of al fitr and give counsel to the people". [4]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had sent Sayyiduna Amr ibn Hazm رضی اللہ عنہ as governor of Najran when he was only seventeen year old.

DELAYED SIGHTING OF MOON

1450. Sayyiduna Abu Umayr ibn Anas رحمه الله narrated from his paternal uncles who were the Sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه of the prophet that some riders came to the prophet and bore testimony that they had seen the moon on the day gone. So, he instructed the sahabah (companions) to break the fast and they should go to the place of salah next morning. [1]

COMMENTARY: The moon was not sighted after the 29th of Ramdan , so the people fasted on the 30th. but, a caravan arrived that day and reported the sighting of the moon the previous night .since their testimony was received after zawal , the time for the salah of Eed was over. The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم accordingly commanded the people to attend the salah next morning.

Imam Abu Hanifah fellows this directive and holds that the time of salah of eed is from the time when the sun rises considerably till zawal.

According to sharh Muniyah if it cannot be held before zawal on eed day then it should be held next day and again it is not held before zawal then the eed salah may not be held at all. As for eed ul adha ,if it is not possible to offer it on the first and the second day , then it may be offered on the third day , in fact ,even if there is no reason the salah of eed ul adha may be post poned to the second or the tired day .but this is makruh (unbecoming).

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

NEITHER ADHAN NOR TAKBIR

(١٤٥١) عَنِ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ قَالَ اَخْبَرَنِىْ عَطَاءٌ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَا لَمْ يَكُنْ يُؤَذَّنُ يَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ وَلَا يَوْمَ الْاَضْحٰى ثُمَّ سَأَلْتُهُ يَعْنِىْ عَطَاءً بَعْدَ حِيْنٍ عَنْ ذٰلِكَ فَاَخْبَرَنِىْ قَالَ جَابِرُ بْنُ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ اَنْ لَّا اَذَانَ لِلصَّلَاةِ يَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ حِيْنَ يَخْرُجُ الْاِمَامُ وَلَا بَعْدَ مَا يَخْرُجُ وَلَا اِقَامَةَ وَلَا نِدَاءَ وَلَا شَيْءَ وَلَا نِدَاءَ يَوْمَئِذٍ وَّلَا اِقَامَةَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1451. Sayyiduna Ibn jurayj رحمه الله narrated that Sayyiduna Ata رحمه الله informed him on the authority of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه that the adhan is not called on the day of eedul-duha. Latter, he (again) asked Ata (after some time) and he said that (Sayyiduna) Jabir ibn Abdullah رحمه الله told him, " there is no adhan for the salah on eed-ul-fitr when the imam comes out and also after he comes out and no iqamah and no call of any kind . there is nothing -no call and no iqamah"

COMMENTARY: The hadith mentions no adhan no iqamah and no call. The call is to announce as salah as salah, or any such announcement. (Abdul Haq.)

However Mullah Ali qari said that (the call) refers to adhan and iqamah to emphasis the previous statement because all the ulama (Scholars) agree that it is must Ahab to announce on eed day instead of the adhan or takbir .

It might say that the word of shaykh Abdul Haq that no announcement should be made within the place of salah it self , Mulla Ali Qari means that it is must Ahab to make the announcement outside the place of salah.

(١٤٥٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَخْرُجُ يَوْمَ الْاَضْحٰى وَ يَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ فَيَبْدَأُ بِالصَّلَاةِ فَاِذَا صَلّٰى صَلَاتَهُ قَامَ فَاَقْبَلَ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَهُمْ جُلُوْسٌ فِيْ مُصَلَّاهُمْ فَاِنْ كَانَتْ لَهُ حَاجَةٌ بِبَعْثٍ ذَكَرَهُ لِلنَّاسِ اَوْكَانَتْ لَهُ حَاجَةٌ بِغَيْرِ ذٰلِكَ اَمَرَهُمْ بِهَا وَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ تَصَدَّقُوْا تَصَدَّقُوْا تَصَدَّقُوْا وَكَانَ اَكْثَرُ مَنْ يَّتَصَدَّقُ النِّسَاءُ ثُمَّ يَنْصَرِفُ فَلَمْ يَزَلْ كَذٰلِكَ حَتّٰى كَانَ مَرْوَانُ بْنُ الْحَكَمِ فَخَرَجْتُ مُخَاصِرًا مَرْوَانَ حَتّٰى اَتَيْنَا الْمُصَلّٰى فَاِذَا كَثِيْرُبْنُ الصَّلْتِ قَدْ بَنٰى مِنْبَرًا مِنْ طِيْنٍ وَلَبِنٍ فَاِذَا مَرْوَانُ يُنَازِعُنِيْ يَدَهٗ كَاَنَّهٗ يَجُرُّنِيْ نَحْوَا لْمِنْبَرِ وَ اَنَا اَجُرُّهٗ نَحْوَ الصَّلٰوةِ فَلَمَّا رَأَيْتُ ذٰلِكَ مِنْهُ قُلْتُ اَيْنَ الْاِبْتِدَاُ بِالصَّلَاةِ فَقَالَ لَا يَا اَبَاسَعِيْدٍ قَدْ تُرِكَ مَا تَعْلَمُ قُلْتُ كَلَّا وَالَّذِيْ نَفْسِيْ بِيَدِهٖ لَا تَأْتُوْنَ بِخَيْرٍ مِّمَّا اَعْلَمُ ثَلَاثَ مِرَارٍ ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1452. Sayyiduna Abu Saeed al khudri narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم would go out on the day of the eed ul adha and eed ul fitr and begin with salah. When he finished his salah he stood up and faced the people while they remained seated on their prayer mats 'if he intended to sand an expedition he mentioned that to the people .if he had any other intention besides that , he gave them commend for that . he used to say (during the sermon "give charity! Give charity !give charity the gives of most charity were women. Then he would depart.

This practice continued till Marwan ibn Hakam (became governor of Madina) Abu Saeed continued and said) I went out (once) hand in hand with Marwan till we came to the place of salah. Behold, Kathir ibn us-sult had built a pulpit of clay and brick. Marwan continued to pull me with his hand as thought towards the salah , when I observed that from him, I asked " where is the practice of beginning with the salah gone? He said No, O abu saeed that what you know has been given up! I said certainly not! By him who has any soul in his hand , you have not brought (and cannot bring) anything better then that which I know , I said it three times . " then he (Abu Saeed)departed (with out joining the congregation salah). [1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet said give charity! three times to emphasize. Or he said that to cover three conditions:

(i) Gave charity for your life's sake.
(ii) Give charity for your death.
(iii) Give charity for your hereafter.

Marwan ibn Hakam was born in 2AH but he never met the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Kathir ibn Sult is also reported to have been born in the times of the prophet and is counted among the Sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنه by Jami ul Usool, but some authorities put him among the salah and he had built the pulpit so that the sermon of eed may be delivered from it as is Manson for Friday it seems from the hadith that Marwan ibn Hakam was the first person to have the pulpit built (for eed).

The last words Then he departed could also refer to Marwan who went to the pulpit deliver the sermon before offering the salah without listening to Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ

THE METHOD: The salah of the two eeds comprises two rakaat first the intention in formed and the takbir tahrimah is called and hands folded. Then the thane is recited and the takbir Allah u Akbar is called three times raising the hands up to the ear lobes and dropping them the first two times, the pause between every two takbirs should be that one could say Subhan Allah three times in this interval after the third takbir the hands should not be dropped but folded and the taawwudh, tasmiyah surah al fatihah and any surah must be recited. Then the ruku and sajdahs must be made in the normal way. In the second rakah surah al fatihah and any surah must be recited and three takbir should be called dropping the hands after each takbir. Then at the fourth takbir the ruku should be observed and the salah completed. Then the Imam should go up the pulpit and deliver two sermons.
The sermon of eed ul fitr should dwell on the commands and of the Sadaqatul fitr. The sermon of eed ul adha should cover the subject of the sacrifice and takbir tashriq.
The takbir tashriq is to say once after every salah(اللہ اکبر اللہ اکبر لا الہ الا اللہ واللہ اکبر اللہ اکبر وللہ الحمد) and it is wajib (expedient) to say so. This takbir should be called from the day of Arafah, 9th Dul Hajjah, from fajar salah till 13th Dul Hajjah asr salah . this takbir is not wajib (expedient) on women and travellers but if they follow an imam on whom it is wajib (expedient) to call the takbir then it will be wajib (expedient) on them too. (ilm ul fiqh)

CHAPTER - XLIX

THE SACRIFICES بَابٌ فِي الْأُضْحِيَةِ

According to the Hanafis sacrifice is fard (obligatory) on every Muslim who is a resident and rich meaning possesses the nisab though it does not rise invalue.
Imam shafi said that sacrifice is sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) muwakkadah. Imam Ahmad held the same opinion.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْأَوَّلُ

SHOULD MAKE OWN SACRIFICE

(١٤٥٣) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ ضَحّٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِكَبْشَيْنِ أَمْلَحَيْنِ أَقْرَنَيْنِ ذَبَحَهُمَا بِيَدِهٖ وَسَمّٰى وَكَبَّرَ قَالَ رَأَيْتُهٗ وَاضِعًا قَدَمَهٗ عَلٰى صِفَاحِهِمَا وَيَقُوْلُ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ وَاللّٰهُ أَكْبَرُ۔ (متفق علیه)

1453. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sacrificed two horned black rams with his own hands , mentioning Allah's name and calling the takbir.
Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ added, "I Saw him place his foot on their sides, and say " Bismillah Wa Allah hu Akbar."[1]

COMMENTARY: The men making the sacrifice must make it with his own hands if he is familiar with its method, this is mustahab if he does not know it then he must stand there

[1] Bukhari #5563,Muslim # 10-1966. Abu Dawud # 2794, Tirmidhi # 1494, Nasai # 4387, Ibn Majah # 3120, and depute someone to do it for him. According to the Hanafis it is a condition to mention name of Allah at the time of making the sacrifice (Bismillah) and according to the ulama (Scholars) it is mustahab(desirable) to call the takbir (Allahu Akbar). It is better to use the waw (و) and say was Allahu Akbar. Most of the ulma say that it is makruh (unbecoming) to involve blessing on the prophet at the time of sacrifice but Imam shafi said that it is sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم).

DESCRIPTION OF RAM

1454. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated Allah's Messenger asked for such horned ram to be brought that walked on black (feet), sat on black (belly and chest) and saw with black (eyes). So it was brought to him. He said "o Ayshah bring me a knife "then he instructed her to sharpen it with a stone she did that. He took the knife and took the ram .he placed it on the ground and slaughtered it and prayed:

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ تَقَبَّلْ مِنْ مُحَمَّدٍ وَاٰلِ مُحَمَّدٍ وَمِنْ اُمَّةِ مُحَمَّدٍ

(In the name of Allah. O Allah accept it from Muhammad and the family of Muhammad and from the ummah of (Muhammad).
Then he sacrifices it. [1]

COMMENTARY: It the makruh (unbecoming) to sharpen the knife in front of the animal. Sayyiduna Umar Ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ had awarded stripes to a men who had done it. It is also makruh (unbecoming) to slaughter an animal in the presence of another animal.
The prayer of the prophet does not mean that there were shares for his ummah because one ram or one goat can be sacrificed for only one person, not for more then one.

AGE OF ANIMAL

(١٤٥٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَذْبَحُوْا اِلَّا مُسِنَّةً اِلَّا اَنْ يَّعْسُرَ عَلَيْكُمْ فَتَذْبَحُوْا جَذَعَةً مِنَ الضَّاْنِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1455. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger said only a Sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) unless it is difficult for you. If so, then sacrifice a Jadh'ah of a sheep or ram. [2]

COMMENTARY: Musinnah and Jadh'ah are the terminology of ages of the animals. The Hanafis say that a five year old camel in its sixth year , a cow, buffalow or ox in their third year, and a sheep or ram in their second year are called musinnah (مسنة) these animals can be sacrificed only if they are musinnah except that a ram or sheep may be sacrificed even if they are jadhah.

Jadhah (جذعة) is the kid of a sheep or ram between six months and one year in age.
Some authorities hold that a Judhah will be valid for sacrifice only if its built is such that anyone looking at it from after among the musinnah will taken it for one of them. If it is not fat or well- built but lean than its sacrifice will not be proper.
The sense of the habit and the verdict of the jurists is that it is mustahab to sacrifice musinnah if it is available and one is able to buy it though if, even in case a musinnah is available yet any one sacrifice a judhah, then the sacrifice would be proper.

A YEAR OLD GOAT

(١٤٥٦) عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْطَاهُ غَنَمًا يَقْسِمُهَا عَلٰى صَحَابَتِهٖ ضَحَايَا فَبَقِيَ عَتُوْدٌ فَذَكَرَهٗ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ ضَحِّ بِهٖ اَنْتَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَمَالِيْ جَذْعٌ قَالَ ضَحِّ بِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

1456. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم gave him some goats to distribute among his Shahabah رضی الله عنه as sacrificial animals. (He did that and) a yearling remained about which he asked Allah's Messenger who said, "You sacrifice it."
According to another version , he said " o Messenger of Allah, I have a judhah remaining" He said "sacrifice it."[1]

COMMENTARY: Atood (عتود) is a lamb one year old, fat and well- built. This hadith confirms that a yearling may be sacrificed. Imam Abu Hanifah abided by it.
Some people maintain that atood is a lamb above six months old. In that case, this concession was allowed only to sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی الله عنه. No one also is then allowed to sacrifice an atood.

SACRIFICE AT AL- MUSALLA

(١٤٥٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَذْبَحُ وَيَنْحَرُ بِالْمُصَلّٰى۔ (رواه البخاری)

1457. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that the prophet used to sacrifice (animals) and slaughter (camels) at the musalla (which is the place of salah for eed, etc,)[2]

SHARES IN SACRIFICE

(رواه مسلم و ابوداؤد و اللفظ له)

1458. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that the prophet said "(when making a sacrifice), a cow may be shared by seven people and a camel (also) by seven.[3]

1459. Sayyiduna Umm Salamah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "when the (first) ten days being (of Dhul- Hajjah) and one of you intends to make a sacrifice, he must not cut his hair or clip his nails (till the sacrifice is made). According to a version "he must neither shaves hair nor pare nails." According to yet another version, "He who sees the new moon of Dhul. Hajjah and indented to make a sacrifice must not cut his hair or his nails (till the sacrifice is made)."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is disallowed to clip nail and cut hair during these ten days to achieve resemblance to the pilgrims who have assumed the ihram. This prohibition is only tanzihi, so to obey it is mustahab and to neglect it is giving up the preferable. However, Imam shaf'i said that neglect it is makruh (unbecoming).

PIOUS DEEDS IN TEN DAYS

(١٤٦٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ اَيَّامٍ الْعَمَلُ الصَّالِحُ فِيْهِنَّ اَحَبُّ اِلَى اللّٰهِ مِنْ هٰذِهِ الْاَيَّامِ الْعَشْرِ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَلَا الْجِهَادُ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَلَا الْجِهَادُ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اِلَّا رَجُلٌ خَرَجَ بِنَفْسِهٖ وَمَالِهٖ فَلَمْ يَرْجِعْ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ بِشَيْءٍ۔ (رواه البخارى)

1460. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas narrated that Allah's Messenger said "there are no days during which a righteous deed is dearer to Allah then during these ten days "They (the Sahabah (companions)) رضى الله عنه asked him, O Messenger of Allah, not even jihad in Allah's path? He said not jihad in the path too except a man goes out with his life and his property and returns not with anything at all of that.[2]

COMMENTARY: Reward is commensurate with selfless Endeavour. Nothing can be as ungrudging as giving up one's life and property for Allah's sake .

The righteous deeds in Ramadan too are very excellent, so perhaps this hadith does not speak of the deeds of Ramadan or deeds during Ramadan are more excellent because of the obligatory fasting and the most sacred night laylat ul ulqadr which in Ramadan and the deeds of the first ten days of Dul Hajjah are very dear because the day of Arafah find place among them and rites of hajj performed in these days.

SUPPLICATION

(١٤٦١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ ذَبَحَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ الذَّبْحِ كَبْشَيْنِ اَقْرَنَيْنِ اَمْلَحَيْنِ مَوْجُوْئَيْنِ فَلَمَّا وَجَّهَهُمَا قَالَ

1461. Sayyiduna Jabir narrated that the prophet sacrificed two horned rams that had black stripes on white and were castrated. He put them oriented to the kiblah and prayed;

"I have turned my face towards one who has created the heavens and the earth , observing the religion of ibrahim the upright , Iam not of the polytheists. My salah my religious rites, my living and my death are for Allah, lord of the worlds who has no partner . that is what I am commanded to do and I am one of the Muslims , O Allah, this (sacrifice) is granted by you , and is made purely for your pleasure. (do accept it) from Muhammad and his ummah, In the name of Allah , and Allah is the greatest"
Then he made the sacrifice. [1]
According to another version ; he sacrifice it with his own hand and said " In the name of Allah. And Allah is the greatest , o Allah, this is from me and from those of my ummah who have not made a sacrifice. [2]

COMMENTARY: An castrated animal its flesh is delicious.
As for the words: I'm not of the polytheists the ulama (Scholars) are not one on which Shari'ah (divine law) the prophet followed before he was commissioned as prophet. They say that he followed the creed of Prophet Abraham or prophet Musa or prophet Eesa, and worshipped accordingly.
The correct position is that he did not follow any shariah but used his judgment and intuition to occupy himself in worship and he believed in Allah, Moreover, it is confirmed beyond any shadow of doubt that never in his life did he taint himself with idol-worship.
As for the kind of his worship , the ulama (Scholars) say that it is known only to Allah,
The intention from Muhammad and his ummah means that either he associated them in the reward of the sacrifice or truly included them in the making of the sacrifice in which case it will be presumed to be an exclusive distinction of his. The most explanatory position is that he sacrifice one ram from his own self and the other on behalf of his ummah.
It is clear from this hadith that if the person making the sacrifice is able to slaughter then it is mustahab to slaughter then it is mustahab to slaughter the animal with one's own hand. Even a women may do it herself, if she can.

ON BEHALF OF THE DEED

(١٤٦٢) وَعَنْ حَنَشٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ عَلِيًّا يُضَحِّيْ بِكَبْشَيْنِ فَقُلْتُ لَهٗ مَا هٰذَا فَقَالَ إِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَوْصَانِيْ أَنْ أُضَحِّيَ عَنْهُ فَأَنَا أُضَحِّيْ عَنْهُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وی الترمذی نحو)

1462. Sayyiduna Hanash رحمه الله narrated that he saw Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه sacrificing two rams so he asked him 'Why do this? (One was enough) he said Allah's Messenger had enjoined me to sacrifice one on his behalf so I do that for him.[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ either made sacrifice of two rams from himself and two on behalf of the prophet or one for each. Apparently it was his constant practice to do so every year.

It is allowed to make sacrifice on behalf of the dead though some ulama (Scholars) do not permit it. Ibn Mubarak said "I prefer that something should be spent on behalf of the deed but sacrifice should not be made for him and if it has to be made for some reason then nothing of its meat may be eaten. All of it must be distributed in the name of Allah."

NOT A DEFECTIVE ANIMAL

1463. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم enjoined them to examine the eye and the ear (of the sacrificial animal) thoroughly and refrain from sacrificing an animal with a slit that makes some of the ear hanging in the front or back , nor an animal with a lengthwise slit or circular pierce.[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shaf'I رحمہ اللہ dose not permit sacrifice of a goat whose ear has even a slight silt. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that the ear is cut off.

In this regard, Imam Tahawi cites the hadith of Sayyiduna Qatadah: he reported from ibn Kulayab that he heard Sayyiduna Ali say that he prophet forbade sacrifice of (عضائر قران وادر) (adbu quran wa udhar.) So, Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ asked Saeed ibn Musayyib رضی اللہ عنہ what was meant by these words , he said ' The ear is cut off half or more then half .

ANIMAL DISALLOWED BY HANAFIS: The Hanafis say that such animals are not allowed to be sacrificed whose ear is split one third or more, which has no ears since birth , whose tail or nose is cut off one third or more, which is blind, one eyed or has lost one third or more sight of one eye, whose udders have dried, which has no brain, which is lame and cannot walk up to the place of slaughter, which has itches which has no teeth and which consumes impurity.

Sacrifice is allowed of the animal whose ear is cut lengthwise or from the side of its mouth and hangs , or is cut the back side, hence we may say that the prohibition in this hadith is nahi tanzihi (which is nearer lawful then forbidden).

1464. Sayyiduna Ali narrated that Allays Messenger forbade them to sacrifice horn and a slit ear. [2]

COMMENTARY: The Hanifis allow the sacrifice of an animal that has no horns since birth, or were broken or third cover has come off. Hence this habit is based on nahi tanzihi. However, the animal whose horns have come off from the roots is not allowed for sacrifice.

(رواه مالك و احمد و الترمذى و ابوداؤد و النسائى و ابن ماجة والدارمى)

PLUMP ANIMAL

(١٤٦٦) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُضَحِّىْ بِكَبْشٍ اَقْرَنَ فَحِيْلٍ يَنْظُرُ فِىْ سَوَادٍ وَّيَاكُلُ فِىْ سَوَادٍ وَّيَمْشِىْ فِىْ سَوَادٍ۔ (رواه الترمذى و ابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

1466. Sayyiduna Abu Saeed رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم made sacrifice of such a horned plump ram that saw with black (eyes) ate with blackness (round its mouth) and walked on black (feet)[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that it is mustahab to sacrifice an animal that is fat and fleshy. It is better to sacrifice one fat sheep then two lean ones unless the meat of the fat or fleshy sheep or goat is bad.

THE JADHAH

(١٤٦٧) وَعَنْ مُجَاشِعٍ مِنْ بَنِىْ سُلَيْمٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ الْجَذَعَ يُوَفِّىْ مِمَّا يُوَفِّىْ مِنْهُ الثَّنِىُّ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد و النسائى و ابن ماجة)

1467. Sayyiduna Mujashi رضى الله عنه who was from tribe Banu Sulaym narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said often " A jadhah is enough where a kid of the hairy suffices."[3]

COMMENTARY: The jadhah has been defined in the precedi..g lines.
Just as the sacrifice of a goat of over one year is allowed, so too the sacrifice of the Jadhah is allowed.
Thaniy is a term used to define age of an animal .
When applied to a goat in its second year,
An ox or a cow in its third year, and a camel in its sixth year.

(١٤٦٨) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ نِعْمَةُ الْاُضْحِيَّةُ الْجَذَعُ مِنَ الضَّأْنِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1468. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say "The best sacrifice is the jadhah of a ram.[4]

SHARING IN SACRIFICE

(١٤٦٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ سَفَرٍ فَحَضَرَ الْاَضْحٰى فَاشْتَرَكْنَا فِي الْبَقَرَةِ سَبْعَةً وَّفِي الْبَعِيْرِ عَشْرَةً رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنِّسَائِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1469. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas narrated that they were with Allah's Messenger on a journey. The (eed) ul adha came upon them, so they shared mutually seven for a cow and ten for a camel.[1]

COMMENTARY: Ishaq Ibn Rahuwayh follwed this habit and says that ten people must share a camel.

All the ulama (Scholars) say that this hadith is abrogated by the one which says explicitly that like seven in a cow, the shares for a camel too are seven.

MERIT OF SACRIFICE

(١٤٧٠) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا عَمِلَ ابْنُ اٰدَمَ مِنْ عَمَلٍ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ اَحَبَّ اِلَى اللّٰهِ مِنْ اِهْرَاقِ الدَّمِ وَاِنَّهٗ لَيَاْتِيْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ بِقُرُوْنِهَا وَاَشْعَارِهَا وَاَظْلَافِهَا وَاِنَّ الدَّمَ لَيَقَعُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ بِمَكَانٍ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّقَعَ بِالْاَرْضِ فَطِيْبُوْا بِهَا نَفْسًا۔ (رواه الترمذی و ابن ماجة)

1470. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said "of the deeds that a man does on the day of sacrifice, the dearest to Allah is the flow of blood. It will come on the day of resurrection with its horns and its hair and its hooves. In deed, the blood will gain Allah's acceptance at once even before it drops on the ground. So, please yourselves what it."[2]

COMMENTARY: Zany ul -arab said that the animal will come on the day of resurrection in its form it had before being sacrificed without any defect . It will be an excellent substitute for one who had sacrifices it for each of his limbs. It will also be his riding beast on the bridge, sirat.

Given these tidings, he must not feel melancholy but be delighted.

(١٤٧١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ اَيَّامٍ اَحَبُّ اِلَى اللّٰهِ اَنْ يُّتَعَبَّدَ لَهٗ فِيْهَا مِنْ عَشْرِ ذِی الْحِجَّةِ يَعْدِلُ صِيَامُ كُلِّ يَوْمٍ مِّنْهَا بِصِيَامِ سَنَةٍ وَقِيَامُ كُلِّ لَيْلَةٍ مِّنْهَا بِقِيَامِ لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ اِسْنَادُهٗ ضَعِيْفٌ۔

1471. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger said None of the days are dearer to Allah during which he is worshipped then the ten days of Dhul Hijjah. Fating on each of these days is like fasting for a year and standing (in worship) on each of its night is like standing on laylatulqadr."[3]

(١٤٧٢) عَنْ جُنْدُبِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ شَهِدْتُّ الْاَضْحٰى يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمْ يَعْدُ اَنْ صَلّٰى وَفَرَغَ مِنْ صَلَاتِهٖ وَسَلَّمَ فَاِذَا هُوَ يَرٰى لَحْمَ اَضَاحِىَّ قَدْ ذُبِحَتْ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّفْرُغَ مِنْ صَلَاتِهٖ فَقَالَ مَنْ كَانَ ذَبَحَ قَبْلَ اَنْ يُّصَلِّىَ اَوْ نُصَلِّىَ فَلْيَذْبَحْ مَكَانَهَا اُخْرٰى وَفِىْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ صَلَّى النَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ ثُمَّ خَطَبَ ثُمَّ ذَبَحَ وَقَالَ مَنْ كَانَ ذَبَحَ قَبْلَ اَنْ يُّصَلِّىَ فَلْيَذْبَحْ اُخْرٰى مَكَانَهَا وَمَنْ لَّمْ يَذْبَحْ فَلْيَذْبَحْ بِاسْمِ اللّٰهِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1472. Sayyiduna Jundub ibn Abdullah رضى الله عنه narrated that he was there along with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم on (eed) ul adha the day of sacrifice, hardly had he finished the salah and given the salutation then, behold! he saw the meat of the sacrifice animal that had been sacrifice before he had completed the salah so, he said "whoever has sacrifice before he offered salah or , we offered salah - must sacrifice another in place of it.
According to another version, he (Jundub) narrated that the prophet offered the salah on the day of sacrifice, then delivered the sermon , and after that sacrificed, and said, He who has sacrificed before having offered salah must make another sacrifice in place of it, and he who has not sacrificed, must sacrifice (now) in the name of Allah."[1]

DAYS OF SACRIFICE

(١٤٧٣) وَعَنْ نَافِعٍ اَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ قَالَ اَلْاَضْحٰى يَوْمَانِ بَعْدَ يَوْمِ الْاَضْحٰى رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ وَقَالَ بَلَغَنِىْ

1473. Sayyiduna Nafi narrated that (Sayyiduna) Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said " The sacrifice is for two days more after the eed ul adha.[2]

(١٤٧٤) عَنْ عَلِىِّ بْنِ اَبِىْ طَالِبٍ مِثْلَهٗ۔

1474. Sayyiduna Ali Ibn Abu Talib رضى الله عنه narrated the like of it.[3]

COMMENTARY: Imam Abu Hanifah Imam Malik and Imam Ahmad abide by this hadith. They hold that sacrifice is validly made up to sunset on the twelfth. Imam Shafi hold that the last date is the thirteenth.

(١٤٧٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ اَقَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ عَشْرَ سِنِيْنَ يُضَحِّىْ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1475. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar narrated that Allah's Messenger Stayed in Madinah for ten years. He made the sacrifice (every year).[4]

SUNNAH OF PROPHET IBRAHIM عليه السلام

(١٤٧٦) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ اَرْقَمَ قَالَ قَالَ اَصْحَابُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَاهٰذِهِ الْاَضَاحِيْ قَالَ سُنَّةُ اَبِيْكُمْ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ عليه السلام قَالُوْا فَمَا لَنَا فِيْهَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ بِكُلِّ شَعْرَةٍ حَسَنَةٌ قَالُوْا فَالصُّوْفُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ بِكُلِّ شَعْرَةٍ مِّنَ الصُّوْفِ حَسَنَةٌ۔ (رواه احمد وابن ماجة)

1476: Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضی الله عنه narrated that sahabah (companions) of Allah's Messenger asked "O Messenger of Allah, what is this sacrifice?" He said " it is the sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم*)* of your father Ibrahim . They asked , " what is there for us in it?" He said "A blessing against every hair. " They asked," And (what about) wool, Messenger of Allah? He said. " Against every strand of wool a blessing."[1]

FARA AND ATIRAH

(١٤٧٧) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَافَرَعَ وَلَا عَتِيْرَةَ قَالَ وَالْفَرَعُ اَوَّلُ نِتَاجٍ كَانَ يُنْتَجُ لَهُمْ كَانُوْا يَذْبَحُوْنَهُ لِطَوَاغِيْتِهِمْ وَالْعَتِيْرَةُ فِيْ رَجَبٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

1477. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayah رضی الله عنه narrated that the prophet said, "There is no fara and no atirah (in Islam)" Abu Hurayrah said that fara was the first born of their animal and they slaughtered it (as an offering) to their idols . And atirah was what they observed in Rajab. [2]

COMMENTARY: During the jaihiliyah(ignorance era), the idolaters sacrificed the first born of their animals before their idols; this practice continued in early Islam and the first of the animals was offered in Allah's name, later this practice was abolished to ovoid a resemblance to the infidels.

Another practice of the jahiliyah (ignorance era) was to make an offering to the idols in the first ten days of Rajab to attain nearness to them. This was called atirah.

In early Islam. The Muslims carried on with atirah to gain nearness to Allah. Later this practice, too, was done away with. The objective was to give up resemblance to the idolaters.

1478. Sayyiduna Mikhanaf ibn Sulaym narrated that they were with Allah's Messenger standing at Arafah. He heard him say "o people! On every member of the house it is wajib (expedient) make a sacrifice and offer atirah every year. Do you fathom what atirah is? It is that which you call rajabiyah"[1]
Tirmidhi rated the hadith as gharib and da'if (strange and weak) Abu Dawud said that atirah is abolished (and not allowed any more).

HARD-PRESSED IS RELIEVED

(١٤٧٩) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُمِرْتُ بِيَوْمِ الْاَضْحٰى عِيْدًا جَعَلَهُ اللّٰهُ لِهٰذِهِ الْاُمَّةِ قَالَ لَهُ رَجُلٌ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَرَأَيْتَ اِنْ لَّمْ اَجِدْ اِلَّا مَنِيْحَةً اُنْثٰى اَفَاُضَحِّيْ بِهَا قَالَ لَا وَلٰكِنْ خُذْ مِنْ شَعْرِكَ وَاَظْفَارِكَ وَتَقُصُّ شَارِبَكَ وَتَحْلِقُ عَانَتَكَ فَذٰلِكَ تَمَامُ اُضْحِيَّتِكَ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد و النسائی)

1479. Sayyiduna Abudullah ibn Amr narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "I am commanded to observe the day of sacrifice as an eed. Allah has made it so for this ummah. A man submitted, O Messenger of Allah tell me if I do not find anything besides a maniah, may I sacrifice it ?' he said " no but, cut some of your hair, (clip) your nails and moustaches and shave your pubes . That is your complete sacrifice in Allah's sight".[2] (You will earn a full reward.)

COMMENTARY: Manihah is derived from (منح) manahah. It means a grant, gift. The Arabs gave their milk- yielding camel to the needy as a gesture of sympathy. They could use its milk , wool and offspring for themselves. When they had no need of it , they returned it to its owner, The prophet disallowed the man to sacrifice the manihah because he was not its rightful owner besides, he had no other means to meet his needs, so it is apparent from the hadith that sacrifice is not wajib (expedient) on a hard - pressed, poor person.
While the majority of ulama (Scholars) say tat for a hard pressed it is mustahab to make a sacrifice, Imam Abu Hanifah said that sacrifice is wajib (expedient) only on one who is sahib nisab (on whom zakah is wajib (expedient))

CHAPTER - LI

SALAT UL KHUSUF — بَابُ صَلٰوةِ الْخُسُوْفِ

The renowned linguists and scholars say the khusuf is a lunar eclipse. While kusuf is a solar eclipse.
All of the a*hadith* in this chapter concern solar eclipse. Only one hadith (# 1481)
Concerns lunar eclipse. So, the compiler of the Mishkat ought to have given this chapter the caption salat ul kusuf.

Some scholars say that the word kusuf applies to both solar and lunar eclipse, And, some say that khusuf too. Applies to both.

The salat of solar eclipse is masnun in the eyes of most of the ulama (Scholars). The Hanafis offer two raka'at with the congregation without a sermon.

The salah of lunar eclipse is also two raka'at but not in a congregational form Everyone offers it by himself.

Imam Shafi hold that both these salah are offered with a congregation and a sermon is also delivered.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET'S SALAH OF SOLAR ECLIPSE

(١٤٨٠) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ اِنَّ الشَّمْسَ خَسَفَتْ عَلٰى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَبَعَثَ مُنَادِيًا اَلصَّلٰوةُ جَامِعَةٌ فَتَقَدَّمَ فَصَلّٰى اَرْبَعَ رَكْعَاتٍ فِىْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَاَرْبَعَ سَجَدَاتٍ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ مَا رَكَعْتُ رُكُوْعًا قَطُّ وَلَا سَجَدْتُ سُجُوْدًا قَطُّ كَانَ اَطْوَلَ مِنْهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

1480. Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated that during the time of Allah's Messenger (after the hijrah). There was a solar eclipse. He sent a crier to (summon with the) call as salat ul Jame (the salah brings together).Then he went forward and offered two raka'at with four ruku (bowings) and four sajdah (prostration) sayyiduna Ayshah said, I had never made a ruku or a sajdha that was longer than that."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is a sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* to invite the people to the salat ul- kusuf (solar eclipse) by calling as salat ul jami' The ulama (Scholars) say that salah should observe in a congregational form in the Jam'e mosque or the place of eed salah, It should not be observed during the hours when offering salah is makruh (unbecoming).

The prophet made two prostrations (sajdah) in every rakaah . However, Imam Abu Hanifah cites some ahadith that speak of only one ruku and a normal salah. In fact, There is a qawli hadith in this chapter and qawli hadith is preferred over the file hadith.

RECITATION:

1481. Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated that the prophet recited the Quran aloud in prophet salah of a lunar eclipse.

He said "The sun and the moon are two of the signs of Allah. They are not eclipsed because of any ones death or of anyone's birth. When you observe that remember Allah. The sahabah (companions) asked, "O Messenger of Allah, we saw you stretch (your hand) to hold something. Then we saw you move back? He said, "I saw paradise and intended to get a bunch of its grapes. Had I taken it, you would have eaten it for as long as the would lasts. And I saw hell and I have never seen such a frightening sight as I saw today. I saw that of its inmates, most were woman "They asked, "Why o Messenger of Allah? He said, "Ingratitude to Allah (or disbelief in him)? He said they are ungrateful to their husbands and ungrateful for (their) kindness. Were you to show favour to any of them for ages and she found something in you not to her liking, she would lament that she had never seen any good in you."[1]

COMMENTARY: The sun and moon are two of the signs of Allah. They have no power to benefit or harm anyone. So, how foolish of those who bow to them in worship. Allah causes them to be eclipsed to show his power and to win people of his wrath.

The salah of eclipse is not wajib (expedient) if the hour is one when salah cannot be offered then one may recite the tasbih, tahlil or make istighfar. The command is were a commendation and the salah is sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*).*

The grapes of paradise are everlasting. If a single piece was eaten another would have grown in its place. If the prophet had taken the bunch of grapes, the people would have

(١٤٨٣) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ نَحْوَ حَدِيْثِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَقَالَتْ ثُمَّ سَجَدَ فَأَطَالَ السُّجُوْدَ ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ وَقَدِ انْجَلَتِ الشَّمْسُ فَخَطَبَ النَّاسَ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَاَثْنٰى عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اِنَّ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ اٰيَتَانِ مِنْ اٰيَاتِ اللّٰهِ لَا يَخْسِفَانِ لِمَوْتِ اَحَدٍ وَّلَا لِحَيَاتِهٖ فَاِذَا رَاَيْتُمْ ذٰلِكَ فَادْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَكَبِّرُوْا وَصَلُّوْا وَتَصَدَّقُوْا ثُمَّ قَالَ يَا اُمَّةَ مُحَمَّدٍ وَاللّٰهِ مَا مِنْ اَحَدٍ اَغْيَرُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ اَنْ يَّزْنِيَ عَبْدُهٗ اَوْ تَزْنِيَ اَمَتُهٗ يَا اُمَّةَ مُحَمَّدٍ وَاللّٰهِ لَوْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ مَا اَعْلَمُ لَضَحِكْتُمْ قَلِيْلًا وَّلَبَكَيْتُمْ كَثِيْرًا۔ (متفق عليه)

1483. Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated a hadith like that of Sayyiduna ibn Abbas , she also narrated that he prostrated himself and made a lengthy prostration, departing thereafter. By then, the sun was clear. Then he addressed the people. He praised Allah and glorified him , and said, " surely, the sun and the moon are two of the signs of Allah, they do not eclipse for anyone's death or anyone's birth. When you see that, supplicate Allah, extol him, offer salah and give charity." Then; he said "O ummah of Muhammad by Allah, no one is more annoyed than Allah when his slave commits adultery, or his female slave commits adultery. O ummah of Muhammad by Allah, were you to know what I know, you would laugh little and weep much.[1]

PROPHET'S CONDITION AT ECLIPSE

1484. Sayyiduna Abu Musa narrated that during the eclipse of the sun (once) the prophet was worried, apprehensive lest the last hour had arrived. He went to the mosque and offered salah in which he stood, bowed and prostrated. Himself longer then he (Abu Musa) had ever seen him do. Then he said "they are signs that Allah sends. They do not come because of anyone's death or because of anyone's birth, Allah grows. Fear in his slaves through them , so when you see anything like this , engage in his remembrance supplicate him and seek his forgiveness"

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was worried as anyone would be when the last day comes, not that it had come, for, he knew well that it would not come during his lifetime. When this happened and when natural calamities struck the earth the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was worried for mankind living here. He was fearful for them, not for himself, lest Allah's punishment descend on them though it.

HOW MANY RUKU & SAJDAH

COMMENTARY: Ibrahim was the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم son though sayyiduna Mariyah Qubtiyah, born in 8AH. He said in 10AH before being weaned. The people said that the solar eclipse was because of his death but the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم rejected their idea. We have seen that in the previous a*hadith*.

The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered two rakaat with three ruku and two sajdah in each rakaah. The number of ruku in the salah is reported differently in these a*hadith*. Imam Abu Hanifah has preferred those a*hadith* which mention only one ruku in each rakaah. Imam Shafi prefers the a*hadith* mentioning two ruku per rakaah. He and most of the other scholars hold that if the duration of the solar eclipses lengthy then as many as three, four of five RUKU may be made in each rakaah.

(١٤٨٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ صَلّٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حِيْنَ كَسَفَتِ الشَّمْسُ ثَمَانَ رَكْعَاتٍ فِيْ أَرْبَعِ سَجَدَاتٍ

1486. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas narrated that Allah's Messenger offered salah when an eclipse of the sun took place. He made eight ruku(bowings) and four sajdah (prostrations).[2]

(١٤٨٧) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ مِثْلُ ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1487. Sayyiduna Ali narrated a similar hadith.[3]

THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم METHOD

(١٤٨٨) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كُنْتُ أَرْتَمِيْ بِأَسْهُمٍ لِيْ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ فِيْ حَيَاةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذْ كَسَفَتِ الشَّمْسُ فَنَبَذْتُهَا فَقُلْتُ وَاللّٰهِ لَأَنْظُرَنَّ إِلٰى مَا حَدَثَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ كُسُوْفِ الشَّمْسِ قَالَ فَأَتَيْتُهُ وَهُوَ قَائِمٌ فِي الصَّلَاةِ رَافِعٌ يَدَيْهِ فَجَعَلَ يُسَبِّحُ وَيُهَلِّلُ وَيُكَبِّرُ وَيَحْمَدُ وَيَدْعُوْ حَتّٰى حُسِرَ عَنْهَا فَلَمَّا حُسِرَ عَنْهَا قَرَأَ سُوْرَتَيْنِ وَصَلّٰى رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ فِيْ صَحِيْحِهٖ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ وَكَذَا فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ عَنْهُ وَفِيْ نُسَخِ الْمَصَابِيْحِ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ۔

and making supplication till the eclipse of the sun was out of the eclipse (and clear) he recited two surahs and offered two raka'at salah (meaning, the two surahs he recited in the two rakkat.)[1]

This is how it is in Muslim and sharh us- sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)*. However, in the copies of al- Masabih , the narrattor is named as sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah.

COMMENTARY: when Abdur Rahman came to him, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was standing in salah, meaning in the style of salah facing the Qiblah with hands raised. The people were behind him in rows, we might also say that here salah means supplication because we do not know from anywhere that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Raised hands making supplication in salah during a solar eclipse.

As for the one ruku, they are all confused as are their narrators. So, it is wajib (expedient) to ignore these traditions, Hence, Imam Abu Hanifah has opted for the traditions that mention just one ruku in every mention just one ruku in every rakaah.

EMANCIPATE SLAVE

1490. Sayyiduna Samurah ibn jundub narrated that Allah's Messenger(E) led them in salah during a solar eclipse. However, they could not hear his voice.[3]

COMMENTARY: Imam Abu Hanifah and Imam Shafi abide by this hadith and call for silent recital in the salah of solar eclipse. There are a*hadith* in bukhari and Muslim that call for loud recital. So, Ibn Hammam said that the a*hadith* of silent recital should be preferred because during daytime the recital is silent

PROSTRATION ON SEEING A SING

(١٤٩١) وَعَنۡ عِكۡرِمَةَ قَالَ قِيۡلَ لِابۡنِ عَبَّاسٍ مَاتَتۡ فُلَانَةُ بَعۡضُ اَزۡوَاجِ النَّبِیِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيۡهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَخَرَّ سَاجِدًا فَقِيۡلَ لَهٗ تَسۡجُدُ فِیۡ هٰذِهِ السَّاعَةِ فَقَالَ قَالَ رَسُوۡلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيۡهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا رَاَيۡتُمۡ اٰيَةً فَاسۡجُدُوۡا وَاَیُّ اٰيَةٍ اَعۡظَمُ مِنۡ ذِهَابِ اَزۡوَاجِ النَّبِیِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيۡهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد و الترمذی)

1491. Sayyiduna Ikrimah narrated that when Sayyiduna ibn Abbas was informed of the death of one of the wives (Sayyiduna Sufiyah) of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم , he prostrated himself. So, he was asked why he prostrated himself on that occasion. He said Allah's Messenger had instructed us to make prostration whenever we observed a sign. what sign could be greater then the departure of the wives of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم"?[1]

COMMENTARY: the people asked sayyiduna ibn Abbas why he made prostration unnecessarily for that is disallowed. He explained to them that when trials and punishment come, a sign precedes them . the departure of a wife of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from this world to the next is a great sign. During their lifetime, they were on assurance of peace and blessing for the earthlings! So these things are removed with Their death, we must occupy in remembrance of Allah and in making prostration to him.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that the prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instruction to make prostration meant offer salah others taken it literally prostrate yourselves. Allamah teebi said that if a sign like an eclipse , then it is to offer salah, otherwise to make prostration though we may take it to mean salah too. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to offer *salah*at such times.

Ibn Hammam also said that it is better to offer salah during a strom and such calamities. Ibn Abbas two is known to have offered salah in bus rah during an earthquake.

SALAT UL- KUSUF, HOW MANY PROSTRATION, ETC.

1492. Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Kab narrated that in the times of Allah's Messenger the sun was eclipsed. So, he led them in salah and recited one of the long surahs and made five ruku (bowings) and two sajdah (prostrations)then he stood up for the second (rakaah) and recited a long surah, made five ruku and two sajdah and then sat down (after the salah,) as he was, facing the qiblah making supplication till the eclipse of the sun was over.[2]

1493. Sayyiduna An -Numan ibn Bashir narrated that during solar eclipse in the time of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم he began to offer salah two rakaat after two rakaat, asking about the eclipse in between, till the sun turned bright. (Abu Dauwd).

According to another version: when the sun was eclipsed, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered Salah like our (regular) salah, making ruku and sajdah,

Another version has: when a solar eclipse occurred one day, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم hurried to the mosque and offered salah till it was bright, then he said "surely. The people used to say, during the jahiliyah, the sun and the moon are eclipsed only because of a great man's death. But, the sun and the moon does not eclipse because of anyone's death or because of anyone's birth. Rather, they are two creatures of Allah's creation. Allah alters in his creation what he wills. So, if any of the two is eclipsed, offer salah till it clears, oa Allah causes His command to prevail (through punishment or the last hour)[1]

COMMENTARY: The words like our regular salah make it clear that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not make many ruku in the salah of the solar eclipse. He made only one ruku and two sajdah. This hadith upholds the Hanafi stand and there are other a*hadith* too corroborating this hadith.

CHAPTER LII

وهٰذا الْبَابَ خَالٍ عَنِ الْفَصْلِ الاوّل وَالثَّالِث

The ulama (Scholars) differ on whether a prostration outside salah is allowed masnun and a nearness to Allah, or not? Some people mantion that it is a bidah to make only prostration outside salah and at other times. It is also haraam (forbidden) it has no standing in shariah. This is why both sajdah (prostatoins) are disallowed after the salah of witr.

Other authorities say that it is allowed and legal but disliked.

The detailed explanation is that sajdah outside salah can be of many kinds. One of them is the sajdah sahw (remedial prostration) which falls under the purview of salah and there is no difference of opinion about it.

There also is the sajdah tilawah (or, the prostration called by certain verses of the Quran). There is no difference of opinion about this too.

The third is the sajdah munajat (prostration of supplication) it is made outside the salah. Most of the ulama (Scholars) say that this prostration is makruh (unbecoming).

The fourth is the sajdah ush-shukhr (prostration of gratitude). It is made on receiving a blessing or when a difficulty is removed. The ulama (Scholars) differ on this prostration. Imam shafi and Imam Ahmad say that this prostration is a sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم). Of the Hanafis, Imam Muhammad agrees with them, and many other and a*hadith* confirm this opinion. However, Imam Malik and imam Abu Hanifah say that this sajdah is makruh (unbecoming). They assert that there are unlimited blessings of Allah and they cannot be counted. Clearly, a person cannot thank him for each of his blessings, hence, to bind him to make a prostration of gratitude for each favour is to put him to hardship that he cannot endure.

Those scholars who allow the prostration of gratitude maintain that the blessing mean new or fresh blessing that are received some time not those that are received constantly, like man's existence and such other things.

Thus when the accursed Abu Jahl was killed, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made a prostration of gratitude. Sayyiduna Abu Bakar made a prostration of gratitude when musaylamah kadhdhab was killed, sayyiduna Ali also made a prostration of gratitude when dul Thadiyah Khariji was killed. The well known sahabi sayyiduna Kab ibn Malik made a prostration of gratitude when his repentance was accepted.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِی

PROPHET'S PROSTRATION OF GRATITUDE

(١٤٩٤) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ بَكْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا جَاءَهٗ اَمْرٌ سُرُوْرًا اَوْيُسَرُّ بِهٖ خَرَّ سَاجِدًا شَاكِرًا لِلّٰهِ تَعَالٰى رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالتِّرْمِذِیُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1494. Sayyiduna Abu Bakar narrated that when Allah's Messenger found that which caused him delight or which pleased him, he prostrated himself to express gratitude to Allah, the exalted.[1]

COMMENTARY: While some ulama (Scholars) say that this hadith is evidence that prostration of gratitude is permitted. Other say that here sajdah means salah. The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم offered salah at the time of chaast (Duha) when he was told of victory in a battle and the execution of Abu Jahl!

Imam Abu Hanifah's views are mentioned in the introductory passage.

ON SEEING SOMEONE IN DISTRESS

(١٤٩٥) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ جَعْفَرٍ اَنَّ النَّبِیَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَاٰى رَجُلًا مِنَ النُّغَاشِيِّيْنَ فَخَرَّ سَاجِدًا رَوَاهُ الدَّارُقُطْنِیُّ مُرْسَلًا وَفِیْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ لَفْظُ الْمَصَابِيْحِ۔

1495. Sayyiduna Abu Jafar narrated that the prophet saw a dwarf and prostrated himself.[2]

COMMENTARY: The dwarf is a very short-statured man, not well-built.

Mazhar said that this prostration must be made to thank Allah for keeping

One safe from deformity. But, it should be concealed from the dwarf lest he feel bad. On seeing a sinner, however, the prostration must be made on his face so that he may perhaps repent. Shibli رحمه الله had prayed on seeing a habitual sinner within his hearing.

الحمد لله الذی عافانی مما ابتلاك به

'Praise belongs to Allah who preserved me from that with which he has tried you.

PROPHET'S COMPASSION FOR HIS UMMAH

(١٤٩٦) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ مَّكَّةَ نُرِيْدُ الْمَدِيْنَةَ فَلَمَّا كُنَّا قَرِيْبًا مِّنْ عَزْوَزَاءَ نَزَلَ ثُمَّ رَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فَدَعَا اللّٰهَ سَاعَةً ثُمَّ خَرَّ سَاجِدًا فَمَكَثَ طَوِيْلًا ثُمَّ قَامَ فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ سَاعَةً ثُمَّ خَرَّ سَاجِدًا فَمَكَثَ طَوِيْلًا ثُمَّ قَامَ فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ سَاعَةً ثُمَّ خَرَّ سَاجِدًا قَالَ اِنِّيْ سَاَلْتُ رَبِّيْ وَشَفَعْتُ لِاُمَّتِيْ فَاَعْطَانِيْ ثُلُثَ اُمَّتِيْ فَخَرَرْتُ سَاجِدًا لِّرَبِّيْ شُكْرًا ثُمَّ رَفَعْتُ رَاْسِيْ فَسَاَلْتُ رَبِّيْ لِاُمَّتِيْ فَاَعْطَانِيْ ثُلُثَ اُمَّتِيْ فَخَرَرْتُ سَاجِدًا لِّرَبِّيْ شُكْرًا ثُمَّ رَفَعْتُ رَاْسِيْ فَسَاَلْتُ رَبِّيْ لِاُمَّتِيْ فَاَعْطَانِيْ الثُّلُثَ الْاٰخَرَ فَخَرَرْتُ سَاجِدًا لِّرَبِّيْ شُكْرًا۔ (رواہ احمد وابوداؤد)

1496. Sayyiduna Sad ibn Abu Waqqas narrated that they went out with Allah's Messenger from Makkah to Madinah. When they approached Azwaza, he alighted, raised his hands and made supplication to Allah for sometime. Then he prostrated himself and made it a lengthy prostration. Then he stood up, raised his hands for sometime (in supplication). Again he prostrated himself for a long time. Then he stood up, raised his hands for sometime (in supplication) and prostrated himself. Then, he said, I prayed to Allah and interceded for my ummah. He gave me one third of my ummah so, I prostrated myself in gratitude to my lord. Then I raised my head and prayed to him for my ummah. He gave one third of my ummah. So, I made prostration of gratitude to my lord and then raised my head and payed to him for my ummah and he gave me the final one third of my nmmah. So I made prostration of gratitude to my lord."[1]

COMMENTARY: The first time those of the ummah were forgiven who preceded in doing good. The second time those who were of an overage kind were forgiven. The third time those were forgiven who wrong themselves and commit sin.

Those who commit grows sins will not be forgiven, as we know for many verses of the Quran and ahadith. So, how are they forgiven by token of this hadith. The fact is that they are forgiven punishment in this world, not in the hereafter. There they will be punished for their bad deeds.

Some people say that it means that they will not receive a perpetual punishment, They will be sent to paradise, after all, on the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم intercession and will abide those for ever.

CHAPTER - LIII

SALAT UL -ISTISQA (SALAH FOR RAIN) بَابُ صَلٰوةِ الْاِسْتِسْقَاءِ

Itasqa means to pray for rain. In the terminology of shariah it means to pray for rain during famine and a dry spell according to the prescribed method through salah and supplication

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET'S SALAH OF ISTISQA

(١٤٩٧) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ خَرَجَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالنَّاسِ اِلَى الْمُصَلّٰى يَسْتَسْقِىْ فَصَلّٰى بِهِمْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ جَهَرَ فِيْهِمَا بِالْقِرَاءَةِ وَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ يَدْعُوْ وَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ وَحَوَّلَ رِدَآءَهٗ حِيْنَ اسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ۔

(متفق عليه)

1497. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Zayd narrated that Allah's Messenger took the people with him to the musalla (place of salah) and prayed for rain, he led them in two rakaat salah , the recitation their in being loud. He faced the qiblah and made supplication during which he raised his hands and turned his cloak upside down while he faced the qiblah.[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi and the two imams Abu Yusuf and Muhammad say that the salah of eed. Imam Malik says that it is two rakaat like any salah offered normally.

THE HANAFI VIEW: There are two views among the Hanafis. Imam Abu Hanifah said that there is no salah of istisqa, but only supplication and istighfar. He points out that most ahadith that speak of istisqa do not mention the salah but mention only the supplication. It is also cited that Sayyiduna Umar made only supplication and istighfar for istisqa and did not offer the salah. If was masnun then
He would not have omitted it.

The two companions of Abu Hanifah (Abu Yusuf and Muhammad) have a different view. They assert that not only is salah musnun for istisqa but also it should be offered in congregational from and a sermon should be delivered.

Some people interpret Imam Abu Hanifah's word to mean that a congregational salah and sermon are not particularly sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) and conditional . it is better that everyone should offer his optional salah by himself and make supplication and istighfar. However, the hanafis go by the verdict of the two companions. It is better to recite in the salah surah Qaaf or al Ala in the first rakaah and al ghashiyah in the second.

To move the cloak inside out is a portent for a changed condition. To the mercy of Allah.

Both hands are taken to one's back and with the right hand the left lower corner of the clock is held, and with the left hand its right lower corner is held. Then both hands moved over the back so the corner in the right hands are moved over the right hand comes over the right shoulder and the corner in the left hand comes over the left shoulder. Thus the right corner will become left and the left will become right, and the upper side will be lowered and the lower side will be raised.

The prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم cloak was four cubits by two cubits - one span.

THE PROPHET RAISED HAND VERY HIGH

(١٤٩٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ فِيْ شَيْئٍ مِّنْ دُعَائِهٖ اِلَّا فِي الْاِسْتِسْقَاءِ فَاِنَّهٗ يَرْفَعُ حَتّٰى يُرٰى بَيَاضُ اِبِطَيْهِ۔ متفق عليه۔

1498. Sayyiduna Anas narrated that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never raised his hand to make any supplication except rain making a supplication for rain. He raised them high to the extent that the whiteness under his armpits was visible.[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Anas means that though the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم raised hands for supplication at other times too, he did not raise them as much high as he did for istisqa, even above his head. The ulama (Scholars) say that when making supplication hands must be raised higher for more significant request.

CONDITION OF HANDS

1499. Sayyiduna Anas narrated that when the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for rain he put the back of his hands towards the heaven.[2]

COMMENTARY: This is done to augur well for the clouds to have their backs to the earth by Allah's will. But, if anyone makes supplication for a blessing he must have his palms facing up.

PROPHET'S SUPPLICATION

(١٥٠٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا رَاَى الْمَطَرَ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ صَيِّبًا نَّافِعًا۔ (رواه البخاری)

1500. Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated that when Allah's Messenger saw rain, he prayed, اَللّٰهُمَّ صَيِّبًا نَّافِعًا

"O Allah, let it be beneficial rain"[3]

WHAT HE DID WHEN IT RAINED

(١٥٠١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ اَصَابَنَا وَنَحْنُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَطَرٌ قَالَ فَحَسَرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَوْبَهٗ حَتّٰى اَصَابَهٗ مِنَ الْمَطَرِ فَقُلْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ لِمَ صَنَعْتَ هٰذَا قَالَ لِاَنَّهٗ حَدِيْثُ عَهْدٍ بِرَبِّهٖ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1501. Sayyiduna Anas narrated that they were with Allah's Messenger (once) when rain fell down. He uncovered himself his head or his back) so that he was drenched. They asked him, "O Messenger of Allah, why did you do it? He said, "this is because it has been with its lord, recently.[4]

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the rain water had descended just

The ulama (Scholars) say that it is sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) to make supplication for one's needs when it rains, prayers are answered at that time.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

TURNING THE CLOAK

1502. Sayyiduna Abudullah ibn Zayd narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم went out to the musalla and prayed for rain. As he faced the qiblah, he twisted his cloak to put its right side on his left shoulder and its left side on his right shoulder. Then, he supplicated Allah.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith dose not speak of salah for istisqa it mentions only supplication.

(١٥٠٣) وَعَنْهُ أَنَّهٗ قَالَ اسْتَسْقٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَمِيْصَةٌ لَّهٗ سَوْدَآءُ فَأَرَادَ أَنْ يَّأْخُذَ أَسْفَلَهَا فَيَجْعَلَهٗ أَعْلَاهَا فَلَمَّا ثَقُلَتْ قَلَّبَهَا عَلٰى عَاتِقَيْهِ۔ (رواه احمد وابوداؤد)

1503. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Zayd narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for rain. He had on him black khamisah (a black commented robe) that he had. He intended to bring the bottom to the top, but it was too heavy, so he turned it round on his shoulders.[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم found it time consuming to shift the ends of the robe, so he simply put them on opposite shoulders, he had done it at the time of the second sermon, because that is the time when it is should be done.

1504. Sayyiduna Umar, the freedman of Abu al lahm narrated that he saw the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم pray for rain at Ahjan uz-zyat. He stood while making supplication for rain. He raised his hands up to his face, not raising them above his head his head.[3]

COMMENTARY: Ahjar uz Zayt was a place in Madinah. It was so named because of the black stones that shone as though zayt (olive) was applied on them; Zawara too was a market place in Madinah.

As for the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم hands while making supplication this dose not contradict the previous ahadith but it means that he used any of the ways to make supplication

(١٥٠٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ خَرَجَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعْنِيْ فِي الْاِسْتِسْقَاءِ مُتَبَذِّلًا مُتَوَاضِعًا مُتَخَشِّعًا مُتَضَرِّعًا۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجة)

1505. Sayyiduna ibn Abbas narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم went out to pray for rain having given up new garments and observed humility and modesty while beseeching.[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم observed humility in appearance, dress and prayer both inwardly and outwardly. He was pleading for mercy. And praying for rain.

SUPPLICATION FOR RAIN

(١٥٠٦) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّه قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اسْتَسْقٰى قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْقِ عِبَادَكَ وَبَهِيْمَتَكَ وَانْشُرْ رَحْمَتَكَ وَاَحْيِ بَلَدَكَ الْمَيِّتَ۔ (رواه مالك وابوداؤد)

1506. Sayyiduna Amr ibn shuayb narrated from his father that his grandfather (Abdullah) narrated that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for rain in this words:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْقِ عِبَادَكَ وَبَهِيْمَتَكَ وَانْشُرْ رَحْمَتَكَ وَاَحْيِ بَلَدَكَ الْمَيِّتَ

"O Allah, let your slaves and your animals have water, spread your mercy an revive your dead land"[2]

(١٥٠٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ رَاَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُوَاكِئُ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْقِنَا غَيْثًا مُغِيْثًا مَرِيْئًا مُّرِيْعًا نَّافِعاً غَيْرَ ضَارٍّ عَاجِلًا غَيْرَ اٰجِلٍ قَالَ فَاطْبَقَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّمَآءُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1507. Sayyiduna Jabir narrated that he saw Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had raised his hands and made supplication;

اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْقِنَا غَيْثًا مُغِيْثًا مَرِيْئًا مُّرِيْعًا نَّافِعاً غَيْرَ ضَارٍّ عَاجِلًا غَيْرَ اٰجِلٍ

"O Allah, do give us much rain that will satisfy us, plentiful, fertilizing and beneficial Not harmful, quick to come not delayed."
Jabir said, "thereafter, the sky was overcast,"[3]

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

(١٥٠٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ شَكَى النَّاسُ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُحُوْطَ الْمَطَرِ فَاَمَرَ بِمِنْبَرٍ فَوُضِعَ لَهٗ فِي الْمُصَلّٰى وَوَعَدَ النَّاسَ يَوْمًا يَخْرُجُوْنَ فِيْهِ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ فَخَرَجَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حِيْنَ بَدَا حَاجِبُ الشَّمْسِ فَقَعَدَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَكَبَّرَ وَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ ثُمَّ قَالَ اِنَّكُمْ شَكَوْتُمْ جَدْبَ دِيَارِكُمْ وَاسْتِيْخَارَ الْمَطَرِ عَنْ اِبَّانِ زَمَانِهٖ عَنْكُمْ وَقَدْ اَمَرَكُمُ اللّٰهُ اَنْ تَدْعُوْهُ وَوَعَدَكُمْ اَنْ يَّسْتَجِيْبَ لَكُمْ ثُمَّ قَالَ

1508. Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated that the people complained to Allah's Messenger

صلى الله عليه وسلم about lack of rain. So, he commanded that a pulpit should be built. It was placed in the musalla (place of salah , in the open) for him, and he specified a day on which the people should come out.

Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated further that (on that day,) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came out just as the edge of the sun showed itself. He sat on the pulpit, extolled Allah's greatness and praised him. Then he said "you have complained (to Allah and his Messenger) about drought in your cities and of lack of rainfall at the onset its season. Allah commands you, now, that you pray to him (for rain) he has assured you that he would grant you your prayers. Then he preyed:

الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ، الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ، مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّيْنِ۔ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ يَفْعَلُ مَايُرِيْدُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ الْغَنِيُّ وَنَحْنُ فُقَرَاءُ اَنْزِلْ عَلَيْنَا الْغَيْثَ وَاجْعَلْ مَا اَنْزَلْتَ لَنَا قُوَّةً وَبَلَاغًا اِلٰى حِيْنٍ ثُمَّ رَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فَلَمْ يَتْرُكِ الرَّفْعَ حَتّٰى بَدَا بَيَاضُ اِبِطَيْهِ ثُمَّ حَوَّلَ اِلَى النَّاسِ ظَهْرَهٗ وَقَلَّبَ اَوْ حَوَّلَ رِدَاءَهٗ وَهُوَ رَافِعٌ يَدَيْهِ ثُمَّ اَقْبَلَ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَنَزَلَ فَصَلّٰى رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَاَنْشَاَ اللّٰهُ سَحَابَةً فَرَعَدَتْ وَبَرَقَتْ ثُمَّ اَمْطَرَتْ بِاِذْنِ اللّٰهِ فَلَمْ يَاتِ مَسْجِدَهٗ حَتّٰى سَالَتِ السُّيُوْلُ فَلَمَّا رَاٰى سُرْعَتَهُمْ اِلَى الْكِنِّ ضَحِكَ حَتّٰى بَدَتْ نَوَاجِذُهٗ فَقَالَ اَشْهَدُ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ وَاِنِّيْ عَبْدُ اللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

"Praise belongs to Allah, lord of the worlds, the merciful, the compassionate, praise belongs to Allah, lord of the world, the Merciful, the compassionate. Master of the Day of Judgment. There is no God, but Allah. He does what he wishes. O Allah, you are Allah, you are Allah. There is no God besides you, the independent. And, we are poor. Send down to us rain, and cause that which you send down to be a source of strength and benefit for us (to achieve our objectives) for a length time of. Then he raised his hands and did not stop raising them till the whiteness under his armpits was visible. Then he turned about, his back to the people and twisted, or inverted, his cloak (inside out), his hands rose all the while. Then he faced the people, came down (the pulpit) and offered two rakaat salah. Allah brought the could and they thundered with lightening. Then, rain poured down with Allah's permission. Before he came to his mosque, streams hawed. He observed the people hurry about to find shelter, and laughed so that his back teeth were visible. He declared, (I testify that Allah is over all things powerful and messenger"[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Maalik, Imam shafi and according to one report, Imam Ahmad said that after the salah of istisqa, it is sunnah (practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* to deliver two sermon. The sermon should being with istighfar, just as the sermon of the eeds being with the takbir. Imam Abu Hanifah and according to another report Imam Ahmad said that the sermon is not delivered but supplication and istighfar should suffice.

Ibn Hammam said that the compilers of the four the sunnans have transmitted a tradition from Ishaq ibn Abdullah ibn kinanah. The gist of it is that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went to the to the place of salah but did not deliver the sermon as you do, Rather. He continued to make supplication and he beseeched Allah. He declared Allah's glory and offered two rakaat salah as are offered for the eed.

WASILH

(١٥٠٩) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ كَانَ اِذَا قَحِطُوْا اسْتَسْقٰى بِالْعَبَّاسِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا كُنَّا نَتَوَسَّلُ اِلَيْكَ بِنَبِيِّنَا فَتَسْقِيْنَا وَاِنَّا نَتَوَسَّلُ اِلَيْكَ بِعَمِّ نَبِيِّنَا فَاسْقِنَا قَالَ فَيُسْقَوْ۔ (رواه البخاری)

1509. Sayyiduna Anas narrated that (sayyiduna) Umar ibn al khattab used to pray for rain by virtue of (sayyiduna) Al- Abbas ibn Abdul Muttalib. He would pray, "o Allah. We used supplication you by virtue of our prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and you did provide us rain. Now, we beseech you by virtue of the uncle of our prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Do let us have rain! Sayyiduna Anas said, " they had rain thereafter"[1]

COMMENTARY: It is reported that when Sayyiduna Umar prayed in this manner alongwith the other Sahabah (companions), Sayyiduna Abbas prayed along , "O Allah, the ummah of your Messenger has chosen me as a medium, O Allah, do not let me down in this my old age and do not disgrace me before them.

There was so much effect in the prayer of Sayyiduna Umar and these words of Sayyiduna ibn Abbas that rain began to fall promptly.

THE CASE OF ONE OF THE PROPHETS عليه السلام

(١٥١٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ خَرَجَ نَبِيٌّ مِّنَ الْاَ نْبِيَآءِ بِالنَّاسِ يَسْتَسْقِيْ فَاِذَا هُوَ بِنَمْلَةٍ رَافِعَةٍ بَعْضَ قَوَائِمِهَا اِلَى السَّمَآءِ فَقَالَ ارْجِعُوْا فَقَدِ اسْتُجِيْبَ لَكُمْ مِّنْ اَجْلِ هٰذِهِ النَّمْلَةِ۔ (رواه الدارقطنی)

1510. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayah narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that one of the prophet took the people out to pray for rain. Behold! He saw an ant had risen some of its feet towards the heaven. So, he said (to his people,)"Return, your prayer is answered because of this ant"[2]

COMMENTARY: It is said that this prophet was sayyiduna Sulayman. This case highlights the might and power of Allah. His mercy embraces all creatures equally. His knowledge encompasses the needs and attributes of all living things. He is the causer of causes and the giver of needs.

It is also said that the ant had prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنَا خَلْقٌ .... بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ

"O Allah, we are one of your provision. Do not annihilate us because of the sins of the children of Aadam."

CHAPTER - LIV

WINDS بَابٌ فِي الرِّيَاحِ وَالْمَطَرِ

In most of the copies of mishkat, only the world (باب) (chapter) is inscribed here. This is the way with the compiler of Mishkat to simply write when it is not a separate subject but a continuation of the previous or related and auxiliary to it. In one correct copy, however, the word are:

(باب فی الریاح) chapter on the winds and in another;

(باب الریاح) chapter -the winds so, a*hadith* on winds are incorporated in this chapter.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MERCY OR PUNISHMENT

1511. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said," I have been help by the wind saba (easterly wind) while the Aad were ruined by the wind duboor (westerly wind.")[1]

COMMENTARY: During the battle of the trenches (khunduq) the infidels had besieged Madinah with all their might. Allah helped the Muslims with a violent, very fast wind that uprooted the camps of the disbelievers and upturned their cooking vessels and rained pebbles on their faces; thus, he caused them to fear and their hearts to tremble. They lost their senses and fled from the battlefield.

This was a great favour of Allah on the Muslims. It was mighty miracle of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم.

The Aad were an unruly people of the past, they were tall people, twelve yards in bight. When they exceeded limits in their way word ways and they invited Allah's punishment, a strong southerly windlashed on them smashing their heads and cutting their bellies open. Their intestines lay out open.

Therefore, the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم says that the wind is subservient to Allah, It appears as Allah's mercy to help and aid the Muslims. And the same wind comes wind comes at Allah's command as his punishment bringing message of destruction of some people.

THE PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم CONDITION WHEN CLOUDY AND WINDY

(١٥١٢) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَارَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ضَاحِكًا حَتّٰى اَرٰى مِنْهُ لَهَوَاتِهٖ اِنَّمَا كَانَ يَتَبَسَّمُ فَكَانَ اِذَا رَاٰى غَيْمًا اَوْرِيْحًا عُرِفَ فِيْ وَجْهِهٖ۔ (متفق علیه)

1512. Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated that she never saw Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم laugh to such an extent that she could see his uvula. He only smiled. When he saw clouds or winds, that was visible on his face.[2]

COMMENTARY: When the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم saw cloud and winds, he feared for his people lest they suffered.

Sayyiduna Ayshah says that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was always pensive and fearful. When winds or colds or clouds appeared, his heart was overcome with fear for his people, and his face changed color.

PRAYER WHEN WINDS BLEW

(١٥١٣) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا عَصَفَتِ الرِّيحُ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّيْ اَسْئَلُكَ خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ مَافِيْهَا وَخَيْرَمَا اُرْسِلَتْ بِهٖ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّمَا فِيْهَا وَشَرِّمَا اُرْسِلَتْ بِهٖ وَإِذَا تَخَيَّلَتِ السَّمَاءُ تَغَيَّرَ لَوْنُهٗ وَخَرَجَ وَدَخَلَ وَ اَقْبَلَ وَاَدْبَرَ فَإِذَا مَطَرَتْ سُرِّيَ عَنْهُ فَعَرَفَتْ ذٰلِكَ عَائِشَةُ فَسَأَلَتْهُ فَقَالَ لَعَلَّهٗ يَا عَائِشَةُ كَمَا قَالَ قَوْمُ عَادٍ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْهُ عَارِضًا مُّسْتَقْبِلَ اَوْدِيَتِهِمْ قَالُوْا هٰذَا عَارِضٌ مُّمْطِرُنَا وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ وَيَقُوْلُ إِذَارَأَى الْمَطَرَ رَحْمَةً۔ (متفق عليه)

1513. Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated that when the winds were ferocious. The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّيْ اَسْئَلُكَ خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ مَافِيْهَا وَخَيْرَمَا اُرْسِلَتْ بِهٖ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّمَا فِيْهَا وَشَرِّمَا اُرْسِلَتْ بِهٖ

"O Allah, I ask you for the good that is in it and the good that it has and the good with which it is sent. And, I seek nefuge in you from the evil that is in it and evil that it has and the evil with which it is sent."
And when the sky turned dark, his color changed. He went out and came in and he moved backwards and forward till when it rained, the fear disappeared from him, Sayyiduna Ayshah sensed that in him and asked him about it. he said "O Allah, it may be like what the people of Aad said. When they saw a clutter of clouds approaching their valley, they rejoiced that the clouds would bring them rain"
According to another version: when he saw the rain, he prayed, "May it be (a source of) mercy!"[1]

COMMENTARY: The verse of the Quran refers to the destruction of the Aad. When the impression that they would get rain. But there joy turned in to misery when Allah caused the clouds to be a means of punishment. They sought it to be hastened and the result was that they were eliminated. Allah punishes the sinners in this way.
This is what the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم feared when he saw the clouds. He recalled the fate of the Aad. The relative verse is of surrah al Ahqaf (46:24)

بَلْ هُوَ مَا اسْتَعْجَلْتُمْ۔ الآية

{when they saw it as a sudden cloud advancing towards their valleys, they said , "This is a could bringing us rain." Nay it is that which you sought to hasten, wind, wherein is painful chastisement}

FIVE UNSEEN TREASURES

(١٥١٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَفَاتِيْحُ الْغَيْبِ خَمْسٌ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ

[1] Bukhari#3205, Muslim#15-899.

1514. Sayyiduna ibn Umar narrated that Allah's Messenger said " the keys of the unseen are five," Then he recited the verse:

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ عِنْدَهٗ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَيُنَزِّلُ الْغَيْثَ۔ الآية۔ (رواه البخاری)

{Surely the knowledge of the Hour is with Allah alone, and He sends down the rain....} (the vibe 31:34)[1]

COMMENTARY: There are five treasures of the unseen that are known to Allah alone. They are mentioned in this verse. The entire is reproduced here!

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ عِنْدَهٗ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَيُنَزِّلُ الْغَيْثَ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا فِي الْأَرْحَامِ وَمَا تَدْرِيْ نَفْسٌ مَّاذَا تَكْسِبُ غَدًا

وَّمَا تَدْرِيْ نَفْسٌ بِأَيِّ أَرْضٍ تَمُوْتُ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلِيْمٌ خَبِيْرٌ

{Surely the knowledge of the Hour is with Allah alone, and he sends down the rain, and he knows what is in the wombs. And no person knows what he will earn tomorrow. And no person knows in what land he will die. Surely, Allah is knower, Aware.}31:34)

These are five things of the unseen that only Allah knows some portion of some of them (but only if Allah discloses that to them)

FAMINE IN REAL SENSE

(١٥١٥) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَتِ السَّنَةُ بِأَنْ لَّا تُمْطَرُوْا وَلٰكِنَّ السَّنَةَ أَنْ تُمْطَرُوْا وَلَا تُنْبِتُ الْأَرْضُ شَيْئًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

1515. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Famine is not that there is no rain. Rather, famine is that it rains, and rains but the earth grows and produces nothing."

COMMENTARY: Qadi said that there are the means of profit and goodness, and hopes in them, but unexpectedly loss and harm is greater than that was feared earlier.

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

DO NOT REVILE WIND

(١٥١٦) عَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الرِّيْحُ مِنْ رَّوْحِ اللّٰهِ تَأْتِيْ بِالرَّحْمَةِ وَبِالْعَذَابِ فَلَا تَسُبُّوْهَا وَسَلُوا اللّٰهَ مِنْ خَيْرِهَا وَعُوْذُوْا بِهٖ مِنْ شَرِّهَا۔ رَوَاهُ الشَّافِعِيُّ وَأَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

1516. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say ," The wind is a mercy of Allah. It come with mercy and (also) punishment . so do not revile it Rather, ask Allah for the good in it and seek refuge in him from the evil in it."[2]

COMMENTARY: The violent wind that spells punishment for the wicked is also a mercy for the pious because they are safe from detection.

(١٥١٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَجُلًا لَعَنَ الرِّيْحَ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لَا تَلْعَنُوا الرِّيْحَ فَاِنَّهَا مَاْمُوْرَةٌ وَاِنَّهُ مَنْ لَعَنَ شَيْئًا لَيْسَ لَهُ بِاَهْلٍ رَجَعَتِ اللَّعْنَةُ عَلَيْهِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1517. Sayyiduna ibn Abbas narrated that a man cursed the wind in presence of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. so, he said "Never curse the wind , It is under command. If a person curses anything that does not deserve the curse then the curse rebounds on him."[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Ghazali said that only three things deserve curse.

(i) Disbelief.

(ii) Bidah or innovation in religion.

(iii) Indecency and sin.

The wind has nothing of those three things.

(١٥١٨) وَعَنْ اُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاتَسُبُّوا الرِّيْحَ فَاِذَا رَاَيْتُمْ مَّاتَكْرَهُوْنَ فَقُوْلُوْا اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْئَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ هٰذِهِ الرِّيْحِ وَخَيْرِ مَافِيْهَا وَخَيْرِمَا اُمِرَت بِهٖ وَنَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ هٰذِهِ الرِّيْحِ وَشَرِّمَافِيْهَا وَشَرِّ مَا اُمِرَت بِهٖ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

1518. Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Kab narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not curse The wind. If you experience what you dislike (with its biting cold or fierce heat,) pray,

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْئَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ هٰذِهِ الرِّيْحِ وَخَيْرِ مَافِيْهَا وَخَيْرِمَا اُمِرَت بِهٖ وَنَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ هٰذِهِ الرِّيْحِ وَشَرِّمَافِيْهَا وَشَرِّ مَا اُمِرَت بِهٖ

"O Allah, we ask you for the good in this wind, the good in what it has and the good in that which it is commanded to do. We seek refuge in you from the evil in this wind, the evil in what it has the evil in that which it is commanded to do."[2]

(١٥١٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ مَاهَبَّتْ رِيْحٌ قَطُّ اِلَّا جَثَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى رُكْبَتَيْهِ وَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا رَحْمَةً وَّلَا تَجْعَلْهَا عَذَابًا اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا رِيَاحًا وَلَا تَجْعَلْهَا رِيْحًا قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ فِيْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى اِنَّا اَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيْحًا صَرْصَرًا وَاَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ الرِّيْحَ الْعَقِيْمَ وَاَرْسَلْنَا الرِّيَاحَ لَوَاقِحَ وَاَنْ يُّرْسِلَ الرِّيَاحَ مُبَشِّرَاتٍ رَوَاهُ الشَّافِعِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

1519. Sayyiduna ibn Abbas narrated that whenever wind blew (strongly).the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went down on his knees and prayed," O Allah,·let it be a blessing and do not cause it to be a punishment. O Allah, let it be reeah (winds, mercy) not wind punishment Ibn Abbas said that Allah's book Says:

اِنَّا اَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيْحًا صَرْصَرًا وَاَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ الرِّيْحَ الْعَقِيْمَ وَاَرْسَلْنَا الرِّيَاحَ لَوَاقِحَ وَاَنْ يُّرْسِلَ الرِّيَاحَ مُبَشِّرَاتٍ

{we sent on them a furious wind in days in auspicious}(41:16)
{we loosed against them a blighting wind}(51:41)
{we send the winds fertilizing.}(15:22)
{he sends the winds as heralds of glad tidings}(30:46)[1]

COMMENTARY: Generally and correctly the singular form (reeh) is used for punishment. The plural form (riyah) is used for mercy. So in the supplication in this hadith of ibn Abbas riyah means mercy and reeh means punishment. However Abu Jafar Tahawi has pointed out the verse of the Quran with the singular form (ريح) meaning mercy:

وَجَرَيْنَ بِهِمْ بِرِيْحٍ طَيِّبَةٍ

{and they sail with them with a fair breeze}(10:22)

Similarly, some ahadith use the singular form for both good and evil. (see the ahadith #1516) hence Khattabi interprets this hadith thus: many winds bring cloud and rain and resultant produce from the fields. One wind has a lesser effect.

PRAYER WHEN CLOULDY

(١٥٢٠) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اَبْصَرْنَا شَيْئًا مِنَ السَّمَآءِ تَعْنِي السَّحَابَ تَرَكَ عَمَلَهُ وَاسْتَقْبَلَهُ وَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَافِيْهِ فَإِنْ كَشَفَهُ اللّٰهُ حَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَإِنْ مَطَرَتْ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ سَقْيًانَا فِعًا رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالنِّسَائِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالشَّافِعِيُّ وَاللَّفْظُ لَهُ۔

1520. Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated that when the prophet saw any thing in the heaven he meaning, the clouds, he gave up whatever he was doing turned towards them ,and prayd, "O Allah, Iseek refuge in you from the evil that they have" If Allah put them off, he praised Allah. If rain fell, he prayed, "O Allah let it be a beneficial rain.[2]

(١٥٢١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا سَمِعَ صَوْتَ الرَّعْدِ وَالصَّوَاعِقِ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَا تَقْتُلْنَا بِغَضَبِكَ وَلَا تُهْلِكْنَا بِعَذَابِكَ وَعَافِنَا قَبْلَ ذٰلِكَ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

COMMENTARY: Rad (thunder) is also the name of an angel. He is deputed to move the clouds. So, the thunder is his glorification.

Sayyiduna ibn Abbas narrated that they were on a journey with sayyiduna Umar. Suddenly, there was thunder and lightening and cold. Sayyiduna kab said, "if anyone who hears thunder and says three times.

FUNERALS

The word jana'iz is the plural of janazah (funeral). It is also spelt jinazah which is more eloquent. It means the corpse on the bier.
Some people say that janazah (funeral) is the corps while jinazah is the bier or the stretcher (on which the corpse is placed before burial). However, some other people say the opposite of this janazah (funeral) is the bier and jinazah the corpse.

CHAPTER - I

SICK VISIT AND REWARD FOR SICKNESS بَابُ عِيَادَةِ الْمَرِيْضِ وَثَوَابِ الْمَرَضِ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MUST VISIT THE SICK

(١٥٢٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسٰى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَطْعِمُوا الْجَائِعَ وَعُوْدُوا الْمَرِيْضَ وَفُكُّوا الْعَانِيَ۔ (رواه البخارى)

1523. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Feed the (compelled) hungry, visit the sick and emancipate the captives (from prison)."[1]

COMMENTARY: These three things are wajib Kifayah (adequate expedient) which means that if any single person fulfils a duty then the rest are exonerated from doing it. Nevertheless, it is a sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) for all people and fetches reward. If none of them fulfils the duty then all are guilty of the sin of disobedience.
Shaykh Abdul Haq Dahlawi رحمہ اللہ wrote that if a hungry person is not distressed than it is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) to feed him, for he is not likely to die because of hunger. But, if he is in distress and liable to die of hunger then it is fard (compulsory) to feed him. All the people who are rich are bound to feed him and if one of them does it then the rest are absolved of the fard (compulsory).
If anyone is sick and there are people to look after him then to visit the sick is a sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet). If a sick person has no one to look after him, then it is wajib (expedient) to visit him.

MUTUAL RIGHTS OF MUSLIMS

(١٥٢٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَقُّ الْمُسْلِمِ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِ خَمْسٌ رَدُّ السَّلَامِ وَعِيَادَةُ الْمَرِيْضِ وَاتِّبَاعُ الْجَنَائِزِ وَاِجَابَةُ الدَّعْوَةِ وَتَشْمِيْتُ الْعَاطِسِ (متفق عليه)

1524. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The right of a Musli n on another Muslim are five. He must respond to the salaam, visit the sick follow funerals, accept an invitation and pray for the sneezer (when he say al-hamdulillah)."[1]

COMMENTARY: These five things are fard (compulsory) Kifayah. To give salutation is a sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) and among the duties imposed by Islam, but it is a better sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) then fard (compulsory) it grows a sense of humility and is a reason for a wajib (expedient).

Visiting a sick and following funerals are duties that a Muslim may not give to innovators, like the rawafid.

To accept an invitation is to respond to another's appeal for help. Some authorities say that it means an invitation to a meal a function (like wedding, etc.) provided it does not involve a sinful activity. Imam Ghazali رحمه الله said that if someone invites out of boast or show off then his invitation must not be accepted.

If the sneezer says al hamdu lillah on sneezing then the response must be (یرحمک الله) (may Allah have mercy on you).

It is stated in Sharh us -Sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) that these duties are towards all Muslims whether pious of evil, but not the bid'ati (innovators). However, it is necessary to observe that meeting cheerfully and shaking hands applies only to pious Muslims. If a Muslim is a hardened sinner who commits sin brazen facedly, then it is not necessary to meet him cheerfully and to shake hands with him.

(١٥٢٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَقُّ الْمُسْلِمِ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِ سِتٌّ قِيْلَ مَاهُنَّ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ إِذَا لَقِيْتَهُ فَسَلِّمْ عَلَيْهِ وَإِذَا دَعَاكَ فَأَجِبْهُ وَإِذَا اسْتَنْصَحَكَ فَانْصَحْ لَهُ وَإِذَا عَطَسَ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ فَشَمِّتْهُ وَإِذَا مَرِضَ فَعُدْهُ وَإِذَا مَاتَ فَاتَّبِعْهُ (رواه مسلم)

1525. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "A Muslim has six obligations towards another Muslim." He was asked, "And what are they, O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "When you meet him, offer the salaam. When he invites you, accept his invitation. When he expects your advice and good wishes, offer him sincere advice. When he sneezes and says al-humdulillah, say yarhamakAllah (may Allah have mercy on you). When he is sick, pay him a sick visit. And, when he dies, follow him (for the funeral salah (prayer) and burial)."[2]

COMMENTARY: When anyone is ill, he must be visited and his condition should be asked, at least once. There is no truth in what some people say that in some cases a sick person should not be visited. This idea is absolutely wrong.

As for the number of rights, the ahadith do not limit them to five or six. They are very many and the ahadith enumerate them gradually, one by one perhaps, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was told of them little by little.

وَنَهَانَا عَنْ خَاتَمِ الذَّهَبِ وَعَنِ الْحَرِيرِ وَالْإِسْتَبْرَقِ وَالدِّيبَاجِ وَالْمِيثَرَةِ الْحَمْرَاءِ وَالْقَسِّيِّ وَآنِيَةِ الْفِضَّةِ وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ وَعَنِ الشُّرْبِ فِي الْفِضَّةِ فَإِنَّهُ مَنْ شَرِبَ فِيهَا فِي الدُّنْيَا لَمْ يَشْرَبْ فِيهَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ (متفق عليه)

1526. Sayyiduna al-Bara ibn Aazib رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded them to observe seven things and abstain from seven things. Thus, he commanded them to visit the sick, to follow the funerals to pray for the sneezer, to respond to the salaam to accept the invitation, to help one who swears fulfil his oath, to support the wronged one. And he prohibited them to use gold rings, silk, thick brocade, embroidered silk, red padding on saddle, garment of qassyi, vessels of silver.

According to one version: (he forbade) drinking from silk vessels, for, if anyone drinks from silk vessels in this world he will not get to drink from silk vessels in the hereafter. [1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone swears about something and you are able to help him fulfil his promise and that is not sinful then you must fulfil his promise.

It is wajib (expedient) to help the wronged one both a Muslim and a dhimimi. This help can be verbal or by action.

The padded saddle is used out of arrogance. If it is silken then it is forbidden whatever its colour. Other then silk, a red saddle is makruh (unbecoming). If it is not red, then it is allowed.

Qassyi is a garment made of silk and flax. It is ascribed to Qass in Egypt.

Like silver vessels, golden vessels are forbidden too. In fact, it is more sinful to use golden vessels than silver.

The things forbidden in this hadith are disallowed to men, not to women, except vessels of gold and silver that are forbidden to both men and women.

Anyone who uses vessels of silver is this world will not be given these vessels in the next world till his punishment is served by him. Or, he will not be allowed these vessels during the standing and the reckoning. Or, even after admittance to paradise, he will not be allowed to use them for some time. The same logic applies to men who wear silk in this world and, according to a hadith, will not be allowed silk in the next world. Again, the hadith about wine being disallowed in the next world may be interpreted to mean for a length of time.

REWARD FOR SICK VISIT

(١٥٢٧) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الْمُسْلِمَ إِذَا عَادَ أَخَاهُ الْمُسْلِمَ لَمْ يَزَلْ فِي خُرْفَةِ الْجَنَّةِ حَتَّى يَرْجِعَ (رواه مسلم)

1527. Sayyiduna Thawban رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A Muslim who pays a sick visit to his (sick) brother Muslim continues to draw from (Allah's mercy) the fruit of paradise till he returns (from the sick visit).[2]

COMMENTARY: As long as a Muslim stays with his sick brother, he is covered with Allah's mercy and blessings, Thus he becomes eligible for paradise and its fruit.

IMPORTANCE OF SICK VISIT

(١٥٢٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى يَقُوْلُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ مَرِضْتُ فَلَمْ تَعُدْنِيْ قَالَ يَا رَبِّ كَيْفَ اَعُوْدُكَ وَاَنْتَ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ قَالَ اَمَا عَلِمْتَ اَنَّ عَبْدِيْ فُلَانًا مَرِضَ فَلَمْ تَعُدْهُ اَمَا عَلِمْتَ اَنَّكَ لَوْ عُدْتَّهُ لَوَجَدْتَّنِيْ عِنْدَهُ يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ اِسْتَطْعَمْتُكَ فَلَمْ تُطْعِمْنِيْ قَالَ يَا رَبِّ كَيْفَ اُطْعِمُكَ وَاَنْتَ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ قَالَ اَمَا عَلِمْتَ اَنَّهُ اسْتَطْعَمَكَ عَبْدِيْ فُلَانٌ فَلَمْ تُطْعِمْهُ اَمَا عَلِمْتَ اَنَّكَ لَوْ اَطْعَمْتَهُ لَوَجَدْتَّ ذٰلِكَ عِنْدِيْ يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ اِسْتَسْقَيْتُكَ فَلَمْ تَسْقِنِيْ قَالَ يَا رَبِّ كَيْفَ اَسْقِيْكَ وَاَنْتَ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ قَالَ اسْتَسْقَاكَ عَبْدِيْ فُلَانٌ فَلَمْ تَسْقِهِ اَمَا عَلِمْتَ اَنَّكَ لَوْ سَقَيْتَهُ وَجَدْتَّ ذٰلِكَ عِنْدِيْ (رواه مسلم)

1528. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah, the exalted will say on the day of resurrection. "O son of Aadam, I was ill but you did not visit me." He will ask, "O my Lord, how could I visit you when you are the Lord of the worlds?" Allah will say, "Where you not aware that My certain slave was ill but you did not visit him? Were you not aware that had you visit him you would surely have found Me with him? O son of Aadam, I asked you for food, but you did not feed Me." He will say "O my Lord, how could I feed you when you are the Lord of the worlds?" Allah will say, "Were you not aware that My certain slave asked you for food but you did not feed him? Were you not aware that had you fed him, you would have found that with Me? O son of Aadam, I asked you for drink, but you did not give me to drink." He will ask, O my Lord, how could I give you to drink when you are the Lord of the worlds?" Allah will say, "My certain slave asked you for drink but you did not give him to drink. Were you not aware that had you given him to drink, you would have found that with me?"[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah will say about a sick visit 'you would have found me with him.' But about the other two things. 'you would have found the reward with me.' This shows that a sick-visit is better than feeding and giving drink to the hungry and thirsty.

SICK VISIT TO JUNIOR

(١٥٢٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ عَلٰى اَعْرَابِيٍّ يَعُوْدُهُ وَكَانَ اِذَا دَخَلَ عَلٰى مَرِيْضٍ يَعُوْدُهُ قَالَ لَا بَأْسَ طَهُوْرٌ اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ فَقَالَ لَهُ لَا بَأْسَ طَهُوْرٌ اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ قَالَ كَلَّا بَلْ حُمّٰى تَفُوْرُ عَلٰى شَيْخٍ كَبِيْرٍ تُزِيْرُهُ الْقُبُوْرَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَنَعَمْ اِذًا (رواه البخاری)

1529. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم paid a sick visit to a villager. It was his habit that when he visited a sick man, he would say, "Do not fear. It will purify you (of sins) if Allah will." So he said to the villager too, "Do not fear, It will purify you, if Allah will." But, the villager said, "Rather, no! It is a fever that boils in an old man. It will take him to the grave." The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "In that case, yes!"[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم taught the ummah that they should visit a sick junior too. The villager was foolish and found his condition unbearable.

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRAYER FOR THE SICK

(١٥٣٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اشْتَكٰى مِنَّا إِنْسَانٌ مَسَحَهُ بِيَمِيْنِهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ أَذْهِبِ الْبَأْسَ رَبَّ النَّاسِ وَاشْفِ أَنْتَ الشَّافِيْ لَا شِفَاءَ إِلَّا شِفَاؤُكَ شِفَاءً لَا يُغَادِرُ سَقَمًا (متفق عليه)

1530. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that when anyone of them had an illness, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم stroked him with his right hand and prayed:

أَذْهِبِ الْبَأْسَ رَبَّ النَّاسِ وَاشْفِ أَنْتَ الشَّافِيْ لَا شِفَاءَ إِلَّا شِفَاؤُكَ شِفَاءً لَا يُغَادِرُ سَقَمًا

"Take away the harm, O Lord of mankind and heal. You are the Healer. There is no cure but from you - a cure that will leave no sickness."[1]

(١٥٣١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ إِذَا اشْتَكَى الْإِنْسَانُ الشَّيْءَ مِنْهُ أَوْكَانَتْ بِهٖ قُرْحَةٌ أَوْجُرْحٌ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِإِصْبَعِهٖ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ تُرْبَةُ أَرْضِنَا بِرِيْقَةِ بَعْضِنَا لِيُشْفٰى سَقِيْمُنَا بِإِذْنِ رَبِّنَا۔ (متفق عليه)

1531. Sayyiduna Ayshah narrated that if anyone complained of a pain or if he had a sore or a wound, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم pointed his finger (at it) and prayed, 'In the name of Allah, the dust of our earth with the saliva of one of us so that our sick one may cured by the permission of our Lord."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is said that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to put his spittle on his finger and put the finger on dust. Then he placed the dusty finger on the affected or painful portion of the body and stroked it while making the supplication (بسم الله) (In the name of Allah..... to the end).

While curing sores and wounds, this method and supplication were a sign of the Divine signs that only the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم knew. Our intelligence is not capable of grasping it. However, Qadi Baydawi رحمه الله said that saliva and dust of the native land are very effective in retaining one's temperament to normal. Also, when one travel, one must carry with him dust of one's native land and some water in which a little dust must be put. During the journey, he must drink from it. This will preserve him from change in his temperament.

Other explanation are given but the correct is that our intelligence is unable to fathom it.

Ashrarf رحمه الله has said that the validity of ruqyah (charm, talisman) is established through this hadith provided works of disbelief are not incorporated in the incantation, like sorcery, expression of disbelief and polytheism. The correct verdict is whatever the language of the incantation, even Arabic, it is not correct to read it until its meaning is known. However, a hadith gives an incantation (بسم الله شعة قرنية) for the sting of a scorpion though its meaning is unknown. It is allowed to recite these words of the hadith never these.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was unwell, he blow on himself after reciting the mu'awwidhat (last two surahs of the Quran) and stroked himself with his hand when he was sick with the illness before his death, she would recite the mu'awwidhat and blow on him as he had been accustomed to do. She would take the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم hand and stroke him lightly with it.

Another version says: 'Whenever anyone of his family fell ill, he recited the mu'awwidhat and blow on him."[1]

COMMENTARY: The mu'awwidhat are the surah al-falaq and an-Naas. The plural is used (instead of the dual) because of the verses. Or, they mean three surahs including surah al-Ikhlas. Some people include the surah al-Kafirun too.

The second version does not mention the stroking with the hand, but blowing on someone (or on oneself) includes wiping over with the hand. Or, sometimes the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم merely blew on the patient without wiping over with the hand, though the correct position is that blowing is inclusive of stroking with the hand.

It is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet), according to this hadith, that verses of the Quran may be recited and blown over the patient.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF FROM PAIN

(١٥٣٣) وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ ابْنِ اَبِي الْعَاصِ اَنَّهُ شَكٰى إِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَجَعًا يَجِدُهُ فِيْ جَسَدِهٖ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ضَعْ يَدَكَ عَلَى الَّذِىْ يَأْلَمُ مِنْ جَسَدِكَ وَقُلْ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ ثَلَاثًا وَقُلْ سَبْعَ مَرَّاتٍ اَعُوْذُ بِعِزَّةِ اللّٰهِ وَ قُدْرَتِهٖ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا اَجِدُ وَ اُحَاذِرُ قَالَ فَفَعَلْتُ فَاَذْهَبَ اللّٰهُ مَا كَانَ بِيْ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

1533. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Abu al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when he complained to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of a pain he experienced in his body, he instructed him to put his hand where it ached on his body and recite (بسم اللہ) (In the name of Allah) three times, and:

اَعُوْذُ بِعِزَّةِ اللّٰهِ وَ قُدْرَتِهٖ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا اَجِدُ وَ اُحَاذِرُ

"I seek refuge in the might of Allah and His power fro the evil of what I am going through and fear (last it increase)."

He said that he followed the instructions and Allah removed what he was experiencing.[2]

JIBRIL'S علیہ السلام PRAYER ON PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ILLNESS

(١٥٣٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ اَنَّ جِبْرِيْلَ اَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ اشْتَكَيْتَ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ اَرْقِيْكَ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْئٍ يُؤْذِيْكَ مِنْ شَرِّ كُلِّ نَفْسٍ اَوْعَيْنِ حَاسِدٍ اَللّٰهُ

يَشْفِيْكَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ اَرْقِيْكَ (رواه مسلم)

1534. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that (Sayyiduna) Jibril عليه السلام came to the Prophet صلی الله عليه وسلم and asked, "O Muhammad, do you have a complaint?" He said, "Yes!" He said, "In the name of Allah, I apply a charm to you from whatever harms you, from the evil of every soul, and the eye of t he envious one. May Allah cure you. In the name of Allah I apply a charm to you."[1]

REFUGE IN ALLAH FROM EVIL AND CALAMITY

(١٥٣٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعَوِّذُ الْحَسَنَ وَالْحُسَيْنَ أُعِيْذُكُمَا بِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّةِ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْطَانٍ وَهَامَّةٍ وَمِنْ كُلِّ عَيْنٍ لَّامَّةٍ وَيَقُوْلُ إِنَّ أَبَاكُمَا يُعَوِّذُ بِهَا إِسْمَاعِيْلَ وَإِسْحَاقَ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ وَفِيْ أَكْثَرِ نُسَخِ الْمَصَابِيْحِ بِهِمَا عَلٰى لَفْظِ التَّثْنِيَةِ

1535. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله عليه وسلم prayed to Allah for protection of (Sayyidunas) Hasan and Husayn (in these words:)

أُعِيْذُكُمَا بِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّةِ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْطَانٍ وَهَامَّةٍ وَمِنْ كُلِّ عَيْنٍ لَّامَّةٍ

"I seek refuge for you both in the perfect words of Allah from every devil and reptile and from every evil eye."

And he would say, "Your father, Ibrahim عليه السلام, prayed from Allah's protection of Isma'il عليه السلام and Ishaq عليه السلام, with them."[2]

Most texts of al-Masabih have with them (meaning these words) in the dual.

COMMENTARY: The words of Allah could be His knowledge, or His pure attribute, or His Books.The evil of every devil is the evil of every transgressing one whether of mankind or jinn, or of animals.

The reptile is every poisonous creature whose sting causes death, Sometimes insects of the earth are also called hummah (هامة) while sammah (سامة) are those whose sting does not cause death.

The word (بها) (with them) towards the conclusion of the hadith are (بهما) (with both) in most texts of al-Masabih referring to 'the evil of every devil' and 'every evil eye.' But, Allamah Teebi رحمه الله blames it to the scribes error.

HARDSHIP IS ALLAH'S MERCY

(١٥٣٦) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يُّرِدِ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ خَيْرًا يُّصِبْ مِنْهُ (رواه البخاری)

1536. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله عليه وسلم said, 'If Allah decided good for anyone then he is involved in some hardship."[3]

COMMENTARY: Hardship is severy such thing that the heart does not accept. It can be a difficulty, an illness, a tragedy or sorrow. It does not imply Allah's wrath but even if Allah decides to show favour and mercy to a person then He afflicts him with trial so that his sins are erased and, having endured the severity, his heart and mind become receptive to good and its radiance if anyone bears patiently hardship and remains pleased then it shows that the hardship will bring him Allah's pleasure and mercy.

However, if anyone does not show patience but displays violent emotion and restlessness then the hardship is punishment to him from Allah.

SORROW REMOVES SINS

(١٥٣٧) وَعَنْهُ وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا يُصِيْبُ الْمُسْلِمَ مِنْ نَصَبٍ وَلَا وَصَبٍ وَلَا هَمٍّ وَلَا حُزْنٍ وَلَا أَذًى وَلَا غَمٍّ حَتّٰى الشَّوْكَةِ يُشَاكُهَا إِلَّا كَفَّرَ اللّٰهُ بِهَا مِنْ خَطَايَاهُ (متفق عليه)

1537. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "when a Muslim faces a difficulty, pain, anxiety, sorrow hardship or worry, or is pierced by a thorn, Allah makes that an atonement for his sins."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words used in the hadith are nearly synonymous, except that (هم) applies to an anxiety that might strike. On the other hand (غم) (gumm) is a sorrow that has struck already.

So any kind of sorrow or harm that a Muslim endures erases his minor sins.

PROPHET'S DIFFICULTY AND ILLNESS

1538. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه narrated that he visited the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he had fever. He touched him with his hand and said, "O Messenger of Allah, you have high fever." He said, "Yes, I get fever twice as much as any of you." Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه said, "That is because you will get reward twice over." He said, "Yes!" and added, "If a Muslim is afflicted by difficulty through illness or otherwise then Allah causes his sins to be cast away because of that just as a tree casts down its leaves."[2]

1539. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that she never found anyone suffering a pain more severe than Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم[3]

PANGS OF DEATH ARE SYMBOL OF EXALTED RANKS

(١٥٤٠) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ مَاتَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ حَاقِنَتِيْ وَذَاقِنَتِيْ فَلَا أَكْرَهُ شِدَّةَ الْمَوْتِ لِأَحَدٍ

أَبَدًا بَعْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ (رواه البخارى)

1540. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died between her breast and her coller bone. She said, "I shall never feel repulsed about anyone experiencing terrible pangs of death after I saw the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم suffer. [1]

COMMENTARY: The pangs of death are not against sins and not a sign of evil death. Rather, they are symbols of exalted ranks.

Also, an easy death and soft pangs of death do not mean higher merits or excellence of rank, for, if that was so then the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was the most excellent of all.

EXAMPLE OF BELIEVER OF HYPOCRITE

(١٥٤١) وَعَنْ كَعْبِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ الْمُؤْمِنِ كَمَثَلِ الْخَامَةِ مِنَ الزَّرْعِ تُفِيْئُهَا الرِّيَاحُ تَصْرَعُهَا مَرَّةً وَتَعْدِلُهَا أُخْرٰى حَتّٰى يَأْتِيَهُ أَجَلُهُ وَ مَثَلُ الْمُنَافِقِ كَمَثَلِ الْأَرْزَةِ الْمُجْذِيَةِ الَّتِيْ لَا يُصِيْبُهَا شَيْءٌ حَتّٰى يَكُوْنَ انْجِعَافُهَا مَرَّةً وَاحِدَةً (متفق عليه)

1541. Sayyiduna Ka'b ibn Maalik narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The example of the believer is like the soft plant stirred by the winds - now banding down, now standing erect. And, thus his time comes. And, the example of the hypocrite is like the cedar tree that stands unmoved. It is not influenced by anything (not even the winds) till it is uprooted once for all (suddenly)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The believer is like a soft tree. He endures difficulties but remains steadfast on his place till he dies, like the soft tree that away with the wind but keeps its place.

The hypocrite is like a cedar tree, stiff and unyielding. But, it is uprooted suddenly for no apparent reason.

Both the believer and the hypocrite go through the ups and downs of life. The former shows patience and is rewarded in the hereafter with paradise. The latter seems to be happy but, when beset with problems, he cannot endure. He is failure in the hereafter.

(١٥٤٢) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ الْمُؤْمِنِ كَمَثَلِ الزَّرْعِ لَا تَزَالُ الرِّيحُ تُمِيْلُهُ وَلَا يَزَالُ الْمُؤْمِنُ يُصِيْبُهُ الْبَلَاءُ وَمَثَلُ الْمُنَافِقِ كَمَثَلِ شَجَرَةِ الْأَرْزَةِ لَا تَهْتَزُّ حَتّٰى تُسْتَحْصَدَ (متفق عليه)

1542. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The believer is like a field with which the wind continues to play, so he too is ceaselessly faced with trials. The hypocrite is like a pine tree that is motionless till it is uprooted."[3]

COMMENTARY: The hypocrite lives an easy life in this world but will face punishment in the next. The believer's life is hard in this world but he will find it comfortable in the next.

DO NOT CURSE ILLNESS

1543. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم visited Sayyidah Umm Sa'ib رضی الله عنه and asked, "What is wrong? Why do you tremble?" She complained, I have) fever. May Allah not bless it!" He said, "Do not curse it. It erases sins of the sons(offspring) of Aadam in the same way as bellows get rid of the dross of iron."[1]

COMMENTARY: According to one tradition: Allah, the Exalted, removes the sins of a believer because of the sickness of one night. Another tradition of Abu Dawud says that the sickness of one night removes sins of one year.

REWARD ACCRUES FOR PIETY MISSED DURING SICKNESS

(١٥٤٤) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ مُوْسٰى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا مَرِضَ الْعَبْدُ اَوْ سَافَرَ كُتِبَ لَهٗ بِمِثْلِ مَا كَانَ يَعْمَلُ مُقِيْمًا صَحِيْحًا۔ (رواه البخاری)

1544. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "when a person is ill or on a journey (and misses his optional pious actions), that which he used to do during residence and sound health is recorded for him (in his record of deeds)."[2]

DEATH DURING PLAGUE

(١٥٤٥) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الطَّاعُوْنُ شَهَادَةٌ كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ (متفق علیه)

1545. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "plague is martyrdom of every Muslim (who dies of it)."[3]

COMMENTARY: When plague spreads in a place, the Muslim who endure the hardship and do not flee from that place but stay put relying on Allah and die there of plague, they get the reward of martyrs.

REWARD OF MARTYRS

(١٥٤٦) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الشُّهَدَاءُ خَمْسَةٌ الْمَطْعُوْنُ وَالْمَبْطُوْنُ وَالْغَرِيْقُ وَصَاحِبُ الْهَدْمِ وَالشَّهِيْدُ فِىْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ (متفق علیه)

1546. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said "Martyrs are of five kinds: who dies of plague, who dies of stomach trouble, who drowns, who is crushed under falling structure and who is martyred in Allah's path."[4]

COMMENTARY: One who drawn gets the reward of the martyrs provided he does not drown intentionally.

The martyr in the real sense of the word is he who gives his life in Allah's path. The other three kinds of martyrs are hypothetical. In fact, there are many more kinds of hypothetical martyrs mentioned in some other well-known ahadith. Some of the ulama (Scholars) like Suyuti رحمه الله have put them together and some of them are they who die: of dhat ul janb (pleurisy), of burning, during pregnancy. During virginity, before her child is weaned, of tuberculosis, during a journey, on falling down from riding beast during a journey, while guarding the Islamic frontiers, after falling into a pit, being devoured by wild beasts, while defending or protecting own property, family, religion, life or right; through natural death during jihad; and of natural death after longing for a martyr's death without getting an opportunity for it.

[2] Bukhari # 2996.

Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه said that if a person is oppressed and imprisoned by the ruler and dies of torture then he is a martyr. If any one is cruelly beaten and dies of it then he is a martyr. If anyone dies while upholding tawhid (unity of Allah) then he is a martyr.

Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that (death from) fever is martyrdom.

Sayyiduna Abu Ubayday ibn Al-Jarrah رضی الله عنه narrated that he asked, "O Messenger of Allah, which kind of martyr is the most excellent in Allah's eyes?" He said, "He who confronts a tyrant and enjoins him with piety and forbids evil but the tyrant kills him.'

Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی الله عنه narrated (the tradition) that the person on whom a horse or camel treads and crushes and he dies, or whom a poisonous animal stings and he dies, is a martyr.

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that if a man is in love (with a women) and he remains chaste and righteous and keeps his love undisclosed till he dies then he is a martyr.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said that while anyone who is sailing in a boat becomes sick and vomits, he will earn the rank of a shahid (martyrs).

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated in a marfu from that if anyone makes this supplication twenty-five times a day:

اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لِيْ فِي الْمَوْتِ وَفِيْمَا بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ

(O Allah, bless me in death and in what will follow after death), and dies a natural death, then Allah will grant him reward of the death of a martyr.

Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated in a marfu form, "If anyone offers the salah (prayer) of duha (which is ishraq and chaast) and fasts for three days in a month and never misses the salah (prayer) of witr, neither at home nor during a journey, then he will get the reward of a martyr."

Similarly, when there is a general straying of the masses in belief and deeds and someone sticks to sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) and seeks knowledge and dies in that condition then he is a martyr. One who seeks to learn is he who is occupied in acquiring knowledge and teaching and learning or writing and editing books, or he simply joins a circle of learning. He who spends his life in hospitality to people and serving them is a martyr.

Anyone who is wounded on the battlefield but dies after acquiring some benefit from something of the world (he) is martyr.

If anyone consigns cereal or grain to the Muslims and if anyone earns a living for his family and slaves, then they both are martyrs.

The sexually defiled man who is slain by an infidel on the battlefield is a martyr. So is he who dies when water chokes his throat.

According to a hadith if a sick Muslim makes the supplication of prophet Yunus علیه السلام forty times:

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ اِنِّیْ كُنْتُ مِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ

"and dies of that illness then he will get the reward of a martyr. And, if he recovers from that illness then he regains health while he is forgiven.

The hadith also places a truthful, trustworthy merchant with the martyrs on the day of resurrection.

He who dies on the night of Friday is a martyr.

According to a hadith, the mu'adhdhin who calls the adhan, without demanding a remuneration, only for Allah's pleasure is like a martyr who is drenched in his blood and trembles when he dies, his grave is without worms.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone invokes blessing on me once. Allah showers on him His mercy ten times. If anyone invokes blessing on me ten times, then Allah showers His mercy on him one hundred times. If anyone invokes blessing on me one hundred times, then Allah inscribes bara'ah between his two eyes. Bara'ah (freedom, exoneration) is deliverance from hypocrisy and the Fire and Allah will place him with the martyrs on the day of resurrection."

If anyone recites, in the morning, three times: (اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ السَّمِيْعِ الْعَلِيْمِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيْمِ) followed by the last three verses of surah al-Hashr, then Allah appoint seventy thousand angels who seek forgiveness for him till evening. If he dies during that day then his death is the death of a martyr. If anyone recites them in a evening, then he too qualifies for the same reward.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم advised a man, "when you go to your bed in the night, recite the concluding verses of surah al-Hashr. If you die (in the night), you will earn the death of a martyr."

If anyone dies of epilepsy, then he is a martyr. He who dies during the pilgrimage of Hajj (pilgrimage) or umrah is a martyr. He who dies while his ablution is intact is a martyr.

Also, one who dies in the month of Ramadan, or in the cities Bayt ul Maqdis, Makkah or Madinah is a martyr. He who dies of consumption is a martyr.

If anyone recites every morning and evening (مَقَالِيْدُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ الخ) (39:63) then he will be regarded a martyr. A hadith speaks of its merit. (The verse means: {to Him belong the keys of the heavens and the earth....} to the end)

The martyrs also include:

- One who dies at the age of ninety
- One who dies while possessed by an evil spirit.
- One whose parents are pleased with him during his lifetime.
- A wife whose husband is pleased with her as long as she was alive.

The Muslim who is kindly to a weak old Muslim or helps him is also a martyr.

WHEN PLAGUE STRIKES

(١٥٤٧) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ سَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الطَّاعُوْنِ فَاَخْبَرَنِیْ اَنَّهٗ عَذَابٌ يَبْعَثُهُ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ جَعَلَهٗ رَحْمَةً لِّلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ لَيْسَ مِنْ اَحَدٍ يَقَعُ الطَّاعُوْنُ فَيَمْكُثُ فِیْ بَلَدِهٖ صَابِرًا مُحْتَسِبًا يَعْلَمُ اَنَّهٗ لَا يُصِيْبُهٗ اِلَّا مَا كَتَبَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ اِلَّا كَانَ لَهٗ مِثْلُ اَجْرِ شَهِيْدٍ (رواه البخاری)

1547. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about plague. He said, "It is a punishment that Allah send upon whomsoever he wills. But, surely, Allah has made it a mercy for the believers whoever stays put in his town when plague strikes it, patiently seek reward from Allah and knowing that only what Allah has decreed for him shall happen to him will earn a reward similar to that of a martyr."[1]

CLEAR GUIDANCE CONCERNING PLAGUE-HIT AREA

(١٥٤٨) وَعَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الطَّاعُوْنُ رِجْزٌ أُرْسِلَ عَلٰى طَائِفَةٍ مِّنْ بَنِيْ إِسْرَائِيْلَ أَوْعَلٰى مَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ فَإِذَا سَمِعْتُمْ بِهٖ بِأَرْضٍ فَلَا تَقْدَمُوْا عَلَيْهِ وَإِذَا وَقَعَ بِأَرْضٍ وَأَنْتُمْ بِهَا فَلَا تَخْرُجُوْا فِرَارًا مِّنْهُ (متفق عليه)

1548. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Plague is a punishment that has been sent down upon some of the Banu Isra'il or upon those who had existed before you (the sub-narrator was unsure which words were spoken). So, when you learn about it (having spread) in a land, do not go to it. And, when it strikes the land where you are, do not leave it fleeing from it."[2]

COMMENTARY: These people of Banu Isra'il were they whom Allah had commanded to enter the gate prostrating. But, they were disobedient and obstinate so Allah sent down on them a scourge from heaven. (surah al-Baqarah verses 58, 59) As a result, twenty-four thousand of their old people died instantly.

The two instructions given in this hadith are applied always. One must not go were an epidemic has spread and not run away from the place if he is already there. If anyone flees then he would commit a grave sin and be a spurned one. Apart from an epidemic, one may seek refuge elsewhere if other kinds of trouble are likely, including after earthquake, fire or possibility of a building tumbling down.

COPING WITH BLINDNESS

(١٥٤٩) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ قَالَ اللّٰهُ سُبْحَانَهٗ وَتَعَالٰى إِذَا ابْتَلَيْتُ عَبْدِيْ بِحَبِيْبَتَيْهِ ثُمَّ صَبَرَ عَوَّضْتُهٗ مِنْهُمَا الْجَنَّةَ يُرِيْدُ عَيْنَيْهِ (رواه البخاری)

1549. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala (Glorious and Exalted) say, "When I afflict a slave of Mine in his two dear ones he braves if calmly, I shall atone for it with paradise."[3] The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم referred to two eyes when he quoted Allah's saying 'two dear ones.'

COMMENTARY: A person who is deprived of his eyesight must not complain and be depressed. Rather, he must be patient and grateful to Allah. His blindness is not because of Allah's displeasure but to remove his sins and to raise his ranks. A saintly man was deprived of his eyesight in old age. He used to say, "The solitude that I craved for is now available to me."

SICK VISIT & REWARD FOR IT

(١٥٥٠) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَعُوْدُ مُسْلِمًا غُدْوَةً إِلَّا صَلَّى عَلَيْهِ سَبْعُوْنَ أَلْفَ مَلَكٍ حَتّٰى يُمْسِيَ وَإِنْ عَادَهُ عَشِيَّةً إِلَّا صَلَّى عَلَيْهِ سَبْعُوْنَ أَلْفَ مَلَكٍ حَتّٰى يُصْبِحَ وَكَانَ لَهُ خَرِيْفٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

1550. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say. "If a Muslim pays a visit to a sick Muslim in the morning then seventy thousand angels call blessing on him till the evening. If he pays the sick visit in the evening then seventy thousand angels invoke blessing on him till morning. A garden is set aside for him a paradise."[1]

SICK VISIT TO ONE WITH EYE TROUBLE

(١٥٥١) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَرْقَمَ قَالَ عَادَنِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ وَجَعٍ كَانَ بِعَيْنَيَّ (رواه احمد و ابوداؤد)

1551. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم visited him when his eyes had ached. [2]

COMMENTARY: It is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) to visit a person who has pain in his eyes or suffers from some other eye ailment. However, according to a tradition in Jami Saghir patients of three kinds of illnesses must not be visited. They are:

(i) pain in eyes,
(ii) toothache, and
(iii) abases of boils.

Reading the two traditions together, it means that only those people may visit these three patients whose visit will not cause inconvenience to these patients.

This hadith (# 1551) may be said to call for the sick visit at the last stage and the hadith of Jami Saghir applies at the first stage.

SUNNAH (PRACTICE OF HOLY PROPHET) OF MAKE ABLUTION BEFORE PAYING SICK VISIT

(١٥٥٢) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَوَضَّأَ فَأَحْسَنَ الْوُضُوْءَ وَعَادَ أَخَاهُ الْمُسْلِمَ مُحْتَسِبًا بُوْعِدَ مِنْ جَهَنَّمَ مَسِيْرَةَ سِتِّيْنَ خَرِيْفًا (رواه ابوداؤد)

1552. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone performs ablution and makes it a perfect ablution and pays a sick visit to his brother Muslim aiming for a reward then he is put away from hell a distance of sixty years."[3]

COMMENTARY: The wisdom behind making ablution is that a sick visit is a worship and with the ablution it becomes perfect.

The ulama (Scholars) say that this condition is conducive to supplication being accepted.

PRAYER FOR SICK

(رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی)

1553. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a Muslim visits another sick Muslim and prays seven times:

اَسْأَلُ اللّٰهَ الْعَظِيْمَ رَبَّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيْمِ اَنْ يَشْفِيَكَ

"I ask Allah, the Mighty, Lord of mighty throne, to cure you, then he will be cured unless his term is over."[1]

PRAYER FOR FEVER AND PAIN

(١٥٥٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُعَلِّمُهُمْ مِنَ الْحُمّٰى وَمِنَ الْاَوْجَاعِ كُلِّهَا اَنْ يَقُوْلُوْا بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الْكَبِيْرِ اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ الْعَظِيْمِ مِنْ شَرِّ كُلِّ عِرْقٍ نَعَّارٍ وَمِنْ شَرِّ حَرِّ النَّارِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ لَا نَعْرِفُهُ اِلَّا مِنْ حَدِيْثِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ بْنِ اِسْمَاعِيْلَ وَهُوَ يُضَعَّفُ فِي الْحَدِيْثِ۔

1554. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to teach them to pray when afflicted with fever and pain.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الْكَبِيْرِ اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ الْعَظِيْمِ مِنْ شَرِّ كُلِّ عِرْقٍ نَعَّارٍ وَمِنْ شَرِّ حَرِّ النَّارِ

'In the name of Allah, the Great (I begin to blow). I seek refuge I Allah, the Mighty, from the evil of every bursting vein and from the evil of the heat of the Fire.'[2]

COMMENTARY: The bursting vein is a `rush of blood in the veins. When this happens it causes much restlessness through fever and other diseases.

PRAYER IN ILLNESS

(١٥٥٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنِ اشْتَكٰى مِنْكُمْ شَيْئًا اَوِ اشْتَكَاهُ اَخٌ لَهُ فَلْيَقُلْ رَبَّنَا اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْ فِي السَّمَاءِ تَقَدَّسَ اسْمُكَ اَمْرُكَ فِي السَّمَاءِ وَالْاَرْضِ كَمَا رَحْمَتُكَ فِي السَّمَاءِ فَاجْعَلْ رَحْمَتَكَ فِي الْاَرْضِ اِغْفِرْلَنَا ذُنُوْبَنَا وَ خَطَايَا اَنْتَ رَبُّ الطَّيِّبِيْنَ اَنْزِلْ رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَحْمَتِكَ وَشِفَاءً مِنْ شِفَائِكَ عَلٰى هٰذَا الْوَجَعِ فَيَبْرَأُ(رواه ابوداؤد)

1555. Sayyiduna Abu Ad-Darda narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "If any of you is ill, or a brother of his is ill, let him pray:

شِفَائِكَ عَلٰى هٰذَا الْوَجَعِ فَيَبْرَأُ

'O Lord who are in heaven, your name is sacred. Your command prevails in the heaven and the earth just as your mercy is in the heaven. So cause your mercy to prevail on earth. Forgive us our sins, minor and major. You are the Lord of the pious. Send down from your mercy and from your healing on this pain, so that it shall be cured."[1]

COMMENTARY: In the heaven, Allah's mercy is on every single one, but on earth, it is on some specifically but not on all. It is only on the believers. Though everyone benefits from his general mercy, as he says:

رَحْمَتِيْ وَسِعَتْ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ

{My mercy embraces all things} (7: 156)

The pious are the believers who are free of polytheism. Or the righteous Muslim who abstain from evil deeds and words.

PRAYER DURING SICK VISIT

(١٥٥٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا جَآءَ الرَّجُلُ يَعُوْدُ مَرِيْضًا فَلْيَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اشْفِ عَبْدَكَ يَنْكَأُ لَكَ عَدُوًّا اَوْ يَمْشِيْ لَكَ إِلٰى جَنَازَةٍ(رواه ابوداؤد)

1556. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When a man pays a visit to a sick person, let him pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اشْفِ عَبْدَكَ يَنْكَأُ لَكَ عَدُوًّا اَوْ يَمْشِيْ لَكَ إِلٰى جَنَازَةٍ

'O Allah, heal your slave so that he may tackle on enemy effectively for your sake or walk to a funeral for your pleasure."[2]

EXPIATION OF SINS

(١٥٥٧) وَعَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ زَيْدٍ عَنْ أُمَيَّةَ اَنَّهَا سَأَلَتْ عَائِشَةَ عَنْ قَوْلِ اللّٰهِ عَزَّوَجَلَّ إِنْ تُبْدُوْا مَافِيْ اَنْفُسِكُمْ اَوْ تُخْفُوْهُ يُحَاسِبْكُمْ بِهِ اللّٰهُ وَعَنْ قَوْلِهٖ وَمَنْ يَّعْمَلْ سُوْءً يُّجْزَبِهٖ فَقَالَتْ مَاسَأَلَنِيْ عَنْهَا اَحَدٌ مُنْذُ سَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ هٰذِهٖ مُعَاتَبَةُ اللّٰهِ الْعَبْدَ بِمَا يُصِيْبُهٗ مِنَ الْحُمّٰى وَالنَّكْبَةِ حَتَّى الْبِضَاعَةِ يَضَعُهَافِيْ يَدِ قَمِيْصِهٖ فَيَفْقِدُهَا فَيَفْزَعُ لَهَا حَتّٰى إِنَّ الْعَبْدَ لَيَخْرُجُ مِنْ ذُنُوْبِهٖ كَمَا يَخْرُجُ التِّبْرُ الْاَحْمَرُ مِنَ الْكِيْرِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ۔

1557. Sayyiduna ali ibn Zayd رحمہ اللہ narrated that Sayyiduna Umayyah رحمہ اللہ reported that he asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا about the words of Allah, Blessed and Exalted:

إِنْ تُبْدُوْا مَافِيْ اَنْفُسِكُمْ اَوْ تُخْفُوْهُ يُحَاسِبْكُمْ بِهِ اللّٰهُ

{Whether you disclose whatsoever is in you mind or conceal it. Allah will call you to account for it} (2:284) and:

مَنْ يَّعْمَلْ سُوْءً يُّجْزَبِهٖ

{He who does evil shall be recompensed for it} (4:123)
She said, "No one has asked me about them since I had asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He had said, 'This is how Allah afflicts His slaves in difficulties, like fever and misfortune, even loss of something that he places in his shirt pocket and grieves for it. Thus the slave emerges out of his sins as though pure gold is drawn from the bellows."[1]

COMMENTARY: The sahabah (companions) were worried that they would have to account for what thoughts they got in their hearts and they would be punished for their deeds minor or major, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا explained that Allah would not punish them for their thoughts and every kind of sin. Rather, Allah punishes the believers in this world for their sins through illness or grief and sorrow. These things atone for their sins. It is like a friend being displeased because of the wrong attitude of his friend, but of heart he continues to love him.

(١٥٥٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسٰى اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يُصِيْبُ عَبْدًا نَكْبَةٌ فَمَا فَوْقَهَا اَوْدُوْنَهَا اِلَّا بِذَنْبٍ وَمَا يَعْفُو اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ اَكْثَرُ وَقَرَأَ وَمَا اَصَابَكُمْ مِّنْ مُّصِيْبَةٍ فَبِمَا كَسَبَتْ اَيْدِيْكُمْ وَ يَعْفُوْ عَنْ كَثِيْرٍ (رواه الترمذی)

1558. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A person does not suffer a hardship, severe or soft, but for a sin. However, that which Allah forgives is more then that." Then, he recited:

مَا اَصَابَكُمْ مِّنْ مُّصِيْبَةٍ فَبِمَا كَسَبَتْ اَيْدِيْكُمْ وَ يَعْفُوْ عَنْ كَثِيْرٍ

{And whatever of misfortune befalls you, it is for what your own hands have earned and He pardons much} (43:30)[2]

COMMENTARY: They addresses the sinners. They should cease and mend their ways. Others who do not sin are tried by misfortune or hardship and their ranks are raised thereby. But even these pious people blame their trial to their sins. For instance, a rat cut off the shoes of a pious man and he lamented that it was a punishment for his sins.

DURING INCAPABILITY PIETY CONTINUES TO BE CREDITED

(١٥٥٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْعَبْدَ اِذَا كَانَ عَلٰى طَرِيْقَةٍ حَسَنَةٍ مِنَ الْعِبَادَةِ ثُمَّ مَرِضَ قِيْلَ لِلْمَلَكِ الْمُوَكَّلِ بِهٖ اُكْتُبْ لَهٗ مِثْلَ عَمَلِهٖ اِذَا كَانَ طَلِيْقًا حَتّٰى اُطْلِقَهٗ اَوْ اَكْفِتَهٗ اِلَيَّ

1559: Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a slave (of Allah) who has been pursuing the pious path of worship falls ill (and is unable to continue worship), the angel who is deputed over him is told to continue to record for him deeds like what he had been doing when he was healthy till 'I (Allah) relieve him from illness or take him to me."[1]

(١٥٦٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا ابْتُلِيَ الْمُسْلِمُ بِبَلَاءٍ فِيْ جَسَدِهٖ قِيْلَ لِلْمَلَكِ اُكْتُبْ لَهٗ صَالِحَ عَمَلِهِ الَّذِيْ كَانَ يَعْمَلُ فَإِنْ شَفَاهُ غَسَّلَهٗ وَ طَهَّرَهٗ وَإِنْ قَبَضَهٗ غَفَرَلَهٗ وَرَحِمَهٗ۔ رَوَاهُمَا فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ

1560: Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a Muslim is physically handicapped, Allah instructs the angel to record for him his good deeds that he had been doing. If Allah curses him, He washes and purifies him (from sins). If he takes him away, He forgives him and shows mercy to him."[2]

KIND OF MARTYRDOM

(١٥٦١) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَتِيْكٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الشَّهَادَةُ سَبْعٌ سِوَى الْقَتْلِ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ الْمَطْعُوْنُ شَهِيْدٌ وَالْغَرِيْقُ شَهِيْدٌ وَصَاحِبُ ذَاتِ الْجَنْبِ شَهِيْدٌ وَالْمَبْطُوْنُ شَهِيْدٌ وَ صَاحِبُ الْحَرِيْقِ شَهِيْدٌ وَالَّذِيْ يَمُوْتُ تَحْتَ الْهَدَمِ شَهِيْدٌ وَالْمَرْاَةُ تَمُوْتُ بِجُمْعٍ شَهِيْدٌ (رواه مالك وابوداؤد والنسائی)

1561. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Atik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that there are seven kinds of martyrdom apart from the one in Allah's path.

(i) Death in plague is martyrdom.
(ii) Death by drowning is martyrdom.
(iii) Death of pleurisy is martyrdom.
(iv) Death of internal malady is martyrdom.
(v) Death by burning is martyrdom.
(vi) Death by being buried under crumbling debris is martyrdom And,
(vii) Death of a woman during pregnancy is martyrdom.[3]

COMMENTARY: The true martyr is he who gives his life in Allah's path. Those are many hypothetical martyrs (see hadith # 1546). Dhat ul janb is pleurisy or inflammation of the pleurae, causing pain in breathing.

INVOLVED IN DISTRESS MOST OF ALL

(١٥٦٢) وَعَنْ سَعْدٍ قَالَ سُئِلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّ النَّاسِ اَشَدُّ بَلَاءً قَالَ الْاَنْبِيَاءُ ثُمَّ الْاَمْثَلُ فَالْاَمْثَلُ يُبْتَلَى الرَّجُلُ عَلٰى حَسَبِ دِيْنِهٖ فَإِنْ كَانَ فِيْ دِيْنِهٖ صُلْبًا اِشْتَدَّ بَلَاؤُهٗ وَإِنْ كَانَ فِيْ دِيْنِهٖ رِقَّةٌ هُوِّنَ عَلَيْهِ فَمَا زَالَ كَذٰلِكَ حَتّٰى يَمْشِيَ عَلَى اَرْضٍ مَا لَهٗ ذَنْبٌ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ

1562: Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that someone asked the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم "which kind of people faced trial most?" He said, "The prophet, then their likes, A man is tried according to his religion. If he is firm in observing his religion, then his trial is severe. But if he slack in observing his religion then it is soft on him. The trial is not removed (from him) till he walks on the earth having no sin (against him)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم faced trials and difficulties most of all because they went through them as easily as the common men enjoy blessings and comfort. These who are like them, meaning the awliya and the righteous also suffer trials. Their affliction is not as severe as of the Prophet عليه السلام. After them those who are below them in degree suffer somewhat lesser affliction. They all gain a very large reward because of that.

SEVENTY OF DEATH SPELLS EASE HEREAFTER

(١٥٦٣) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَاأَغْبِطُ اَحَدًا بِهَوْنِ مَوْتٍ بَعْدَ الَّذِىْ رَأَيْتُ مِنْ شِدَّةِ مَوْتِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه الترمذى والنسائى)

1563: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that having seen severity of the death of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, she did not envy anyone an easy death. (or, she did not pray for an easy death of anyone.)[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها realized that ease and comfort in the hereafter does not depend on an easy death but depended on the seventy death.

THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم THROUGH PANGS OF DEATH

(١٥٦٤) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ بِالْمَوْتِ وَعِنْدَهُ قَدَحٌ فِيْهِ مَاءٌ وَهُوَ يُدْخِلُ يَدَهُ فِي الْقَدَحِ ثُمَّ يَمْسَحُ وَجْهَهُ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَعِنِّيْ عَلٰى مُنْكَرَاتِ الْمَوْتِ اَوْسَكَرَاتِ الْمَوْتِ۔(رواه الترمذى وابن ماجة)

1564. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that she observed the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he was facing death. There was by him a bowl containing water. He put his hand into the bowl and wiped his face repeatedly and prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَعِنِّيْ عَلٰى مُنْكَرَاتِ الْمَوْتِ اَوْسَكَرَاتِ الْمَوْتِ

"O Allah, help me through the severity of death, or, (he said,) "pangs of death."[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wiped his face with water to cool down the heat of the pangs of death.

The ulama (Scholars) give many reasons for the severity of death of prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. One of these is that his ummah might known that even he suffered the pangs of death and they might not be worried abut themselves.

BETTER TO BE PUNISHED IN THIS WORLD

(١٥٦٥) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَرَادَ اللّٰهُ بِعَبْدِهِ الْخَيْرَ عَجَّلَ لَهُ الْعُقُوْبَةَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَاِذَا اَرَادَ اللّٰهُ بِعَبْدِهِ الشَّرَّ اَمْسَكَ عَنْهُ بِذَنْبِهِ حَتّٰى يُوَافِيَهُ بِهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ(رواه الترمذى)

decides that his slave should have good, He hastens for him the punishment in this world, but when he decided to let him (continue) in (his) evil, he puts off the punishment from him till, on the day of resurrection, he awards him the full punishment."[1]

COMMENTARY: Those who are pious are given their punishment in this world for any sin that they commit because it is better to be punished here then in the hereafter the punishment in this world being lighter and shorter. Those who are habitually sinful do not get their punishment in this world but are given rope (that they might end in disaster) and are punished in the hereafter.

SUFFER AFFLICTION GLADLY

(١٥٦٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ عُظْمَ الْجَزَاءِ مَعَ عِظَمِ الْبَلَاءِ وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ اِذَا اَحَبَّ قَوْمًا ابْتَلَاهُمْ فَمَنْ رَضِيَ فَلَهُ الرِّضَاءُ وَمَنْ سَخِطَ فَلَهُ السَّخَطُ(رواه الترمذی و ابن ماجة)

1566. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The size of reward is associated with the size of affliction. Indeed, when Allah loves a people, He afflicts them in trial. Thus, he who goes through it gladly, for him is (His) pleasure but he who is displeased for him is (His) displeasure."[2]

COMMENTARY: The sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنهم has the criteria that if a man is pleased with Allah then that is a sign that Allah is pleased with him and (the other way too) if a person is not happy with 'Allah that means that Allah is not happy with him.

FAITHFUL ALWAYS IN TROUBLE

(١٥٦٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَزَالُ الْبَلَاءُ بِالْمُؤْمِنِ اَوِالْمُؤْمِنَةِ فِيْ نَفْسِهٖ وَمَالِهٖ وَوَلَدِهٖ حَتّٰى يَلْقَى اللّٰهَ وَمَا عَلَيْهِ مِنْ خَطِيْئَةٍ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوٰى مَالِكٌ نَحْوَهٗ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

1567. Sayyiduna Abu Hurahrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Trial do not cease to afflict the believing men and believing women in their person their property and their children till they meet Allah and on them is no sin."[3]

(١٥٦٨) وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ خَالِدِنِ السُّلَمِيِّ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْعَبْدَ اِذَا سَبَقَتْ لَهٗ مِنَ اللّٰهِ مَنْزِلَةٌ لَمْ يَبْلُغْهَا بِعَمَلِهٖ ابْتَلَاهُ اللّٰهُ فِيْ جَسَدِهٖ اَوْفِيْ مَالِهٖ اَوْفِيْ وَلَدِهٖ ثُمَّ صَبَّرَهٗ عَلٰى ذٰلِكَ حَتّٰى يُبَلِّغَهُ الْمَنْزِلَةَ الَّتِيْ سَبَقَتْ لَهٗ مِنَ اللّٰهِ(رواه احمد و ابوداؤد)

1568. Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Khalid as Sulami narrated from his father from his grandfather that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If Allah decrees a rank (in paradise) for his slave which he fails to attain through his deeds, then Allah tries him (with affliction) in his body, or in his property, or in his children and causes him to be patient till he brings him to the rank that had been decreed for COMMENTARY: Patience in the face of trial enables one to attain the station that deeds cannot take one to.

(١٥٦٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ شِخِّيْرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُثِّلَ ابْنُ اٰدَمَ وَاِلٰى جَنْبِهٖ تِسْعٌ
وَّتِسْعُوْنَ مَنِيَّةً اِنْ اَخْطَأَتْهُ الْمَنَايَا وَقَعَ فِي الْهَرَمِ حَتّٰى يَمُوْتَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ

1569. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Shikhkhir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The son of Aadam علیہ السلام was created with ninety nine trials at his side. If trials do not afflict him then he lands in infirm old age, till he dies."[2]

COMMENTARY: When a human being comes into existence, a net of trials entangles him. He cannot come out of it and if anyone manages to shake it off, then he is snared in frail, old age which is cureless and unlimited.

The gist of it is that world is a prison for the believer but freedom for the infidels. Hence, a Muslim must show patience when facing difficulties and be pleased with whatever Allah has decreed, for, this ensures success in the hereafter.

According to a hadith Qudsi, Allah says; If anyone does not face trials that I have sent patiently, does not show gratitude for my blessings and is not pleased with my decree, then let him find a Lord other then I."

Imagine how much displeased Allah is with such an impatient, ungrateful and disobedient one. O Allah preserve us from it and enable us to be patient, grateful and pleased.

LONGING OF THE COMFORTABLE

(١٥٧٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوَدُّ اَهْلُ الْعَافِيَةِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ حِيْنَ يُعْطٰى اَهْلُ الْبَلَاءِ
الثَّوَابَ لَوْ اَنَّ جُلُوْدَهُمْ كَانَتْ قُرِضَتْ فِي الدُّنْيَا بِالْمَقَارِيْضِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ

1570. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, when those who had faced trials are given their rewards, the people who were safe will with that their skins had been cut off wish scissors in this world." [3]

(١٥٧١) وَعَنْ عَامِرِ الرَّامِ قَالَ ذَكَرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْاَسْقَامَ فَقَالَ اِنَّ الْمُؤْمِنَ اِذَا اَصَابَهُ
السَّقَمُ ثُمَّ عَافَاهُ اللّٰهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ مِنْهُ كَانَ كَفَّارَةً لِمَا مَضٰى مِنْ ذُنُوْبِهٖ وَمَوْعِظَةً لَهٗ فِيْمَا يَسْتَقْبِلُ وَاِنَّ الْمُنَافِقَ

1571. Sayyiduna Aamir ur Raam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke of illness, saying, "When a believer falls ill and Allah, Mighty and Glorious, cures him of it, that (illness) atones for his past sins and checks him for the future. (So he keeps away from sin), when a hypocrite falls ill and then recovers, he resembles a camel that had been bound and then let loose by its owner, the camel not knowing why he had bound it and why he let it free." A man asked. "O Messenger of Allah, what is illness? By Allah, I have never been ill. He said, "Get up! And away! You are not one of us."[1]

COMMENTARY: A believer takes heed after illness. He repents his past sins and resolves to refrain from sins in future. A hypocrite, on the other hands, takes no heed and does not repent or resolve. He is worse than cattle.

CHEER UP THE SICK

(١٥٧٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا دَخَلْتُمْ عَلَى الْمَرِيْضِ فَنَفِّسُوْا لَهٗ فِيْ اَجَلِهٖ فَاِنَّ ذٰلِكَ لَايَرُدُّ شَيْئًا وَيُطِيْبُ بِنَفْسِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ

1572. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When you visit a patient, cheer him up that he will live long. That will not put off anything (of the decree) but will raise his sprits."[2]

COMMENTARY: Some ulama (Scholars) say that when one is dying, he should use the siwak. It is hoped that it softens the pangs of death. It is also mustahab (desirable) to apply perfume and to put on clean garments and have a bath.

SAFE FROM PUNISHMENT IN THE GRAVE

(١٥٧٣) وَعَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ صُرَدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَتَلَهٗ بَطْنُهٗ لَمْ يُعَذَّبْ فِيْ قَبْرِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ

1573. Sayyiduna Sulayman ibn Surad رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said. "Person who dies of a stomach ailment will not be punished in the grave."[3]

COMMENTARY: He dies a martyr all whose sins are forgiven except depts. (meaning, rights of fellow men).

(١٥٧٤) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ غُلَامٌ يَهُوْدِيٌّ يَخْدُمُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَمَرِضَ فَاَتَاهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعُوْدُهٗ فَقَعَدَ عِنْدَ رَأْسِهٖ فَقَالَ لَهٗ اَسْلِمْ فَنَظَرَ اِلٰى اَبِيْهِ وَهُوَ عِنْدَهٗ فَقَالَ اَطِعْ اَبَاالْقَاسِمِ فَاَسْلَمَ فَخَرَجَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْ اَنْقَذَهٗ مِنَ النَّارِ (رواه البخاری)

1574. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated a Jew boy who served the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم for ill. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم visited him and sat down by his head and said, "Embrace Islam." The boy looked at his father who was beside him. He said, "Obey Abu al Qasim." So he embraced Islam and the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم went out, saying. "Praise belongs to Allah who saved him from the Fire."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is mustahab (desirable) to sit near the head of the patient. Also, it is allowed to employ an infidel dhimmi as a servant and to visit him when he is ill.

The ulama (Scholars) differ on whatever it is allowed to pay a sick visit to a Majusi (Magian) and a sinner. However, the correct thing is that it is permitted to visit a sinner. A minor may embrace Islam. The Jew boy was Abdul Quddus.

BETTER TO WALK TO PAY SICK VISIT

(١٥٧٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ عَادَ مَرِيْضًا نَادىٰ مُنَادٍ مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ طِبْتَ وَطَابَ مَمْشَاكَ وَتَبَوَّأْتَ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلًا (رواه ابن ماجة)

1575. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When someone visits a sick person, a crier calls from the heaven. "May you be happy. May your walk be good. May you get a high station in paradise."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is better to visit the sick walking.

REPORTING CONDITION OF SICK

(١٥٧٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اِنَّ عَلِيًّا خَرَجَ مِنْ عِنْدِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ وَجَعِهِ الَّذِيْ تُوُفِّيَ فِيْهِ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ يَا اَبَا الْحَسَنِ كَيْفَ اَصْبَحَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَصْبَحَ بِحَمْدِ اللّٰهِ بَارِئًا (رواه البخاری)

1576. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that as Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ came out after visiting the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he suffered the illness that led to his death, the people asked "O Abu Hasan, how is Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم this morning?" He said, "Praise belongs to Allah, he is better this morning."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna رضی اللہ عنہ Ali's reply meant that he hoped that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم would improve, or he realized the severity of the illness and gave this answer.

The ulama (Scholars) suggest that this kind of a reply must be given even if the patient's condition is serious.

TREATMENT NOT CONTRARY TO TAWAKKAL

(١٥٧٧) وَعَنْ عَطَاءِ ابْنِ اَبِيْ رَبَاحٍ قَالَ قَالَ لِي ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ اَلَا اُرِيْكَ امْرَأَةً مِنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ قُلْتُ بَلٰى قَالَ هٰذِهِ الْمَرْأَةُ السَّوْدَاءُ اَتَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ اُصْرَعُ وَاِنِّيْ اَتَكَشَّفُ فَادْعُ اللّٰهَ لِيْ فَقَالَ اِنْ شِئْتِ صَبَرْتِ وَلَكِ الْجَنَّةُ وَاِنْ شِئْتِ دَعَوْتُ اللّٰهَ اَنْ يُعَافِيَكِ فَقَالَتْ اَصْبِرُ فَقَالَتْ اِنِّيْ اَتَكَشَّفُ فَادْعُ اللّٰهَ اَنْ لَّا اَتَكَشَّفَ فَدَعَا لَهَا (متفق علیه)

1577. Sayyiduan Ata ibn Abu Ribah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ asked him "Shall I not show to you a women who will be dweller of paradise?" He said, "Of course! Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "This black woman come to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I suffer epilepsy and become uncovered. So, pray to Allah for me! He said, If you wish show patience and be rewarded with paradise, or, if you like. I shall pray to Allah to cure you She said, 'I shall observe patience,' but also said, 'Since I fear that I may bare myself, do make supplication to Allah that I may not become bare. Then he prayed for her."[1]

COMMENTARY: This woman's name was Su'rayrah or Suqayrah or Saykrah. She is also said to have been employed by the mother of the believers Sayyidah Khadijah al Kubra رضى الله عنها and used to comb her hair.

This hadith says that if one observes patience and submission in the face of calamity, medication and supplication may be given up. Rather, to be patient and resigned to fate for always endure illness (without medicine) is better than being healthy and safe. However, this applies too one whose sickness will not hamper the good of Allah's creatures. While it is better to abandon treatment, according to a hadith of Abu Dawud, it is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) to take medicine and undergo treatment when the sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنهم asked the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "should we take medicine (when ill)?" He said, "Yes take medicine because Allah has not created any sickness for which he has not created a medicine, except old age." So, the ulama (Scholars) say that medicine and treatment do not defeat tawakkal (reliance on Allah) because they are no more then a mean. This is why the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also took medicine and underwent treatment though he had placed reliance Allah more than anyone else did. In spite of this, one may observe tawakkal to such an extent that treatment and medicine must be given up just as Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه has done and this is a means to excellence and higher ranks.

BETTER TO DIE AFTER SICKNESS

(١٥٧٨) وَعَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ اِنَّ رَجُلًا جَاءَهُ الْمَوْتُ فِيْ زَمَنِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ هَنِيْئًا لَهٗ مَاتَ وَلَمْ يُبْتَلَ بِمَرَضٍ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَيْحَكَ مَايُدْرِيْكَ لَوْ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ ابْتَلَاهُ بِمَرَضٍ فَكَفَّرَ عَنْهُ مِنْ سَيِّئَاتِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ مُرْسَلًا۔

1578. Sayyiduna Yahya ibn Sa'eed رضى الله عنه narrated that a man died (suddenly) during the time of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Another man remarked "Congratulations to him! He died but was not tried by illness." So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Woe to you! You know not! Had Allah tried him will illness I would have atoned for his sins."[2]

PATIENCE DURING ILLNESS

(١٥٧٩) وَعَنْ شَدَّادِ بْنِ اَوْسٍ وَالصُّنَابِحِيِّ اَنَّهُمَا دَخَلَا عَلٰى رَجُلٍ مَرِيْضٍ يَعُوْدَانِهٖ فَقَالَا لَهٗ كَيْفَ اَصْبَحْتَ قَالَ اَصْبَحْتُ بِنِعْمَةٍ قَالَ شَدَّادٌ اَبْشِرْ بِكَفَّارَاتِ السَّيِّئَاتِ وَحَطِّ الْخَطَايَا فَاِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا اَنَا ابْتَلَيْتُ عَبْدًا مِنْ عِبَادِيْ مُؤْمِنًا فَحَمِدَنِيْ عَلٰى مَا ابْتَلَيْتُهٗ فَاِنَّهٗ يَقُوْمُ

1579. Sayyiduna Shaddad ibn Aws رضی اللہ عنہ and as-Sunabihi رضی اللہ عنہ are reported to have visited a sick man. They asked him, "How are you today?" He said, "I am well this morning." So Shahddad رضی اللہ عنہ said to him, "Have tidings that your sins are removed and your wrong erased, for I had heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that Allah, Mighty and Glorious, say, when I try one of my slaves who is a believer (with illness or anxiety) and he praises Me for the trial with which I try him then he will get up from that bed of his without sins as he was on the day his mother had delivered him." The Lord, Blessed and Exalted, says (to the angels), "I restricted and tried My slave. So continue to record for him (in his record of deeds what you had been recording of the pious deeds) when he was healthy. [1]

SORROW ATONE FOR SINS

(١٥٨٠) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا كَثُرَتْ ذُنُوْبُ الْعَبْدِ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَّهٗ

1580. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone's sins are very many and he has no good deeds with which they may be offset then Allah afflicts him with sorrow to erase them from him.[2]

COMMENTARY: According to a tradition of Tabarani رحمہ اللہ and Haakim رحمہ اللہ, "Allah befriends every sorrowful heart."

GREATNESS OF VISITOR TO SICK

(١٥٨١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ عَادَ مَرِيْضًا لَمْ يَزَلْ يَخُوْضُ الرَّحْمَةَ حَتّٰى

يَجْلِسَ اغْتَمَسَ فِيْهَا(رواه مالك و احمد)

1581. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "when anyone pays a sick visit to a person, he does not cease to be within the ambit of mercy till he sits and when he is seated, he is deep down into it."[3]

FEVER & CURE

(١٥٨٢) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِذَا اَصَابَ اَحَدَكُمُ الْحُمّٰى فَاِنَّ الْحُمّٰى

1582. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If one of you has fever, the fever is a piece of hell, then extinguish it with water. Let him get down into a river and face the flow of it, saying.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اشْفِ عَبْدَكَ وَصَدِّقْ رَسُوْلَكَ

(In the name of Allah, O Allah cure your slave and thus confirm your Messenger). (Do this) after the salah (prayer) of fajr and before sunrise. Let him plunge into it three times for three days. If he is not cured in three days, then for five days, and if he is not cured in five days t hen let him do it for seven days. If he is not cured in seven days then nine days, for it will not exceed nine days with the leave of Allah, Mighty and Glorious."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic words may mean; 'Let him dive into the river for three days (meaning, once every day). They could also mean; 'Let him dive three times every day for three days.

This treatment is proper for a certain kind of illness (fever) common in Arabia and must be followed only on the advice of a qualified physician. In certain cases, it might prove disastrous. Khattabi has written about a man who did not consult a physician and plunged into water as suggested in this hadith. The result was that his condition worsened and he was on the point of death. However, he recovered somehow only to blame the hadith and speak ill of it. So, it is better to follow a physician's instructions.

DO NOT REVILE FEVER

(١٥٨٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ ذُكِرَتِ الْحُمّٰى عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَبَّهَا رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَسُبَّهَا فَاِنَّهَا تَنْفِي الذُّنُوْبَ كَمَا تَنْفِي النَّارُ خَبَثَ الْحَدِيْدِ(رواه ابن ماجة)

1583. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that fever was mentioned in the presence of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and a man reviled it. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not revile it. It removes sins as fire removes the dress of iron."[2]

COMMENTARY: The religious scholars write what during illness and affliction one must show gratitude to Allah as one does in sound health and happiness. There is wisdom in the affliction that Allah sends down on someone.

WHY FEVER

(١٥٨٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَادَ مَرِيْضًا فَقَالَ اَبْشِرْ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى يَقُوْلُ هِيَ نَارِيْ اُسَلِّطُهَا عَلٰى عَبْدِي الْمُؤْمِنِ فِي الدُّنْيَا لِتَكُوْنَ حَظَّهُ مِنَ النَّارِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ(رواه احمد و ابن ماجة والبيهقي فى شعب الايمان)

1584. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited a sick man and said, "Greetings to you! Allah, the Exalted says, 'It is My fire that I empower over My believing slave in this world so that, on the day of resurrection, it will serve as a portion of hell for him. (meaning a relief)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Quran says:

وَإِنْ مِّنْكُمْ إِلَّا وَارِدُهَا

{There is not one of you but shall come to it....} (19:71)

Hence, the believer suffers fever instead of coming to the fire and going into it. He is thus safe from the punishment. The sirat will be placed over hell and everyone will have to go over it. Therefore, the 'believer in the hadith means a 'perfect believer.' Because some sinners among the believers will be consigned to hell to serve their term (before being discharged).

POVERTY & ILLNESS SECURE FORGIVENESS

(١٥٨٥) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ الرَّبَّ سُبْحَانَهٗ وَتَعَالٰى يَقُوْلُ وَعِزَّتِيْ وَجَلَالِيْ لَا اُخْرِجُ اَحَدًا مِنَ الدُّنْيَا اُرِيْدُ اَغْفِرُ لَهٗ حَتّٰى اَسْتَوْفِيَ كُلَّ خَطِيْئَةٍ فِيْ عُنُقِهٖ بِسَقَمٍ فِيْ بَدَنِهٖ وَاِقْتَارٍ فِيْ رِزْقِهٖ۔ (رواه رزين)

1585. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that the Lord, Glorious and Exalted says, "By My Might and Glory. I shall never take away from the world anyone whom I decide to forgive till I get from him retaliation for every sin that is on his neck by illness in his body and cutting down of his provision."[2]

AN INCIDENT IN THE LIFE OF IBN MAS'UD رضی اللہ عنہ

(١٥٨٦) وَعَنْ شَقِيْقٍ قَالَ مَرِضَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ ابْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ فَعُدْنَاهُ فَجَعَلَ يَبْكِيْ فَعُوْتِبَ فَقَالَ اِنِّيْ لَا اَبْكِيْ لِاَجْلِ الْمَرَضِ لِاَنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الْمَرَضُ كَفَّارَةٌ وَاِنَّمَا اَبْكِيْ اَنَّهٗ اَصَابَنِيْ عَلٰى حَالِ فَتْرَةٍ وَلَمْ يُصِبْنِيْ فِيْ حَالِ اجْتِهَادٍ لِاَنَّهٗ يُكْتَبُ لِلْعَبْدِ مِنَ الْاَجْرِ اِذَا مَرِضَ مَاكَانَ يُكْتَبُ لَهٗ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَمْرَضَ فَمَنَعَهٗ مِنْهُ الْمَرَضُ(رواه رزين)

1586. Sayyiduna Shaqiq رحمہ اللہ narrated that when he visited Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ who was ill, he began to weep. So, he was cautioned over that. He said, "I do not weep because of the illness, for I had heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that illness expiates sins rather, I weep that illness has come to me when I am feeble, why did it not come when I was strong (and young)? When a slave of Allah is ill, all that is recorded for him as was recorded for him before he fell ill and his illness hampered him from doing deeds (of a pious natural)."[3]

COMMENTARY: During young age a great many good deeds are performed. So if anyone falls ill during that period, numerous deeds would be credited to him. In contrast, in old age, one cannot hope for an appreciable number of deeds to be credited because the normal performance is not much. This is why Sayyiduna Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ lamented that he did not fall ill in his youth.

WHEN MUST ONE PAY THE SICK VISIT

(١٥٨٧) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَعُوْدُ مَرِيْضًا اِلَّا بَعْدَ ثَلَاثٍ(رواه ابن ماجة والبيهقي في شعب الايمان)

1587. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not visit the sick until after three days.[1]

COMMENTARY: This means that a visit must be paid three days after anyone falls ill. The ulama (Scholars) maintain that a sick visit can be made at any time, before or after three days. Hence, some people say that this hadith is weak, or rather invented.

REQUEST PATIENT TO PRAY FOR YOU

(١٥٨٨) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا دَخَلْتَ عَلٰى مَرِيْضٍ فَمُرْهُ يَدْعُوْلَكَ فَاِنَّ دُعَائَهُ كَدُعَاءِ الْمَلَائِكَةِ(رواه ابن مالك)

1588. Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "when you visit a sick person, request him to pray for you, because his prayer is like the prayer for the angels."[2]

COMMENTARY: The sick person resembles the angels in many ways. Like the angels, the sick person is innocent of sins, constantly occupied in remembrance of Allah and in making supplication to Him.

BE NOT NOISY BEFORE THE SICK

(١٥٨٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ مِنَ السُّنَّةِ تَخْفِيْفُ الْجُلُوْسِ وَقِلَّةُ الصَّخَبِ فِي الْعِيَادَةِ عِنْدَ الْمَرِيْضِ قَالَ وَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا كَثُرَ لَغَطُهُمْ وَاخْتِلَافُهُمْ قُوْمُوْا عَنِّي(رواه رزين)

1589. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that it is from the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) to stay a short time and not make a noise when visiting a sick person. He also narrated that when the sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہم became noisy and argued much with each other, Allah's Messenger said, "Go away from me."[3]

COMMENTARY: The visitor must sit with the patient only for a short time enough to enquire after his health and general condition. It is not proper to stay too long with him and it is makruh (unbecoming) to make a noise there.

According to tradition in Bukhari and Muslim, when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was very ill, very many sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہم were around him. He asked for writing material to write some advice. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said (to the gathering), "Perhaps, he goes through a severe condition and we already have the Quran and it is enough for you." Then everyone began to speak his mind out and it become noisy. So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "All of you leave me alone."

[3] Razin.

The rawafid contend that Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه blocked the last instructions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from being recorded (like the naming of Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه as the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم first Khalifah (caliph)).

Ibn Hajr rejects the contention of the rawafid saying that when the people began to argue the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم thought that it was wise not to write a piece of advice on instructions. He also gave up the idea of writing it down later. If he had decided to write it down, then how would Umar رضى الله عنه and others dared to prevent him. He was alive for three days thereafter and Umar رضى الله عنه and the other sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنهم were not always present with him but the people of his house, like Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه and Abbas رضى الله عنه and others were present near him. If he had intended to write down instruction for a Khalifah (caliph), he would certainly have written that. Rather, he had made known his decision in that regard clearly by appointing Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه as imam in his absence. This is why Ali رضى الله عنه addressed the people in this regard, saying, 'The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم appointed Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه as our imam for our religion. Shall we not nominate him for our world as Khalifah (caliph)? I was there when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent for Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to name him as imam, but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not appoint me. Allah has said about people like Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه:

{Fearing not the reproach of any reproacher...} (5:54)"

Abu Sufyan ibn Harb said to Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه, "If you wish I will bring my horses and footmen all over Madinah to combat Abu Bakr." This message angered Sayyiduna رضى الله عنه Ali and he reprimanded Abu Sufyan so that he and others may know that Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه as Khalifah (caliph) was according to the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wishes there was no doubt at all about it.

Thus, it is clear that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had no intention to appoint Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه as Khalifah (caliph) and even Ali رضى الله عنه had no such thing on his mind. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made no indication of the Khalifah (caliph) going to Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه Rather he indicated the nomination of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه by appointing him as imam for the salah (prayer).

SHORT VISIT

(١٥٩٠-١٥٩١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْعِيَادَةُ فَوَاقُ نَاقَةٍ وَفِي رِوَايَةِ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ مُرْسَلًا اَفْضَلُ الْعِيَادَةِ سُرْعَةُ الْقِيَامِ (رواه البيهقى فى شعب الايمان)

1590. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A visit should be as short as the time between two milking of a she camel."[1]

Another version:

1591. Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Al-Musayyib رضى الله عنه narrated in the mursal form, "The ideal sick visit is that the visitor arises very quickly (to go)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The two milkings are that after the first the she camels youngs are allowed to touch the udders so that milk flow abundantly. The second milking starts at that. The interval is very short and the visitor is advised to sit only this much when he pays a sick visit.

When people visited Sari Saqati رحمه الله during his illness and stayed very long and asked him to pray for them, he prayed, "O Allah, t each them the manners of a sick visit."

However, if a visitor is a close friend or relative and the patient wishes him to sit longer, or he serves the patient, then he must not curtail his visit.

FEED THE SICK WHAT THE WISHES TO EAT

(١٥٩٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَادَ رَجُلًا فَقَالَ لَهٗ مَا تَشْتَهِيْ قَالَ اَشْتَهِيْ خُبْزَ بُرٍّ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَ عِنْدَهٗ خُبْزُ بُرٍّ فَلْيَبْعَثْ اِلٰى اَخِيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اشْتَهٰى مَرِيْضُ اَحَدِكُمْ شَيْئًا فَلْيُطْعِمْهُ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1592. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم paid a sick visit to a man and (during the visit) asked him "What would you like to eat?" He said, "I wish for some wheaten bread." The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone has any wheat en bread, do sent it to his brother." He also said. "If one of you is ill and demands something to eat does feed it to him." [2]

COMMENTARY: This refers to the patient's true demand and this is a sign that he had recovered. What he desires is not harmful in some cases and the feeding should be within limits. It should not be something that is most likely to harm the patient. The instruction in the hadith to 'feed him' is not an outright and universal command but should be carried out according to the patient's condition. The physician should be consulted beforehand.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that the command applies to a patient who has no chances of survival. He should be given what he wishes to eat.

DEATH WHILE ON A JOURNEY

(١٥٩٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ تُوُفِّيَ رَجُلٌ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ مِمَّنْ وُلِدَ بِهَا فَصَلّٰى عَلَيْهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا لَيْتَهٗ مَاتَ بِغَيْرِ مَوْلِدِهٖ قَالُوْا وَلِمَ ذَاكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اِنَّ الرَّجُلَ اِذَا مَاتَ بِغَيْرِ مَوْلِدِهٖ قِيْسَ لَهٗ مِنْ مَوْلِدِهٖ اِلٰى مُنْقَطَعِ اَثَرِهٖ فِي الْجَنَّةِ (رواه النسائى و ابن ماجة)

1593. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه narrated that a man died in Madinah where he had been born too. The Prophet led his funeral salah (prayer), and said, "How I wish he had died elsewhere than his birth place!" The sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنهم asked, "Why that, O Messenger of Allah? He said, "If anyone dies in a place other than his native land, the space between his birth place and the place of his death is measured for him in paradise."[3]

COMMENTARY: The correct thing seems to be a journey in obedience to Allah, like jihad, religious education and such others.

(١٥٩٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَوْتُ غُرْبَةٍ شَهَادَةٌ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1594. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "Death in an alien land is martyrdom."[1]

(١٥٩٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ مَاتَ مَرِيْضًا مَاتَ شَهِيْدًا وَوُقِيَ فِتْنَةَ الْقَبْرِ وَغُدِيَ وَرِيْحَ عَلَيْهِ بِرِزْقِهِ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ (رواه ابن ماجة والبيهقي في شعب الايمان)

1595. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who dies of an illness dies a martyr. He is preserved from the trial in the gr4ave and will be served provision morning and evening from paradise."[2]

COMMENTARY: Though this word is (مریضا) in the correct copies of Mishkat, sunan Ibn Majah itself has (مرابطا) (guarding the frontiers).
(This is as in the Urdu text but the translation of Ibn Majah published by Kazi Publications has (مریضا) (sick) with comments that it could be (مرابطا) - guarding frontiers).

DEATH IN PLAGUE

(١٥٩٦) وَعَنِ الْعِرْبَاضِ بْنِ سَارِيَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَخْتَصِمُ الشُّهَدَاءُ وَالْمُتَوَفَّوْنَ عَلٰى فُرُشِهِمْ اِلٰى رَبِّنَا عَزَّ وَجَلَّ فِي الَّذِيْنَ يُتَوَفَّوْنَ مِنَ الطَّاعُوْنِ فَيَقُوْلُ الشُّهَدَاءُ اِخْوَانُنَا قُتِلُوْا كَمَا قُتِلْنَا وَيَقُوْلُ الْمُتَوَفَّوْنَ اِخْوَانُنَا مَاتُوْا عَلٰى فُرُشِهِمْ كَمَا مُتْنَا فَيَقُوْلُ رَبُّنَا انْظُرُوْا اِلٰى جِرَاحَتِهِمْ فَاِنْ اَشْبَهَتْ جِرَاحُهُمْ جِرَاحَ الْمَقْتُوْلِيْنَ فَاِنَّهُمْ مِنْهُمْ وَمَعَهُمْ فَاِذَا جِرَاحُهُمْ قَدْ اَشْبَهَتْ جِرَاحَهُمْ (رواه احمد والنسائي)

1596. Sayyiduna Al-Arbad ibn Sariyah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "The martyrs and those who had died on their beds will argue before our Lord, Mighty and Glorious, to get judgement about those who had died of plague. The martyrs will plead, 'Our brothers were killed as we were killed.' But those who died (on their beds) will plead, 'Our brothers who died on their beds just as we died.' So, our Lord will judge. 'Look at their wounds. If their wounds resembled the wounds of those who were slain they are among them and will be with them. Behold, their wounds resemble the wound of their (martyrs)."[3]

COMMENTARY: The word for plague is (طاعون) (Ta'un) derived from (طعن) (ta'n) which mean 'to strike spears.' Those who die of plague feel as if they are being struck by spears. Thus, the jinns hit them with spears and give them the wounds.
The hadith classifies death of plague as martyrdom. On the day of resurrection, these people will be with the martyrs.

DO NOT FLEE FROM PLAGUE INFESTED AREA

(١٥٩٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَلْفَارُّ مِنَ الطَّاعُوْنِ كَالْفَارِّ مِنَ الزَّحْفِ وَالصَّابِرُ فِيْهِ لَهُ اَجْرُ شَهِيْدٍ(رواه احمد)

1597. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who flees from plague (when it strikes the land where he resides) is like one who flees from battle (meaning, jihad) but one who shows patience during plague will earn the reward of a martyr."[1]

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that the comparison is for the major or grave sin that both earn. If anyone runs away from plague with the conviction that he would remain safe if he flees otherwise he would die, then it is disbelief.

One who faces plague patiently will earn a martyr's reward even if he does not die of it.

CHAPTER - II

WISHING FOR DEATH & REMEMBERING IT بَابُ تَمَنِّی الْمَوْتِ وَذِكْرِهٖ

It is makruh (unbecoming) to pray for death when one suffers physical pain or is in distress through sickness, hardship or any kind of trial, anxiety, etc. This is so because it implies impatience and displeasure with Divine decree.

However when one is anxious to see the Lord, get relief from this ephemeral world, and anxious to go to the eternal world, then to long for death is a sign of faith and perfect faith. Even if one longs for death to be safe from religious harm t hen it is not makruh (unbecoming) to do so.

To remember death is to fear Allah and to seek His pleasure and to obey Him. It is also to love Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and to abide by His Shariah (divine law). It is also to seek forgiveness and to repent to be careful to avoid loss in the hereafter even if that entails loss in this world.

If one just has death in remembrance but leads a wayward life then it is of no use. Rather, it makes and hard hearted. It is like remembering Allah neglectfully, which is of no consequence. (نسأل الله العافية) We ask Allah for safety.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

DO NOT WISH FOR DEATH

(١٥٩٨) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَتَمَنّٰى اَحَدُكُمُ الْمَوْتَ اِمَّا مُحْسِنًا فَلَعَلَّهٗ اَنْ يَّزْدَادَ خَيْرًا وَاِمَّا مُسِيْئًا فَلَعَلَّهٗ اَنْ يَّسْتَعْتِبَ(رواه البخاری)

1598. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Let no one of you wish for death, for, if he is pious, perhaps he may add to his piety, and if he is evil, perhaps he may (repent and) look for Allah's pleasure."[2]

(١٥٩٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَتَمَنّٰى اَحَدُكُمُ الْمَوْتَ وَلَا يَدْعُ بِهٖ مِنْ

1599. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Let no one of you wish (in heart) or pray (with the tongue) for death before it comes to him. When a person dies, it cuts off his hopes, and the believer's life does not prolong without bringing him more good."[1]

COMMENTARY: Once a person dies, the ways to do good and bed are cut off.

(١٦٠٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَتَمَنَّيَنَّ اَحَدُكُمُ الْمَوْتَ مِنْ ضُرٍّ اَصَابَهٗ فَاِنْ كَانَ لَا بُدَّ فَاعِلًا فَلْيَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَحْيِنِيْ مَاكَانَتِ الْحَيَاةُ خَيْرًا لِّيْ وَ تَوَفَّنِيْ اِذَا كَانَتِ الْوَفَاةُ خَيْرًا لِّيْ (متفق علیه)

1600. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Let no one of you wish for death because of suffering (of any kind). But, if he must do it, then he must pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَحْيِنِيْ مَاكَانَتِ الْحَيَاةُ خَيْرًا لِّيْ وَ تَوَفَّنِيْ اِذَا كَانَتِ الْوَفَاةُ خَيْرًا لِّيْ

"O Allah, keep me alive as long as life is better for me and take me away when death is better for me."[2]

COMMENTARY: Nawawi رحمه الله has given the verdict that it is not makruh (unbecoming) to wish for death when apprehending mischief or trial in the religious field. Rather, It is mustahab (desirable) to do so Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Umar ibn Abdul Aziz رحمه الله had done so.

It is also maustahab to hope for martyrdom in Allah's path. Umar ibn Khattab رضی الله عنه and others had done it and Mu'adh رضی الله عنه is known to have prayed for death in the plague, Ta'uwn Amawas. So, it is mustahab (desirable) to pray for martyrdom even through plague, etc.

According to a hadith in Muslim, if any one sincerely prays for martyrdom, then he get reward for it (even if he is not martyred).

It is mustahab (desirable) to pray for death in Madinah. According to a hadith in Bukhari. Umar رضی الله عنه had prayed for it:

اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْزُقْنِيْ شَهَادَةً فِيْ سَبِيْلِكَ وَاجْعَلْ مَوْتِيْ بِبَلَدِ رَسُوْلِكَ

"O Allah grant me martyrdom in your path and cause me to die in the city of Your Messenger. صلی الله علیه وسلم

The concluding portion of the hadith means that life is better than death as long as god deeds surpass sin and life is without trials for a religious nature. When it is the converse, it is better to die.

MEETING THE GREATER

(١٦٠١-١٦٠٢) وَعَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَحَبَّ لِقَاءَ اللّٰهِ اَحَبَّ اللّٰهُ لِقَاءَهٗ وَمَنْ كَرِهَ لِقَاءَ اللّٰهِ كَرِهَ اللّٰهُ لِقَاءَهٗ فَقَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ اَوْ بَعْضُ اَزْوَاجِهٖ اِنَّا لَنَكْرَهُ الْمَوْتَ قَالَ لَيْسَ

ذٰلِكَ وَلٰكِنَّ الْمُؤْمِنَ اِذَا حَضَرَهُ الْمَوْتُ بُشِّرَ بِرِضْوَانِ اللّٰهِ وَكَرَامَتِهٖ فَلَيْسَ شَيْءٌ اَحَبَّ اِلَيْهِ مِمَّا اَمَامَهٗ فَاَحَبَّ لِقَاءَ اللّٰهِ وَاَحَبَّ اللّٰهُ لِقَائَهٗ وَاِنَّ الْكَافِرَ اِذَا حُضِرَ بُشِّرَ بِعَذَابِ اللّٰهِ وَعُقُوبَتِهٖ فَلَيْسَ شَيْءٌ اَكْرَهُ اِلَيْهِ مِمَّا اَمَامَهٗ فَكَرِهَ لِقَاءَ اللّٰهِ وَكَرِهَ اللّٰهُ لِقَائَهٗ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ عَآئِشَةَ وَالْمَوْتُ قَبْلَ لِقَاءِ اللّٰهِ

1601. Sayyiduna Ubadan ibn as Samit رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who loves to meet Allah, Allah loves to meet him. But, he who dislikes to meet Allah, Allah too dislikes to meet him." So, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا asked, or one of his other wives submitted, "We dislike death." He said, "That is not the same thing. But, when death comes to the believer, he receives glad tidings of Allah's pleasure and mercy. So, nothing is dearer to him than what is in front of him. He loves to meet Allah and Allah loves to meet him. But, as for the disbeliever, when death comes to him, he is given tidings to punishment and retribution of Allah so, nothing is more detestable to him than what is in front of him. He dislikes to meet Allah and Allah does not wish to meet him."[1]

1602. Sayyidah Ayshah 's رضی اللہ عنہا hadith has: 'death comes before the meeting with Allah.[2]

COMMENTARY: While it is presumed commonly that meeting Allah is death, yet the correct thing is that the meeting with "Allah is to be mindful of the hereafter, to seek Allah's mercy forgiveness and pleasure and not to be inclined to the world. He who abandons the world loves to meet Allah. But he who chooses the world and loves its things really detests to meet Allah. This is why he who loves the meeting with Allah, loves death because it is the means to the meeting with Allah.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم answer to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا meant that death should be held dear as a means to the love of Allah and the meeting with him.

The version of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا means that the sight of Allah is possible only after death. The meeting with Allah is not the some things as death. Both have different meanings.

TO BELIEVER DEATH IS RELIEF BUT A SINNER'S DEATH IS RELIEF TO OTHERS

(١٦٠٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ قَتَادَةَ اَنَّهٗ كَانَ يُحَدِّثُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُرَّ عَلَيْهِ بِجَنَازَةٍ فَقَالَ مُسْتَرِيْحٌ اَوْ مُسْتَرَاحٌ مِنْهُ فَقَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا الْمُسْتَرِيْحُ وَالْمُسْتَرَاحُ مِنْهُ فَقَالَ الْعَبْدُ الْمُؤْمِنُ يَسْتَرِيْحُ مِنْ نَصَبِ الدُّنْيَا وَاَذَاهَا اِلٰى رَحْمَةِ اللّٰهِ وَالْعَبْدُ الْفَاجِرُ يَسْتَرِيْحُ مِنْهُ الْعِبَادُ وَالْبِلَادُ وَالشَّجَرُ وَالدَّوَابُّ (متفق عليه)

1603. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated this hadith often. A funeral was brought past Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He said, "Either he is relived or others are relived of him." The sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked, "Who is relieved and who is the one from whom others are relieved?" He said, "The believing slave is delivered from the sorrows and harm of the world and goes to the mercy of Allah. But, the creatures, the country, the trees and the beasts are delivered from the sinful person."[3]

[3] Bukhari # 6512, Muslim # 61-950, Nasa'i # 1930, Muwatta Maalik # 504 (Jana'iz) Musnad Ahmad 5-296.

COMMENTARY: With his death, the believer is delivered from the deeds, etc. of the world and the effort to perform them. He is also delivered of the hardship and anxiety of the world and the harm and trouble caused by its people. Masruq رحمه الله said that he did not envy anyone as he envied the believer who is placed in his grave because he is safe from punishment and at rest from this world. Abu Daud رحمه الله said, "I like death because of my desire to go before my Lord. I like sickness as an atonement for my sins. And, I like poverty as a means to be humble and submissive before my Lord."

When a sinner dies, other people are free for him because when they reproached him, he quarreled with them. If they said nothing to him, they here delinquent in thier religion. His sins create corruption in the world and hurt people, cities, trees, etc. Religious acts and duties are interrupted. Allah is angry with the sinner, so earth and all that is on earth suffer. Allah prevents rain from pouring down. When sinner die, the clouds burst and it is green everywhere.

LIVE LIKE A TRAVELER

(١٦٠٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ اَخَذَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمَنْكِبِي فَقَالَ كُنْ فِي الدُّنْيَا كَاَنَّكَ غَرِيْبٌ اَوْعَابِرُ سَبِيْلٍ وَكَانَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا اَمْسَيْتَ فَلَا تَنْتَظِرِ الصَّبَاحَ وَاِذَا اَصْبَحْتَ فَلَا تَنْتَظِرِ الْمَسَاءَ وَخُذْ مِنْ صِحَّتِكَ لِمَرَضِكَ وَمِنْ حَيَاتِكَ لِمَوْتِكَ(رواه البخارى)

1604. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم took him by his shoulders and said, "Live in the world as though you are a stranger, or one passing through the road."

Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه used to say, "When you are in the evening, do not wait for the morning. And where you are in the morning, do not wait for the evening. Regard your health as a blessing against your sickness and your live against you death." (Derive something from the first for the other.)[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (غريب) (stranger) is a traveller, so do not be inclined to the world because it is your path of journey to the hereafter. Live as a stranger uninterested in worldly things because you will separate from them. Do not perceive your survival here. Intend to go home.

One who passes through the roads is stranger than a traveler too because he stops no where and does not break journey at all.

No one knows when he will die. So, not build tall hopes but be quick to do good deeds, without delaying them. When you are healthy do the most you can lest sickness afflicts you and you become unable to do pious work.

Seize the opportunity of your life to amass deeds upon deeds. Thus, when you die, these deeds will fetch your reward.

Though it seems that the concluding words were spoken by Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه and are mawquf at him, yet Ahya al Uloom presents them as marfu saying of the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

PLACE GOOD HOPE IN ALLAH

(١٦٠٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَبْلَ مَوْتِهٖ بِثَلَاثَةِ اَيَّامٍ يَقُوْلُ لَا يَمُوْتَنَّ اَحَدُكُمْ اِلَّا وَهُوَ يُحْسِنُ الظَّنَّ بِاللّٰهِ (رواه مسلم)

1605. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say three days before his death, "Let not anyone of you die without placing good hopes in Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Every Muslim should expect Allah's favour and forgiveness and be confident of receiving it. If anyone despairs of His mercy then he makes himself eligible for His wrath.

The Ulama (Scholars) say that the sign of a good hereafter is to be fearful all through life and, when death approaches, hopes for mercy and forgiveness should dominate.

To have good expectation from Allah is to do pious deeds throughout life and t hen hope for Allah's favours at the time of death. If any one lives a life of misdeeds and disobedience to Allah then he will not have good hopes from Allah. He will remember his evil life when death approaches and expect evil repercussions.

Expectation is to perform deeds and expect. False hope without deeds and expect. False hope without doing anything heads to sins and is obstinacy.

Hasan Busri رحمه الله said, "If any one (who does no deeds) claims to have good expectations from Allah then he is laying. If he did have good expectations from his Lord then he would have done good deeds."

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِیْ

THE FIRST QUESTION ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION

(١٦٠٦) عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنْ شِئْتُمْ اَنْبَأْتُكُمْ مَا اَوَّلُ مَا يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ لِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَمَا اَوَّلُ مَا يَقُوْلُوْنَ لَهٗ قُلْنَا نَعَمْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَقُوْلُ لِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ هَلْ اَحْبَبْتُمْ لِقَائِیْ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ نَعَمْ يَا رَبَّنَا فَيَقُوْلُ لِمَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ رَجَوْنَا عَفْوَكَ وَمَغْفِرَتَكَ فَيَقُوْلُ قَدْ وَجَبَتْ لَكُمْ مَغْفِرَتِیْ۔ رَوَاهُ فِیْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَاَبُوْ نُعَيْمٍ فِی الْحِلْيَةِ

1606. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If you wish, I will tell you the first question that Allah will ask the believers on the day of resurrection and the first thing that they would say to him." They said, "Yes, O Messenger of Allah." He said that Allah will ask the believers. "Did you crave to meet Me?" They will submit, "Yes our Lord." He will ask. "Why?" They will say. "We hopes for your pardon and your forgiveness." He will say. Indeed, My forgiveness for you has become obligatory."[2]

COMMENTARY: The meeting could mean the abode of the hereafter.' It could also mean: 'the vision of Allah.'

REMEMBER DEATH OFTEN

(رواه الترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة)

1607. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Remember often the cutter of the tastes (of the world) - which death is!"[1]

COMMENTARY: Remembering death often replaces negligence which hampers pious deeds. It also keeps one away from indulgence in worldly pursuits and brings one into the orbit of obedience and worship.

Nasai has more words which imply that remembrance of death causes the rich to be disinterested in wealth and the poor to be content with little.

MODESTY BEFORE ALLAH

(١٦٠٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ اَنَّ نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ لِاَصْحَابِهٖ اسْتَحْيُوْا مِنَ اللّٰهِ حَقَّ الْحَيَاءِ قَالُوْا اِنَّا نَسْتَحْيِيْ مِنَ اللّٰهِ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ قَالَ لَيْسَ ذٰلِكَ وَلٰكِنْ مَنِ اسْتَحْيٰى مِنَ اللّٰهِ حَقَّ الْحَيَاءِ فَلْيَحْفَظِ الرَّاسَ وَمَا وَعٰى وَلْيَحْفَظِ الْبَطْنَ وَمَا حَوٰى وَلْيَذْكُرِ الْمَوْتَ وَالْبِلٰى وَمَنْ اَرَادَ الْاٰخِرَةَ تَرَكَ زِيْنَةَ الدُّنْيَا فَمَنْ فَعَلَ ذٰلِكَ فَقَدِ اسْتَحْيٰى مِنَ اللّٰهِ حَقَّ الْحَيَاءِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1608. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that one day, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to his sahabah (companions), رضی اللہ عنہ observe modesty before Allah in keeping with its rights." They said, "O Prophet of Allah we do observe modesty before Allah, praise belongs to Allah." He said, "That is not it. But, he who observes modesty before Allah as is due, preserves the head and whatever (memory) it holds, and preserves the belly and whatever it contains, and remembers death and the decomposition. And, he who aims at the next world, abandons adornment of the world. Hence, whoever does that has indeed shown modesty before Allah as is due."[2]

COMMENTARY: Allah has placed the head in an honourable position. It should not be used for anyone else, should not bow before man made idols or before fellowman and it should not offer salah (prayer) to impress other people and to show off. It should be lowered only for Allah and it should not be raised high in arrogance.

Whatever (memory) it holds include the tongue, eyes and the ears. To preserve them is to keep them away from sin, like backbiting, falsehood, ogling at stranger women, listening to backbiting and lies.

The belly should be preserved from forbidden food etc. whatever the belly contains mean the limbs of the body. They should not be used to commit sin, or to go to such place, or to beat or harass someone.

The human body will decay. Howsoever beautiful and honourable, it will not with its flesh and bones. All that will be dust.

Finally, a norm is outlines that he who knows that this world is ephemeral gives up its pleasures. No one, not even saintly people, can hold both this world and hope for the next. It is very good to publicise this hadith as much as possible. Nawawi رحمه الله said that is mustahab (desirable) to narrate this hadith most frequently.

DEATH IS THE GIFT OF A BELIEVER

(١٦٠٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تُحْفَةُ الْمُؤْمِنِ الْمَوْتُ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

1609. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The gift for a believer is death."[1]

COMMENTARY: Death is a gift for the believer because through it he comes to the hereafter and receives reward and high ranks.

DEATH WITH PERSPIRATION ON FOREHEAD

(١٦١٠) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْمُؤْمِنُ يَمُوْتُ بِعَرَقِ الْجَبِيْنِ(رواه الترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة)

1610. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The believer dies while he perspires on the forehead."[2]

COMMENTARY: Some people say that perspiration on forehead at the time of death implies very severe pangs of death. Because of this, the sins of the dying person are forgiven and his ranks are raised in the hereafter.

Some others say that it implies striving for the lawful till the end to earn livelihood and to worship.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that the perspiration on the forehead at the time of death augurs well for the next world.

Some other ulama (Scholars) maintain that report from the perspiration, death is not difficult at all for a believer.

SUDDEN DEATH

(١٦١١) وَعَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ خَالِدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَوْتُ الْفُجَائَةِ اَخْذَةُ الْاَسَفِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَزَادَ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ وَرَزِيْنٌ فِيْ كِتَابِهٖ اَخْذَةُ الْاَسَفِ لِلْكَافِرِ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِلْمُؤْمِنِ۔

1611. Sayyiduna Ubaydullah ibn Khalid رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Sudden death is the seizing in anger."[3]

Another version adds: "The seizing in anger for the disbeliever and mercy for the believer."[4]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) go by the concluding portion and say that it is good for believers to die suddenly.

1612. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited a young man who was dying. He asked. "How do you find yourself?" He said, "O Messenger of Allah, I have hope in Allah, but I fear for my sins. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "These two things do not combine in the heart of a person at such a time without Allah granting him that which he hopes for end protecting him from that which he fears."[1]

COMMENTARY: 'At such a time' means the time when pangs of death are experienced and such other difficult times, like during battle, retaliation etc.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِث

LONG LIFE IDEAL TO PERFORM MORE PIOUS DEEDS

(١٦١٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَمَنَّوُا الْمَوْتَ فَاِنَّ هَوْلَ الْمُطَّلَعِ شَدِيْدٌ وَاِنَّ مِنَ السَّعَادَةِ اَنْ يَطُوْلَ عُمْرُ الْعَبْدِ وَيَرْزُقُهُ اللّٰهُ عَزَّوَجَلَّ الْاِنَابَةَ(رواه احمد)

1613. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not wish for death, for the fear of the pangs of death is very strong. It is fortunate that a man's life should be prolonged and Allah, Mighty and Glorious, should lead him to obedience."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word (المطلع) al-muttala is an elevated place from where one looks down. Here, this word means the pangs of death and the accompanying severity. Man falls into its grip before dying.

It is disallowed to ask for death because of grief of such things. One may however, ask for it craving the sight of Allah.

The hadith also says that one must not long for death because with death which is bound to come all opportunity of doing good deeds will cease. So one must accumulate deeds as much as one can. The world is the cultivating field of the hereafter. Good deeds done here will be useful there.

(١٦١٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي اُمَامَةَ قَالَ جَلَسْنَا اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَّرَنَا وَرَقَّقَنَا فَبَكٰى سَعْدُ بْنُ اَبِي وَقَّاصٍ فَاَكْثَرَ الْبُكَاءَ فَقَالَ يَا لَيْتَنِي مِتُّ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا سَعْدُ اَعِنْدِيْ تَتَمَنَّى الْمَوْتَ فَرَدَّدَ ذٰلِكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ يَا سَعْدُ اِنْ كُنْتَ خُلِقْتَ لِلْجَنَّةِ فَمَاطَالَ عُمْرُكَ وَحَسُنَ مِنْ عَمَلِكَ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَّكَ(رواه احمد)

[2] Musnad Ahmad 3-332.

1614. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that they were seated with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (listening to him) with rapt attention. He admonished them and their hearts were moved greatly. (Sayyiduna) Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ wept much and lamented, "How I wish I had died (in childhood)! Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "O Sa'd, will you wish for death while I am here." Repeating these words three times. Then, he added, "O Sa'd, if you are created for paradise, then your life will not be prolonged without that being better for you with the more good deeds that you do.[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked Sayyiduna Sa'd if there could be a reason to ask for death while he was alive, for his life was a blessing for them. The mere sight of him was great for the believers and life was better than death.

The hadith seems to say tacitly at the end 'and if you are created for hell then too it was not good to ask for death and a hastening of it.'

(١٦١٥) وَعَنْ حَارِثَةَ بْنِ مُضَرِّبٍ قَالَ دَخَلْتُ عَلٰى خَبَّابٍ وَقَدِ اكْتَوٰى سَبْعًا فَقَالَ لَوْ لَا اِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَا يَتَمَنَّ اَحَدُكُمُ الْمَوْتَ لَتَمَنَّيْتُهُ وَلَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنِيْ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا اَمْلِكُ دِرْهَمًا وَاِنَّ فِيْ جَانِبِ بَيْتِي الْاٰنَ لَاَرْبَعِيْنَ اَلْفَ دِرْهَمٍ قَالَ ثُمَّ اُتِيَ بِكَفَنِهٖ فَلَمَّا رَاٰهُ بَكٰى وَقَالَ لٰكِنْ حَمْزَةُ لَمْ يُوْجَدْ لَهٗ كَفَنٌ اِلَّا بُرْدَةٌ مُلْحَاءُ اِذَا جُعِلَتْ عَلٰى رَأْسِهٖ قَلَصَتْ عَنْ قَدَمَيْهِ وَاِذَا جُعِلَتْ عَلٰى قَدَمَيْهِ قَلَصَتْ عَنْ رَأْسِهٖ حَتّٰى مُدَّتْ عَلٰى رَأْسِهٖ وَجُعِلَ عَلٰى قَدَمَيْهِ الْاِذْخَرُ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ اِلَّا اَنَّهٗ لَمْ يَذْكُرْ ثُمَّ اُتِيَ بِكَفَنِهٖ اِلٰى اٰخِرِهٖ۔

1615. Sayyiduna Harithah ibn Mudarrab رحمہ اللہ narrated that that he visited (Sayyiduna) Khabbbab رضی اللہ عنہ (who was ill and) who had been cauterised seven times. He said that had he not heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "None of you must wish for death," he would have wished for it. Then he said, "Indeed, I remember myself with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم while I did not possess a single dirham, but now there are in the corner of my house forty thousand dirhams." Then, his shroud was brought. When he looked at it, he wept, saying, "But, Hamzah! رضی اللہ عنہ No shraud could be found for him except a stripes white garment that could not cover his feet if his head was covered and left his lead bare if his feed were covered by it. So, finally, it was put over his head down and idhkar (grass) was put on his feet."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Khabbab ibn Arat رضی اللہ عنہ was a great sahabi. He was among the first people to embrace Islam. Indeed, he was the brave man who made bold to declare his Islam among a host of the cruel and oppressive disbelievers. He participated in the Battle of Badr and other battle and died in 43AH. May Allah be pleased with him!

In those days, one of the forms of treatment was cauterization. At one place, it is disallowed but some ulama (Scholars) say that the prohibition is only when people believe that only this things cures. If they are convinced that cure lies only in Allah's hands then it is not wrong to resort to it. Also, when there is no need for it, even then it is disallowed.

Sayyiduna Khabbab رضی الله عنه wished for death because of the unbearable nature of his illness. It could also be because he had become affluent and was afraid that he would have to suffer punishment for misuse of wealth.
Sayyiduna Hamzah ibn Abdul Muttalibn رضی الله عنه was the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم paternal uncle. He was martyred in the Battle of Uhud. He is known as Sayyid ush Shuhada (chief of the martyrs).
Idhkar (اذخر) is sweet rush (juncuos adoratus). It is a sweet smelling grass. It is spread on the planks of the ceiling and it has many other uses.
According to this hadith, a poor hard-pressed person who is patient is better than a rich person who is grateful. Sayyiduna Khabbab رضی الله عنه, the great glorious sahabi who was rich and there is no doubt that he was grateful, felt sorry for his affluent condition.

CHAPTER - III

THAT WHICH IS RECITED BEFORE ONE WHO IS DYING

بَابُ مَا يُقَالُ عِنْدَ مَنْ حَضَرَهُ الْمَوْتُ

He who is dying is the patient on whom the signs of death are apparent. The ulama (Scholars) describe these signs as numbness of the feet that will not stand up, the nostril bend, the temple sinks and the skin of the testicles hangs.
That which is recited in front of the dying is the kalimah tayyibah (لا اله الا الله محمد رسول الله), surah Yasin and the istarja (انا لله وانا اليه راجعون). Supplication is made seeking forgiveness, and so on.

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

PROMPT TO THE DYING

(١٦١٦) عَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدٍ وَاَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقِّنُوا مَوْتَاكُمْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ (رواه مسلم)

1616. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abu H urayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Recite to the dying among you

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ

(There is no God but Allah)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The dying person will listen to the recitation and recite it himself. But, he should not be instructed to recite lest he refuse to do so because of his unsteady condition and poor presence of mind. The ulama (Scholars) say that this prompting is mustahab (desirable).

ONLY PIOUS WORDS

خَيْرًا فَإِنَّ الْمَلَائِكَةَ يُؤَمِّنُوْنَ عَلٰى مَاتَقُوْلُوْنَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1617. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When you visit a sick or a dying person speak only good words, for the angels say 'aameen' to whatever you say."[1]

COMMENTARY: The good words are prayer for one's own good, for the recovery of the sick and for the forgiveness of the dead.

PATIENCE & SUBMISSION

(١٦١٨) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَامِنْ مُسْلِمٍ تُصِيْبُهُ مُصِيْبَةٌ فَيَقُوْلُ مَا اَمَرَهُ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ اِنَّا لِلّٰهِ وَاِنَّآ اِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُوْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اٰجِرْنِىْ فِىْ مُصِيْبَتِىْ وَاخْلُفْ لِىْ خَيْرًا مِنْهَا اِلَّا اَخْلَفَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ خَيْرًا مِنْهَا فَلَمَّا مَاتَ اَبُوْسَلَمَةَ قُلْتُ اَىُّ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ خَيْرٌ مِنْ اَبِىْ سَلَمَةَ اَوَّلُ بَيْتٍ هَاجَرَ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ اِنِّىْ قُلْتُهَا فَاَخْلَفَ اللّٰهُ لِىْ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ (رواه مسلم)

1618. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If any Muslim faces an affliction and says what Allah had commanded him:

اِنَّا لِلّٰهِ وَاِنَّآ اِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُوْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اٰجِرْنِىْ فِىْ مُصِيْبَتِىْ وَاخْلُفْ لِىْ خَيْرًا مِنْهَا

'We belong to Allah and to Him is our return. O Allah, reward me for my affliction and let me have what is better then this, in place of this.'[2]

Surely, Allah will grant him what is better in replacement." When (Sayyiduna) Abu Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ died, she thought, "What Muslim could be better than Abu Sulama (Scholars)n رضی اللہ عنہ who and his family were the first to emigrate to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم?" Then she repeated the (foregoing Messenger in his place. [3] (They were married to one another.)

COMMENTARY: The words 'to Allah we belong and to Him is our return' imply: whatever is ascribed to us truly belongs to Allah and is created by Him. To him we shall return. All of these things are with us for use. Our beginning is from Allah and our end is to Him.

This thing must be comprehended completely and patience must be observed at every trial. If this is done, every difficulty will become easy. If this verse is given only lip service coupled with complaint and restlessness, then that is meaningless.

The mere reference to the merit of this verse is enough to presume that it is a command to recite these verses.

Sayyiduna Abu Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ was the first emigrant and also the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cousin and faster brother.

THE PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

(١٦١٩) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ دَخَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى اَبِىْ سَلَمَةَ وَقَدْ شَقَّ بَصَرُهٗ فَاَغْمَضَهٗ ثُمَّ قَالَ

إِنَّ الرُّوْحَ إِذَا قُبِضَ تَبِعَهُ الْبَصَرُ فَضَجَّ نَاسٌ مِنْ أَهْلِهِ فَقَالَ لَا تَدْعُوْا عَلَى أَنْفُسِكُمْ إِلَّا بِخَيْرٍ فَإِنَّ الْمَلَائِكَةَ يُؤَمِّنُوْنَ عَلَى مَاتَقُوْلُوْنَ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِأَبِي سَلَمَةَ وَارْفَعْ دَرَجَتَهُ فِي الْمَهْدِيِّيْنَ وَاخْلُفْهُ فِي عَقِبِهِ فِي الْغَابِرِيْنَ وَاغْفِرْلَنَا وَلَهُ يَا رَبَّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ وَافْسَحْ لَهُ فِي قَبْرِهِ وَنَوِّرْ لَهُ فِيْهِ (رواه مسلم)

1619. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم visited Abu Salamah رضى الله عنه whose eye were open and fixed. He closed them, saying, "As the soul is extracted, the sight follows it." So, some people of his family wept and wailed. He said, "Do not pray for yourselves anything other than good, because the angels say aameen to what you pray." Then he prayed, "O Allah, forgive Abu Salamah, raise him in rank among the guided ones and mind those who survive among his descendants. Forgive us and forgive him, O Lord of the worlds. Do make his grave spacious for him and make it bright with radiance for him."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم meant that with the taking away of the soul, the sight too is lost. So, there is no point in leaving the eyes open.

SHROUD OF THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(١٦٢٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حِيْنَ تُوُفِّيَ سُجِّيَ بِبُرْدٍ حِبَرَةٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

1620. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم died, a stripped Yemen garment was placed over his body.[2]

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

KALIMAH AS LAST WORDS

(١٦٢١) عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَ اٰخِرُ كَلَامِهِ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1621. Sayyiduna Mu'dh ibn Jabal رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He whose last words are (لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰه) – 'There is no God but Allah. Will enter paradise."[3]

COMMENTARY: This means that if anyone recites, just before his death, the entire kalimah

لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ مُحَمَّدٌ الرَّسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ

'There is no God but Allah and Muhammad is Allah's Messenger.'

he will enter paradise directly, or after serving his punishment. But, the first possibility is more likely. In this way the believers who die with the kalimah tayyibah on their lips are distinguished from whose who die without reciting it.

RECITING SURAH YASIN

(١٦٢٢) وَعَنْ مَعْقِلِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِقْرَؤُا سُوْرَةَ يٰسٓ عَلٰى مَوْتَاكُمْ۔

[3] Abu Dawud # 3116.

(رواه احمد و ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

1622. Sayyiduna Ma'qil ibn Yasar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Recite surah Yasin before your dead" (meaning, the dying). [1]

COMMENTARY: Here, the 'dead' means those who are about to die. The subjects of surah Yasin are such as may interest those are on the point of death.

If the word 'dead' really means the dead, the surah Yasin may be recited over the dead before burial in the house or after burial at the grave.

If surah Yasin is recited near the head of the dying or the dead then Allah makes the reckoning easy for him. (Ibn Harduways)

Ibn Adi رحمہ اللہ reported the hadith that if anyone goes to the graves of his parents, or the grave of one of them, and recites surah Yasin there, then the grave-dweller (s) is forgiven to the extent of the number of letters of surah Yasin. The ulama (Scholars) say that it could mean the day, Friday. Specifically, or the entire week (for jumuah is used in both senses).

ALLOWED TO KISS A MUSLIM'S CORPSE

(١٦٢٣) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَبَّلَ عُثْمَانَ بْنَ مَظْعُوْنٍ وَهُوَ مَيِّتٌ وَهُوَ يَبْكِي حَتّٰى سَالَ دُمُوْعُ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى وَجْهِ عُثْمَانَ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی وابن ماجة)

1623. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم kissed (Sayyiduna) uthman ibn Maz'un when he died. He wept till his tears flowed over Uthman's رضی اللہ عنہ face. [2]

COMMENTARY: Of the muhajirs, Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Maz'un رضی اللہ عنہ was the first to die in Madinah. Thus he was the first of them to be buried in al-Baqi. After that al-Baqi was turned into a graveyard. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم himself picked up a stone and placed it at his grave as an identification mark. رضی اللہ عنہ

(١٦٢٤) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ اِنَّ اَبَابَكْرٍ قَبَّلَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ مَيِّتٌ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

1624. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ kissed the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he had died. [3]

BURIAL SHOULD BE HASTENED

(١٦٢٥) وَعَنْ حُصَيْنِ بْنِ وَحْوَحٍ اَنَّ طَلْحَةَ بْنَ الْبَرَاءِ مَرِضَ فَاَتَاهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعُوْدُهُ فَقَالَ اِنِّي لَاَرٰى طَلْحَةَ اِلَّا قَدْ حَدَثَ بِهِ الْمَوْتُ فَاٰذِنُوْنِيْ بِهِ وَعَجِّلُوْا فَاِنَّهُ لَايَنْبَغِيْ لِجِيْفَةِ مُسْلِمٍ اَنْ تُحْبَسَ بَيْنَ ظَهْرَانَيْ اَهْلِهِ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1625. Sayyiduna Husayn ibn Wahwah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Talhah ibn al-Bara رضی اللہ عنہ was sick. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited him and said, "I think that Talha is about to die. Tell me when that happens and then make haste in preparing him for the burial, because, it is not proper that a Muslim corpse should remain

COMMENTARY: If preparation for burial are delayed then the decaying process might began with the corpse.

RECITE BEFORE THE DYING

(١٦٢٦) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقِّنُوْا اَمْوَتَا كُمْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ الْحَلِيْمُ الْكَرِيْمُ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيْمِ اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ كَيْفَ لِلْاَحْيَاءِ قَالَ اَجْوَدُ وَاَجْوَدُ۔ (رواہ ابن ماجة)

1626. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Ja'far رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Recite to those of you who are dying.

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ الْحَلِيْمُ الْكَرِيْمُ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيْمِ اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ

'There is no God but Allah, the element the compassionate. Without blemish is Allah Lord of the mighty Those. Praise belongs to Allah. Lord of the worlds might throne, Praise belongs to the Lord of the worlds'

The sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked, "O Messenger of Allah, how is this (expression) for the living?" He said, "Very good! Very good!"[2]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Asakir رحمہ اللہ reported that Sayyiduna رضی اللہ عنہ Ali narrated. "I have learnt some words from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم which if a dying person recites, he will be admitted to paradise." These word are:

1. (لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ الْحَلِيْمُ الْكَرِيْمُ) three times
2. (اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ) three times
3. (تَبَارَكَ الَّذِيْ بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ يُحْيِيْ وَيُمِيْتُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ) three time

SOULS OF BELIEVERS & INFIDELS

فَيُقَالُ مَنْ هٰذَا فَيُقَالُ فُلَانٌ فَيُقَالُ لَا مَرْحَبًا بِالنَّفْسِ الْخَبِيْثَةِ كَانَتْ فِي الْجَسَدِ الْخَبِيْثِ اِرْجِعِيْ ذَمِيْمَةً فَاِنَّهَا لَا تُفْتَحُ لَكِ اَبْوَابُ السَّمَاءِ فَتُرْسَلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ ثُمَّ تَصِيْرُ اِلَى الْقَبْرِ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1627. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When anyone is on the point of death, the angels come to him. If he is a good, pious man, the angels (of mercy) say (to his soul), 'Come out, righteous soul that had been in a pious body! Come out, praised (before Allah and the creatures), Glad tiding to you of (perpetual) rest and peace and provision (of paradise) and of (a meeting with) a Lord who is not angry.' This does not cease to be repeated till it comes out. Then it is taken up to the heaven and the gate is opened for it. It is asked, 'who is he?' They say, 'so and so.' Then it is said, 'welcome righteous soul that had been in a pious body. Enter, praised with tidings of rest and provision, and a Lord who is not angry!' It is repeated to it till it end up at the heaven where Allah is.
If he an evil person, the angel say, 'come out, O you wicked soul that had been in a wicked body! Come out, blamed, and know of boiling water, puss and other (punishment) like these of various kinds.' (surah Saad, 38:57-58) It does not cease to be repeated to it till it comes out. Then it is taken up to the heaven and the gate is opened for it and it is asked, 'who is he?' It I said, 'so and so.' It is said, 'The wicked soul that was in a wicked body is not welcome. Return, blamed. The gates of heaven will not be opened for you.' So, it will be sent back from heaven and it will come to the grave."[1]

COMMENTARY: The angels of mercy and of punishment come to the dying. The former do their work if he is good person otherwise the latter accomplish their task.
As for the good, pious soul, it could mean a believer generally, or the pious one who is careful of rights of Allah and of follow men.
The hadith is silent about the habitual sinner. This is the procedure with the Book and the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) that they maintain silence about the sinner. They keep him between fear and hope.
The souls of the believers and the infidels are distinguished in that the latter are cast down to the lowest of low while the former are free to fly in the heavens and the earth and to eat the light under the throne. They also retain their relationship with their bodies in the graves. The corpse recites the Quran, offers the salah (prayer) and rests and sleeps soundly, seeing t he place for it in paradise.
The affairs of the soul and the situation in the barzakh are exceptions to the cause and effect process. We cannot comprehend them in our world, but we must not entertain any kind of doubt about these things.

(١٦٢٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِذَا خَرَجَتْ رُوْحُ الْمُؤْمِنِ تَلَقَّاهَا مَلَكَانِ يُصْعِدَانِهَا قَالَ حَمَّادٌ فَذَكَرَ مِنْ طِيْبِ رِيْحِهَا وَذَكَرَ الْمِسْكَ قَالَ وَ يَقُوْلُ اَهْلُ السَّمَآءِ رُوْحٌ طَيِّبَةٌ جَاءَتْ مِنْ قِبَلِ الْاَرْضِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْكِ وَعَلٰى جَسَدٍ كُنْتِ تَعْمُرِيْنَهُ فَيُنْطَلَقُ بِهٖ اِلٰى رَبِّهٖ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ انْطَلِقُوْا بِهٖ اِلٰى اٰخِرِ الْاَجَلِ قَالَ وَاِنَّ الْكَافِرَ اِذَا خَرَجَتْ رُوْحُهٗ قَالَ حَمَّادٌ وَذَكَرَ مِنْ نَتْنِهَا وَذَكَرَ لَعْنًا وَيَقُوْلُ اَهْلُ

1628. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When the soul of the believer comes out, two angels meet it and take it up (to heaven)." Hammad رحمه الله) (a sub-narrated of this hadith) said that then he mentioned its sweet smell and also mentioned its musk (that it emitted the fragrance of musk). Then he (The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) said that dwellers of heaven will say, "A pure soul comes from the earth. May Allah bless you and the body in which you lived." Then, it will be taken to its Lord who will command them, "Take it away till the end of the term."

He also said, "When the soul of an infidel comes out." Hammad رحمه الله said that he mentioned its stench and also mentioned the cure. "The dwellers of heaven will say. "An evil soul comes from the earth." They will be commanded to take it away till the end of t he term.

(Sayyiduna) Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated further that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم then put the edge of his cloak the was wearing over his nose in this way. [1]

COMMENTARY: The word 'term' in the hadith means the time period of barzakh. It will end with the day of resurrection. Barzakh is the intervening period between death and the Last Day. As for the end of the garment on his nose, Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه put his own garment on his nose to indicate how the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had done it. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had been enabled to perceive the odour of the infidel's soul.

1629. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a believer's death approaches, the angels of mercy come with white silk and say, 'come out pleased (with Allah and He) pleased with you to Allah's mercy, favour and provision, to Allah who is not angry with you.' The soul emerges with fragrance like that of the sweetest musk. They take him one after another till they bring him to the gates of heaven, saying, 'what a sweet smell that is here to you from earth!' Then they take him to the souls of the believers who are overjoyed on seeing him, more than one of you can be on the return of someone who has been away. They ask him about different people, how they are. Then they say, 'Let him alone a while, for, he has come from the grief of the world.' But the says of one of t hem. 'He has died. Is he not here with you' They say, '(so) he has been taken to his destination, hell!'

When a disbeliever is on the point of death, the angels of punishment bring him a hairy (rough) bay and say. 'Emerge to the punishment of Allah, Mighty and glorious, while He is displeased with you and angry at you and you are (cursed and) displeased.' The soul emerges with the horrible stench of a (decayed) corpse. They take it to the gate of earth (into heaven) where the angels say, 'what a terrible odour!' They take hi to the souls of the disbelievers. [1]

COMMENTARY: The souls of the believers enquire from the now-coming soul about their known ones whom they had left behind in the world.

The gate of earth is really the gate of the lowest heaven as Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said, Or, the gate of the earth means the earth itself. In this case it would mean that the infidel's soul would be cast to the lowest of low Mulla Ali Qari prefers this explanation.

The souls of disbelievers to whom the soul is taken are in sijjin. It is a place in the depths of hell.

1630. Sayyiduna Bara ibn Aazib narrated that they went with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to the funeral of an ansar man. They came to the grave but it had not been dug. So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم sat down and they sat down around him as though birds were perched on their heads. He had a stick in his hand and he etched lines with it on the ground. Then, raising his head, he said, "Seek refuge in Allah from the punishment in the grave." Twice or thrice. He then said, "As a believer is on he point of departing from this world and entering the next, angels with faces as white as the sun come down from heaven to him with a shroud of paradise and some of its perfume. They sit as far away from him as a sight can behold. The angel of death comes and sits at his head and says, 'O pious soul, emerge to forgiveness and pleasure of Allah.' So, it emerges as through a drop of water flow from a water-skin. He takes it but the other angels do not let him hold it for an instant. They take it quickly and put it in that shroud and that perfume. So that it emits a fragrance similar to the sweetest musk found on the surface of the earth. Then, they carry it up and whichever group of angels they pass, enquire, 'who is this pious soul?' They identify it by name and parentage with the best of its names by which the earthlings had called him. They come with it to the lowest heaven and call for the gate to be opened for it. The gate is opened and (from then on) at every heaven, its chief angels lead it to the next heaven and so to the seventh. Allah, Mighty and Glorious, say, 'place the record of my slave in 'Illiyun, Take it back to earth, since I have created mankind from it and I shall return them to it and I shall raise them again from it.' His soul is restored to his body and two angels come to him, make him sit up and ask him, 'who is your Lord?' He says, 'My Lord is Allah.' They ask, 'what is your religion?' He says, 'Islam is my religion. They ask 'who is this man who was sent to you?' He says, 'Allah's Messenger!' They ask, 'How do you know? He say, 'I read Allah's Book, believed in it and confirmed it as true.' A crier from heaven calls, 'My slave has spoken the truth. Spread out for him carpets from paradise, clothe him from paradise and open a gate for him into paradise.' Its breeze and sweet smell come to him. His grave is widened for him as for as the eye can see. Then a man with a beautiful face, beautiful dress and sweet smell comes to him and says, 'Be happy as you wish for this is your day that has been promised to you.' He asks, 'who are you with such a beautiful face and good tidings?' He says, 'I am your good deeds.' He then prays, 'My Lord, let the last Hour come! My Lord, let the last Hour come that I may return to my people and my property.'

He then said, "As a disbeliever is about to depart from this world and enter the next world, black faced angels come down to him from heaven with hairy cloth and sit as far away from him as the sight can perceive. The angel of death comes and sit at his head and calls, 'O evil soul emerge to Allah's wrath.' It scatters in his body (unwilling to emerge, but he extracts it as spit is down out from moistened wool. He seizes it but the other angels do not let him hold it for an instant. They snatch it quickly and place it in the hairy cloth from which it gives a nasty stench similar to the most unbearable stench of a corpse found on the surface of the earth. Then, they carry it up and whichever group of angels they pass, enquire, 'who is this evil soul' they identify it by name and parentage with the ugliest of its names by which the earthlings had called him. They come with it to the lowest heaven and ask for the gate to be opened for it, but it is not opened." Then Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited.

لَا تُفَتَّحُ لَهُمْ أَبْوَابُ السَّمَاءِ وَلَا يَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ حَتَّى يَلِجَ الْجَمَلُ فِي سَمِّ الْخِيَاطِ

{the gates of heaven shall not be opened for them, nor shall they enter the garden until the camel passes through the eye of the needle.} (7:40) (and he said,)
"Allah Mighty and Glorious, say 'place his record in sijjin in the lowest earth,' His soul is thrown down." Then he recited:

وَمَنْ يُشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ فَكَأَنَّمَا خَرَّ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فَتَخْطَفُهُ الطَّيْرُ أَوْ تَهْوِي بِهِ الرِّيحُ فِي مَكَانٍ سَحِيقٍ

{And whosoever associates anything with Allah, it is as through he had fallen from heaven and the birds snatch him away. Or the wind sweeps him to a remote place} (22:31) His soul is restored to his body and two angels come to him and make him sit up. They ask him, 'who is your Lord?" but, he is unable to answer. They ask him about his religion, but he cannot answer. They ask him about the man sent to them, but he cannot say anything. So, a crier calls from the heaven, 'He lies. Stretch a carpet from hell for him and open for him a gate to hell.' So, the heat of hell and hot air come to him and his grave is narrowed over him till his ribs are pressed on one another. A man of an ugly appearance and ugly dress with a repulsive odour appears before him and say, 'Grieve with that which hurts you! This is the day of your that was promises to you.' He asks, 'who are you? Your face is the ugliest and brings evil.' He says, 'I am your evil deeds.' He prays, 'My Lord, put off the Last Hour.'
According to another version that is very much like it and has this much more; 'When a believer's soul comes out (of his body), every angel between heaven and earth and every angel in heaven prays for mercy on him. The gates of heaven are opened for him and the keeper of every gate to Allah that his soul may be taken up from front of t hem.
The soul of the disbeliever is extracted with his reins. All the angels between heaven and earth and all the angels in heaven curse him. The gates of heaven are locked on him and all the keepers of the gates pray to Allah that his soul should not be taken up past them."[1]

COMMENTARY: According to another tradition, even a believer undergoes severe pangs to death while this hadith say that his soul comes out as easily as a drop of water comes out of a water skin. The fact is that he does suffer pangs of death but then his soul comes out it is very easy on him.
A believer's soul is taken up to the seventh heaven and some ahadith say that it is taken up to the throne. Thus, some believers may be taken up to the throne and some to the seventh heaven.
Illiyun is a place on the seventh heaven where the pious people's records are stored.

[1] Abu Dawud # 4753, Musnad Ahmad 4-287.

The question about the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to the grave-dweller is as in this hadith, or, "Who is your Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to the grave-dweller is as in this hadith, or, 'Who is your prophet?" This is according to another hadith.
The believer's words; 'till I return to my people and my property,' refer to the maidens of paradise and servants and to the castle and garden of paradise and other kinds of belongings. Or, his folk and relatives and palaces and maidens of paradise.
Sijjin is a place in the depths of hell under the seventh earth. Records of deeds of inmates of hell are stored there.
While the grave narrows down on the rebellious people, it will also constrict for the saintly. However, that will be like an embrace of a mother who taken her child within herself in love.

BELIEVER IN BARZAKH

(١٦٣١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ كَعْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ لَمَّا حَضَرَتْ كَعْبًا الْوَفَاةُ اَتَتْهُ اُمُّ بِشْرٍ بِنْتُ الْبَرَاءِ ابْنِ مَعْرُوْرٍ فَقَالَتْ يَا اَبَا عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ اِنْ لَقِيْتَ فُلَانًا وَاقْرَأْ عَلَيْهِ مِنِّى السَّلَامَ فَقَالَ غَفَرَ اللّٰهُ لَكِ يَا اُمَّ بِشْرٍ نَحْنُ اَشْغَلُ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَتْ يَا اَبَا عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ اَمَا سَمِعْتَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ اَرْوَاحَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ فِىْ طَيْرٍ خُضْرٍ تَعْلُقُ بِشَجَرِ الْجَنَّةِ قَالَ بَلٰى قَالَتْ فَهُوَ ذَاكَ (رواه ابن ماجة والبیہقی فی کتاب البعث والنشور)

1631. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Ka'b رحمہ اللہ narrated on the authority of his father that when death approached (Sayyiduna) Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ (Sayyidah) Umm Bishr رضی اللہ عنہ bint Bara ibn Ma'rur رضی اللہ عنہ come to him and said, "O Abn Abdur Rahman, if you meet so and so, convey to him my salaam." He said, "May Allah forgive you, O Umm Bishr, I shall be too occupied from that." She said, "O Abu Abdur Rahman did you not hear Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, 'The souls of the believers are in green birds that perch on trees of paradise and feed on them?" He said, "Of course!" She said, "That is it!' (She hoped he would attain that place.)[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman رحمہ اللہ was among prominent tabi'un رحمہ اللہ and his father ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ was among great sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہ. Bara ibn Ma'rur رضی اللہ عنہ was a sahabi and an ansar. Sayyidah Umm Bishr رضی اللہ عنہ was his daughter.
It seems that 'convey salaam to so-and-so' are words of a sub-narrator while Sayyidah Umm Bishr رضی اللہ عنہ may have named Bara رضی اللہ عنہ or Bishr رضی اللہ عنہ. Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ was surprised at her request, so said 'May Allah forgive you!' He said that there they would be too occupied to engage in any such work and to look out for someone.
Sayyiduna Umm Bishr رضی اللہ عنہ gave him glad tidings of ease in paradise. He would have Allah's mercy and favour.
Another tradition is more explicit the soul of believers in the body of green animals will graze there and be under the throne at the radiant lights.

(١٦٣٢) وَعَنْهُ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ اَنَّهُ كَانَ يُحَدِّثُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّمَا نَسَمَةُ الْمُؤْمِنِ طَيْرٌ تَعْلُقُ فِىْ شَجَرِ الْجَنَّةِ حَتّٰى يُرْجِعَهُ اللّٰهُ فِىْ جَسَدِهٖ يَوْمَ يَبْعَثُهُ (رواه مالك والنسائی والبیہقی فی کتاب البعث والنشور)

[1] Ibn Majah # 1449.

1632. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn رحمه الله Ka'b narrated from his father who used to say that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The soul of the believer is in the form of a bird feeding on the trees of paradise till Allah will return it to its body on the day He will resurrect it."[1]

COMMENTARY: If a human being's soul is clothed in a birds form, it is not degraded because that is not a real change in which it is controlled by the body. It is like preserving a gem in a chest.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that the hadith speaks of the soul of a martyr only Other say that it refers to all believers.

(١٦٣٣) وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُنْكَدِرِ قَالَ دَخَلْتُ عَلَى جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ وَهُوَ يَمُوْتُ فَقُلْتُ اِقْرَأْ عَلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ السَّلَامَ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1633. Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn al-Munkadir رحمه الله narrated that he visited Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Abdullah رضى الله عنه when he was on the point of death. So, he said (to him) "Convey (my) salaam to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم."[2]

CHAPTER - IV

WASHING (BATHING) AND SHROUDING THE DEAD

بَابُ غُسْلِ الْمَيِّتِ وَتَكْفِيْنِهٖ

Ahadith in this chapter give the rules and etiquettes about giving bath and shrouding the corpse. To bathe t he dead is fard Kifayah(adequate obligation) so that if some people give him the bath then all others will be absolved of the duty, but if no one gives him the bath, then all will have committed sin.

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that it is a prerequisite to form an intention before giving a bath to the dead. Some ulama (Scholars) say that it is not necessary to form an intention.

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

WASHING THE DEAD

(١٦٣٤) عَنْ أُمِّ عَطِيَّةَ قَالَتْ دَخَلَ عَلَيْنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَ نَحْنُ نَغْسِلُ ابْنَتَهٗ فَقَالَ اغْسِلْنَهَا ثَلَاثًا اَوْخَمْسًا اَوْاَكْثَرَ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ اِنْ رَأَيْتُنَّ ذٰلِكَ بِمَاءٍ وَسِدْرٍ وَاجْعَلْنَ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ كَافُوْرًا اَوْشَيْئًا مِنْ كَافُوْرٍ فَإِذَا فَرَغْتُنَّ فَآذِنَّنِي فَلَمَّا فَرَغْنَا آذَنَّاهُ فَأَلْقٰى اِلَيْنَا حَقْوَهٗ فَقَالَ اَشْعِرْ نَهَا اِيَّاهُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اِغْسِلْنَهَا وِتْرًا ثَلَاثًا اَوْخَمْسًا اَوْسَبْعًا وَابْدَأْنَ بِمَيَا مِنِهَا وَ مَوَاضِعِ الْوُضُوْءِ مِنْهَا وَقَالَتْ فَضَفَرْنَا شَعْرَهَا ثَلَاثَةَ قُرُوْنٍ فَأَلْقَيْنَاهَا خَلْفَهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

1634. Sayyidah Umm Atiyah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came to them when they were giving bath to his daughter. He instructed them to bathe her with water and lotus leaves three or five times or more if they deemed it necessary. They were to put camphor - or some of it - in the final bath. Then, they should let him know. So, they informed him on finishing the bath. The threw in to them his lower garment and asked them to put it on her body.

According to another version: He instructed them to bath her an odd number of times, three, five or seven and to begin with the right side, from the limbs of ablution. She said, "We braided her hair in three plaits and placed them behind her back."[1]

COMMENTARY: to bathe three or five or more times -or three, five or seven (odd number of) times is a sequence not an option. If one bath suffices to gain purity then it is mustahab (desirable) to bathe three times. If two or three baths are necessary to obtain purity, then it is mustahab (desirable) to bathe five times. The maximum number is seven times. It is makruh (unbecoming) to exceed these number.

LOTUS LEAVES AND CAMPHOR

According to Hidayah bath should be given with water and lotus leaves two times. The third time water with camphor should be used.

WATER OR PERFUME

Ibn Hammam and most ulama (Scholars) maintain that camphor may be mixed in water with which the dead is given bath. However, the Kufis say that camphor should be mixed in hanut, the perfume, which is applied to the dead. It should be applied on the body after the bath and drying. If camphor cannot be had, then musk may be used instead.

PROPERTIES OF LOTUS LEAVES AND CAMPHOR

The dirt on the body is cleaned out with lotus leaves and the body does not decompose soon. Use of lotus leaves and camphor also keep away harmful animals.

GARMENT OF A RIGHTEOUS PERSON

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave his waist-wrapper to be placed under the shroud (1) of his daughter to let blessings come to her. So, it is mustahab (desirable) to use a garment of a righteous man to obtain blessings. It may be used as part of the shroud but the pieces of the shroud should not be exceeded.[2]

Bath should commence with right hands, right side and right legs. The limbs of ablution should be washed first but, according to the hanafis, it is not legal to rinse the mouth and snuff up water. It is mustahab (desirable) for one who gives the bath to wrap his fingers with a cloth and rub the fingers with a cloth and rub and dead persons teeth and mouth and nostrils.

The head should be wiped and the feet should be washed alongwith other limbs, not after the bath. The hands should not be washed first, but both must commence with washing the face. A sexually defiled person begins bath by first washing his hands to purify them before applying them to other limbs. The dead, on the other hand, is bathed by hands of other people so his hands are not washed first.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ holds that after bath, a woman's hair should be left flowing. They should not be braided.

THE PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم SHROUD

(١٦٣٥) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُفِّنَ فِيْ ثَلَاثَةِ اَثْوَابٍ يَمَانِيَّةٍ بِيْضٍ

[2] The urdu translation of the hadith says explicitly 'put under the shroud.

سُحُوْلِيَّةٍ مِنْ كُرْسُفٍ لَيْسَ فِيْهَا قَمِيْصٌ وَلَا عِمَامَةٌ (متفق عليه)

1635. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was shrouded in three garments of cotton of white yeman material from sahul. There was neither a (stitched) shirt nor a turban.[1]

COMMENTARY: Some people interpret the hadith to mean that the shirt and turban were not part of a three pieces of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم shroud, but were apart from them. This would mean that he had a shroud of five pieces, but it is established that his shroud was made up of three pieces, so this interpretation is incorrect. His shroud did not have a shirt and a turban but only three pieces.

Accordingly, Imam Maalik رحمه الله Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله maintain that the shroud had three wrappers (meaning, only three sheets of cloth of wrap the dead in them) and they have no shirt or turban.

The Hanafis say that the shroud had three garments:

(i) The izar (or lower wrapper).

(ii) The shirt (or the shroud).

(iii) Lafafah (or the pack).

The Hanafis say that the hadith speaks of a stitched shirt. Sahul is a place in Yemen.

SHROUD SHOULD BE OF GOOD QUALITY

(١٦٣٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا كَفَّنَ أَحَدُكُمْ أَخَاهُ فَلْيُحْسِنْ كَفَنَهُ (رواه مسلم)

1636. Sayyduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'When any of you shrouds his brother, let him give him a shroud of good quality."[2]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Adi رحمه الله said that a good quality shroud should be used for the dead because the dead people meet each other in their graves.

The shroud must be a complete one and without squandering money it should Le find and pure, washed or absolutely new.

A good quality shroud does not mean that superb and expensive cloth that some ostentatious people use.

Allamah Toorpushti said that this kind of expensive shroud is disallowed.

THE SHROUD OF THE MUHRIM

(١٦٣٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ إِنَّ رَجُلًا كَانَ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَوَقَصَتْهُ نَاقَتُهُ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ فَمَاتَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِغْسِلُوْهُ بِمَاءٍ وَسِدْرٍ وَكَفِّنُوْهُ فِيْ ثَوْبَيْهِ وَلَا تَمَسُّوْهُ بِطِيْبٍ وَلَا تُخَمِّرُوْا رَأْسَهُ فَإِنَّهُ يُبْعَثُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مُلَبِّيًا۔

1637. Sayy'duna Abdullah ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that a man who was in the state of ihram (on the way to perform Hajj (pilgrimage)) alongwith the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was thrown by his she-camel. He broke his neck and died. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Give him a bath with water and lotus leaves and shroud him in his two garments. Do not apply any perfume on him and do not cover his head, for, he will be resurrected on the day of resurrection reciting the talbiyah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله rule according to the hadith that a muhrim should be buried in his ihram. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله hold that the shrouding of a muhrim and non-muhrimis the same.

The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم directive was for that particular man because he had no other garment and since it was not enough, the head had to left uncovered.

وَسَنَذْكُرُ حَدِيثَ خَبَّابٍ قُتِلَ مُصْعَبُ بْنُ عُمَيْرٍ فِي بَابِ جَامِعِ الْمَنَاقِبِ إِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالَى

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

WHITE SHROUD

(١٦٣٨) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْبِسُوْا مِنْ ثِيَابِكُمُ الْبَيَاضَ فَإِنَّهَا مِنْ خَيْرِ ثِيَابِكُمْ وَكَفِّنُوا فِيْهَا مَوْتَاكُمْ وَمِنْ خَيْرِ أَكْحَالِكُمُ الْإِثْمِدُ فَإِنَّهُ يُنْبِتُ الشَّعْرَ وَيَجْلُوا الْبَصَرَ۔ رَوَاهُ أَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَى ابْنُ مَاجَةَ إِلَى مَوْتَاكُمْ۔

1638. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'Wear your white garments, for they are of the best of your garments. And enshroud your dead in them. The best kind of collyrium you use is ithmid (antimony) It grows hair and brightens the sight."[2]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Hammam said that white shroud is best. If it is not available than striped cotton cloth for men and yellow or red silk for women for their shroud is proper. Whatever cloth is allowed to men and women during their lifetime is also allowed for their shroud.

The collyrium ithmid is best applied before going to sleep in emulation of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

NOT EXPENSIVE SHROUD

(١٦٣٩) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُغَالُوا فِي الْكَفَنِ فَإِنَّهُ يَسْلُبُ سَلْبًا سَرِيْعًا(رواه ابوداؤد)

1639. Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said that an expensive shroud should not be used, for, it is taken away very quickly.[3]

COMMENTARY: 'The shroud is taken away quickly' means it will decay in a short time. The hadith disallows extravagance in shrouding. It is mustahab (desirable) to use shroud of an average quality.

HOW WILL THE DEAD BE RESURRECTED

(١٦٤٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ اَنَّهُ لَمَّا حَضَرَهُ الْمَوْتُ دَعَا بِثِيَابٍ جُدُدٍ فَلَبِسَهَا ثُمَّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الْمَيِّتُ يُبْعَثُ فِيْ ثِيَابِهِ الَّتِيْ يَمُوْتُ فِيْهَا(رواه ابوداؤد)

1640. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ called for new garments when he was on the point of death and wore them. Then, he narrated that he had heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "The dead person will be resurrected wearing those very garments in which he had died."[1]

COMMENTARY: It has been confirmed through sahih hadith that on the day of resurrection, people will be raised bare-footed and naked (without clothes on them).
So, the ulama (Scholars) explain this hadith that clothes mean deeds with which life had ended. The Arabs use the word (ثیابک) (thi'ab clothes) sometimes to mean deeds. Like garment deeds too stick to the body. Hence, the words of the Quran:

ثِيَابَكَ فَطَهِّرْ

{And your garments do purify} (74:4)

Some exegetes have interpreted the words to mean 'make your deeds correct.
The hadith could also mean that a man would be resurrected in those garments in which he died but he will be made in the ground of reckoning.

THE BEST SHROUD

(١٦٤١-١٦٤٢) وَعَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ خَيْرُ الْكَفَنِ الْحُلَّةُ وَخَيْرُ الْاُضْحِيَّةِ الْكَبْشُ الْاَقْرَنُ(رواه ابوداؤد ورواه الترمذى وابن ماجة عن ابى امامة)

1641. Sayyiduna Ubadah ibn Samit رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'The best shroud is al-hullah and the best sacrifice is a horned ram."[2]
(Hullah is made up of a waist wrapper and an overall cloak).
1642. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated this hadith.[3]

COMMENTARY: The shroud should not be just one cloth. The least number of pieces should be two as the minimum to suffice. If there are three then it is the perfect degree and sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) and they consist of the cloak, waist wrapper and shirt.
The horned ram is best because it is often fat-bodied and expensive.

SHROUD OF THE MARTYRS

(١٦٤٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اَمَرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِقَتْلٰى اُحُدٍ اَنْ يُنْزَعَ عَنْهُمُ الْحَدِيْدُ وَالْجُلُوْدُ وَاَنْ يُدْفَنُوْا بِدِمَائِهِمْ وَثِيَابِهِمْ(رواه ابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

1643. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم commanded them to remove the iron (weapons and armour) and the leather or fur (coats) from the martyrs of (the battle of) Uhud and to bury them in their (blood soaked) garments and blood.[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi رحمه الله contends that a martyr is not given a bath and his funeral salah (prayer) is not observed However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله contends that while bath is not given to a martyr, yet the funeral salah (prayer) is offered.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

THE SHROUD OF MUSAB رضی اللہ عنہ & HAMZAH رضی اللہ عنہ

(١٦٤٤) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ إِبْرَاهِيْمَ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ اَنَّ عَبْدَالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ أُتِيَ بِطَعَامٍ وَكَانَ صَائِمًا فَقَالَ قُتِلَ مُصْعَبُ بْنُ عُمَيْرٍ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ مِنِّيْ كُفِّنَ فِيْ بُرْدَةٍ اِنْ غُطِّيَ رَأْسُهُ بَدَتْ رِجْلَاهُ وَاِنْ غُطِّيَ رِجْلَاهُ بِدَارَأْسُهُ وَأُرَاهُ قَالَ وَقُتِلَ حَمْزَةُ وَهُوَ خَيْرٌ مِّنِّيْ ثُمَّ بُسِطَ لَنَا مِنَ الدُّنْيَا مَا بُسِطَ اَوْقَالَ أُعْطِيْنَا مِنَ الدُّنْيَا مَا اُعْطِيْنَا وَلَقَدْ خَشِيْنَا اَنْ تَكُوْنَ حَسَنَاتُنَا عُجِّلَتْ لَنَا ثُمَّ جَعَلَ يَبْكِيْ حَتّٰى تَرَكَ الطَّعَامَ (رواه البخاری)

1644. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Ibrahim narrated that from his father that (Sayyiduna) Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ was brought food when he was fasting. He said, "Mus'ab ibn Umayr was better than I am. He was martyred and enshrouded in a cloak such that if his head was covered, his feet were bare. If his feet were covered, his head was bare."

Sa'd said that he thought that he also said, "And Hamzah was martyred and he was better than I am. Then, the world was spread out for us as it is spread (and made available to us). We are afraid that the reward for our piety is given to us promptly (in this world)." Then, he wept and did not touch the food.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ was a great sahabi and one of the ashrah mubashshirah, meaning the ten who were given glad tidings of admittance to paradise.

Sayyiduna Musab ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ too was one of the great and prominent sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہ. He participated in the battles of badr and Uhud but was martyred in the latter.

Before embracing Islam, Sayyiduna Mas'ab ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ was a very rich man. When he became a Muslim and joined the slaves of the Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, he took over the life of poverty and asceticism. Once the came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم with a belt tied round his belly The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to his sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہم that he had seen him in Makkah with his parents eating the best of food and wearing garments worth two hundred dirhams. But, he brought himself to a very bad shape because of his love of Allah and His Messenger. صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

Sayyiduna Hamzah ibn Abdul Muttalib رضی اللہ عنہ was the paternal uncle of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He participated in the battles of Badr and Uhud and was martyred in the letter. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called him Sayyid ush-shuada (chief of the martyrs).

Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman رضی اللہ عنہ expressed fear that they were given reward for goodness prompty in this world. He wondered lest they be the ones described in this verse:

[1] Abu Dawud # 3134, Ibn Majah # 1515.

[2] Bukhari # 4045.

مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيْدُ الْعَاجِلَةَ عَجَّلْنَا لَهُ فِيْهَا مَا نَشَاءُ لِمَنْ نُرِيْدُ ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَا لَهُ جَهَنَّمَ يَصْلٰهَا مَذْمُوْمًا مَّدْحُوْرًا

{Whosoever desires this hasty world, we hasten to him there in whatsoever we will unto whomsoever we intend, then we appoint for him hell; he will enter it despised, rejected} (17:18)

Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ was very fearful of Allah, so he feared lest he fell in the purview of this verse through it clearly applies to those who cherish this world and its pleasures and noting else. He was not among them.

His fear and righteousness made him shun food even when he had been fasting and in need of food.

This hadith is evidence that in times of need any kind of shroud that is available is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet).

PROPHET'S TREATMENT OF THE CHIEF OF HYPOCRITES

(١٦٤٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ اَتٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَبْدَاللّٰهِ بْنَ اُبَيٍّ بَعْدَ مَا اُدْخِلَ حُفْرَتَهُ فَاَمَرَ بِهٖ

فَاُخْرِجَ فَوَضَعَهُ عَلٰى رُكْبَتَيْهِ فَنَفَثَ فِيْهِ مِنْ رِيْقِهٖ وَاَلْبَسَهُ قَمِيْصَهُ قَالَ وَكَانَ كَسَا عَبَّاسًا قَمِيْصًا (متفق عليه)

1645. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to Abdullah ibn Ubayy when he had been lowered in his grave. So, he ordered (that he should be taken out) and he was brought out. He placed him on his knees and blew some of saliva into him and put his shirt on him. Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said that Abdullah ibn Ubayy had previously clothed Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ with his shirt.[1]

COMMENTARY: When the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigrated to Madinah from Makkah at Allah's command, three different group emerged. The first was the fortunate and honourable group of people who responded positively to the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم call sincerely. They believed in the unity of Allah and the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم messenger ship. They were blessed with the companionship of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as his sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہ.

The second group was exactly its opposite. They opposed Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم openly. As a result, they were the most debased and wretched of the human race as disbelievers and polytheists.

The third group comprised of the selfish, self centred people. They professed Islam outwardly and moved with the Muslim but inwardly and secretly they worked to harm Islam and hurt the Muslim. They had hypocrisy ingrained in them. In Islamic history they came to be known as munafiq (hypocrites). Abdullah ibn Ubayy was the chief of this group.

Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ was the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم paternal uncle. He had embraced Islam much before the Battle of Badr, but had not disclosed his faith for some reason. In the Battle of Badr, he was compelled to fight on the side of the disbelievers against Islam. However, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had known that he was a Muslim, so he had instructed the Muslim not to touch him.

When the Muslim emerged victorious and took a large number of infidels as captives, Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ was one of them. When he was brought to Madinah, he had no clothes on him. He was very tall, so it was not easy to find a suitable shirt for him. However, Abdullah ibn Ubayy was also tall and he presented his shirt for Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ. It was accepted out of necessity. So, when Ibn Ubayy died, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم presented his shirt so that a hypocrites favour did not remain against him. However the Quran says:

وَلَا تُصَلِّ عَلٰٓى اَحَدٍ مِّنْهُمْ مَّاتَ اَبَدًا وَّلَا تَقُمْ عَلٰى قَبْرِهٖ

{And pray you never over any one of them that may die, nor stand over his grave} (9:84)

Then why did the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم go to the grave of Abdullah ibn Ubayy? The ulama (Scholars) say that this happened before the foregoing verse was revealed. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم only meant to return his favour. Also, the son of Abdullah ibn Ubayy was a sincere, true Muslim, so the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had to comfort him.

CONCLUSION OF CHAPTER - SOME RULES ABOUT BATH & SHROUDING OF THE DEAD & THE LAST MOMENTS

It is appropriate that while concluding this chapter, we outline some of the commands and rulings about the moments prior to death, bath and shroud of the dead.

When the signs of death are very apparent on anyone, he must be oriented towards the qiblah. This may be done by making him lie on his back with his feet towards the qiblah and his head high in pillows so that it faces the qiblah. He should be prompted by reciting audibly before him:

اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ

(I bear witness the there is no God but Alah and I bear witness that Muhammad is Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم)

So that he is encourage to recite it. However, he should not be asked to recite it because he is going through a difficult time and may utter something wrong. When the soul departs, all his limbs must be put in order and cloth should be tied from under and cloth should be tied from under his chin with the knot on his head to keep his mouth closed. His eyes should be shut and the big toes should be brought together and tied so that his feet do not spread.

As for as possible, the bathing, shrouding and burial should be done quickly. A plank, or large floorboard should be fumigated with aloes or some other such thing, three, five or seven times from all round. Then, the body should be placed on it and its garments removed. A piece of cloth 1.5 cubit by 2 cubits should be placed from his navel to thighs to conceal his satr. (It is the portion of a male that must not be bared before anyone else. The satr of female is her whole body).

METHOD OF BATH

One who is giving the bath should wrap some cloth on his own hand and, without looking at it, he should put his h and inside the cloth that is placed on the navel down on the body, and wash the private parts. Then he should go through the body's ablution without rinsing his mouth and snuffing up water. Also hands should not be washed up to the wrists, but the face should be washed and forearms should be washed up to and including, the elbows. Then the head should be wiped. Then both feet should be washed. It is allowed to moisten some cotton wool and sub it over his teeth and gums and into his nostrils three times. If the dead person was in need of a purifying bath or had menses or lochia before death, then it is obligatory to insert water in the mouth and nostrils in this manner.

Cotton wool must be put in the dead person nostrils, mouth and ears so that water does not enter them during ablution and bath.

After the ablution ,marsh mellow must be applied to the head and beard; or something else like soap must be applied to them and they should be washed. Then the body should be turned on its right side and water with lotus leaves, slightly warm, should be poured from head to feet three times so that the water reaches the other side that lies on the plank. Then the body should be turned on the left side and the process should be repeated till water reaches the side that rests on the plank.

Then the body must be made to sit resting on the person giving bath and its belly should be massaged slowly and pressed slightly. If there is an excretion, that should be wiped off and washed. However, it is not necessary to go through ablution or bath again.

Then the body should be turned on its right side and water treated with camphor should be poured from head to feet three times.

If lotus leaves and camphor, etc. are not available then ordinary warm water should be enough. It should be poured over him three times.

After bath, the entire body should be wiped with a piece of cloth. Perfume should be applied to his head and beard. Camphor should be rubbed on the head, nose, palms, knees and feet. The hair should not be combed. Nails should not be pared and heir should not be cut. If he is not circumcised, then that should not be done.

Afterwards, the body should be enshrouded.

THE MASNUN SHROUD

It is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) to use three pieces of garments for the shroud of a male.

(i) Shirt that hangs from shoulder down to the feet.
(ii) Izar or the waist wrapper.
(iii) Over all wrapper or cloak.

The izar (or waist wrapper) extends from head to feet and the cloak is larger than it by one cubit. This is the masnun shroud for men and the bare minimum is of two garments, namely, izar and overall wrapper.

It is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet) to use five pieces of garments for woman.

(i) The shirt.
(ii) White scarf.
(iii) Izar.
(iv) Overall wrapper.
(v) Chest covering or blouse.

The scarf should be three cubits long. The chest covering should be from armpits to knees in length and enough in breadth to be fixed easily. The other three garments should be of identical size as for men.

It is wrong to increase or decrease this masnun shroud.

The bare minimum shroud for women is three garment:

(i) Izar.
(ii) Scarf
(iii) Overall wrapper.

When it is necessary and cannot be helped then one garment is enough. However, only one garment should not be used when not necessary.

THE METHOD OF SHROUDING

Before shrouding the dead, the shroud should be performed three, five or seven times with incense If the dead is a man, the overall wrapper should be placed. The izar and the shirt must be placed on it in this order. Then the body is put on it and the shirt is put on him and his two hands should be placed on each side, not on the chest. Then the izar is wrapped round him from left side and then the right side. Then the overall wrapper is wrapped, first on the left side, then the right side.

As for shrouding a woman, the overall wrapper is placed first, then the izar. The shirt is then placed on it. The body is brought and the shirt is put on. The hair on the head must be parted in two and put on the shirt at t he chest to the right side and the left side. The scarf is then put on the head and hair, but neither should it be tied in the knot nor rolled. Then the izar should be put on. Thereafter, the overall wrapper is wrapped in the same sequence, meaning first from the left side and then on the right side.

Then, on top of all the chest covering must be wrapped round.

After the garments are wrapped, the shroud must be fastened with some string on the side of the feet and on the side of the head. A belt should also be fastened near the back to prevent it from opening while on the way.

CHAPTER - V

GOING ALONGWITH THE FUNERAL & THE FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER)

بَابُ عِيَادَةِ الْمَرِيْضِ وَثَوَابِ الْمَرَضِ

BETTER TO WALK

While it is allowed both to walk and to ride at the funeral, it is better to walk at it. If anyone rides along, then he walks, then it is allowed to him to walk ahead of it or behind it, but better to keep behind.

FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER) IS FARD KIFAYAH(ADEQUATE OBLIGATION)

If a few people offer the funeral salah (prayer), all the others are absolved of the obligation. If no one offer it then all will have sinned.

PREREQUISITE OF SOUNDNESS OF FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER)

There are three conditions for a funeral salah (prayer) to be correct. They are:

(i) The dead is a Muslim.

(ii) Bath has been given to the dead.

(iii) The bier should have been placed in front of the congregation.

This means that it is not allowed to offer a funeral salah (prayer) in the absence of the funeral (ghaibanah). It is also disallowed to offer it when the funeral is placed on the shoulders of men, or behind the congregation.

If a body is buried without having been given a bath and cannot be brought out without digging the grave, then the condition of purity (bath) is waived. Its funeral salah (prayer) may be offered at its grave without bathing it. It is possible to bring it out, then the body should be brought out and given a bath and then the funeral salah (prayer) may be offered.

If a dead person's funeral salah (prayer) has been offered without giving him a bath through forgetfulness or mistake and he is brought out without digging the grave and given a bath, ten his funeral salah (prayer) will be offered again.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

WALKING QUICKLY

(١٦٤٦) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَسْرِعُوْا بِالْجَنَازَةِ فَاِنْ تَكُ صَالِحَةً فَخَيْرٌ تُقَدِّمُوْنَهَا اِلَيْهِ وَاِنْ تَكُ سِوٰى ذٰلِكَ فَشَرٌّ تَضَعُوْنَهُ عَنْ رِقَابِكُمْ (متفق عليه)

1646. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Be quick with the funeral. If it is of a pious person, you are taking him to a good place. If it is other than that, then it is an evil that you are put ting down from your shoulders."[1]

COMMENTARY: To be quick is not to run, but to take quick short steps, faster than a normal walk.

In this way, pious man will be quickly to his reward and Allah's mercy. On the other hand, those who carry on evil man will rid themselves of a burden quickly if their walk is brisk.

FUNERAL OF PIOUS & OF WICKED

(١٦٤٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا وُضِعَتِ الْجَنَازَةُ فَاحْتَمَلَهَا الرِّجَالُ عَلٰى اَعْنَاقِهِمْ فَاِنْ كَانَتْ صَالِحَةً قَالَتْ قَدِّمُوْنِيْ وَاِنْ كَانَتْ غَيْرَ صَالِحَةٍ قَالَتْ لِاَهْلِهَا يَا وَيْلَهَآ اَيْنَ تَذْهَبُوْنَ بِهَا يَسْمَعُ صَوْتَهَا كُلُّ شَيْئٍ اِلَّا الْاِنْسَانَ وَلَوْ سَمِعَ الْاِنْسَانُ لَصَعِقَ (رواه البخارى)

1647. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that when the funeral is ready and men carry it on their shoulder and if it belongs to a righteous man, the soul says, "Take me quickly (to my destination)." If it belong to one who was not righteous, the soul say to those carrying it. "Woe to it! Where do you take it?" Its voice is heart by everything but not mankind. Were anyone of them to hear it, he would faint (and collapse).[2]

COMMENTARY: The righteous man in the hadith is the believer.

The ulama (Scholars) say that the dead truly speaks though his soul has been extracted. The only difference is that man does not hear him out other creatures do perceive his voice. Allah is able to do it. The dead person's speech is like his being revived in his grave for the reckoning.

STAND UP ON SEEING A FUNERAL

(١٦٤٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا رَاَيْتُمُ الْجَنَازَةَ فَقُوْمُوْا فَمَنْ تَبِعَهَا فَلَا يَقْعُدْ حَتّٰى تُوْضَعَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1648. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'when you observe a funeral stand up. Those who follow it must not sit down till the funeral is placed down (on the ground or the corpse in the grave)."[3]

COMMENTARY: On seeing a funeral, one must be restless and stand up. One most also accompany it to carry it for some steps.

Some Hanafi scholars say that if one does not intend to accompany it then one must not stand up and they call it makruh (unbecoming). Others say that it is up to one to stand up or remain seated, and some say that it is mustahab (desirable) either way.

Most of the ulama (Scholars) hold that this hadith and the one following are both abrogated by the hadith of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ (# 1682)

(١٦٤٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ مَرَّتْ جِنَازَةٌ فَقَامَ لَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقُمْنَا مَعَهُ فَقُلْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّهَا يَهُوْدِيَّةٌ فَقَالَ إِنَّ الْمَوْتَ فَزَعٌ فَإِذَا رَأَيْتُمُ الْجَنَازَةَ فَقُوْمُوْا (متفق عليه)

1649. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a funeral passed by and Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stood up. They too stood up alongwith him. Then, they pointed out, "O Messenger of Allah, this (funeral) was of a Jew." He said, "Death is something fearful. So when you see funeral, stand up."[1]

(١٦٥٠) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ رَأَيْنَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَامَ فَقُمْنَا وَقَعَدَ فَقَعَدْنَا يَعْنِيْ فِي الْجَنَازَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ. وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ مَالِكٍ وَّأَبِيْ دَاوُدَ قَامَ فِي الْجَنَازَةِ ثُمَّ قَعَدَ بَعْدُ۔

1650. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "We saw Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stand up. So, we stood up too, And, he sat down, so we sat down. That was on seeing a funeral."[2] According to another version: "He stood up for the funeral and then sat down afterwards."[3]

COMMENTARY: The first version could mean that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and the others get up on seeing funeral and sat down when it had gone away.

It could also mean that this continued to be his practice for some period of time and he stood up, but later on he did not stand up on seeing a funeral; rather remained seated.

The second version too can have two meanings. The second meaning is more correct.

REWARD FOR PARTICIPATION

(١٦٥١) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنِ اتَّبَعَ جَنَازَةَ مُسْلِمٍ إِيْمَانًا وَّ إِحْتِسَابًا وَّكَانَ مَعَهُ حَتّٰى يُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْهَا وَيَفْرُغَ مِنْ دَفْنِهَا فَإِنَّهُ يَرْجِعُ مِنَ الْأَجْرِ بِقِيْرَاطَيْنِ كُلُّ قِيْرَاطٍ مِّثْلُ أُحُدٍ وَّ مَنْ صَلّٰى عَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ رَجَعَ قَبْلَ أَنْ تُدْفَنَ فَإِنَّهُ يَرْجِعُ بِقِيْرَاطٍ (متفق عليه)

1651. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone follows the funeral of a Muslim as a believer expecting reward and remains with it till the salah (prayer) is offered over him and ends up with the burial, then he returns with a reward of two qirat, each qirat being equal to (Mount) Uhud. And if any one offers the salah (prayer) over him and returns before the salah over him and returns before the burial is over then he comes back with (a reward of) one qirat."[4]

COMMENTARY: One qirat is a carat or four grains, or 1/24 mithkal or dinar (Wartabret,

FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER) OF THE NEGUS IN ABSENTIA

(١٦٥٢) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَعَى لِلنَّاسِ النَّجَاشِيَّ الْيَوْمَ الَّذِيْ مَاتَ فِيْهِ وَخَرَجَ بِهِمْ اِلَى الْمُصَلّٰى فَصَفَّ بِهِمْ وَكَبَّرَ اَرْبَعَ تَكْبِيْرَاتٍ(متفق عليه)

1652. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم conveyed to the people news of the death of the Negus on the day on which he died. He went out with them to the place of salah (prayer) (of eed). He got them to form the rows and called four takbirs (for the funeral salah (prayer)).[1]

COMMENTARY: Negus or Najashi was the title of the emperor of Ethiopia. The name of this particular Negus was Ashamah. He had been a Christian who then confirmed the messenger ship of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. When the idolaters of Makkah persecuted the Muslims, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed them to emigrate from Makkah and they went to Ethiopia where this Negus Ashamah ruled. He received the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنهم warmly and was delighted at their arrival.

When he died, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was grieved heavily and took his shabah رضی الله عنه for the funeral salah (prayer) over t he Negus (in absentia).

FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER) IN THE MOSQUE

It is stated in the Hidayah that the funeral salah (prayer) should not be offered in a mosque where five times salah (prayer) are offered. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. said. "If anyone offers the funeral salah (prayer) in a mosque, then he will get no reward for it."

Ibn Hammam رضی الله عنه said that it is written in the Khulasah that it is makruh (unbecoming) to offer the funeral salah (prayer) in a mosque whether both the funeral and the worshippers and within the mosque or the funeral is in the mosque and all, or some, worshippers outside the mosque. Some scholars say that it is not makruh (unbecoming) if the funeral is placed outside the mosque.

As for the classification of makruh (unbecoming), some say that it is makruh tahrimi (disapproved to forbidden) while other say that it is makruh (unbecoming) tanzihi(unbecoming for purigation).

DEDUCTION OF THE SHAFI'IS

The Shafi'is رحمه الله cite this hadith to assert that funeral salah (prayer) in absentia is permitted. The Hanafis say that it is not allowed. They say that perhaps the funeral of the Negus was placed in front of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he might be seeing it as Allah is able to remove the intervening geographical features or barriers (for anyone to see directly). So, this was exclusive for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and it is not allowed to anyone else to offer the funeral salah (prayer) in absentia.

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه is reported to have said, but the line of transmission for the report is not given. "The funeral of the Negus was uncovered and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him and offered the funeral salah (prayer) over him."

THE TAKBIRS

(١٦٥٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبِيْ لَيْلٰى قَالَ كَانَ زَيْدُ بْنُ اَرْقَمَ يُكَبِّرُ عَلٰى جَنَآئِزِنَا اَرْبَعًا وَّاَنَّهٗ كَبَّرَ عَلٰى جَنَازَةٍ خَمْسًا فَسَاَلْنَاهُ فَقَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُكَبِّرُهَا (رواه مسلم)

1653. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Layla رحمه الله reported that (Sayyiduna) Zayd ibn Arqam رضى الله عنه used to call four takbirs in their funeral (salah (prayer)). Once, he called five, so they asked him about it and he said, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had called them."[1]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم called five takbirs in the early days, or he did that off and on.

The ulama (Scholars) agree that only four takbirs are called in the funeral salah (prayer) though the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنهم are known to have called more than four takbirs too. However, the ulama (Scholars) absert that finally only four takbirs are known from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Hence, the traditions that mention more than four takbirs are abrogated. If Sayyiduna Zayd رضى الله عنه does not agree that these traditions are abrogated then that does not dater from the unanimous decision.

THE QUESTION OF RECITING SURAH AL-FATIHAH

(١٦٥٤) وَعَنْ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ قَالَ صَلَّيْتُ خَلْفَ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَلٰى جَنَازَةٍ فَقَرَاَ فَاتِحَةَ الْكِتَابِ فَقَالَ لِتَعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّهَا سُنَّةٌ (رواه البخارى)

1654. Sayyiduna Talhah ibn Abdullah ibn Awf رحمه الله narrated that he offered salah (prayer) of funeral behind (Sayyiduna) Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه. He recited surah al-Fatihah and said, "that you may know it is a sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*."[2]

COMMENTARY: Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that it is not wajib (expedient) to recite Surah al-Fatihah in the funeral salah (prayer). If after the first takbir, surah al-Fatihah is recited instead of the thana (سبحنک اللهم) then it is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*. It replaces the thana.

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that surah al-Fatihah must not be recited in the funeral salah (prayer) but it may be recited as thana (praise of Allah). It is not known that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ever recited surah al-Fatihah in the funeral salah (prayer). It is stated in Muwatta that Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه did not recite al-Fatihah in the funeral salah (prayer).

PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

(١٦٥٥) وَعَنْ عَوْفِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ صَلّٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى جَنَازَةٍ فَحَفِظْتُ مِنْ دُعَآئِهٖ وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لَهٗ وَارْحَمْهُ وَعَافِهٖ وَاعْفُ عَنْهُ وَاَكْرِمْ نُزُلَهٗ وَوَسِّعْ مَدْخَلَهٗ وَاغْسِلْهُ بِالْمَآءِ وَالثَّلْجِ

الْقَبْرِ وَعَذَابِ النَّارِ قَالَ حَتّٰى تَمَنَّيْتُ اَنْ اَكُوْنَ اَنَا ذٰلِكَ الْمَيِّتَ (رواہ مسلم)

1655. Sayyiduna Awf ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم led a funeral salah (prayer) and he memorized the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayer in that salah (prayer). He had prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلَهٗ وَارْحَمْهُ وَعَافِهٖ وَاعْفُ عَنْهُ وَاَكْرِمْ نُزُلَهٗ وَوَسِّعْ مَدْخَلَهٗ وَاغْسِلْهُ بِالْمَآءِ وَالثَّلْجِ وَالْبَرَدِ وَ نَقِّهٖ مِنَ
الْخَطَايَا كَمَا نَقَّيْتَ الثَّوْبَ الْاَبْيَضَ مِنَ الدَّنَسِ وَاَبْدِلْهُ دَارًا خَيْرًا مِّنْ دَارِهٖ وَاَهْلًا خَيْرًا مِّنْ اَهْلِهٖ وَزَوْجًا خَيْرًا
مِّنْ زَوْجِهٖ وَاَدْخِلْهُ الْجَنَّةَ وَاَعِذْهُ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَمِنْ عَذَابِ النَّارِ

"O Allah, forgive him and have mercy on him. Grant him security and forgiveness. Provide him a bountiful provision and a wide room (in his grave). Wash him with water, show and ice. Cleanse him of sins as white garment is cleansed of dirt. Let him have a better abode than his house (in this world). Better servants than his (present) servants and a better wife than his wife (in this world). Admit him a paradise (directly without punishment. And, preserve him from the punishment in the grave and punishment in the fire." Another version from him is; "And preserve him from the trial in the grave and punishment in the fire."

On that Awf رضی اللہ عنہ said, "So that I yearned that I should be that dead man."[1]

COMMENTARY: Better wife is the maiden of paradise as also the woman of this world. The pious women of this world will be superior to the maidens of paradise in paradise.

The fiqh says that it is mustahub to make this supplication silently. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made it aloud to enable others to listen to it and memorise it. Bukhari has termed this supplication eh most sound of all prayers for the dead as handed down through traditions.

(١٦٥٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ اَنَّ عَائِشَةَ لَمَّا تُوُفِّيَ سَعْدُ بْنُ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَتِ ادْخُلُوْا بِهِ الْمَسْجِدَ
حَتّٰى اُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ فَاُنْكِرَ ذٰلِكَ عَلَيْهَا فَقَالَتْ وَاللّٰهِ لَقَدْ صَلّٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى ابْنَيْ بَيْضَآءَ فِي
الْمَسْجِدِ سُهَيْلٍ وَّاَخِيْهِ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

1656. Sayyiduna Abu Salamah ibn Abdur Rahman رحمہ اللہ narrated that when (Sayyiduna) Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ died, (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Bring the funeral into the mosque so that I too may offer the (funeral) salah (prayer) over him." But, this was rejected to her (that funeral salah (prayer) cannot be offered in the mosque). So, she said, "By Allah, indeed, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had offered the (funeral) salah (prayer) over the two sons of Bayda, Suhayl and his brother, in the mosque."[2]

COMMENTARY: Suhayl's brother was sahl. Their mother was Bayda.

Imam Shafi'I رضی الله عنه relies on this hadith to say that the funeral salah (prayer) may be offered in the mosque. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله says that it is makruh (unbecoming) to offer the funeral salah (prayer) in t he mosque. He also cites this very hadith that the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنهم rejected the idea of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه and the saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (in the commentary of hadith #1652) that if anyone offers the funeral salah (prayer) in a mosque then he will get no reward. Rather, a separate place was set aside near the mosque for the funeral salah (prayer).
As for the funeral salah (prayer) of the two brothers in the mosque, that had been done for some reason. Either it was raining or the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was observing the I'takaf (seclusion). This is corroborated in a hadith.

IMAM'S PLACE

(١٦٥٧) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ قَالَ صَلَّيْتُ وَرَآءَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى امْرَأَةٍ مَّاتَتْ فِيْ نِفَاسِهَا فَقَامَ وَسْطَهَا (متفق عليه)

1657. Sayyiduna Sumurah ibn Jundub رضی الله عنه said, "I offered the funeral salah (prayer) behind Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم over a woman who had died of post childbirth bleeding. He stood against the centre of the funeral (or, against her waist)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'i's رحمه الله view is that the imam stands opposite a woman's hips when leading her funeral salah (prayer) and a man's head for his funeral salah (prayer). Imam Abu Hanifah's رحمه الله contention is that the imam must stand opposite to the chest of the dead person whether man or woman.
Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that this hadith does not reject the imam's standing against the chest of the dead person because of the limbs of a human being, his chest itself is the centre, for, above it are the head and the h ands. Below it are the belly and very near to one another, so the narrator may have seen him opposite to the waist.
However, Thamim رحمه الله has said that Imam Abu Hanifah رضی الله عنه and Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله also said that the imam stands opposite to the woman's hips when offering her funeral salah (prayer). Allah knows best.

FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER) AFTER BURIAL

(١٦٥٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّ بِقَبْرٍ دُفِنَ لَيْلًا فَقَالَ مَتٰى دُفِنَ هٰذَا قَالُوْا الْبَارِحَةَ قَالَ اَفَلَا اٰذَنْتُمُوْنِيْ قَالُوْا دَفَنَّاهُ فِيْ ظُلْمَةِ اللَّيْلِ فَكَرِهْنَا اَنْ نُّوْقِظَكَ فَقَامَ فَصَفَفْنَا خَلْفَهٗ فَصَلّٰى عَلَيْهِ (متفق عليه)

1658. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم come by a grave in which the dead person was buried at night. He asked, "when was this one buried?" the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنهم said, "Last night." He said, "Why did you not inform me?" they said, "We buried him late in the night and disliked to awaken you." So, he stood and they formed a row behind him and he led the funeral salah (prayer) over him.[1]

(١٦٥٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ امْرَأَةً سَوْدَاءَ كَانَتْ تَقُمُّ الْمَسْجِدَ اَوْشَابٌّ فَفَقَدَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ فَسَأَلَ عَنْهَا اَوْ عَنْهُ فَقَالُوْا مَاتَ قَالَ اَفَلَا كُنْتُمْ اٰذَنْتُمُوْنِيْ قَالَ فَكَاَنَّهُمْ صَغَّرُوْا اَمْرَهَا اَوْاَمْرَهٗ فَقَالَ

دُلُّوْنِيْ عَلٰى قَبْرِهٖ فَدَلُّوْهُ فَصَلّٰى عَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ قَالَ اِنَّ هٰذِهِ الْقُبُوْرَ مَمْلُوْءَةٌ ظُلْمَةً عَلٰى اَهْلِهَا وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُنَوِّرُهَا لَهُمْ

بِصَلَاتِيْ عَلَيْهِمْ ـ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَلَفْظُهٗ لِمُسْلِمٍ

1659. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that a black woman or a young man used a sweep the mosque. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did not find her. So he asked about her, or him. They said, "He (or she) has died." He asked, "Why did you not inform me?" They seemed to have thought of her (or him) as of no consequence. So, he said, "Take me t his grave." There, he offered the (funeral) salah (prayer) over her. Then he said, "Surely, these graves are packed with darkness over their graves for them because of my salah (prayer) over them."[2]

COMMENTARY: Only those graves are full of darkness for their inmates on which it was possible for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to offer the funeral salah (prayer).

The majority of the ulama (Scholars) hold that it is legal to offer the funeral salah (prayer) at anyone's grave whether the inmate's funeral salah (prayer) was offered previously or not. However, Ibrahim Nakha'I رحمه الله Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Maalik hold that if a funeral salah (prayer) had been offered over a person then it is not proper to offer another funeral salah (prayer) at his grave, otherwise it is allowed to offer it at his grave. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله has laid the proviso that the dead body should not have burst in the grave. If the body has burst then the funeral salah (prayer) is not allowed. In terms of days, a body is likely to burst open in three days. If three days have not passed after burial then it will be presumed that the body is intact. If three days and more have passed then the body will be said to have burst open.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that it was exclusive for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to offer salah (prayer) of the funeral over a grave to make it bright and illuminated. It is absolutely disallowed to anyone else to do it.

FORTY MEN IN FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER)

or Usfan. He commanded him to go and find out how many people had assembled for the funeral salah (prayer). So, he went out and found that people were there and reported to Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه of that. He asked him if he thought that there were forty. He said, "Yes!" He said, "Bring him out, I had heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say. "If a Muslim man dies and forty men who do not associate anything with Allah stand for his funeral salah (prayer), then Allah will approve their intercession for the dead person."[1]

ONE HUNDRED MEN

(١٦٦١) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ مَيِّتٍ تُصَلِّيْ عَلَيْهِ اُمَّةٌ مِّنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ يَبْلُغُوْنَ مِائَةً كُلُّهُمْ يَشْفَعُوْنَ لَهُ اِلَّا شُفِّعُوْا فِيْهِ(رواه مسلم)

1661. Sayyiduna ayshah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If for a dead person, a section of the Muslims whose number reaches one hundred intercede -everyone of them, then their intercession is approved."[2]
(He will be forgiven)

COMMENTARY: The second hadith may have declared first the merit of one hundred men. Later the same merit may have been attributed to forty men. Or, these number merely denote a large gathering and do not mean an exact count.

WITNESSES ON EARTH

(١٦٦٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ مَرُّوْا بِجَنَازَةٍ فَاَثْنَوْا عَلَيْهَا خَيْرًا فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَجَبَتْ ثُمَّ مَرُّوْا بِاُخْرٰى فَاَثْنَوْا عَلَيْهَا شَرًّا فَقَالَ وَجَبَتْ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ مَاوَجَبَتْ فَقَالَ هٰذَا اَثْنَيْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ خَيْرًا فَوَجَبَتْ لَهُ الْجَنَّةُ وَهٰذَا اَثْنَيْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ شَرًّا فَوَجَبَتْ لَهُ النَّارُ اَنْتُمْ شُهَدَآءُ لِلّٰهِ فِي الْاَرْضِ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اَلْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ شُهَدَآءُ اللّٰهِ فِي الْاَرْضِ۔

1662. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنهم passed a funeral and praise him (as a pious one). The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "It becomes liable." They passed another and described him as evil. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "It becomes liable." Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه reminded (them). "You praised one highly, so paradise becomes certain for him. You described the other as evil, so hell is certain for him. You are the witnesses of Allah in the earth." Another version has; "The believers are the witnesses of Allah in the earth.

COMMENTARY: This is not a universal command if anyone is praised paradise becomes certain for him. Rather, these are high hopes of his being admitted to it. Similarly, if anyone is described as wicked, he might indeed be consigned to hell. As for the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم edict, Allah had disclosed to him the fate of each of the two men.
Zayn said that mentioning anyone as praiseworthy or blameworthy does not entitle him to paradise or hell, but becomes a mere sign of either of the two places.
Moreover, the testimony ought to come from reliable and God-fearing people voluntarily without compulsion. If a man of the world praises or criticizes anyone that will not be deemed to be reliable He may have personal motives in praising or blaming someone.

The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم words, 'You are witnesses of Allah' concerns most people. This means that often Allah causes His creatures to describe someone as he really is.

(١٦٦٣) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّمَا مُسْلِمٍ شَهِدَ لَهٗ اَرْبَعَةٌ بِخَيْرٍ اَدْخَلَهُ اللّٰهُ الْجَنَّةَ

1663. Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If four people testify to the piety of a Muslim. Allah will admit him to paradise." They asked. "And if three?" He confirmed, "And, three!" They asked, "And, if two (testify)?" He confirmed, 'And two." They did not ask him about one.[1]

DO NOT REVILE THE DEAD

(١٦٦٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَسُبُّوا الْاَمْوَاتَ فَاِنَّهُمْ قَدْ اَفْضَوْا اِلٰى
مَاقَدَّمُوْا۔ (رواه البخاری)

1664. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not vilify the dead, for, they have come to that which they have forwarded ahead of them."[2]

BURIAL OF MARTYRS OF UHUD

(١٦٦٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَ الرَّجُلَيْنِ مِنْ قَتْلٰى اُحُدٍ فِيْ ثَوْبٍ
وَّاحِدٍ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ اَيُّهُمْ اَكْثَرُ اَخْذًا لِلْقُرْاٰنِ فَاِذَا اُشِيْرَ لَهٗ اِلٰى اَحَدِهِمَا قَدَّمَهٗ فِي اللَّحْدِ وَقَالَ اَنَا شَهِيْدٌ عَلٰى
هٰؤُلَاءِ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَاَمَرَ بِدَفْنِهِمْ بِدِمَائِهِمْ وَلَمْ يُصَلِّ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَمْ يُغَسَّلُوْا (رواه البخاری)

1665. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that of the martyrs of Uhud, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had two man enshrouded together in one garment. Then he asked, "Which of them knew more of the Quran?" When one of them was pointed out of him, he had him placed first in the side of the grave, saying, "I will be a witness over them on the day of resurrection." He commanded that they should be buried with their blood (stains). And he did not offer the funeral salah (prayer) over them and they were not given a bath.[3]

RETURNING ON CONVEYANCE

(١٦٦٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ اُتِيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِفَرَسٍ مُّعْرُوْرٍ فَرَكِبَهٗ حِيْنَ انْصَرَفَ مِنْ

HOW TO WALK WITH THE FUNERAL

(١٦٦٧) وَعَنِ الْمُغِيْرَةِ ابْنِ شُعْبَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الرَّاكِبُ يَسِيْرُ خَلْفَ الْجَنَازَةِ وَالْمَاشِيْ يَمْشِيْ خَلْفَهَا وَاَمَامَهَا وَعَنْ يَّمِيْنِهَا وَعَنْ يَّسَارِهَا قَرِيْبًا مِنْهَا وَالسَّقْطُ يُصَلّٰى عَلَيْهِ وَيُدْعٰى لِوَالِدَيْهِ بِالْمَغْفِرَةِ وَالرَّحْمَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ فِيْ رِوَايَةِ اَحْمَدَ وَ التِّرْمِذِيِّ وَالنِّسَائِيِّ وَابْنِ مَاجَةَ قَالَ الرَّاكِبُ خَلْفَ الْجَنَازَةِ وَالْمَاشِيْ حَيْثُ شَآءَ مِنْهَا وَالطِّفْلُ يُصَلّٰى عَلَيْهِ وَفِي الْمَصَابِيْحِ عَنِ الْمُغِيْرَةِ بْنِ زِيَادٍ۔

1667. Sayyiduna Mughirah ibn Shu'bah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The rider should keep behind the funeral. Those walking on foot should keep behind it, in front of it, to its right and to its left but should remain nearer to it. Funeral salah (prayer) should be offered over an aborted child and invocation for forgiveness and mercy should to made for its parents."[2]

Another version has: The rider should keep behind the funeral and those on foot should walk wherever they like around it. Funeral salah (prayer) should be offered over an infant.[3]

ABOUT WALKING IN FRONT

(١٦٦٨) وَعَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ سَالِمٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ رَاَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَبَا بَكْرٍ وَّعُمَرَ يَمْشُوْنَ اَمَامَ الْجَنَازَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَهْلُ الْحَدِيْثِ كَاَنَّهُمْ يَرَوْنَهُ مُرْسَلًا۔

1668. Zuhri reported that Soalim رحمہ اللہ narrated from his father that he observed Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ walk in front of the funeral.[4] Tirmidhi said that the scholars of hadith regard it as mursal.

BETTER TO WALK BEHIND

(١٦٦٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْجَنَازَةُ مَتْبُوْعَةٌ وَّلَا تُتْبَعُ لَيْسَ مَعَهَا مَنْ تَقَدَّمَهَا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ قَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ اَبُوْمَاجِدِ الرَّاوِيْ رَجُلٌ مَّجْهُوْلٌ۔

1669. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The funeral is followed but does not follow. They who go ahead of it are not accompanying it."[5]

1671. The Sharh us Sunah has: "The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم carried the funeral of (Sayyiduna) Sa'd ibn Mu'adh رضی الله عنه between the two pillars."[2]

RIDER ACCOMPANYING FUNERAL ADMONISHED

(١٦٧٢) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ جَنَازَةٍ فَرَاٰى نَاسًا رُكْبَانًا فَقَالَ اَلَا تَسْتَحْيُوْنَ اَنَّ مَلٰئِكَةَ اللّٰهِ عَلٰى اَقْدَامِهِمْ وَاَنْتُمْ عَلٰى ظُهُوْرِ الدَّوَابِّ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوٰى اَبُوْدَاوُدَ نَحْوَهٗ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ قَدْ رُوِيَ عَنْ ثَوْبَانَ مَوْقُوْفًا۔

1672. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی الله عنه narrated that they were out with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم following a funeral when he observed some people riding. He said, "Do you not hesitate?" Allah's angels are on their feet while you ride on the backs of animals.[3]

RECITING SURAH AL-FATIHAH

(١٦٧٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَرَاَ عَلَى الْجَنَازَةِ بِفَاتِحَةِ الْكِتَابِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ۔

1673. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited surah al-Fatihah on the dead (or the bier).[4]

SUPPLICATE SINCERELY

(١٦٧٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا صَلَّيْتُمْ عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ فَاَخْلِصُوْا لَهُ الدُّعَاءَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

1674. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When you offer salah (prayer) over the dead, make your supplication for him sincere."[5]

SUPPLICATION IN THE FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER)

(١٦٧٥-١٦٧٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا صَلّٰى عَلَى الْجَنَازَةِ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِحَيِّنَا

1675. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered salah (prayer) over a funeral, he prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِحَيِّنَا وَمَيِّتِنَا وَشَاهِدِنَا وَغَائِبِنَا وَصَغِيْرِنَا وَكَبِيْرِنَا وَذَكَرِنَا وَ اُنْثَانَا اَللّٰهُمَّ مَنْ اَحْيَيْتَهُ مِنَّا فَاَحْيِهٖ عَلَى الْاِسْلَامِ وَمَنْ تَوَفَّيْتَهُ مِنَّا فَتَوَفَّهُ عَلَى الْاِيْمَانِ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَا تَحْرِمْنَا اَجْرَهُ وَلَا تَفْتِنَّا بَعْدَهُ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَ رَوَاهُ النِّسَائِيُّ عَنْ اَبِيْ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ الْاَشْهَلِيِّ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ وَانْتَهَتْ رِوَايَتُهُ عِنْدَ قَوْلِهٖ وَاُنْثَانَا وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ اَبِيْ دَاوُدَ فَاَحْيِهٖ عَلَى الْاِيْمَانِ وَتَوَفَّهُ عَلَى الْاِسْلَامِ وَفِيْ اٰخِرِهٖ وَلَا تُضِلَّنَا بَعْدَهُ

"O Allah, forgive the living among us and those of us who have died, those of us who are present and those of us who are absent, those of us who are young and those of us who are old, and the males among us and the females among us. O Allah, to whomsoever of us you give life, cause him to live as an adherent of Islam. And whomsoever of us you cause to die, make him die as a believer. O Allah, deprive us not of his reward and put us not to trial after him."[1]

1676. Abu Ibrahim al-Ash-hahi رحمہ اللہ narrated from his father this hadith concluding at 'and the females among us.'

The version of Abu Dawud has:

"......cause him to live as a believer and make him die as an adherent of Islam." It concludes with the words: 'and do not cause us to stray after him.'[2]

PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم PRAYER FOR A DEAD PERSON

(١٦٧٧) وَعَنْ وَاثِلَةَ بْنِ الْاَسْقَعِ قَالَ صَلّٰى بِنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى رَجُلٍ مِّنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ فَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّ فُلَانَ بْنَ فُلَانٍ فِيْ ذِمَّتِكَ وَحَبْلِ جِوَارِكَ فَقِهٖ مِنْ فِتْنَةِ الْقَبْرِ وَعَذَابِ النَّارِ وَاَنْتَ اَهْلُ الْوَفَاءِ وَالْحَقِّ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلَهُ وَارْحَمْهُ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ الْغَفُوْرُ الرَّحِيْمُ (رواه ابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

1677. Sayyiduna Wathilah ibn Asqa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم led them in a funeral salah (prayer) over a Muslim man. He heard him pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّ فُلَانَ بْنَ فُلَانٍ فِيْ ذِمَّتِكَ وَحَبْلِ جِوَارِكَ فَقِهٖ مِنْ فِتْنَةِ الْقَبْرِ وَعَذَابِ النَّارِ وَاَنْتَ اَهْلُ الْوَفَاءِ وَالْحَقِّ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلَهُ وَارْحَمْهُ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ الْغَفُوْرُ الرَّحِيْمُ

guard him from the trial in the grave and punishment in hell. You are who reimburses and you are the true. O Allah, do forgive him and have mercy on him. Surely, you are the forgiving the Merciful."[1]

COMMENTARY: Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has suggested many meaning of the word (حبل). He concludes with what he says to be the best meaning: 'He was attached to the Qur'an and had grasped it firmly. Hence (حبل) refer to the Quran as in he Qural itself:

وَاعْتَصِمُوْا بِحَبْلِ اللّٰهِ جَمِيْعاً

{And hold you fast, all of you together, to the cord (Quran) of Allah....} (3:103)

The word (جوار) mean protection. So, this sentence implies: 'He had grasped the Quran firmly which is an assurance of protection, peace, faith, Islam and awareness, and means to them.`

DO NOT RECALL BAD THINGS OF THE DEAD

(١٦٧٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُذْكُرُوْا مَحَاسِنَ مَوْتَاكُمْ وَكُفُّوْا عَنْ مُسَاوِيْهِمْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد و الترمذی)

1678. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Recall the good attributes of your dead people but abstain from referring to their bad side."[2]

COMMENTARY: When pious work and goodness of anyone who is dead are recalled, Allah's mercy descends.

The command to mention their good qualities is of the nature of mustahab (desirable) while the command to abstain from remembering their weak side is of the kind of wajib (obligatory). Hujjatul Islam has written that backbiting the dead is worse than backbiting the living. The ulama (Scholars) say that for one who gives bath to the dead, person, it is mustahab (desirable) to tell the people of any good sign he sees in the dead, like bright face, sweet smell, etc. But, he must not disclose to anyone any defect or deformation he sees in him, for that is haraam (forbidden).

IMAM'S PLACE IN THE FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER)

(١٦٧٩) وَعَنْ نَافِعٍ اَبِيْ غَالِبٍ قَالَ صَلَّيْتُ مَعَ اَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ عَلٰى جَنَازَةِ رَجُلٍ فَقَامَ حِيَالَ رَأْسِهٖ ثُمَّ جَاءُوْا بِجَنَازَةِ امْرَأَةٍ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ فَقَالُوْا يَا اَبَا حَمْزَةَ صَلِّ عَلَيْهَا فَقَامَ حِيَالَ وَسْطِ السَّرِيْرِ فَقَالَ لَهُ الْعَلَاءُ بْنُ زِيَادٍ هٰكَذَا رَاَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَامَ عَلَى الْجَنَازَةِ مَقَامَكَ مِنْهَا وَمِنَ الرَّجُلِ مَقَامَكَ مِنْهُ قَالَ نَعَمْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ اَبِيْ دَاوُدَ نَحْوُهٗ مَعَ زِيَادَةٍ فَقَامَ عِنْدَ عَجِيْزَةِ الْمَرْأَةِ۔

him, "Did you see Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم stand at the place as you did against the bier for the woman, and at the place as you did against bier for the man?" He said, "Yes!"

According to the version in Abu Dawud the addition is; 'He stood against the hips of the woman."[1]

COMMENTARY: The question where the imam must stand while leading the funeral salah (prayer) has been discussed threadbare in section I (hadith # 1657). The difference of opinion and the verdicts of the imam have been mentioned in the commentary there.

Sayyiduna Nafi's رحمه الله kunyah was Abu Ghalib and of Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه Abu Hamzah.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ABOUT STAND UP ON SEEING THE FUNERAL

(١٦٨٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبِي لَيْلٰى قَالَ كَانَ سَهْلُ بْنُ حُنَيْفٍ وَقَيْسُ بْنُ سَعْدٍ قَاعِدَيْنِ بِالْقَادِسِيَّةِ فَمُرَّ عَلَيْهِمَا بِجَنَازَةٍ فَقَامَا فَقِيْلَ لَهُمَا اِنَّهَا مِنْ اَهْلِ الْاَرْضِ اَيْ مِنْ اَهْلِ الذِّمَّةِ فَقَالَا اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّتْ بِهٖ جَنَازَةٌ فَقَامَ فَقِيْلَ لَهٗ اِنَّهَا جَنَازَةُ يَهُوْدِيٍّ فَقَالَ اَلَيْسَتْ نَفْسًا (متفق عليه)

1680. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Layla رحمه الله narrated that (Sayyiduna) Sahl ibn Hunayf رحمه الله and (Sayyiduna) Qays ibn Sa'd رضى الله عنه were sitting (somewhere) in Qadsiyah. A funeral passed by them and they stood up. They were told, "He was one of the ahlulard (resident of the land) or dhimmi and he cited Allah's Messenger's صلى الله عليه وسلم standing when a bier come along. When he was told that it belonged to a Jew the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked them, "Is that not a soul?" [2]

COMMENTARY: Qadsiyah is fifteen leagues from Kufah.

The dhimmis are called ahlulard either because they belonged to the lower strata in society or because the Muslim had allotted to them land for cultivation against kharaj.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had asked if that was not a soul, meaning, "Should we not take a lesson? Does one not feel fearful on seeing a funeral?"

Perhaps both these sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنهم had not known that the command to stand on seeing a funeral was abrogated. (see hadith # 1650 and 1682)

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRACTICE & ITS ABROGATION

(١٦٨١) وَعَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا تَبِعَ جَنَازَةً لَّمْ يَقْعُدْ حَتّٰى تُوْضَعَ فِي اللَّحْدِ فَعَرَضَ لَهٗ حِبْرٌ مِّنَ الْيَهُوْدِ فَقَالَ لَهٗ اِنَّا هٰكَذَا نَصْنَعُ يَا مُحَمَّدُ قَالَ فَجَلَسَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَالَ خَالِفُوْهُمْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَبِشْرُ بْنُ رَافِعٍ الرَّاوِيْ لَيْسَ بِالْقَوِيِّ۔ grave. Once, a Jew scholar was presented to him and he said, "This is how we do it, O Muhammad." So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sat down and said, "Be different from them."[1]

Tirmidhi classifies it as a weak tradition and questions the standing of a sub narrator Bishr ibn Rafi.'

DO NOT STAND UP

(١٦٨٢) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَمَرَنَا بِالْقِيَامِ فِي الْجَنَازَةِ ثُمَّ جَلَسَ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ وَاَمَرَنَا بِالْجُلُوْسِ (رواه احمد)

1682. Sayyiduna Ail رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to command them to stand up on seeing a funeral. Later, however, he sat and commanded them to remain seated.[2]

COMMENTARY: It is obvious from this hadith that the first command to stand up on seeing a funeral is rescinded. On lookers may not now stand up for a funeral.

(١٦٨٣) وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سِيْرِيْنَ قَالَ اِنَّ جَنَازَةً مَرَّتْ بِالْحَسَنِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ فَقَامَ الْحَسَنُ وَلَمْ يَقُمْ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ فَقَالَ الْحَسَنُ اَلَيْسَ قَدْ قَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِجَنَازَةِ يَهُوْدِيٍّ قَالَ نَعَمْ ثُمَّ جَلَسَ (رواه النسائی)

1683. Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Sirin رحمہ اللہ narrated that a funeral passed by Sayyiduna Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ. Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ stood up but not Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ. So, Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ asked, "Had not Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stood up for the funeral of a Jew?" He said, "Yes, but after that he (always) remained seated."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ enlightened Sayyiduna Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ that the practice of standing up for the funeral was withdrawn by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

The ulama (Scholars) say that perhaps Sayyiduna Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ had not learnt of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم command to remain seated.

WHY HAD THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم STOOD FOR THE JEW'S FUNERAL

(١٦٨٤) وَعَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ اَنَّ الْحَسَنَ بْنَ عَلِيٍّ كَانَ جَالِسًا فَمُرَّ عَلَيْهِ بِجَنَازَةٍ فَقَامَ النَّاسُ حَتّٰى جَاوَزَتِ الْجَنَازَةُ فَقَالَ الْحَسَنُ اِنَّمَا مُرَّ بِجَنَازَةِ يَهُوْدِيٍّ وَكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى طَرِيْقِهَا جَالِسًا وَكَرِهَ اَنْ تَعْلُوَ رَأْسَهٗ جَنَازَةُ يَهُوْدِيٍّ فَقَامَ (رواه النسائی)

1684. Sayyiduna Ja'far ibn Muhammad رحمہ اللہ (who was Ja'far Sadiq) narrated on the authority of his father (Muhammad Baqir) رحمہ اللہ that Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was sitting (somewhere) when a funeral was carried past him. The people (around) stood up till it had passed them (Sayyiduna) Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ said to them, "In fact, when a Jew's funeral was being carried, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was sitting along its route and he did not like that a Jew's bier should be higher than his head, so he stood up."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith (# 1683) preceding this concerned an early period of time and this hadith is of a later time when Sayyiduna Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ had learnt of the abrogation of the practice to stand up for the funeral.

There are many reasons apart from the one suggested in this hadith for standing on observing a funeral; for fear and taking warning, to honour the angels accompanying a funeral, and so on.

Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمہ اللہ has said that this hadith is manqata (cut off) because Imam Baqi رحمہ اللہ had not found the times of Sayyiduna Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ.

(١٦٨٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي مُوسٰى أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا مَرَّتْ بِكَ جَنَازَةُ يَهُوْدِيٍّ أَوْ نَصْرَانِيٍّ أَوْ مُسْلِمٍ فَقُوْمُوْا لَهَا فَلَسْتُمْ لَهَا تَقُوْمُوْنَ إِنَّمَا تَقُوْمُوْنَ لِمَنْ مَعَهَا مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ (رواه احمد)

1685. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Stand up for the coffin of a Jew, a Christian or a Muslim as it passes you. You will not be standing for it, but you will only stand for the angels who accompany it."[2]

COMMENTARY: As stated previously, there could be many reasons for standing on seeing the funeral. Moreover, this command to stand is withdrawn.

(١٦٨٦) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ جَنَازَةً مَرَّتْ بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَامَ فَقِيْلَ إِنَّهَا جَنَازَةُ يَهُوْدِيٍّ فَقَالَ إِنَّمَا قُمْتُ لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ (رواه النسائی)

1686. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a funeral (passed by Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم so he stood up. He was told that the funeral was of a Jew and he said, "I stood up only for the angels."[3]

THREE ROWS NECESSARY FOR THE FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER)

(١٦٨٧) وَعَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ هُبَيْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَمُوْتُ فَيُصَلِّيْ عَلَيْهِ ثَلَاثَةُ صُفُوْفٍ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ إِلَّا أَوْجَبَ فَكَانَ مَالِكٌ إِذَا اسْتَقَلَّ أَهْلَ الْجَنَازَةِ جَزَّأَهُمْ ثَلَاثَةَ صُفُوْفٍ لِهٰذَا الْحَدِيْثِ۔ رَوَاهُ أَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ التِّرْمِذِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ مَالِكُ ابْنُ هُبَيْرَةَ إِذَا صَلَّى عَلٰى جَنَازَةٍ فَتَقَالَّ النَّاسُ عَلَيْهَا جَزَّأَهُمْ ثَلَاثَةَ أَجْزَاءٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلّٰى عَلَيْهِ ثَلَاثَةُ صُفُوْفٍ أَوْجَبَ وَرَوَى ابْنُ مَاجَةَ نَحْوَهٗ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

1687. Sayyiduna Maalik ibn Hubayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "when a Muslim dies and three rows of Muslims offer salah (prayer) over him, he is assured of admittance (to paradise)." Hence, when Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ considered those who had accompanied the funeral to be few, he divided them into three rows in the light of this hadith.

The version in Tirmidhi is:

Marthad ibn Abdullah رحمہ اللہ narrated that when Maalik ibn Hubayrah رضی اللہ عنہ led a funeral salah (prayer) and there were few people, he arranged them into three rows. He said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said, "He over whom three rows (of Muslims) offer the funeral salah (prayer), is assured (of paradise)."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is very clear that we must believe firmly that nothing is wajib (expedient) or binding on Allah. This hadith says that it is wajib (expedient) on Allah or the man is assured of admittance to paradise. This is according to Allah's promise and His favour. His promise is never defaulted and He makes it binding on Himself without any compulsion.

In a funeral salah (prayer), the most excellent row is the last one as against the regular salah (prayer) in which the front rows are the most excellent.

The ulama (Scholars) say that after the funeral salah (prayer), prayers should not be made for the dead person because that might suggest an extension of the funeral salah (prayer).

THE PROPHET'S PRAYER IN THE FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER)

(١٦٨٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْجَنَازَةِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ رَبُّهَا وَاَنْتَ خَلَقْتَهَا وَاَنْتَ هَدَيْتَهَا اِلَى الْاِسْلَامِ وَاَنْتَ قَبَضْتَ رُوْحَهَا وَاَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ بِسِرِّهَا وَعَلَانِيَتِهَا جِئْنَا شُفَعَاءَ فَاغْفِرْلَهٗ(رواه ابوداؤد)

1688. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed during the funeral salah (prayer):

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ رَبُّهَا وَاَنْتَ خَلَقْتَهَا وَاَنْتَ هَدَيْتَهَا اِلَى الْاِسْلَامِ وَاَنْتَ قَبَضْتَ رُوْحَهَا وَاَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ بِسِرِّهَا وَعَلَانِيَتِهَا جِئْنَا شُفَعَاءَ فَاغْفِرْلَهٗ

"O Allah, you are its Lord. You created it. You guided it to Islam and you have taken its soul. You are more aware of its secrets and its apparent (conduct). We have come as intercessors, so do forgive him."[2]

ABU HURAYRAH'S رضی اللہ عنہ PRAYER OVER A CHILD

(١٦٨٩) وَعَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ قَالَ صَلَّيْتُ وَرَآءَ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَلٰى صَبِيٍّ لَمْ يَعْمَلْ خَطِيْئَةً قَطُّ فَسَمِعْتُهٗ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَعِذْهُ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ(رواه مالك)

1689. Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn al Musayyab رحمہ اللہ narrated that he offered salah (prayer) over a child, who had never done any wrong, behind (Sayyiduna) Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ. He heard him pray, "O Allah, protect him from the punishment in the grave."[3]

[2] Abu Dawud # 3200, Musnad Ahmad 2-458.

[3] Muwatta Maalik # 18(Jana'iz).

COMMENTARY: This prayer does not mean chastisement and questioning in the grave. Rather, it is a plea to Allah to save the child from sorrow and terror in the grave and the squeezing which will afflict everyone minor or adult.

WILL CHILDREN BE QUESTIONED: Though the ulama (Scholars) differ on this question, the correct thing is that children will not be subjected to reckoning. It is against the principles of Shri'ah that a non-responsible person should be punished.

PRAYER OVER A CHILD

(١٦٩٠) وَعَنِ الْبُخَارِيِّ تَعْلِيْقًا قَالَ يَقْرَأُ الْحَسَنُ عَلَى الطِّفْلِ فَاتِحَةَ الْكِتَابِ وَيَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْهُ لَنَا سَلَفًا وَّفَرَطًا وَذُخْرًا وَّاَجْرًا۔

1690. Imam Bukhari رحمه الله has reported as part of caption of a chapter that رحمه الله when he offered salah (prayer) over a child, Hasan Busri رحمه الله recited (after the first takbir) surah al-Fatihah and prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْهُ لَنَا سَلَفًا وَّفَرَطًا وَذُخْرًا وَّاَجْرًا

"O Allah let him be for us a forerunner, an augury, a store and a reward."[1]

COMMENTARY: The prayer means 'let this child be a means to our advantage, goodness and profit on the day of resurrection, so that it intercedes for us before our Lord!

NO FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER) OVER INFANT

(١٦٩١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الطِّفْلُ لَا يُصَلّٰى عَلَيْهِ وَلَا يَرِثُ وَلَا يُوْرَثُ حَتّٰى يَسْتَهِلَّ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ اِلَّا اَنَّهُ لَمْ يَذْكُرْ وَلَا يُوْرَثُ۔

1691. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Funeral salah (prayer) should not be offered over an infant who has uttered no sound (or cried at the time of birth), neither does he inheritance)." (meaning that he leaves on inheritance)(He is one on whom no sign of life is apparent,)[2]

Ibn Majah does not mention 'nor is he inherited.'

IMAM SHOULD NOT STAND ON A RAISED PLACE

(١٦٩٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مَسْعُوْدٍ الْاَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ يَّقُوْمَ الْاِمَامُ فَوْقَ شَيْءٍ وَّالنَّاسُ خَلْفَهُ يَعْنِيْ اَسْفَلَ مِنْهُ۔ رَوَاهُ الدَّارَقُطْنِيُّ فِي الْمُجْتَبٰى فِيْ كِتَابِ الْجَنَائِزِ۔

1692. Sayyiduna Abu Mas'ud Ansari رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade that the imam should stand above something and the people behind him, meaning on a level lower than him.[3]

COMMENTARY: In the funeral salah (prayer), it is disallowed that the imam should stand on a raised place and his followers on a lower level. This means that the converse would be more disallowed; the imam lower than his followers. This applies to every salah (prayer), not merely the funeral salah (prayer). This is why the words of hadith do not specify the salah (prayer), but the compiler of Mishkat presumed this hadith to pertain to the funeral salah (prayer) so put it down in this chapter, so it is clear that this hadith belongs here too. Moreover, people may have been doing this thing. Hence, they were forbidden to do this.

CHAPTER - VI

BURYING THE DEAD

بَابُ دَفْنِ الْمَيِّتِ

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE) TO BUILD GRAVE WITH NICHE

(١٦٩٣) عَنْ عَامِرِ بْنِ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ اَنَّ سَعْدَ بْنَ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ فِيْ مَرَضِهِ الَّذِيْ هَلَكَ فِيْهِ الْحَدُوْا لِيْ لَحْداً وَانْصِبُوْا عَلَيَّ اللَّبِنَ نَصْبًا كَمَا صُنِعَ بِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ (رواه مسلم)

1693. Sayyiduna Aamir ibn Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رحمه الله narrated that (Sayyiduna) Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی الله عنه Said, during his illness that led to his death, "Make for me a lahd (lateral niche) in my grave and place over me unbaked bricks as was done for Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم."[1]

COMMENTARY: Lahd is the riche within the grave oriented to the qiblah in which the corpse is lowered. It is mustahab (desirable) to make this kind of grave.

Ibn Hammam, however, said that it is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم) unless one cannot do it, like the soil might be soft.

Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی الله عنه instructed that unbaked bricks must be placed over him, meaning the grave should be covered with them.

The ulama (Scholars) say that the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم grave's lahd was covered with nine bricks.

PLACING CLOTH IN THE GRAVE

(١٦٩٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ جُعِلَ فِيْ قَبْرِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَطِيْفَةٌ حَمْرَآءُ (رواه مسلم)

1694. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that a piece of red cloth was put in the grave of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sha'ran رضی الله عنه (شعران) was a servant of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. He had placed this red cloth in the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم grave on his own without asking permission of the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنهم. He explained his doing that he did not like anyone else to make use of a sheet of cloth that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had used.[3]

Some ulama (Scholars) hold that placing a cloth or anything like it in a grave was exclusive to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم (and no one else is allowed it). The sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنهم were not agreeable to the cloth being placed in the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم grave. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abbas رضی الله عنه reprimanded Sha'ran رضی الله عنه for doing it. Rather, Ibn Abdul Bar رحمه الله has written in Isti''ab that the piece of red cloth was removed from the grave before it was closed.

[3] Ibn Kathir gives the name a shaqran. See life of Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم (P 722) Darul Isha'at, Karachi.

The ulama (Scholars) hold that it is makruh (unbecoming) to place a piece of cloth it is makruh (unbecoming) to place a piece of cloth in the grave because it is a waste of money.

LIKE CAMEL'S HUMP

(١٦٩٥) وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ التَّمَّارِ اَنَّهُ رَاٰى قَبْرَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُسَنَّمًا (رواه البخاری)

1695. Sayyiduna Sufyan al-Tammar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he saw the grave of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم humped (like camel's hump).[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ and Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ go by this hadith. They say that it is mustahab (desirable) to have the grave humped. Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ said that the grave should be levelled with the surface.

GRAVE SHOULD NOT BE RAISED

(١٦٩٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي الْهَيَّاجِ الْاَسَدِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ عَلِيٌّ اَلَا اَبْعَثُكَ عَلٰى مَا بَعَثَنِيْ عَلَيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ لَّا تَدَعَ تِمْثَالًا اِلَّا طَمَسْتَهُ وَلَا قَبْرًا مُشْرِفًا اِلَّا سَوَّيْتَهُ (رواہ مسلم)

1696. Sayyiduna Abu Al-Hayyaj Al-Asadi رحمہ اللہ said that (Sayyiduna) Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said to him, "Indeed, I send you to accomplish what Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had sent me to do. Do not leave a picture without obliterating it, and a raised grave without levelling it."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that it is forbidden to keep a picture and wajib (expedient) to erase it. It is disallowed to sit before it. If a grave is very high then it must be levelled to near the surface of the ground, leaving only its indication which is about a span because only this much is mansun, or mustahab (desirable). More than that is makruh (unbecoming). If a grave is more than one span high then it is mustahab (desirable) to demolish the portion above one span.

FORBIDDEN THINGS

(١٦٩٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ يُّجَصَّصَ الْقَبْرُ وَاَنْ يُّبْنٰى عَلَيْهِ وَاَنْ يُّقْعَدَ عَلَيْهِ (رواہ مسلم)

1697. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade that graves should be plastered with cement, that a structure should be built over it and that anyone should sit on it.[3]

COMMENTARY: The disallowance to plaster the graves is of the kind of makruh (unbecoming) whatever way it is done.

It is not proper to erect any kind of a structure over a grave, like a dome, etc. If it is raised then it must be demolished, this being wajib (expedient) even if it is a mosque. Erecting a structure on a grave is forbidden whether it is built with stones and bricks, or a mere canopy is raised. This is disallowed because it resembles the infidels who put up a shade over graves for ten days.

Sitting on graves is disallowed because it belittles a believer and stains his honour and nobility. Sitting on graves degrades the grave dweller.

Some people say that it is not allowed to sit on graves if anyone sit to express sorrow and grief and continues to sit because some people abandon the world and retreat to a grave of their well wisher or relative.

SOME RULES ABOUT GRAVES

(١٦٩٨) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ مَرْثَدِنِ الْغَنَوِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَجْلِسُوْا عَلَى الْقُبُوْرِ وَلَا تُصَلُّوْا اِلَيْهَا۔ (رواہ مسلم)

1698. Sayyiduna Abu Marthad al-Ghanawi رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Do not sit on graves and do not offer salah (prayer) facing them."[1]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Hammam said that it is makruh (unbecoming) to sit on graves and to walk over them. However, it is becomes necessary to step on graves in order to be able to dig a grave or Cary a bier up to it or bury a dead, then one may walk on them.

It is mustahab (desirable) to walk bare fasted in a graveyard but makruh (unbecoming) to sleep near a grave or to sleep by reclining on it. It is extremely disliked to relieve oneself near graves. Besides everything is makruh (unbecoming) at a graveyard that is not established by sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم). The only thing know from sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم) is to go to the graves and make supplication while standing there. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم visited the graveyard Jannatul Baqi and said there;

اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ دَارَ قَوْمٍ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ وَاِنَّا اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ بِكُمْ لَاحِقُوْنَ وَ اَسْأَلُ اللّٰهَ لِيْ وَلَكُمُ الْعَافِيَةَ

'Peace be on you, O you t he believing people! And, we - if Allah wills - shall meet you. I pray to Allah, for safety for myself and for you."

This should not cause anyone to doubt that the Quran cannot be recited there because recitation of the Quran is part of supplication. So, it is not makruh (unbecoming) to recite the Quran at the graveyard.

The ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone offers salah (prayer) in the direction of a grave intending thereby to respect the grave or honour its dweller then it is clearly an act of disbelief. Even if he has no such intention in offering salah (prayer) in the direction of a grave, it is makruh tahrimi (disapproved to forbidden). It is same if a bier is placed in front of one who offer salah (prayer). Rather, the dislike in this case is more accentuated.

No one may have a grave or a bier in front of him when he offers a salah (prayer).

(١٦٩٩) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاَنْ يَّجْلِسَ اَحَدُكُمْ عَلٰى جَمْرَةٍ فَتُحْرِقَ ثِيَابَهٗ فَتَخْلُصَ اِلٰى جِلْدِهٖ خَيْرٌ لَّهٗ مِنْ اَنْ يَّجْلِسَ عَلٰى قَبْرٍ (رواہ مسلم)

1699. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "That one of you should sit on burning coals and scorch his clothing and warm his skin is better than that he should sit on a grave."[2]

COMMENTARY: Live coals will not cause as much harm as sitting on graves would.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

SPLIT GRAVE TOO

(١٧٠٠) وَعَنْ عُرْوَةَ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ كَانَ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ رَجُلَانِ اَحَدُهُمَا يَلْحَدُ وَالْاٰخَرُ لَا يَلْحَدُ فَقَالُوْا اَيُّهُمَا جَاءَ اَوَّلًا عَمِلَ عَمَلَهُ فَجَآءَ الَّذِیْ يَلْحَدُ فَلَحَدَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

1700. Sayyiduna Urwah ibn Zubayr narrated that there were in Madinah two men, one of whom dug graves with niches and the other did not dig riches (in graves but dug split graves). So, the sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہم decided that whichever of them came first would carry out work that he had been doing. So, he who made riches come and dug (the grave with) a riche for Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. [1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Ubaydah ibn al-Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ was a great sahabi. He was one of the ten who were given glad tidings of paradise by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He used to dig split graves and though the riche was better, the split was permitted too. Sayyiduna Abu Tahah رضی اللہ عنہ Ansari used to make niche in the grave he dug.

EXCELLENCE OF NICHE IN THE GRAVE

(١٧٠١-١٧٠٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اللَّحْدُ لَنَا وَالشَّقُّ لِغَيْرِنَا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ عَنْ جَرِيْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ۔

1701. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "The lahd (niche) is for us and shaqq (split) is for others than us." [2]

1702. Sayyiduna Jarir ibn Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated it too. [3]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) give several meanings of this hadith. The most correct is that the grave with the lateral niche is for the Prophets. علیہ السلام The grave with split or excavation in the middle is for other than the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

WIDE, DEEP & BEAUTIFUL GRAVES

(١٧٠٣) وَعَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عَامِرٍ اَنَّ النَّبِیَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَوْمَ اُحُدٍ احْفِرُوْا وَاَوْسِعُوْا وَاَعْمِقُوْا وَاَحْسِنُوْا وَادْفِنُوا الْاِثْنَيْنِ وَالثَّلَاثَةَ فِیْ قَبْرٍ وَّاحِدٍ وَقَدِّمُوْا اَكْثَرَهُمْ قُرْاٰنًا۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَرَوَى ابْنُ مَاجَةَ اِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ وَاَحْسِنُوْا۔

1703. Sayyiduna Hisham ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that on the day of Uhud, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Dig (graves) and make them spacious, deep and beautiful. And, bury two or three together in one grave. Put him first who knew the Quran most of others." [4]

COMMENTARY: To dig a grave deep is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)*. The corpse is safe in a deep grave from animals. It should be so deep that if a man stand inside and raises aloft his hands, the tip of his fingers would touch the edge of the grave.

It is allowed to bury two or three men in a grave at times of necessity but when there is no compulsion, it is not allowed.
A practicing scholar is honoured in this world. So, he is honoured too after death by putting the most learned in the Quran in the front (towards the qiblah) in the grave when more than one are buried inside.

ONE FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER) FOR MORE THEN ONE DEAD PERSON

It is allowed to offer a single funeral salah (prayer) over more than one dead person when more than one funeral are brought together. But, it is also allowed to offer a separate funeral salah (prayer) for each of them. The biers may be placed one behind the other towards the qiblah, or in a straight line lengthwise. The imam, in the latter case, must stand against the most superior of them.

SHIFTING THE DEAD TO ANOTHER PLACE

1704. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that on the day of Uhud his paternal aunt brought his father (her brother) to bury him in their graveyard. However, a crier from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called out, "Return the martyrs to the places where they fell (in martyrdom)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The father of Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ was among the martyrs of the Battle of Uhud. His paternal aunt took her brother to the Baqir graveyard for burial However, the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم message was conveyed to her that the martyrs were to buried where they had died.
The ruling is deduced by some scholars that a person must be buried in the city in which he dies. His body must not be shifted to another city.
The correct thing is that this hadith concerns the martyrs. Moreover, once a body is buried then it must not be taken out to move to another city without a valid reason. If there is a sound reason then the body may be moved to another place.
Ibn Hammam رحمہ اللہ said that before burial and preparation of the grave, there is no harm in moving the body to up to two leagues because graveyards can be at such distances. But, it is mustahab (desirable) to bury distances. But, it is mustahab (desirable) to bury the body in the same city where the person had died. The brother of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ, Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ died away from Makkah at the distance of one manzil. The people brought him to Makkah and buried him. When she visited his grave later, she said, "If I was there when you died, I would not have brought you here but buried you where you had died."

RE-DIGGING AFTER BURIAL

It is not allowed to dig a grave after burying the dead and closing the grave (for any reason whatsoever), even if only a little time has elapsed after burial, or if very much time has passed. However, it is allowed if there is a valid, sound reason, like the land of burial was usurped from someone, or someone having exercised his right has transferred the land to his name, and demands that the grave must be evacuated.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3165, Tirmidhi # 1717, Nasa'i # 2004, Ibn Majah # 1516, Darimi # 45, Musnad Ahmad 3-297.

The ulama (Scholars) write that otherwise many sahabah are buried in cities of the infidels. They have not been moved from their graves.

The owner of the land where the grave lies has a right to level his land and use it for cultivation. Another reason for re-digging a grave is that someone may have left his property of any kind in the grave. He may dig it and recover his belonging.

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that if a woman's son dies somewhere and is buried there, it is not allowed to move his body his native land where the mother resides even if she becomes restless for him. Some later day ulama (Scholars) have allowed the transfer of the body in this case, but their ruling is not valid the compiler of the Hidayah has written in one of his other books, "If anyone dies in an alien city, it is makruh (unbecoming) to move his body because it is a meaningless and useless exercise. It is a waste of time, too. Also, it causes a delay in burying the dead.

Moreover, the ulama (Scholars) have given a unanimous verdict that even if a body is buried without offering the funeral salah (prayer), it is not allowed to bring it out of its grave.

No one should be buried in the house where he used to reside. This is the privilege only of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is not permitted to anyone else to do so.

LOWERING THE BODY IN THE GRAVE

(١٧٠٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ سُلَّ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ قِبَلِ رَأْسِهٖ۔ (رواه الشافعی)

1705. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was lowered into the grave from the side of his head. [1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله has followed this hadith and his prescribed that the corpse must be lowered into the grave head first.

The Hanafi place the corpse by the side of the grave towards the qiblah and pick it up and lower it into the grave. This is how the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to do as clear from the next hadith.

As for this hadith, the room of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not very spacious and the side of the grave was along the wall of the room.

Moreover, another hadith (in Abu Dawud) contradicts this hadith saying that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was lowered from the side of the qiblah. (Ibn Majah too has transmitted a similar hadith).

In the light of the contradiction, both these traditions are dropped.

(١٧٠٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ قَبْرًا لَيْلًا فَأُسْرِجَ لَهٗ بِسِرَاجٍ فَاَخَذَ مِنْ قِبَلِ الْقِبْلَةِ وَقَالَ رَحِمَكَ اللّٰهُ اِنْ كُنْتَ لَاَوَّاهًا تَلَّاءً لِّلْقُرْاٰنِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ اِسْنَادُهٗ ضَعِيْفٌ۔

1706. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entered a grave (to lower a corpse) in the night. A lamp was lit for him and he faced the qiblah, (He lowered the corpse and) he said, "May Allah have mercy on you. You wept much (for fear of Allah) and you recited the Quran very often. (Because of these two things you deserve mercy of Allah.)"[1]

COMMENTARY: Tirmidhi rates this hadith as hasan sahih. Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ and Yazid ibn Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ also narrated ahadith in this chapter.

This hadith asserts that it is not makruh (unbecoming) to bury the dead in the night as some ulama (Scholars) say. The Hanafis follow this hadith and lower the body from the direction of the qiblah, as a sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)*.

RECITATION WHILE LOWERING THE BODY

(١٧٠٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا اُدْخِلَ الْمَيِّتُ الْقَبْرَ قَالَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ وَبِاللّٰهِ وَعَلٰى مِلَّةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ وَعَلٰى سُنَّةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوٰى اَبُوْدَاوُدَ الثَّانِيَةَ۔

1707. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited when he lowered the dead person in the grave:

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ وَبِاللّٰهِ وَعَلٰى مِلَّةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ

"In the name of Allah, at His command and on the Shari'ah (divine law) of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم"

According to another version, he recited:

وَعَلٰى سُنَّةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ

"....and on the sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)* of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم"[2]

DUST & WATER

(١٧٠٨) وَعَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ مُرْسَلًا اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَثٰى عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ ثَلَاثَ حَثَيَاتٍ بِيَدَيْهِ جَمِيْعًا وَّاَنَّهُ رَشَّ عَلٰى قَبْرِ ابْنِهِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَوَضَعَ عَلَيْهِ حَصْبَاءَ۔ رَوَاهُ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَرَوَى الشَّافِعِيُّ مِنْ قَوْلِهِ رَشَّ

1708. Sayyiduna Jafar ibn Muhammad narrated in a mursal form from his father (Imam Baqir) that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم scattered three handfuls of earth on the dead (on his grave) with both hands, and that he sprinkled water on his son Ibrahim's grave and (to mark it) he put some pebbles on it.[3]

COMMENTARY: Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ has reported it with a weak line of transmission that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم threw the first handful of earth and said: (مِنْهَا خَلَقْنٰكُمْ) (from it we created you). At the second, he said: (وَفِيْهَا نُعِيْدُكُمْ) (And into it we shall restore you). When he scattered the third handful, he said. (وَمِنْهَا نُخْرِجُكُمْ تَارَةً اُخْرٰى) (and from it we shall bring you forth). (Surah Taha, 20:55)

Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that those people who go with the funeral procession, it is sunnah

(Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) for them to cast dust into the grave by the handful when the lahd or Shiqq is closed. When it is full and levelled, it is sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) for them to sprinkle water over it.

A DIDACTIC EXAMPLE

Some dreamt that a man who had died related that when his deeds were weighed, his evil deeds outweighed the pious landed in the pan of pieties and outweighed the evil deeds. He learnt that it had the handful of earth that he had cast on a Muslim's grave.

NO INSCRIPTION ON GRAVES & NO TRAMPLING

(١٧٠٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ يُّجَصَّصَ الْقُبُوْرُ وَاَنْ يُّكْتَبَ عَلَيْهَا وَاَنْ تُوْطَأَ (رواه الترمذی)

1709. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade them that graves should be plastered with cement, have inscriptions on them or be trampled.[1]

COMMENTARY: If graves are plastered that is a kind of adornment and an unnecessary effort. Some people, however, allow that wet mud should be smeared over a grave.

It is makruh (unbecoming) to write on graves the name of Allah or His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم or verses of the Quran lest they come under feet of pedestrians or animals pass urine over them. Some Hanafi ulama (Scholars) hold that it is also forbidden to inscribe the sacred name of Allah and of His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and verses of the Quran. It is also makruh (unbecoming) to write down the name epithet, etc. of the dead person on a tablet or a gravestone. Some ulama (Scholars), however, maintain that it is allowed to mount an epitaph on the grave with he name of the dead, particularly the righteous men, so that their graves may be recognized even after passage of time.

WATER WAS SPRINKLED ON PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم GRAVE

(١٧١٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ رُشَّ قَبْرُ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَكَانَ الَّذِیْ رَشَّ الْمَآءَ عَلٰی قَبْرِهٖ بِلَالُ بْنُ رَبَاحٍ بِقِرْبَةٍ بَدَاَ مِنْ قِبَلِ رَأْسِهٖ حَتّٰی انْتَهٰی اِلٰی رِجْلَيْهِ (رواه البیهقی فی دلائل النبوة)

1710. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that water was sprinkled at the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم grave. It was (Sayyiduna) Bilal ibn Rabah رضى الله عنه who had sprinkled the water on his grave from a waterskin, having begun from the side of the head to end it up at his feet.[2]

SLAB ON GRAVE

(١٧١١) وَعَنِ الْمُطَّلِبِ بْنِ اَبِیْ وَدَاعَةَ قَالَ لَمَّا مَاتَ عُثْمَانُ بْنُ مَظْعُوْنٍ اُخْرِجَ بِجَنَازَتِهٖ فَدُفِنَ اَمَرَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَجُلًا اَنْ يَّاْتِيَهٗ بِحَجَرٍ فَلَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ حَمْلَهَا فَقَامَ اِلَيْهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَحَسَرَ عَنْ ذِرَاعَيْهِ قَالَ الْمُطَّلِبُ قَالَ الَّذِیْ يُخْبِرُنِیْ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَاَنِّیْ اَنْظُرُ اِلٰی بَيَاضِ

اَخِيْ وَاَدْفِنُ اِلَيْهِ مَنْ مَّاتَ مِنْ اَهْلِيْ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1711. Sayyiduna Al-Muttalib ibn Abu Wada'ah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Uthman ibn Ma'zun رضی اللہ عنہ died, his funeral was brought and he was buried. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed a man to fetch a stone, but he was unable to carry it. So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stood up, went up to it and rolled his sleeves. Al Muttalib interjected that he who narrated to him this hadith about Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "It is as though I still see whiteness of the forearms of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as he had rolled up his sleeves." Then, he carried the stone and placed it at the head of the grave, and said, "In this way, I post a marking at my brother's grave. Now, I shall bury near him those of my family who die."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Muttalib in Abu Wada'ah رضی اللہ عنہ was a sahabi (Prophet's companion) who embraced Islam on the day of the conquest of Makkah. He had narrated this hadith from another sahabi رضی اللہ عنہ because he was not himself present on this occasion. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Maz'un رضی اللہ عنہ was the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم foster brother. He had embraced Islam in its earliest stage and only thirteen people had preceded him in Islam. He had participated in the Battle of Badr and was t he first of the muhajirs (emigrants) to die in Madinah. The first to be buried near his grave was Ibrahim, رضی اللہ عنہ the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم infant son.

It is mustahab (desirable) to place a marking on the grave to be able to recognize it. It is also mustahab (desirable) to bury one's family members and relatives at one place.

GRAVE OF THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم SAYYIDUNA ABN BAKR رضی اللہ عنہ AND UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ

1712. Sayyiduna at-Qasim ibn Muhammad رحمہ اللہ narrated that he went to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ and requested her to let him see the graves of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his two companions, رضی اللہ عنہ addressing her as mother. She let him see the three graves. They were neither high nor level with the ground (but about one span higher than the surface of the earth). Red pebbles of the open spaces around were laid on them.[2]

COMMENTARY: These graves were in the room of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ. As long as the door was open a curtain was hung on it. Anyone who wished to visit the graves could go in by raising the curtain.

1713. Sayyiduna Al-Bara ibn Aazib رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that they went out with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to the funeral of a man of the Ansar. The lahd was being prepared, so the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sat down facing the qiblah and they too sat around him. [1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith has been narrated that in detail previously. See hadith # 1630.

MUTILATING THE DEAD

(١٧١٤) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كَسْرُ عَظْمِ الْمَيِّتِ كَكَسْرِهٖ حَيًّا(رواه مالك وابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

1714. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "To break the bones of a dead person is like breaking his bones when he was alive."[2]

COMMENTARY: Just as it is disallowed to disgrace a living person, so too it is disallowed to disgrace a dead person.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

TEARS ON DEATH OF PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم DAUGHTER

(١٧١٥) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ شَهِدْنَا بِنْتَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تُدْفَنُ وَرَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَالِسٌ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ فَرَاَيْتُ عَيْنَيْهِ تَدْ مَعَانِ فَقَالَ هَلْ فِيْكُمْ مِّنْ اَحَدٍ لَّمْ يُقَارِفِ اللَّيْلَةَ فَقَالَ اَبُوْطَلْحَةَ اَنَا قَالَ فَانْزِلْ فِيْ قَبْرِهَا فَنَزَلَ فِيْ قَبْرِهَا(رواه البخارى)

1715. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he was present when the daughter of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was being buried. He was sitting beside the grave and Anas رضی اللہ عنہ could see that his eyes shed tears. He said, "Is there among you one who has not had sexual intercourse in the night (gone by)?" Abu Tahah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I", So, he said, "Get down ino her grave." Thus he went down into her grave.'[3]

COMMENTARY: While it is not disallowed to have sexual intercourse with one's wife, yet obstaining from it gives a resemblance to the angels. So, he wished that such a man should lower his daughter, Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضی اللہ عنہ wife of Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ. Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ was not her mahram. So, we might say that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him as an exclusive case. Or he wished others to know that it was permissible.

MEN WILL LOWER WOMEN

Ibn Hamman رحمہ اللہ said that only men will lower a dead women in her grave, or take her out. In life, it is allowed to a stranger man to touch a woman during exigencies provided a piece of cloth or something lies in between. Similarly when necessary a stranger man may touch a dead woman. So, when a woman dies and she has no mahramn to place her in the grave, her pious and righteous neighbours may do it. If her mahram are there, then they will undertake the task whether they are blood-relations or relatives through marriage.

As for her husband and mahram being the best people to lower Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضی اللہ عنہ in the grave, both of them, Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, may have been precluded from doing so for some reason. Tht is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, her father, and Sayyiduna Uthman, رضی اللہ عنہ her husband, did not get down the grave to do lower her.

THE WILL OF SAYYIDUNA AMR IBN AL-AAS رضی اللہ عنہ

(١٧١٦) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ لِابْنِهٖ وَهُوَ فِيْ سِيَاقِ الْمَوْتِ إِذَا أَنَا مِتُّ فَلَا تَصْحَبْنِيْ نَائِحَةٌ وَّلَا نَارٌ فَإِذَا دَفَنْتُمُوْنِيْ فَشُنُّوْا عَلَيَّ التُّرَابَ شَنًّا ثُمَّ أَقِيْمُوْا حَوْلَ قَبْرِيْ قَدْرَ مَا يُنْحَرُ جَزُوْرٌ وَّيُقْسَمُ لَحْمُهَا حَتّٰى أَسْتَأْنِسَ بِكُمْ وَأَعْلَمَ مَاذَا أُرَاجِعُ بِهٖ رُسُلَ رَبِّيْ (رواہ مسلم)

1716. Sayyiduna Amr ibn al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ is reported to have instructed his son while he was grappling with death, "When I die, do not let any wailing woman or fire accompany me. When you have buried me scatter earth gently over me. Then (after burial) stand around my grave (making supplication) for the time it takes to sacrifice an animal and to distribute its flesh that I might sense your presence and know what answers to give to the messengers of my Lord."[1]

COMMENTARY: During the Jahiliyah (ignorance period), it was a symbol of greatness and a matter of pride to carry fire with the funeral. They used it to burn fragrance and for other purposes. Islam forbade this thing. Hence. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Aas رضی اللہ عنہ told his son not to carry fire or allow wailing women with his funeral. Thus it is also disallowed to carry aloe stick or the fire of the hookah (a tobacco pipe with tube).

According to a hadith in Abu Dawud the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to stand at the grave after burial and say (to the sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہ, "More istighfar and prayer for your brother to be steadfast because the reckoning is on."

HASTEN WITH BURIAL PREPARATIONS

(١٧١٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ إِذَا مَاتَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلَا تَحْبِسُوْهُ وَأَسْرِعُوْا بِهٖ إِلٰى قَبْرِهٖ وَلْيُقْرَأْ عِنْدَ رَأْسِهٖ فَاتِحَةُ الْبَقَرَةِ وَعِنْدَ رِجْلَيْهِ بِخَاتِمَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ وَالصَّحِيْحُ أَنَّهٗ مَوْقُوْفٌ عَلَيْهِ۔

1717. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say. "When any one among you dies, do not detain him but take him to his grave quickly. And (at the grave) recite at his head the initial verses of surah al Baqarah and, at his feet, the concluding verses of al-Baqarah."[2]

(The initial five verses and the concluding two verses.)

COMMENTARY: Do not detain the dead means do not delay burial for no reason at all. It is mustahab (desirable) to hasten with burial preparations. It is also a sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) to walk rapidly when carrying the funeral, which is neither running nor too slow.

MERIT OF CONSIGNING REWARD

Imran Ahmad ibn Hanbal رحمه الله said that at the graveyard one should recite surah al-Fatihah. Surah al-Ikhlas, al-Falaq and an-Naas and consign the reward thereof to the inmates of the graveyard. It is accepted and consigned.

Visited the graveyard has two. Fold benefits. The grave-dwellers earn the reward and the visitor takes head.

Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه narrated that in a marfu manner. "If anyone visits the graveyard and recites surah al-Ikhlas eleven times and consigns its reward to the dwellers of the graves, then he earns a reward equivalent to the number of those buried there.

Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone goes to the graveyard and recites surah al-Fatihah, al-Ikhlas and at-Takathur and prays to Allah, 'Do consign the reward of whatever I have recited from your Quan to the believing men and women buried in this graveyard,' then those who are buried there become intercessors for him."

Hammad Makki رحمه الله related an experience of his. He went to a graveyard one night and putting his head on a grave went to sleep. He dreamt that the dead buried there sat around in small groups. He wondered if the day of resurrection had come because the head were out of their graves They explained, "No! Rather, someone among our brothers had recited al-Ikhlas and consigned its reward to us. So, we are distributing that reward among ourselves for the past one year."

Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'If anyone visits the graveyard and recites surah Yasin, Allah reduces or softens the punishment on t he grave dwellers and rewards this man with pieties equivalent to the number of those buried in the graveyard."

IMAM SHAFI'I'S رحمه الله OPINION

Suyuti رحمه الله who was a follower of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله wrote in Sharh Sudur that it is a disputed proposition that reward consigned after reciting the Quran is conveyed or not to the dead. "The predecessors including the sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنهم and the tabi'un رحمه الله and the earlier ulama (Scholars) as well as the three imams confirmed that the reward is consigned to the dead but our Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله disagreed with them."

Then Sujuti رحمه الله has given rejoinder to the arguments of Imam Shafi'رحمه الله and confirmed that whatever reward anyone consigned of one's worship or deeds t hen the reward is received by the dead person.

(See Sharh us-Sudur and Mirqat.)

. SAYYIDAH AYSHAH رضى الله عنها AT HER BROTHER'S GRAVE

(١٧١٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ اَبِيْ مُلَيْكَةَ قَالَ لَمَّا تُوُفِّيَ عَبْدُالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ بِالْحُبْشِيْ وَهُوَ مَوْضِعٌ فَحُمِلَ إِلَى مَكَّةَ فَدُفِنَ بِهَا فَلَمَّا قَدِمَتْ عَآئِشَةُ اَتَتْ قَبْرَ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ فَقَالَتْ:

وَكُنَّا كَنَدْ مَانَيْ جُذَيْمَةَ حِقْبَةً   مِنَ الدَّهْرِ حَتّٰى قِيْلَ لَنْ يَّتَصَدَّعَا

فَلَمَّا تَفَرَّقْنَا كَأَنِّيْ وَ مَالِكًا لِطُوْلِ اجْتِمَاعٍ لَمْ نَبِتْ لَيْلَةً مَعًا

ثُمَّ قَالَتْ وَاللّٰهِ لَوْ حَضَرْتُكَ مَادُفِنْتَ اِلَّا حَيْثُ مُتَّ وَلَوْ شَهِدْتُّكَ مَازُرْتُكَ(رواه الترمذی)

1718. Sayyiduna Ibn Abu Malaykah رحمه الله narrated that when (Sayyiduna) Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه died in al-Hubshiy, which is a place, he was brought to Makkah and buried there. When (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضی الله عنها came (to Makkah to perform the pilgrimage), she visited the grave of (her brother) Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and recited (the couplets)

وَكُنَّا كَنَدْمَانَيْ جُذَيْمَةَ حِقْبَةً مِنَ الدَّهْرِ حَتّٰى قِيْلَ لَنْ يَّتَصَدَّعَا

فَلَمَّا تَفَرَّقْنَا كَأَنِّيْ وَ مَالِكًا لِطُوْلِ اجْتِمَاعٍ لَمْ نَبِتْ لَيْلَةً مَعًا

"The two of us were like friends of Judhaymah together for an age, so that it was thought that we were inseparable.
When we are apart, though we had been together for a long time, it seems that we had never been together."
Then she said, 'By Allah, were I there, I would have buried you not save where you had died. And had I seen you (before your death), I would not have visited you (to day)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Hubshiy[2] is a place one stage of journey away from Makkah.

The couplet that Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها recited at her brother's grave were recited by Tamim ibn Nuwayrah as part of an elegy he composed on his brother's (Maalik's) death when Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Walid رضی الله عنه had killed him in the time of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr. رضی الله عنه

Tamim has compared himself and his brother Maalik to the two companions of Judhaymah. The story goes back in time to Iraq when a king Judhayman ruled over it. He empire extended to the Arabian peninsula He had two companions, both brother, Maalik and Aqil (or Uqayl). Their companionship with the king extended over forty years. Both of them were killed by Nu'man. The story of their killing is also amazing. It is recounted in full in Muqamat Hurayri

Tamim composed the elegy and lamented the death of his brother Maalik. "The companionship," he lamented, "was broken in a few moments as though it was a dream." (In the Arabic, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها reproduced the original words of Tamim 'it seemed I and Maalik, in spite of being together for a long time, had never been together." The translation follows the Urdu rendering and drops the word Maalik).

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها also said that if she had met her brother at the time of his death, she would not have visited his grave. She had in mind the Prophet's words in which he cursed women who go to the graves. So, she hoped that her visit would stand for their farewell meeting. (Elsewhere Judhaymah is Jadhimah and Tamim is Mutammim.)

1719. Sayyiduna Abu Rafi narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم brought Sa'd رضى الله عنه out of the funeral from the head (and lowered him head first) and sprinkled water on his grave. [1]

COMMENTARY: Please use the commentary against hadith # 1705. This hadith is evidence of the verdict of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله

COST DUST FROM THE SIDE OF HEAD

(١٧٢٠) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلّٰى عَلٰى جَنَازَةٍ ثُمَّ أَتَى الْقَبْرَ فَحَثٰى عَلَيْهِ مِنْ قِبَلِ رَأْسِهٖ ثَلَاثًا۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1720. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the (funeral) salah (prayer) over a dead person. Then, he came to the grave and scattered three handfuls of earth from the side of the head of the buried person.[2]

LEANING ON GRAVES

(١٧٢١) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ حَزْمٍ قَالَ رَاٰنِيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُتَّكِئًا عَلٰى قَبْرٍ فَقَالَ لَا تُؤْذِ صَاحِبَ هٰذَا الْقَبْرِ أَوْلَا تُؤْذِهٖ۔ (رواه احمد)

1721. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Hazm رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him leaning on a grave. So, he said (to him). "Do not torment the dweller of this grave." Or, he said, "Do not torment him (or, it)."[3]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps tormenting the grave dweller means that reclining on the grave to lie down or to sit might displease the spirit of the grave dweller. It belittles the soul.

CHAPTER - VII

WEEPING FOR THE DEAD بَابُ الْبُكَآءِ عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ

It is natural to feel grieved over the permanent loss of a dear one. The grief is commensurate with the relationship of the dead person, the nearer he was the greater the grief. It is far-fetched to expect anyone not to grieve over the death of a relative or friend, to expect the eyes not to shed tears, to expect the face not to reflect sorrow and then the other side of this affliction is the expression of the sorrow. Tears do express the heart's sentiments.

Islam has guided Muslim in every department of life to observe moderation and the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم has maintained the standard of human dignity both in happiness and in sorrow. So, it is impossible that guidance should have been neglected in this emotional and delicate phase of life.

The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم teaching on this department of life are carried in the ahadith in this chapter.

COMMANDS & RULINGS

It is not makruh (unbecoming) to weep on someone's death without wailing and shrieking. However, it is makruh (unbecoming) to shriek and wail and to eulogize the dead in an exaggerated way as was done in the pre-Islamic days. But, it is not makruh (unbecoming) to mention the true and correct praiseworthy attributes of the dead person.

It is mustahab (desirable) to condole with the aggrieved when someone dies. They must be encourages to observe patience and they must be comforted. Condolence must be offered only once. It is a bid'ah and is forbidden to assemble at the house of the dead person on the third day of his death. This is not recognized by Shari'ah (divine law) and it is absolutely disallowed to spend from the wealth of a dead person without his (or her) permission and deprive the orphans and the hairs of their share.

The writer of the Qamus, Majd ud-din رحمه الله has written in safar us Sa'adah that formerly people assembled only for the funeral salah (prayer). Now-a-day, it has become a custom which is uncessary and merely ceremonious that days and nights are determined for reciting the Quran and other rituals and together at graves or any other place. It is abid'ah (or an innovations).

It is allowed to sit in the house or mosque to receive condolences. When Sayyiduna Jafar رضى الله عنه. Sayyiduna Zayd رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Ibn Rawwahah رضى الله عنه were martyred in succession in the Battle of Mutah, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was very grieved. He sat in the Masjid Nabawi where people came to him and condoled with him. The latter day custom to appoint day s or dates to offer condolences was not known earlier.

Many ulama (Scholars) of later days hold that it is makruh (unbecoming) to gather at the house of t he dead person to condole. And, it is more emphatically makruh (unbecoming) that the family members of the person sit at the doors of their house only that visitors might come and offer condolences because it smacks of the Jahiliyah (ignorance period). The correct procedure is for people to disburse after burial to attend to their individual work and the family of the dead must also occupy themselves in their duties.

It is also makruh (unbecoming) to gather round the grave and recite the Quran.

Condolences may be offered within three days after death. It is makruh (unbecoming) to offer condolence after three days However, if either of the two is not present then it is not wrong to condole when they meet.

It is better to condole after burial. If the aggrieved are likely to go to extremes in mourning after burial, then it is batter to condole before burial.

It is msutahab to condole with all relatives of the dead person, young and old, men and women. If a woman is youthful then condolence must not be offered to her. Her mahrom, however, may condole with her.

WORDS OF CONDOLENCE

It is mustahab (desirable) to condole with the family of the dead in words like these; "May Allah forgive and have mercy on the dead! May He overlook his lapses! May he cause you all to endure the severe tragedy patiently and may He reward you all against this grief and affliction." The best words of condolence are that which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke:

إِنَّ لِلّٰهِ مَا أَخَذَ وَلَهُ مَا أَعْطٰى وَكُلُّ شَيْءٍ عِنْدَهُ بِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى۔

"To Allah belongs what He has takan away and that which He has given is also His. And for everything a time is determined with him."

If a non-Muslim dies and his relative is a Muslim, then this is how condolence may be made with him; 'May Allah grant you much reward and enable you to endure patiently and in peace."

If the dead person was a Muslim but the relatives are non-Muslims then one may say. "May Allah forgive the dead and give you patience."

If both the dead and the relatives are non-Muslims, then these like words are spoken, "May Allah recompense you and may He not reduce your family."

Though it is allowed to stay home and abstain from one's occupation for three days because of the grief, yet it is better not to do so. It is forbidden to men to display grief be donning black garments, tearing their clothes ripping their clothes the collar. Woman may wear black garments.

When any one dies, it is very wrong and sinful, smacking of the pre-Islamic customs, to exaggerate mourning by creating a scene, beating oneself, upsetting one's hair, throwing dust on oneself, beating one's chest and burning fire at the graves.

There is nothing wrong in sending meal to the house where anyone has died but it is extremely wrong to borrow money for it and to suppose that it is very necessary. Similarly. It is very bad and wasteful to invite people to a meal on the third day.

Those people who indulge in excessively meaningless deeds are very much misguided. They invite people as if to a wedding party. They must refrain from such things.

Those men who apply perfume on the third day, imitate women because it is women who end their mourning on the third day and apply perfume. So, this too must be avoided. It is not forbidden because of the perfume but because it amounts to resemblance to women. Shari'ah (divine law) has disallowed any kind of resemblance to women.

The etiquette of condolence is to offer salaam to the members of the house when one goes there to condole. He must shake hands and speak very humbly and mildly. He must refrain from fruitless and too much conversation. He must only comfort them, call upon them to be patient and peaceful. He must not laugh or smile.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET'S SORROW ON SON'S DEATH

(١٧٢٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ دَخَلْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى اَبِيْ سَيْفٍ الْقَيْنِ وَكَانَ ظِئْرًا لِاِبْرَاهِيْمَ فَاَخَذَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ فَقَبَّلَهٗ وَشَمَّهٗ ثُمَّ دَخَلْنَا عَلَيْهِ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ وَاِبْرَاهِيْمُ يَجُوْدُ بِنَفْسِهٖ فَجَعَلَتْ عَيْنَا رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَذْرِفَانِ فَقَالَ لَهٗ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ عَوْفٍ وَّاَنْتَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ يَا ابْنَ عَوْفٍ اِنَّهَا رَحْمَةٌ ثُمَّ اَتْبَعَهَا بِاُخْرٰى فَقَالَ اِنَّ الْعَيْنَ تَدْمَعُ وَالْقَلْبَ يَحْزَنُ وَلَا نَقُوْلُ اِلَّا مَا يَرْضٰى رَبُّنَا وَاِنَّا بِفِرَاقِكَ يَا اِبْرَاهِيْمُ لَمَحْزُوْنُوْنَ (متفق عليه)

1722. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that they went with Allah's Messenger and visited Abu Sayf, the smith, who was the husband of the wet-nurse of Ibrahim (the son of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم took Ibrahim, kissed him and smelt him. Again, later they went in to visit him when Ibrahim was dying. The eyes of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم shed tears. So, Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ asked, "And you, too, O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "O Ibn Awf, it is mercy." His eyes shed more tear and he said, "The eye weeps and the heart grieves. We speak only what pleases our Lord. And, we are grieved at partying with you, O Ibrahim."[1]

COMMENTARY: The name of Abu Sayf was Bara. His wife was Khawlah Mundhir. She was from the Ansar, and the wet nurse of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم son, Ibrahim. He was a smith by profession. Ibrahim رضى الله عنه died when he was sixteen or seventeen months old. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had gone to the house of Ibrahim's wet nurse, took him in his lap and kissed him. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wept when he was dying and said that he was not weeping because of impatience but out of mercy for the child who was suffering. Anyone who has a heart will feel sympathy at such times.

DEATH OF GRANDSON

(١٧٢٣) وَعَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ أَرْسَلَتِ ابْنَةُ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَيْهِ أَنَّ ابْنًا لِّي قُبِضَ فَأْتِنَا فَأَرْسَلَ يَقْرَأُ السَّلَامَ وَ يَقُوْلُ إِنَّ لِلّٰهِ مَا أَخَذَ وَلَهُ مَا أَعْطٰى وَكُلٌّ عِنْدَهُ بِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى فَلْتَصْبِرْ وَلْتَحْتَسِبْ فَأَرْسَلَتْ إِلَيْهِ تُقْسِمُ عَلَيْهِ لَيَأْتِيَنَّهَا فَقَامَ وَمَعَهُ سَعْدُ بْنُ عُبَادَةَ وَمُعَاذُ بْنُ جَبَلٍ وَأُبَيُّ بْنُ كَعْبٍ وَّزَيْدُ بْنُ ثَابِتٍ وَّرِجَالٌ فَرُفِعَ إِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الصَّبِيُّ وَنَفْسُهُ تَتَقَعْقَعُ فَفَاضَتْ عَيْنَاهُ فَقَالَ سَعْدٌ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا هٰذَا فَقَالَ هٰذِهٖ رَحْمَةٌ جَعَلَهَا اللّٰهُ فِيْ قُلُوْبِ عِبَادِهٖ فَإِنَّمَا يَرْحَمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ الرُّحَمَاءَ (متفق عليه)

1723. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم daughter (Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنه sent message to him that her son was dying and he must come to her. He sent his salaam to her, saying. "What Allah takes belongs to him and what He gives belongs to Him and there is with Him a time appointed for everything. So, be patient and seek reward from Allah." Again, she sent for him adjuring him to come to her. So, he got up and with him were Sa'd ibn Ubadah رضى الله عنه Mu'adh ibn Jamal رضى الله عنه. Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضى الله عنه Zayd ibn Thabit رضى الله عنه and some others. The child was lifted up to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, being on the point of death and panting. His eyes became moist with tears. So Sa'd رضى الله عنه submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, why this?" He said, "This is mercy that Allah has placed in the hearts of His slaves. Indeed, Allah has mercy only on those of His slaves who are merciful."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Sa'd رضى الله عنه had presumed that weeping is disallowed in every form. He thought that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had forgotten and wept. The Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم of Allah enlightened him that his weeping was from compassion for the child. It was different from wailing and beating oneself.

CRYING LOUDLY

(١٧٢٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ اشْتَكٰى سَعْدُ بْنُ عُبَادَةَ شَكْوًى لَّهُ فَأَتَاهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعُوْدُهُ مَعَ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ ابْنِ عَوْفٍ وَّ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ وَّ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ فَلَمَّا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهِ وَجَدَهُ فِيْ غَاشِيَةٍ فَقَالَ قَدْ قُضِيَ قَالُوْا لَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَبَكَى النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمَّا رَأَى الْقَوْمُ بُكَاءَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ

1724. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (Sayyiduna) Sa'd ibn Ubadah رضی اللہ عنہ complained of sickness. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited him alongwith Abdur Rahman ibn Awf. Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ and Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ when they come to him he was unconscious. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked. Has he died?" they said, "No O Messenger of Allah." He wept (on seeing his condition).The other also wept on seeing him weep. He said, "Pay heed! Allah does not punish for the tear that the eye sheds and the grief that the heart harbours. But, he punishes for this" and he pointed to his tongue. "Or, He has mercy. Indeed the dead is punished for the weeping of his family over him."[1]

COMMENTARY: The concluding words of the hadith imply that if the dead person's family wail over him and shriek, the dead person is punished.

This question will be discussed in the section III, In-sha-Allah.

(١٧٢٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ مِنَّا مَنْ ضَرَبَ الْخُدُوْدَ وَشَقَّ الْجُيُوْبَ وَدَعَا بِدَعْوَى الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ(متفق عليه)

1725. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He is not one of us who beats the cheeks, tears the garments at the front and shrieks as the shriek of the Jāhiliyah (ignorance period)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The same warning applies to those who throw away their turban and cap or pull hair on their head or beard.

(١٧٢٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بُرْدَةَ قَالَ اُغْمِيَ عَلٰى اَبِيْ مُوْسَى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ فَاَقْبَلَتِ امْرَاَتُهٗ اُمُّ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ تَصِيْحُ بِرَنَّةٍ ثُمَّ اَفَاقَ فَقَالَ اَلَمْ تَعْلَمِيْ وَكَانَ يُحَدِّثُهَا اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَنَا بَرِيْءٌ مِّمَّنْ حَلَقَ وَصَلَقَ وَخَرَقَ(متفق عليه و لفظه لمسلم)

1726. Sayyiduna Abu Burdah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (once) Abu Musa al-Ash'ari رضی اللہ عنہ fell unconscious. So, his wife (Sayyidah) Umm Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ began to shriek in a terrifying voice. When he regained consciousness, he asked her, "do you not know?" And he narrated to her that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said, "I am absolved of anyone and rips clothing."[3]

COMMENTARY: Muslims must desist from doing such things as were customs of the jihiliyah. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has said that he had nothing to do with people who perpetrate such things.

WAILING IS BAD

(١٧٢٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مَالِكٍ الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَرْبَعٌ فِيْ اُمَّتِيْ مِنْ اَمْرِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ

1727. Sayyiduna Abu Maalik al-Ash'ary رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Four things in my ummah are from the traits of the Jahiliyah (ignorance period) and they will not give them up. They are: boasting on singular trait, insulting others on their genealogy, seeking rain with the stars (astrology) and wailing." He added. "If a wailing woman does not repent before her death, then she will be made to stand on the day of resurrection having on herself clothing of pitch and a chemise of (itching) ménage."[1]

COMMENTARY: The first is such a characteristic in a person as makes him regard himself to be superior, like bravery or courage or eloquence. The second is to find defects in another person's ancestors. There is no harm in bath of them if Islam is at the base of them. A Muslim may boast because of his Islam and another's disbelief.

To seek rain with the stars is to subscribe to the belief that stars have an influence on weather and rain. It is forbidden to believe that stars in different houses in a horoscope spell rain and showers. Rather, when it rains, we must say that Allah has sent down rain as His favour.

Wailing is to cry loudly and describe the dead with superb and imagined good qualities.

This clothing of pitch will be like coulter and will emit a bad odour. A woman who wails and does not repent before death will have itching on the day of resurrection and that will be augmented with the chemise of mange.

(١٧٢٨) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ مَرَّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِامْرَأَةٍ تَبْكِيْ عِنْدَ قَبْرٍ فَقَالَ اتَّقِي اللّٰهَ وَاصْبِرِيْ قَالَتْ إِلَيْكَ عَنِّيْ فَإِنَّكَ لَمْ تُصَبْ بِمُصِيْبَتِيْ وَلَمْ تَعْرِفْهُ فَقِيْلَ لَهَا إِنَّهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَتَتْ بَابَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمْ تَجِدْ عِنْدَهُ بَوَّابِيْنَ فَقَالَتْ لَمْ أَعْرِفْكَ فَقَالَ إِنَّمَا الصَّبْرُ عِنْدَ الصَّدْمَةِ الْأُوْلٰى(متفق عليه)

1728. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came by a woman weeping at a grave. He said. "Fear Allah (and do not wail). Show patience." She retorted, "Go away from me! You are not beset with my affliction," for, she did not know him. Then she was told. "He is the prophet علیہ السلام!" (That was enough for her!) she went to his door but there was no doorkeeper. She said, 'I had not recognized you." He said, "Patience is (correct) only at the first strike."[2]

COMMENTARY: How true it is that one must heed what is spoken! It is not necessary to see who is speaking. The woman should have weighed in the words without considering who is speaker was. She would not have had to repent.

The preferred patience which earns reward is one that is shown at the time of affliction. Later, a person learns to endure, after all and it makes no difference then.

attributes of the dead while wailing shrieking the while, beating the cheeks, ripping the clothing from the front, pulling the hair, shaving them, blackening the face, pouring dust over the head and doing all such things as are signs of lack of endurance.

DEATH OF THREE CHILDREN OF MUSLIM

(١٧٢٩) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَمُوْتُ لِمُسْلِمٍ ثَلَاثَةٌ مِّنَ الْوَلَدِ فَيَلِجُ النَّارَ اِلَّا تَحِلَّةَ الْقَسَمِ (متفق عليه)

1729. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A Muslim whose three children die will not go to hell except to expiate the oath."[1]

COMMENTARY: The expiation of the oath refers to the Quran:

وَاِنْ مِّنْكُمْ وَاللّٰهِ اِلَّا وَارِدُهَا الآية

{And there is not one of you, but shall come to it....} (19:71)

It is as though the words 'By Allah' are understood in the verse: 'there is no one who shall not enter hell,' though he may go in for a moment like lightening or breeze. The fact is that a bridge, called sirat, will be raised over hell. Everyone - Muslim or otherwise - will go over it. He may be pious or evil. The only difference is that the pious will pass over it smoothly into paradise but the evil will suffer harm and fall down into hell.

The Muslim who loses three children will enter hell for only this moment to expiate the oath. Actually, he will not go into hell but go over the sirat which is the bridge over hell. He will not suffer any kind of punishment.

This kind of expiation of oath is often heard in the conversation of the linguists.

(١٧٣٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِنِسْوَةٍ مِّنَ الْاَنْصَارِ لَا يَمُوْتُ لِاِحْدَا كُنَّ ثَلَاثَةٌ مِّنَ الْوَلَدِ فَتَحْتَسِبُهُ اِلَّا دَخَلَتِ الْجَنَّةَ فَقَالَتِ امْرَأَةٌ مِّنْهُنَّ اَوِاثْنَانِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اَوِاثْنَانِ ـ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَفِىْ رِوَايَةٍ لَّهُمَا ثَلَاثَةٌ لَّمْ يَبْلُغُوا الْحِنْثَ ـ

1730. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to some women of the Ansars, "If three children of anyone of you die and she hopes for reward from Allah then she will enter paradise." So, one of them submitted, "Or two, O Messenger of Allah?" He agreed, "Or two."

According to another version: "There who had not attained puberty."[2]

COMMENTARY: The woman who loses three children does not wail but endures her loss, saying:

اِنَّا لِلّٰهِ وَاِنَّآ اِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُوْنَ

(To Allah we belong and to Him is our return). She will enter paradise.

The stipulation that the children should be minor respects a woman's love for her young children more than for the grown ups.

REWARD FOR PATIENCE

(۱۷۳۱) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ مَا لِعَبْدِیْ الْمُؤْمِنِ عِنْدِیْ جَزَآءٌ اِذَا قَبَضْتُ صَفِيَّهُ مِنْ اَهْلِ الدُّنْيَا ثُمَّ اَحْتَسَبَهُ اِلَّا الْجَنَّةَ (رواه البخاری)

1731. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah says, "when I take away from My believing slave his dear friend from among the worldly people and he hopes for reward from me, then I have for him nothing better than paradise as a reward."[1]

COMMENTARY: The dear friend could be children, parents, or such others.

The hadith is about worldly people. If anyone devoted to the hereafter dies and this person shows patience then he earns much good fortune and honour. Allah will be please with him and Allah's pleasure is a great blessing.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِیْ

CURSE ON ONE WHO WAILS & WHO LISTEN TO IT

(۱۷۳۲) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ سَعِيْدِ الْخُدْرِیِّ قَالَ لَعَنَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ النَّائِحَةَ وَالْمُسْتَمِعَةَ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1732. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cursed the woman who wai'ls and who listen to her.[2]

COMMENTARY: The wailing woman is one who describes the good qualities of the dead while crying aloud. Or, she is one who cries over the dead shrieking.

The woman who listens to her is one who lends on ear to the wailing woman and likes her act.

BELIEVER IS PATIENT AND GRATEFUL AT ALL TIMES

(۱۷۳۳) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِیْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَجَبٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِ اِنْ اَصَابَهُ خَيْرٌ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَشَكَرَ وَاِنْ اَصَابَتْهُ مُصِيْبَةٌ حَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَصَبَرَ فَالْمُؤْمِنُ يُؤْجَرُ فِیْ كُلِّ اَمْرِهٖ حَتّٰى فِی اللُّقْمَةِ يَرْفَعُهَا اِلٰى فِیْ امْرَاَتِهٖ۔ (رواه البیهقی فی شعب الایمان)

1733. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "It is amazing with the believer. When good comes his way, he praises Allah and thanks Him. When distress afflicts him, he praises Allah and bears it patiently. So, the believer is rewarded in each of his affairs, even for the morsel that he raises to his wife's mouth."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith brings out the merit of the believer and his distinction which is a pride.

He is ever grateful to Allah whatever overtakes him. And, he always praises Allah. Hence,

Allah rewards him for all his acts that are permissible. Of course, the things that he does must be dictated with honest and good intentions and hope to earn reward. For instance, the morsel he feeds his wife must be prompted with an intention to give her the right for which Allah has made him responsible and he desires to please Allah is this way. This seemingly simple permissible act will fetch him a mighty reward and blessing.

EARTH & HEAVEN WEEP WHEN A BELIEVER DIES

(١٧٣٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ مُؤْمِنٍ اِلَّا وَلَهٗ بَابَانِ بَابٌ يَّصْعَدُ مِنْهُ عَمَلُهٗ وَبَابٌ يَّنْزِلُ مِنْهُ رِزْقُهٗ فَاِذَا مَاتَ بَكَيَا عَلَيْهِ فَذٰلِكَ قَوْلُهٗ تَعَالٰى فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّمَآءُ وَالْاَرْضُ(رواه الترمذی)

1734. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is not a believer but there are two gates for him. By one his deeds ascend and by the other his provision descends. When he dies, both (the gates) weep for him. That is according to the words of Allah, the Exalted;

فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّمَآءُ وَالْاَرْضُ

{So the heaven and the earth wept not for them, nor were they respited} (44:29)

COMMENTARY: None of the two weeps for the disbeliever. But, heaven and earth, both, weep for the believer.

TREASURE OF THE HEREAFTER

(١٧٣٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَ لَهٗ فَرَطَانِ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ اَدْخَلَهُ اللّٰهُ بِهِمَا الْجَنَّةَ فَقَالَتْ عَآئِشَةُ فَمَنْ كَانَ لَهٗ فَرَطٌ مِنْ اُمَّتِكَ قَالَ وَمَنْ كَانَ لَهٗ فَرَطٌ يَا مُوَفَّقَةُ فَقَالَتْ فَمَنْ لَّمْ يَكُنْ لَّهٗ فَرَطٌ مِّنْ اُمَّتِكَ قَالَ فَاَنَا فَرَطُ اُمَّتِيْ لَنْ يُّصَابُوْا بِمِثْلِيْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1735. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone of my ummah has two children who precede him (in death) then Allah will admit him to paradise because of them." Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا asked, "What, if one of your ummah have one child who precedes him?' He said, "And, he whose one child precedes him, O Muwaffaqah (fortunate one)!" She asked. "What of one who has no child precedes him?" He said, "I am the farat of my ummah who have never been afflicted by a loss to compare with (suffering) less of me."[1]

COMMENTARY: Farat is the man who precedes the caravan to their destination and makes arrangement for the members of the caravan for their provision, etc. In this hadith farat is the child who dies before attaining puberty. This child is called farat because he (or she) precedes its parents to paradise and arranges for them the bounties of paradise. It will intercede with Allah for its parents and take them to paradise. However. The farat in t he concluding sentence of the hadith 'I am farat.' Does not refer to their minor child.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم described Sayyidah Ayshah (r0 as 'muwaffaqah' for her exceptional relationship, qualities and merits. It embraces all excellences for Allah caused her to ask about the good things.
He said of himself that he was the intercessor for his ummah whom he would take to paradise. Reward is in proportion to affliction and hardship. The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم departure from this world is an incomparable hardship and affliction. Every member of his ummah is hurt by his departure and this loss is enough treasure for them in the hereafter.

REWARD FOR PATIENCE ON LOSS OF CHILDREN

(۱۷۳۶) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسَى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا مَاتَ وَلَدُ الْعَبْدِ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى لِمَلَآئِكَتِهٖ قَبَضْتُمْ وَلَدَ عَبْدِيْ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ نَعَمْ فَيَقُوْلُ قَبَضْتُمْ ثَمَرَةَ فُؤَادِهٖ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ نَعَمْ فَيَقُوْلُ مَاذَا قَالَ عَبْدِيْ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ حَمِدَكَ وَاسْتَرْجَعَ فَيَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ ابْنُوْا لِعَبْدِيْ بَيْتًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَ سَمُّوْهُ بَيْتَ الْحَمْدِ (رواہ احمد و الترمذی)

1736. Sayyiduna Abu Musa Al-Ash'ary رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When someone's child dies, Allah asks the angels, 'Did you take away the child of My slave?' They answer. 'Yes.' He asks, 'Did you taka away the fruit of his heart?' T hey say, 'Yes' He ask 'what did My slave say? 'They say, 'He praised you and said (انا للہ وانا الیہ راجعون) (we belong to Allah and to Him is our return). Then Allah say, 'Build for My slave a house in paradise and name it Bayt ul Hamd.'[1]

COMMENTARY: Bayt ul Hamd (House of Praise) is the name given because the man displayed exemplary servitude and even in times of tragedy, he showed patience and expressed gratitude.

COMFORTING THE DISTRESSED

(۱۷۳۷) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ عَزّٰى مُصَابًا فَلَهٗ مِثْلُ اَجْرِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ لَا نَعْرِفُهٗ مَرْفُوْعًا اِلَّا مِنْ حَدِيْثِ عَلِيِّ ابْنِ عَاصِمٍ الرَّاوِيْ وَقَالَ وَرَوَاهُ بَعْضُهُمْ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سُوْقَةَ بِهٰذَا الْاِسْنَادِ مَوْقُوْفًا۔

1737. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who comforts one who is distressed will get a reward like the reward of the distressed."[2]

COMMENTARY: Here, the word 'distressed' covers affliction of different kinds through death, etc. Anyone who comforts such a distressed person is a means to get sting him to be patient and earning reward. So, he too gets that reward. For (Arabic) (one who guides to what is good is as the doer). This hadith is backed by:

مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يُعَزِّيْ اَخَاهُ بِمُصِيْبَةٍ اِلَّا كَسَاهُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ حُلَلِ الْكَرَامَةِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ

(١٧٣٨) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ بَرْزَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ عَزّٰى ثَكْلٰى كُسِىَ بُرْدًا فِى الْجَنَّةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِىُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1738. Sayyiduna Abu Barzah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "One who comforts a woman who has lost a child will be given to wear a striped cloak in paradise."[1]

ARRANGING MEAL FOR THE BEREAVED

(١٧٣٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ لَمَّا جَآءَ نَعْىُ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ النَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِصْنَعُوْا لِاٰلِ جَعْفَرٍ طَعَامًا فَقَدْ اَتَاهُمْ مَّا يُشْغِلُهُمْ (رواہ الترمذی و ابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

1739. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Ja'far رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when news of death of (Sayyiduna) Ja'far رضی اللہ عنہ arrived, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, (to the people of the house), "Prepare food for the family of Jafar, for, there has come to them what keeps them occupied."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is mustahab (desirable) for the relatives and neighbours to send to the bereaved family meal enough for all of them for one day and one night to satiating point. Some authorities say that they must send the meal for three days.

MAY OTHER PEOPLE EAT

The ulama (Scholars) differ on this question. Some say that others at their home must not eat, but some others say that there is no harm if any visitor shares the meal with the bereaved.

The ulama (Scholars) also say that those who send the meal must ensure that the family of the dead have eaten the food. In their occupation, they might overlook the meal or not like to eat.

It is makruh (unbecoming) to prepare food for the wailing women, Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said, "We regard this (serving food to wailing women) as a kind of wailing." Thus, it is clearly forbidden to prepare food for the wailing woman.

Imam Ghazali رحمہ اللہ said that it is makruh (unbecoming) to join in preparing the meal for this purpose for the bereaved.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ said that this thing is makruh (unbecoming) if the meal is not prepared from the property of the orphans or of anyone who is away. But, if it is prepared from the property of any one of them then it is forbidden.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

THE DEAD IS PUNISHED IF ANYONE WAILS OVER HIM

(١٧٤٠) عَنِ الْمُغِيْرَةِ بْنِ شُعْبَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ نِيْحَ عَلَيْهِ فَاِنَّهُ يُعَذَّبُ بِمَا نِيْحَ عَلَيْهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ (متفق علیہ)

1740. Sayyiduna Al-Mughirah ibn Shu'bah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say. "He over whom any one wails will be punished on the day of resurrection for the waling over him."[1]

(١٧٤١) وَعَنْ عَمْرَةَ بِنْتِ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ اَنَّهَا قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ عَآئِشَةَ وَذُكِرَ لَهَا اَنَّ عَبْدَاللّٰهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ الْمَيِّتَ لَيُعَذَّبُ بِبُكَآءِ الْحَيِّ عَلَيْهِ تَقُوْلُ يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ لِاَبِيْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ اَمَا اَنَّهُ لَمْ يَكْذِبْ وَلٰكِنَّهُ نَسِيَ اَوْاَخْطَأَ اِنَّمَا مَرَّ رَسُوْلُ الله صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى يَهُوْدِيَّةٍ يُبْكٰى عَلَيْهَا فَقَالَ اِنَّهُمْ لَيَبْكُوْنَ عَلَيْهَا وَاِنَّهَا لَتُعَذَّبُ فِيْ قَبْرِهَا(متفق عليه)

1741. Sayyidah Amrah bint Abdur Rahman narrated that she heard (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضی الله عنها say when told that Abdullah ibn Umar رضی الله عنه said that the dead is punished for the weeping of the living over them, "May Allah forgive Abu Abdur Rahman. Indeed, he does not lie, but has forgotten, or is mistaken. Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had merely passed by (the grave of) a Jewess and saw people weeping over her. So, he said, 'They weep over her while she is being punished in her grave."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said that those people were unaware that the woman was being. Punished in the grave. They wept for her love. He did not say that she was punished because of their weeping. Rather, she was being chastised as all infidels are. The ulama (Scholars) say that Sayyidah Ayshah's رضی الله عنه objection was based on her deduction. She would have been correct if the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم saying was limited to only this occasion, but, in fact, his saying of this nature is narrated by many sahabah رحمه الله. This question will be discussed against the next hadith

(١٧٤٢) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ اَبِيْ مُلَيْكَةَ قَالَ تُوُفِّيَتْ بِنْتٌ لِّعُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَفَّانَ بِمَكَّةَ فَجِئْنَا لِنَشْهَدَهَا وَحَضَرَهَا ابْنُ عُمَرَ وَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ فَاِنِّيْ لَجَالِسٌ بَيْنَهُمَا فَقَالَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ لِعَمْرِو بْنِ عُثْمَانَ وَ هُوَ مُوَاجِهُهُ اَلَا تَنْهٰى عَنِ الْبُكَآءِ فَاِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ الْمَيِّتَ لَيُعَذَّبُ بِبُكَآءِ اَهْلِهِ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ قَدْ كَانَ عُمَرُ يَقُوْلُ بَعْضَ ذٰلِكَ ثُمَّ حَدَّثَ فَقَالَ صَدَرْتُ مَعَ عُمَرَ مِنْ مَّكَّةَ حَتّٰى اِذَا كُنَّا بِالْبَيْدَآءِ فَاِذَا هُوَ بِرَكْبٍ تَحْتَ ظِلِّ سَمُرَةٍ فَقَالَ اذْهَبْ فَانْظُرْ مَنْ هٰؤُلَآءِ الرَّكْبُ فَنَظَرْتُ فَاِذَا هُوَ صُهَيْبٌ قَالَ فَاَخْبَرْتُهُ فَقَالَ ادْعُهُ فَرَجَعْتُ اِلٰى صُهَيْبٍ فَقُلْتُ ارْتَحِلْ فَالْحَقْ اَمِيْرَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ عُمَرَ فَلَمَّا اَنْ اُصِيْبَ عُمَرُ دَخَلَ صُهَيْبٌ يَبْكِيْ يَقُوْلُ وَا اَخَاهُ وَا صَاحِبَاهُ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ يَا صُهَيْبُ اَتَبْكِيْ عَلَيَّ وَقَدْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْمَيِّتَ لَيُعَذَّبُ بِبَعْضِ بُكَآءِ اَهْلِهِ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ فَلَمَّا مَاتَ عُمَرُ ذَكَرْتُ ذٰلِكَ لِعَآئِشَةَ فَقَالَتْ يَرْحَمُ اللّٰهُ عُمَرَ لَا وَاللّٰهِ مَا حَدَّثَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ

1742. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Mulaykah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a daughter of (Sayyiduna) Uthman ibn Affan رضی اللہ عنہ died in Makkah. They went to participate in the funeral and Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ were also there. He sat between them. Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ asked Amr ibn Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ who was facing him to prevent them (his folk) from weeping, because Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had disclosed that the dead is punished for the weeping of people over him. Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that Umar رحمہ اللہ used to say something like that and he related an experience during his journey from Makkah with Umar رضی اللہ عنہ when they saw some riders standing in the shade of a gum-acacia three at al-Bayda. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ asked him to go and find out who the riders were. He found Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ among them and reported his finding to Umar رضی اللہ عنہ who instructed him to fetch him. He went back to Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ and asked him to come and meet the amir ul mumineen.

Later, when Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was wounded (in Madinah), Suayb رضی اللہ عنہ came weeping and lamented, "O brother, O chief! (what has happened!)" Umar رضی اللہ عنہ reproached him (even in his wounded condition), "O Suhayb, do you weep over me while Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did say, indeed, that the dead will surely be punished for some of weeping of his family over him."

(Sayyiduna) Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ added that when Umar رضی اللہ عنہ died, he mentioned that to (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. She exclaimed, "May Allah have mercy on Umar! No, by Allah, never did Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that the dead will surely be chastised for the weeping of his family over him. But, (he did say) that Allah does increase the chastisement to the disbeliever because of the weeping of his family over him." Then (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, "The (verdict of the) Quran should suffice you:

وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِّزْرَ اُخْرٰى

{And no bearer of burden shall bear the burden of another} (6:164, 17:15, 35:18, 39:7) (Sayyiduna) Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said, after that, (Indeed) Allah is He who makes one to laugh and to weep." (A reference to 53:43, He meant to say that the implication of that verse was like what he said.)

Then, (Sayyiduna) Ibn Abu Mulaykah رضی اللہ عنہ concluded his narration, "Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said nothing (on hearing this)."[1]

COMMENTARY: [2] At the time of the salah (prayer) of fajr on Wednesday 26th Dhul HIjjah 23 AH, as Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ stood in the mihrab and commenced the salah (prayer).

suddenly the slave of Sayyiduna Mughirah ibn Shu'bah رضی اللہ عنہ, Abu Luluah who was lying in wait behind him pounced on him with a large dual edged knife. He struck on his ribs and hit him six times in all. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ fell down and was carried home. News of his killing spread all over Madinah like wild fire and people thronged at his house. Sayyiduna Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ was one of them. He saw Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ in a pool of blood and was stunned and cried involuntarily, saying. "O brother, O chief!" But, he did not wail He neither shrieked nor was his voice sing song. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ nevertheless, asked him to desist lest he transgress and violate the Shari'ah (divine law).

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا did not deny the hadith but rejected the deduction of Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ from the hadith. The hadith itself is sahih and there is no doubt about it. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Abdullah deduced that the dead person is punished for the weeping of his people over him whether he is a believer or an un believer.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said that these words of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم are about disbelievers. A disbeliever is punished anyway whether his folk weep over him or not. Of course, if they weep then his punishment is augmented because he feels pleased when they weep. So much so that some of the disbelievers left dying instruction that mourning should be observed on their death.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا relied for her opinion on the verse (6:164)

وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِّزْرَ اُخْرٰى

{No bearer of burdens can bear the burden of another}

The sin of anyone cannot be recorded against another person and, hence, no one else can be punished for the sin of a sinner himself. If the folk of the dead weep or wail, it is their deed, why should their doing be recorded against the dead person?" why should he be punished for their sins.

Then, Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ too upheld the verdict of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ, saying that a person's laughing and weeping, his pleasure and displeasure are all from Allah who alone has created them. Hence, how is weeping liable to be punished?

However, this suggestion of Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ is untenable, for every deed of the creatures is created by Allah. A person only does it and reward or punishment follows on it. For instance, if anyone laughs on seeing another Muslim out of happiness then he earns reward, but if he laughs to ridicule him then he commits a sin. In the same manner are other things, like happiness and sorrow, for they may got reward or punishment. Hence, the suggestion of Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ can be worthy if 'laughing and weeping' are involuntary, but if laughing or weeping is at the person's discretion then reward or punishment will follow.

Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said nothing on hearing Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ not because he conceded to the opinion of Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ, but because he decided to end the discussion in the fashion of the learned.

DO NOT WEEP OVER THE DEAD

(١٧٤٣) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ لَمَّا جَاءَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَتْلُ ابْنِ حَارِثَةَ وَجَعْفَرٍ وَّ ابْنِ رَوَاحَةَ جَلَسَ

1743. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was informed of the martyrdom of (Sayyiduna) Ibn Harithah رضى الله عنه, Ja'far رضى الله عنه and Ibn Rawahah رضى الله عنه (in the battle of Mutah) he sat down, grief apparent on him. She looked at him from the crevice of the door. A man came to him and spoke of the weeping of the women of Ja'far رضى الله عنه. So, he instructed the man to forbid them from weeping and he went but came a second time for they did not obey. He again sent him to prevent them (from weeping). He came a third time, saying, "By Allah, they have got the better of us, O Messenger of Allah's (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضى الله عنها thought that he said, "pour dust in their mouths. She exclaimed thereupon (to the man), "May Allah humble you! You could not do what Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded you to do and you also did not cease to irk him."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words 'pour dust in their mouths' perhaps are a figurative speech to say, 'Leave them alone. They are in a state of shock when advice will have no effect on them.'

(١٧٤٤) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ لَمَّا مَاتَ اَبُوْسَلَمَةَ قُلْتُ غَرِيْبٌ وَّفِيْ اَرْضِ غُرْبَةٍ لَاَبْكِيَنَّهُ بُكَآءً يُتَحَدَّثُ عَنْهُ فَكُنْتُ قَدْ تَهَيَّاْتُ لِلْبُكَآءِ عَلَيْهِ اِذَا اَقْبَلَتِ امْرَاَةٌ تُرِيْدُ اَنْ تُسْعِدَنِيْ فَاسْتَقْبَلَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتُرِيْدِيْنَ اَنْ تُدْخِلِي الشَّيْطَانَ بَيْتًا اَخْرَجَهُ اللّٰهُ مِنْهُ مَرَّتَيْنِ وَكَفَفْتُ عَنِ الْبُكَآءِ فَلَمْ اَبْكِ (رواه مسلم)

1744. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنه narrated that when Sayyiudna Abu Salamah رضى الله عنه died, she thought that he was a stranger in an alien land so she would weep for him such a weeping as would be exemplary. Thus, she prepared for the weeping over him, when, behold! A woman arrive with intention to join and help her. But, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم confronted her (before she came in) and asked, "Is it your aim to bring the devil into a house from which Allah has thrown him out twice?" She, therefore, refrained from weeping and wept not (as Shari'ah (divine law) has disallowed).[2]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنه did not know till then that it was disallowed to weep aloud and to wail otherwise she would not have done that which Shri'ah had forbidden.

The devil was cast out from the house when Abu Salamah رضى الله عنه had thrown out disbelief and polytheism to embrace Islam. The second time the devil was cast when Abu Salamah رضى الله عنه departed from the dark, ignorant world with faith and Islam.

WAILING NOT ALLOWED

(١٧٤٥) وَعَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيْرٍ قَالَ أُغْمِيَ عَلَى عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ رَوَاحَةَ فَجَعَلَتْ أُخْتُهُ عَمْرَةُ تَبْكِيْ وَا جَبَلَاهُ وَاكَذَا وَاكَذَا تُعَدِّدُ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ حِيْنَ اَفَاقَ مَاقُلْتِ شَيْئًا اِلَّا قِيْلَ لِيْ اَنْتَ كَذٰلِكَ زَادَ فِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فَلَمَّا مَاتَ لَمْ تَبْكِ عَلَيْهِ (رواه البخاری)

1745. Sayyiduna an-Numan ibn Bashir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (Sayyiduna) Abdullah ibn Rawahah (fell ill so much that he) fainted. His sister, Amrah, wept (profusely) and shrieked, "O mountain how sad! O this and that how sad! O this and that how sad! O such and such how Sad!" She recounted his goodness. When he regained consciousness, he said, 'You did not say anything but I was asked, "Are you like that?" Another version also has: when he died, she did not weep over him. [1]

(١٧٤٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسٰى قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا مِنْ مَيِّتٍ يَّمُوْتُ فَيَقُوْمُ بَاكِيْهِمْ فَيَقُوْلُ وَاجَبَلَاهُ وَاسَيِّدَاهُ وَنَحْوَ ذٰلِكَ اِلَّا وَكَّلَ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ مَلَكَيْنِ يَلْهَزَانِهٖ وَيَقُوْلَانِ اَهٰكَذَا كُنْتَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ حَسَنٌ۔

1746. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "If anyone dies and anyone mourning for him says, 'O the mountains! O the chief!' or something like that, then Allah appoint over him two angels who beat him on the chest and ask him, 'where you like that?'[2]

COMMENTARY: The dead, in the hadith, could also mean the dying.

Previously, this question has been discussed against the hadith # 1742 and # 1724. More discussion follows here.

Allahmah (leaned Scholar) Suyuti رحمہ اللہ has said in sharh us Sudur about he hadith (# `742); 'The dead is punished for the keeping of his people over him, that different opinions are expressed about it. He has enumerated the various versions in sequence.

(1) This hadith means what is apparent from its words and is absolute, irrespective of whether or not there is a will about it, or the dead is a disbeliever or not. If anyone wails over the dead then the dead is punished. This is Suyyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ interpreted it.

(2) The dead person is no it subjected at all, to punishment for the weeping of his folk.

(3) Punishment depends on the situation. The dead person already undergoes when his folk are weeping over him, but the punishment is not because of their weeping. Rather it is because of his sins and evil deeds.

(4) This hadith is specifically about the disbelievers.

Both the foregoing interpretations belong to Sayidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ.

(5) This hadith and the warning are particularly about the person whose people are used to wailing. This is the contention of Imam Bukhari.

(6) This hadith is about one who instructs his folks and heirs to wail over him after his death.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1005, Ibn Majah # 1594, Musnad Ahmad # 19737.

(7) This hadith concerns one who does not instruct his folk not to wail over him knowing that they are liable to observe wailing after his death. It is wajib (expedient) for such people to forbid their folk to wail after them.

(8) The dead is punished when his folk wail over him and say about him such thing as are evil in the eyes of Shari'ah (divine law), as people during the Jahiliyah (ignorance period) said about their dead, 'O you who have rendered women widows.' 'O who have orphaned children.' 'O who have ruined the house.'

(9) Punishment is the wrath of the angels because of describing the dead in the mentioned manner while weeping.

(10) When the family of the dead wail, the dead is subjected to punishment in his grave.

Some people say that punishment means the weeping of bereaved in a wrong way not valid in Shari'ah (divine law). Then the dead experienced a severe spiritual pain and he is grieved. It is like when a soul goes from the world to the barzakh, the souls that are already there ask the new comer about their people in the world. If one of them gets an adverse report of its relatives committing sin then it feels grieved and sad If the report discloses that they are pious then the concerned soul it elated.

In short, if the dead person is himself responsible for the wailing, in any way, then the punishment mentioned in the hadith will be deemed to be in its real meaning, If they wail, he will be punished.

If the dead is not responsible in any way and does not like such things, then punishment will mean that he will be grieved. He might be grieved when he is on the point of death, or after death and he might be a disbeliever or a Muslim. In this regard, all are equally effected.

In this way, the verse of t he Quran (6:164) and the absolute ahadith on this subject are reconciled.

WEEPING WITHOUT SHRIEKING

(١٧٤٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ مَاتَ مَيِّتٌ مِّنْ اٰلِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاجْتَمَعَ النِّسَآءُ يَبْكِيْنَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَامَ عُمَرُ يَنْهَا هُنَّ وَيَطْرُدُ هُنَّ فقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعْهُنَّ يَا عُمَرُ فَاِنَّ الْعَيْنَ دَامِعَةٌ وَالْقَلْبُ مُصَابٌ وَالْعَهْدُ قَرِيْبٌ(رواه احمد و النسائى)

1747. Sayyiduna 'Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that someone of the family of Allah's Messenger died. The women gathered and wept for the dead. Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه stood up and forbade them (the relatives) and drove away others (the strangers). Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Leave them alone, O Umar, for the eyes weep, the heart aches and affliction is recent."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه stopped the woman because he thought they might exceed and begin to shriek. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised him to let women vent their natural feelings and not curb their innate emotions.

(١٧٤٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ مَاتَتْ زَيْنَبُ بِنْتُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَبَكَتِ النِّسَآءُ فَجَعَلَ عُمَرُ يَضْرِبُهُنَّ بِسَوْطِهٖ فَاَخَّرَهٗ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِيَدِهٖ وَقَالَ مَهْلًا يَا عُمَرُ ثُمَّ قَالَ اِيَّاكُنَّ وَنَعِيْقَ الشَّيْطَانِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اِنَّهٗ مَهْمَا كَانَ مِنَ الْعَيْنِ وَمِنَ الْقَلْبِ فَمِنَ اللّٰهِ عَزَّوَجَلَّ وَمِنَ الرَّحْمَةِ وَمَا كَانَ مِنَ الْيَدِ وَمِنَ اللِّسَانِ فَمِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ۔ (رواه احمد)

1748. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when (Sayyidah) Zaynab رضی اللہ عنہا daughter of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died, the women wept. But (Sayiduna) Umar رضی اللہ عنہ beat them with his whip. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم put him back with his hands, saying, "Be mild, O Omar." To the woman, he said, "Beware of the shrieking of the devil." Then, he said, "That which is from the eye and from the heart is from Allah's Mighty and Glorious, and represents mercy. But, that which is from the hand and the tongue is from the devil."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hand is instrumental in beating oneself, slapping, tearing clothing, etc. The tongue wails, shrieks and utter that Allah does not like.

ONE YEAR'S VIGIL OVER GRAVE

(١٧٤٩) وَعَنِ الْبُخَارِيِّ تَعْلِيْقًا قَالَ لَمَّا مَاتَ الْحَسَنُ بْنُ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ ضَرَبَتِ امْرَأَتُهُ الْقُبَّةَ عَلٰى قَبْرِهٖ سَنَةً ثُمَّ رَفَعَتْ فَسَمِعَتْ صَائِحًا يَقُوْلُ اَلَا هَلْ وَجَدُوْا مَا فَقَدُوْا فَاَجَابَهٗ اٰخَرُ بَلْ يَئِسُوْا فَانْقَلَبُوْا۔

1749. Imam Bukhari رحمہ اللہ narrated in a ta'liq from (without a line of transmission) that when Sayyiduna Hasan رحمہ اللہ son of (Sayyiduna) Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ died, his wife pitched a tent over his grave for one year when she dismantled it. (At that) she heard a voice shout, "Did they find what they had last?" Another (voice) replied, "Rather they are dejected, and have departed![2]

COMMENTARY: The son of Sayyiduna Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was also named Hasan رحمہ اللہ. When he died, his wife erected a tent and lived in it over the grave for one year. She refreshed his memory every day.

Perhaps, she did it to have his friends, etc assemble there for praying for him.

A CUSTOM OF JAHILIYAH (IGNORANCE PERIOD)

(١٧٥٠) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ وَّ اَبِيْ بَرْزَةَ قَالَا خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ جَنَازَةٍ فَرَاٰى قَوْمًا قَدْ طَرَحُوْا اَرْدِيَتَهُمْ يَمْشُوْنَ فِيْ قُمُصٍ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَبِفِعْلِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ تَاْخُذُوْنَ اَوْبِصَنِيْعِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ تَشَبَّهُوْنَ لَقَدْ هَمَمْتُ اَنْ اَدْعُوَ عَلَيْكُمْ دَعْوَةً تَرْجِعُوْنَ فِيْ غَيْرِ صُوَرِكُمْ قَالَ فَاَخَذُوْا اَرْدِيَتَهُمْ وَلَمْ يَعُوْدُوْا لِذٰلِكَ (رواه ابن ماجة)

there some people who had removed their cloaks and were walking in (their) shirts. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, 'Will you stick to the doings of the Jahiliyah (ignorance period)?" Or "will you resemble the people of the jahiliyah(ignorance period) in what they did? I had resolved to pray against you that you return (home) in an appearance different from yours" They took their cloaks and did never return to that (practice).[1]

COMMENTARY: In ancient times people wore a cloak over their shirts. The pre-Islamic people removed in to show their state of grief.

Teebi رحمه الله pointed out that this seemingly minor neglect invited a serious warning, so we can imagine the fate of those who follow more complex and prohibited customs.

WHEN SHARI'AH (DIVINE LAW) IS VIOLATED DO NOT ACCOMPANY THE FUNERAL

(١٧٥١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ تُتْبَعَ جَنَازَةٌ مَعَهَا رَانَّةٌ (رواه احمد وابن ماجة)

1751. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade going with a funeral that had a wailing woman with it.[2]

COMMENTARY: While it is sunnah (as per prophet's teaching) to walk with the sunnah (as per prophet's practice), yet this sunnah (Practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) may be abandoned when anything contrary to sunnah (Prophet's teaching) is perpetrated.

NEW BORN WILL TAKE PARENTS TO PARADISE

(١٧٥٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ لَهُ مَاتَ ابْنٌ لِّيْ فَوَجَدْتُّ عَلَيْهِ هَلْ سَمِعْتَ مِنْ خَلِيْلِكَ صَلَوَاتُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَامُهُ شَيْئًا يُّطِيْبُ بِاَنْفُسِنَا عَنْ مَوْتَانَا قَالَ نَعَمْ سَمِعْتُهُ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ صِغَارُهُمْ دَعَامِيْصُ الْجَنَّةِ يَلْقٰى اَحَدُهُمْ اَبَاهُ فَيَأْخُذُ بِنَاحِيَةِ ثَوْبِهٖ فَلَا يُفَارِقُهٗ حَتّٰى يُدْخِلَهُ الْجَنَّةَ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَ اَحْمَدُ وَ اللَّفْظُ لَهٗ۔

1752. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that a man said to him that his (young) son had died and he was sorrowful over that. He asked, "Have you heard anything from your friend, may Allah's blessing and peace be on him, that may comfort us concerning our dead." He said, "Yes. I heard him, may Allah's blessing and peace be on him say that their young children will be like (الاطفال دعا ميص الجنة) da'amis of paradise. When one of them meet his (or her) father, he will grasp the edge of his garment and not let go will he is admitted to paradise."[3]

COMMENTARY: Da'amis is the plural of Da'amus. (At the end of this commentary. We reproduce the relative paragraph from lane's lexicon against the word)

The dead child is compared to da'mus because it will roam about in paradise. There will be no restriction in paradise in children's movement just as there is no bar on children in the world. They can enter any house, any place and will not be stopped.

This hadith mentions only father perhaps because the subject concerned a father. However, the child will also get its mother admitted to paradise. Indeed, some ahadith

REWARD WHEN CHILDREN DIE

(١٧٥٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ جَاءَتِ امْرَأَةٌ إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ ذَهَبَ الرِّجَالُ بِحَدِيْثِكَ فَاجْعَلْ لَّنَا مِنْ نَّفْسِكَ يَوْمًا نَأْتِيْكَ فِيْهِ تُعَلِّمُنَا مِمَّا عَلَّمَكَ اللّٰهُ فَقَالَ اجْتَمِعْنَ فِيْ يَوْمِ كَذَا وَكَذَا فِيْ مَكَانِ كَذَا وَكَذَا فَاجْتَمَعْنَ فَأَتَاهُنَّ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَعَلَّمَهُنَّ مِمَّا عَلَّمَهُ اللّٰهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ مَا مِنْكُنَّ اِمْرَأَةٌ تُقَدِّمُ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهَا مِنْ وَلَدِهَا ثَلَاثَةً إِلَّا كَانَ لَهَا حِجَابًا مِّنَ النَّارِ فَقَالَتِ امْرَأَةٌ مِّنْهُنَّ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَوِ اثْنَيْنِ فَأَعَادَتْهَا مَرَّتَيْنِ ثُمَّ قَالَ وَاثْنَيْنِ وَاثْنَيْنِ وَاثْنَيْنِ (رواه البخارى)

1753. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضى الله عنه narrated that a woman come to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, the men do benefit from your sayings. So, do set us aside a day with yourself that we may come to you on it and you may teach us from what Allah has taught you." He said, "Assemble all of you on such and such a day at such and such a place." Accordingly, they did assembled there and he came to them and imparted to them some of the knowledge that Allah had taught him. Thereafter, he said, "If three children of a woman among you die before her then they will be a before her then they will be a barrier from hell for her." A woman among them asked, "O Messenger of Allah, or two?" She asked that twice. He said, "Also two, two, two!"[1]

He agreed, "Or two!" They again asked, "Or one?" Then he continued, "By Him in whose hand is my soul, surely the foetus

COMMENTARY: The mother had not yet established a motherly relationship with the adoration. In spite of that, their relationship is said to be joined by the umbilical cord. Imagine the reward that will accrue to the mother when her infant, whom she has given her love, dies.

1755. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'He who is predeceased by three minor children will find them as a strong fortress for him against the fire." (Sayyiduna) Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I have been predeceased by two." He said, "And, two!" Then, Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b (whose kunyah was) Abu Mundhir, the chief, of the reciters of the Quran, said, "I have lost one child ahead of me.' He said, "And, one also!"[2]

(Tirmidhi also has; "But that is only if patience is shown at the first shock.

1756. Sayyiduna Qurrah al-Muzani رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man used to visit the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم along with one of his sons. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him, "Do you love him (so much that you keep him with you always)?" He said, "O Messenger of Allah, may Allah love you as I love him." Then, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم missed him and asked (people) what had happened to the man's son. They said, "O Messenger of Allah, he has died." So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked (the man when they met), "would you not love to meet him at whichever the gates of paradise you come (on the day of resurrection)?" Someone asked, "O Messenger of Allah, does this apply to him alone or to all of us?" He said, "Rather, to all of you."[3]

ABORTION WILL TAKE ITS PARENTS TO PARADISE

1757. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that the aborted child will argue with its Lord when He sends its parents to hell. It will be told, "O the aborted child who argues with its Lord, take your parents to paradise." So, it will pull them with its umbilical cord and bring them into paradise.[1]

PATIENCE IS REWARDED WITH PARADISE

(١٧٥٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ تَبَارَكَ وَ تَعَالٰى ابْنَ اٰدَمَ اِنْ صَبَرْتَ وَاحْتَسَبْتَ عِنْدَ الصَّدَمَةِ الْاُوْلٰى لَمْ اَرْضَ لَكَ ثَوَابًا دُوْنَ الْجَنَّةِ(رواه ابن ماجة)

1758. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah, Blessed and Exalted, says, "O son of Aadam, if you exercise patience and seek reward at the first shock, I shall not be pleased for you with a reward lesser than paradise."[2]

MERIT OF ISTIRJA

(١٧٥٩) وَعَنِ الْحُسَيْنِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ مُّسْلِمٍ وَّلَا مُسْلِمَةٍ يُّصَابُ بِمُصِيْبَةٍ فَيَذْكُرُهَا وَاِنْ طَالَ عَهْدُهَا فَيُحْدِثُ لِذٰلِكَ اِسْتِرْجَاعًا اِلَّا جَدَّدَ اللّٰهُ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالٰى لَهٗ عِنْدَ ذٰلِكَ فَاَعْطَاهُ مِثْلَ اَجْرِهَا يَوْمَ اُصِيْبَ بِهَا(رواه احمد و البيهقى فى شعب الايمان)

1759. Sayyiduna Husayn ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'If a Muslim man or woman suffers a hardship and recalls it, even after a long period of time and says:

اِنَّا لِلّٰهِ وَاِنَّا اِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُوْنَ

Allah, Blessed and Exalted, renews a reward whenever it is said like the reward for it on the day he was afflicted."[3]

(١٧٦٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا انْقَطَعَ شِسْعُ اَحَدِكُمْ فَلْيَسْتَرْجِعْ فَاِنَّهٗ مِنَ الْمَصَائِبِ۔

1761. Sayyiduna Umm Darda رضى الله عنه narrated that she heard Sayyiduna Abu as-Darda رضى الله عنه say that he heard Abu al-Qasim صلى الله عليه وسلم say that Allah, Blessed and Exalted, said, "O Easa, I shall send after you an ummah who will praise Allah when what pleases them takes place with them, and who will seek their reward from Allah and exercise patience when that which displeases them afflicts them, though they will not possess forbearance and intelligence." So, he asked, "My Lord, how will it be without having forbearance and intelligence?" He said, "I shall grant them some portion of My forbearance and knowledge."[1]

COMMENTARY: Here, ummah means the obedient and righteous followers of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. That they will not possess intelligence and forbearance means that they will lose these things because of distress. Yet they will show endurance and seek reward. In the absence of these two traits a person cannot endure yet they will be enabled to do so. Allah will cause them to have the two traits without efforts, as His own grant.

CHAPTER - VIII

VISITING GRAVES بَابُ زِيَارَةِ الْقُبُوْرِ

The ahadith in this chapter, as well as the aathar, speak of the merit and etiquette of visiting graves. The relative rules and issues are also given place here. The purpose of visiting graves and what is achieved on going there will be brought out, too.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْأَوَّلُ

MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE) TO VISIT GRAVES

(١٧٦٢) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنْ زِيَارَةِ الْقُبُوْرِ فَزُوْرُوْهَا وَنَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنْ لُحُوْمِ الْأَضَاحِيِّ فَوْقَ ثَلَاثٍ فَأَمْسِكُوْا مَا بَدَا لَكُمْ وَنَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنِ النَّبِيْذِ إِلَّا فِيْ سِقَاءٍ فَاشْرَبُوْا فِي الْأَسْقِيَةِ كُلِّهَا وَلَا تَشْرَبُوْا مُسْكِرًا (رواه مسلم)

1762. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I had forbidden you to visit graves, but you may (now) visit them. I had forbidden you to (store and) eat flesh of sacrificial animals beyond three days, but you may (now) store that as long as you please. I had forbidden you nabidh except

(to drink) in a waterskin so you may drink in all kinds (of vessels), but not drink what intoxicates."[1]

COMMENTARY: In early Islam, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had forbidden visit to graves because the Jahiliyah (ignorance period) was recent and not totally out of minds. It was possible that visitors to graves might perpetrate what disbelievers and associators did. Later, when Islam had set in, he permitted visit to graves. The ulama (Scholars) agree that it is mustahab (desirable) to visit graves. The heart softens and one remembers death. Moreover, it is sunnah (as per teaching of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) to pray for mercy and forgiveness of the dead in the graveyard. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to visit graves of the Baqi and offer salaam to t he dead and pray for them.

WOMEN VISITING GRAVES

The ulama (Scholars) differ on whether women may visit graves or the initial command forbidding visit to graves continues to be applied to them. The correct ruling is that women are allowed to visit the grave of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم only, but it is not proper for them to visit g raves of other people.

This question has been discussed in the commentary against the hadith # 740 in the chapter on mosques, etc. The juristic traditions are also cited there.

KINDS OF VISITS

With regard to purpose, there are many reasons for visiting grave.

(i) Only to think of death and the hereafter. To achieve this, it is enough to see the graves without worrying about who the dweller is and how he behaved in life.

(ii) To make supplication, seek forgiveness and consign reward and so on. This is masnun for every Muslim.

(iii) To receive blessing. To achieve this, graves of saintly men and spiritual leaders should be visited because there are many blessings from them while they are in the barzakh.

(iv) To give rights of the relatives and friends, like parents and so on. According to hadith Abu Nu'aym, "If anyone visits the graves of his parents or one of them on Friday, then this act will be like performing hajj."

(v) To promote or respect religious fraternity and love. According to hadith, "If anyone comes to the grave of any believing brother and offers him salaam and prays for him, then the dead person recognizes him and responds to his salaam (greetings)."

MANNER AND COMMAND

(i) If anyone goes to a grave to pray for his forgiveness and to consign reward to him, he must stand opposite to the face of the grave-dweller with his face towards the grave and back towards the qiblah.

(ii) At the grave, he must first offer salaam to the grave-dweller.

(iii) He must not touch the grave.

(iv) He must not kiss the grave.

(v) He must not bow in respect opposite the grave, nor must he prostrate to it.

(vi) He must not wipe the dust of the grave on his face as the Christians do.

It is extremely misguided and wrong to do anything that has no sanction in Shari'ah (divine law).
It is not makruh (unbecoming) to recite the Quran near the grave.
It is mustahab (desirable), if any one dies, to recite there surah al-Ikhlas seven times and consign its reward to the grave-dweller.
It is more meritorious to visit graves on Friday particularly in the early part of the day. This is what people with the two sacred cities of Makkah and Madinah. They visited al-Thalla and al-Baqi early on Friday.
It is also stated that the dead is granted more knowledge and perception on Friday than on any other day so that the grave-dweller recognizes the visitors to his grave on Friday better than on any other day.
As stated previously, graves should not be trodden on unnecessarily.
It is mustahab (desirable) that some charity should be given in Allah's name for seven days after death of someone on behalf of the dead.
The meat of the sacrificial animal was not allowed to be stored beyond three days in early Islam because of extreme poverty. Everyone could not make a sacrifice. People were encouraged to share to flesh of sacrificial animals with the poor. When Allah brought the Muslims out of poverty into affluency, this order was rescinded.
Nabidh is a kind of wine. Dates or grapes are soaked in water for some days. The result is an intoxicating drink. Nabidh is a permitted drink for as long as it does not turn into an intoxicant. In early Islam, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had advised that nabidh should be kept in waterskins because a waterskin is thin and nabidh does not turn into an intoxicant in it rapidly. He disallowed that nabidh should be kept in any other vessel because it ferments very quickly in them and becomes an intoxicating drink. Since wine had been forbidden recently, it was feared that people would turn to nabidh for intoxication. When people had adjusted themselves to teetotalism, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم allowed that nabidh may be drunk in any vessel but he made it clear that it is allowed only till it does not intoxicate. The prohibition does not concern a vessel but only intoxication.

PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم AT HIS MOTHER'S GRAVE

(١٧٦٣) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ زَارَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَبْرَ أُمِّهِ فَبَكَى وَأَبْكَى مَنْ حَوْلَهُ فَقَالَ اسْتَأْذَنْتُ رَبِّي فِي أَنْ أَسْتَغْفِرَ لَهَا فَلَمْ يُؤْذَنْ لِي وَاسْتَأْذَنْتُهُ فِي أَنْ أَزُورَ قَبْرَهَا فَأُذِنَ لِي فَزُورُوا الْقُبُورَ فَإِنَّهَا تُذَكِّرُ الْمَوْتَ (رواه مسلم)

1763. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم visited his mother's grave. He wept and caused those around him to weep. He said, "I sought permission of my Lord that I might make istighfar for my mother but permission was not given to me. And I sought His permission that I might visit her grave, and it was granted to me. So, visit graves. That reminds one of death."[1]

COMMENTARY: The name of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم mother was Aamnah. When he was six years old, she took him to Madinah to meet her parents. When she was returning to Makkah, she died at Abwa a place on the way. She was buried there. Once the Prophet صلى الله

[1] Muslim # 108, 976, Abu Dawud # 3234, Nasa'i # 2032, Ibn Majah # 1572, Musnad Ahmad 2.441.

عليه وسلم went to her grave but was overtaken by grief to such an extent that he cried very much. Those people who were with him were overwhelmed too and began to cry with him.

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PARENTS

We learn from this hadith that the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم parents died as disbelievers. This is what the earlier scholars say. However, later day scholars have proved that they were Muslims. They have suggested three possibilities of their Islam.

(i) They followed the religion of Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Ibrahim عليه السلام.

(ii) They never received the message of Islam and died during the days of fatrah (the period when there was no Prophet, between prophet Easa عليه السلام and Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

(iii) Allah received t hem on the prayer of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (as a miracle) for so much time that they could express belief (in Islam and) the Prophet's messengership. However, the hadith about this is itself da'if (weak) but it is made correct and hasan through a number of lines of transmission.

This thing was unknown to the earlier scholars but Allah disclosed it to the later day scholars. Suyuti رحمه الله has sat at rest doubts of the dissenters in this regard with sound arguments in his writings.

Since this issue is very delicate, the ulama (Scholars) decide that silence should be observed about it. Allah alone knows the correct thing.

WHAT TO SAY AT GRAVEYARD

(١٧٦٤) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعَلِّمُهُمْ إِذَا خَرَجُوْا إِلَى الْمَقَابِرِ اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ اَهْلَ الدِّيَارِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ وَإِنَّا اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ بِكُمْ لَلَاحِقُوْنَ نَسْأَلُ اللّٰهَ لَنَا وَلَكُمُ الْعَافِيَةَ (رواه مسلم)

1764. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم taught them to say when they went to the graveyards:

اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ اَهْلَ الدِّيَارِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ وَإِنَّا اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ لَلَاحِقُوْنَ نَسْأَلُ اللّٰهَ لَنَا وَلَكُمُ الْعَافِيَةَ

"Peace be on you, O the occupiers of the dwellings, among the believers and t he Muslims. And, we, insha Allah, shall join you. We pray to Allah for security for ourselves and for you."[1]

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

(١٧٦٥) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ مَرَّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِقُبُوْرٍ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ فَأَقْبَلَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِوَجْهِهٖ فَقَالَ اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ يَا اَهْلَ الْقُبُوْرِ يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ لَنَا وَلَكُمْ اَنْتُمْ سَلَفُنَا وَنَحْنُ بِالْاَثَرِ. رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ

1765. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed by some graves in Madinah. He faced them and said:

[1] Muslim # 104-957, Ibn Majah # 1547, Musnad Ahmad 5-353.

اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ يَا اَهْلَ الْقُبُوْرِ يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ لَنَا وَلَكُمْ اَنْتُمْ سَلَفُنَا وَنَحْنُ بِالْاَثَرِ

"Peace be on you, O dwellers of the graves! May Allah forgive us and you! You have preceded us while we shall follow."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is mustahab (desirable) for anyone to turn his face towards the face of the dead person before conveying salaam to him. He must continue to do it while praying and reciting surah al-FAtihah. The ulama (Scholars) are one about it, except Ibn Hajar رحمه الله who says that while making supplication and reciting surah al-Fatihah it is mustahab (desirable) to face the qiblah.

Mazhar رحمه الله said that visiting a dead person is like meeting him while he was alive. Hence, when visiting a dead or his grave, one should face his body or his grave just as one did face him in his life. Also, the same manners and methods must be observed as were done during his lifetime. For example, if during his lifetime, one respected him and did not sit very close to him then the same thing must be done at his grave and one should stand or sit at a distance. If one was very close in life then at the grave too one must stand or sit very close.

At the grave one must recite surah al-Fatihah (once) and surah al-Ikhlas three times and convey the reward to the dead and make supplication for him. But, he must not touch the grave or kiss it because this is what the Christian do. Also, one must not prostrate oneself at the grave, nor how, to more round it is very sinful, and contrary to the precession of Islam.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WENT TO THE GRAVEYARD TOWARDS THE END OF THE NIGHT

(١٧٦٦) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلَّمَا كَانَ لَيْلَتُهَا مِنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ اٰخِرِ اللَّيْلِ اِلَى الْبَقِيْعِ فَيَقُوْلُ اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ دَارَ قَوْمٍ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ وَاَتَاكُمْ مَّا تُوْعَدُوْنَ غَدًا مُّؤَجَّلُوْنَ وَاِنَّا اِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ بِكُمْ لَاحِقُوْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِاَهْلِ بَقِيْعِ الْغَرْقَدِ (رواه مسلم)

1766. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that every such night when it was her turn with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم he went toward the last portion of the night to al-Baqi these he would say:

اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ دَارَ قَوْمٍ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ وَاَتَاكُمْ مَّا تُوْعَدُوْنَ غَدًا مُّؤَجَّلُوْنَ وَاِنَّا اِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ بِكُمْ لَاحِقُوْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِاَهْلِ بَقِيْعِ الْغَرْقَدِ

"Peace be on you, the house of the believing people. That which was promised to you will come to you tomorrow. Respite is given to you. And, we shall, insha Allah, join you. O Allah, forgive the dwellers of Baqi al-gharqad."[2]

COMMENTARY: Al-Baqi is where are the graves of the people of Madinah. This graveyard is also called Janat ul Baqi. There are many trees of Gharqad here. This is why it is called in this supplication Baqi ul Gharqad. (Gharqad is a species of tree, large and perhaps Thorny).

1767. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that she asked, "O Messenger of Allah. What may I say, meaning, during visits to the graves?" He said, say:

اَلسَّلَامُ عَلٰى اَهْلِ الدِّيَارِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَالْمُسْلِمِيْنَ وَ يَرْحَمُ اللّٰهُ الْمُسْتَقْدِمِيْنَ مِنَّا وَالْمُسْتَاخِرِيْنَ وَاِنَّا اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ بِكُمْ لَلَاحِقُوْنَ

(Peace be on the dwellers of house of the believers and the Muslims. May Allah have mercy on the predecessors among us and the deferred one. We shall join you. Surely, insha Allah.)"[1]

COMMENTARY: According to a hadith of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said. "If anyone goes to the grave of a believing brother whom he knew in the world and offers salaam to him, then the grave-dweller recognizes him and gives a response to his salaam."

VISITING GRAVES OF PARENTS

(١٧٦٨) وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ النُّعْمَانِ يَرْفَعُ الْحَدِيْثَ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ زَارَ قَبْرَ اَبَوَيْهِ اَوْ اَحَدِهِمَا فِيْ كُلِّ جُمُعَةٍ غُفِرَلَهٗ وَكُتِبَ بَرًّا۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ مُرْسَلًا۔

1768. Sayyidua Muhammad ibn Nu'man رحمه الله narrated that hadith in a marfu manner that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone visits the grave or his parents, or the grave of one of them, on every Friday (or on any day of the week), then he is forgiven and is recorded as being good to his parents."[2]

PERMISSION TO VISIT GRAVES & THE REASON FOR IT

(١٧٦٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كُنْتُ نَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنْ زِيَارَةِ الْقُبُوْرِ فَزُوْرُوْهَا فَاِنَّهَا تُزَهِّدُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَتُذَكِّرُ الْاٰخِرَةَ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1769. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "I had forbidden you to visit graves, but (now) visit them. In this world, they help you to be abstinent, and they serve as a reminder of the hereafter."[3]

COMMENTARY: The hadith mentions why one may visit t he graves. These visits cause one to be disinterested with the world and the worldly things. If, after all, that is the end, then why should one incline to the world and boast about one's life. Great people were born in this world. Some of them took advantage of their kingdom and authority to claim divinity. Some were intoxicated with their power and wealth to demonstrate their superiority. Some took shelter behind science and inventions to challenges nature. Some used their status and office to throw peace into disorder and unrest resulting in rampant bloodshed. But, what was the end?

Alas! when they were buried under earth, there was no one to remember them. When they were cast into the seas, the very first wave thrust the frame of arrogance into the mouth of a sea animal and annihilation. When their bodies were entrusted of flames of fire, helplessness smiled at them.

The second reason for visiting graves is that it serves as a reminder of the next world. At the graveyard, one realizes that there is another world where one will go. On going there, one will have to account for each of one's deeds in this world.

It is the thought of death above that unveils the falsehood of the tastes of this world. It keeps one away from sin.

WOMEN DISALLOWED TO VISIT GRAVES

(١٧٧٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَعَنَ زَوَّارَاتِ الْقُبُوْرِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ
وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ وَّقَالَ قَدْرَاٰى بَعْضُ اَهْلِ الْعِلْمِ اَنَّ هٰذَا
كَانَ قَبْلَ اَنْ يُّرَخِّصَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ زِيَارَةِ الْقُبُوْرِ فَلَمَّا رَخَّصَ دَخَلَ فِيْ رُخْصَتِهِ الرِّجَالُ
وَالنِّسَآءُ وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ اِنَّمَا كُرِهَ زِيَارَةُ الْقُبُوْرِ لِلنِّسَآءِ لِقِلَّةِ صَبْرِهِنَّ وَكَثْرَةِ جَزْعِهِنَّ تَمَّ كَلَامُهُ۔

1770. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cursed women who visit ed graves frequently. [1]

Tirmidhi said that some ulama (Scholars) hold that this command was given before visit to graves was permitted. When the permission was given, it included both men and women. However some ulama (Scholars) insist that women are disallowed to visit graves because they lack enough patience and tend to become restless.

TREATMENT AFTER DEATH LIKE BEFORE DEATH

(١٧٧١) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كُنْتُ اَدْخُلُ بَيْتِيَ الَّذِيْ فِيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاِنِّيْ وَاضِعٌ
ثَوْبِيْ وَاَقُوْلُ اِنَّمَا هُوَ زَوْجِيْ وَاَبِيْ فَلَمَّا دُفِنَ عُمَرُ مَعَهُمْ فَوَاللّٰهِ مَا دَخَلْتُهُ اِلَّا وَاَنَا مَشْدُوْدَةٌ عَلَيَّ ثِيَابِيْ
حَيَآءً مِّنْ عُمَرَ (رواه احمد)

1771. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated, "When I went into my room in which Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (and Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ were buried), I put off my garment (meaning the overall sheet like scarf), saying to myself that only my husband and my father lay there. Later, when Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was also buried (in the room) next to them by Allah, I did not enter it without wrapping an overall garment (above my clothing) out of modesty in the presence of Umar رضی اللہ عنہ (because he was not a mahram)." COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that the same decorum be observed before the dead and the grave as was observed during his life time. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ used to say;

"If I had to walk on fire or stand on sharp sword till my feet burned (or cut off), that is preferable in my sight to walking on someone's grave. And I think that there is no difference in passing water at the graves and in the presence of people in market places."

In the same way, Ibn Abu ad-Dunya رحمہ اللہ wrote about Sulaym ibn Ghafir رحمہ اللہ that while he was in a graveyard, he had a strong urge to urinate. (seeing his condition) other people advised to alight from the riding beast and pass water. He said, "By Allah, I observe modesty before the dead as I do before the living."

Praise belongs to Allah, the Book of as-Salah (prayer) and the Book of al-Janaiz (Funerals) are over.

BOOK - VI

ZAKAT كتاب الزكوة

CHAPTER - I

MEANING: The literal meaning of zakah (Annual due charity) is: 'purity, blessing "increase." In the terminology of Shriah it is: 'to make a deserving person owner of so much portion of one's own property as is specified by Shari'ah."
If the literal meaning and the terminology of Shari'ah are read together, it becomes clear t hat paying to the deserving the designated portion purifies the wealth remaining in the hands of the payer of zakah (Annual due charity), Allah puts blessing into it and not only does it increase in this world but also there is (a blessing and) an increase in the reward in the hereafter from Allah. It purifies the owner of property of prayer of zakah (Annual due charity), of sins and evil traits like stinginess. This is why this deed is called zakah (Annual due charity).
Zakah (Annual due charity) is also called sadaqah (charity) because t his deed is evidence of the soundness and truth of the claim to faith (and belief) of the person who pays out a portion of his wealth and property. (Truthful fullness is sidq and sadaqa while sadaqah (charity) is charity)
WHEN DID ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) BECOME FARD: Sadaqat ul fitr was made wajib (obligatory) in 2nd Hijri. As for zakah (Annual due charity), while the ulama (Scholars) disagree on when it was made fard (compulsory), the correct opinion is that the command making zakah (Annual due charity) fard (compulsory) was enacted in Makkah before the hijrah but it was levied in Madinah on first Ramadan in the second hijri. In other words, zakah (Annual due charity) was declared fard (compulsory) on 1st Ramadan 2AH and the promulgation was made.
ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY)* WAS FARD (COMPULSORY) ON ALL UMMAHS: The general ruling is that zakah (Annual due charity) was never fard (compulsory) or wajib (obligatory) on the noble Prophets عليه السلام. However, just as salah (prayer) was fard (compulsory) for the previous ummahs, so too zakah (Annual due charity) was fard (compulsory) on every ummah preceding the ummah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, though there was difference in the rate and limit of property. It is confirmed, too, that the rules for zakah (Annual due charity) are very easy in the Islamic Shariah while they were not as easy in the legislations of the earlier Prophets. عليه السلام
SIGNIFICANCE & EMPHASIS OF ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY): In the Quran, zakah (Annual due charity) is mentioned thirty two times with salah (prayer). This not only shows that these two things are complementary but also expresses the merit and emphasis of zakah (Annual due charity). Then, zakah (Annual due charity) is also mentioned in the Quran by itself at many places. Allah has assured the prayers of zakah (Annual due charity) of mighty reward in both the worlds. At the same time, those who will not it have been warned so severely that hearts tremble at the thought of it. How wretched are they who refrain from discharging this important duty and are prepared to endure the punishment.

(We seek refuge in Allah)

Zakah (Annual due charity) is a major part of Islam. Its obligation is absolute. So, anyone who rejects it is a disbeliever. He who does not pay it is a great sinner and impious. Rather, the ulama (Scholars) say that one who does not pay zakah (Annual due charity) is liable to be killed. (Muhit ul Sarkhusi)

When wealth or property is in anyone's possession for one year and he is a sahib nisab then zakah (Annual due charity) becomes payable promptly, this being wajib (obligatory). Any kind of delay in its payment is sinful. However, some people say t hat at the end of the year, it does not become wajib (obligatory) promptly, but the wajib (obligatory) nature is deferred and if unpaid till death then it is sinful. (Nisab is the amount, or value of property on which it is liable to the zakah (Annual due charity), Sahib un Nisab is the owner of the minimum wealth or property on which zakah (Annual due charity) is payable).

ON WHOM IS ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) FARD (COMPULSORY): Zakah (Annual due charity) is fard (compulsory) on every Muslim who is free, sane and adult, provided he possesses the nisab and that has remained in his possession for one entire year. Besides, that should be free of debt and beyond his real needs. It should be nami (meaning, productive or which can increase), in numbers and value or in merely value intrinsically. Also, his ownership should be complete and perfect.

Zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on a disbeliever, slave, insane[1] and minor. It is not wajib (obligatory) on a sahib nisab who has not possessed nisab for a full year. However, if anyone possesses the nisab at the beginning of the year and at the end of it but not during the year then he will have to pay the zakah (Annual due charity) because this attracts the command of the year.

Zakah (Annual due charity) is not fard (compulsory) on a debtor to the extent of his debt. It is wajib (obligatory) on the property in excess of debt if it is to the limit of the nisab. It must be understood that the debt absolves one of zakah (Annual due charity) only when it is payable to fellowmen. The demands concerning vows, expiation, *fit*rah and such like as concern the Being of Allah, and no human being has a right to make a demand for them, do not absolve one from the payment of zakah (Annual due charity). However, such demand as though they concern Allah yet human beings have a right to receive them, like zakah (Annual due charity), ushr, kharaj (homage revenue), etc. and the imam (ruler) of the times can demand them behalf of Allah, absolve one from payment of zakah (Annual due charity), but the imam of the times may demand payment from the visible wealth, like livestock, trade merchandise that is brought into the city or takan out of it, and cash. As for t he property whose trading is done within the city limits, the ruler cannot demand it. If a wife demands her dower then zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) to the extent of the dower on his property.

It is stated in Bahr ur Raqa'iq that the reliable verdict is that debt is a deterrent to zakah (Annual due charity) and sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan). Debt is a determent whatever kind, prompt or deferred even the dowry deferred to any future time like divorce or death. But, some people assert that a deferred dowry is not a determent to payment of

[1] Provided insanity is for a year; if, after he becomes Sahib nisab, his insanity disappears to some extent, in the beginning of the year or end, zakah (Annual due charity) will be payable. If insanity comes over him once or twice a year then zakah (Annual due charity) is not fard (compulsory) on him. When it disappears, that will be deemed as the beginning of the year.

zakah (Annual due charity) because generally it is not demanded, as against prompt dowry which is demanded. Again, some ulama (Scholars) have said that if a husband intends to pay the dower then the deferred dowry is a deterrent to the obligation of zakah (Annual due charity), otherwise not because it is not counted as a debt.

There is a difference of opinion among Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and His two companions, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhamamad رحمه الله on the question; if a husband is rich then will his wife be deemed to be a ghaniyah[1] because of the answer (that is payable by her husband)? The two companions hold that she will be regarded to be a ghaniyah and will not be eligible to receive zakah (Annual due charity). Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله gave his final verdict that she is not ghaniyah. It must be borne in mind that this difference pertains merely to the prompt dower. As for as the deferred dower is concerned, all the three of them agree that such a woman shall not be considered a ghaniyah.

REAL NEEDS: These are:

Residential house, clothings, household utensils, conveyance like cycle, etc., Servants (slaves) weapons, books for scholars, professional tools for skilled workers.

If any one bought a house with intention to trade and that house is not for his residence then zakah (Annual due charity) will be wajib (obligatory) on him. In this way, other things may be surmised to. If the house, servants etc are in excess of the need but they are not trade merchandise then zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on them.

PERFECT OWNERSHIP: It is has stated in the foregoing lines that his ownership should be perfect and complete for zakah (Annual due charity) to be wajib (obligatory). This means that he should be the real owner of the property and it should be in his possession and at his discretion.

Zakah (Annual due charity) is not fard (compulsory) if property is not owned and not in control, or it is owned but not in hand, or it is in hand but not owned. Hence, there is no zakah (Annual due charity) on the property earned by a mukatab not on him as well as on the mukatab, because that property is not owned by the mukatab though it is in his hands. So, too, it is not in the hands of the mawla though he owns it. (Mukatab is a slave who ransoms himself with his owner's consent. Mawla is a freedman a slave, a protector, or a helper, or a master.)

Zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) even on property of which one is not certain, because though it is in one's ownership yet not in possession or hands. This kind of property is beyond one's control. There are many types of it:

- (i) The property that diminishes or is lost.
- (ii) It may have been buried in a desert but that place cannot be traced.
- (iii) The property that is sunk in the seas.
- (iv) The property someone snatches but there is no witness to testify to it.
- (v) The property that an oppressor confiscates cruelly.
- (vi) The property that a debtor takes but denies the debt and there is no evidence or witness.

If this kind of property is recovered then zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) for the past period. However, if some property is buried in the home, not in the desert, and after forgetting the place where it was buried, it is recovered, then zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) for t he past days too.

[1] ghaniyah is a woman to whom zakah (Annual due charity) may not be paid.

Zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) also on the debt when the debtor does not deny the debt whether he is affluent or a pauper. It is wajib (obligatory) even if he denies the debt but there is a witness or the judge himself knows of the debt, but it will be wajib (obligatory) in this way:

(i) If the debt is a trading debt, then as soon as recovery is to the tune of one-fifty of the nisab, he must pay the outstanding zakah (Annual due charity) (of the past).

(ii) If the debt is not a trading debt, but against sale of personal clothing, slaves or residential house, and sale proceeds are receivable, then zakah (Annual due charity) of the past will become wajib (obligatory) when he recovers as much as the value of nisab.

(iii) If the debt pertains to intangibles like payment of dowry, will, value of khula, and so on, zakah (Annual due charity) will become wajib (obligatory) when rĕcovery equals the value of nisab and full year has lapsed possessing it. This means that past zakah (Annual due charity) will not be wajib (obligatory). Only current year's zakah (Annual due charity) will be wajib (obligatory) during which he possessed the property. However, this ruling applies one who was not sahib nisab beforehand otherwise this recovered wealth will be deemed to be productive or an increase in wealth and zakah (Annual due charity) will be calculate ed with the wealth and property already in his possession. The condition of one year will not be applied.

NIYAH (FORMING INTENTION): It is binding that the person who pays the zakah (Annual due charity) must form an intention in his mind at the time of paying it that he pays zakah (Annual due charity). He must say to himself, 'Whatever was fard (compulsory) on me to pay. I am paying to seek Allah's pleasure." Or, whenever he takes out the portion of zakah (Annual due charity) from his wealth, he may from an intention at that time, "I apportion so much as is payable towards zakah (Annual due charity)."
If anyone gives away all his wealth in the name of Allah without forming an intention to pay zakah (Annual due charity) then he is absolved of having to pay zakah (Annual due charity). There will be no demand to him towards zakah (Annual due charity) provided he has not given away his wealth with an intention to discharge another wajib (obligatory) over him.
If any one gives away not all his wealth but some of it, without forming an intention to pay zakah (Annual due charity), in Allah's path as charity then:

- Imam Muhammad رحمه الله contends that zakah (Annual due charity) is considered to have been paid.
- Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله contends that zakah (Annual due charity) remains payable.
- Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds the same opinion.

So, the verdict or edict is given on this contention (of Imam RH).
EVADING ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY): It is makruh (unbecoming) to evade or by-pass zakah (Annual due charity). Fir instance, if anyone decides to avoid payment of zakah (Annual due charity) and before the year is about to end, he makes a gift to his property to someone else giving him the possession of it too, then though he will have saved himself from the payment of zakah (Annual due charity) yet this is not good deed.
If anyone buys a slave as a trade merchandise but decides to use him to serve him, then the slave is no longer for trading purposes. He will be a household servant and zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on this account. And, if he buys a slave to serve him but the intends to treat him as a trade merchandise, the slave will not attract the command of trading till he sells him. Therefore, the sale proceeds will be property on which zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory).

DEFINITION OF NISAB: Nisab of zakah (Annual due charity) is that specific limit of property and wealth on which Shari'ah has made it compulsory to pay (annual due charity). If the wealth and property is below that limit, then zakah (Annual due charity) is not fard (compulsory). For example, for camels it is five, twenty-five, etc. for sheep it is forty and one twenty-one etc. so for silver it is twenty mithqal. (The portion about camels is explained in a chart at the end of this discourse).

KIND OF NISAB: Thre are two kinds of nisab. Naami which appreciates in value and ghayr naami which does not grow in value. Further, naami is also of two kinds: haqiqi and taqdiri. The former portions to trade merchandise and animals that appreciate in value and also multiply in number. The later applies to gold and silver that do grow in value intrinsically.

The ghayr naami nisab pertains to immovable properties like homes, household items that are in excess of real needs.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN NISAB NAAMI & GHAYR NAAMI: The owner of nisab naami has payment of zakah (Annual due charity) fard (compulsory) on him and it is not proper for him to receive other people's zakah (Annual due charity), payment against vows and wajib sadaqah (obligatory charity). And it is wajib (obligatory) for him to pay the sadaqat ul fitr and make the sacrifice.

Zakah (Annual due charity) is not fard (compulsory) on the owner of nisab ghayr naami. He too should not receive other people's payments of zakah (Annual due charity), against vows and wajib (obligatory) sadaqah (charity). And, it is wajib (obligatory) on him, too, to pay the sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan) and make the sacrifice.

The following is extracted from 'Heavenly Ornaments' Mawlana Ahmad Ali Thanwi (Bahisti Zewar) p 241 (Darul Ish'at). Read against definition of Nisab.

NUMBER	ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY)
	1 Year old	2 Years old	3 Years old	4 Year old
5-9	1 goat
10-14	2 goats
15-10	3 goats

135-139	3 goats plus		2 camels
140-144	4 goats plus		2 camels

145-149	1 camel plus		2 camels
150-154			3 camels

175-185	1 camel plus		3 camels
186-195		1 camel	3 camels
196-200			4 camels

If the number of camels is more than 200, the same method of calculation as has been followed from 150 onwards should be continued.

If a person possesses camels and gives a camel as zakah (Annual due charity), then this camel which he is giving as zakah (Annual due charity) will have to be a female camel. However, if a male camel is of the same value as that of a female camel, it will be permissible to give a male camel.

THE PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم COMMANDS ABOUT ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY)

(١٧٧٢) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعَثَ مُعَاذًا اِلَى الْيَمَنِ فَقَالَ اِنَّكَ تَأْتِيْ قَوْمًا
اَهْلَ كِتَابٍ فَادْعُهُمْ اِلٰى شَهَادَةِ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَّسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ فَاِنْ هُمْ اَطَاعُوْا لِذٰلِكَ
فَاَعْلِمْهُمْ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ قَدْ فَرَضَ عَلَيْهِمْ خَمْسَ صَلَوَاتٍ فِي الْيَوْمِ وَاللَّيْلَةِ فَاِنْ هُمْ اَطَاعُوْا لِذٰلِكَ فَاَعْلِمْهُمْ
اَنَّ اللّٰهَ قَدْ فَرَضَ عَلَيْهِمْ صَدَقَةً تُؤْخَذُ مِنْ اَغْنِيَآئِهِمْ فَتُرَدُّ عَلٰى فُقَرَآئِهِمْ فَاِنْ هُمْ اَطَاعُوْا لِذٰلِكَ فَاِيَّاكَ

1772. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent (Sayyiduna) Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ to Yemen (as the ruler or a judge). He instructed him that he would come to a section of the people of the Book (Jews or Christians). He should first invite them to bear witness that there is no God but Allah and that Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is His Messenger. If they submitted to it, then he should tell them that Allah has prescribed for them salah (prayer) five times during day and night. If they obeyed then he was to tell them that Allah has made fard (compulsory) on them sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity) on their wealth) to be taken from their rich people and disbursed among their poor. If they obeyed that then he should refrain from seeking the best portion of their property(but take the average type of it and beware of hurting them). And, he should fear the supplication of the wronged one, for, there is no veil between it and Allah.[1]

COMMENTARY: Though there were in Yemen polytheists and dhimmi disbelievers yet the people of the Book formed a majority.

Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that before declaring war against the disbelievers, it is wajib (obligatory) to invite them to Islam, provided the invitation has not been conveyed to them already. If the call to Islam has been conveyed to them then it is not wajib (obligatory) to invite them again. It is now only mustahab (desirable) to do so.

PUNISHMENT TO THEM WHO REFUSE TO PAY ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY)

1773. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone who owns gold and silver (to the value of the nisab) and does not pay what is due (of zakah (Annual due charity)) on it, then on the day of resurrection, plates of fire will be beaten out for him (out of over-beaten gold and silver). They will be heated in the fire of hell and his side, forehead and back will be scorched with them. Then they will be taken and again heated in the fire (when they cool down somewhat) and brought back to him. The extent of that day (when this goes on) will be fifty thousand years until reckoning of the mankind is over and he will search his path whether it leads to paradise or to hell." The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked him, "O Messenger of Allah, (this was about precious metals) what about (those who do not pay zakah (Annual due charity) on) camel?" He said, "If an owner of camels withholds (zakah (Annual due charity)) that which is due on them like, for one, to milk them on the day they come down to the water, on the day of resurrection, a soft plan padded with sand will be spread out for them the widest one can imagine. He will observe that not even one of his young camel is missing (and will be made to lie face down and the camels will be as fat as can be). They will trample him with their hoovs and bite him with their mouths. Every time one of them batches pass over him, another will follow. The extent of that day will be fifty thousand years until reckoning of mankind is over and he searches his path whether to paradise or to hell." Then, the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked him, "O Messenger of Allah, what about (the owner of) cattle and sheep?" He said, "If an owner of cattle and sheep fails to pay what is due (of zakah (Annual due charity)) on him, then on the day of resurrection, a soft plain padded with sand will be stretched out for them. He will not find any of them missing and none will have a twisted horn a missing horn or a broken horn. (He will be made to lie there face down.) They will gave him with their horns and trample him with their hooves. As every batch passes over him, the next will follow. (This will go on over) the day as long as fifty thousand years until the reckoning of mankind is over and he looks for his path either to paradise or to hell next, the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked about the houses. He said, "The horses are of three kinds. For a man they can be a burden, to another a screen and to another a reward. He for whom they are a burden is the man who fetters them to show off and to boast and in animosity to (Muslims) the adherents of Islam. So they (the horses) are a burden over them. They are a screen for him who ties them in the path of Allah and does not forget the right of Allah regarding their backs and necks. Thus they are a screen for him. As for him for whom they are a reward, he is a man who fetters them in Allah's path, for the adherents of Islam, in a meadow and field. Whatever they eat that will be recorded for him as good deeds, as too the amount of dung and wine (they excrete). If they break their halter and leap one or two courses. Allah will record the number of their hoof marks (during that) and the dung (excreted in the course) for him as good deeds. Also, when their owner takes them near a river and they drink from it, although he had no intention to take them to drink, Allah will record whatever water they drink for him as good deeds." The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what about donkeys?" He said, "Nothing has been revealed to me about donkeys but this one verse which is of wide meaning:

فَمَنْ يَّعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَّرَهُ * وَمَنْ يَّعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ شَرًّا يَّرَهُ

{So who so ever has done an Atom's weight of good, shall see it. And whosoever has done an atom's weight of evil, shall see it.} (99:78)

(For example, if anyone lends his donkey to someone to go to do something good, he will earn a reward. If he lands it to do evil, he will commit a sin).

COMMENTARY: The day of resurrection will be as long as fifty thousand years, but this will be for the infidels. They will think of it to be so long. Other sinner will seem to feel its length in relation to their sins.

However, the perfect believers will see the entire day to be only as long as is enough entire day to be only as long as is enough to offer two raka'at salah (prayer)

If the non-payer of zakah (Annual due charity) has no other sin against him then when he has undergone his punishment, he will go to paradise. It he has more sins or still has to undergo punishment for non-payment of zakah (Annual due charity), then he will go to hell. This is what looking for his path implies.

The hadith says that while the other creatures will be subjected to reckoning, and have gone through it, the non payers of zakah (Annual due charity) will continue to be punished for their dereliction.

As milking the camels as a right of the camels, the Arabs took them to the river for drinking ever four of five days. Many people assembled there. So while the camels drank water, the cameleers milked them and served milk to the throng of people gathering there. While zakas is the wajid right on them, among rights, the mustahab (desirable) right is give their milk to the poor. Though it is mustahab (desirable), yet as a gesture of gratitude it is like wajib (obligatory). That is why it is mentioned with such emphasis. The words of hadith imply that non-fulfillment of this right will invite punishment.

While taking the horses to the river, the owner may not mean to take them to drink, yet he gets all that reward. Imagine how much reward he would get if he truly resolves to take them to quench their thirst. The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم style in enlightening the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم about horses was different from his earlier teachings. This is the 'style of the wise while answering.' He told the sahabah (Prophet's companions) more then what they asked and informed them of the reward and piety of the horse owners. He also informed them of the other side of the case.

He described horses of three kinds for their owners.

(i) Horses that lead their masters to sin. They are the ones whose owners keep them to be ostentatious and arrogant. Other people are deceived into thinking of the owners as warriors though they are not so. And, they give themselves airs as though others were inferior to them.

(ii) Horses that are kept by their owners to be of use in Allah's path. This does not mean jihad but their good and pious purposes of kindred types, all to be obedient to Allah. For, the third kind is the horses used in Allah's path (for jihad)

IS ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) PAYABLE ON HORSES

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on horses that graze in the desert. The owner has option to pay one dinar as zakah (Annual due charity) against every horse, or determine their value and pay zakah (Annual due charity) of five dirhams against every two hundred dirhams, as per the rate of zakah (Annual due charity).

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and the two companions Imam Muhammad رحمه الله and Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله said that zakah (Annual due charity) on horses is not wajib (obligatory). They cite the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying "Sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) it not incumbent on the Muslims for their horses and slaves." Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله cites the saying of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. "Against every horse that grazes in the desert is one dinar."

As for paying zakah (Annual due charity) on determined value, this is reported from Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه. As for the hadith cited by Imam Shaf'I رحمه الله and others, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that it is about the horses of the warriors and about slaves who are kept for service.

(iii) Horses that their owner sets aside for jihad. The owner will lend them to other Muslim for riding in jihad.

(١٧٧٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اٰتَاهُ اللّٰهُ مَالًا فَلَمْ يُؤَدِّ زَكَاتَهُ مُثِّلَ لَهُ مَالُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ شُجَاعًا اَقْرَعَ لَهُ زَبِيْبَتَانِ يُطَوَّقُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ ثُمَّ يَأْخُذُ بِلَهْزِمَتَيْهِ يَعْنِيْ شِدْقَيْهِ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ اَنَا مَالُكَ اَنَا كَنْزُكَ ثُمَّ تَلَا وَلَا يَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَبْخَلُوْنَ ـ الْاٰيَةُ(رواه البخارى)

1774. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He whom Allah has given property yet he does not pay the zakah (Annual due charity) due on it will see his property on the day of resurrection as though a large bald snake with black spots over its eyes. It will be curled round his neck on the day of resurrection and it will seize his jaws (or cheeks), saying, "I am your wealth! I am your treasure!"

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited:

وَلَا يَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَبْخَلُوْنَ الاية

{And as for those who are niggardly......} (1) (the verse 3:180)[1]

COMMENTARY: Baldness of a snake is a sign that it is very poisonous and old. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse to show that Allah says the same thing as is apparent from the entire verse:

وَلَا يَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَبْخَلُوْنَ بِمَا اٰتٰهُمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهٖ هُوَ خَيْرًا لَّهُمْ بَلْ هُوَ شَرٌّ لَّهُمْ سَيُطَوَّقُوْنَ مَا بَخِلُوْا بِهٖ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ

{And let not those who covetously withhold of the gifts which Allah has given them of His Grace, think that it is good for them; nay, it will be the worse for them; soon shall the things which they covetously withheld be tied to their necks like a twisted collar on the day of resurrection.}

(١٧٧٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ رَجُلٍ يَّكُوْنُ لَهُ اِبِلٌ اَوْبَقَرٌ اَوْغَنَمٌ لَا يُؤَدِّيْ حَقَّهَا اِلَّا اُتِيَ بِهَا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ اَعْظَمَ مَا تَكُوْنُ وَاَسْمَنَهُ تَطَؤُهُ بِاَخْفَافِهَا وَتَنْطَحُهُ بِقُرُوْنِهَا كُلَّمَا

جَازَتْ أُخْرَاهَا رُدَّتْ عَلَيْهِ أَوْلَاهَا حَتّٰى يُقْضٰى بَيْنَ النَّاسِ(متفق عليه)

1775. Sayyiduna Abu Dharrr رضی الله عنه reported that from the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم that he said, "For every man who has camels or cattle or sheep but does not pay and due on them (of zakah (Annual due charity)), they will appear to him on the day of resurrection as large and as plump as can be. They will trample him with their hooves and gore him with their horns. Every time the last of them finishes with him, the first of them will appear to him again (all of them returning to trample him and this will go on) until judgment is pronounced among mankind."[1]

LET THE COLLECTOR BE PLEASED

(١٧٧٦) وَعَنْ جَرِيْرِبْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَتَاكُمُ الْمُصَدِّقُ فَلْيَصْدُرْ عَنْكُمْ وَهُوَ عَنْكُمْ رَاضٍ(رواه مسلم)

1776. Sayyiduna Jarir ibn Abdullah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When the collector of zakah (Annual due charity) comes to you (from the ruler and he is called saa'I or aamil), let him return from you after collecting zakah (Annual due charity) pleased with you."[2]

COMMENTARY: The collectors should be received with respect and honour. Zakah (Annual due charity) should be paid to them in full.

PROPHET'S PRAYER FOR THE PAYERS

(١٧٧٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ أَبِيْ أَوْفٰى قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَتَاهُ قَوْمٌ بِصَدَقَتِهِمْ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلٰى اٰلِ فُلَانٍ فَأَتَاهُ أَبِيْ بِصَدَقَتِهٖ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلٰى اٰلِ أَبِيْ أَوْفٰى۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ إِذَا أَتَى الرَّجُلُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِصَدَقَتِهٖ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَيْهِ۔

1777. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Awfa رضی الله عنه narrated that then the people brought to him their sadaqah (charity) (zakah), the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم prayed (for them), "O Allah, bless (have mercy on) the family of so and so." He narrated further that his father brought to him his sadaqah (charity), the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم prayed, "O Allah, bless (have mercy on) the family of Abu Awfa."

According to another version: When man brought his sadaqah (charity) to the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم, he prayed, "O Allah have mercy on him."[3]

COMMENTARY: It is not proper to pay for anyone with the word (صلوة) (salah (prayer), bless) exclusively. It is only the prerogative of the Prophet's علیه السلام that the word (صلوة) (salah (prayer)) is used for them. However, we can use this word for any person if he is named with the Prophet علیه السلام.

As for the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم, he used the word (صلوة) (salah (prayer)) for those 1778. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم appointed (Sayyiduna) Umar رضی الله عنه to collect the zakah (Annual due charity). It was said that Ibn Jamil رضی الله عنه, Khalid ibn Walid رضی الله عنه and Abbas رضی الله عنه refused (to pay zakah (Annual due charity)). Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Ibn Jamil does not comply because he had been poor and Allah and his Messenger enriched him. As for Khalid, you do wrong him, for , he has retained his coats of mail and weapons to use in Allah's path (and he is not liable to pay any zakah (Annual due charity) but you regard his property as trade merchandise. This is incorrect). As for Abbas, that is on me and as much more with it (not only now but in future too)." He also said, "O Umar, do you not realize that a man's paternal uncle is like his father (so you people should consider him to be like my father and respect him and not cause him grief)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Jamil رضی الله عنه was a hypocrite, but he turned over a new leaf as a good Muslim. He was very poor and destitute and requested the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. "Pray for me to be enriched. I shall show gratitude for Allah's blessings." The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for him and he became wealthy, but he showed ingratitude to the extent that he refused to pay zakah (Annual due charity) too. This is why the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم rebuked him as we see in the hadith.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم about that Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم enriched him. He included his own name because he had prayed to Allah to improve his condition.

Sayyiduna Abbas رضی الله عنه was the respected uncle of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم undertook to pay his zakah (Annual due charity) for the year and for the year following because he had paid him zakah (Annual due charity) of two years in advance.

COLLECTOR SHOULD ACCEPT NO GIFTS.

1779. Sayyiduna Abu Humaydi as Sa'idi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم appointed a man of Azd, Ibn al-Lutbiyah, to collect zakah (Annual due charity), when he came back, he said, "This belogs to you and this was presented to me." On that, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم delivered a sermon in which he praised and glorified Allah and said, "To proceed, I appoint some of your men over certain affairs that Allah has charged me with. Now, one of them returns to say, "This belongs to you and this was presented to me.' Let him sit in the house of his father or mother and wait whether it is presented to him or not. By Him in whose hand is my soul, if anyone takes from it, he will bring it surely on the day of resurrection carrying it on his neck, a rumbling camel, a bellowing ox or a bleating sheep." Then he raised his arms till they could see the whiteness under his armpits and said, "O Allah, I have conveyed your Message! I have conveyed your Message!" Khattabi رحمہ اللہ said that the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saying "Let him sit in the house of his father or mother and wait whether it is presented to him or not is evidence what whatever is taken as means to do the forbidden is taken as means to do the forbidden is in itself forbidden. Also, if an agreement is made against another, it should be examined whether there are diverse commands for them that are similar to their common command if they are combined. If so, then it is correct, otherwise it is not correct.[1]

COMMENTARY: The man is not given gifts for anything good in himself but because of the office he holds. If he was not a collector of zakah (Annual due charity) then he would not receive any gift.

A gift will be proper for an office holder if that has been a regular presentation even without the office.

Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ, however, said that an officer or a ruler must never a accept a gift because it is always presented with an ulterior motive. So, it is not allowed absolutely.

Khattabi رحمہ اللہ derives two deductions from this hadith. If something permissible is used to acquired what is forbidden then the thing that is otherwise permitted will also became forbidden. For example, lending money is a permissible thing but if any one lends it to acquire interest which is forbidden then giving a loan too is forbidden.

His second deduction is that if two different affairs are put together and they are permitted individually then they will continue to be permitted together too. But if they are disallowed separately then they will continue to be disallowed together too. For instance, someone sells something worth rupees ten for one hundred rupees to another person to lend rupees one thousand and acquire the profit (interest) on the loan in the shape of the price of this thing. In this case, the lender earns rupees ninety as his profit (interest). This dealing is not allowed because if he sold worth is Rs. 10/- for Rs.100/-, the buyer would never have bought it were it not for the loan available to him.

Where two things are permissible when each is distinct from the other then they will be correct when they are taken together. For example, in this case if that which is worth rupees ten is sold for rupees ten, and the loan of rupees one thousand is given too, since they are allowed as separate transactions, they would be correct even if undertaken together, of the two deductions of Khattabi رحمه الله the first is accepted unanimously by all. All the imams agree that the means and resources are of the same nature as aims, so the means to piety will also be pious and the means to evil will be evil.

However, the second deduction is debatable. Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله hold that it is acceptable because they regard every ploy whereby prohibition of interest, etc. is circumvented as forbidden. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله disagree with the second deduction of Khattabi رحمه الله because they hold that a ploy is permissible. However, though Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله does not accept the second deduction, yet he agrees with Khattabi رحمه الله that the example that he has cited is disallowed according to another deduction. Moreover, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds (not all but) some kinds of ploys as permissible.

COLLECTOR SHOULD NOT ACT TREACHEROUSLY

(١٧٨٠) وَعَنْ عَدِيِّ بْنِ عُمَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنِ اسْتَعْمَلْنَاهُ مِنْكُمْ عَلٰى عَمَلٍ فَكَتَمَنَا مِخْيَطًا فَمَا فَوْقَهُ كَانَ غُلُوْلًا يَأْتِيْ بِهٖ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ (رواه مسلم)

1780. Sayyiduna Adi ibn Amirah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He among you whom we appoint to discharge something conceals from us a needle or what is lesser or more than that, acts treacherously. He will bring it on the day of resurrection (disgraced.)[1]

QURAN'S WARNING TO DENIERS OF ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY)

(١٧٨١) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا نَزَلَتْ هٰذِهِ الْاٰيَةُ وَالَّذِيْنَ يَكْنِزُوْنَ الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ كَبُرَ ذٰلِكَ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ اَنَا اُفَرِّجُ عَنْكُمْ فَانْطَلَقَ فَقَالَ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ اِنَّهٗ كَبُرَ عَلٰى اَصْحَابِكَ هٰذِهِ الْاٰيَةُ فَقَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَمْ يَفْرِضِ الزَّكَاةَ اِلَّا لِيُطَيِّبَ مَا بَقِيَ مِنْ اَمْوَالِكُمْ وَاِنَّمَا فَرَضَ الْمَوَارِيْثَ وَذَكَرَ كَلِمَةً لِتَكُوْنَ لِمَنْ

[1] Muslim # 30.1833, Abu Dawud # 2943, Musnad Ahmad 4-192.

بَعْدَكُمْ فَقَالَ فَكَبَّرَ عُمَرُ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُ أَلَا أُخْبِرُكَ بِخَيْرِ مَا يَكْنِزُ الْمَرْءُ الْمَرْأَةُ الصَّالِحَةُ إِذَا نَظَرَ إِلَيْهَا سَرَّتْهُ وَإِذَا أَمَرَهَا أَطَاعَتْهُ وَإِذَا غَابَ عَنْهَا حَفِظَتْهُ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1781. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that when this verse revealed;

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَكْنِزُوْنَ الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ

{And those who hoard up gold and silver....} (9:34),

it proved very hard for the Muslims. Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه assured them that he would remover their anxiety. So, he went and said, "O Prophet of Allah, this verse proves hard on your sahabah (Prophet's companions)." He said, "Allah has not made zakah (Annual due charity) fard (compulsory) but only that it would purity your remaining properties. And He has made inheritances, fard (compulsory)." (and Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه did not catch) a word he mentioned, "that they might go to those who survive you." Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated further that Umar رضی الله عنه (was pleased at t he removal of the anxiety and) extolled Allah, "Allahu Akbar." Then, Allah Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم asked him. "Shall I not inform you of the best thing a man keeps? It is a pious wife who pleases him when he casts a look at her, obeys him when he commands her (to do something) and preserves his children (and property for him) when he is away."[1]

COMMENTARY: The complete verse of the Quran (of surah al-Tawbah, 34) is:

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَكْنِزُوْنَ الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ وَلَا يُنْفِقُوْنَهَا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ اَلِيْمٍ

{And those who hoard up gold and silver and expend it not in the way of Allah - so give them the tidings of a painful chastisement}

Those people whom Allah has given wealth but they do not pay zakah (Annual due charity) and spend not where Allah has commanded them to spend would be punished. Their property would be heated and with it they would be cauterized with that (see hadith # 1773, 1774).

The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم presumed that t his verse condemned storing wealth in any sort of way whatsoever and were deeply upset at their fate. So, on Umar's رضی الله عنه asking, the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم enlightened them that the purpose of zakah (Annual due charity) was exactly to purify the rest of the wealth which they could store with them. The warning in the verse applies to hoarding without paying zakah (Annual due charity).

In the course of the narration, Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه could not recollect an expression the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had spoken. So, he interrupted his narration and said, "And he mentioned a word."

Then, the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم turned to inheritances as passing on to heirs. Thus, he indicated that if it was disallowed absolutely to collect wealth then neither would zakah (Annual due charity) be fard (compulsory) not inheritance be obligatory. It is not wrong to collect wealth in legal ways. But, it is necessary that what is due on the wealth must be given (like zakah (Annual due charity) and charity).

Thereafter, the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم drew the attention of his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم to something better than wealth at any time, a woman. He described an ideal wife. Money cannot last for ever. It has to be spent to get one's needs. A wife, on the other hand, is a life partner and a means of solace. She begets children for her husband who gains strength from them and in them he survives down generations. They keep the family name alive.

Moreover, a wife preserves her husband from many evils and sins. According to a marfu hadith, "The man who married fortifies two thirds of his religion."

KEEP THE COLLECTORS HAPPY

(١٧٨٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَتِيْكٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَيَأْتِيْكُمْ رُكَيْبٌ مُبَغَّضُوْنَ فَإِنْ جَآءُوْكُمْ فَرَحِّبُوْا بِهِمْ وَخَلُّوْا بَيْنَهُمْ وَ بَيْنَ مَا يَبْتَغُوْنَ فَإِنْ عَدَلُوْا فَلِاَنْفُسِهِمْ وَإِنْ ظَلَمُوْا فَعَلَيْهِمْ وَاَرْضُوْهُمْ فَإِنَّ تَمَامَ زَكَاتِكُمْ رِضَاهُمْ وَلِيَدْعُوْا لَكُمْ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1782. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Atik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "To you will come some un welcome riders (the zakah (Annual due charity) collectors whom people naturally dislike because they have a demand on their wealth). So, when they came to you welcome them. Do not hinder them from what they demand. If they are just (in collecting zakah (Annual due charity)), they will do it to their own good but if they are unjust then they will invite punishment. (or your part,) please them. Full payment of zakah (Annual due charity) by you will earn their pleasure. They must pray for you."[1]

COMMENTARY: The payer is advised that even if he fears that the collector wrongs him he must do what he can to please him. This is because generally a payer always has a wrong idea of the collector. He must make a full payment of zakah (Annual due charity) and not conceal anything.

With the payment of zakah (Annual due charity), the obligation is discharged, yet to please the collector is an essential element of the payment.

It is mutahab for the collector to pray for mercy and blessing on the payer.

(١٧٨٣) عَنْ جَرِيْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ جَآءَ نَاسٌ يَعْنِيْ مِنَ الْاَعْرَابِ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالُوْا اِنَّ نَاسًا مِّنَ الْمُصَدِّقِيْنَ يَأْتُوْنَا فَيَظْلِمُوْنَا فَقَالَ اَرْضُوْا مُصَدِّقِيْكُمْ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَاِنْ ظَلَمُوْنَا قَالَ اَرْضُوْا مُصَدِّقِيْكُمْ وَاِنْ ظُلِمْتُمْ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1783. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that some people, meaning the desert Arabs, came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and complained that collectors of zakah (Annual due charity) came to them and harassed them. He said that they should please the collectors of zakah (Annual due charity) and they asked even if they acted unjustly. He said, "Please the collectors of sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) even if you are wronged."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is a psychological fact that when a person has to make a payment, he feels bad about at to some extent. So, the payers of zakah (Annual due charity) regarded the collectors as unjust. That is why the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم advised the desert Arabs to please the collectors, nevertheless.

CONCEALING OR WITHHOLDING SOMETHING

(١٧٨٤) وَعَنْ بَشِيْرِ بْنِ الْخَصَاصِيَّةِ قَالَ قُلْنَا إِنَّ أَهْلَ الصَّدَقَةِ يَعْتَدُوْنَ عَلَيْنَا أَفَنَكْتُمُ مِّنْ أَمْوَالِنَا بِقَدْرِ مَا يَعْتَدُوْنَ قَالَ لَا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1784. Sayyiduna Bashir ibn al Khasasiyah narrated that the collectors of sadaqah (charity) committed excess on them (and collected more than the payable zakah (Annual due charity)). So, could they conceal so much of their properties as they exceeded in collecting? But he (the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No."[1]

COMMENTARY: Those people wrongly imagined that the collectors of zakah (Annual due charity) wronged them but that was not so.

THE COLLECTOR'S REWARD

(١٧٨٥) وَعَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ خَدِيْجٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْعَامِلُ عَلَى الصَّدَقَةِ بِالْحَقِّ كَالْغَازِيْ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ حَتّٰى يَرْجِعَ إِلٰى بَيْتِهٖ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذى)

1785. Sayyiduna Rafi' ibn Khadij رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The collector of zakah (Annual due charity) who collects zakah (Annual due charity) equitably is like a ghazi (warrior) in Allah's path till he returns home."[2]

A GUIDELINE

(١٧٨٦) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا جَلَبَ وَلَا جَنَبَ وَلَا تُؤْخَذُ صَدَقَاتُهُمْ إِلَّا فِيْ دُوْرِهِمْ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1786. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله reported from his father from his grandfather that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'The collector of zakah (Annual due charity) must not ask for the animals to be brought to him, nor must the owner take his animals far away. Their sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) must be collected in their homes."[3]

COMMENTARY: Neither must put the other to inconvenience by having him to travel to a long distance. The collector must come to the neighborhood and visit the houses one by one to collect their dues.

THE EARNED PROPERTY

(١٧٨٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنِ اسْتَفَادَ مَالًا فَلَا زَكٰوةَ فِيْهِ حَتّٰى يَحُوْلَ عَلَيْهِ الْحَوْلُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَذَكَرَ جَمَاعَةٌ أَنَّهُمْ وَقَفُوْهُ عَلَى ابْنِ عُمَرَ۔

it till a year passes (with it in his hands)."[1]
Tirmidhi stated that a section of scholars said that the hadith is mawquf at Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ (This property is called mustafad).

COMMENTARY: Someone has eighty sheep but he has not had them for a full year. Again, he received forty one more sheep adding up his stock to one hundred and twenty one. The forty one acquired during the year are mustafad. Thus, it is defined as identical property received during the year.

Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that if a payer of zakah (Annual due charity) acquired more property of the same kind as he holds during the year, then zakah (Annual due charity) on the additional property will not be payable till he has had it for one complete year – when zakah (Annual due charity) will be wajib (obligatory).

Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ holds the same opinion.

However, Imam Abu Hanifah holds that it is enough that a year should pass with the property already in a person's hand. As for every subsequently acquired property, whether a year posses holding it or not, zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on the total assets (at the end of the year period) of the original property).

While Imam Ahamd رحمہ اللہ holds the same opinion as Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ agrees with Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ agrees with Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ that the subsequently acquired property will be governed with the original property.

As for the meaning of the hadith, the Hanafi Ulama (Scholars) رحمہ اللہ say that it does not mean what Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ interprets. Rather, it means that when a person receives property for the first time, zakah (Annual due charity) will be wajib (obligatory) on him only when he has held the property for one year. The hadith does not refer to mustafad or freshly acquired wealth.

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) BEFORE YEAR IS OUT

(١٧٨٨) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّ الْعَبَّاسَ سَأَلَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ تَعْجِيْلِ صَدَقَتِهٖ قَبْلَ اَنْ تَحِلَّ فَرَخَّصَ لَهٗ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

1788. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (Sayyiduna) Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about paying his sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) before the end of the year. He grave his permission to him to do that [2]

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON WEALTH OF A MINOR

(١٧٨٩) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَطَبَ النَّاسَ فَقَالَ اَلَا مَنْ وَلِيَ يَتِيْمًا لَّهٗ فَلْيَتَّجِرْ فِيْهِ وَلَا يَتْرُكْهُ حَتّٰى تَاْكُلَهُ الصَّدَقَةُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ فِيْ اِسْنَادِهٖ مَقَالٌ لِاَنَّ الْمُثَنّٰى ابْنَ الصَّبَّاحِ ضَعِيْفٌ

1789. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمہ اللہ narrated that from his father from his grandfather (Abdullah) رضی اللہ عنہ that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم addressed the people and said Beware O guardian of an orphan who possesses property! He must invest it in trading and not leave it (unused) so that the (yearly) zakah (Annual due charity) devours it."

Tirmidhi said that the sub narrator al-Muthanna ibn as-Sabbah was weak so the line of transmission is questioned.

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Maalik رحمه الله are Imam Ahmad رحمه الله contend that zakah (Annual due charity) is fard (compulsory) on the wealth of a minor too. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that zakah (Annual due charity) is not fard (compulsory) on the wealth of a minor whether he is an orphan or not because according another hadith, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Three people are not made responsible. One who sleeps till he is asleep. One who is a minor till he attains adulthood. And, one who is insane till he regains sanity." This hadith is transmitted by Abu Dawud, Nasai'I and Haakim. And, Haakim has classified it as Sahih.

ABU BAKAR'S رضی الله عنه STEP AGAINST REJECTERS OF ZAKAH

(١٧٩٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ لَمَّا تُوُفِّيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاسْتُخْلِفَ أَبُوْ بَكْرٍ بَعْدَهُ وَكَفَرَ مَنْ كَفَرَ مِنَ الْعَرَبِ قَالَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ لِأَبِي بَكْرٍ كَيْفَ تُقَاتِلُ النَّاسَ وَقَدْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أُقَاتِلَ النَّاسَ حَتّٰى يَقُوْلُوْا لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ فَمَنْ قَالَ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ عَصَمَ مِنِّي مَالَهُ وَنَفْسَهُ إِلَّا بِحَقِّهِ وَحِسَابُهُ عَلَى اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ أَبُوْ بَكْرٍ وَّاللّٰهِ لَأُقَاتِلَنَّ مَنْ فَرَّقَ بَيْنَ الصَّلٰوةِ وَالزَّكَاةِ فَإِنَّ الزَّكَاةَ حَقُّ الْمَالِ وَاللّٰهِ لَوْ مَنَعُوْنِيْ عَنَاقًا كَانُوْا يُؤَدُّوْنَهَا إِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَاتَلْتُهُمْ عَلٰى مَنْعِهَا قَالَ عُمَرُ فَوَاللّٰهِ مَا هُوَ إِلَّا رَأَيْتُ أَنَّ اللّٰهَ شَرَحَ صَدْرَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ لِّلْقِتَالِ فَعَرَفْتُ أَنَّهُ الْحَقُّ (متفق عليه)

1790. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that that when the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم died and (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه was made his Khalifah (Caliph) (caliph), some Arabs turned to disbelief (by refusing to pay zkah and Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه resolved to wage war against them). So, (Sayyiduna) Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی الله عنه asked Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه, "How will you fight with the people while Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had said, 'I have been commanded to fight with the people till they affirm that there is no God but Allah, so whosoever affirms that there is no God but Allah, has protected his property and his self from me except for what is due from him and his reckoning is upon Allah." Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه said, 'By Allah, I shall certainly fight with those who differentiate between salah (prayer) and zakah (Annual due charity), for, (just as salah (prayer) is a due on the person so) zakah (Annual due charity) is a due on property. By Allah, if they refuse to give me a kid that they used to give to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, I shall certainly fight with them because of their refusal." Umar رضی الله

عنه commented, "By Allah, it is not but that Allah has opened the heart of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ to fight. So, I know that it is the truth."[1]

COMMENTARY: After the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death, Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ became the first Khalifah (Caliph). Some mischief surfaced. The trials and mischiefs include the fitnah of apostasy. He put it down with daring and sound judgement.

The hadith mentions another fitnah. Some tribes of the Arabs like the Ghatafan, Banu Sulaym and others, refused to pay zakah (Annual due charity), an important and a basic obligation of Islam. If anyone neglects a fard (compulsory), that is one thing, but if he rejects it altogether that has a deeper meaning. Hence, the word (كفر) (they became disbelievers) is used in its real sense because they rejected zakah (Annual due charity) whose obligatory nature is absolute and undeniable. Or, they are called (Kafara) (كفر) (denied) because they refused to pay zakah (Annual due charity). So, their severe crime is looked down upon as disbelief through utter anger and extreme strictness.

However, it is seen, the crime was very serious. Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ decided to wage war against them. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ tried to dissuade him at first, but then understood the reasoning of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and agreed with him.

Some versions say that other Sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہ, and even Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ tried to dissuade Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. They advised him to defer his action lest in the early stages after the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death, an uprising might damage Islam. However, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was unyielding and was prepared to go ahead all alone. This shows how daring and resolute he was.

The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saying about one who has declared that there is no God but Allah means the complete kalimah tawhid, "There is no God but Allah and Muhammad is Allah's Messenger." To embrace Islam, both declarations should be made of Allah's unity and Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم messenger ship.

The person who recites the Kalimah tawhid is protected, save for what is due from him. This means diyat or blood money, retaliation or qisas and so on, for which things he will have to pay or be killed according to the crime.

This person's reality is known only to Allah. If he only makes an outward show of Islam and does not believe inwardly than Allah will reckon with him.

Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ said about a kid against zakah (Annual due charity) only by way of example, for neither is a year old kid received against zakah (Annual due charity) nor is zakah (Annual due charity) wajib (obligatory) on such kids. It has been stated previously what is paid in zakah (Annual due charity) from sheep and other animals.

Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ said that he would fight with them. This is explained in the same way as their disbelief is explained in the foregoing lines. If they reject the obligatory nature of zakah (Annual due charity) then he would fight with them for their disbelief and apostasy. If they do not reject it but will not pay it then he would fight with them to protect the symbols of Islam and to eliminate the mischief.[2]

TREASURE ON WHICH ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) IS NOT PAID

(١٧٩١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَكُوْنُ كَنْزُ اَحَدِكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ شُجَاعًا اَقْرَعَ يَفِرُّ مِنْهُ صَاحِبُهُ وَ يَطْلُبُهُ حَتّٰى يُلْقِمَهُ اَصَابِعَهُ (رواه احمد)

1791. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, the treasure of any of you will be a huge bald snake. He will flee from it but it will chase him till he offers it his fingers to eat." Or, "The snake will make a morsel of his fingers."[1]

COMMENTARY: The treasure is the wealth on which zakah (Annual due charity) is not paid. It is also the wealth that is acquired unlawfully.

The last sentence of the hadith accepts two meanings. The first is when the person tries to save himself and puts forward his fingers. But, the second meaning is more correct that the snake itself devours his fingers.

(١٧٩٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ رَّجُلٍ لَّا يُؤَدِّيْ زَكَاةَ مَالِهٖ اِلَّا جَعَلَ اللّٰهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ فِيْ عُنُقِهٖ شُجَاعًا ثُمَّ قَرَأَ عَلَيْنَا مِصْدَاقَهٗ مِنْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ وَلَا يَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَبْخَلُوْنَ بِمَآ اٰتَاهُمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهٖ۔ الْاٰيَةَ (رواه الترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة)

1792. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رحمه الله narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone does not pay the zakah (Annual due charity) on his property, then, on the day of resurrection, Allah will put a huge snake round his neck." Then, the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم recited from Allah's Book the confirmation of this:

وَلَا يَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَبْخَلُوْنَ بِمَآ اٰتَاهُمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهٖ

{And as for those who are niggardly is expending that which Allah has granted t hem out of His bounty....} (3:180, the verse)[2]

THE FORBIDDEN WILL DESTROY THE LAWFUL

(١٧٩٣) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا خَالَطَتِ الزَّكَاةُ مَالًا قَطُّ اِلَّا اَهْلَكَتْهُ۔ رَوَاهُ الشَّافِعِيُّ وَالْبُخَارِيُّ فِيْ تَارِيْخِهٖ وَالْحُمَيْدِيُّ وَزَادَ قَالَ يَكُوْنُ قَدْ وَجَبَ عَلَيْكَ صَدَقَةٌ فَلَا تُخْرِجُهَا فَيُهْلِكُ الْحَرَامُ الْحَلَالَ وَقَدِ احْتَجَّ بِهٖ مَنْ يَّرٰى تَعَلُّقَ الزَّكَاةِ بِالْعَيْنِ هٰكَذَا فِي الْمُنْتَقٰى وَرَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ عَنْ اَحْمَدَ بْنِ حَنْبَلٍ بِاِسْنَادِهٖ اِلٰى عَآئِشَةَ وَقَالَ اَحْمَدُ فِيْ خَالَطَتْ تَفْسِيْرُهٗ اَنَّ الرَّجُلَ يَاْخُذُ الزَّكَاةَ وَهُوَ مُوْسِرٌ اَوْغَنِيٌّ وَّاِنَّمَا هِيَ لِلْفُقَرَآءِ۔

1793. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that she heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say, "If zakah (Annual due charity) is mingled with any (wealth and) property, it destroy it."

[1] Musnad Ahmad 2-530.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3012, Nasa'i # 2441, Ibn Majah # 1784.

Al-Humaydi رحمه الله added that Bukhari رحمه الله said, "when zakah (Annual due charity) is Wajib (obligatory) on you and you fail to pay it, so (it mingles with your property and) that which is forbidden will destroy that which is lawful."[1]
Those who say that zakah (Annual due charity) is connected with concerned property directly, nor with responsibility, cite this hadith (alongwith Bukhari's aforemented explanation). - Muntaqa. Ahmad رحمه الله said that 'mingled' means that it mingles with a rich man's property when he accepts another's zakah (Annual due charity) though it is only for the poor.

COMMENTARY: Bukhari رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله have both given their different interpretations of the hadith. Both mean that unlawful wealth ruins lawful wealth when it is brought together with it. With the adulteration, all the lawful wealth is somehow lost or wasted, or blessing is removed from it.

CONNECTED WITH PROPERTY ITSELF OR RESPONSIBILITY

There is a difference of opinion on whether zakah (Annual due charity) should be paid from the same property on which it is paid, or it is a responsibility on the payer who may pay the value in kind or cash from his other resources.
Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and others, except Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, hold that zakah (Annual due charity) must be paid from that very property on which it is payable. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that the payer must pay from his resources, the value of payable zakah (Annual due charity) and it is not necessary for him to pay from the same property on which he pays it. His responsibility will cease in either case.
This question is discusses at length by Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله in Mirqat and Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمه الله in Ash'ah ul lama'at. The students and scholars may peruse it in these books.

CHAPTER - II

PROPERTY ON WHICH ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) IS WAJIB (OBLIGATORY)

بَابُ مَا يَجِبُ فِيْهِ الزَّكٰوةُ

Shari'ah has made zakah (Annual due charity) fard (compulsory) on four kinds of properties:
- (i) Grazing animals, kept at pasture.
- (ii) Gold and Silver.
- (iii) Trade merchandise of whatever kind.
- (iv) Produce of fields and trees.

The jurists do not use the word zakah (Annual due charity) for the fourth kind, but call it ushr.
The imams agree that zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on quadrupeds like camels, cows, sheep, ram, goats and buffaloes. They may be male or female. Zakah (Annual due charity) is not wjib on other animals.
However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on horses too. This will be explained in the pages following.
The Imams also agree that zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on gold and silver and trade merchandise.
Those things that are perishable an do not remain for one year, zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on them according to other imams, like cucumber, melon and other vegetables etc. Zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on dates and raisin when their holding is five wasq. If they are less then five wasq, zakah (Annual due charity) is not payable on them.

[1] Bayhaqi in Sha'b ul Eeman, Shafi'I in his musnad p 99, Bukhari in his Tarikh.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that ushr (one-tenth) is payable as wajib (obligatory) on produce of land whether produce is less or more, but ushr is not wajib (obligatory) on bamboos, wood and grass. He relies on he Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم words:

مَا اَخْرَجَتْهُ الْاَرْضُ فَفِيْهِ الْعُشْرُ

"It is wajib (obligatory) to pay one tenth on everything that grows from the land."

For ushr to be wajib (obligatory) on the produce of land there is no stipulation of a measure or quantity. There also is no stipulation of time like the passing of a year. Rather, whatever and whenever the produce, it will be wajib (obligatory) to pay one-tenth. This is contrary to other properties on whom zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) only when they amount to the nisab and are held for one year.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

NISAB

(١٧٩٤) عَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِ نِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ فِيْمَا دُوْنَ خَمْسَةِ اَوْسُقٍ مِّنَ التَّمْرِ صَدَقَةٌ وَّلَيْسَ فِيْمَا دُوْنَ خَمْسِ اَوَاقٍ مِّنَ الْوَرِقِ صَدَقَةٌ وَّلَيْسَ فِيْمَا دُوْنَ خَمْسِ ذَوْدٍ مِّنَ الْاِبِلِ صَدَقَةٌ (متفق عليه)

1794. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al Khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Zakah (Annual due charity) is not payable on less than five wasq (or camel-load) of dates. And,zakah (Annual due charity) is not payable on less than five ooqiyas (ounces) of silver. And, zakah (Annual due charity) is not payable on less than five heads of camels."[1]

COMMENTARY: One wasq is equal to sixty sa' or approximately 135 kg, more or less. As for dates, one-tenth will be wajib (obligatory) as ushr on produce of five wasq. No zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on less than five wasq (dates.) this is opinion of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله. On his part, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that no nisab applies on the produce of land, and it is wajib (obligatory) to pay zakah (Annual due charity) on tenth of the produce whatever it be. Even if it is the least possible production, one tenth of it is wajib (obligatory) to be paid. The Hanafis follow the verdict of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله.

As for this hadith, the Hanafis say that it refers to dates for trading because at that time they were brought and sold by the wasq measure. Each wasq of date was priced at forty dirhams. The value of five wasq at this rate was two hundred dirhams and it is the nisab for trading.

Awaq is the plural of ooqiyah. Each ooqiyah is forty dirhams or 122.47 grammes. Five ooqiyah will be two hundred dirhams which is the nisab of silver for zakah (Annual due charity) which comes to five dirhams. Zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on silver less than the value of two h undred dirhams (or 216.5 grammes).

This was the nisab of dirham silver (aims). If silver is in some other form, like jewellery, then the same principle is applied. Zakah (Annual due charity) will be paid in the same way.[1]
The nisab is the minimum that attracts zakah (Annual due charity). If anyone possesses more than the nisab, then the clear way to calculate is to pay at 2.5 percent, meaning that the zakah (Annual due charity) for every rupees one hundred is rupees two and a half.
The hadith makes no mention of gold. The nisab of gold is twenty mithqal. Zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on less than that. If anyone has the nisab or more of gold, then one fortieth of the amount or its value must be paid as zakah (Annual due charity).
If gold and silver together add up to the nisab, zakah (Annual due charity) will be wajib (obligatory). Similarly, if anyone's possession of silver and trade merchandise add up to the nisab he is liable to pay zakah (Annual due charity). And again, if anyone has trade merchandise and cash adding up to the nisab then he will have to pay zakah (Annual due charity). It is wajib (obligatory) in all these cases.
Gold and silver may be in any form whatsoever, even untensils, zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on them. Silver on borders and laces should also be calculated if this comes to the nisab zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory). Pearls, rubies and other stones do not have zakah (Annual due charity) wajib (obligatory) on them even if anyone possessions millions of rupees worth of them. If they are trade merchandise, then zakah (Annual due charity) is payable on them.

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON SLAVES & HORSES

(١٧٩٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِ صَدَقَةٌ فِيْ عَبْدِهٖ وَلَا فِيْ فَرَسِهٖ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ لَيْسَ فِيْ عَبْدِهٖ صَدَقَةٌ إِلَّا صَدَقَةُ الْفِطْرِ (متفق عليه)

1795. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) is (wajib (obligatory)) on a Muslim on his slave and on his horse."
According to another version: He said, "No sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) is (wajib (obligatory)) onhim on that slave, except hat the sadaqat ul fitr is due."[2]

COMMENTARY: The hadith refers to the slave and horse not stocked for trading. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad (H) follow this hadith. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله contends that if the horses and mares together graze in the open fields for most of the year then zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on them. The nisab is calculated at one dinar per head and on the total zakah (Annual due charity) is paid at one-fortieth (2.5 % of value).
It is stated in fatawa Qadi Khan, Durr Mukhrtar and Fatawa Alamgiri that the Hanafis follow Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله that zakah (Annual due charity)

[1] In ancient times, silver coins were in circulation and it was necessary to go by that and Mazahir Haq (urdu) had these examples, otherwise the simple method is one fortieth of silver, or its value is zakah (Annual due charity). (That is 2.5%) is not wajib (obligatory) on horses.
[2] Bukhari # 1464, Muslim 3 8-982, Abu Dawud # 1595, Tirmidhi # 628, Nasa'i # 2467, Ibn Majah # 1812, DArimi # 1632, Muwatta # 37 (Zakah (Annual due charity)), Musnad Ahmad 2-242.

1796. It is reported about Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ that when Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ (the amir ul muminin) sent him to Bahrayn (a place near Busrah), he wrote a letter (of guidance) to him;

In the name of Allah, the compassionate, the Merciful. This is about the fard (compulsory) (sadaqah (charity)) that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم imposed on the Muslims on the command of Allah to impose it. Those Muslims on whom a just demand is made (for zakah (Annual due charity)) must pay it, but those on whom a demand is made for an amount in excess (of the Shari'ah prescribed) must not pay (the excess demand).

(The nisab of zakah (Annual due charity) is:) On camels twenty four or less in number a sheep is payable for every five. (There is no zakah (Annual due charity) on less than five camels. Between five and nine, one sheep; ten and fourteen, two; fifteen and nineteen, three sheep and twenty and twenty four, four sheep) when they the camels) are twenty five to thirty five, a she camel in her second year (bint makhad) is payable. When they are thirty six to forty five, a she camel in her third year (bint labun) is to be paid, who they are forty six to sixty, a she camel in her fourth year that is ready to respond to a stallion(hiqqah). When they are sixty one to seventy five a she camel in her fifth year (jadh'ah) is when they are seventy six to ninety, two she camels in their third year are payable. When they are ninety one to one hundred and twenty, two she camels in their fourth year that are ready to oblige a stallion are payable. When they are more than one hundred and twenty, one she-camel in her third year is payable for every forty and a she camel in her fourth year for every fifty. If anyone has only four camels, sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) is not wajib (obligatory) on them unless their owner wishes (to pay an optional charity as much as he wishes). When they are five (camels), one sheep is payable on them.

If anyone whose camels are the number on which a she camel in her fifth year is payable (as zakah (Annual due charity)) and he does not have it but has a she-camel in her fourth year, then that will be acceptable from him alongwith two sheep if he can pay them easily, otherwise (he should pay) twenty dirhams.

If anyone whose camels are so many that on them a she camel in her fourth year is payable and he does not have it but has a she camel in her fifth year, then that will be acceptable from him and the collector will have to give him twenty dirhams or two sheep.

If anyone whose camels are the number on which a she camel in her fourth year is payable and he has none but one in her third year, then that will be acceptable from him alongwith two sheep or twenty dirhams.

If anyone whose camels are so many that on them a she camel in her third year is payable and he has one in her fourth year, then that is acceptable from him and the collector must give him twenty dirhams or two sheep.

If anyone whose camels are the number on which a she camel in her third year is payable and he does not have it but has one in her second year, then that will be acceptable from him and he will have to pay alongwith it twenty dirhams or two sheep.

If anyone whose camels are the number on which a she camel in second year is payable and he does not have it but has one in her third year than that will be acceptable from him and the collector will reimburse him with twenty dirhams or two sheep. However, if he does not have a she camel in her second year as payable and has a male camel in its third year, then that will be acceptable from him without any further demand alongwith it (on him, nor will the collector pay anything to him).

As for the sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) on sheep that are pasturing: when they are from forty to one hundred and twenty, a sheep is payable. Above one hundred and twenty to two hundred, two sheep are payable. From over two hundred to three hundred, three sheep are payable. When they are more than three hundred, one sheep is payable for every hundred.

If anyone has pasturing sheep even one less than forty. No sadaqah (charity) is payable on the unless their owner wishes (to pay an optional charity).

An old sheep, one with a defect in the eye, or a male goat may not be presented as sadaqah (charity) unless the collector is willing.

Those that are in different flocks should not be put together and those that are in one flock should not be separated for fear of zakah (Annual due charity).

If two people are partners in one nisab, then they must apportion with fairness the due of each.

On dirhams, a fortieth is payable. If anyone has only one hundred and ninety (which is less than the nisab) then nothing is payable unless their owner pays voluntarily (of his own record). [1]

COMMENTARY: Previously, we read a hadith calling upon the payers of zakah (Annual due charity) to please the zakah (Annual due charity) collector even if he acts unjustly towards them (Hadith # 1782). Another (# 1783) recounts how some people complained to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم of the harsh attitude of the collectors and their demand for excess. They asked if they could conceal some of their properties from them. He did not allow them to do any such thing.

In this hadith, those who are asked to pay more are instructed not to pay. The fact is that in those times, the collectors were the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم who could not be expected to wrong anyone or demand more than the due. It was the payers who had a wrong impression about them. In this case, Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه spoke of the collectors who were not the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم but they were other people. They were liable to commit excess so, he gave instructions that excess demand should not be met.

When the number exceeds one hundred one twenty, Qadi رحمه الله said that the calculation must not begin afresh for zakah (Annual due charity). Rather, at an increase of every forty a she-camel in her third year, and at an increase of every fifty a she camel in her fourth year should be paid towards zakah (Annual due charity). Most imams observe this verdict, but Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that the calculation must begin all over again. Hence, when the number of camels exceed one hundred and twenty, two hiqqah (or she camels in their fourth year) and one sheep will be (wajib (obligatory)) payable.

In this way till the number of twenty four, one sheep will be wajib (obligatory) on every five and so on.

At twenty five and more than twenty five one bint makhad (a she camel in her second year) will be payable (as wajib (obligatory)).
In this way calculation will be made till the end according to the earlier order.
Imam Nakha'I رحمه الله and Imam Thawri رحمه الله held the same opinion. They cite the words of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم "When the number of the camels exceeds one hundred, the calculation must begin afresh."
The same opinion is attributed to Sayyiduna Ali رضي الله عنه.
The zakah (Annual due charity) of the camels is payable (as wajib (obligatory)) though the female camels, or their value. The zakah (Annual due charity) of the cows and sheep may be paid, without distinction, through male or female animal. Zakah (Annual due charity) may be paid towards them through male animals or their value, or female or their value.
As for the words that if the payer does not possess a she camel in her second year worthy of payment Ibn Maalik رحمه الله has said that it could have three meanings:

(i) He simply does not have a she camel one year old, in her second year.
(ii) He has it, but it is not of sound health and as good as not possessing it.
(iii) He has it, but it is very previous. (Zakah (Annual due charity) is to be paid by property of average or moderate value)

In such a case when he does not have a she camel in her second year, he may pay a male camel in its third year as zakah (Annual due charity). Noting else is either payable receivable. Against this, if a female camel is paid of higher value or a lower value, then the collector returns two sheep or twenty dirhams or, in the latter case, the payer gives an additional payment of two sheep or twenty dirhams. This shows that a female compensates difference in age (of the animal).
The hadith speaks of posturing sheep only, but this condition applies to every animals sheep or camel or cow. That will be necessary when paying zakah (Annual due charity). They ought to have postured for most of the year, meaning more then half year. If an animal is given lay to graze at home for most of the year then zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on it.
The nisab of seep is forty. If they are less then forty, then zakah (Annual due charity) on them is not wajib (obligatory). At forty, it will be wajib (obligatory) to pay one sheep as zakah (Annual due charity) and up to one hundred and twenty only one sheep is wajib (obligatory) zakah (Annual due charity). The hadith gives the calculation up to three hundred. After that, one sheep is payable for every one hundred sheep. This means that if one has four hundred sheep, he will pay four as zakah (Annual due charity). Most ulama (Scholars) and imams agree with this opinion, but Hasan ibn Salih رحمه الله said that even if he has one sheep above three hundred, he will pay four sheep as wajib (obligatory) zakah (Annual due charity).
Defective animals should not be paid to the collectors of zakah (Annual due charity) if all one's property or most of it is free from defect. However, if all of the property is defective, then a selection should be made for the average.
It is disallowed to take a he goat against zakah (Annual due charity), because people keep the male goat with the female to breed them. If the male goat is taken away, the owner will suffer. Or, the reason is that its flesh is bad smelling and of poor taste.
The separate flocks must not be brought together. The background is the question. Is zakah (Annual due charity) calculated on the total number of sheep or against the word of the owner. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله said that zakah (Annual due charity) is paid on the basis of the total in the flocks and he does not trust the owner for that Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that number in the flocks are not the basis but the owner's word is trusted. Thus, if anyone has eighty sheep in who separate flocks. According to imam Shafi'I رحمه الله the basis is the number of flocks. So two sheep will be collected towards zakah (Annual due charity) from the two flocks. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله will have only one sheep from both flocks together, for though they are eighty sheep divided in two flocks, yet there only is one owner and they fall in the slab of forty to one hundred and twenty and only one sheep is wajib (obligatory) zakah (Annual due charity). Only one sheep will be collected from this man.

The second example is of eighty sheep all in a single flock belonging two people. According to Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, only one sheep will be collected from this flock. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله will have two sheep collected from this flock because, though they are together in one flock, yet they have two different owner each possessing forty sheep each making one sheep wajib (obligatory) as zakah (Annual due charity) on his property.

Keeping this in mind, the words of the hadith not to bring different flocks together are interpreted by Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله to refer to the owner. If one person has forty sheep and another has forty, they must not being them together to escape zakah (Annual due charity), and pay on eighty in the slab and thus pay only one sheep instead of two, so they must not combine them into one.

In the some may, he must not separate the animals from the single flock. This prohibition also refers to the owner. Suppose he has twenty sheep that are together with someone elses in his flock. So, he must not separate his sheep from that person's flock to escape payment of zakah (Annual due charity) on the lot, for, if they are outside the flock, he will not have to pay zakah (Annual due charity) on them.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله interpreted these words to refer to the collector of zakah (Annual due charity). He must not bring together sheep in diverse flocks into one to be able to collect zakah (Annual due charity). In separate flocks they may be out of the nisab, so he puts them together to make them liable to zakah (Annual due charity). So it is not allowed to him to do so.

The second prohibition, too applies to the zakah (Annual due charity) collector. He must not separate animals that belong to one slab. If a person has eighty sheep, forty at one place and as many at another place, the collector must not treat them as two separate properties to collect two sheep from him. Rather, he must have them counted together in one slab and collect only one sheep as per the rule, because they are under one ownership and only one sheep is wajib (obligatory) zakah (Annual due charity) on eighty sheep.

As for two different people being partners in one nisab, the collector will collect according to procedure but they will settle their accounts themselves. For example, if they have two hundred sheep. One partner owns forty of those and the other one hundred and sixty. On the total wajib (obligatory) zakah (Annual due charity) is two sheep. The collector will collect one sheep from each of them because he cannot divide a sheep. In this way, the first person will suffer a loss because he owns only forty but pays the same zakah (Annual due charity) as t he owner of one hundred and sixty sheep. After the collector takes the sheep, these two men must settle their account. The owner of the forty sheep will get from the other three fifths of the value of his sheep. So, his payment of zakah (Annual due charity) will be two fifths (value of sheep). The rest will be the payment of the other person. This is the implication of 'they will apportion with fairness.'

USHR ON PRODUCE OF LAND

(١٧٩٧) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فِيْمَا سَقَتِ السَّمَآءُ وَالْعُيُوْنُ اَوْكَانَ عَثَرِيًّا الْعُشْرُ وَمَا سُقِيَ بِالنَّضْحِ نِصْفُ الْعُشْرِ(رواه البخاری)

1797. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "That which is watered by the heaven (rain) and springs, or is athari (عثر) meaning stumbles on water by accident like trees on banks of rivers, or undergrounds moisture), one tenth is payable on that. That for which water is drawn by animals (like camels) on its produce, the wajib (obligatory) zakah (Annual due charity) is on twentieth."[1]

COMMENTARY: Athri is the land irrigated by the ditch or canals dug in earth to channel water to fields, etc. Or, it is the land near water and always remains moist and green.

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON BURIED TREASURE

(١٧٩٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْعَجْمَآءُ جُرْحُهَا جُبَارٌ وَالْبِئْرُ جُبَارٌ وَّ الْمَعْدِنُ جُبَارٌ وَّفِي الرِّكَازِ الْخُمُسُ(متفق علیه)

1798. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Blood wit or retaliation is not liable for wound caused by an animal, for death (or wound), while having a well dug or while having a mine excavated One fifth is payable as zakah (Annual due charity) or rikaz."[2]

COMMENTARY: If an animal like a horse, ox, buffalo, wounds someone or destroys something or kills someone and no human being is with the animal and it is day time, then that is forgiven to the owner (or keeper) of the animal. No retaliation or fine is imposed on him. However, if someone is riding the animal or leading it along when this happens, then blood wit, retaliation or penalty is wajib (obligatory) on the owner, because there is an element of carelessness and negligence on his part. Similarly, if an animal escapes in the night and hurts someone or wrecks something, then its owner will be liable to damages and to make compensation, because animals are shackled in the night and he was careless in not doing so. These comments are made in the light of other ahadith and evidences.

If anyone hires labourers to dig a well or a mine and, as a result of an accident, any of them dies, then no blood wit or compensation is wajib (obligatory) on the employer. The same applies whether he is having a well dug in his own premises or on a utility land whose owner is unknown and some human being or animal dies in it. However, if any one has a well dug on the highway or on someone else's land without his permission and someone or an animal falls and dies the damages or bloodwit will be wajib (obligatory) on the 'qiblah of the person digging the well. The same command applies to one who has some portion of land excavated for gold, silver, turquoise blue or sand.

WHO IS AAQILAH: It is a juristic term. It means the companions or friends of the person who is responsible for the death of someone accidentally, like, in this hadith, falling into the well. He who has the well dug is the one whose aaqilah will be liable to damages. His friends or companions, where he works are the aaqilah, but if he has none then his tribe or family are his aaqilah.

WHY MUST AAQILAH PAY: Though this person has committed the crime unintentionally, yet he may continue to be careless. Someone has to guarantee his conduct. So, the aaqilah are made responsible to watch over him.

WHAT IS RIKAZ: Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that the rikaz in this hadith means mine. But, the people of the Hijaz say that rikaz is the treasure of the jahiliyah (ignorance era) buried in the earth. As for as this hadith is concerned, the meaning suggested by Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله is more appropriate. Indeed, a saying of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم also brings out this meaning of rikaz. He was asked about it and he said that rikaz is the gold and silver that Allah placed in the earth when he created it.

KIND OF THINGS EXCAVATED FROM EARTH: There are three kinds of excavated things from mines.

(i) Solid things that melt when put in fire and can be moulded or minted as coins. Examples are gold, silver, iron, pewter, tin, etc.

(ii) Non solids like water, oil, pitch, sulpher etc.

(iii) Non combustibles that will be melt in fire and cannot be moulded, like stone, lime, sulphurate of arsenic.

Of these three kinds, zakah (Annual due charity) is levied only on the first kind. Khums or one-fifth is wajib (obligatory) and the condition of the passage of one year does not apply. According to Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله of the minerals, zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) only on gold and silver. It is not wajib (obligatory) on other excavations from mines, like iron, pewter, etc.

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON COWS & OXEN

(١٧٩٩) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ عَفَوْتُ عَنِ الْخَيْلِ وَالرَّقِيْقِ فَهَاتُوْا صَدَقَةَ الرِّقَةِ مِنْ كُلِّ اَرْبَعِيْنَ دِرْهَمًا دِرْهَمٌ وَّلَيْسَ فِيْ تِسْعِيْنَ وَمِائَةٍ شَيْءٌ فَاِذَا بَلَغَتْ مِائَتَيْنِ فَفِيْهَا خَمْسَةُ دَرَاهِمَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِّاَبِيْ دَاوٗدَ عَنِ الْحَارِثِ الْاَعْوَرِ عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ زُهَيْرٌ اَحْسِبُهٗ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهٗ قَالَ هَاتُوْا رُبْعَ الْعُشْرِ مِنْ كُلِّ اَرْبَعِيْنَ دِرْهَمًا دِرْهَمٌ وَّلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ شَيْءٌ حَتّٰى تَتِمَّ مِائَتَيْ دِرْهَمٍ فَاِذَا كَانَتْ مِائَتَيْ دِرْهَمٍ فَفِيْهَا خَمْسَةُ دَرَاهِمَ فَمَا زَادَ فَعَلٰى حِسَابِ ذٰلِكَ وَفِي الْغَنَمِ فِيْ كُلِّ اَرْبَعِيْنَ شَاةً شَاةٌ اِلٰى عِشْرِيْنَ وَمِائَةٍ فَاِنْ زَادَتْ وَاحِدَةٌ فَشَاتَانِ اِلٰى مِائَتَيْنِ فَاِنْ زَادَتْ فَثَلَاثُ شِيَاهٍ اِلٰى ثَلَاثِ مِائَةٍ فَاِذَا زَادَتْ عَلٰى ثَلَاثِ مِائَةٍ فَفِيْ كُلِّ مِائَةٍ شَاةٌ فَاِنْ لَّمْ تَكُنْ اِلَّا تِسْعٌ وَّثَلَاثُوْنَ فَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكَ فِيْهَا شَيْءٌ وَّفِي الْبَقَرِ فِيْ كُلِّ ثَلَاثِيْنَ تَبِيْعٌ وَّفِي الْاَرْبَعِيْنَ مُسِنَّةٌ وَّلَيْسَ عَلَى الْعَوَامِلِ شَيْءٌ۔

1799. Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have exempted horses and slaves (from zakah (Annual due charity), provided the slave is not part of trade merchandise and the different opinion about horses have been discussed previously, e.g. hadith 1795) You must pay zakah (Annual due charity) on silver at one dirham for every forty (when its holding is equal to the nisab of two hundred dirhams because) nothing is payable on one hundred and ninety. When silver is to the total of two hundred dirhams, five dirhams are wajib (obligatory) towards zakah (Annual due charity)."

According to the version of Abu Dawud from al-Harith al-Awar رحمه الله from Sayyiduna Ali رحمه الله, from the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, Zuhayr رحمه الله presumed that he said, "Pay every year) one dirhams out of forty dirhams (which is one fortieth). Nothing is wajib (obligatory) on you till you have full two hundred dirhams. When you have two hundred dirhams, five dirhams are wajib (obligatory) (as zakah (Annual due charity)). When that is more than two hundred dirhams zakah (Annual due charity) will be wajib (obligatory) in the some proportion.

As for sheep, one sheep is wajib (obligatory) (as zakah (Annual due charity)) for every forty sheep up to one hundred and twenty. If there is one more, then up to two hundred sheep two sheep are wajib (obligatory). If there are more than three hundred, one sheep is wajib (obligatory) for every one hundred. However, if you have only thirty nine, nothing is wajib (obligatory) on them.

As for cattle, the nisab is a year-old male calf for every thirty an a cow in its third year for every forty, as wajib (obligatory) zakah (Annual due charity). Nothing is wajib (obligatory) (as zakah (Annual due charity)) on animals used for work."[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رضى الله عنه abide by the hadith and say that zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) in the same proportion who one's holding exceeds two hundred dirhams, one-fortieth will be paid as zakah (Annual due charity). Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, however, said that zakah (Annual due charity) will be wajib (obligatory) on the amount exceeding two hundred dirhams only when that is forty dirhams. If it is less than forty, then no zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on it, but will be paid only for two hundred dirhams. His deduction is based on other ahadith too.

A male calf is to be given as zakah (Annual due charity) for cows. Hence it is the same whether the male is paid or t he female. This is more clear in a following tradition. It is not necessary when paying zakah (Annual due charity) against cows and sheep to give only the female. In this case, it is different from the camels whose zakah (Annual due charity) is always a female. There is no such restriction for cows and sheep. (But see commentary on hadith # 1796).

Allamah Ibn Hajr رحمه الله said that if cows or bulls are more than forty, zakah (Annual due charity) will not be paid on the excess till the number rises on sixty. When they are sixty in number, two male or two female one year old calves will be wajib (obligatory). Thereafter, at every forty a two year old bull or cow will be wajib (obligatory). At every thirty, a one year old bull or cow will be payable. For example, at seventy, one each two year old and one year old will be given. At eighty, two two year olds, at ninety, three one year olds and at one hundred, two one year olds and one two year old will be wajib (obligatory). So, too, at every thirty one one-year old and at every forty one two year old will be paid towards zakah (Annual due charity).

While Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله agree with Ibn Hajar رحمه الله on his verdict that no zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on cows or bulls in excess of forty till their number reaches sixty, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that zakah (Annual due charity) will be calculated and paid for the number above forty till it reaches sixty. At sixty, two one years old will be wajib (obligatory) and rest of the payment will be according to the foregoing outline. Thus, if the number is even one above forty one fortieth of a two year old or one thirtieth of a one year old - meaning the value of these (in cash) - will have to be paid. For any number above it, calculation shall be made in this manner. The writer of the Hadiyah and his followers opine that this contention of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله is the only reliable.[1]

As for nothing being wajib (obligatory) on animals being put to work, any of the animals that are used for need, like bull or ox to draw water or carry load then, even if their number reaches the nisab, zakah (Annual due charity) on them is not wajib (obligatory). The same command applies to camels, etc. while Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad ibn Hanbal رحمه الله abide by this hadith, Imam Maalik رحمه الله says that zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on these animals too.

(١٨٠٠) وَعَنْ مُعَاذٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا وَجَّهَهُ اِلَى الْيَمَنِ اَمَرَهُ اَنْ يَّاْخُذَ مِنَ الْبَقَرِ مِنْ كُلِّ ثَلَاثِيْنَ تَبِيْعًا اَوْ تَبِيْعَةً وَّمِنْ كُلِّ اَرْبَعِيْنَ مُسِنَّةً (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی والدارمی)

1800. Sayyiduna Mu'adh رضی الله عنه narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم sent him to Yemen, he instructed him to take (as zakah (Annual due charity)) a one year old male or female calf for every thirty cows, and a cow in its third year for every forty cows.[2]

SINFUL TO COLLECT MORE ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) THAN DUE

(١٨٠١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمُعْتَدِيْ فِي الصَّدَقَةِ كَمَانِعِهَا (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی)

1801. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who exceeds in collecting zakah (Annual due charity), more than due is like one who does not pay zakah (Annual due charity)."[3]

(It is as much a sin to collect more as it is to fail to pay the due)

1802. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی الله عنه narrted that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) is payable on grain and dates till they are five awsaq (or five camel load in quantity).[4]

[4] Muslim # 5-979, Nasa'i # 2485, Musnad Ahmad 3-502.

COMMENTARY: Zakah (Annual due charity) payable on these two items is mentioned in hadith # 1794. The wasq is defined there.

(١٨٠٣) وَعَنْ مُوْسَى بْنِ طَلْحَةَ قَالَ عِنْدَنَا كِتَابُ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ قَالَ اِنَّمَا اَمَرَهُ اَنْ يَّاخُذَ الصَّدَقَةَ مِنَ الْحِنْطَةِ وَالشَّعِيْرِ وَالزَّبِيْبِ وَالتَّمْرِ مُرْسَلٌ(رواه فی شرح السنة)

1803. Sayyiduna Musa ibn Talhah رحمه الله narrated that they had the letter of (Sayyiduna) Mu'adh ibn Jabal رحمه الله from the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He said that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had instructed him to collect sadaqah (charity) on wheat, barley, raisins and dates.[1]
This hadith is mursal. It is transmitted by sharh us Sunnah.

COMMENTARY: This does not mean that zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on only these four produce of land. Rather, according to Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله zakah (Annual due charity) is levied on every produce of land that can be food for a human being and according to the Hanafis, zakah (Annual due charity) is payable on every produce of the land whether it is food or not for life. This hadith refers to only four things as a particular case because they were available in that area.

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON GRAPES

(١٨٠٤) وَعَنْ عَتَّابِ بْنِ اُسَيْدٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فِيْ زَكَاةِ الْكُرُوْمِ اِنَّهَا تُخْرَصُ كَمَا تُخْرَصُ النَّخْلُ ثُمَّ تُؤَدّٰى زَكَاتُهُ زَبِيْبًا كَمَا تُؤَدّٰى زَكَاةُ النَّخْلِ تَمْرًا(رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد)

1804. Sayyiduna Attab ibn Usayd رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said about zakah (Annual due charity) on (vines or) grapes that they should be estimated as dates are estimated. Then zakah (Annual due charity) on them should be paid when they dry (as raisins) just as zakah (Annual due charity) is paid on dates when they are dry.[2]

COMMENTARY: When grapes and dates become sweet, an expert can estimate their quantity because they are dry.
Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that when they are dry, one tenth of their quantity whatever it is should be paid towards zakah (Annual due charity).
However, Imam Abu Yusuf and Imam Muhammad, the two companions of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله said that zakah (Annual due charity) at one-tenth will be paid when they reach the limit of nisab which is five wasq.

(١٨٠٥) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ اَبِيْ حَثْمَةَ حَدَّثَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا خَرَصْتُمْ فَخُذُوْا وَدَعُوا الثُّلُثَ فَاِنْ لَّمْ تَدَعُوا الثُّلُثَ فَدَعُوا الرُّبُعَ(رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی)

1805. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Abu Hathmah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to say, "When you have estimated (the zakah (Annual due charity) on grapes and dates), take away (two thirds of them) and leave one-third, but if you will not spare one third then leave one-fourth (at least)."[1]

COMMENTARY: This address is to the collectors of zakah (Annual due charity). They were instructed to first determine the zakah (Annual due charity) payable and then take two thirds of it and spare one third so that the owner may feed his neighbours and travellers. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله give their verdict on this basis and though Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله had originally subscribed to this view yet later he said that the amount of zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) and nothing should be spared from it.

He said that this hadith concerns the Jews of Khaybar. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had agreed with them share-cropping at half the produce of dates for them and half for him. Hence, he gave this command to the men deputed to estimate the produce of dates there. They were to leave for the Jews as a gesture of good will one third or one fourth of the dates and then divide the rest half and half. They were to hand over one half to the Jews and send the other to the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم court.

ESTIMATE OF DATE

(١٨٠٦) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَبْعَثُ عَبْدَ اللّٰهِ بْنَ رَوَاحَةَ إِلَى يَهُوْدَ فَيَخْرُصُ النَّخْلَ حِيْنَ تَطِيْبُ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُؤْكَلَ مِنْهُ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1806. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم used to send (Sayyiduna) Abdullah ibn Rawahah رضى الله عنه to the Jews. He would make an estimate of the dates when they were ready (and sweet) but before they were eaten at all.[2]

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON HONEY

(١٨٠٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْعَسَلِ فِيْ كُلِّ عَشْرَةِ أَزُقٍّ زِقٌّ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ فِيْ إِسْنَادِهٖ مَقَالٌ وَّلَا يَصِحُّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ هٰذَا الْبَابِ كَثِيْرُ شَيْءٍ۔

1807. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said about honey that on every ten skins, one skin is paid towards zakah (Annual due charity).[3]

Tirmidhi said that the isnad of the hadith is not sound. Moreover, most of the ahadith on this subject are weak.

COMMENTARY: The imams differ on this subject. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله said that there is no zakah (Annual due charity) on honey. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that zakah (Annual due charity) is payable on honey irrespective of its quantity provided it is from ushri land. He cites the hadith: 'The ushr is wajib (obligatory) on every produce of land.' He maintained that it is also wajib (obligatory) to pay one-tenth on the honey collected from mountains.

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON JEWELLERY

(١٨٠٨) وَعَنْ زَيْنَبَ امْرَأَةِ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ قَالَتْ خَطَبَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا مَعْشَرَ النِّسَآءِ

تَصَدَّقْنَ وَلَوْ مِنْ حُلِيِّكُنَّ فَإِنَّكُنَّ أَكْثَرُ أَهْلِ جَهَنَّمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ(رواه الترمذى)

1808. Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنه wife of Sayyiduna Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud)رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed them, saying. "O you company of women, pay zakah (Annual due charity) (on your property) even if it is from your jewellery because you will from the majority of the inmates of hell, on the day of resurrection."[1]

COMMENTARY: Women are generally more devoted to the world and its things because of which they do not pay zakah (Annual due charity) and are not motivated to spend in Allah's path. So they are advised to be content with what Allah has given them and pay zakah (Annual due charity) and give charity to earn the mercy of Allah on the day of resurrection.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on jewellary when its value is as much as the nisab. The ancient opinion of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله was identical.

Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله said that zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on that jewellery of women whose use is permissible, but is wajib (obligatory) on the jewellery whose use is forbidden. The final opinion of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله was the same as theirs.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله relied on this hadith that establishes zakah (Annual due charity) as wajib (obligatory) on jewellery without distinction.

About the jewellery that is permissible or forbidden, recourse may be had to muharrir and other books of the Shafi'I school of thought.

(١٨٠٩) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ أَنَّ امْرَأَتَيْنِ أَتَتَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَفِيْ أَيْدِيْهِمَا سِوَارَانِ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ فَقَالَ لَهُمَا تُؤَدِّيَانِ زَكَاتَهُ قَالَتَا لَا فَقَالَ لَهُمَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَتُحِبَّانِ أَنْ يُسَوِّرَكُمَا اللّٰهُ بِسِوَارَيْنِ مِنْ نَّارٍ قَالَتَا لَا قَالَ فَأَدِّيَا زَكَاتَهُ. رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ قَدْ رَوَى الْمُثَنَّى بْنُ الصَّبَّاحِ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ نَحْوَ هٰذَا وَالْمُثَنَّى بْنُ الصَّبَّاحِ وَابْنُ لَهِيْعَةَ يُضَعَّفَانِ فِي الْحَدِيْثِ وَلَا يَصِحُّ فِيْ هٰذَا الْبَابِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَيْءٌ۔

1809. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله narrated from his father from his grand father that two women came to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. They had two bracelets on their hands. He asked them if they had both paid zakah (Annual due charity) on them and they said that they had not paid it. So, he asked them, "would you prefer that Allah should make you wear bracelets of fire (on the day of resurrection)?" They said. "No!" He said, "Pay zakah (Annual due charity) on them."[2]

Tirmidhi said a similar hadith is transmitted through another line of narrators but nothing sound is reported on this subject.

COMMENTARY: This hadith is explicit that zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on jewellery. In spite of Imam Tirmidhi's رحمه الله saying that there is nothing sound on this subject, other books of hadith carry ahadith on this topic which Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has 1810. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه narrated that she was wearing gold ornaments (wadah). (Once) she asked, "O Messenger of Allah, is it (classified as) treasure?" He said, 'when anything is to t he value (of nisab) that attracts zakah (Annual due charity) and zakah (Annual due charity) is paid on that then it is not treasure (or what is hoarded)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه had in mind the verse (34) of surah at-Tawbah:

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَكْنِزُوْنَ الذَّهَبَ وَ الْفِضَّةَ الْاٰيَةِ

{And those who hoard up gold and silver....}

The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم assured her that she did not come under the purview of the verse if she had paid zakah (Annual due charity) on her property of it was of the value of the nisab.

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON TRADE MERCHANDISE

(١٨١١) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَأْمُرُنَا أَنْ نُّخْرِجَ الصَّدَقَةَ مِنَ الَّذِى نُعِدُّ لِلْبَيْعِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1811. Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم used to command them to pay zakah (Annual due charity) onthat which they prepared for trade.[2]

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON MINES

(١٨١٢) وَعَنْ رَبِيْعَةَ بْنِ أَبِيْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ عَنْ غَيْرِ وَاحِدٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَقْطَعَ لِبِلَالِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ الْمُزَنِيِّ مَعَادِنَ الْقَبَلِيَّةِ وَهِيَ مِنْ نَّاحِيَةِ الْفُرُعِ فَتِلْكَ الْمَعَادِنُ لَا تُؤْخَذُ مِنْهَا إِلَّا الزَّكَاةُ إِلَى الْيَوْمِ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1812. Sayyiduna Rab'iah ibn Abdur Rahman رحمه الله narrated on the authority of many sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم entrusted to (Sayyiduna) Bilal ibn Harith Muzari رضی الله عنه the mines of al-Qubaliyah to manage them. This is in the neighbourhood of fur,' Till the present day only zakah (Annual due charity) is received from them.[3]

COMMENTARY: Fur is a place between Makkah and Madinah. The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had granted the mines to Sayyiduna ibn Harith رضی الله عنه so that he might sustain himself from it.

On the basis of this hadith. Imam Maalik رحمه الله held that one-fortieth is levied on mines, not one fifth. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله held that one fifth is wajib (obligatory) on mines. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله gave verdict in favour of both, and also a third that if excavation requires toil a third that if excavation requires one-fifth.
Perhaps some ruler may have ruled at some time that one-fortieth should be levied on these mines. Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has spoken at length on this in his Mirqat.

NO ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON VEGETABLES & TREES LOANED

(١٨١٣) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَيْسَ فِي الْخَضْرَاوَاتِ صَدَقَةٌ وَّلَا فِي الْعَرَايَا صَدَقَةٌ وَّلَافِيْ اَقَلَّ مِنْ خَمْسَةِ اَوْسُقٍ صَدَقَةٌ وَّلَافِي الْعَوَامِلِ صَدَقَةٌ وَّلَا فِي الْجَبْهَةِ صَدَقَةٌ قَالَ الصَّقْرُ الْجَبْهَةُ الْخَيْلُ وَ الْبِغَالُ وَالْعَبِيْدُ۔ (رواه الدار قطني)

1813. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Zakah (Annual due charity) is not payable on vegetables, not on trees gives on loan, not on less than five camel load (wasq), not on working animals, not on al-jabhah." As Saqr said that al-jabhah means horses, mules and slaves.[1]

COMMENTARY: In the beginning of the chapter, we have spoken in detail on zakah (Annual due charity) on vegetables.
Trees given on loan are araya. The owner of a palm tree loans it to a needy person making the year's produce of dates his property.
Comments on other things have been made previously.

ABOUT ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) ON WIQS ANIMALS

(١٨١٤) وَعَنْ طَاؤُوْسٍ اَنَّ مُعَاذَ بْنَ جَبَلٍ اُتِيَ بِوَقْصِ الْبَقَرِ فَقَالَ لَمْ يَأْمُرْنِيْ فِيْهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِشَيْءٍ۔ رَوَاهُ الدَّارَقُطْنِيُّ وَالشَّافِعِيُّ وَقَالَ الْوَقْصُ مَالَمْ يَبْلُغِ الْفَرِيْضَةَ۔

1814. Sayyiduna Tawus رحمہ اللہ narrated that a wiqs of cattle was brought to (Sayyiduna) Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ (that he might receive zakah (Annual due charity) on them). He explained that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had not commanded him to receive anything on them.[2]
(The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had not defined a wajib zakah (an obligatory charity) on that.)

COMMENTARY: Wiqs is the number of animals below the nisab level. It could be in the beginning or between two nisabs.
Suppose that there are less than thirty cattle. Zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on them and this is the number that did not reach the nisab from the beginning. It will be called wiqs.
When it is between two nisabs, zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on thirty cattle.

[1] Daraqutni # 1 (chapter; No Zakat on vegetables).
[2] Daraqutni # 21 (ibid)

When it is from thirty-one to thirty-nine, nothing is payable towards zakah (Annual due charity). At forty, the mount of zakah (Annual due charity) increases, so between thirty one and thirty nine, the count is wiqs. Similarly, forty, zakah (Annual due charity) increases at sixty, so the number between these two limits is wiqs because zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) at these numbers. After sixty, the amount of zakah (Annual due charity) will increase at seventy and the intervening numbers will be wiqs, because zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on these number. This will keep changing between every ten's the numbers of cattle between every two tens will be called wigs and zakah (Annual due charity) is waived on them.

The wiqs mentioned in the hadith was the initial wiqs because their number was less than thirty. The cows that were brought to Sayyiduna Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ were less than thirty.

The two companions of Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ hold that zakah (Annual due charity) is not wajib (obligatory) at all on the wiqs between two nisab. But Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that on wiqs between forty and sixty, zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory), but not other wiqs.

This question is discusses in the section I

Marak said that this hadith is munqata because Tawus رحمہ اللہ never met mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ.

CHAPTER - III

SADAQAT-UL-FITR بَابُ صَدَقَةِ الْفِطْرِ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

IS SADAQAT UL FITR WAJIB (OBLIGATORY) OR FARD (COMPULSORY)

(١٨١٥) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ فَرَضَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ زَكَاةَ الْفِطْرِ صَاعًا مِّنْ تَمْرٍ اَوْ صَاعًا مِّنْ شَعِيْرٍ عَلَى الْعَبْدِ وَالْحُرِّ وَالذَّكَرِ وَالْاُنْثٰى وَالصَّغِيْرِ وَالْكَبِيْرِ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ وَاَمَرَ بِهَا اَنْ تُؤَدّٰى قَبْلَ خُرُوْجِ النَّاسِ اِلَى الصَّلٰوةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

1815. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prescribed as fard (compulsory) the zakat ul fitr (sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan))(Charity after Ramadan) at ones'a of dried dates or one sa' of barley on every slave and freeman, male and female, young and old, of the Muslims. He gave command that this should be paid before departure of the people for the salah (prayer) (of eed ul fitr).[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ held that sadaqat ul fitr is fard (compulsory). Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ held that it is sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized prophet's practice) and Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ held that it is wajib (obligatory).

Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ said that it is payable by everyone who possess enough provision for one day for himself land for those people on who se behalf he is responsible to pay sadaqatul-fitr and that is over and above his need to the extent of the sadaqat ul fitr.

Imam Abu Hanifah said that sadaqat ul fitr is wajib (obligatory) on him who is rich which means that he holds possession of the value of 52.5 tola silver apart from his true needs, or has gold and silver in his possession and has no debts on him.

(One tola is equal to 124.416 gramme)

Sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan) becomes wajib (obligatory) with the dawn on eed ul fitr If anyone dies before that then this sadaqah (charity) is not wajib (obligatory) on him. And, if anyone embraces Islam on the eedul fitr after dawn of that day and his property, or a child is born at that time t hen sadaqat ul fitr is not wajib (obligatory) on them too. One sa' is equal to 3 kg and 266 grams.

The master will pay the sadaqatul-fitr for the slave who serves him but it is not wajib (obligatory) on him to pay it for the slave who is his trade property. It is also not wajib (obligatory) to pay for a slave who has fled, but if he returns then it will become wajib (obligatory) to pay for him.

If children are young and not rich then their father must pay sadaqatul-fitr for them (as Wajib (obligatory)). If they are rich, then it will be paid from their property.

The same command as for young children applies for grown up children who are insane. A father is not liable to pay sadaqatul-fitr for grown up (some) children neither is it wajib (obligatory) on a husband neither is it wajib (obligatory) on a husband for his wife. But, if they (father and husband) pay it on their behalf with their permission, then it is allowed.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that 'of the Muslim' qualities the 'slave' and the others named after that. So, it is not wajib (obligatory) for a Muslim to pay the sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan) for his disbelieving slave. But the writer of the Hidayah has written that the sadaqatul-fitr of a disbelieving slave too is wajib (obligatory) on his Muslim master. He has also cited a hadith in support of his view. It may be seen in the hidayah or Mirqat.

The Hanafis follow the edict of the writer of the Hidayah. (But, Allah knows best).

It is mustahab (desirable) to pay the sadaqatul-fitr before the salah (prayer) of eed. If anyone pays before that even by a month or more than a month, then it is permitted. But, it is not waived, if anyone delays it to beyond the salah (prayer) of eed or to a much later time. It has to be paid in any case.

THE AMOUNT OF SADAQATUL-FITR

(١٨١٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ كُنَّا نُخْرِجُ زَكَاةَ الْفِطْرِ صَاعًا مِّنْ طَعَامٍ اَوْصَاعًا مِّنْ شَعِيْرٍ اَوْصَاعًا مِّنْ تَمْرٍ اَوْصَاعًا مِّنْ اَقِطٍ اَوْصَاعًا مِّنْ زَبِيْبٍ (متفق عليه)

1816. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that they used to pay sadaaqatul fitr one sa' of grain (food) or one sa' of barley or one sa' of dates or one sa' of cheese or one sa' of dry raisins.[1]

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمه الله said that (طعام) (in the hadith - food) means wheat, but the Hanafi ulama (Scholars) say that it is grain other than wheat, in which case (طعام) describes the next words.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله classifies raisins with wheat, so half sa' is given as sadaqatul-fitr while his two companions classify dried dates with barley so they say that it is given one sulus sadaqat ul fitr. Hasan رحمه الله has cited one opinion of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله to the same effect.

1817. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that at the end of Ramadan people should pay the sadaqah (charity) concerning their fasts. He said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made it incumbent as a sa' of dried dates or barley, or half sa' of wheat on every freeman or slave, male or f female, young or old.[1]

WHY PAY IT

(١٨١٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ فَرَضَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ زَكَاةَ الْفِطْرِ طُهْرَ الصِّيَامِ مِنَ اللَّغْوِ وَالرَّفْثِ وَ طُعْمَةً لِّلْمَسَاكِيْنِ(رواه ابوداؤد)

1818. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made it necessary to pay the sadaqat ul fitr that it may purify fasting of vain and obscene talk, and as food for the needy.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sadaqatul-fitr is prescribed that hereby shortcomings in fasting in Ramadan may be overlooked, and the poor may be enabled to celebrate the eed.

Daraqutni's version of this hadith has this much more:

"If anyone pays sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan) before the salah (prayer) of eed, his sadaqah (charity) will be approved. He who pays it after the salah (prayer) of eed, it will be one of the sadaqah (charity).s"

1819. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb narrated on the authority of his father that his grandfather narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent someone to proclaim in the suburbs and streets of Makkah that the sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan) is wajib (obligatory) on every Muslim-male orf female, freeman or slave young or old at two mudds of wheat or its like (dry raisins, etc), or one sa' of grain (food other than wheat).[3]

COMMENTARY: Two mudds is half sa.

1820. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Tha'labah or Th'labah ibn Abdullah ibn Abu Su'ayr narrated from his father that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "One sa' of wheat is (sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan)) from two people (meaning, half of it from each) be they young or old freeman or slave, male or female. As for the rich among you, Allah will purify them (because of the sadaqah (charity)). And, as for the poor among you Allah grant them more than what they gave (towards it)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The copies of Mishkat have the name of the narrator as stated in the text. However, the correct name is; Abdullah ibn Tha'labah ibn Abu Sughair (عبدالله ابن ثعلبه ابن ابی صغیر) or ibn Abu Su'ayr (ابن ابی صعیر عن ابیه الخ) رحمه الله. He reported on the authority of his father. Sayyiduna Tha'labah رضی الله عنه was a sahabi from whom his son Abdullah narrated this hadith. The hadith calls upon both the rich and the poor to pay the sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan). As a result. Allah will purify the rich and bestow on the poor more than what he pays. However, these tidings are for the rich too whose wealth Allah will bless. The poor[2] is named specifically in order to exhort him to keep pace with others in paying the sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan).

CHAPTER - VI

THOSE TO WHOM TAKING ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) IS NOT LAWFUL

بَابُ مَنْ لَّا تَحِلُّ لَهُ الصَّدَقَةُ

Ahadith in this chapter will disclose the people who are not allowed to take zakah (Annual due charity) and derive benefit from it. We first enumerate the rulings in some detail.

1. The person who is a sahib nisab (owner of the wealth that attract zakah (Annual due charity) on it) and zakah (Annual due charity) is wajib (obligatory) on him must not pay zakah (Annual due charity) to his antecedents, meaning, parents, grandparents (paternal and maternal) and their forbears. It is not allowed to give zakah (Annual due charity) (sadaqah (charity)) to any of t hem. In the same way, it is disallowed to pay zakah (Annual due charity) to anyone of one's descendants, meaning, son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, great grand children and their progeny. According to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله the spouses should not pay zakah (Annual due charity) to one another. But, his two companions said that if a wife gives zakah (Annual due charity) to her husband then it is correct.

As for relatives other than these, it is proper to pay to them zakah (Annual due charity) provided hat they are deserving of receiving zakah (Annual due charity) which means that they are not rich, sayyid, Hashmi or disbelieving. In fact, compared to others it is better to pay it to one's own relatives.

[1] Abu Dawud # 1619.

[2] In the rulings of zakah (Annual due charity) and sadaqah (charity), the word faqir (poor) is used in its technical meaning. He is one who does not possess any property whose value equals the nisab that make zakah (Annual due charity) payable. Also, he should not be a total pauper and indigent. Here the faqir does not mean the present day mendicants because in common parlance, today, the faqir is a beggar or an absolutely down and out, destitute, (Footnote is from the original Urdu).

The ulama (Scholars) say that if zakah (Annual due charity) is given in t his order, it is very good: beginning with sister, brother, their children; followed by paternal uncle, paternal aunt and their children; followed by maternal uncle, maternal aunt, their children, followed by the dhawwul arham (relatives on the maternal side); followed by the unrelated neighbour, fellow-workers (or professionals). Fellow countrymen.

The same applies to sadaqatul fitr (charity after Ramadan) and vows. It is better to follow the fore mentioned order. While it is not wrong for anyone to give to strangers. Yet it is better to prefer one's relatives first.

2. It is not proper to give zakah (Annual due charity) to one's male or female slave. The some command applies to the payment to the umm walad, meaning the female slave who has be gotten her master's child. Her master should not pay her any zakah (Annual due charity).

3. It is proper to pay zakah (Annual due charity) to one's in-laws, like mother in law. Father in law, brother in law, sister in law and those who are related through them. In the same way, it is proper to pay zakah (Annual due charity) to one's son in law or daughter in law. It is also allowed to pay zakah (Annual due charity) to one's step mother and step maternal grandmother.

4. It is not proper to give zakah (Annual due charity) to ghani (rich person). Ghani is one who owns property to the tune of the nisab, whether naami or ghayr nami. The naami property is what which appreciates in value and grows or multiplies, like trade merchandise, cash, gold, silver and ornaments of gold and silver. These properties are called naami in Shari'ah. They have the property of multiplying. The livestock and cattle are also truly naami if they are for trading or breeding.

Ghayr naami property is what does not grow or appreciate in value, like castle dwellings clothing, utensils, etc. Even with these things if they are beyond one's real needs and to the value of the nisab and free from debt, it is not proper for the owner to receive zakah (Annual due charity) Anyone's real needs are his house where he resides, clothing he wears, utensils for cooking, books of scholars, weapons of the warriors, tools of the skilled workers, These are that which are counted as real needs.

5. It is not allowed to pay zakah (Annual due charity) to the Hashmi. Progeny of these five people are called Hashmi; Children of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ from Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہ or from his other wives; children or Sayyiduna Ja'far رضی اللہ عنہ; children of Sayyiduna Aqil رضی اللہ عنہ children of Sayyidua Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ the children of Sayyiduna Harith ibn Abdul Muttalib. رضی اللہ عنہ. Those who are descended from them are called hashmi and it is also disallowed to pay zakah (Annual due charity) to their slaves, male or female. If they are emancipated even then they are not allowed to take or consume zakah (Annual due charity).

6. It is not proper to pay zakah (Annual due charity) to an infidel whether he is hostile and at war or a dhimmi.

7. If any one pays zakah (Annual due charity) to a rich man or an infidel or his own father or son or wife imagining the recipient to be eligible and not knowing the true identity of the recipient but learns the facts later on then his zakah (Annual due charity) will be deemed to have been paid and he will not be required to make a fresh payment af zakah (Annual due charity).

8. It is not allowed to pay zakah (Annual due charity) towards construction of a mosque, the shroud of a dead person or the debt of a dead person. If anyone does so, then his zakah (Annual due charity) will be void and unpaid.

THE DESERVING: The deserving of zakah (Annual due charity) are the faqir. In the terminology of Shariah (divine law), faqir is one who possessed less then the nisab. The masakin are also the deserving of zakah (Annual due charity). They are those who have some kind of an eligibility who is appointed to collect zakah (Annual due charity) though he may himself be rich. By the way, a Hashimi is not allowed to draw the remuneration too that is paid to the collector of zakah (Annual due charity). Those engaged in jihad or a journey for the pilgrimage also are eligible to receive zakah (Annual due charity) when they have no money remaining with them though they have very much property in their native land. Similarly, it is also proper for other travelers to be paid zakah (Annual due charity) even if a traveller own immense property in his homeland.

Finally, if anyone has provision enough to sustain him even for a day, then it is not proper for him to stretch a begging hand. (Mawlana Muhammad Ishaq Dahlawi)

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS DISALLOWED

(١٨٢١) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ مَرَّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِتَمْرَةٍ فِي الطَّرِيْقِ فَقَالَ لَوْلَآ اَنِّيْ اَخَافُ اَنْ تَكُوْنَ مِنَ الصَّدَقَةِ لَاَكَلْتُهَا(متفق عليه)

1821. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم passed by a piece of date lying on the path He said, "Were it not that fear that it could be from (someone's) zakah (Annual due charity), I would have (picked it up as a blessing of Allah and) eaten it."[1]

COMMENTARY: Many deductions are drawn fro this hadith.

(i) The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was forbidden to consume zakah (Annual due charity). The ulama (Scholars) say that sadaqah (charity) was forbidden to him in all its forms, both zakah (Annual due charity) and optional. He could not put it to his use.

(ii) The Banu Hashim (Hashimis) are forbidden the wajib (obligatory) sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) but not the optional sadaqah (charity).

(iii) It is allowed to pick up anything lying on the road and eat it or put it to one's use even if it is very little in numbers and it is presumed that its owner would not look for it.

(iv) It is best for a believer to refrain from every such thing and keep away from it to which there is a semblance of doubt that it could be forbidden.

BANU HASHIM ARE DISALLOWED SADAQAH (CHARITY) AND ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY)

(١٨٢٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ اَخَذَ الْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ تَمْرَةً مِّنْ تَمْرِ الصَّدَقَةِ فَجَعَلَهَا فِيْ فِيْهِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَخْ كَخْ لِيَطْرَحَهَا ثُمَّ قَالَ اَمَا شَعَرْتَ اَنَّا لَانَاْكُلُ الصَّدَقَةَ(متفق عليه)

1822. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Sayyiduna Hasan ibn Ali رضى الله

[1] Bukhari # 2055, Muslim # 164-1071, Abu Dawud # 1652, Musnad Ahmad 3-291.

عنه took a piece of date of the sadaqah (charity) ad put it in his mouth. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said promptly, "spit it out! Spit it out!" so that he might throw it out (from his mouth). Then he said (to him), "Do you not know that we (Banu Hashim) do not eat sadaqah (charity)?"[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم question was a rhetorical question. How could one not know it? At that time Sayyiduna Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ was too young to know these things yet the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم put that tag question that others might know that Sadaqah (charity) is forbidden to Banu Hashim.

It follows from this hadith that parents and guardians must stop their wards from doing what Shari'ah disallows. The Hanafi scholars maintain that it is unlawful for parents to let their sons wear silk and gold and silver ornaments (that are forbidden to men).

ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) IS A PERSON'S DIRT

(١٨٢٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ بْنِ رَبِيْعَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ هٰذِهِ الصَّدَقَاتِ اِنَّمَا هِيَ اَوْسَاخُ النَّاسِ وَاِنَّهَا لَا تَحِلُّ لِمُحَمَّدٍ وَّلَا لِاٰلِ مُحَمَّدٍ (رواه مسلم)

1823. Sayyiduna Abdul Muttalib ibn Rabi'ah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "These *sadaqah (charity)*s are merely the dirty things of people. And they are not lawful for Muhammad or for the family of Muhammad."[2]

COMMENTARY: He described zakah (Annual due charity) as dirt because like the body of a person is cleansed when dirt is removed from it, so after paying zakah (Annual due charity) not only is one's property purified but also the payer's heart and soul become pure.

This hadith is evidence that it was forbidden to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to receive zakah (Annual due charity). In the same way, it is forbidden to the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offspring (Banu Hashim) to take it whether they are appointed to receive zakah (Annual due charity) or are needy and helpless. This is to what the Hanafis subscribe.

THE PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم CAUTION

(١٨٢٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اُتِيَ بِطَعَامٍ سَاَلَ عَنْهُ اَهَدِيَّةٌ اَمْ صَدَقَةٌ فَاِنْ قِيْلَ صَدَقَةٌ قَالَ لِاَصْحَابِهٖ كُلُوْا وَلَمْ يَاْكُلْ وَاِنْ قِيْلَ هَدِيَّةٌ ضَرَبَ بِيَدِهٖ فَاَكَلَ مَعَهُمْ (متفق عليه)

1824. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that if some food was presented to him, he first asked about it, "It is a gift or a sadaqah (charity)?" If he was told that it was a sadaqah (charity) he said to his companions that could eat it and he did not eat it. If he was told that it was a present he stretched his hand and ate it along with them.[3]

COMMENTARY: Sadaqah (charity) is that which is given to a needy person out of compassion to earn Allah's pleasure. Since the recipient is disgraces and degraded in a sense, it was forbidden to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم absolutely.

A gift, on the other hand, is presented to a senior out of honour. Another side of a gift is that generally the gesture is reciprocated in this world itself.

ASSIGNING OWNERSHIP

(١٨٢٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ فِيْ بَرِيْرَةَ ثَلَاثُ سُنَنٍ إِحْدَى السُّنَنِ أَنَّهَا عَتَقَتْ فَخُيِّرَتْ فِيْ زَوْجِهَا وَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْوَلَاءُ لِمَنْ أَعْتَقَ وَدَخَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَ الْبُرْمَةُ تَفُوْرُ بِلَحْمٍ فَقُرِّبَ إِلَيْهِ خُبْزٌ وَّ أُدُمٌ مِّنْ أُدُمِ الْبَيْتِ فَقَالَ أَلَمْ أَرَ بُرْمَةً فِيْهَا لَحْمٌ قَالُوْا بَلٰى وَلٰكِنَّ ذٰلِكَ لَحْمٌ تُصُدِّقَ بِهٖ عَلٰى بَرِيْرَةَ وَأَنْتَ لَا تَأْكُلُ الصَّدَقَةَ قَالَ هُوَ عَلَيْهَا صَدَقَةٌ وَّلَنَا هَدِيَّةٌ (متفق عليه)

1825. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that three commands were made concerning (Sayyidah) Barirah رضی اللہ عنہ. The first was that when she was sat free, she was given choice concerning her husband. (The second was that) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that the right to inherit from an emancipated slave belonged to one who had set her free. (The third was that once). Allah Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came home and the pot was boiling with meat in it, but he was served some of the bread and gravy that were in the house. He asked, "But, did I not find a pot with meat?" He was told that while that was correct yet the meat was what was given to Barirah as sadaqah (charity) and he did not partake of sadaqah (charity). He said, "that may be sadaqah (charity) for her but it is a gift for us" [1]

COMMENTARY: The initial words of the hadith refer to Sayyidah Barirah رضی اللہ عنہ whom Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا had set free as her female slave. This action paved the way for three commands. As a free woman she had choice to live with her husband (Sayyiduna), Mugith رضی اللہ عنہ, or separate from him.

The ulama (Scholars) call this (خیار عتق) (khiyar itq). It allows a female slave who is married to someone and who is emancipated to retain her marriage with him or opt for separation from him. However, Imam Shafi'I رضی اللہ عنہ says that she has this option only when her husband is also a slave. But, the Hanifis say that she has choice either was whether he is a slave or a freeman.

The husband of Syyidah Barirah رضی اللہ عنہ was a slave. He was terribly upset to the extent that he wept and roomed about complaining but she was unmoved. She stuck to her decision too separate.

The second command was about (ولاء) (wala). The right of inheritance from one emancipated slave rests with one who sets him or her free. Sayyidah Barirah رضی اللہ عنہ was the slave of a Jew who had arranged a mukatab with her which means that he had said to her that if she paid to him a certain number of dirhams, she would be freed. But, she was unable to pay the required sum of money. She requested Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا to help her and she offered to buy her from the Jew who agreed to shell her on condition that he would have right to inheritance from her. She asked to Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about it and he said that the Jew's condition was void and only the person who ...ncipates owns the right of inheritance from the freed slave. She should buy the slave ... free.

...mmand that is deduced from the hadith is that if a deserving receives

...79, Muslim # 14-1504, Nasai'i # 2614, Ibn Majah # 2076, Darimi # 2289, Muwatta Maalik ...e), Musnad Ahmad 1-281

someone's zakah (Annual due charity) and then gives it to another person who is not eligible to receive zakah (Annual due charity), then this property will be lawful for him. The reason is that the payer of zakah (Annual due charity) had given his zakah (Annual due charity) to the deserving correct person and that payment became this person's property and he is entitled to give it to whoever he wishes and it would be proper. In the terminology of Shari'ah, it is called tamlik and it is permitted and lawful (It is to assign ownership to another.)

PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم ACCEPTED GIFT & RECIPROCATED WITH ONE

(١٨٢٦) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْبَلُ الْهَدِيَّةَ وَيُثِيْبُ عَلَيْهَا (رواه البخاری)

1826. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to accept a gift and make a return agift against it.[1]

ACCEPT EVEN A SMALL GIFT

(١٨٢٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ دُعِيْتُ اِلٰى كُرَاعٍ لَاَجَبْتُ وَلَوْ اُهْدِيَ اِلَيَّ ذِرَاعٌ لَقَبِلْتُ (رواه البخاری)

1827. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If I am invited to a kura (slender part of a sheep's leg). I would respond positively. And, if a fore-leg was presented to me, I would surely accept it."[2]

COMMENTARY: Kura (كراع) is the shin of a sheep. The meaning is that if anyone invited the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to a meal consisting of something very ordinary he would accept the invitation so, too he said that he would accept the gift of a sheep's forearm.

This is evidence that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was careful not to hurt the feeling of the humblest of men lest he suffer from an inferiority complex. He also exhorts us that we should accept the most ordinary of gifts with a cheerful face.

WHO IS A MISKIN (POOR)?

(١٨٢٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ الْمِسْكِيْنُ الَّذِيْ يَطُوْفُ عَلَى النَّاسِ تَرُدُّهُ اللُّقْمَةُ وَ اللُّقْمَتَانِ وَالتَّمْرَةُ وَالتَّمْرَتَانِ وَلٰكِنَّ الْمِسْكِيْنَ الَّذِيْ لَا يَجِدُ غِنًى يُّغْنِيْهِ وَلَا يُفْطَنُ بِهٖ فَيُتَصَدَّقُ عَلَيْهِ وَلَا يَقُوْمُ فَيَسْأَلُ النَّاسَ (متفق علیه)

1828. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The miskin (poor) is not he who goes round to people who turn him away with a morsel of two, or a date or two. Rather, he is one who does not find enough to make him self-sufficient. He is not recognized for charity to be given to him and he does not go out to beg from people."[3]

COMMENTARY: The Quran mentions also the heads of zakah (Annual due charity) and the people who deserve zakah (Annual due charity):

{The sasdaqat (zakah (Annual due charity)) are only for the poor and the needy and those employed to administer them. And for those whose hearts are to be conciliated, and for the freeing of slaves, and for those in debt, and in the path of Allah, and for the traveller.} (9:60)

This verse mentions eight people who are eligible to receive the wajib sadaqahs (obligatory charities), like zakah (Annual due charity). It is not allowed to give zakah (Annual due charity) to any other person. Moreover the Hanafis hold that 'those whose hearts are to be conciliated' are now dropped from the list, so only seven kind remain.

In short, this verse defines the miskin as eight people, and those spoken of in common parlance as miskin are not miskin. The true miskin are they who do not have even barley bread, but they are so strong willed that their next door neighbour is not aware of their plight. They do not pleas with the people but rely on Allah and withdraw to themselves.

NOT EVEN SPIES OF BANU HASHIM

(١٨٢٩) عَنْ اَبِيْ رَافِعٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعَثَ رَجُلًا مِّنْ بَنِيْ مَخْزُوْمٍ عَلَى الصَّدَقَةِ فَقَالَ لِاَبِيْ رَافِعٍ اَصْحِبْنِيْ كَيْ مَاتُصِيْبَ مِنْهَا فَقَالَ لَا حَتّٰى اٰتِيَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَسْأَلَهُ فَانْطَلَقَ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَأَلَهُ فَقَالَ اِنَّ الصَّدَقَةَ لَاتَحِلُّ لَنَا وَاِنَّ مَوَالِي الْقَوْمِ مِنْ اَنْفُسِهِمْ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی)

1829. Sayyiduna Abu Rafi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent a man of Banu Makhzum to collect zakah (Annual due charity). He said to Abu Rafi رضی اللہ عنہ "Come with me that you might get some share of it." He said, "Not till I meet Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and ask him (about it)." so, he went to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and aske3ເ him. He said, "Sadaqah (charity) is not lawful to us (Banu Hashim), and their mawla (freed slaves) are like them (in this matter)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Rafi رضی اللہ عنہ was the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم freed slave. So, the slaves of Banu Hashim too are not allowed to receive zakah (Annual due charity), even those who have been given liberty.

WHO ARE DISALLOWED TO RECEIVE ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY)

(١٨٣٠-١٨٣١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَحِلُّ الصَّدَقَةُ لِغَنِيٍّ وَّلَا لِذِيْ مِرَّةٍ سَوِيٍّ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالنَّسَآئِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ۔

1830. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ

[1] Tirmidhi # 657, Abu Dawud # 1650, Nasai'i # 2611, Musnad Ahmad # 19014.

عليه وسلم said, "Sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) is not lawful to a rich man and to one who is strong (who can work to earn a living)."[1]

1831. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the same hadith.[2]

COMMENTARY: The rich men are of three kinds:

(i) He on whom zakah (Annual due charity) is fard (compulsory) being possessor of nisab naami and having possessed it for one year.

(ii) He is not deserving of zakah (Annual due charity) and it is wajib (obligatory) on him to pay sadaqat ul fitr and make a sacrifice. He possesses enough for his actual needs and has, over and above what is equal to the nisab, silver weighing 52.5 tola or wealth of this value.

(iii) He to whom sadaqah (charity) is lawful to receive but who is forbidden to beg which means that he has enough provision for day and clothing to cover himself.

Apart from the rich, the sound and healthy man with strong limbs is also not allowed to receive zakah (Annual due charity). He is capable of earning enough to feed his family. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله abides by this hadith and holds that zakah (Annual due charity) is not lawful to one who is able to make a living Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that it is allowed to everyone to receive zakah (Annual due charity) who is not owner of the aforementioned nisab even if he is capable to earn because the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم used to give sadaqah (charity) and zakah (Annual due charity) to all such sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم who were needy and were sound and healthy and capable of earning a livelihood. This was the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice till the end. So we might say that this hadith is abrogated, or it means to encourage strong people to desist from depending on zakah (Annual due charity) and disgracing themselves.

NOT PROPER FOR THE STRONG TO RECEIVE ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY)

(١٨٣٢) وَعَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَدِيِّ بْنِ الْخِيَارِ قَالَ اَخْبَرَنِيْ رَجُلَانِ اَنَّهُمَا آتَيَا النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ فِيْ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ وَهُوَ يَقْسِمُ الصَّدَقَةَ فَسَاَلَاهُ مِنْهَا فَرَفَعَ فِيْنَا النَّظَرَ وَخَفَضَهُ فَرَاٰنَا جَلْدَيْنِ فَقَالَ اِنْ شِئْتُمَا اَعْطَيْتُكُمَا وَلَا حَظَّ فِيْهَا لِغَنِيٍّ وَّلَا لِقَوِيٍّ مُكْتَسِبٍ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1832. Sayyiduna Ubaydullah ibn Adiy ibn al-Khiyar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that two men informed him that they came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم during the Farewell Pilgrimage when he was disbursing the zakah (Annual due charity). They asked him for some of it. He looked at them with an examining eye and found them hale and hearty. So, he said, "If you wish, I shall let you have something, but there is no share is zakah (Annual due charity) and sadaqah (charity) for a rich man and for the strong and able who can carve out a living (for himself)."[3]

COMMENTARY: During the Farewell Pilgrimage the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم taught the commands of Allah and bid farewell to the people. A few months thereafter, he died. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله interpreted the hadith to mean; "It is forbidden to you to consume sadaqah (charity), but if you insist on devouring the forbidden, then I shall give it to you." He seems to have spoken in anger.

The Hanafis say that the hadith means: "If you wish to have it, I shall give it to you, but it does not suit a sound and healthy man to consume zakah (Annual due charity)."

EXEMPTIONS FOR THE RICH

(١٨٣٣-١٨٣٤) وَعَنْ عَطَآءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ مُّرْسَلًا قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَحِلُّ الصَّدَقَةُ لِغَنِيٍّ إِلَّا لِخَمْسَةٍ لِّغَازٍ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اَوْلِعَامِلٍ عَلَيْهَا اَوْلِغَارِمٍ اَوْلِرَجُلٍ اِشْتَرَاهَا بِمَالِهٖ اَوْلِرَجُلٍ كَانَ لَهٗ جَارٌ مِّسْكِيْنٌ فَتُصُدِّقَ عَلَى الْمِسْكِيْنِ فَاَهْدَى الْمِسْكِيْنُ لِلْغَنِيِّ۔ رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ وَاَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِّاَبِيْ دَاوٗدَ: عَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ اَوِابْنِ السَّبِيْلِ۔

1833. Sayyiduna Ata ibn Yasar رضی الله عنه narrated in a mursal form that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Zakah (Annual due charity) is not lawful for a rich man, except in five cases:

(i) Who fights in Allah's cause (but lacks equipment for jihad).
(ii) Who collects zakah (Annual due charity).
(iii) Who has to pay a debt or ransom.
(iv) Who buys property of zakah (Annual due charity) against his money.
(v) Who has a poor neighbour to whom zakah (Annual due charity) has been paid and who makes a present to him."[1]

1834. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed's رضی الله عنه version also has, "Who is a traveller."[2]

COMMENTARY: The rich man who has to pay a debt or ransom may have to a huge penalty beyond his means. Or, he may be responsible for blood wit or someone else's debt. Imam shafi'I رحمه الله said that a rich warrior may receive zakah (Annual due charity). But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said, that it is not allowed to pay him zakah (Annual due charity). He cites other ahadith about it and the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم instructions to Sayyiduna Mu'adh (Ibn Jabal) رضی الله عنه.

ONLY THOSE DESERVE WHO ARE MENTIONED IN THE QURAN

(١٨٣٥) وَعَنْ زِيَادِبْنِ الْحَارِثِ الصُّدَائِيِّ قَالَ اَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَبَايَعْتُهٗ فَذَكَرَ حَدِيْثًا طَوِيْلًا فَاَتَاهُ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ اَعْطِنِيْ مِنَ الصَّدَقَةِ فَقَالَ لَهٗ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَمْ يَرْضَ بِحُكْمِ نَبِيٍّ وَّلَا غَيْرِهٖ فِي الصَّدَقَاتِ حَتّٰى حَكَمَ فِيْهَا هُوَفَجَزَّاهَا ثَمَانِيَةَ اَجْزَاءٍ فَاِنْ كُنْتَ مِنْ تِلْكَ الْاَجْزَآءِ اَعْطَيْتُكَ(رواه ابوداؤد)

lengthy hadith, saying that a man came to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and requested him to give him some zakah (Annual due charity). Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said that Allah does not approved the decision of a Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم or anyone other than him about zakah (Annual due charity). Rather, he has given a decision on that himself. He had divided those entitled to zakah (Annual due charity) into eight classes. Then he said, "If you belong to any of these classes, I shall give you something."[1]

UMAR'S رضى الله عنه EXPERIENCE

(١٨٣٦) عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ اَسْلَمَ قَالَ شَرِبَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ لَبَنًا فَاَعْجَبَهُ فَسَأَلَ الَّذِىْ سَقَاهُ مِنْ اَيْنَ هٰذَا اللَّبَنُ فَاَخْبَرَهُ اَنَّهُ وَرَدَ عَلٰى مَآءٍ قَدْ سَمَّاهُ فَاِذَا نَعَمٌ مِّنْ نَّعَمِ الصَّدَقَةِ وَهُمْ يَسْقُوْنَ فَحَلَبُوْا مِنْ اَلْبَانِهَا فَجَعَلْتُهُ فِىْ سِقَائِىْ فَهُوَ هٰذَا فَاَدْخَلَ عُمَرُ يَدَهُ فَاسْتَقَآءَ (رواه مالك والبيهقى فى شعب الايمان)

1836. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Aslam رضى الله عنه narrated that (Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضى الله عنه drank some milk that delighted him. He asked the man who had given him to drink, "From where is it?" He told him that he had gone to a watering place, naming it too. He saw some camels from the sadaqah (charity) being watered. The people drew some of their milk and he too took some of it his skin. That milk was from it. At that, Umar put his hand in his mouth and forced himself to vomit.[2] (see also # 2788)

COMMENTARY: This was Sayyiduna Umar's رضى الله عنه exceptional righteousness and God fearing attitude, otherwise it was a gift to him from one who had deserved zakah (Annual due charity) (as stated previously).

CHAPTER - V

THOSE TO WHOM IT IS ALLOWED TO BEG AND THOSE TO WHOM IT IS NOT ALLOWED

بَابُ مَنْ لَّا تَحِلُّ لَهُ الْمَسْئَلَةُ وَمَنْ تَحِلُّ لَهُ

The ulama (Scholars) say that a person who possesses one day's provision and clothing to cover himself should not stretch his hand before anyone else because it is forbidden to beg if one has no need. However, he who does not possess one day's provision and clothing to cover himself is permitted to beg. The needy and poor who possesses provision for one day and is strong enough to earn a living, to him it is permitted to receive zakah (Annual due charity) but unlawful to stretch his hand before anyone else. But, it is allowed to do so to a needy and poor who has not even a day's provision and is unable to earn a living.
Nawawi رحمه الله has quoted the ulama (Scholars) in his sharh Muslim that it is disallowed to ask other people for something without need but the ulama (Scholars) disagree on a person who is strong and able enough to earn a living. The more correct opinion is that such a person should not beg from others and it is rated as unlawful though some say that it is makruh (unbecoming). Begging is allowed to the needy and handicapped on three conditions:

(i) He must not disgrace himself by begging.

(ii) While begging, he must not exaggerate.

(iii) He must not inconvenience and harass the person from whom he is begging.

If even one of these condition is not fulfilled then it is agree that begging is unlawful.

Ibn Mubarak رحمه الله said that if anyone begs for Allah's sake then that is not proper to give him any thing because he raises the importance of the worlds and its things enough Allah has called them insignificant. Such a beggar should not be obliged so that he may be warned. If anyone begs on the right of Allah's or 'on the right of Muhammad, then, it is not wajib (obligatory) to give him any thing. If anyone puts forth a false need of his and gets something from someone, then he does not become its owner. (It is forbidden and unlawful in his hands). If anyone presents himself as a Sayyid and expresses his need to some who believes him and gives it to him, but he is not a sayyid then that which is given to him does not belong to him and it will be unlawful in his hands.

Similarly, if anyone imagines one who asks for a need to be a pious, righteous man and gives him what he needs though that man is a sinner such that if it was known nothing would have been given to him, then this fraud does not become the owner of it and it is unlawful in his hands. He must return it to its owner which is wajib (obligatory) for him to do. If anyone gives a rude person what he asks to save himself of his rudeness and backbiting then that would be unlawful for the rude person.

If a poor man comes to a person and kisses his hands and feet to coax him to give him something and he falls into the trap, then it is makruh (unbecoming). He must not let him kiss his limbs.

Those hereditary beggars who knock at doors beating drums and playing music must not be given anything. They are the worst of all beggars.

SECTION I الفصل الاوّل

WHO ARE ALLOWED TO BEG

(١٨٣٧) عَنْ قَبِيْصَةَ بْنِ مُخَارِقٍ قَالَ تَحَمَّلْتُ حَمَالَةً فَاَتَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَسْأَلُهُ فِيْهَا فَقَالَ
اَقِمْ حَتّٰى تَأْتِيَنَا الصَّدَقَةُ فَنَأْمُرَ لَكَ بِهَا ثُمَّ قَالَ يَا قَبِيْصَةُ اِنَّ الْمَسْأَلَةَ لَا تَحِلُّ اِلَّا لِاَحَدِ ثَلَاثَةٍ رَجُلٍ تَحَمَّلَ
حَمَالَةً فَحَلَّتْ لَهُ الْمَسْأَلَةُ حَتّٰى يُصِيْبَهَا ثُمَّ يُمْسِكُ وَرَجُلٍ اَصَابَتْهُ جَائِحَةٌ اِجْتَاحَتْ مَالَهُ فَحَلَّتْ لَهُ الْمَسْأَلَةُ
حَتّٰى يُصِيْبَ قِوَامًا مِّنْ عَيْشٍ اَوْ قَالَ سِدَادًا مِّنْ عَيْشٍ وَّرَجُلٍ اَصَابَتْهُ فَاقَةٌ حَتّٰى يَقُوْمَ ثَلَاثَةٌ مِّنْ ذَوِى الْحِجٰى مِنْ
قَوْمِهٖ لَقَدْ اَصَابَتْ فُلَانًا فَاقَةٌ فَحَلَّتْ لَهُ الْمَسْأَلَةُ حَتّٰى يُصِيْبَ قِوَامًا مِّنْ عَيْشٍ اَوْ قَالَ سِدَادًا مِّنْ عَيْشٍ فَمَا
سِوَاهُنَّ مِنَ الْمَسْأَلَةِ يَا قَبِيْصَةُ سُحْتٌ يَّاْكُلُهَا صَاحِبُهَا سُحْتًا (رواه مسلم)

1837. Sayyiduna Qabisah ibn Mukhariq رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he stood guarantor for hammalah. So, he came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and asked him to help in this regard. He directed him to wait till he received the sadaqah (charity) and gave instructions for (something to be paid to) him. Then he said, "O Qabisah, begging is not allowed but to three kinds:

(i) One who stands guarantor for hammalah is allowed to beg till he discharges it, after which he must cease to beg (but he must not amplify his needs.

(ii) One who goes through a calamity and has last his property is allowed begging till his needs (of food and clothing) are met." Or he said, "till his helplessness is removed, and he has enough to support his life.

(iii) A rich man who is suddenly beset by poverty and three intelligent (and sober) man of the community vouch for that is allowed begging (to the extend of his needs) till he receives enough to sustain him." Or, he said, "till his incapacity is seen through.

O Qabisah, apart from these three it is forbidden to anyone else to beg. If anyone else begs then the devours that which is forbidden.[1]

COMMENTARY: Hammalah is what a person is bound to pay as blood wit and a third person intervenes to avert in-fighting and guarantees to pay on behalf of the penalized person.

BEGGING ONLY TO ENHANCE ONE'S WEALTH

(١٨٣٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَأَلَ النَّاسَ أَمْوَالَهُمْ تَكَثُّرًا فَإِنَّمَا يَسْأَلُ جَمْرًا فَلْيَسْتَقِلَّ أَوْ لِيَسْتَكْثِرْ (رواه مسلم)

1838. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who asks people for their property to enhance his own, asks only for live coal, So, let him ask for little or much."[2]

COMMENTARY: Asking for live coal is to ask for the fire of hell. And, asking for little or much means that those people are at a loss any way who beg for insignificant things or precious and abundant wealth.

PLIGHT OF BEGGARS ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION

(١٨٣٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا يَزَالُ الرَّجُلُ يَسْأَلُ النَّاسَ حَتّٰى يَأْتِيَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ لَيْسَ فِيْ وَجْهِهِ مُزْعَةُ لَحْمٍ (متفق عليه)

1839. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a man does not cease to beg from people then he will come on the day of resurrection with no flesh on his face."[3]

COMMENTARY: Those people who continually beg without necessity will be brought disgraces on the day of resurrection. Or, they would really have no flesh on their faces and it would be proclaimed before all creatures. "They never ceased beg in the world. This is their punishment."

OVEREMPHASISING WHILE ASKING FROM OTHERS

(١٨٤٠) وَعَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُلْحِفُوْا فِي الْمَسْئَلَةِ فَوَاللّٰهِ لَا يَسْأَلُنِيْ

اَحَدٌ مِّنْكُمْ شَيْئًا فَتُخْرِجُ لَهُ مَسْأَلَتُهُ مِنِّيْ شَيْئًا وَاَنَا لَهُ كَارِهٌ فَيُبَارَكُ لَهُ فِيْمَا اَعْطَيْتُهُ (رواه مسلم)

1840. Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not beg aggressively. By Allah, if any of you asks me for anything (persistently), I give it to him though I dislike (to do) it. How then will there be blessing in what I give him?"[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم could not deny a request even if made very insistently but, his displeasure and blessings could never be together.

BETTER TO WORK

(١٨٤١) وَعَنِ الزُّبَيْرِ بْنِ الْعَوَّامِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاَنْ يَّأْخُذَ اَحَدُكُمْ حَبْلَهُ فَيَأْتِيَ بِحُزْمَةِ

حَطَبٍ عَلٰى ظَهْرِهٖ فَيَبِيْعَهَا فَيَكُفَّ اللّٰهُ بِهَا وَجْهَهُ خَيْرٌ لَّهُ مِنْ اَنْ يَّسْأَلَ النَّاسَ اَعْطَوْهُ اَوْمَنَعُوْهُ (رواه البخاری)

1841. Sayyiduna Az-Zubayr ibn al-Awwam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "That one of you picks up his rope and comes with a pile of firewood on his back and sells it whereby Allah preserves his dignity is better than that he begs from the people who may or may not give him."[2]

UPPER HAND IS BETTER THAN THE LOWER

(١٨٤٢) وَعَنْ حَكِيْمِ بْنِ حِزَامٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَعْطَانِيْ ثُمَّ سَأَلْتُهُ فَاَعْطَانِيْ ثُمَّ

نَفْسٍ لَّمْ يُبَارَكْ لَهُ فِيْهِ وَكَانَ كَالَّذِيْ يَأْكُلُ وَلَا يَشْبَعُ وَ الْيَدُ الْعُلْيَا خَيْرٌ مِّنَ الْيَدِ السُّفْلٰى قَالَ حَكِيْمٌ فَقُلْتُ

يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَالَّذِيْ بَعَثَكَ بِالْحَقِّ لَا اَرْزَأُ اَحَدًا بَعْدَكَ شَيْئًا حَتّٰى اُفَارِقَ الدُّنْيَا (متفق علیه)

1842. Sayyiduna Hakim ibn HIzam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for something and he gave it to me. I asked him again and he grant ed it to me. Then, he said, 'O Hakim! This wealth is green and sweet and he who takes it with indifference, is blessed in it but he who takes it greedily (craving for it) is not blessed in it, being as one who eats but is not satiated. Know! The upper hand is better than the lower hand.' I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, by him who has sent you with the truth, after this, I shall never ask any one for any thing till I depart from this world."[3]

(١٨٤٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ وَهُوَ يَذْكُرُ الصَّدَقَةَ وَ التَّعَفُّفَ

1843. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said while he was on the pulpit and speaking of sadaqah (charity) and of refraining from begging, "The upper hand is better than the lower hand, the upper is that which gives and the lower is that which begs.[1]

EXCELLENCE OF ONE WHO DOES NOT BEG

(١٨٤٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ اِنَّ اُنَاسًا مِّنَ الْاَنْصَارِ سَاَلُوْا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَعْطَاهُمْ ثُمَّ سَاَلُوْهُ فَاَعْطَاهُمْ حَتّٰى نَفِدَ مَا عِنْدَهٗ فَقَالَ مَا يَكُوْنُ عِنْدِيْ مِنْ خَيْرٍ فَلَنْ اَدَّخِرَهٗ عَنْكُمْ وَمَنْ يَّسْتَعِفَّ يُعِفَّهُ اللّٰهُ وَمَنْ يَّسْتَغْنِ يُغْنِهِ اللّٰهُ وَمَنْ يَّتَصَبَّرْ يُصَبِّرْهُ اللّٰهُ وَمَآ اُعْطِيَ اَحَدٌ عَطَآءً هُوَ خَيْرٌ وَّاَوْسَعُ مِنَ الصَّبْرِ (متفق عليه)

1844. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that some men of the ansar asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for something which he gave them. Again, they asked him for something and he gave it to them. Till whether he had was depleted. So, he said, "If I have any thing, I shall never conceal it from you (to hoard). He who abstains, Allah gives him ability to be free of want. He who is content. Allah preserves him from begging. He who constant perseveres, Allah helps him to show endurance. Remember! Nothing is better and more encompassing than patience."[2]

TAKE WHAT YOU GET WITHOUT COVETING FOR IT

(١٨٤٥) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعْطِيْنِي الْعَطَآءَ فَاَقُوْلُ اَعْطِهٖ اَفْقَرَ اِلَيْهِ مِنِّيْ فَقَالَ خُذْهُ فَتَمَوَّلْهُ وَتَصَدَّقْ بِهٖ فَمَا جَآءَكَ مِنْ هٰذَا الْمَالِ وَاَنْتَ غَيْرُ مُشْرِفٍ وَلَا سَآئِلٍ فَخُذْهُ وَمَا لَا فَلَا تُتْبِعْهُ نَفْسَكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

1845. Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to give him something but he requested him to give it to one who was more in need of it than he. He said, "Take it and keep it with your wealth and disburse it as charity. What comes to you from this property without your coveting and begging for it, take it. But, (what does not come without coveting and begging for it) do not allow your desire to seek it."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith emphasizes that one must not hanker after what can be got only by desiring it earnestly. Do not wait for it.

According to another hadith, "If anyone gets anything without coveting for it and he returns it, then it is as if he returned it to Allah, meaning, he rejected a bounty of Allah.

A DIDACTIC EVENT: Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ bought something from the market. Binan Jalal رحمہ اللہ carried his purchases with him up to his home. There, Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ found some bread spread out to cool down. He instructed his son to give some of it to Binan رحمه الله but he did not take it. When he departed, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله instructed his son to follow him out and hand over the bread to him. He did so and Binan رحمه الله accepted the gift graciously. The son was amazed, for, the first time he had refused to touch it but the second time he took it promptly.

Imam Ahmad رحمه الله enlightened him, 'when Binan رحمه الله found food in the house, he had a desire to eat it So, when you gave it to him he did not like to succumb to his desire and yearning and he returned the bread to you. Outside, he received it, without waiting for it and without coveting for it, quite unexpectedly, so he too it quickly as a bounty of Allah."

WARNING TO BEGGARS

(١٨٤٦) عَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَسَائِلُ كُدُوْحٌ يَّكْدَحُ بِهَا الرَّجُلُ وَجْهَهٗ فَمَنْ شَآءَ اَبْقٰى عَلٰى وَجْهِهٖ وَمَنْ شَآءَ تَرَكَهٗ اِلَّا اَنْ يَّسْأَلَ الرَّجُلُ ذَا سُلْطَانٍ اَوْفِىْ اَمْرٍ لَّا يَجِدُ مِنْهُ بُدًّا۔

(رواه ابوداؤد و الترمذی والنسائی)

1846. Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Begging disfigures. A man distorts his face through it. So, he who wishes may retain his dignity, but he who likes may disgrace himself. (the one by refraining from begging and the other by persisting to beg) However, a man may ask for something from the ruler, or when he finds no escape from it (and is in dire need)."[1]

COMMENTARY: If you must ask for something, then at least ask one on whom you have a right to ask and that is the ruler. He has authority over the state Treasury. If you deserve, he will let you have what you need.

ABOUT ACCEPTING RULER'S GRANT: Teebi رحمه الله said that opinion differ on whether grants of the rulers may be accepted or rejected. The correct verdict is that is much of the public or state Treasury consists of forbidden wealth then the grants may not be accepted. If that is not so then they may be accepted.

If anyone faces a severe hardship and has no clothing or no food the it is wajib (obligatory) to ask for someone's help and remove one's painful hardship.

Imam Ghazali رحمه الله said that it is wajib (obligatory) also to ask people for help towards travelling expenses for Hajj (pilgrimage) if he had not performed Hajj (pilgrimage) when he had the means to do so till he become destitute. He must ask for help in meeting his expenses.

WARNING TO WELL TO DO BEGGAR

[1] Abu Dawud 1639, Tirmidhi # 681, Nasai'i # 2599, Musnad Ahmad 5-22.

1847. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone begs from people in spite of being self sufficient, there on the day of resurrection, he will appear with begging prominent on his face as scratching or gashes or wounds." He was asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what is self sufficiency?" He said, "Fifty dirhams or as much in gold."[1]

COMMENTARY: The three words 'scratchings, gashes, wounds' are from three words in the hadith that are synonyms. Perhaps, the narrator was unsure which one was used by the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم: (کدوح,خدوش,خموش)

Some ulama (Scholars) say that they stand for different meanings. (خموش) is to scratch the skin with wood. (خمش) is to do it with the finger nails. (کدح) is do it with the teeth.

They will appear in one of these scratchings on the day of resurrection depending on their indulgence in begging.

(١٨٤٨) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ الْحَنْظَلِيَّةِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَأَلَ وَعِنْدَهٗ مَايُغْنِيْهِ فَإِنَّمَا يَسْتَكْثِرُ مِنَ النَّارِ قَالَ النُّفَيْلِيُّ وَهُوَ اَحدُ رُوَاتِهٖ فِيْ مَوْضِعٍ اٰخَرَوَمَا الْغِنٰى الَّذِیْ لَا تَنْبَغِى مَعَهُ الْمَسْأَلَةُ قَالَ قَدْرَمَا يُغَدِّيْهِ وَيُعَشِّيْهِ وَقَالَ فِیْ مَوْضِعٍ اٰخَرَ اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ لَهٗ شِبْعُ يَوْمٍ اَوْ لَيْلَةٍ وَّيَوْمٍ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1848. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn al Hanzaliyah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone begs in spite of having enough, then he asks only for larger portion of hell." An Nufayli رحمہ اللہ a sub-narrator, said in another version that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was asked how much was enough that should prevent begging. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "It is what will get a meal in the morning and in the evening." In yet another version, he said, "It is having what will suffice him for a day, or a day and a night."[2]

COMMENTARY: In this regard hadith # 1847 and # 1849 differ with this hadith in defining a self-sufficient man to whom begging is disallowed.

Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ, Abu Mubarak رحمہ اللہ and Ishaq رحمہ اللہ abide by the first hadith. Some scholars go by the hadith # 1849. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ follows this hadith # 1848 and says that it has abrogated the others.

(١٨٤٩) وَعَنْ عَطَآءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ عَنْ رَّجُلٍ مِّنْ بَنِیْ اَسَدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَأَلَ مِنْكُمْ وَلَهٗ اُوْقِيَّةٌ اَوْعِدْلُهَا فَقَدْ سَأَلَ اِلْحَافًا (رواه مالك وابوداؤد والنسائى)

1849. Sayyiduna Ata ibn Yasar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man of Banu Asad said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone of you begs from people though the possesses one ooqiyah, or its value (in gold, etc). then he begs unreasonably."[3]

COMMENTARY: The words in the hadith is (سأل الحافا) – unreasonably. The Quran says:

وَلَا يَسْأَلُوْنَ النَّاسَ اِلْحَافًا

{They beg not of men importunately.} (2:273)

BEGGING WHEN DRIVEN TO LIMITS OF HARDSHIP

(١٨٥٠) وَعَنْ حُبْشِيِّ بْنِ جُنَادَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْمَسْأَلَةَ لَا تَحِلُّ لِغَنِيٍّ وَّلَا لِذِيْ مِرَّةٍ سَوِيٍّ اِلَّا لِذِيْ فَقْرٍ مُّدْقِعٍ اَوْ غُرْمٍ مُّفْظِعٍ وَّمَنْ سَأَلَ النَّاسَ لِيُثْرِيَ بِهٖ مَالَهٗ كَانَ خُمُوْشًا فِيْ وَجْهِهٖ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَرَضْفًا يَّأْكُلُهٗ مِنْ جَهَنَّمَ فَمَنْ شَآءَ فَلْيُقِلَّ وَمَنْ شَآءَ فَلْيُكْثِرْ (رواه الترمذی)

1850. Sayyiduna Hubshi ibn Junadah as-Sutuli رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Begging is disallowed to a wealthy person and to one who is strong with a robust body. It is allowed only to one thrown to the ground out of poverty and to one in deep debt. He who begs to enhance his property thereby will have it as wounds and scratches on his face on the day of resurrection and as hot stones that he will eat in hell. Hence, let him who chooses ask little and let him who chooses ask more."[1]

COMMENTARY: 'Thrown to the ground out of poverty' refers extreme helplessness and poverty. He cannot get up.

(١٨٥١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَجُلًا مِّنَ الْاَنْصَارِ اَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْأَلُهٗ فَقَالَ اَمَا فِيْ بَيْتِكَ شَيْءٌ فَقَالَ بَلٰى حِلْسٌ نَّلْبَسُ بَعْضَهٗ وَنَبْسُطُ بَعْضَهٗ وَقَعْبٌ نَشْرَبُ فِيْهِ مِنَ الْمَآءِ قَالَ ائْتِنِيْ بِهِمَا فَاَتَاهُ بِهِمَا فَاَخَذَهُمَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِيَدِهٖ وَقَالَ مَنْ يَّشْتَرِيْ هٰذَيْنِ قَالَ رَجُلٌ اَنَا اٰخُذُهُمَا بِدِرْهَمٍ قَالَ مَنْ يَّزِيْدُ عَلٰى دِرْهَمٍ مَّرَّتَيْنِ اَوْثَلَاثًا قَالَ رَجُلٌ اَنَا اٰخُذُهُمَا بِدِرْهَمَيْنِ فَاَعْطَاهُمَا اِيَّاهُ فَاَخَذَ الدِّرْهَمَيْنِ فَاَعْطَاهُمَا الْاَنْصَارِيَّ وَقَالَ اشْتَرِ بِاَحَدِهِمَا طَعَامًا فَانْبِذْهُ اِلٰى اَهْلِكَ وَاشْتَرِ بِالْاٰخَرِ قَدُوْمًا فَأْتِنِيْ بِهٖ فَاَتَاهُ بِهٖ فَشَدَّ فِيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عُوْدًا بِيَدِهٖ ثُمَّ قَالَ اذْهَبْ فَاحْتَطِبْ وَبِعْ وَلَا اَرَيَنَّكَ خَمْسَةَ عَشَرَ يَوْمًا فَذَهَبَ الرَّجُلُ يَحْتَطِبُ وَيَبِيْعُ فَجَآءَ وَقَدْ اَصَابَ عَشَرَةَ دَرَاهِمَ فَاشْتَرٰى بِبَعْضِهَا ثَوْبًا وَّبِبَعْضِهَا طَعَامًا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هٰذَا خَيْرٌ لَّكَ مِنْ اَنْ تَجِيْءَ الْمَسْأَلَةُ نُكْتَةً فِيْ وَجْهِكَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ اِنَّ الْمَسْأَلَةَ لَا تَصْلُحُ اِلَّا لِثَلَاثَةٍ لِذِيْ فَقْرٍ مُّدْقِعٍ اَوْ لِذِيْ غُرْمٍ مُّفْظِعٍ اَوْ لِذِيْ دَمٍ مُّوْجِعٍ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَرَوَى ابْنُ مَاجَةَ اِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ۔

1851. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man of the Ansar met the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and begged from him. He asked, "Do you have nothing at your home?" He said, "Yes. A piece of thick cloth part of which I spread on the ground and part of which I put over myself. Besides that I have a wooden bowl from which I drink water." Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him to bring those things to him. So, he brought them and, taking them in his hand he (Allah's Messenger) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "Will anyone buy these?" One man offered to buy them for one dirham and he again asked twice or thrice, "will anyone pay more than one dirham for these?" Another man offered two dirhams and he gave them to him. He took the two dirhams and gave them to the Ansar man, saying, "Buy with one dirhams food for your family and with the other buy an axe and bring it to me." He obeyed and brought the axe to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم who fixed a handle on it with his own hand and instructed the man to go and gather firewood and sell them, and he was not to come to him before a fortnight. The man departed, collected firewood and sold it, earning ten dirhams. He came, having brought a garment with part of the money and food with another part of it.

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said (on seeing the change in him). "This is better for you than having had begging as ugly marks (or wound) on your face on the day of resurrection. Know that begging is proper for only three kinds of people; the helpless one whom poverty has thrown down on the ground, the debtor in unpayable debt (under burden of disgrace), and one who is responsible for blood wit which he is unable to discharge."[1]

SPEAK OF YOUR NEED TO ALLAH ONLY

(١٨٥٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَصَابَتْهُ فَاقَةٌ فَاَنْزَلَهَا بِالنَّاسِ لَمْ تُسَدَّ فَاقَتُهُ وَمَنْ اَنْزَلَهَا بِاللّٰهِ اَوْشَكَ اللّٰهُ لَهُ بِالْغِنٰى اِمَّا بِمَوْتٍ عَاجِلٍ اَوْغِنًى اٰجِلٍ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذى)

1852. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone is in dire need (or poverty) and mentions it to the people (hoping for redress), then his poverty (or need) will not be removed. But if he prays for it to Allah, then He will bestow on him a quick relief either by a rapid death or a gradual ease."[2]

COMMENTARY: In most copies of al-Masabih the word is (اجل) both with death and with ease, meaning quick death and quick relief.
Perhaps, this hadith reflects the verse (2,3) of surah at-Talaq.

وَمَنْ يَّتَّقِ اللّٰهَ يَجْعَلْ لَّهٗ مَخْرَجًا وَيَرْزُقْهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَحْتَسِبُ وَمَنْ يَّتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللّٰهِ فَهُوَ حَسْبُهٗ

{And whoever fears Allah, He appoints a way out for him. And He provides him sustenance from whence he expects not}

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِث

FOR A PRESSING NEED ASK ONLY THE PIOUS

(١٨٥٣) عَنِ ابْنِ الْفِرَاسِيِّ اَنَّ الْفِرَاسِيَّ قَالَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَسْأَلُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا وَاِنْ كُنْتَ لَا بُدَّ فَسَلِ الصَّالِحِيْنَ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائى)

1853. Sayyiduna Ibn al-Firsi رحمه الله narrated that (his father) al-Firasi رضى الله عنه asked Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم if he may beg. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No! But if you must then beg from the righteous."[3]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1641, Musnad Ahmad 3-114, Ibn majah # 2198, up to 'on the day of resurrection' minus the last sentence.
[2] Abu Dawud # 1654, Tirmidhi # 2333, Musnad Ahmad 1-407.
[3] Abu Dawud # 1646, Nasai'i # 2587, Musnad Ahmad 4.334.

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recommended that the righteous should be requested for redress of pressing needs because they have lawful wealth and t hey are considerate. They will help quietly without letting others know. This is why the poor and needy people of Baghdad approached Imam Ahmad ibn Hanbal رحمہ اللہ with their problems.

The taqwa of Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ was exemplary. An incident from his life may be cited. Once, his family members needed some cheese. They got it from the son of Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ. He was a judge and he was such a kind man that he slept near the door of his house to be able to answer a needy person promptly. The family members of Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ baked bread with the cheese. When food was served, the Imam sensed some doubt about the bread. He asked and was told what had transpired. He refused to partake of the meal and his family members emulated him. They asked him if the food may be given to the poor and he said, "Yes but let them know what is behind it." Indeed, the poor people too refused to touch it and they threw all their food in the sea without the permission of the Imam رحمہ اللہ.

REMUNERATION FROM STATE TREASURY

(١٨٥٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ السَّاعِدِيِّ قَالَ اسْتَعْمَلَنِيْ عُمَرُ عَلَى الصَّدَقَةِ فَلَمَّا فَرَغْتُ مِنْهَا وَاَدَّيْتُهَآ اِلَيْهِ اَمَرَلِيْ بِعُمَالَةٍ فَقُلْتُ اِنَّمَا عَمِلْتُ لِلّٰهِ وَاَجْرِيْ عَلَى اللّٰهِ قَالَ خُذْمَآ اُعْطِيْتَ فَاِنِّيْ قَدْعَمِلْتُ عَلٰى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَعَمَّلَنِيْ فَقُلْتُ مِثْلَ قَوْلِكَ فَقَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَآ اُعْطِيْتَ شَيْئًا مِّنْ غَيْرِ اَنْ تَسْأَلَهُ فَكُلْ وَتَصَدَّقْ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1854. Sayyiduna Ibn as-Sa'idi رحمہ اللہ narrated that (Sayyiduna) Umar رضی اللہ عنہ deputed him to collect the zakah (Annual due charity) when he completed his work and deposited the collection with him, he instructed that he should be paid the remuneration for it, but he said, "I did it only for Allah's sake and expect reward from Allah." (Sayyiduna) Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Accept that which is given to you, for, I had been a collector under Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He too had offered a remuneration to me and I had spoken as you did, but he had advised me that when something was given to me without my asking, I should put it to my use and to give as charity."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that it is allowed to collect remuneration from the state Treasury, Even against fard (compulsory) service. The ruler must ensure that it is paid to the state employee.

This hadith and the earlier # 1845 show that it is wajib (obligatory) to accept what one gets without desire and asking. This is what Imam Ahmad, too, said. But the majority of scholars say that it is mustahab (desirable) or simply permissible.

WHERE IS IT UNREASONABLE TO BEG

(١٨٥٥) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّهُ سَمِعَ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ رَجُلًا يَّسْأَلُ النَّاسَ فَقَالَ اَفِيْ هٰذَا الْيَوْمِ وَفِيْ هٰذَا الْمَكَانِ تَسْأَلُ مِنْ غَيْرِ اللّٰهِ فَخَفَقَهُ بِالدِّرَّةِ۔ (رواه رزين)

[1] Abu Dawud # 1647

1855. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ is reported to have heard a man begging from the people on the day of Arafah. So, he chided him, 'Is it on this day and at this place that you beg from other than Allah?" Then he awarded him a whip.[1]

COMMENTARY: The man was wretched to ask on the day when prayers are granted and in a place that is sacred. He turned away from Allah and begged from men. It is clear that it is not proper to beg from people in sacred places, like mosques.

GREED & POVERTY

(١٨٥٦) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ تَعْلَمُوْنَ اَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اَنَّ الطَّمَعَ فَقْرٌ وَّاَنَّ الْاِيَاسَ غِنًى وَّاَنَّ الْمَرْءَ اِذَا يَئِسَ عَنْ شَيْئٍ اسْتَغْنٰى عَنْهُ۔ (رواہ رزین)

1856. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ is reported to have (addressed the people and) said, "O you people, know that greed is poverty and helplessness. And despair is independence. When a person despairs of anything, he can do without it."[2]

COMMENTARY: Greed is a kind of poverty and helplessness or a means to them. A man begs from other people to fulfil his fall desires. Abu al Hasan Shadhli رحمہ اللہ said, "Turn away from the creatures. Do not hope for anything from any man. And abstain from hoping in Allah for that which is not written in your destinity." But, it is not greed to hope for something from one who is dear to you.

PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم GUARANTEE TO ONE WHO WILL NOT BEG

(١٨٥٧) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يَّكْفُلُ لِيْ اَنْ لَّا يَسْأَلَ النَّاسَ شَيْئًا فَاَتَكَفَّلُ لَهٗ بِالْجَنَّةِ فَقَالَ ثَوْبَانُ اَنَا فَكَانَ لَا يَسْأَلُ اَحَدًا شَيْئًا (رواہ ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1857. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If any one assures me that he will refrain from begging from people, then I assure him of paradise.

Thewban held out the assurance. Indeed, he never did ask any one for any thing (even when he experienced extreme hardship).[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم tidings meant that if anyone does not beg then his end will be in a good, faithful condition and he will go to paradise without undergoing punishment.

However, when one fear for his life then this position is exempted because it is an extremely severe state when prohibited things are also permitted. For instance, if one does not beg one is liable to die then it is necessary to save one's life. If one does not, then he will commit a sin.

COMMAND NOT TO BEG

(١٨٥٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ دَعَانِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ يَشْتَرِطُ عَلَيَّ اَنْ لَّا تَسْأَلَ النَّاسَ شَيْئًا قُلْتُ نَعَمْ قَالَ وَلَا سَوْطَكَ اِنْ سَقَطَ مِنْكَ حَتّٰى تَنْزِلَ اِلَيْهِ فَتَاْخُذَهٗ (رواہ احمد)

1858. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called him and bound him not to ask people for anything (at all). So, he gave his assurance to that and he (Allah's Messenger) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Not for your whip too when you drop it. Rather, you should alight (from your beast) and pick it up yourself."[1]

COMMENTARY: Although the rider does not beg when he asks for his whip yet it is a request anyway. That too is better avoided. [2]

CHAPTER - VI

SPENDING & DISLIKE OF WITHHOLDING باب الانفاق وکراهیة الامساک

SECTION I اَلفَصلُ الاَوَّل

PROPHET'S VIEW ABOUT WEALTH

(١٨٥٩) عَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَیْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْكَانَ لِیْ مِثْلُ اُحُدٍ ذَهَبًا لَسَرَّنِیْ اَنْ لَّا یَمُرَّ عَلَیَّ ثَلَاثُ لَیَالٍ وَعِنْدِیْ مِنْهُ شَیْئٌ اِلَّا شَیْئٌ اُرْصِدُهٗ لِدَیْنٍ (رواه البخاری)

1859. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If I had gold (a heap) as (Mount) uhud, I would not like to have it with me more than three nights except something that I would set aside to repay a debt."[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم meant to say that he would have disbursed all the gold within three nights. He would retain only what was enough to repay his debt, because repaying debts take precedence over charity.

The Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم generosity knew no bounds as this hadith shows. It also speaks high of those who give charity. As for those who spend their immense wealth on their own luxuries, like palatial mansions and so on, they do not consider the rights of other people on them. Rather, they do not even give it a thought. This is a very serious wrong in the eyes of Shari'ah (divine law).

Besides Shari'ah (divine law) and manners, even common sense tells us that it is not fellow feeling and human sympathy to have one's coffers overflowing with hoarded wealth while another person before one's eyes is deprived of basic necessities, like simple bread. The poor man is dying of hunger, gasping for breath but he has not enough sympathy to feed him and save his life.

Even in the present times when the so-called socialists preach equality and human fraternity, the affluent spend lavishly on their little needs but they have no wrinkles on their forehead when anyone of their own species longs for feed and water. Rather, they look at him with contempt, and they utter words of derision. The hard hearted should

THE PRAYER OF THE ANGELS AND THEIR CURSE

(١٨٦٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ يَوْمٍ يُصْبِحُ الْعِبَادُ فِيْهِ إِلَّا مَلَكَانِ يَنْزِلَانِ فَيَقُوْلُ اَحَدُهُمَا اَللّٰهُمَّ اَعْطِ مُنْفِقًا خَلَفًا وَّيَقُوْلُ الْاٰخَرُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَعْطِ مُمْسِكًا تَلَفًا (متفق عليه)

1860. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "There is not a day but two angels descend in the morning. One of them prays (for the generous): O Allah, bestow on him who spends a recompense for it (in this world with more than he spends and in the next with reward). And, the other prays (against the stingy); O Allah, let him who withholds suffer loss. (and destroy his wealth)."[1]

BE GENEROUS

(١٨٦١) وَعَنْ اَسْمَاءَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْفِقِيْ وَلَا تُحْصِىْ فَيُحْصِى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْكِ وَلَا تُوْعِيْ فَيُوْعِيَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْكِ ارْضَخِيْ مَا اسْتَطَعْتِ (متفق عليه)

1861. Sayyiduna Asma رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "spend and do not count lest Allah counts against you (by removing blessing from it and withholding your sustenance). And do not hoard lest Allah restricts from you. Rather, spend (in Allah's path) whatever you can."[2]

COMMENTARY: The command, 'Do not count' could be about spending. How much may I spend? Where may I spend? It could also refer to hoarding. How much do I have? Do not hesitate to spend.

The final advice is that 'she should spend in Allah's path according to her position and ability. The amount might to little, but do not regard it as too insignificant. Allah looks at the intention behind an action and rewards accordingly. Even on atom's weight is enormous in His sight.

(١٨٦٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى اَنْفِقْ يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ اُنْفِقْ عَلَيْكَ (متفق عليه)

1862. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah, the exalted, says, "Spend (in My path), O son of Aadam. I shall spend on you."[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah calls upon man to spend his fleeting wealth in this world in His path so that he will get in the hereafter, a better return.

Some people interpret it to mean; 'whatever I have given you, give from it to the people so that I shall bestow on you more than that in this world and the next. It refers to the verse (39) of surah saba:

وَمَا اَنْفَقْتُمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ فَهُوَ يُخْلِفُهٗ

SPEND THE SURPLUS

(١٨٦٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ اِنْ تَبْذُلِ الْفَضْلَ خَيْرٌ لَّكَ وَاِنْ تُمْسِكْهُ شَرٌّ لَّكَ وَلَا تُلَامُ عَلٰى كَفَافٍ وَابْدَأْ بِمَنْ تَعُوْلُ (رواه مسلم)

1863. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ, narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "O son of Aadam! That you give away the surplus (of wealth) that you have is good for you (in both the worlds). And that you withhold it is bad for you. And, you are not blamed for possessing what is enough. And begin with those who are dependant you."[1]

COMMENTARY: There is no harm in keeping with oneself so much wealth as will enable one to survive honourably without having to beg. How much will be enough depends on the situation, people to be supported and the times.

A man must show generosity first to his dependants. It is not proper for one to keep one's family hungry and deprived and spend on other people.

The apparent style of the hadith shows that it is a hadith Qudsi. However, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم may have spoken in this manner.

THE PARABLE OF THE PHILANTHROPIST ON THE MISERLY

(١٨٦٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ الْبَخِيْلِ وَالْمُتَصَدِّقِ كَمَثَلِ الرَّجُلَيْنِ عَلَيْهِمَا جُنَّتَانِ مِنْ حَدِيْدٍ قَدِ اضْطُرَّتْ اَيْدِيْهِمَا اِلٰى ثُدِيِّهِمَا وَتَرَاقِيْهِمَا فَجَعَلَ الْمُتَصَدِّقُ كُلَّمَا تَصَدَّقَ بِصَدَقَةٍ انْبَسَطَتْ عَنْهُ وَجَعَلَ الْبَخِيْلُ كُلَّمَا هَمَّ بِصَدَقَةٍ قَلَصَتْ وَاَخَذَتْ كُلُّ حَلْقَةٍ بِمَكَانِهَا (متفق عليه)

1864. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The example of the miserly and generous giver of charity is like two men who have on them coats of iron, their hands pressed tightly to their breasts and collar-bones. Whenever the generous giver gives charity, it expands and cases for him. But whenever the miserly thinks of giving charity, it shrinks and each ring to its place."[2]

COMMENTARY: The hadith means that the heart of the generous man expands at every thought of giving charity. The miserly feels a constriction of heart and withdrawal of his hands whenever he thinks of charity.

Anyone who resolves to do good, is enable by Allah to do it sincerely. But, for the miserly, the path is beset with hurdles.

STINGINESS CONDEMNED

(١٨٦٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اتَّقُوا الظُّلْمَ فَاِنَّ الظُّلْمَ ظُلُمَاتٌ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَاتَّقُوا الشُّحَّ فَاِنَّ الشُّحَّ اَهْلَكَ مَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ حَمَلَهُمْ عَلٰى اَنْ سَفَكُوْا دِمَاءَ هُمْ

وَاسْتَحَلُّوْا مَحَارِمَهُمْ(رواه مسلم)

1865. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Refrain from zulm which is doing (and oppression), for, on the day of resurrection, zulm appear as zulumat (darkness in which the oppressor will stray). And, refrain from stinginess, for, stinginess ruined those who were before you by loading them to mutual bloodshed and to regard the unlawful as lawful."[1]

COMMENTARY: Zulm (plural zulumat, wrong-doing, oppression) is to use something in a place other than its true place. For instance, the true purpose of man's creation is to worship and obey Allah and pursue the right path, but his base soul misleads him to rebel against Allah. So this is zulm. Hence, its meaning compresses all kind of sin and every sinner is a zalim (wrong-doer, oppressor).

In contrast to the wrongdoer, the believer who is righteous will find the path of deliverance on the day of resurrection with the light of his piety running ahead of him brightening the road to paradise to the pleasure and mercy of his Lord.

It is also that darkness refers to the terror and severity of the day of resurrection.

Stinginess is also a kind of zulm, rather a very serious kind. It causes severance of ties of relationship ending up with hostility and bloodshed, and declaring whatever is unlawful as permissible. The woman and properties of the enemies are considered lawful and their honour and self-respect are thrown overboard.

NO ONE WILLING TO ACCEPT SADAQAH (CHARITY) WILL BE FOUND

(١٨٦٦) وَعَنْ حَارِثَةَ بْنِ وَهْبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَصَدَّقُوْا فَإِنَّهُ يَأْتِيْ عَلَيْكُمْ زَمَانٌ يَمْشِي الرَّجُلُ بِصَدَقَتِهٖ فَلَا يَجِدُ مَنْ يَقْبَلُهَا يَقُوْلُ الرَّجُلُ لَوْجِئْتَ بِهَا بِالْأَمْسِ لَقَبِلْتُهَا فَأَمَّا الْيَوْمَ فَلَا حَاجَةَ لِيْ بِهَا(متفق علیه)

1866. Sayyiduna Harithan ibn Wahb رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Give sadaqah (charity), for there will come a time over you when a man will walk about with his sadaqah (charity) but not find anyone to accept it. Everyone will say to him, "Had you come with it yesterday, I would have accepted it, but, to day! I have no need of it."[2]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps everyone will be self-sufficient in those times so on one would need any alms. It could also be that people will be disinterested with the world and think only of the hereafter, their hearts would be content.

The ulama (Scholars) say that this situation will be towards the end of human life on this world. Imam Mahdi رحمه الله would have made his appearance in the world.

THE BEST SADAQAH (CHARITY)

(١٨٦٧) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَيُّ الصَّدَقَةِ أَعْظَمُ أَجْرًا قَالَ أَنْ تَصَدَّقَ وَأَنْتَ صَحِيْحٌ شَحِيْحٌ تَخْشَى الْفَقْرَ وَتَأْمُلُ الْغِنٰى وَلَاتُمْهِلْ حَتّٰى إِذَا بَلَغَتِ الْحُلْقُوْمَ قُلْتَ لِفُلَانٍ كَذَا وَلِفُلَانٍ كَذَا وَقَدْ كَانَ لِفُلَانٍ(متفق علیه)

1867. Sayyiduna Abu Huryrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man asked, "O Messenger of Allah, which sadaqah (charity) will have the highest reward?" He said, "The one that you give when you are healthy and hesitant to spend, and you fear poverty and wish to amass wealth. Do not defer it till the soul is at the windpipe and you direct, 'For him this much and for him this much, but it belongs already to a certain one (the heir)."[1]

COMMENTARY: When a person is healthy, he gives little thought to the hereafter and loves to amass wealth. He is by nature miserly. He fears poverty.

At the last moment, the rights of the heirs takes precedence and one cannot dictate direction of distribution of one's wealth. Moreover, any charity at that time will not earn much reward.

AT A LOSS

(١٨٦٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ انْتَهَيْتُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ جَالِسٌ فِي ظِلِّ الْكَعْبَةِ فَلَمَّا رَاٰنِيْ قَالَ هُمُ الْاَخْسَرُوْنَ وَرَبِّ الْكَعْبَةِ فَقُلْتُ فِدَاكَ اَبِيْ وَاُمِّيْ مَنْ هُمْ قَالَ هُمُ الْاَكْثَرُوْنَ اَمْوَالًا اِلَّا مَنْ قَالَ هٰكَذَا وَهٰكَذَا وَهٰكَذَا مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهٖ وَعَنْ يَمِيْنِهٖ وَعَنْ شِمَالِهٖ وَقَلِيْلٌ مَّا هُمْ (متفق عليه)

1868. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he was sitting in the shade of the Ka'bah. On seeing him come, he said, "by the Lord of the Ka'bah they are the losers!" He asked, "My parents be ransomed to you, who are they?" He said, "They are the wealthiest, except those who (spend here and there and say) 'Take this, this and this!' before them, behind them, to their right and to their left, but they are scanty."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Dharr Ghifari رضی اللہ عنہ led a life of poverty. He had rejected the world and its luxuries. This is why the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke to him these words about the merit of poverty.

(This hadith is Tirmidhi is lengthy and also speaks about the fate of those who neglect to pay zakah (Annual due charity)).

far from men. He is nearer to hell. Certainly, the ignorant who is generous is dearer to Allah than the worshipper who is niggardly."[1]

COMMENTARY: The ignorant who is generous is one who is mindful of the obligatory duties but neglects the supererogatory. The worshipping niggardly is he who is mindful of the optional and he may or may not be a scholar.

SADAQAH (CHARITY) WHEN ACTIVE

(١٨٧٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاَنْ يَتَصَدَّقَ الْمَرْءُ فِيْ حَيَاتِهٖ

1870. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "That a man gives sadaqah (charity) of a dirham when he is active in life is better than his giving one hundred dirhams at the time of his death."[2]

PARABLE OF ONE WHO GIVES WHEN DYING

(١٨٧١) وَعَنْ اَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ الَّذِيْ يَتَصَدَّقُ عِنْدَ مَوْتِهٖ اَوْيُعْتِقُ

1871. Sayyiduna Abu ad-Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The example of one who gives charity or sets free a slave at the time of his death is like one who gives gifts (of food) when he is satiated."[3]

COMMENTARY: It is more rewarding to give charity and emancipate slaves when one is hale and hearty in the prime of his life.

FAITH & NIGGARDLINESS ARE OPPOSITES

(١٨٧٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَصْلَتَانِ لَاتَجْتَمِعَانِ فِيْ مُؤْمِنٍ اَلْبُخْلُ
وَسُوْءُ الْخُلُقِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

1872. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Two characteristics cannot be associated with a believer; miserliness and a poor disposition."[4]

COMMENTARY: A believer cannot be expected to have these characteristics in him with any marked degree. If he has them then he is never happy but eager to remove them.

WARNING TO MISER

(١٨٧٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بَكْرِنِ الصِّدِّيْقِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَايَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ خَبٌّ وَلَا بَخِيْلٌ
وَلَا مَنَّانٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

EXCELLENCE OF SPENDING IN ALLAH'S PATH

(١٨٧٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ بَعْضَ اَزْوَاجِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُلْنَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّنَا اَسْرَعُ بِكَ لُحُوْقًا قَالَ اَطْوَلُكُنَّ يَدًا فَاَخَذُوْا قَصَبَةً يَذْرَعُوْنَهَا وَكَانَتْ سَوْدَةُ اَطْوَلَهُنَّ يَدًا فَعَلِمْنَا بَعْدُ اِنَّمَا كَانَ طُوْلُ يَدِهَا الصَّدَقَةَ وَكَانَتْ اَسْرَعَنَا لُحُوْقًا بِهٖ زَيْنَبُ وَكَانَتْ تُحِبُّ الصَّدَقَةَ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ مُسْلِمٍ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَسْرَعُكُنَّ لُحُوْقًا بِيْ اَطْوَلُكُنَّ يَدًا قَالَتْ وَكَانَتْ يَتَطَاوَلْنَ اَيَّتُهُنَّ اَطْوَلُ يَدًا قَالَتْ فَكَانَتْ اَطْوَلُنَا يَدًا زَيْنَبُ لِاَنَّهَا كَانَتْ تَعْمَلُ بِيَدِهَا وَتَتَصَدَّقُ۔

1875. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that some of the wives of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him, 'which of us shall join you before the others?" He said, "The one with the longest arm." So hey took a rod and used it to measures (their arms) (Sayyidah) Sawdah رضی اللہ عنہا was the one among them with the longest arm. But, later on they learnt that 'length of the arm' referred to sadaqah (charity), because (Sayyidah) Zaynab رضی اللہ عنہا was the one who joined him before the others, and she loved to give sadaqah (charity) most.

According to the version of Muslim: Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The one among you to join me first is she who has the longest arm." So, they measured the arm of each other to pick up the longest arm. And, (Sayyidah) Zaynab رضی اللہ عنہا was the one who had the longest arm because she was used to work with her hand and she was used to give sadaqah (charity) (most).[2]

COMMENTARY: It is reported about Sayyidah Zaynab رضی اللہ عنہا that she used to tan leather with her hands. She then sold it and gave away the proceeds for Allah's pleasure.

CHARITY OF ONE OF BANU ISRA'IL TO A THIEF

1876. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that a man (of the Banu Isra'il) and (to himself or to a friend) that he would give some charity (that night). He went out with his charity and (unwittingly) gave it to a thief. Next morning, the people talked of it, "Someone gave charity to a thief last night." (on hearing that) he said, "O Allah! All praise belongs to you - To a thief, I gave! I will give sadaqah (charity)." But, when he went out with it, he (unknowingly) placed it in the hand of a prostitute! People commented in the morning that alms had been doled out in the night to an adulteress. The man prayed, "O Allah all praise belongs to you - to an adulteress, I gave charity! Surely, I shall give more charity." He again took it out in the night and this time, he put it in the hand of a rich man (unintentionally). Next morning, there was talk about it. He lamented, "O Allah! All praise belongs to you. (I have paid charity) to a thief, a prostitute and a rich man!"

Someone came to him (in a dream, perhaps) and enlightened him, "The alms that you gave to a thief might cause him to abstain from committing theft. That which was given to an adulteress might dater her from prostitution. The charity to the rich might serve as a lesson to him and prompt him to spend from what Allah has given him."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم reported this account to stress that it is always better to give out charity for the pleasure of Allah. It fetches reward to whomsoever it may be given.

SPENDING IN ALLAH'S PATH

(١٨٧٧) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ بَيْنَا رَجُلٌ بِفَلَاةٍ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ فَسَمِعَ صَوْتًا فِيْ سَحَابَةٍ اَسْقِ حَدِيْقَةَ فُلَانٍ فَتَنَحّٰى ذٰلِكَ السَّحَابُ فَأَفْرَغَ مَاءَهٗ فِيْ حَرَّةٍ فَإِذَا شَرْجَةٌ مِنْ تِلْكَ الشِّرَاجِ قَدِ اسْتَوْعَبَتْ ذٰلِكَ الْمَاءَ كُلَّهٗ فَتَتَبَّعَ الْمَاءَ فَإِذَا رَجُلٌ صَائِمٌ فِيْ حَدِيْقَتِهٖ يُحَوِّلُ الْمَاءَ بِمِسْحَاتِهٖ فَقَالَ لَهٗ يَا عَبْدَ اللّٰهِ مَا اسْمُكَ قَالَ فُلَانٌ الْاِسْمُ الَّذِيْ سَمِعَ فِي السَّحَابَةِ فَقَالَ لَهٗ يَا عَبْدَ اللّٰهِ لِمَ تَسْأَلُنِيْ عَنِ اسْمِيْ فَقَالَ إِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ صَوْتًا فِي السَّحَابِ الَّذِيْ هٰذَا مَاءُهٗ وَيَقُوْلُ اَسْقِ حَدِيْقَةَ فُلَانٍ لِاسْمِكَ فَمَا تَصْنَعُ فِيْهَا قَالَ أَمَّا إِذْ قُلْتَ هٰذَا فَإِنِّيْ أَنْظُرُ إِلٰى مَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا فَأَتَصَدَّقُ بِثُلُثِهٖ وَآكُلُ أَنَا وَعِيَالِيْ ثُلُثًا وَأَرُدُّ فِيْهَا ثُلُثَهٗ (رواه مسلم)

1877. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "A man who was standing in a wilderness heard a voice in the cloud above. "Go and irrigate the garden of so and so." The cloud moved away and poured water on a stony ground filling a channel there. The man followed the water up to a man standing in the garden. He diverted the water with a spade. He asked him his name and he gave him the same name as he had heard from the cloud. Then, he asked, "why do you ask?" He disclosed to him what he had heard in the cloud that had rained water for him, and take his name. He also asked him about any deed he did that earned him this favour. On that the man told that he waited for the produce and then distributed one third of it as charity, one third of it to his family and returned one-third of it to the land.[1]

COMMENTARY: The name announced in the cloud has not been disclosed though there have been more than one references to it as 'so and so.'

1878. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that Allah willed to try three man to Banu Isra'il. They were a leper, a blind man and a bald headed man. So he sent an angel to them. He came to the leper and asked him what he would like most. He wished for a good colour and a good skin because people had a strong aversion to him. The angel touched him and there was no more any aversion in him. He had a good colour and a good skin. The angel asked him what kind of property he would like best and he said, "Camels." Or he asked for cows because the sub-narrator was unsure whether he or the bald man asked for camels or cows. So, the leper was given a pregnant she camel and the angle prayed for blessings in it.

Next the angel went to the bald man and asked him what he would like most and he asked for good hair and riddance from baldness which made people avoid him. The angel touched him and he recovered and had good hair. When the angel asked him about the property he would like, he wished for cattle, so he gave him a pregnant cow, saying, "May Allah give you blessing in it."

Then the angel went to the blind man and asked him what he would like most for himself and he said, "(I would like) that Allah should restore my eyesight to me that I might see the people." The angel touched his eyes and Allah gave him his eyesight. The angel then asked him what property he would like to have and he wished for sheep. The angel gave him a pregnant ewe.

Soon, the three pregnant animals gave birth to flocks and herds that multiplied so that a herd a camels filled a valley, a herd of cows filed another's valley and a flock of sheep filled the valley of the third.

Disguised as a leper, the angel came to the (one who had been a) leper and requested him, "I am a poor man who has lost all means of livelihood during a journey. So none but Allah will satisfy my needs, and then you. So, in the name of Him who has given you this beautiful colour and skin and abundant wealth, I implore you to give me a camel that I might reach my destination." The man excused himself saying that he had many obligations (to attend to and he could not give him anything). The angel exclaimed, "I think I know you! Were you not a leper yourself to whom people had a strong aversion? Were you not poor and Allah gave you all this?" But, he denied that saying, "I have inherited my property from my forefathers." The angel said, "If you lie then may Allah make you as you were."

Then, disguised as a bald man, the angel went to him (who had been bald once). He pleaded with him as he had pleaded with the first but got the same response as he had received from him. So, the angel said, "If you lie may Allah revert you to your previous form."

Then, as a blind man the angel went to him (who had been blind) and pleaded with him, "I am a poor man, a traveller. I have exhausted my means of livelihood during the journey. I have none to help me but Allah and, after Him, you. I beg to you in the name of Allah who has given you back your sight to give me a sheep so that with its help I might complete my journey." The man said, "No doubt I was blind and Allah restored my eyesight to me. I was poor and He made me rich. Take whatever you like from my property. By Allah, I shall not prevent you from taking any thing that you wish of my property for Allah's sake."

The angel said, "keep your property with you. You were tried and Allah is pleased with you but displeased with your two companions."[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that it is allowed to ask someone in Allah's name and make the person as a means. In this mode, the real plea is made to Allah. However, to place him at par with Allah. "I ask Allah and you." Is absolutely wrong.

GIVE SOMETHING TO THE BEGGAR

(١٨٧٩) وَعَنْ أُمِّ بُجَيْدٍ قَالَتْ قُلْتُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الْمِسْكِيْنَ لَيَقِفُ عَلٰى بَابِيْ حَتّٰى أَسْتَحْيِيْ فَلَا أَجِدُ فِيْ بَيْتِيْ مَا أَدْفَعُ فِيْ يَدِهٖ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ادْفَعِيْ فِيْ يَدِهٖ وَلَوْ ظِلْفًا مُحَرَّقًا۔ رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَأَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ صَحِيْحٌ حَسَنٌ۔

1879. Sayyidah Umm Bujayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that she said to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that she felt very ashamed when a poor man stood at her door and she had nothing with her to give him. He said, "Place something in his hand even if it is a burnt hoof."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم meant that even the most insignificant thing should be given to a beggar if one does not have anything else.

A LESSON BEARING EVENT

(١٨٨٠) وَعَنْ مَوْلًى لِعُثْمَانَ قَالَ أُهْدِيَ لِأُمِّ سَلَمَةَ بُضْعَةٌ مِنْ لَحْمٍ وَكَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعْجِبُهُ اللَّحْمُ فَقَالَتْ لِلْخَادِمِ ضَعِيْهِ فِي الْبَيْتِ لَعَلَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَأْكُلُهٗ فَوَضَعَتْهُ فِيْ كُوَّةِ الْبَيْتِ وَجَاءَ سَائِلٌ فَقَامَ عَلَى الْبَابِ فَقَالَ تَصَدَّقُوْا بَارَكَ اللّٰهُ فِيْكُمْ فَقَالُوْا بَارَكَ اللّٰهُ فِيْكَ فَذَهَبَ السَّائِلُ فَدَخَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا أُمَّ سَلَمَةَ هَلْ عِنْدَكُمْ شَيْءٌ أَطْعَمُهٗ فَقَالَتْ نَعَمْ قَالَتْ لِلْخَادِمِ اذْهَبِيْ فَأْتِيْ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِذٰلِكَ اللَّحْمِ فَذَهَبَتْ فَلَمْ تَجِدْ فِي الْكُوَّةِ إِلَّا قِطْعَةَ مَرْوَةٍ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَإِنَّ ذٰلِكَ اللَّحْمَ عَادَ مَرْوَةً لِمَا لَمْ تُعْطُوْهُ السَّائِلَ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ دَلَائِلِ النُّبُوَّةِ۔

1880. The freedman of Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a piece of cooked meat was presented to Sayyidah Umm Slamah رضی اللہ عنہ. Since the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم liked meat, she instructed the female slave to keep it aside in the house. Perhaps he might eat. She placed it in an aperture in the house. Soon, a beggar came and standing at the door asked for alms, saying, "May Allah bless you." The members of the household said, "My Allah bless you." So the beggar departed. The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم came soon after that and asked Sayyidah Umm Salamah if she had anything for him to eat. She said, "I have" and asked the female slave to get the meat to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم When she went (to the aperture), she found a piece of white stone in the aperture. The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The meat turned into stone because you did not give it to the beggar."[1]

REPROVE FOR TURNING AWAY BEGGAR

(١٨٨١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا اُخْبِرُكُمْ بِشَرِّ النَّاسِ مَنْزِلًا قِيْلَ نَعَمْ قَالَ الَّذِىْ يُسْئَلُ بِاللّٰهِ وَلَا يُعْطِىْ بِهٖ (رواه احمد)

1881. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Shall I not inform you of the worst of the people in rank?" the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم said. "Yes!" He said, "He is the one who is asked for something in Allah's name but he does not give it."[2]

COMMENTARY: This warning applies if the beggar is deserving and the person whom he asks has with him something over and above his own needs.

ABU DHARR'S رضی الله عنه ABSTINENCE

(١٨٨٢) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ ذَرٍّ اَنَّهُ اسْتَاْذَنَ عَلٰى عُثْمَانَ فَاَذِنَ لَهُ وَبِيَدِهٖ عَصَاهُ فَقَالَ عُثْمَانُ يَا كَعْبُ اِنَّ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمٰنِ تُوُفِّىَ وَتَرَكَ مَالًا فَمَا تَرٰى فِيْهِ فَقَالَ اِنْ كَانَ يَصِلُ فِيْهِ حَقَّ اللّٰهِ فَلَا بَاْسَ عَلَيْهِ فَرَفَعَ اَبُوْذَرٍّ عَصَاهُ فَضَرَبَ كَعْبًا وَقَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا اُحِبُّ لَوْاَنَّ لِىْ هٰذَا الْجَبَلَ ذَهَبًا اُنْفِقُهٗ وَيُتَقَبَّلَ مِنِّىْ اَذَرُ خَلْفِىْ مِنْهُ سِتَّ اَوَاقٍ اَنْشُدُكَ بِاللّٰهِ يَا عُثْمَانُ اَسَمِعْتَهٗ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ قَالَ نَعَمْ (رواه احمد)

1882. It is reported that Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی الله عنه sought permission of Sayyiduna Uthman رضی الله عنه to enter. He asked him in and Abu Dharr رضی الله عنه had a stick in his hand. Uthman رضی الله عنه asked Ka'b رضی الله عنه that since Abdur Rahman رضی الله عنه had died leaving wealth, what he thought of it? He said, "If he has given the right of Allah on it, then there is no harm." Abu Dharr رضی الله عنه raised his stick and beat Ka'b (with it), and said that he had heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say, "If I had as much gold as this mountain and I could spend it and that is accepted, I would not yet like that I leave behind me even six ooqiyahs from it." Abu Dharr رضی الله عنه then adjured Uthman رضی الله عنه three times to confirm that he had heard him. He said, "Yes."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی الله عنه was one of those sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم whose poverty and asceticism were of the highest degree and he himself was an outstanding example for the ummah of an abstinent, unconcerned man.

As for the ruling, the majority of the ulama (Scholars) affirm that if zakah (Annual due charity) is paid as due then there is no harm in keeping wealth. This question has been discussed earlier There is no limit to the amount of wealth in one's hands (for example see hadith # 1781)

There is a hint in the words of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم 'and that it is accepted' - one may spend all that wealth but it may not get Divine approval and pleasure.

TURNING TO OTHERS IS AN IMPEDIMENT

(١٨٨٣) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ ابْنِ الْحَارِثِ قَالَ صَلَّيْتُ وَرَاءَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ الْعَصْرَ فَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ قَامَ مُسْرِعًا فَتَخَطّٰى رِقَابَ النَّاسِ إِلٰى بَعْضِ حُجَرِ نِسَائِهٖ فَفَزِعَ النَّاسُ مِنْ سُرْعَتِهٖ فَخَرَجَ عَلَيْهِمْ فَرَاٰى اَنَّهُمْ قَدْ عَجِبُوْا مِنْ سُرْعَتِهٖ قَالَ ذَكَرْتُ شَيْئًا مِنْ تِبْرٍ عِنْدَنَا فَكَرِهْتُ اَنْ يَّحْبِسَنِيْ فَاَمَرْتُ بِقِسْمَتِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ۔ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهٗ قَالَ كُنْتُ خَلَّفْتُ فِي الْبَيْتِ تِبْرًا مِنَ الصَّدَقَةِ فَكَرِهْتُ اَنْ اُبَيِّتَهٗ۔

1883. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn al-Harith رضى الله عنه narrated that he offered the salah of asr behind the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم once in Madinah. After (the salah on) giving the salutation, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم got up quickly and, stepping over the people, he went to the room of one of his wives. The sahabah wondered of his sudden move. When he returned and perceived their astonishment at his sudden move, he disclosed that he had remembered some gold that they had and he did not like that it should impede (his nearness to Allah). So, he left instruction that it should be distributed.[1]
According to another version: "I had some gold belonging to zakah (Annual due charity) remaining in my house and did not like to have it till night."[2]

COMMENTARY: If anyone is inclined to something other than Allah, those people who are near to Allah and held back from getting nearer to Him. Or, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم taught his ummah by his words that they should not crave for the world and its things.

A PROPHET LEAVES NO WEALTH BEHIND HIM

(١٨٨٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عِنْدِيْ فِيْ مَرَضِهٖ سِتَّةُ دَنَانِيْرَ اَوْ سَبْعَةٌ فَاَمَرَنِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ اُفَرِّقَهَا فَشَغَلَنِيْ وَجَعُ نَبِيِّ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ سَاَلَنِيْ عَنْهَا مَا فَعَلَتِ السِّتَّةُ اَوِ السَّبْعَةُ قُلْتُ لَا وَاللّٰهِ لَقَدْ كَانَ شَغَلَنِيْ وَجَعُكَ فَدَعَا بِهَا ثُمَّ وَضَعَهَا فِيْ كَفِّهٖ فَقَالَ مَا ظَنُّ نَبِيِّ اللّٰهِ لَوْ لَقِيَ اللّٰهَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ وَهٰذِهٖ عِنْدَهٗ (رواه احمد)

1884. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that during his illness she had six or seven dinars belonging to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. He instructed her to distribute them. But, the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم illness prevented her (from doing it). Later, he asked her about it. "What did you do about the six or seven dinars?" She submitted, "No by Allah, your illness kept me busy." He called for them and placed them is his palm and said, "Can it be imagined that the prophet of Allah should meet Allah, Mighty and Glorious, while these are with him?"[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that it is contrary to the station of a Prophet that he should depart from the world with his possessions remaining in his house. They ought to be given away.

RELIANCE ON ALLAH INSTEAD OF HOARDING

(١٨٨٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ عَلٰى بِلَالٍ وَعِنْدَهُ صُبْرَةٌ مِنْ تَمْرٍ فَقَالَ مَا هٰذَا يَا بِلَالُ قَالَ شَيْءٌ ادَّخَرْتُهُ لِغَدٍ فَقَالَ اَمَا تَخْشٰى اَنْ تَرٰى لَهُ غَدًا بُخَارًا فِيْ نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ اَنْفِقْ بِلَالُ وَلَا تَخْشَ مِنْ ذِي الْعَرْشِ اِقْلَالًا۔

1885. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم once visited (Sayyiduna) Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ. He led with him a heap of dates, so he asked. "O Bilal, what is this?" He said, "A little that I have kept aside for the future." He said, "Do you not fear that tomorrow, on the day of resurrection, you night have to se, because of it, steam in the fire of hell? Bilal! Spend and fear not indigence from the owner of the throne."[2]

COMMENTARY: Actually the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم taught Sayyiduna Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ to aim at perfection which can be achieved by trust and complete reliance on the true being. However, generally, the ruling, according to the ulama (Scholars), is that one is permitted to keep aside for oneself and one's family enough provision for subsistence.

EXCELLENCE OF LIBERALITY

(١٨٨٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ السَّخَاءُ شَجَرَةٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَمَنْ كَانَ سَخِيًّا اَخَذَ بِغُصْنٍ مِنْهَا فَلَمْ يَتْرُكْهُ الْغُصْنُ حَتّٰى يُدْخِلَهُ الْجَنَّةَ وَالشُّحُّ شَجَرَةٌ فِي النَّارِ فَمَنْ كَانَ شَحِيْحًا اَخَذَ بِغُصْنٍ مِنْهَا فَلَمْ يَتْرُكْهُ الْغُصْنُ حَتّٰى يُدْخِلَهُ النَّارَ۔ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

1886. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Generosity in a tree is paradise, a branch of which the generous holds. Then, the branch does not release him till it gets him admitted to paradise. And, miserliness is a tree in hell a branchs of which the miser holds. But the branch will not release him till it gets him admitted to hell."[3]

CHARITY PUTS OFF TRIALS

(١٨٨٧) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَادِرُوْا بِالصَّدَقَةِ فَاِنَّ الْبَلَاءَ لَا يَتَخَطَّاهَا (رواہ رزین)

1887. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Hasten to spend in the path of Allah (before death overtakes you). For it does not let trial go past it."[4]

CHAPTER - VII

THE EXCELLENCE OF SADAQAH (CHARITY) بَابُ فَضْلِ الصَّدَقَةِ

Sadaqah (charity) is that portion of one's property that one gives away for Allah's pleasure and to gain nearness to him. It may be a wajib (obligatory) that he discharges or an optional charity.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

UNLAWFUL PROPERTY IS NOT ACCEPTED AS CHARITY

(١٨٨٨) عَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَصَدَّقَ بِعَدْلِ تَمْرَةٍ مِنْ كَسْبٍ طَيِّبٍ وَلَا يَقْبَلُ اللّٰهُ اِلَّا الطَّيِّبَ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَتَقَبَّلُهَا بِيَمِيْنِهٖ ثُمَّ يُرَبِّيْهَا لِصَاحِبِهَا كَمَا يُرَبِّيْ اَحَدُكُمْ فَلُوَّهٗ حَتّٰى تَكُوْنَ مِثْلَ الْجَبَلِ (متفق عليه)

1888. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone gives as sadaqah (charity) the like of date (in kind or value) from his lawful earning - and Allah accepts only the lawful - Allah will take it with His right hand and nurture it for the giver as any of you nurtures his foal till it becomes like a mountain (the charity itself or the reward for it)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Lawful earnings are through the principles out lined by Shari'ah (divine law) whether in business, industry, agriculture, service or inheritance, or even partnership. Allah is very pleased with spending from the lawful. This is expressed by the words: 'Allah takes with His right hand.'

A DIDACTIC ANECDOTE: Shaykh Ali Muttaqi Aarif Billah رحمه الله said that a pious man used to earn his living. He gave away one third of it in Allah's path, retained one-third for his own needs and r e-invested the remaining one third in his means of earning. One day, a man of the world said to him that he wished to spend some money in Allah's path and he should direct him to a deserving person He said, "First acquire lawful wealth and then spend in Allah's path. It will go to a deserving person automatically. But, that man could not get the real meaning of it. So, the Shaykh advised him to go and give his charity to the first person on whom he felt mercy. That man found an old blind man and felt pity on him and took him to be deserving of his charity. He gave him something. The next day he heard the blind man boast before others that he had receive ample charity the previous day which he spent in drinking wine with another evil person. The worldly man went to the shaykh and related to him his experience. The shaykh gave him one dirham from his own earnings and instructed him to give it to the first person he met on going from there. Consequently, he met man who seemed outwardly to be well off but he had to obey the shaykh. He gave him the dirham. The man turned back with the dirham and walked into the slums and threw something and came into the city. There was a dead pigeon and nothing else. The worldly man was behind him and adjured him to say truthfully who he was. He said, "I am a poor man. My children are hungry but I could not find anything for them except the dead pigeon. What could I do? I took it and was coming home when Allah gave me the dirham through you So I threw the pigeon where I had picked it up."

The rich worldly man understood the meaning of the Shaykh's first words. Indeed, lawful wealth is spend at proper place and unlawful at a bad place.

SADAQAH (CHARITY) DOES NOT REDUCE WEALTH

(١٨٨٩) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَانَقَصَتْ صَدَقَةٌ مِنْ مَالٍ وَمَازَادَ اللّٰهُ عَبْدًا بِعَفْوٍ إِلَّاعِزًّاوَمَا تَوَاضَعَ اَحَدٌ لِلّٰهِ إِلَّا رَفَعَهُ اللّٰهُ(رواه مسلم)

1889. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Sadaqah (charity) will not diminish property. If anyone forgives another then Allah raises him in honour. If anyone humbles himself for the sake of Allah then Allah exalts him in rank."[1]

COMMENTARY: On the face of it, wealth may decrease on spending from it in Allah's path, but, in fact, there is blessing in it. His property is safe from trials and his record is credited with reward and he also gets a reimbursement in the world.
If anyone is able to seek retribution but forgive the person who hurts him then Allah gives him honour in both the worlds. A saintly man said, "No retribution is as effective as forgiving and overlooking."
And, if anyone acts humbly for Allah's sake then Allah raises his rank in both the worlds.

GATES OF PARADISE ASCRIBED TO PIOUS DEEDS

(١٨٩٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَنْفَقَ زَوْجَيْنِ مِنْ شَيْئٍ مِنَ الْاَشْيَاءِ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ دُعِيَ مِنْ اَبْوَابِ الْجَنَّةِ وَلِلْجَنَّةِ اَبْوَابٌ فَمَنْ كَانَ مِنْ اَهْلِ الصَّلَاةِ دُعِيَ مِنْ بَابِ الصَّلَاةِ وَمَنْ كَانَ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْجِهَادِ دُعِيَ مِنْ بَابِ الْجِهَادِ وَمَنْ كَانَ مِنْ اَهْلِ الصَّدَقَةِ دُعِيَ مِنْ بَابِ الصَّدَقَةِ وَمَنْ كَانَ مِنْ اَهْلِ الصِّيَامِ دُعِيَ مِنْ بَابِ الرَّيَّانِ فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ مَاعَلٰى مَنْ دُعِيَ مِنْ تِلْكَ الْاَبْوَابِ مِنْ ضَرُوْرَةٍ فَهَلْ يُدْعٰى اَحَدٌ مِنْ تِلْكَ الْاَبْوَابِ كُلِّهَا قَالَ نَعَمْ وَاَرْجُوْ اَنْ تَكُوْنَ مِنْهُمْ(متفق علیه)

1890. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone spends a pair of anything in Allah's path then he will be called from the gates of paradise, and paradise had (eight) gates. Thus, he who is more occupied in salah will be called from the gate of as-salah. He who participates in jihad will be called from the gate of jihad. He who gives sadaqah (charity) will be called from the gates of sadaqah (charity). And, he who is given to fasting will be invited from the gate Rayyan." (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه asked, "He who is called by (one of) these gates will not need to be called by all of these, but will anyone be called by all of these gates? He said, "Yes, And, I hope that you will be among them."[2]

COMMENTARY: A pair of anything means spending in two's like two dirhams, two slaves, two horses, etc.

One who does that will be called from all the gates of paradise and every gate keeper will hope that he enters by his gate.

Ar-Rayyan means 'well-watered.' These who enter by it will be the people given to fast often. Before they arrive at their destination, they will be given pure drink in return for their going without water during fasting

According to one version. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There is a gate of paradise called Baab ad Duha. A crier will call those who had been offering the salah of duha (which is chaast or ishraq) regularly. 'This gate is only for you. Enter through it by the mercy of Allah."

According to another hadith, there is a gate Baab ul Tawbaqh. Those who repent will go through it. Another gate is reserved for those who suppress their anger and forgive other people. Yet another gate will let in those who are pleased with whatever pleases Allah.

Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه had all these attributes. So, he would be invited by all the gates.

ABU BAKR'S رضى الله عنه SERVITUDE

(١٨٩١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَصْبَحَ مِنْكُمُ الْيَوْمَ صَائِمًا قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ اَنَا قَالَ فَمَنْ تَبِعَ مِنْكُمُ الْيَوْمَ جَنَازَةً قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ اَنَا قَالَ فَمَنْ اَطْعَمَ مِنْكُمُ الْيَوْمَ مِسْكِيْنًا قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ اَنَا قَالَ فَمَنْ عَادَ مِنْكُمُ الْيَوْمَ مَرِيْضًا قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ اَنَا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا اجْتَمَعْنَ فِيْ اَمْرِءٍ اِلَّا دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ (رواه مسلم)

1891. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that (one day) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, "Who has begun this day fasting, among you?" Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه said, "I" He asked, "who among you has followed a funeral, today?" Abu Bakr said, "I," He asked, "And who among you has fed a needy person today?" Abu Bakr said, "I" He asked, "Who, among you has visited a sick person today?" Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه said, "I" Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Those good deeds will not combine in anyone without causing him to enter paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone does all those things that Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه did on a single day, then he will be admitted to paradise directly without going through a reckoning. Apart from that, only faith is enough to get admission to paradise. Or, it means that the person who does all those things will be admitted to paradise through whichever of the gates he likes.

In reply to the questions, Sayyiduan Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه said: (انا) (I). It is not disallowed to say 'I' in anticipation of reward or to give information about oneself. Some sufis disallow their disciples to say 'I' regularly, but this really is disallowed when one boats about oneself or is an egoist. This is what the devil, Iblis, had said: (انا خير منه) (I am better than he) – (7:12)

DO NOT LOOK DOWN ON A SMALL GIFT

(١٨٩٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَانِسَاءَ الْمُسْلِمَاتِ لَاتَحْقِرَنَّ جَارَةٌ لِجَارَتِهَا وَلَوْ فِرْسِنَ شَاةٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

---

[1] (1): Muslim # 87-1028.

1892. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "O Muslim women, let none of consider even a sheep's hoof to insignificant a gift to be given to her neighbour."[1]

COMMENTARY: None should hesitate to send to her neighbour even a very insignificant thing as gift.

Some people hold that the women recipients of gifts are addressed in this hadith. Thus: "Let none of you consider the gift of her neighbour too insignificant. She must accept if with pleasure."

A sheep's hoof is really not worth a gift to receive or give nor it is worth sadaqah (charity). It really stands for 'a very insignificant things.

Generally, woman are prone to return gifts of little value. So they are addressed.

EVERY PIOUS DEED IS SADAQAH (CHARITY)

(١٨٩٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ وَحُذَيْفَةَ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ مَعْرُوْفٍ صَدَقَةٌ (متفق علیه)

1893. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Hughayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Every piety is a sadaqah (charity)."

COMMENTARY: A piety whether oral or a practical deed is a sadaqah (charity) if it is according to Allah's wish. The reward for it is like the reward for spending in Allah's path.

(١٨٩٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَحْقِرَنَّ مِنَ الْمَعْرُوْفِ شَيْئًا وَلَوْ اَنْ تَلْقٰى اَخَاكَ بِوَجْهٍ طَلِيْقٍ (رواه مسلم)

1894. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not regard any kind of piety as too insignificant, even (receiving or) meeting your brother with a cheerful face."[2]

COMMENTARY: To meet a Muslim with a cheerful face is to please him. That is a good thing and though it does not call for a great effort, it should not be considered to be something insignificant.

EARN & GIVE CHARITY

(١٨٩٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسَى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ صَدَقَةٌ قَالُوْا فَاِنْ لَّمْ يَجِدْ قَالَ فَلْيَعْمَلْ بِيَدَيْهِ فَيَنْفَعُ نَفْسَهٗ وَيَتَصَدَّقُ قَالُوْا فَاِنْ لَّمْ يَسْتَطِعْ اَوْلَمْ يَفْعَلْ قَالَ فَيُعِيْنُ ذَا الْحَاجَةِ الْمَلْهُوْفَ قَالُوْا فَاِنْ يَفْعَلْهُ قَالَ فَيَأْمُرُ بِالْخَيْرِ قَالُوْا فَاِنْ لَّمْ يَفْعَلْ قَالَ فَيُمْسِكُ عَنِ الشَّرِّ فَاِنَّهٗ لَهٗ صَدَقَةٌ (متفق علیه)

1895. Sayyiduna Abu Musa al Ash'ary رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, that it is wajib (obligatory) on every Muslim to give a sadaqah (charity). The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked, "If he cannot find anything?" He said, "Let him toil with his h ands to benefit himself and give charity." They again asked,

"But, if he cannot, or will not toil." He said, "Let him help a needy and sad person." They asked again, "But if he does not do it?" He said, "Then, let him enjoin piety." They persisted, "But if he will not do it?" He said, "In that case he must refrain from doing evil or preserve other from it and from hurting people). That is sadaqah (charity) for him (because he will get reward for sadaqah (charity))."[1]

COMMENTARY: To refrain from doing evil is not to do it himself with his tongue and hands. And, if it is in his powers then he must also stop those who hurt others.

SADAQAH (CHARITY) FOR EACH JOINT

(١٨٩٦) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ سُلَامٰى مِنَ النَّاسِ عَلَيْهِ صَدَقَةٌ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ تَطْلُعُ فِيْهِ الشَّمْسُ يَعْدِلُ بَيْنَ الْاِثْنَيْنِ صَدَقَةٌ وَيُعِيْنُ الرَّجُلَ عَلٰى دَابَّتِهٖ فَيَحْمِلُ عَلَيْهَا اَوْيَرْفَعُ عَلَيْهَا مَتَاعَهٗ صَدَقَةٌ وَالْكَلِمَةُ الطَّيِّبَةُ صَدَقَةٌ وَكُلُّ خَطْوَةٍ يَخْطُوْهَا اِلَى الصَّلٰوةِ صَدَقَةٌ وَيُمِيْطُ الْاَذٰى عَنِ الطَّرِيْقِ صَدَقَةٌ (متفق عليه)

1896. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "There is sadaqah (charity) on (behalf of) the joints in a person's body every day. To dispense justice between two men is sadaqah (charity). To help a man mount on his beast, or loading his burden on it is sadaqah (charity). A good word is sadaqah (charity). Each step taken to (offer) the salah is sadaqah (charity). To remove a harmful (obstructing) thing from the path is sadaqah (charity)."[2]

COMMENTARY: Allah has created joints in a human body. There is much wisdom in it. They are on uncountable blessings from him. So, sadaqah (charity) is incumbent on man every day to give thanks for them.

Sadaqah (charity) is not merely to give something in Allah's name to someone. Rather, to decide fairly between two men is also a sadaqah (charity). It will fetch reward from Allah in the same way as spending wealth in Allah's path will fetch reward. One can get very much reward for these things mentioned in the hadith. If a man does any of these pious things every day then it is as if he has paid the sadaqah (charity) that Allah has made it binding on him as gratitude for the joints.

A good word is that which fetches reward. Or, it is a mild speech with a beggar or such like.

Every step to salah is not only that taken to offer the salah. Rather, it is every step taken to accomplish something pious or taken for good cause, like performing the tawaf, visiting a sick person walking with the funeral and to acquire knowledge.

Every such things as could hurt or inconvenience the passerby is included in the harmful obstructing thing. It could be a thorn, bone, stone, impurity etc.

NUMBER OF JOINTS

(١٨٩٧) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خُلِقَ كُلُّ اِنْسَانٍ مِنْ بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ عَلٰى سِتِّيْنَ وَثَلَاثِمِائَةِ مَفْصِلٍ فَمَنْ كَبَّرَ اللّٰهَ وَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَهَلَّلَ اللّٰهَ وَسَبَّحَ اللّٰهَ وَاسْتَغْفَرَ اللّٰهَ وَعَزَلَ حَجَرًا عَنْ طَرِيْقِ

1897. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Each of the children of Aadam is created with three hundred and sixty joints. So, he who says Allahu Akbar, al Hamdulillah, la ilaha illAllah and Subhan Allah and seek forgiveness of Allah, and removes a stone, a thorn or a bone from the people's path, enjoins piety or forbids evil to match with the number three hundred and sixty, then he walks that day having distanced himself form hell."[1]

SYMBOLIC SADAQAH (CHARITY)

(۱۸۹۸) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ بِكُلِّ تَسْبِيْحَةٍ صَدَقَةً وَكُلِّ تَكْبِيْرَةٍ صَدَقَةً

وَكُلِّ تَحْمِيْدَةٍ صَدَقَةً وَكُلِّ تَهْلِيْلَةٍ صَدَقَةً وَاَمْرٍ بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ صَدَقَةً وَنَهْيٍ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ صَدَقَةً وَفِيْ بُضْعِ اَحَدِكُمْ

صَدَقَةً قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَيَاْتِيْ اَحَدُنَا شَهْوَتَهٗ وَيَكُوْنُ لَهٗ فِيْهَا اَجْرٌ قَالَ اَرَاَيْتُمْ لَوْ وَضَعَهَا فِيْ حَرَامٍ

اَكَانَ عَلَيْهِ فِيْهِ وِزْرٌ فَكَذٰلِكَ اِذَا وَضَعَهَا فِي الْحَلَالِ كَانَ لَهٗ اَجْرٌ (رواه مسلم)

1898. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, Surely, with every tasbih there is a sadaqah (charity), with every takbir there is a sadaqah (charity) with every tahmid there is a sadaqah (charity), with every tahlil there is a sadaqah (charity), and enjoining righteousness is as sadaqah (charity) forbidding evil is a sadaqah (charity) and in one of you having sexual intercourse there is a sadqah." The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked, "O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah, is it that if one of us satisfies his sexual appetite, it will bring him reward?" He said, "Do you not consider that if he had turned his desire to what is unlawful, had that not been a sin on him? So, if he turns to the lawful, he gets a reward."[2]

THE BEST SADAQAH (CHARITY)

(۱۸۹۹) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نِعْمَ الصَّدَقَةُ اللِّقْحَةُ الصَّفِيُّ مِنْحَةً وَالشَّاةُ

الصَّفِيُّ مِنْحَةً تَغْدُوْا بِاِنَاءٍ وَتَرُوْحُ بِاٰخَرَ (متفق علیہ)

1899. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The best kind of sadaqah (charity) is milch-camel with plenty of milk loaned (to someone) and a ewe with plenty of milk loaned (to someone), yielding a vessel of milk in the morning and as much (again) in the evening."[3]

COMMENTARY: The Arabs were accustomed to lend their high milk-yielding camel or ewe to the needy. Afterwards, he returned the animal to its owner.

LOSS IS SADAQAH (CHARITY)

(١٩٠٠-١٩٠١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَغْرِسُ غَرْسًا اَوْيَزْرَعُ زَرْعًا فَيَاكُلُ مِنْهُ اِنْسَانٌ اَوْطَيْرٌ اَوْبَهِيْمَةٌ اِلَّا كَانَتْ لَهُ صَدَقَةٌ متفق عليه۔ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ عَنْ جَابِرٍ وَمَاسُرِقَ مِنْهُ لَهُ صَدَقَةٌ۔

1900. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "No Muslim plants a tree (or anything) or sows seeds from which man, bird or beast eat without that counting as sadaqah (charity) for him."[1]

1901. Sayyiduna Jaibr رضی الله عنه (also) said that whatever is stolen from it counts as sadaqah (charity) for him.[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith comforts the owner by assuring him of the same reward as of sadaqah (charity) for any loss suffered by him when something is eaten away from his field, or stolen. He should exercise patience.

WHAT ABOUT INTENTION: The question arises that deeds are rewarded according to the intention behind them and clearly the owner had formed no intention in this case. Why then should he get reward for it? Shah Abdul Aziz Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمه الله points out that the basic purpose of cultivating fields or planting trees is survival of mankind and beasts and birds. The former's intention is to provide the needs of life to the creatures. Thus his intention embraces whatever benefit any one derives from it whether lawfully or unlawfully, it being a separate question that anyone who acts unlawfully will pay for his crime and will be punished. The single, overall intention shall be enough for the owner.

KINDNESS TO ANIMALS

(١٩٠٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غُفِرَ لِامْرَأَةٍ مُوْمِسَةٍ مَرَّتْ بِكَلْبٍ عَلٰى رَأْسِ رَكِيٍّ يَلْهَثُ كَادَ يَقْتُلُهُ الْعَطَشُ فَنَزَعَتْ خُفَّهَا فَاَوْثَقَتْهُ بِخِمَارِهَا فَنَزَعَتْ لَهُ مِنَ الْمَاءِ فَغُفِرَلَهَا بِذَالِكَ قِيْلَ اِنَّ لَنَا فِي الْبَهَائِمِ اَجْرًا قَالَ فِيْ كُلِّ ذَاتِ كَبِدٍ رَطْبَةٍ اَجْرٌ (متفق عليه)

1902. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "An evil woman was forgiven when she passed by a dog, panting heavily on the point of death with thirst, at the edge of a well, and she took off her shoe, tied it with her head covering and used it to draw some water for the dog. So, because of that, she was pardoned." The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم asked him whether they got reward for being kind to animals. He said, "There is a reward for (showing kindness to) everything possessed of a moist liver (meaning, every living being)."[3]

COMMENTARY: There is reward for feeding, watering and being kind to every type of an animal. Only poisonous and harmful animals must be killed.

This hadith is evidence that Allah, the Exalted, may forgive anyone his grave and major sins too if He will.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

(١٩٠٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ وَاَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عُذِّبَتْ اِمْرَاَةٌ فِيْ هِرَّةٍ اَمْسَكَتْهَا حَتّٰى مَاتَتْ مِنَ الْجُوْعِ فَلَمْ تُطْعِمْهَا وَلَا تُرْسِلْهَا فَتَاكُلَ مِنْ خِشَاشِ الْاَرْضِ (متفق عليه)

1903. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه and Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "A woman was punished because she had tied a cat till it died of hunger. Neither did she feed it nor let it go that it might eat (on its own) things creeping on the earth."[1]

COMMENTARY: We thus learn that one may be punished for minor sins too. This woman had committed a minor sin.

PUTTING AWAY OBSTACLES

(١٩٠٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّ رَجُلٌ بِغُصْنِ شَجَرَةٍ عَلٰى ظَهْرِ طَرِيْقٍ فَقَالَ لَاُنَحِّيَنَّ هٰذَا عَنْ طَرِيْقِ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ لَا يُؤْذِيْهِمْ فَاُدْخِلَ الْجَنَّةَ (متفق عليه)

1904. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said. "A man came upon a branch of a tree lying on the surface of a road. He said (to himself), "I shall remove it from the path of the Muslim so that it may not put them to inconvenience. He was admitted to paradise (because of that)."

(١٩٠٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَدْ رَاَيْتُ رَجُلًا يَتَقَلَّبُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ فِيْ شَجَرَةٍ قَطَعَهَا مِنْ ظَهْرِ الطَّرِيْقِ كَانَتْ تُؤْذِي النَّاسَ (رواه مسلم)

1905. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Indeed, I did see a man moving about in paradise because he had cut down a tree that lay on the surface of the road causing inconvenience to the people."[2]

(١٩٠٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بَرْزَةَ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ عَلِّمْنِيْ شَيْئًا اَنْتَفِعُ بِهٖ قَالَ اِعْزِلِ الْاَذٰى عَنْ طَرِيْقِ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ وَسَنَذْكُرُ حَدِيْثَ عَدِيِّ بْنِ حَاتِمٍ اِتَّقُوا النَّارَ فِيْ بَابِ عَلَامَاتِ النُّبُوَّةِ اِنْشَاءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى۔

1906. Sayyiduna Abu Barzah رضی الله عنه narrated that he requested, "O Prophet of Allah! Teach me something that might benefit me (in the hereafter)." He said, "Remove from the path of the Muslims that which causes them inconvenience."[3]

KINDNESS TO KINS

1907. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came t o Madinah, he went to him. He observed his radiant face and was convinced that it was not the face of a liar. The first thing he said was, "Spread salaam (the greeting, saying it aloud to whomsoever you meet, known or stranger), feed food (to the hungry), be kind to relatives, and offer salah (of the taHajj (pilgrimage)ud)(supererogatory prayer) in t he night when people are asleep. You will enter paradise in peace."[1]

FEED THE POOR

(١٩٠٨) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُعْبُدُوا الرَّحْمٰنَ وَاَطْعِمُوا الطَّعَامَ وَاَفْشُوا السَّلَامَ تَدْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ بِسَلَامٍ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

1908. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Worship Ar Rahman (the compassionate), feed food and spread salaam you will be admitted to paradise in peace."[2]

SADAQAH (CHARITY) ENSURES A PEACEFUL DEATH

(١٩٠٩) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الصَّدَقَةَ لَتُطْفِئُ غَضَبَ الرَّبِّ وَتَدْفَعُ مَيْتَةَ السُّوْءِ (رواه الترمذی)

1909. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Sadaqah (charity) cools the Lord's wrath and averts an evil death."[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah keeps one who gives charity safe and free from trials. Also, He preserves him from a trying death-bed illness.

(١٩١٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ مَعْرُوْفٍ صَدَقَةٌ وَاِنَّ مِنَ الْمَعْرُوْفِ اَنْ تَلْقٰى اَخَاكَ بِوَجْهٍ طَلْقٍ وَاَنْ تُفْرِغَ مِنْ دَلْوِكَ فِيْ اِنَاءِ اَخِيْكَ (رواه احمد والترمذی)

1910. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Every piety is sadaqah (charity). It is also piety that you meet your brother with a cheerful face and that you pour water from your bucket into your brother's bucket."[4]

(١٩١١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ الله صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَبَسُّمُكَ فِيْ وَجْهِ اَخِيْكَ صَدَقَةٌ وَاَمْرُكَ بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ صَدَقَةٌ وَنَهْيُكَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ صَدَقَةٌ وَاِرْشَادُكَ الرَّجُلَ فِيْ اَرْضِ الضَّلَالِ لَكَ صَدَقَةٌ وَنَصْرُكَ

1911. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Your smile before your brother is a sadaqah (charity). Your enjoining piety and forbidding evil is a sadaqah (charity). Your guiding aright one who is lost is a sadaqah (charity) for you your leading one has poor eyesight is a sadaqah (charity) for you Your removing from the road a stone, a thorn or a bone is sadaqah (charity) for you And, your filling water from your bucket into your brother's bucket is a sadaqah (charity) for you."[1]

COMMENTARY: If the other person has no bucket at all, then giving him water will get very much more reward.

DIGGING A WELL

(۱۹۱۲) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ عُبَادَةَ قَالَ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّ أُمَّ سَعْدٍ مَاتَتْ فَأَيُّ الصَّدَقَةِ أَفْضَلُ قَالَ الْمَاءُ فَحَفَرَ بِئْرًا وَقَالَ هٰذِهِ لِأُمِّ سَعْدٍ(رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1912. Sayyiduna Sa'd Ibn Ubadah رضی اللہ عنہ asked, "O Messenger of Allah, Umm Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ has died. What kind of sadaqah (charity) will be best?" He said, "Water!" So, he had a well dug saying. "It is an behalf of Umm SA'd رضی اللہ عنہ"[2]

COMMENTARY: Whatever Allah has given is a blessing of Allah but water is an essential of life without which one cannot do. Man needs it at all times, more so in hot an humid lands. So, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that water is the best form of sadaqah (charity). If provided through a well or any other source then it is a perpetual charity. Allah's mercy descends on him who makes it available as long as it provides water.

CLOTHING THE POOR

(۱۹۱۳) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّمَا مُسْلِمٍ كَسَا مُسْلِمًا ثَوْبًا عَلَى عُرًى كَسَاهُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ خُضْرِ الْجَنَّةِ وَأَيُّمَا مُسْلِمٍ أَطْعَمَ مُسْلِمًا عَلَى جُوْعٍ أَطْعَمَهُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ ثِمَارِ الْجَنَّةِ وَأَيُّمَا مُسْلِمٍ سَقَى مُسْلِمًا عَلَى ظَمَاءٍ سَقَاهُ اللّٰهُ مِنَ الرَّحِيْقِ الْمَخْتُوْمِ(رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی)

1913. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a Muslim clothes another Muslim who has no clothes, then Allah will clothe him with the green garments of paradise. If a Muslim feeds another Muslim who is hungry than Allah will feed him from the fruit of paradise. And if a Muslim provides drink to another Muslim who is thirsty they Allah will give him to drink from ar-rahiqil makhtum (sealed wine)."[3]

COMMENTARY: Ar Rahiqil makhtum will be a wine in paradise. It will never turn stale. No one else but this person will get it. The seal will be of musk as the Quran says.

OPTIONAL CHARITY TOO

(١٩١٤) وَعَنْ فَاطِمَةَ بِنْتِ قَيْسٍ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ فِي الْمَالِ لَحَقًّا سِوَى الزَّكَاةِ ثُمَّ تَلَا لَيْسَ الْبِرَّ أَنْ تُوَلُّوْا وُجُوْهَكُمْ قِبَلَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ۔ اَلْآيَةِ(رواه الترمذى وابن ماجة والدارمى)

1914. Sayyidah Fatimah bint Qays رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Apart from zakah (Annual due charity), there are other dues on property. He recited the verse:

لَيْسَ الْبِرَّ أَنْ تُوَلُّوْا وُجُوْهَكُمْ قِبَلَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ اَلْآيَةِ

{It is not virtue that you turn your faces to the east and to the west...}[1] (entire verse 2:177)

COMMENTARY: Apart from the fard zakah (Annual due charity), optional charity also fetches tremendous reward. One must not deprive the beggar and anyone who asks for a loan. Even if people ask for household utensils for some time they must not be denied. Little things like water, salt, etc must also be given if anyone requires them.

The dues in anyone's property are detailed in the full verse:

لَيْسَ الْبِرَّ أَنْ تُوَلُّوْا وُجُوْهَكُمْ قِبَلَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ وَلٰكِنَّ الْبِرَّ مَنْ اٰمَنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ وَالْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ وَالْكِتٰبِ وَالنَّبِيّٖنَ وَاٰتَى الْمَالَ عَلٰى حُبِّهٖ ذَوِي الْقُرْبٰى وَالْيَتٰمٰى وَالْمَسٰكِيْنَ وَابْنَ السَّبِيْلِ وَالسَّآئِلِيْنَ وَفِي الرِّقَابِ وَاَقَامَ الصَّلٰوةَ وَاٰتَى الزَّكٰوةَ۔

{It is not virtue that you turn your faces to the east and to the west; but true virtue is of him who believes in Allah, and the last Day, and the angels, and the Book, and the prophets, and gives his wealth, for love of him to the kindred, and to the orphans and the needy, and the wayfarer, and to the those who ask, and to set slaves free; and (or him who) establishes the salah and pays the zakah (Annual due charity)} (2:177)

Allah describes the believers as those who spend their wealth on their relative, orphans, poor, needy and so on. They offer salah and pay the zakah (Annual due charity). Thus Allah first mentions the optional charity and then the fard zakah (Annual due charity).

NOT PROPER TO DENY WATER & SALT

(١٩١٥) وَعَنْ بُهَيْسَةَ عَنْ اَبِيْهَا قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا الشَّيْءُ الَّذِيْ لَا يَحِلُّ مَنْعُهٗ قَالَ الْمَاءُ قَالَ يَانَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ مَا الشَّيْءُ الَّذِيْ لَا يَحِلُّ مَنْعُهٗ قَالَ الْمِلْحُ قَالَ يَانَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ مَا الشَّيْءُ الَّذِيْ يَحِلُّ مَنْعُهٗ قَالَ اَنْ تَفْعَلَ الْخَيْرَ خَيْرٌ لَّكَ(رواه ابوداؤد)

1915. Sayyidah Buhaysah رضى الله عنه narrated that from her father that he asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what is it that it is unlawful to deny?" He said, "Water." He asked again, "O prophet of Allah, what is it that it is disallowed to refuse?" He said, "Salt" He asked, "O Prophet of Allah, what is it that it is unlawful to deny?" He said, That you do good is better for you."[1]

COMMENTARY: After water and salt, both of which one must not deny anyone, the third answer embraces all good and pieties. It says, "Do every good that you can. It is not proper to keep away from doing pious things oneself and to prevent others from doing them. The words (لایحل) (unlawful or disallowed) are used in the sense of (لاینبغی) (not proper).

CULTIVATING BARREN LAND

(١٩١٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَحْيٰى اَرْضًا مَيْتَةً فَلَهُ فِيْهَا اَجْرٌ وَمَا اَكَلَتِ الْعَافِيَةُ مِنْهُ فَهُوَ لَهُ صَدَقَةٌ (رواه النسائی والدارمی)

1916. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who revives a dead land (by cultivating it) has a reward for it and if any creature (beast or man) eats from it then it is counted as a sadaqah (charity) from him."[2]

MERIT OF LOANING SOMETHING

(١٩١٧) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ مَنَحَ مِنْحَةَ لَبَنٍ اَوْوَرِقٍ اَوْهَدٰى زُقَاقًا كَانَ لَهُ مِثْلُ عِتْقِ رَقَبَةٍ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

1917. Sayyiduna Al-Bara رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone lends a milk-yielding animal, or silver coins (meaning, some money), or directs someone (who has lost his bearings) on the correct way, then it is like setting free a slave (in terms of reward)."[3]

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم GUIDANCE

(١٩١٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ جُرَيٍّ جَابِرِ بْنِ سُلَيْمٍ قَالَ اَتَيْتُ الْمَدِيْنَةَ فَرَاَيْتُ رَجُلًا يَصْدُرُ النَّاسُ عَنْ رَأْيِهٖ لَا يَقُوْلُ شَيْئًا اِلَّا صَدَرُوْا عَنْهُ قُلْتُ مَنْ هٰذَا قَالُوْا هٰذَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ قَالَ قُلْتُ عَلَيْكَ السَّلَامُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَرَّتَيْنِ قَالَ لَاتَقُلْ عَلَيْكَ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ السَّلَامُ تَحِيَّةُ الْمَيِّتِ قُلِ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ قُلْتُ اَنْتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ اَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ الَّذِيْ اِنْ اَصَابَكَ ضُرٌّ فَدَعَوْتَهُ كَشَفَهُ عَنْكَ وَاِنْ اَصَابَكَ عَامُ سَنَةٍ فَدَعَوْتَهُ اَنْبَتَهَا لَكَ وَاِذَا كُنْتَ بِاَرْضٍ قَفْرٍ اَوْفَلَاةٍ فَضَلَّتْ رَاحِلَتُكَ فَدَعَوْتَهُ رَدَّهَا عَلَيْكَ قُلْتُ اِعْهَدْ اِلَيَّ قَالَ لَاتَسُبَّنَّ اَحَدًا قَالَ فَمَا سَبَبْتُ بَعْدَهُ حُرًّا وَلَا عَبْدًا وَلَا بَعِيْرًا وَلَا شَاةً قَالَ وَلَا تَحْقِرَنَّ شَيْئًا مِنَ الْمَعْرُوْفِ وَاَنْ تُكَلِّمَ اَخَاكَ وَاَنْتَ مُنْبَسِطٌ اِلَيْهِ وَجْهُكَ اِنَّ ذٰلِكَ مِنَ الْمَعْرُوْفِ وَارْفَعْ اِزَارَكَ اِلٰى نِصْفِ السَّاقِ فَاِنْ اَبَيْتَ فَاِلَى الْكَعْبَيْنِ وَاِيَّاكَ وَاِسْبَالَ الْاِزَارِ فَاِنَّهَا مِنَ الْمَخِيْلَةِ وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَايُحِبُّ الْمَخِيْلَةَ وَاِنِ امْرُءٌ شَتَمَكَ وَعَيَّرَكَ بِمَا يَعْلَمُ فِيْكَ فَلَا تُعَيِّرْهُ بِمَا تَعْلَمُ فِيْهِ فَاِنَّمَا وَبَالُ ذٰلِكَ عَلَيْهِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَرَوَى التِّرْمِذِيُّ مِنْهُ

حَدِيْثَ السَّلَامِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فَيَكُوْنَ لَكَ اَجْرُ ذَالِكَ وَوَبَالُهٗ عَلَيْهِ۔

1918. Sayyiduna Abu Jurayy Jabir ibn Sulaym رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when he came to Madinah, he saw a man whose advice was respected by the people. Whatever he said, they abided by it. He asked about him and was told that he was Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. So he said twice, "On you be peace علیہ السلام, O Messenger of Allah!" But, he corrected him, "Do not say علیہ السلام (on you be peace), for it is the salaam to the dead. Rather, say (Arabic) (peace be on you)." He asked, "Are you Allah's Messenger ?" He said (Yes) I am the Messenger of Allah who if harm afflicts you and you call him, He will remove it from you. And, if a year of famine strikes you, and you pray to him, He will make it grow for you. And, if you are in wilderness or a desert and your riding beast is lost, and you pray to him, He shall return it to you." He (Abu Jurayy) رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Do give me some advice." He said, "Do not abuse anyone." He confirmed that after that he never abused a freeman or a slave, a camel or a sheep. He (the Prophet) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not belittle any act of piety, even a cheerful face before your brother when you speak to him is an act of kindness wear your lower garment up to your shin, but if you do not like it, then keep it up to the ankles. But, beware of letting it trial, for that is a form of pride and Allah does not love pride (and arrogance). If anyone reviles you and finds fault with you for what he knows about you, do not (retaliate to) reproach him for what you know of him, because the sin of that (which he does) will be on him."

According to another version: "While the reward for that will be for you, the sin will be on him."

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ offered the salaam twice because perhaps the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not hear him the first time, or he wished to correct him. To say alayka as-salaam (on you be peace) was the custom during pre-Islamic times among the Arabs. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم pointed out to this custom and did not mean that one should use these words for the dead as prayer for them or greetings.

As for never abusing anyone, the ulama (Scholars) say that it is allowed to refer as bad to one who has died as a disbeliever. However, it is better to keep one's tongue occupied in the dhikr of 'Allah, Lord of might, and never to speak ill of anyone because to occupy oneself in other than Allah will only cause loss. After all, there is no harm in not calling anyone bad. In fact, the ulama (Scholars) go so for as to say that there is no h arm in cursing the devil even.

Just as it is disallowed to let the lower garment (pyjamas or wrapper or such like) hang below the ankles, so too it is not allowed to wear a shirt or overall or coat hanging past the ankles.

The addition is in another version carried by Tirmidhi. This means that apart from Abu Dawud, Tirmidhi too has the complete hadith though its words may be interposed.

ONLY WHAT IS GIVEN IN ALLAH'S PATH REMAINS

(۱۹۱۹) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّهُمْ ذَبَحُوْا شَاةً فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَابَقِيَ مِنْهَا قَالَتْ مَابَقِيَ اِلَّا كَتِفُهَا قَالَ بَقِيَ كُلُّهَا غَيْرُ كَتِفِهَا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَصَحَّحَهٗ۔

1919. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that they slaughtered a sheep. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "What remains from it?" She said, "Nothing of it remains but its shoulder piece." He corrected her, "Rather, everything of it remains except its shoulder."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "In fact, only that remains of the sheep's flesh as has been given away to the people because that fetches reward. What is stored in the house will perish. This refers to the verse:

مَا عِنْدَكُمْ يَنْفَدُ وَمَا عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ بَاقٍ

{That which is with you comes to end, and that which is with Allah is lasting} (16:96)

CONCEALING FAULTS OF OTHER PEOPLE

(١٩٢٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ كَسَا مُسْلِمًا ثَوْبًا إِلَّا كَانَ فِيْ حِفْظٍ مِنَ اللّٰهِ مَادَامَ عَلَيْهِ مِنْهُ خِرْقَةٌ (رواه احمد والترمذی)

1920. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "No Muslim will clothe a Muslim a garment without being in Allah's protection as long as a shred of it remains on the man."[2]

COMMENTARY: Apart from this, the reward in the hereafter will be limitless.

SADAQAH (CHARITY) IN SECRET

(١٩٢١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ يَرْفَعُهُ قَالَ ثَلَاثَةٌ يُحِبُّهُمُ اللّٰهُ رَجُلٌ قَامَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ يَتْلُوْا كِتَابَ اللّٰهِ وَرَجُلٌ يَتَصَدَّقُ بِصَدَقَةٍ بِيَمِيْنِهٖ يُخْفِيْهَا أُرَاهُ قَالَ مِنْ شِمَالِهٖ وَرَجُلٌ كَانَ فِيْ سَرِيَّةٍ فَانْهَزَمَ أَصْحَابُهُ فَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْعَدُوَّ وَرَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَيْرُ مَحْفُوْظٍ أَحَدُ رُوَاتِهٖ أَبُوْ بَكْرِ بْنُ عَيَّاشٍ كَثِيْرُ الْغَلَطِ

1921. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated in a marfu form that "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There are three whom Allah, the majestic, the Glorious, loves;

(i) A man who stands up during the night and recites the Book of Allah.

(ii) A man who gives sadaqah (charity) with his right hand and keeps it a secret" (and the narrator assumed that he also said "from his left hand). And,

(iii) A man who is on an expedition and continues to fight the enemy even though his companions are defeated badly."[3]

Tirmidhi said that this hadith is weak. One of the sub-narrators Abu Bakr ibn Ayyash was given to make many mistakes.

COMMENTARY: The hadith teaches manners that charity should be given with the right hands. It should be given secretly so that the recipient does not feel humiliated. The aim should be to obtain Allah's pleasure without design to impress people. That would earn abundant reward.

(١٩٢٢) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثَةٌ يُحِبُّهُمُ اللّٰهُ وَثَلَاثَةٌ يُبْغِضُهُمُ اللّٰهُ فَأَمَّا الَّذِيْنَ يُحِبُّهُمُ اللّٰهُ فَرَجُلٌ أَتٰى قَوْمًا فَسَأَلَهُمْ بِاللّٰهِ وَلَمْ يَسْأَلْهُمْ لِقَرَابَةٍ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَهُمْ فَمَنَعُوْهُ فَتَخَلَّفَ رَجُلٌ

1922. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Three people Allah loves and three He dislikes. As for those whom He loves, they are:

(i) A man, among a group of people to whom someone comes and requests for something in the name of Allah and not by virtue of any relationship between him and them, but they do not give him any thing - so he withdraws and meets him in private and gives him (what he had requested) unknown to anyone except Allah and he to whom he gives.

(ii) A man who travels with some people at night till they go to sleep, loving sleep over everything else, but he stands to beseech me (Allah) and recite His verses.

(iii) A man who is part of an expedition who meet their enemy who overwhelm them, but he puffs out his chest and fights them till he is slain or is given victory.

As for those whom Allah dislikes they are an old man who commits adultery, an arrogant beggar and a rich oppressor."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith is narrated as a saying of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, but at the words where the traveller stands in prayer, he is said 'to beseech me." This shows that it is a hadith Qudsi meaning a saying of Allah. However, the fact is that it is throughout the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying reproducing what Allah had mentioned to him but at this particular point, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم quoted Allah directly to express that man's devotion.

As for the old man who commits adultery, the word Shaykh in the Arabic could mean 'an old man' or 'a married man,' whether young or old a sin the abrogated verse.

اَلشَّيْخُ وَالشَّيْخَةُ إِذَا زَنَيَا فَارْجُمُوْهُمَا اَلْبَتَّةَ نَكَالًا مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَاللّٰهُ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ

(The married man and the married woman, when they commit adultery, stone them both, a chastisement prescribed by Allah is Mighty, wise.)

The arrogant beggar is also disliked by Allah, However, if he is arrogant against a person who is himself proud and haughty then he is exempted. Rather, his arrogance will be regarded as sadaqah (charity) and he will get reward equivalent to the reward of Sadaqah (charity). It is said of Bashir ibn Harith رحمه الله that he asked Sasyyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه in his dream, "O amir ul muminin, do proffer me some counsel." He said, "The affluent must be kind and sympathetic to the poor to earn Divine pleasure and reward. And the poor must rely on Allah and be indifferent to the rich."

These bad traits are bad if found in anyone but they are more marked in the three people named here.

1923. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Me.:senger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When Allah created the earth, it began to shake. So He created the mountains and commanded them to stabilize it and it achieved stability. The angels were amazed at the hardness (strength) of the mountains and asked, "O Lord, is there is Your creation anything harder than the mountains?" He said, "Yes, iron," They asked if there was anything harder than iron and He said, "It is fire." They asked, "O Lord, is there anything in your creation harder than fire? He said, "Yes, water." They asked, "O Lord, is there is Your creation anything harder than water?" He said, "It is wind," and they asked if there was in His creation anything harder than wind. He said, "Yes, He is the son of Aadam who given charity with his right hand keeping it concealed from his left hand."[1]

COMMENTARY: The concealed sadaqah (charity) of the son of Aadam علیہ السلام is t he strongest because it calls for extreme resistance to the base soul, compulsion on one's temperament and defence against t he devil. The mountains, iron, fire, water and wind do not call for such efforts, it is innate to man to publicize his generosity and to smother this nature he has to be strong. He is strong also because he gains the pleasure of Allah which is the most superior thing of all.

The hadith of Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ that sadaqah (charity) extinguishes sins is in the Book of Faith. (Hadith # 29 – Mu'adh ibn Jabal: رضی اللہ عنہ 'inform me... of the deed that will cause me to enter paradise... charity extinguishes sin as water extinguishes fire.)

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

PAIRS OF EVERYTHING IN CHARITY

(١٩٢٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَامِنْ عَبْدٍ مُسْلِمٍ يُنْفِقُ مِنْ كُلِّ مَالٍ لَهٗ زَوْجَيْنِ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اِلَّا اِسْتَقْبَلَتْهُ حَجَبَةُ الْجَنَّةِ كُلُّهُمْ يَدْعُوْهُ اِلٰى مَاعِنْدَهٗ قُلْتُ وَكَيْفَ ذَالِكَ قَالَ اِنْ كَانَتْ اِبِلًا فَبَعِيْرَيْنِ وَاِنْ كَانَتْ بَقَرَةً فَبَقَرَتَيْنِ(رواه النسائی)

1924. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said,

[1] Tirmidhi # 3380, Musnad Ahmad 3-124.

"If any Musim gives away in Allah's path a pair of everything that he possesses then all the keepers of paradise will receive him and invite him to what they have." Abu Dharr رضی الله عنه asked him how that would be, and he said, "If there are camels, they would be two. If there are cows, they would be two."[1]

SHADE WILL BE SADAQAH (CHARITY)

(١٩٢٥) وَعَنْ مَرْثَدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِيْ بَعْضُ اَصْحَابِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ ظِلَّ الْمُؤْمِنِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ صَدَقَتُهُ (رواه احمد)

1925. Sayyiduna Marthed ibn Abdullah رحمه الله reported that one of the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said to him that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say, "On the day of resurrection, the believer's shade will be his sadaqah (charity)."[2]

COMMENTARY: On the day of resurrection, sadaqah (charity) will be a means of deliverance and rest. Or, it will turn the man's rewards into a shade and save him from the heat.

SPEND MORE ON THE DAY OF AASHURAH

(١٩٢٦-١٩٢٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ وَسَّعَ عَلٰى عِيَالِهِ فِي النَّفَقَةِ يَوْمَ عَاشُوْرَاءَ وَسَّعَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ سَائِرَ سَنَتِهِ قَالَ سُفْيَانُ اِنَّا قَدْ جَرَّبْنَاهُ فَوَجَدْنَا كَذَالِكَ۔ رَوَاهُ رَزِيْنٌ وَرَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ عَنْهُ وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ وَاَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ وَجَابِرٍ وَضَعَّفَهُ۔

1926. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If any one spends generously on his family on the day of Aashurah, then Allah will be generous to him throughout the rest of the year." Sufyan رحمه الله said that he tried it and found it to be as stated.[3]

1927. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه, Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه, Abu Sa'eed and Jabir رضی الله عنه also narrated (this hadith).[4]

COMMENTARY: Though bayhaqi has termed this hadith as weak, he has also confirmed that it is sound through another line of transmission.

Some people cite a hadith that collyrium or kohl should be applied to the eyes on the day of aashurah, but there is no truth about it. Similarly, there is no basis for the hadith about ten deeds on the day of aashurah.

However, it is established through sound ahadith that fasting must be observed on the day of aashurah and food must be served generously. There is nothing apart from this.

REWARD OF SADAQAH (CHARITY) IS MANIFOLD

(١٩٢٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ اَبُوْذَرٍّ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ اَرَاَيْتَ الصَّدَقَةَ مَاذَا هِيَ قَالَ اَضْعَافٌ مُضَاعَفَةٌ وَعِنْدَ اللّٰهِ الْمَزِيْدُ۔ (رواه احمد)

COMMENTARY: The number multiplies to between ten times and seven hundred times. If Allah wishes, it could be more.

THE BEST SADAQAH (CHARITY)

(١٩٢٩) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ وَحَكِيْمِ بْنِ حِزَامٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُ الصَّدَقَةِ مَاكَانَ عَنْ ظَهْرِ غِنًى وَابْدَأْ بِمَنْ تَعُوْلُ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ عَنْ حَكِيْمٍ وَحْدَهُ۔

1929. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Hakim ibn Hizam رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The best sadaqah (charity) is that which retains (the giver's) self sufficiency. And, begin with those for whom you are responsible."[2]

COMMENTARY: Self sufficiency of the giver is retained so that he does not become poor and needy after paying the sadaqah (charity). He should continue to have enough for his family's needs and may give away the surplus in Allah's name.
The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم made it more clear when he said immediately after that; Begin with your wards or dependants. If anything remains then attend to strangers.

OR, CONTENT HEART: Apart from the foregoing advice that the giver must retain enough for his family, the ruling is that if anyone is satisfied at heart and spends his wealth in Allah's path relying on Him to make him self-sufficient then it is an exceptional case. There is the example of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه who gave away all his wealth and property for the sake of Allah. The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم asked him what he had left behind for his family. He said, "Allah's!" He had placed reliance on Allah who had been giving him abundant wealth and would bestow on him again. His example is the highest degree of self reliance. The next degree follows when one cannot achieve the self reliance through such contentment. Then one must keep self sufficiency through one's property. One must not spend in Allah's path till one must not spend in Allah's path till one becomes poor himself. Something must be kept aside for one's personal needs and needs of one's family.

SPENDING ON FAMILY

(١٩٣٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اَنْفَقَ الْمُسْلِمُ نَفَقَةً عَلٰى اَهْلِهٖ وَهُوَ يَحْتَسِبُهَا كَانَتْ لَهٗ صَدَقَةً۔ (متفق عليه)

1930. Sayyiduna Abu Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a Muslim spend on his family and expects reward for it (from Allah). This spending amount to a highly approved) sadaqah (charity)."[1]

(١٩٣١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دِيْنَارٌ اَنْفَقْتَهٗ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَدِيْنَارٌ اَنْفَقْتَهٗ فِيْ رَقَبَةٍ وَدِيْنَارٌ تَصَدَّقْتَ بِهٖ عَلٰى مِسْكِيْنٍ وَدِيْنَارٌ اَنْفَقْتَهٗ عَلٰى اَهْلِكَ اَعْظَمُهَا اَجْرًا الَّذِيْ اَنْفَقْتَهٗ عَلٰى اَهْلِكَ (رواه مسلم)

1931. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You may spend a dinar in Allah's path, a dinar to emancipate a slave, a dinar on a poor person and a dinar on your family. The best of these in terms of reward against them in the one that you spend on your family."[2]

(١٩٣٢) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَفْضَلُ دِيْنَارٍ يُنْفِقُهُ الرَّجُلُ دِيْنَارٌ يُنْفِقُهٗ عَلٰى عِيَالِهٖ وَدِيْنَارٌ يُنْفِقُهٗ عَلٰى دَابَّتِهٖ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَدِيْنَارٌ يُنْفِقُهٗ عَلٰى اَصْحَابِهٖ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ (رواه مسلم)

1932. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best dinar that a man spends is the dinar he spends on his family, the dinar he spends on his animal in Allah's path and the dinar he spends on his companions (who wage jihad) in Allah's path."[3]

(١٩٣٣) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ قُلْتُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَلِيْ اَجْرٌ اَنْ اُنْفِقَ عَلٰى بَنِيْ اَبِيْ سَلَمَةَ اِنَّمَا هُمْ بَنِيَّ فَقَالَ اَنْفِقِيْ عَلَيْهِمْ فَلَكِ اَجْرُ مَا اَنْفَقْتِ عَلَيْهِمْ (متفق عليه)

1933. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه narrated that she asked "O Messenger of Allah is there a reward for me for spending on the sons of Abu Salamah رضی الله عنه for they are only my sons?" He said, "spend on them. You will receive reward for what you spend on them."[4]

COMMENTARY: When Abu Salamah رضی الله عنه died, Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه married the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. She asked him about her children from Abu Salamah رضی الله عنه and, perhaps, Abu Salamah's رضی الله عنه children for his previous marriages, her step children.

SADAQAH (CHARITY) TO ONE'S SPOUSE

(١٩٣٤) وَعَنْ زَيْنَبَ امْرَأَةِ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَصَدَّقْنَ يَا مَعْشَرَ النِّسَاءِ وَلَوْ مِنْ حُلِيِّكُنَّ قَالَتْ فَرَجَعْتُ اِلٰى عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ فَقُلْتُ اِنَّكَ رَجُلٌ خَفِيْفُ ذَاتِ الْيَدِ وَاِنَّ

1934. Sayyiduna Zaynab رضی اللہ عنہ, the wife of Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم exhorted women to give sadaqah (charity) even if it be some of their jewellery. She returned to Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ and told him that he was a man of insufficient means and Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had instructed them to give sadaqah (charity). So, he should go and ask him if she could give it to him in which case she would give it to him or else she would give to another person. But, he advised her to go herself. She went only to find a woman of the Ansar at the door of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم having come with the same question as she. Since they hesitated to ask Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم directly, they requested Sayyiduna Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ to go to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and ask him if they could give sadaqah (charity) to their husbands and to orphans who are dependant on them, but he was not to disclose to him their identity. Accordingly, Sayyiduna Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ went in and asked him. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "Who are the woman?" He said that there was the Ansar woman and Zaynab. He asked, "which Zaynab?" He said, "The wife of Abdullah." Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "They will earn two rewards. A reward for kinship and another for sadaqah (charity) will be theirs."

COMMENTARY: Allah had given the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم such an we-inspiring personality that people hesitated to put to him questions suddenly. Moreover, they respected him very much.

Sayyiduna Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ had no option but to disclose the woman's identities when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him about them (otherwise he would not have named them).

THE RULING: The ulama (Scholars) agree t hat a husband must not give his zakah (Annual due charity) to his wife. But, when it is the other way about, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ ruled that a woman should not give her zakah (Annual due charity) to her husband because often both are co-sharers in the (husband's) income by custom. (Hence, if she will give zakah (Annual due charity) to her husband, she too will benefit from that property which is forbidden). However, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله ruled that as a man is permitted to give zakah (Annual due charity) to his wife, so too, a wife may give her zakah (Annual due charity) to her husband. (This is their opinion on zakah (Annual due charity) of spouse to one another).

Because of this difference of opinion, we might assume that Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله considered the sadaqah (charity) in the hadith to apply to the optional sadaqah (charity) while his two companions held that it could apply to both optional as well as fard sadaqah (charity).

SADAQAH (CHARITY) TO RELATIVES

(١٩٣٥) وَعَنْ مَيْمُوْنَةَ بِنْتِ الْحَارِثِ اَنَّهَا اَعْتَقَتْ وَلِيْدَةً فِيْ زَمَانِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَرَتْ ذَالِكَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لَوْ اَعْطَيْتِهَا اَخْوَالَكِ كَانَ اَعْظَمَ لِاَجْرِكِ(متفق عليه)

1935. Sayyidah Maymunah bint al Harith رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that she set free a female slave during the times of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. She mentioned that to him and he said, "Had you given her to your maternal uncles, that would have earned you more reward."[1]

BS CONSIDERATE TO NEIGHBOUR

(١٩٣٦) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ لِيْ جَارَيْنِ فَاِلٰى اَيِّهِمَا اُهْدِيْ قَالَ اِلٰى اَقْرَبِهِمَا مِنْكِ بَابًا۔ (رواه البخاری)

1936. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that she had two neighbours. To which of them she should send her gifts? He said, "To the one nearer to your door."[2]

COMMENTARY: It does not mean that the other neighbour should be ignored. Rather, preference should be given to the nearest neighbour.

(١٩٣٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا طَبَخْتَ مَرَقَةً فَاَكْثِرْ مَاءَ هَا وَتَعَاهَدْ جِيْرَانَكَ(رواه مسلم)

1937. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When you prepare gravy, put in more water and think of your neighbours."[3]

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

SADAQAH (CHARITY) OF THE POOR

(١٩٣٨) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّ الصَّدَقَةِ اَفْضَلُ؟ قَالَ جُهْدُ الْمُقِلِّ وَابْدَأْ بِمَنْ تَعُوْلُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1938. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he asked, "Which sadaqah (charity) is the best?" He said, 'The effort of one with little property. Begin to give with those who are under your responsibility."[4]

COMMENTARY: The first hadith of this chapter (# 1929) describes the best sadaqah (charity) as the one that leaves self sufficiency. If that is what refers to the heart that is content then the two hadith are reconciled. If not, then that hadith is about one who is not perfect in relying on Allah. While this person relys on Allah perfectly.

TO RELATIVES

(١٩٣٩) وَعَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلصَّدَقَةُ عَلَى الْمِسْكِيْنِ صَدَقَةٌ وَهِيَ عَلَى ذِي الرَّحْمِ ثِنْتَانِ صَدَقَةٌ وَصِلَةٌ (رواه احمد والترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

1939. Sayyiduna Salman [1] ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Sadaqah (charity) given to the needy is one Sadaqah (charity), but given to a relative, it is two deeds: a sadaqah (charity) and joining ties of kinship."[2]

(١٩٤٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ عِنْدِيْ دِيْنَارٌ قَالَ اَنْفِقْهُ عَلَى نَفْسِكَ قَالَ عِنْدِيْ اٰخَرُ قَالَ اَنْفِقْهُ عَلَى وَلَدِكَ قَالَ عِنْدِيْ اٰخَرُ قَالَ اَنْفِقْهُ عَلَى اَهْلِكَ قَالَ عِنْدِيْ اٰخَرُ قَالَ اَنْفِقْهُ عَلَى خَادِمِكَ قَالَ عِنْدِيْ اٰخَرُ قَالَ اَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1940. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and said,, "I have a dinar." He said, "Spend it on yourself" He said, "I have another. "He said, "Spend it on your children." He disclosed that he had one more and he said, "Spend it on your wife." He again disclosed another and was told to spend it on his servant when he said that he had one more. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "You should know better where to spend it."[3] (Find out the deserving.)

SOME OF THE BEST & THE WORST OF PEOPLE

(١٩٤١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا اُخْبِرُكُمْ بِخَيْرِ النَّاسِ رَجُلٌ مُمْسِكٌ بِعِنَانِ فَرَسِهٖ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اَلَا اُخْبِرُكُمْ بِالَّذِيْ يَتْلُوْهُ رَجُلٌ مُعْتَزِلٌ فِيْ غُنَيْمَةٍ لَهٗ يُؤَدِّيْ حَقَّ اللّٰهِ فِيْهَا اَلَا اُخْبِرُكُمْ بِشَرِّ النَّاسِ رَجُلٌ يُسْئَلُ بِاللّٰهِ وَلَا يُعْطِيْ بِهٖ (رواه الترمذی والنسائی والدارمی)

1941. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Shall I not inform you of the best of all people? He is the man who holds his horse's rein in Allah's path (in the battlefield to fight the infidels). Shall I not inform you of one who follows him? He is the man who secludes himself with a few goats that he owns and pays the right of Allah on them (retiring to a desert and subsisting on the goats and paying the zakah (Annual due charity) on them when due). Shall I not inform you of the worst of all people? He is a man who is asked for something in Allah's name but he does not pay anything at all."[4]

1942. Sayyidah Umm Bujayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Turn away the beggar (with something) even with a burnt hoof only."[1]

COMMENTARY: Do not let the beggar go empty handed but give him something even the least and the most insignificant thing you can give.

KIND TREATMENT

(١٩٤٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنِ اسْتَعَاذَ مِنْكُمْ بِاللّٰهِ فَأَعِيْذُوْهُ وَمَنْ سَأَلَ بِاللّٰهِ فَأَعْطُوْهُ وَمَنْ دَعَاكُمْ فَأَجِيْبُوْهُ وَمَنْ مَنَعَ إِلَيْكُمْ مَعْرُوْفًا فَكَافِئُوْهُ فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَجِدُوا مَا تُكَافِئُوْهُ فَادْعُوْا لَهٗ حَتّٰى تَرَوْا أَنْ قَدْ كَافَأْتُمُوْهُ۔ (رواه احمد وابوداؤد والنسائی)

1943. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone asks you for protection in Allah's name, let him have it. If anyone begs in Allah's name, give him something. If any one invites you, accept it. If any one shows you a favour (in words or deeds), return the kind gesture but if you do not find anything to reciprocate the gesture then pray for him till you are convinced that you have recompensed him fully."[2]

COMMENTARY: If any one seeks protection from you in the name of Allah, then you must respect Allah's name and give him protection. The words could also mean that he seeks refuge in Allah when he is in distress. You should not turn away from him, but try to deliver him from his distress.

According to another hadith, if anyone reciprocates to someone's favour with (جزاک اللہ خیرا) (May Allah reward you with what is better) then he has returned the favour with more. He concedes that he himself cannot reciprocate fairly, so he hands over his case to Allah who alone can give the reward. It is equivalent to making supplication very often.

THE PRACTICE OF SAYYIDAH AYSHAH رضی اللہ عنہا : When a beggar prayed for her, she first prayed for him and then gave him something. When asked about it, she said, "If I do not pry for him then his and my right will be at par. So, I pray for him and then give him the sadaqah (charity) and earn reward for it."

DO NOT ASK IN ALLAH'S NAME

(١٩٤٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُسْئَالُ بِوَجْهِ اللّٰهِ إِلَّا الْجَنَّةُ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1944. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not ask for anything for Allah's sake, except paradise."[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah's name is great. It is proper that the little things of the world must be sought in His name. Of course, one may pray to Him by virtue of his name for paradise.

1945. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (Sayyiduna) Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ was a very rich Ansar of Madinah possession very many palm trees. He loved most Bayraha (his garden) that was opposite the mosque (Masjid Nabawi). Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also visited it often and drank its sweet water (and certainly lawful food). When this verse (3:92) was revealed:

لَنْ تَنَالُوا الْبِرَّ حَتّٰى تُنْفِقُوْا مِمَّا تُحِبُّوْنَ

{You cannot attain virtue unless you expend of that which you love} Abu Tahah رضی اللہ عنہ met the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and said, "O Messenger of Allah, Allah says {you cannot attain virtue unless you expend of that which you love} and Bayraha is my property that I cherish most. So, I give it as sadaqah (charity) for Allah's sake, hoping for a reward from Him for the pious deed, and that it would be a treasure for me in the hereafter. So, O Messenger of Allah put it to any use that Allah desires of you." He said, 'excellent! Excellent! That is a profitable property. Indeed, I have heard whatever you have said But, I suggest that you should apportion it among your nearest relatives." Abu Tahah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I do that O Messenger of Allah." And, he divided it among his relatives and his paternal cousins.

SATIATING HUNGRY STOMACH.

(١٩٤٦) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَفْضَلُ الصَّدَقَةِ أَنْ تُشْبِعَ كَبِدًا جَائِعًا۔ رَوَاهُ
الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

1946. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The best sadaqah (charity) is to satisfy the hungry stomach of any living creature."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hungry stomach (in Arabic's liver) could be at any living being; Muslim or infidel, or an animal. It is an excellent sadaqah (charity) to satiate the hungry being, but not poisonous animals that must be killed.

CHAPTER - IX

SADAQAH (CHARITY) GIVEN BY A WOMAN FROM HER HUSBAND'S PROPERTY

بَابُ صَدَقَةِ الْمَرْأَةِ مِنْ مَالِ الزَّوْجِ

The honourable compiler of the Mishkat sometimes does not give the chapter heading but simply writes 'chapter' and continues the narration. In t his case, too, there is no heading. However, some copies of Mishkat have the heading that we have reproduced here.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

A WOMAN MAY SPEND FROM HER HUSBAND'S PROPERTY

(١٩٤٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَنْفَقَتِ الْمَرْأَةُ مِنْ طَعَامِ بَيْتِهَا غَيْرَ مُفْسِدَةٍ كَانَ لَهَا اَجْرُهَا بِمَا اَنْفَقَتْ وَلِزَوْجِهَا اَجْرُهُ بِمَا كَسَبَ وَلِلْخَازِنِ مِثْلُ ذَالِكَ لَا يَنْقُصُ بَعْضُهُمْ اَجْرَ بَعْضٍ شَيْئًا۔ (متفق عليه)

1947. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a woman gives some of the food in her house as sadaqah (charity) without being wasteful, the gets her reward for that which she has given, her husband gets his reward for what he has earned, and the keeper of the Kitchen gets a like reward. But, the reward at one does not dimish that of another.[1]

COMMENTARY: This applies to his wife to spend as sadaqah (charity) from his property, whether explicit or an implicit permission.

It is said that the people of al Hijaz and permitted their wives and store keepers to serve guests lavishly and to give to the poor and needy generously. Hence, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم exhorts his ummah to keep that practice alive.

(١٩٤٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَنْفَقَتِ الْمَرْأَةُ مِنْ كَسْبِ زَوْجِهَا مِنْ غَيْرِ اَمْرِهٖ فَلَهَا نِصْفُ اَجْرِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

1948. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If a woman spends from the earning of her husband (as sadaqah (charity)) without his permission, then she gets half his reward."[2]

COMMENTARY: Though she may not have his permission, yet she must be knowing that he would not object and the among involved would be infinitesimal.

REWARD FOR SERVANT

(١٩٤٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسَى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْخَازِنُ الْمُسْلِمُ الْاَمِيْنُ الَّذِيْ يُعْطِيْ مَا اُمِرَ بِهٖ كَامِلًا مُوَفَّرًا طَيِّبَةً بِهٖ نَفْسُهٗ فَيَدْفَعُهٗ اِلَى الَّذِيْ اُمِرَ لَهٗ بِهٖ اَحَدُ الْمُتَصَدِّقِيْنَ (متفق عليه)

1949. Sayyiduna Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'The faithful, honest Muslim servant who gives what he is instructed to give

(as sadaqah (charity)) completely and in full with a cheerful mind and hands it over to the one to whom he is instructed to give, is one of the two who give the sadaqah (charity)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The servant who give sadaqah (charity) from his master's wealth is bound by four conditions.

(i) His master's command to do that.

(ii) Give sadaqah (charity) without deducting anything from the amount sanctioned.

(iii) Give it willingly because sometimes servants are averse to giving.

(iv) Most give to the poor man named by the master and to none else.

CONSIGNING REWARD TO THE DEED

(١٩٥٠) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ اِنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اُمِّي اُفْتُلِتَتْ نَفْسُهَا وَاَظُنُّهَا لَوْتَكَلَّمَتْ تَصَدَّقَتْ فَهَلْ لَهَا اَجْرٌ اِنْ تَصَدَّقْتُ عَنْهَا قَالَ نَعَمْ (متفق عليه)

1950. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that a man said to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that his mother had died suddenly. He thought that is she could have spoken (before her death). She would have given some sadaqah (charity). So would she receive reward if he gave sadaqah (charity) on her behalf. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Yes."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that reward may be consigned to the dead for sadaqah (charity), supplication, istighfar, etc. However, there is a difference of opinion concerning body or physical worship, but even for this the majority opinion is that reward for such worship may also be consigned. Examples of t his are the salah, fasting, recitation of the Quran etc.

A righteous shaykh, Abdus Salaam, رحمہ اللہ was see in a dream. He said that in life he used to reject that reward for physical worship may be consigned, but had learnt there that reward for recitation of the Quran is consigned to the dead.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِی

WIFE NEEDS HUSBAND'S PERMISSION

(١٩٥١) عَنْ اَبِي اُمَامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ فِيْ خُطْبَتِهٖ عَامَ حَجَّةِ الْوِدَاعِ لَاتُنْفِقُ امْرَأَةٌ شَيْئًا مِنْ بَيْتِ زَوْجِهَا اِلَّا بِاِذْنِ زَوْجِهَا قِيْلَ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَلَا الطَّعَامَ قَالَ ذَالِكَ اَفْضَلُ اَمْوَالِنَا (رواه الترمذی)

1951. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say while delivering the sermon in the year of the farewell pilgrimage, "A woman must not spend anything from the house of her husband without his permission." Some asked, "O Messenger of Allah, not even food?" He said, "That is the most previous of our properties."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith may seem to differ from the previous ahadith but if the commentaries are kept in mind their meanings will become clear.

(١٩٥٢) وَعَنْ سَعْدٍ قَالَ لَمَّا بَايَعَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ النِّسَاءَ قَامَتِ امْرَأَةٌ جَلِيْلَةٌ كَأَنَّهَا مِنْ نِسَاءِ مُضَرَ فَقَالَتْ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ إِنَّا كَلٌّ عَلٰى اٰبَائِنَا وَاَبْنَائِنَا وَاَزْوَاجِنَا فَمَا يَحِلُّ لَنَا مِنْ اَمْوَالِهِمْ قَالَ الرَّطْبُ تَأْكُلْنَهُ وَتُهْدِيْنَهُ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1952. Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم took the pledge of allegiance from the women, a woman, who was either very tall or of a high rank, perhaps among the women of Mudar, stood up and submitted. "O Prophet of Allah. We are under the responsibility of our parents, our sons and our husband. So, what of their properties is lawful for us?" He said, "Eat the fresh food and give as present."[1]

COMMENTARY: Fresh food is that which is perishable with a short shelf life, like cooked food, milk etc.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

WITHOUT MASTER'S PERMISSION

(١٩٥٣) عَنْ عُمَيْرٍ مَوْلٰى اَبِي اللَّحْمِ قَالَ اَمَرَنِيْ مَوْلَايَ اَنْ اُقَدِّدَ لَحْمًا فَجَاءَ نِيْ مِسْكِيْنٌ فَاَطْعَمْتُهُ مِنْهُ فَعَلِمَ بِذٰلِكَ مَوْلَايَ فَضَرَبَنِيْ فَاَتَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَرْتُ ذٰلِكَ لَهُ فَدَعَاهُ فَقَالَ لِمَ ضَرَبْتَهُ قَالَ يُعْطِيْ طَعَامِيْ بِغَيْرِ اَنْ اٰمُرَهُ فَقَالَ الْاَجْرُ بَيْنَكُمَا وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ كُنْتُ مَمْلُوْكًا فَسَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتَصَدَّقُ مِنْ مَالِ مَوَالِيْ بِشَيْءٍ قَالَ نَعَمْ وَالْاَجْرُ بَيْنَكُمَا نِصْفَانِ (رواه مسلم)

1953. Sayyiduna Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ the freedman of Sayyiduna Abu al-Lahm رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that his master had commanded him to cut some meat in strips and to spread it in the sun to dry. Later, a poor man came to him and he gave him some of the meat to eat. His master learnt of it and beat him, so he met Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and complained to him. He called him and asked why he had beaten him. He said, "He gives away from my food without my permission." The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The reward is shared between you (if you give him instructions to give sadaqah (charity), or show pleasure at his giving sadaqah (charity))."

According to another version, the words are:

Sayyiduna Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he was the slave (of a man). He asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم if he could give sadaqah (charity) from the property of his master (something of little value and which is normally given away without prior permission). He said, "Yes and the reward will be shared between you both equally."[2]

COMMENTARY: Allahmah Teebi رحمہ اللہ explained that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not mean to condone Sayyiduna Umayr's رضی اللہ عنہ spending without permission. Rather, he did not like that Sayyiduna Abu al-Lahm رضی اللہ عنہ should have beaten him. Actually, it was to Abu al-Lahm's advantage that the sadaqah (charity) was given, so he should have pardoned him. As for umayr رضی اللہ عنہ, he should have got his master's permission.

[2] Muslim # 82-1025.

CHAPTER - X

HE WHO DOES NOT TAKE BACK THE SADAQAH (CHARITY) بَابُ مَنْ لَّا يَعُوْدُ فِي الصَّدَقَةِ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

DISALLOWED TO TAKE BACK OR RE-PURCHASE SADAQAH (CHARITY)

(١٩٥٤) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ حَمَلْتُ عَلٰى فَرَسٍ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ فَاَضَاعَهُ الَّذِيْ كَانَ عِنْدَهٗ فَاَرَدْتُّ اَنْ اَشْتَرِيَهٗ وَظَنَنْتُ اَنَّهٗ يَبِيْعُهٗ بِرُخْصٍ فَسَاَلْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لَا تَشْتَرِهٖ وَلَا تَعُدْ فِيْ صَدَقَتِكَ وَاِنْ اَعْطَاكَهٗ بِدِرْهَمٍ فَاِنَّ الْعَائِدَ فِيْ صَدَقَتِهٖ كَالْكَلْبِ يَعُوْدُ فِيْ قَيْئِهٖ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَا تَعُدْ فِيْ صَدَقَتِكَ فَاِنَّ الْعَائِدَ فِيْ صَدَقَتِهٖ كَالْعَائِدِ فِيْ قَيْئِهٖ (متفق عليه)

1954. Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he donated a horse to be ridden in Allah's path, but he who had it wasted it (by not tending it well). So, he thought of buying it back, hoping that he would sell it at cheap price. He asked the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about it, but he advised him not to buy it and not to take back what he had given as sadaqah (charity) even if he asked for a dirham for it. He said, "Anyone who takes back what he has given as sadaqah (charity) is like a dog that returns to its vomit."
According to another version (he said): "Do not ask for what you have given as sadaqah (charity) to be returned (to you), for, he who does not is like him who takes back what he has vomited."[1]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that it is either forbidden to purchase that one has given as sadaqah (charity), or, as most scholars say, it is makruh tanzihi (detested for purigation). The Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words imply that it is nahi tanzihi (an interdiction nearer lawful than forbidden).

AN EXCEPTION

(١٩٥٥) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ كُنْتُ جَالِسًا عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذْ اَتَتْهُ امْرَاَةٌ فَقَالَتْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ تَصَدَّقْتُ عَلٰى اُمِّيْ بِجَارِيَةٍ وَاِنَّهَا مَاتَتْ قَالَ وَجَبَ اَجْرُكِ وَرَدَّهَا عَلَيْكِ الْمِيْرَاثُ قَالَتْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ عَلَيْهَا صَوْمُ شَهْرٍ اَفَاَصُوْمُ عَنْهَا قَالَ صُوْمِيْ عَنْهَا قَالَتْ اِنَّهَا لَمْ تَحُجَّ قَطُّ اَفَاَحُجُّ عَنْهَا قَالَ نَعَمْ حُجِّيْ عَنْهَا (رواه مسلم)

[1] Bukhari # 1490, Muslim # 7-1622, Abu Dawud # 7539, Nasai'i # 3690, Ibn Majah # 2384, Musnad Ahmad 2-27.

1955. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضى الله عنه narrated that while he was sitting with the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم (one day), a woman came to him. She said, "O Messenger of Allah, I had given a slave girl as sadaqah (charity) to my mother who has died since." He said, "You are assure of your reward and inheritance returns her to you." She asked, "O Messenger of Allah, a month's fasting was due from her, so may I fast on her behalf? He said, "Do fast on her behalf." She asked, "She had not performed Hajj (pilgrimage) at all. May I perform Hajj (pilgrimage) for her?" He said, "Yes, do perform Hajj (pilgrimage) on her behalf."[1]

COMMENTARY: The prohibition to take back the sadaqah (charity) does not cover the case in this hadith because this is not done at the giver's will. It is returned through inheritance which is allowed absolutely.

As for fasting on behalf of her mother, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did not mean that she may actually fast. Rather, she could compensate for the fasting by giving the necessary fidyah. No one is allowed to fast for anyone else who has died. Rather, the heirs should pay the fidyah.

This question will be discussed threadbare, insha Allah, under the heading 'Redeeming fasts.' However, the principle is that worship is of many kinds:

(i) Concerned with property, like zakah (Annual due charity).

(ii) Physical or bodily concerned with one's personal exertion, like salah,

(iii) Combination of (i) and (ii) like Hajj (pilgrimage).

As for the first kind, one is allowed to assign one's duty to another whether by choice or out of compulsion. The reason is that its objective is to support the poor and needy. Even an assignee can discharge this duty on behalf of the assigner.

As for the physical worship, one is not allowed to designate it to any one else under any circumstances. The reason is that this kind of worship requires personal exertion and effort which another cannot discharge for him.

As for the third kind which is a combination of the first two, it is permitted to assign the duty to another when compelled by circumstances or forced by need, but it is disallowed as long as one is able and enjoy choice. However, as for as an optional Hajj (pilgrimage) is concerned, it is allowed even when one is able and can exercise option, because the sphere of the optional is very wide.

As for the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم permission to the woman to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) on behalf of her dead mother, this applies to Hajj (pilgrimage) whether that was binding on her or not, whether she has left instructions for that or not. Hence, the heir is allowed to get someone to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) on behalf of the testator, or do it himself. If he performs the Hajj (pilgrimage) himself, then he is not required to have the testator's permission but if he designates someone else then he must have the permission. Allah knows best!

This chapter does not have Section I and II

Praise belongs to Allah, the Book of zakah (Annual due charity) is completed. Now, Kitab us sawm (or Book of fasting) follows.

BOOK - VII

AS SAWM كتاب الصوم

FASTING

CHAPTER - I

AS-SAWM (الصوم): The dictionary meaning of sawm and Siyam (fasting) is imsak (امساک) which is to stop completely' In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law), these words stand for:

> 'To cease from down to sunset, with a resolve to fast, from eating, drinking, sexual intercourse and entering anything into the portion of the body that is called its interior, being, at the same time, a Muslim and free from menses and lochia.'

WHEN PRESCRIBED: Fasting in Ramadan was prescribed first eighteen months after hijrah (emigration to Madinah) in the month of Sha'ban, ten days after the change of qiblah. Some people say that fasting was not prescribed prior to that, but others hold that even prior to that fasting was prescribed but for a few days and withdrawn when the fasts of Ramadan were prescribed. Some people say that the fast of Aashura, tenth of Muharrum was fard (compulsory) and some others says that the fasts of the ayyam beed (13th, 14th, 15th of lunar months) were fard (compulsory).

In the beginning, some of the commands for fasting in Ramadan were very strict, like it was allowed to eat and drink after sunset as long as one did not sleep, but if any one slept than he was not permitted to eat or drink anything at all, even if he went to sleep without having any food or drink (after fasting). Also, one was not allowed to have sexual intercourse at all at any time whatever. When these commands proved too harsh and many incidents took place, they were abrogated and no more did any strictness remain.

SIGNIFICANCE & MERIT: Of the five basic essentials (or, pillars) of Islam, fasting is the third. It is emphasized very much. If anyone rejects fasting as a prescribed duty then he is a disbeliever. If he neglects it then he is a sinner to a high degree. It is stated in Durr ul Mukhtar under the chapter on what voids fasting:

وَلَوْاَكَلَ عَمَدًا اَشْهُرَةً بِلَاعُذْرٍ يُقْتَلُ

> "If anyone eats during the month (of Ramadan) without reason and in public then he should be killed."

The merit of fasting can be gauged from the fact that some ulama (Scholars) have given it preference and more excellence over the glorious worship that salah is. However, a majority of the scholars say that salah is superior over every other deed, even fasting. Apart from salah, therefore, no other deed is at par with fasting.

BENEFITS OF FASTING: The greatest benefit of any deed and any kind of worship is to gain Allah's pleasure, and that His mercy should embrace the doer in both the worlds. In this sense the benefit of fasting will be great. There are also myriad other benefits of fasting. We mention some of them:

(i) Fasting ensures calmness and peace of heart. It curbs the influence of the evil soul. The limbs particularly those that have a direct link with piety and evil become sluggish so hat one is less inclined to commit sin. It is as the saying: 'when the soul is hungry, all the limbs are satiated.' They are not motivated to do what they do otherwise. 'When the soul is satiated, all the limbs are hungry and driven to do their work.' For instance, when someone is hungry, his eye will not be interested in looking at anything but when the belly is full, the eye will be active and look at everything lawful and unlawful. The same thing may be said of the other limbs.

(ii) Fasting preserves the heart from ill-will and bad feeling which result from the unnecessary occupation of the eye, tongue and other limbs, like over speaking of the tongue and so on. One who fasts curbs exaggerated occupation of the limbs, like excessive speech, etc. when the heart is clean, it inclines to good work and seeks higher degrees.

(iii) Fasting encourages one to be kind to the poor. A hungry person realizes the plight of the poor.

(iv) A fasting person experiences the condition of the poor and the needy. He goes through their hardship. So, his rank rises high in the sight of Allah. It is said of a saintly man Bishr Haafi. Someone visited him in winter and found him shivering though he had ample warm clothing around. He did not wear them. When asked, he said, "My brother, there are very many poor people and I cannot arrange clothing for all of them. So, I do what I can do and endure the hardship of winter and emulate them."

We observe the same motivating sentiments in the lives of the awliya who are known to have prayed at every morsal while having their meals:

اَللّٰهُمَّ لَاتُؤَاخِذْنِيْ بِحَقِّ الْجَائِعِيْنَ

(O Allah, do not question me concerning the rights of the hungry people).

It is reported about Sayyiduna Yusuf عليه السلام that when drought (and fumine) took the entire country in its stride, he did not eat to a full stomach though he had a vast stock of provision lest he forget the plight of the hungry and that he might maintain a resemblance to the hungry and famine strike masses.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

DEVIL ARE LOCKED IN RAMADAN

(١٩٥٦) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَادَخَلَ رَمَضَانُ فُتِحَتْ اَبْوَابُ السَّمَاءِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فُتِحَتْ اَبْوَابُ الْجَنَّةِ وَغُلِّقَتْ اَبْوَابُ جَهَنَّمَ وَسُلْسِلَتِ الشَّيَاطِيْنُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فُتِحَتْ اَبْوَابُ الرَّحْمَةِ (متفق عليه)

1956. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "with the advent of Ramadan, the gates of heaven are opened." According to another version: "The gates of paradise are opened. And the gates of hell are closed, and the devils are fettered. According to another version; "The gates to mercy are opened."[1]

[1] Bukhari # 1899, Muslim # 2-1079, Darimi # 1775, Muwatta Malik # 59 (Siyam).

COMMENTARY: 'The gats of heaven will be opened' to mean that Allah's mercy will descend lavishly and deeds of the creatures will be taken up without any hindrance, and all prayers will be granted.

As for the gates of paradise being opened this means that the creatures will be inclined to perform deeds that lead them to paradise.

And 'the gates of hell will be closed' implies that those who fast will be enabled to keep away from deeds that take to hell. They abstain from grave sins while their minor sins are forgiven. The devils are put in chains and their ability to incite mankind is taken away; some authorities say that this means that the devils refrain from tempting people who, an their part, do not succumb to their promptings. Fasting curbs man's beastly tendencies and promotes his mental abilities that lead to piety. This is why fewer sins are committed in Ramadan and more people engage in worship.

EXCLUSIVE GATE

(١٩٥٧) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ ثَمَانِيَةُ اَبْوَابٍ مِنْهَا بَابٌ يُسَمَّى الرَّيَّانُ لَا يَدْخُلُهُ إِلَّا الصَّائِمُوْنَ (متفق عليه)

1957. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Sa'd رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "there are eight gates of paradise. There is one of these called ar-Rayyan None but who fast till enter through it."[1]

(١٩٥٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَامَ رَمَضَانَ اِيْمَانًا وَاحْتِسَابًا غُفِرَلَهٗ مَاتَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهٖ وَمَنْ قَامَ رَمَضَانَ اِيْمَانًا وَاحْتِسَابًا غُفِرَلَهٗ مَاتَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهٖ وَمَنْ قَامَ لَيْلَةَ الْقَدْرِ اِيْمَانًا وَاِحْتِسَابًا غُفِرَلَهٗ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهٖ (متفق عليه)

1958. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He who fasts during Ramadan with faith (in Shari'ah (divine law) and the obligatory nature of Ramadan) seeking reward (without ostentation or fear of anyone but sincerely for Allah's sake) will earn forgiveness of his past sins. He who stands during Ramadan with faith and hope for reward will earn forgiveness of his past sins. He who stands (for prayer and worship) on the layltul qadr (night of power, realizing its importance and excellence) with faith and hope for reward will earn forgiveness of his past sins."[2]

COMMENTARY: The standing in the nights of Ramadan is for the salah of tarawih, to recite the Quran and to remember Allah, and so on. If he is in Makkah then he should perform the tawaf and umrah also.

Nawawi رحمه الله said that good deeds that expiate sins apply only to minor sins and they soften the major sins. If a fortunate person has not committed sins, then his rank is raised in paradise.

REWARD FOR FASTING

(١٩٥٩) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ عَمَلِ ابْنِ اٰدَمَ يُضَاعِفُ الْحَسَنَةَ بِعَشْرِ اَمْثَالِهَا اِلٰى

1959. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The reward of every pious deed of the son of Aadam علیہ السلام is multiplied, a pious deed receiving a reward from ten times of seven hundred times. And Allah says, 'But not fasting because it is observed for My sake only so I alone will give a reward for it. He (who fasts) abandons his desires and his food for my sake.' For him who fasts are two happy moments; happiness at his iftar (breaking of fast) and happiness when he will meet his lord. The odour of the mouth of one two fasts is dearer to Allah than the fragrance of musk And, fasting is a shield. When it is the day of fasting of anyone of you let him not be vulgar of speech and let him not shout. If any one abuses him or contends with him, let him say, 'I am fasting."[1]

COMMENTARY: The least reward one piety fetches is like ten pieties. Depending on the doer's sincerity and truth, the reward continues to multiply. The highest is like seven hundred deeds, but sometimes it is more, like in Makkah it may be up to one hundred thousand pieties for every one pious deed.

The reward for fasting, however, is unlimited, as Allah says. He alone knows what reward He will give for it.

Fasting is the only worship that is unobserved by other people. He who fasts knows whether he really is fasting or not and no one else can know it besides Allah who sees everything. There is no possibility of fasting to demonstrate to other people. Contrary to other forms of worship. Fasting has no form of its own.

Moreover, fasting is strenuous and taxes the body. One has to be patient and to compel oneself. This is not so in other forms of worship.

AMAZING & WORRYING: Fasting was observed during the jahiliyah too only for Allah. They associated none with him. However, now it is not merely for Allah any more. People fast for some saintly men on their name and for them. May Allah preserve us all from straying and error. May he make us subservient only to Him. Aameen!

MERIT & BLESSINGS OF RAMADAN

(١٩٦٠-١٩٦١) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا كَانَ اَوَّلُ لَيْلَةٍ مِنْ شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ صُفِّدَتِ الشَّيَاطِيْنُ وَمَرَدَةُ الْجِنِّ وَغُلِّقَتْ اَبْوَابُ النَّارِ فَلَمْ يُفْتَحْ مِنْهَا بَابٌ وَفُتِحَتْ اَبْوَابُ الْجَنَّةِ فَلَمْ يُغْلَقْ مِنْهَا بَابٌ وَيُنَادِيْ مُنَادٍ يَا بَاغِيَ الْخَيْرِ اَقْبِلْ وَيَا بَاغِيَ الشَّرِّ اَقْصِرْ وَلِلّٰهِ عُتَقَاءُ مِنَ النَّارِ وَذَالِكَ

كُلَّ لَيْلَةٍ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ عَنْ رَجُلٍ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1960. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On the first night of Ramadan, the devils and the defiant jinns are shackled, the gates of hell are shut, not one of them being opened, and the gates of paradise are opened, not one of them being locked. An announcer proclaims. "O seeker of good, step forward and O hankerer after evil desist, because Allah frees from Fire (many who are consigned to it. You, too, could be one of those). This (proclamation) is made every night (of Ramadan)."[1]

1961. (Also) from an unknown man (as above).[2]

COMMENTARY: When the devils are put in shackles, they cannot tempt the people who fast. However, there are some wretched ones who are incorrigible. It is their innate nature to sin and be disobedient, and they continue in their ways.

Those who need, earn reward, Even a simple good deed conveys them to high stations. The evildoers are called upon to desist and repent. This is an opportune moment to pray and seek forgiveness.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

(١٩٦٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَتَاكُمْ رَمَضَانُ شَهْرٌ مُّبَارَكٌ فَرَضَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْكُمْ صِيَامَهُ تُفْتَحُ فِيْهِ أَبْوَابُ السَّمَاءِ وَتُغْلَقُ فِيْهِ أَبْوَابُ الْجَحِيْمِ وَتُغَلُّ فِيْهِ مَرَدَةُ الشَّيَاطِيْنِ لِلّٰهِ فِيْهِ لَيْلَةٌ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ أَلْفِ شَهْرٍ مَنْ حُرِمَ خَيْرَهَا فَقَدْ حُرِمَ۔ (رواه احمد والنسائی)

1962. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The blessed month of Ramadan is upon you Allah has prescribed for you its fasts. The gates of heaven are opened in it and the gates of hell are shut in it. The defiant devils are fettered in it. There is in it a night of Allah that is better than one thousand months. If any one is deprived of its good then he is indeed dispossessed of every thing."[3]

COMMENTARY: Mulla Ali Qari رضی اللہ عنہ said that only those devils are chained in Ramadan who are defiant. Thus, one reason for those who continue to commit sin is that the unchained devils make mischief by tempting the wretched people of whom the commentary on the previous hadith (# 1960/1) speaks. However, this contention of Mulla Ali Qari is debatable in the light of the first hadith (# 1956) of this chapter which says that (all) devils are fettered in Ramadan.

Mawlana Shah Muhammad Ishaq Dahlawi رحمہ اللہ said that the defiant devils are chained and it concerns specific people while the putting of all devils in shackles pertains to other specific people. The defiant devils are prevented from tempting the grave sinners, so they fall into minor sins now and then. As for the devils, on the whole, they are prevented from tempting the righteous people. They abstain from grave sins but if they happen to commit a sin, they make haste to repent.

[1] Tirmidhi # 682, Nasa'i # 2094, Ibn Majah # 1642, Musnad Ahmad # 4-311 (Bukhari # 1898, Muslim # 1079).

[2] Musnad Ahmad 4-312.

[3] Nasa'i # 2106, Musnad Ahmad 2-230.

There is yet another explanation. Apart from the devils, man commits some sins on the instigation of his own soul. Hence, while people are safe from the promptings of the devils, they continue to succumb to the desires of their own souls, even in Ramadan.
As for the laylatul qadr, the least one could do is offer the salah of isha and of fajr with the congregation. If he does that, he will get some portion of the blessings of this night.
To be dispossessed of everything actually implics 'to be deprived of perfect reward.'

FAST WILL INTERCEDE

(١٩٦٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الصِّيَامُ وَالْقُرْاٰنُ يَشْفَعَانِ لِلْعَبْدِ يَقُوْلُ الصِّيَامُ اَىْ رَبِّ اِنِّيْ مَنَعْتُهُ الطَّعَامَ وَالشَّهَوَاتِ بِالنَّهَارِ فَشَفِّعْنِيْ فِيْهِ وَيَقُوْلُ الْقُرْاٰنُ مَنَعْتُهُ النَّوْمَ بِاللَّيْلِ فَشَفِّعْنِيْ فِيْهِ فَيُشَفَّعَانِ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

1963. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Fasting and the Quran will intercede for the slave (of Allah). Fasting will say. 'O my Lord, I kept him away from his food and his desires by day, so accept my intercession for him.' The Quran will say. 'I kept him away from sleep in the night. Do accept my intercession for him.' Their intercession shall be accepted."

BEING DEPRIVED OF LAYLATUL QADR

(١٩٦٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ دَخَلَ رَمَضَانُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ هٰذَا الشَّهْرَ قَدْ حَضَرَكُمْ وَفِيْهِ لَيْلَةٌ خَيْرٌ مِنْ اَلْفِ شَهْرٍ مَنْ حُرِمَهَا فَقَدْ حُرِمَ الْخَيْرَ كُلَّهُ وَلَا يُحْرَمُ خَيْرَهَا اِلَّا كُلُّ مَحْرُوْمٍ (رواه ابن ماجة)

1964. Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Ramadan began, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Surely, this month has come to you. There is in it a night better than one thousand months. He who is denied it is denied all good. However, it is only the wretched, unfortunate who are denied it."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith emphasizes that full advantage must be taken of the mouth of Ramadan by worshipping Allah day and night.

MONTH OF BLESSINGS

(١٩٦٥) وَعَنْ سَلْمَانَ الْفَارِسِيِّ قَالَ خَطَبَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ اٰخِرِ يَوْمٍ مِنْ شَعْبَانَ فَقَالَ يَا اَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ اَظَلَّكُمْ شَهْرٌ عَظِيْمٌ شَهْرٌ مُبَارَكٌ شَهْرٌ فِيْهِ لَيْلَةٌ خَيْرٌ مِنْ اَلْفِ شَهْرٍ جَعَلَ اللّٰهُ صِيَامَهُ فَرِيْضَةً وَقِيَامَ لَيْلِهِ تَطَوُّعًا مَنْ تَقَرَّبَ فِيْهِ بِخَصْلَةٍ مِنَ الْخَيْرِ كَانَ كَمَنْ اَدّٰى فَرِيْضَةً فِيْمَا سِوَاهُ وَمَنْ اَدّٰى فَرِيْضَةً فِيْهِ كَانَ كَمَنْ اَدّٰى سَبْعِيْنَ فَرِيْضَةً فِيْمَا سِوَاهُ وَهُوَ شَهْرُ الصَّبْرِ وَالصَّبْرُ ثَوَابُهُ الْجَنَّةُ وَشَهْرُ الْمُوَاسَاةِ وَشَهْرٌ يُزَادُ فِيْهِ رِزْقُ الْمُؤْمِنِ مَنْ فَطَّرَ فِيْهِ صَائِمًا كَانَ لَهُ مَغْفِرَةً لِذُنُوْبِهِ وَعِتْقَ رَقَبَتِهِ مِنَ النَّارِ وَكَانَ لَهُ

1965. Sayyiduna Salman Farisi رضی الله عنه narrated that on the last day of Sha'ban, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم delivered to them a sermon in which he said, "A great month is coming to you, O people. It is a blessed month. It has a night that is better than one thousand months. Allah has prescribed thousand months. Allah has prescribed fasting during the month as fard (compulsory), and worship in its nights as an optional worship. If anyone engages in worship (in a supererogatory effort) during the month with some deeds to draw near Allah, then it will be equivalent to the discharge by him of the fard (compulsory) acts in any other month. If anyone discharges an obligatory act (fard (compulsory)) in this month then he will be though one who has performed seventy fard (compulsory) in any other month. It is the month of patience and the reward of patience is paradise (for, he abstains from food and drink and passionate desires). It is a month of sympathy and compassion (so attend to the poor and needy). It is the month in which the provision of a (rich or poor) believer is increased. If someone gives (from his lawful earnings) iftar to one who is fasting in this month, then this deed will get him forgiveness of his sins and put him away from hell and he will get a reward like the reward of the one who is fasting without his reward being decreased in any way." They (the sahabah) رضی الله عنه said, "O Messenger of Allah, all of us cannot find something to serve as iftar to the fasting one." He said, "Allah grants this reward to him who gives iftar to one who fasts with some dilate milk or a date or some water to break his fast. If anyone feed the fasting one to the point of satiation, then Allah will give him to drink from my pond (kawthar) such that he will not feel thirst (after that) till he enters paradise. And, the month of Ramadan is one whose beginning is mercy. Who middle is forgiveness and whose conclusion is deliverance from hell (for believers only). If during this month, anyone makes light the burden of his slave, then Allah will forgive him and deliver him from hell.'[1]

COMMENTARY: Optional worship in the nights of Ramadan include the tarawih etc. If anyone does not engage in them then he deprives himself of reward and is liable to punishment. This does not mean that the salah of tarawih is optional or supererogatory, for it is sunnah (Practice of Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* muwakadah. According to a hadith in Abu Dawud when the moon of Ramadan was sighted, Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded (Sayyiduna) Bilal رضی الله عنه to announce that the tarawih should be offered and fasting be observed.

After drinking the water of al-Kawthar, one would not feel thirsty till he enter paradise. Then, of course, no thirst will be experienced in paradise at all. It is as Allah says(20:118):

إِنَّكَ لَا تَظْمَأُ فِيهَا

{You shall not thirst therein}

That mean the man will never feel thirsty.

CAPTIVE RELEASED

(١٩٦٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَخَلَ شَهْرُ رَمَضَانَ اَطْلَقَ كُلَّ اَسِيْرٍ وَاَعْطٰى كُلَّ سَائِلٍ۔

1966. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that with the advent of the month of Ramadan, Allah messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set free every captive (or prisoner), and gave (something) to every beggar.[1]

COMMENTARY: The prisoners could have been imprisoned for violation of Allah's rights or for rights of fellow men. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم got the permission of the concerned men to released the latter kind. Or, he only released these prisoners who were taken for violation of his own rights. Generous he was always, and in Ramadan, his generosity knew no bounds.

PARADISE ADORNED

(١٩٦٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَانَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ الْجَنَّةَ تُزَخْرَفُ لِرَمَضَانَ مِنْ رَأْسِ الْحَوْلِ اِلٰى حَوْلٍ قَابِلٍ قَالَ فَإِذَا كَانَ اَوَّلُ يَوْمٍ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ هَبَّتْ رِيْحٌ تَحْتَ الْعَرْشِ مِنْ وَرَقِ الْجَنَّةِ عَلَى الْحُوْرِ الْعِيْنِ فَيَقُلْنَ يَارَبِّ اجْعَلْ لَنَا مِنْ عِبَادِكَ اَزْوَاجًا تَقَرُّبِهِمْ اَعْيُنُنَا وَتَقَرَّاَعْيُنُهُمْ بِنَا۔ رَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ الْاَحَادِيْثَ الثَّلَاثَةَ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

1967. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Surely paradise is adorned for Ramadan from the beginning of the year till the year that follows. When it is the first day of Ramadan, a wind blows under the throne from the leaves of paradise on the large eyed maidens. They say 'O Lord! Cause for us husbands from among your servants t hat we should be happy with them and they should be happy with us."[2]

COMMENTARY: The beginning of the year could mean Muharram the first month of the year, or Shawwal the month following Ramadan. In short, its blessing last all through the year.

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said elsewhere that against each day that a man fasts, he is given a large eyed maidan in paradise in huge canopies of pearl. This is as Allah's words

حُوْرٌ مَّقْصُوْرَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ

{Houris will guarded in pavilions} (155:72)

PARDONED ON THE LAST NIGHT

(١٩٦٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ قَالَ يُغْفَرُ لِاُمَّتِهٖ فِيْ اٰخِرِ لَيْلَةٍ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ قِيْلَ

1968. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the members of his ummah are forgiven on the last night of Ramadan. Someone asked him if that was the laylatul qadr. He said, "No Rather, the worker is paid his remuneration in full when he finishes the work (assigned to him)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The pardon will follow obedience to Allah's command to fast and this great obligation is discharged. The initial words are not the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم own but Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه has quoted him in indirect speech.

CHAPTER - II

SIGHTING THE NEW MOON بَابُ رُؤْيَةِ الْهِلَالِ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

BEGIN& END FASTING WITH THE NEW MOON

(١٩٦٩) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَصُوْمُوْا حَتّٰى تَرَوُا الْهِلَالَ وَلَا تُفْطِرُوْا حَتّٰى تَرَوْهُ فَاِنْ غُمَّ عَلَيْكُمْ فَاقْدِرُوْا لَهٗ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ الشَّهْرُ تِسْعٌ وَّعِشْرُوْنَ لَيْلَةً فَلَا تَصُوْمُوْا حَتّٰى تَرَوْهُ فَاِنْ غُمَّ عَلَيْكُمْ فَاَكْمِلُوا الْعِدَّةَ ثَلَاثِيْنَ (متفق عليه)

1969. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not begin to fast (for Ramadan on the 30th Sha'ban) unless you see the new moon and do not end fasting till you see it (for the eed). If the sky is cloudy over you (or invisible for some reason) then make a surmise whether it should appear." According to another version: "The month is of thirty days. So do not began to fast till you see it. If the sky is cloudy over you. Complete the number thirty (of the month before beginning to fast or to end fasting)."[2]

COMMENTARY: If the new moon is not sighted or no testimony is receiged for it on the twenty ninth then do not begin or end fasting.

A month can be a twenty-nine nights, so efforts should be made to see the new moon on this night. The ulama (Scholars) say that it is wajib Kifayah (adequate obligation) on the people to try to see the new moon for Ramadan on the 29th of Sha'ban.

(١٩٧٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صُوْمُوْا لِرُؤْيَتِهٖ وَاَفْطِرُوْا لِرُؤْيَتِهٖ فَاِنْ غُمَّ عَلَيْكُمْ فَاَكْمِلُوْا عِدَّةَ شَعْبَانَ ثَلَاثِيْنَ (متفق عليه)

1970. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Begin to fast when you see it (the new moon) and cease to fast when you see it, but if the whether is cloudy then complete the number of Sha'ban as thirty days, (And make Ramadan in the same way.)"[3]

DO NOT PREDICT APPEARANCE O F MOON THROUGH ASTRONOMY

(١٩٧١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّا أُمَّةٌ أُمِّيَّةٌ لَا نَكْتُبُ وَلَا نَحْسِبُ الشَّهْرَ هٰكَذَا وَهٰكَذَا وَهٰكَذَا وَعَقَدَ الْإِبْهَامَ فِي الثَّالِثَةِ ثُمَّ قَالَ الشَّهْرُ هٰكَذَا وَهٰكَذَا وَهٰكَذَا يَعْنِيْ تَمَامَ الثَّلَاثِيْنَ يَعْنِيْ مَرَّةً تِسْعًا وَّعِشْرِيْنَ وَمَرَّةً ثَلَاثِيْنَ (متفق عليه)

1971. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "We (the Arabs) are an unlettered ummah and can neither write nor count. The month is this much and this much (closing his first twice and opening them). And the third time (he closed his fists and opened nine fingers and) he kept the thumb tucked in then he said, "The month is this much, this much and this much." (meaning thirty days not tucking in the thumb at all). He meant that the month is twenty nine days sometimes and thirty days sometimes.[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith means to say that it is not for us to follow the calculations of astronomy. Also, such computation is not reliable. We only go by the actual sighting of the moon. If it is confirmed according to the rules of Shari'ah (divine law), fasting should begin or end.

MONTH OF RAMADAN & DHUL HIJJAH

(١٩٧٢) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ بَكْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَهْرَا عِيْدٍ لَا يَنْقُصَانِ رَمَضَانُ وَذُو الْحِجَّةِ (متفق عليه)

1972. Sayyiduna Abu Bakrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Both the months of eed, Ramadan and Dhul Hijjah, are never faulty."[2]

COMMENTARY: Even if a month is of twenty nine days, it is not faulty in the sense that it will bring a lesser reward or attract incomplete command (in relation to months of thirty days)

DO NOT FAST BEFORE RAMADAN BY A COUPLE OF DAYS

(١٩٧٣) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَتَقَدَّمَنَّ أَحَدُكُمْ رَمَضَانَ بِصَوْمِ يَوْمٍ أَوْ يَوْمَيْنِ إِلَّا أَنْ يَكُوْنَ رَجُلٌ كَانَ يَصُوْمُ صَوْمًا فَلْيَصُمْ ذٰلِكَ الْيَوْمَ (متفق عليه)

1973. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "NO one of you must fast just before Ramadan by a day or two. But, if he is accustomed to fast (on that day) then he may fast on that day."[3]

COMMENTARY: If anyone is used to fast on a certain day and that day happens to coincide with 29th or 30th Sha'ban, then he is not precluded from fasting on this date.

The prohibition to fast a day or two ahead of Ramadan is to avoid combining the optional with the obligatory and assuming a resemblance to the people of the Book who were accustomed to optional fasting before the prescribed fasting. This prohibition is actually makruh (detested) according to Mazhar. رحمہ اللہ

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِیْ

PROHIBITION TO FAST DURING LAST HALF OF SHA'BAN

(١٩٧٤) عَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَیْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا انْتَصَفَ شَعْبَانُ فَلَا تَصُوْمُوْا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

1974. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "when half of the month of Sha'ban is over, cease to fast."[1]

COMMENTARY: No fast apart from the redeeming fast or any other wajib (obligatory) fast must be kept during the last half of Shaban. This prohibition is of the kind nahi tanzihi and its objective is to facilitate the ummh who may otherwise find weakness in Ramadan. Those people who are strong are not disallowed to fast during these days. Similarly it is mustahab (desirable) not to fast on the day of Arafah to preserve energy for other forms of worship.

REMEMBER DAYS OF SHABAN

(١٩٧٥) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَیْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُحْصُوْا هِلَالَ شَعْبَانَ لِرَمَضَانَ (رواه الترمذی)

1975. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Count the (day of) the month of Sha'ban from the new moon for Ramadan."[2]

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم FASTED IN SHA'BAN

(١٩٧٦) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ مَارَاَیْتُ النَّبِیَّ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ یَصُوْمُ شَهْرَیْنِ مُتَتَابِعَیْنِ اِلَّا شَعْبَانَ وَرَمَضَانَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة)

1976. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that she had not seen the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم fast two months consecutively except Sha'ban and Ramadan.[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith will be explained in the chapter VII about voluntary fast against hadith # 2036, etc, insha Allah.

FASTING WHEN IN DOUBT

(١٩٧٧) وَعَنْ عَمَّارِ بْنِ یَاسِرٍ قَالَ مَنْ صَامَ الْیَوْمَ الَّذِیْ یُشَكُّ فِیْهِ فَقَدْ عَصٰی اَبَا الْقَاسِمِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

1977. Sayyiduna Ammar ibn Yasir said, that if any one fasts on the day of which he is unsure (whether it is 1st Ramadan or not) then he has disobeyed Abu Al-Qasim صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.[4]

COMMENTARY: The Yawm ash-shak (the day on which it is doubtful) is after the thirtieth night of Sha'ban on completing twenty nine days. The moon is not sighted but there is a testimony from the person that is rejected, or from two sinners and that is not accepted. So, the day following will be 30th Sha'ban a day called Yaum ush shak, because it is unsure whether the day belongs to Sha'ban or is the 1st Ramadan. The night preceding had a cloudy whether if the sky had been clear and the moon had not been sight then the 30th Sha'ban would not have been a yawum ush shak (the day on which it is doubtful)

The hadith says that it is makruh (unbecoming) to fast for Ramadan or any wajib (obligatory) on the yaum ush shak. There is, however, scope to keep an optional fast. For instance, if anyone has been fasting from the first of Sha'ban, he may fast on this day too Or if this day coincides with the day on which a person is accustomed to fast, then it is better for him to fast on it. It is also better for one who is used to fast on the last three days of Sha'ban. In all other cases, besides these, the distinguished (learned) may fast on this day forming an intention to observe an optional fast but he masses should not take any food to drink till middy (or noon) and wait for any acceptable testimony of the sighting of the moon. If none is forthcoming then they partake of food and drink: This was the practice of Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and other sahabah رضی اللہ عنہ.

As for the intention formed on the day (when it is uncertain whether Ramadan has begun or not), the person who is not accustomed to fast on this day (and he is among the distinguished).should say; 'I form an intention to observe an optional fast,' but he should not contemplate to regard it as a fast of Ramadan if the moon should be sighted. This kind of an intention is makruh (unbecoming); 'If it is Ramadan then this fast will be considered to be of Ramadan otherwise it will be an optional or a wajib (obligatory) (specifying the kind of) fast. However, if anyone forms such an intention and it is established that Ramadan has begun, his fast will be regarded as of Ramadan.

As against this, if anyone forms an intention while fasting; 'If today, it is Ramadan then this is my fast but if this day is not Ramadan then this is not my fast.' Then he will not have fast then he will not have fasted neither an optional fast nor a fast of Ramadan even if it is established that the month of Ramadan had begun.

TESTIMONY OF NEW MOON

(١٩٧٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ جَاءَ اَعْرَابِيٌّ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنِّي رَأَيْتُ الْهِلَالَ يَعْنِيْ هِلَالَ رَمَضَانَ فَقَالَ اَتَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ اَتَشْهَدُ اَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَّسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ يَا بِلَالُ اَذِّنْ فِي النَّاسِ اَنْ يَصُوْمُوْا غَدًا (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

1978. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a villager came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and testified that he had seen the new moon, meaning the new moon of Ramadan. So, he asked him, "Do you testify that there is no God but Allah?" He said, "Yes!" He asked again, "Do you testify that Muhammad is Allah's Messenger?" He said, Yes!" He said, "O Bilal, announce to the people that they should fast tomorrow.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that if a person is a known sinner and immodest then his testimony about sighting the moon of Ramadan will not be reliable and will be unacceptable. Also, it is not a pre-requisite to use the word 'testimony' when bearing witness to the sighting of the moon.

Moreover, the testimony of only one person is acceptable for the sighting of the moon of Ramadan. The hanafis follow this procedure. However, this applies when the weather is cloudy.

If the sky is overcast on the night following 29th Ramadan, the testimony for the new moon for eed will be acceptable only from two men, or one man and two women who are just and free, and it will be binding to use the word 'testimony'. Besides, the conditions of testimony change according to the situation and when the sky is clear then a group of people will have to bear witness.

(١٩٧٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ تَرَاءَى النَّاسُ الْهِلَالَ فَأَخْبَرْتُ رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّي رَأَيْتُهُ فَصَامَ وَأَمَرَ النَّاسَ بِصِيَامِهِ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1979. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the people were assembled to observed the new moon. He informed Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that he had seen it, so he fasted and instructed the people to fast.[1]

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم COUNTED THE DAYS OF SHABAN CAREFULLY

(١٩٨٠) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَتَحَفَّظُ مِنْ شَعْبَانَ مَالَا يَتَحَفَّظُ مِنْ غَيْرِهِ ثُمَّ يَصُومُ لِرُؤْيَةِ رَمَضَانَ فَإِنْ غُمَّ عَلَيْهِ عَدَّ ثَلَاثِينَ يَوْمًا ثُمَّ صَامَ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1980. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to count the days of Sha'ban very carefully, such as he did not do for other months. Then on sighting the new moon of Ramadan, he fasted, if the sky was overcast (and the moon was not seen). He counted thirty days and fasted.[2]

COMMENTARY: It was the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice that he was very careful in Sha'ban whose days he counted meticulously to avoid any confusion about the moon of Ramadan. He was not as attentive to days of any other month because the other months had not any duty associated with them except the month of Hajj (pilgrimage) but that is singular in that all people are not affected by it and it is not fard (compulsory) every year.

FASTING AFTER SEEING THE MOON

بِذَاتِ عِرْقٍ فَأَرْسَلْنَا رَجُلًا إِلَى ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ يَسْأَلُهُ فَقَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالَى قَدْ أَمَدَّهُ لِرُؤْيَتِهِ فَإِنْ أُغْمِيَ عَلَيْكُمْ فَأَكْمِلُوا الْعِدَّةَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

1981. Sayyiduna Abdul Bukhari رحمه الله said that they set out to perform the umrah (from Kufah) and stopped at Makhlah. There, they assembled to see the new moon. Some of them said that it was three nights old and some said that it was two nights old. When they met (Sayyiduna) Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه they told him what the people thought. He asked, "When had you seen the new moon?" They told him that they had seen it on such and such a night. He said, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم determined Ramadan according to the time it was sight you saw it."

According to another version: They saw the new moon of Ramadan when they were at Dahat Irq (near Nakhah) They sent a man to Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه to ask him how old the moon was (because they had differed among themselves about it). He said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had said, "Allah, the Exalted, has extended the limit of Sha'ban till the new moon of Ramadan is sighted. So, if the sky is overcast (on the 29th) complete the number of days (of Sha'ban to thirty and begin to fast thereafter)"[1]

COMMENTARY: The advent of Ramadan depends on the sighting of the moon. If it seems large that makes no difference. Rather, it is said that if the moon is large on the night it is to appear then that is a portent of the Last Day. There are some rulings about seeing the moon.

If the moon is sighted on 30th sha'ban during the day before zawwal or after it then it must be regarded as the moon of the night to follow. Hence, neither it signifies the beginning of Ramadan on the day, not it calls for fasting to be observed on that day. Similarly, if moon is sighted during the day on 30th Ramadan, neither will people break their fast and cease fasting nor will the day be regarded as the day of eed. It is wajib (obligatory) ul kifayah to look for the moon on the 30th night of Sha'ban when the date was 29th in the day.

If moon is sighted (of Ramadan) at one place, then the people of all places around will have to fast in the morning (following the night) as wajib (obligatory), and differences in weather will not be considered. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله follows this ruling, but Imam Shafi'I (RH() and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله consider the differences in weather in the different places, and they hold that if people of a city sight the moon that is not enough for people of another city.

A person who has sighted the moon of Ramadan but this testimony is not accepted, is himself bound to fast according to his own sighting. If he does not fast, then he will have to redeem it.

CHAPTER - III

VARIOUS ISSUES CONCERNING FASTING بَابٌ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

(١٩٨٢) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَسَحَّرُوْا فَإِنَّ فِي السَّحُوْرِ بَرَكَةً (متفق عليه)

1982. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Have the pre-dawn meal, for, there is a blessing a having suhur (pre-down meal before commencing fast)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Something must be eaten before fasting at the time of sahr. According to a hadith: "Have the pre-dawn meal even if it is a sip of water." This command is not wajib (obligatory) but mustahab (desirable) to obey sahr is the last portion of the night, sahur is a noun and means food at sahar and suhur is a verbal noun meaning 'to eat at the time of sahar.'

There is blessing in it because it is a sunnah (Practice of Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) to have the pre-down meal. To abide by the sunnah (Practice of Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) fetches a great reward apart from providing energy to fast.

SUHUR DISTINGUISHES THE FAITHFUL FROM THE PEOPLE OF THE BOOK

(١٩٨٣) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَصْلُ مَابَيْنَ صِيَامِنَا وَصِيَامِ اَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ اَكْلَةُ السَّحَرِ (رواه مسلم)

1983. Sayyiduna Amr ibn al-Aas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "The difference between our fasting and the fasting of the people of the Book (Jews and Christians) is the eating of sahr (by us)."[2]

COMMENTARY: In early Islam, it was forbidden to eat in the night after having gone to sleep just as the people of the Book were forbidden. Later, it was permitted to eat in the night.

HASTENING TO BREAK FAST AT ITS LAWFUL TIME

(١٩٨٤) وَعَنْ سَهْلٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَزَالُ النَّاسُ بِخَيْرٍ عَجَّلُوا الْفِطْرَ (متفق عليه)

1984. Sayyiduna Sahl رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The people will not cease to be in a good condition till they are quick to break the fast."[3]

COMMENTARY: To be quick to break the fast is to not delay to break it just as the sun sets (when it is lawful to break the fast) the sign of it in the cities is that darkness spreads high on the eastern horizon from where dawn arises but it is not necessary that darkness covers the centre of the sky.

Hastening to break the fast at sunset also distinguishes us from the people of the Book. They wait for the stars to rise high. Among the Muslims, the Rawafid do this. Hence, hastening to break the fast contradicts them, too.

3 Bukhari # 1957, Muslim # 48-1098, Ibn Majah # 1697, Muwatta Maalik 18.3-6, Musnad Ahmad # 22868.

According to sahih ahadith, it is a sunnah (Practice of Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) to have the iftar (break fast) before the salah of maghrib.

THE TIME OF IFTAR

(١٩٨٥) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَقْبَلَ اللَّيْلُ مِنْ هٰهُنَا وَأَدْبَرَ النَّهَارُ مِنْ هٰهُنَا وَغَرَبَتِ الشَّمْسُ فَقَدْ أَفْطَرَ الصَّائِمُ (متفق عليه)

1985. Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When the night comes from here (meaning the east which is covered with darkness) and the day departs from there (the west) and the sun sets (completely), the fasting one has his iftar."[1]

COMMENTARY: The fasting one is said to have has iftar even though he may not have had anything to eat or drink. Or, he has come to the time to break it. Or, he must break his fast at this time. These are three possible meanings of the concluding words.

FASTING WITHOUT BREAK

(١٩٨٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الْوِصَالِ فِي الصَّوْمِ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَجُلٌ إِنَّكَ تُوَاصِلُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَأَيُّكُمْ مِثْلِي إِنِّي أَبِيتُ يُطْعِمُنِي رَبِّي وَيَسْقِيْنِي (متفق عليه)

1986. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed them to fast without observing a break. So, someone submitted to him, "But, you do fast without break, O Messenger of Allah." He asked, 'which of you is like me? I am given to eat and drink during the night."[2]

COMMENTARY: This kind of fasting is called al-wisal. It is to fast without break for two days or more. It is not allowed because it causes weakness and one cannot devote fully to other kinds of worship. The ulama (Scholars) disagree on whether it is forbidden, allowed or makruh (unbecoming) to the people other than the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. Some of them say that it is allowed and the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم advised the people against it only out of mercy and kindness for them and they cite the hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed wisal only out of compassion for the people. It is reported that some sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم like Adullah ibn Zubayr رضى الله عنه and some tabiun رحمه الله like Ibn Mumar رضى الله عنه, Aamir ibn Abdullah ibn Zubayr رحمه الله, Ibrahim Tayuri رحمه الله, did fast without break. But most ulama (Scholars) say that it is disallowed. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله. Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Shafi رحمه الله classify it as makruh (unbecoming), but they differ on whether it is makru tahrimi or makruh (unbecoming) tanzihi (detested for purigation). The majority of the ulama (Scholars) say that it was specific with the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and the hadith also says so. The Sufis who engaged in deep devotion and imposed restrictions on themselves drank a handful of water after each fast so that should not be the ones to keep fast without break.

WHEN TO FORM AN INTENTION TO FAST

(۱۹۸۷) عَنْ حَفْصَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَّمْ يُجْمِعِ الصِّيَامَ قَبْلَ الْفَجْرِ فَلَاصِيَامَ لَهٗ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ اَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَقَفَهٗ عَلٰى حَفْصَةَ مَعْمَرٌ وَّ الزُّبَيْدِيُّ وَابْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ وَيُوْنُسُ الْاَيْلِيُّ كُلُّهُمْ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ۔

1987. Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If any one does not form an intention before dawn to fast (that day) then he has not fasted (perfectly).[1]

Abu Dawud said that Ma'mar Zubaydi Ibn Uyaynah and Yunus Ayliy narrated. It from zuhri tracing it only up to Sayyidah Hafsah.

COMMENTARY: Imam Maalik holds that the intention should be formed as the hadith says in the night whatever the kind of fast. While Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad say the same thing for fard (compulsory) fasts, Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ said, that the intention for optional fasts maybe formed up to zawal of that day and Imam Shafi'I. رحمہ اللہ said that it can be formed up to before sunset that day.

The Hanafis say that the intention for fasts of Ramadan, optional nature or against vows may be formed upto before zawwal but for redeeming fasts it should be formed in the night (before beginning the fast).

THE LAST TIME FOR MEAL BEFORE DAWN (SUHUR)

(۱۹۸۸) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ اَحَدُكُمْ وَالْاِنَاءُ فِيْ يَدِهٖ فَلَا يَضَعْهُ حَتّٰى يَقْضِيَ حَاجَتَهٗ مِنْهُ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

1988. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, If any of you hears the adhan and has a vessel in his h and t hen he should not put it down till he finishes his need from it (of drinking or eating)."

COMMENTARY: If anyone is having his pre-dawn meal and the adhan for fajr is called then simply on that basis he must not stop his intake, provided he is certain that dawn has not begun and there still is time for suhur. But, if dawn has commenced then the time for suhur is over and he must cease to eat and drink.

Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that if one does not known that dawn has begun then he must not stop eating and drinking, but if he known, or has doubts, that down has risen then he must give up food and drink.

Some authorities say that the hadith refers to the adhan of maghrib. This would imply that though it is masnun to abandon eating and drinking on hearing t he adhan, yet if anyone hears the adhan of maghrib at the time of iftar then he must finish what he is eating or drinking and then go for the salah of maghrib.

WHEN THE TIME IS UP BE QUICK TO BREAK FAST

(١٩٨٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى اَحَبُّ عِبَادِيْ اِلَيَّ اَعْجَلُهُمْ فِطْرًا۔ (رواه الترمذی)

1989. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah, the exalted, says, "The dearest of My slaves to Me is he who is quick to break fast (when it is time for it)."[1]

IFTAR WITH DATE & WATER

(١٩٩٠) وَعَنْ سَلْمَانَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَفْطَرَ اَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيُفْطِرْ عَلٰى تَمْرٍ فَاِنَّهٗ بَرَكَةٌ فَاِنْ لَّمْ يَجِدْ فَلْيُفْطِرْ عَلٰى مَاءٍ فَاِنَّهٗ طَهُوْرٌ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ فَاِنَّهٗ بَرَكَةٌ غَيْرُ التِّرْمِذِيِّ۔

1990. Sayyiduna Salman ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When any of you breaks his fast, he should break it with dates because they are a means of blessing, but if he does not find any date, then he should break his fast with water because it is purifying."[2]

The words 'O means of purifying are found only in Tirmidhi.

COMMENTARY: The instruction to break fast with dates or water is a recommendation of the category of mustahab (desirable). The wisdom behind breaking fast with a date is that an empty stomach accepts something sweet like a date readily and it digests it. It also invigorates the system quickly particularly the eye sight. Moreover, the Arabs found a sweet dish mostly in dates, they were more accustomed to it. As for water, it is a good purifying agent both inwardly and out wardly.

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم IFTAR

(١٩٩١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُفْطِرُ قَبْلَ اَنْ يُّصَلِّيَ عَلٰى رُطَبَاتٍ فَاِنْ لَّمْ تَكُنْ رُطَبَاتٌ فَتُمَيْرَاتٌ فَاِنْ لَّمْ تَكُنْ تُمَيْرَاتٌ حَسَاحَسَوَاتٍ مِنْ مَاءٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

1991. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to break his fast, before offering the salah (of maghrib), with some fresh dates. If there were not any fresh dates, then dry dates. If there were no dry dates, then he drank some (say three) sips of water.[3]

COMMENTARY: According to a hadith of Abu Ya'la رحمہ اللہ, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم liked to break his fast with three dates or any such thing as was not cooked on fire. It is wrong on the part of some people to say that residents of Makkah must break their fast with the water of zamzam before taking dates. Not only is this not masnun, it is also contrary to sunnah (Practice of Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) because the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stayed in Makkah for many days after the conquest of Makkah, but he did no such thing.

SERVING MEAL TO ONE WHO FASTS

(۱۹۹۲) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ خَالِدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ فَطَّرَ صَائِمًا اَوْجَهَّزَ غَازِيًا فَلَهُ مِثْلُ اَجْرِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَمُحِيُّ السُّنَّةِ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَقَالَ صَحِيْحٌ۔

1992. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Khalid رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone serves iftar to one who is fasting or he equips a warrior then he earns a reward like theirs."[1]

MERIT OF IFTAR

(۱۹۹۳) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَفْطَرَ قَالَ ذَهَبَ الظَّمَأُ وَابْتَلَّتِ الْعُرُوْقُ وَثَبَتَ الْاَجْرُ اِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ (رواه ابوداؤد)

1993. Sayyiduana Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to say on breaking his fast, "Thirst is quenched, the arteries are moist and reward is assured, insha Allah."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ummah is told through this saying that worship requires a little effort, but fetches abundant eternal reward.

PRAYER AT IFTAR

(۱۹۹٤) وَعَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ زُهْرَةَ قَالَ اِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا اَفْطَرَ قَالَ اللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ صُمْتُ وَعَلٰى رِزْقِكَ اَفْطَرْتُ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْ دَاوُدَ مُرْسَلًا۔

1994. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Zuhrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم broke his fast he prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ صُمْتُ وَعَلٰى رِزْقِكَ اَفْطَرْتُ

(O Allah, for you did I fast and with your sustenance have I broken my fast).[3]

COMMENTARY: Generally the words:

وَبِكَ اٰمَنْتُ وَعَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْتُ

(and in you do I believe and on you do I rely).

are added after (وَلَکَ صُمْتُ) (for you did I fast). Though they are not known through any hadith, yet they are correct as for as their meaning is concerned.

Ibn Majah رحمہ اللہ has reported a hadith that whatever supplication is made at the time of iftar by one who fasts is not rejected, but is granted (Hadith # 1752)

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is known to have made these prayers to at the time of iftar:

REWARD FOR HAVING IFTAR EARLY

(١٩٩٥) عَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَايَزَالُ الدِّيْنُ ظَاهِرًامَا عَجَّلَ النَّاسُ الْفِطْرَ لِاَنَّ الْيَهُوْدَ وَالنَّصَارٰى يُؤَخِّرُوْنَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

1995. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The religion (of Islam) will not cease to dominate as long as people are quick to break their fast because the Jews and Christians defer (doing it)."[1]

COMMENTARY: See the commentary on the hadith # 1984. To have iftar quickly distinguishes Muslims from the followers of false religions and demonstrates the supremacy and glory of the religion of Islam. However, to emulate these strayers is to cause loss to religion. Allah says about it (in verse 51 of surah al-Ma'idah):

يٰاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا الْيَهُوْدَ وَالنَّصٰرٰى اَوْلِيَاءَ بَعْضُهُمْ اَوْلِيَآءُ بَعْضٍ وَمَنْ يَّتَوَلَّهُمْ مِّنْكُمْ فَاِنَّهٗ مِنْهُمْ

{O you who believe, take not the Jews and the Christians as friends. They are friends of each other. And whosoever among you takes them as his friends, he indeed is one of them} (5:51)

(١٩٩٦) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ عَطِيَّةَ قَالَ دَخَلْتُ اَنَا وَمَسْرُوْقٌ عَلٰى عَائِشَةَ فَقُلْنَا يَا اُمَّ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ رَجُلَانِ مِنْ اَصْحَابِ مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَحَدُهُمَا يُعَجِّلُ الْاِفْطَارَ وَيُعَجِّلُ الصَّلٰوةَ وَالْاٰخَرُ يُؤَخِّرُ الْاِفْطَارَ وَيُؤَخِّرُ الصَّلَاةَ قَالَتْ اَيُّهُمَا يُعَجِّلُ الْاِفْطَارَ وَيُعَجِّلُ الصَّلَاةَ قُلْنَا عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَتْ هٰكَذَا صَنَعَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالْاٰخَرُ اَبُوْ مُوْسٰى (رواه مسلم)

1996. Sayyiduna Abu Atiyah رحمه الله narrated that he and Sayyiduna Masruq رحمه الله visited Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها and said to her, "O Mother of the believers! Of two sahabah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, one hastens to have the iftar and to offer the salah while the other defers the iftar and the salah." She asked them, "Which of the two hastens to have the iftar and to offer the salah?" They said, "Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه!" She said, "This is how Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did." And the other one was Abu Musa رضى الله عنه [2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه was a great scholar and jurist.

[1] Abu Dawud # 3353, Ibn Majah # 1698, Musnad Ahmad 2-450.

[2] Muslim # 49-1099, Abu Dawud # 2354, Tirmidhi # 702, Nasai'i # 2141, Musnad Ahmad 6-48.

He abided by the sunnah (Practice of Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم). Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضى الله عنه was also a great prominent sahabi. He may have done as he did to show that it was allowed to do so, or he may have had some excuse for doing that, Or, perhaps he did it occasionally (for some reason)

PREDAWN MEAL IS A BLESSING

(١٩٩٧) وَعَنِ الْعِرْبَاضِ بْنِ سَارِيَةَ قَالَ دَعَانِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى السُّحُوْرِ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ فَقَالَ هَلُمَّ إِلَى الْغِدَاءِ الْمُبَارَكِ(رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

1997. Sayyiduna Irbad ibn Sariyah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم invited him to a pre-dawn meal (suhur) in Ramadan, saying "Come to the blessed meal before dawn."[1]

(١٩٩٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نِعْمَ سُحُوْرُ الْمُؤْمِنِ التَّمْرُ(رواه ابوداؤد)

1998. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best food for the believer for the suhur is a meal of dates."[2]

CHAPTER - IV

KEEPING THE FAST PERFECT — بَابُ تَنْزِيْهِ الصَّوْمِ

We shall mention in this chapter the things that make the fast invalid, and the things that take away the reward of fasts, and those that diminish their reward, Hence, it becomes necessary to refrain from all these things as have a bad effect on fasts.

While those things that make the fast invalid will be mentioned against the ahadith in this chapter as they come, here all these issues have been brought together in the light of the reliable books of fiqh in detail to enable the readers to benefit from them. These are adapted from imdad ul fatah sharh Nurul fedah. This book is regarded as reliable by the Arabs and is used by them. The issues are arranged therein in a proper order. We have also referred to Durr ul Mukhtar for some rulings.

WHAT DOES NOT INVALIDATE FAST

- If any one does not remember that he is fasting and eats or drinks something or has sexual intercourse then his fast is not invalidated whether it is a fard (compulsory) or optional fast.
- If anyone forgets and has sexual intercourse but remembers before finishing it then if he withdraws himself, his fast remain intact. If he does not withdraw but goes through the act, his fast becomes void, and he will have to redeem it but will not have to make an expiation. However, some authorities maintain that an expiation is not due only if the act is cut short before the climax or excitement of the body resulting in ejaculation (seminal discharge).If he retains the excitement, expiation will become due like when a man withdrawn his penis and inserts it again he will have to make an expiation.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2344, Nasai'i # 2163.

[2] Abu Dawud # 2345.

- If anyone engages in sexual intercourse intentionally before dawn and while he is engaged dawn rises, then he must cut it short immediately. If he not only does not withdraw but also goes through the excitement then he will have to make an expiation. If doės not excite his body and also does not withdraw then only his fast will become invalid.
- If anyone who is in the course of a sexual intercourse withdraws fearing the rise of dawn but experiences an ejaculation after rise of dawn though he had withdrawn then his fast will not be faulty.
- If anyone is eating or drinking unintentionally then other people must remind him (that he is fasting) because it is makruh (unbecoming) not to remind him, provided he is strong enough to complete the fast. If he does not remember that he is fasting even after being told and continues to eat and drink then it is necessary for him to redeem the fast. However, if he is not strong enough to fast then it is better not to remind him that he is fasting.
- If any one experiences ejaculation on looking at a woman's sexual organ then his fast is not invalidated.
- If anyone commits an unnatural act with an animal and experiences an ejaculation, some ulama (Scholars) say that his fast becomes invalid while others hold that it does not become invalid. If there is no ejaculation, then all of them agree that his fast is not void merely because of the unnatural act.
- If there is an ejaculation after self abuse (masturbation), the fast is invalidated and has to be redeemed but expiation is not necessary. It must be known that this dirty act (masturbation) is not lawful even in days other than Ramadan if the intention is to accomplish a sexual desire, but it is hoped that if the intention is merely to satisfy the sexual appetite (desire) then there is no resentment at that. This means that if anyone engages in this act simply to enjoy himself then it is absolutely unlawful for him, but if he is so restless that if he does not discharge semen he might be driven to adultery then masturbation might not make him a sinner, but resorting to it constantly is a sin.
- If any one has an ejaculation after thinking of a woman then his fast is not invalidated.
- If two women commit on unnatural act, their fast will not be void. But, if they have ejaculation the fast will be void and will have to be redeemed.
- Applying oil does not invalidate the fast because if anything enters the body through the pores then it does not make a fast defective. It is like a person having a bath to cool himself.
- If anyone applies collyrium then his fast remains intact even if there is some savour in the throat or its colour is apparent is the mucus or spit, because there is no passage between the eye and the brain. This is why tears are shed by the eye as though a heavy extract or sap or something. It is affirmed in the hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم applied collyrium even when he fasted. Similarly if one applies eye drops or milk with oil in the eyes, the fast does not be void even if there is some bitter taste in the throat or even a sweet savour.
- If anyone swallows something like a bread etc while it is tied to a string whose end he holds in his hand, his fast will not be void unless it snaps from the string and drops into his belly. When it breaks off from the string and lodges in his belly, his fast is invalidated.

- If anyone inserts a piece of wood or such other thing in his throat and holds the other end in his hand, then his fast will not be invalid.
- If anyone inserts his finger in the anus, or a woman inserts it in the vagina, then the fast does not become void unless the finger is moist with water or oil in which case the fast will be invalidated.
- Cupping or backbiting does not invalidate a fast though they cause reward to be reduced.
- If anyone resolves to break his fast but eats or drinks nothing then his fast is not disturbed.
- If smoke enters anyone's throat without his intention or choice then his fast does not become void because it is not possible to avoid it. Even if he shuts his mouth smoke will go through his nostrils. It is like the moistness that is retained in the mouth after rinsing it but does not harm the fast. However, if any one inhales smoke willfully in any manner then his fast will become void whatever the source of smoke, incense, aloe stick, etc. Thus, if anyone burns something fragrant and inhales its fames willfully knowing that he is fasting then his fast will become invalid because this is something that can be avoided. People often neglect this issue. They must exercise care and this cannot be compared to sniffing musk, rose and other fragrance. The sweet smelling smoke that is inhaled is very different..Fast is nullified even when smoke of a hookah (an oriental tobacco pipe) is inhaled because it is drawn in willfully and it satisfies a desire. Often, it is used as a medicine.
- If sweet or tears go down the throat, the fast is not defected if a small quantity is involved. But if they are swallowed in a large quantity and they give a saline flavour in the mouth then the fast in voided.
- Fast is not nullified by sniffing flowers, scent, etc.
- If anyone grinds flour or pulverizes medicine and some powder or a fly enters his throat then his fast is not affected, even when he puts the medicine in small wrappings because it is difficult to avoid these things.
- If anyone who fasts wakes up in a sexually defiled state, then his fast will not be void, even he remains in that condition all day or most of the day and does not have a purifying bath. However, he will deprive himself of reward for remaining in a defiled, impure state and not offering the salah (prayer) and not engaging in other forms of worship.
- If anyone who is fasting inserts into his penis through the outlet medicine, oil or any object, or has them inserted, and they go up to the bladder too, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله hold that his fast remains undisturbed, because nothing goes past the bladder. However, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله said that his fast becomes void. If these things do not reach the bladder then, according to all three of them, his fast remains intact.
- If anyone sits in water which goes into his ears or he scratches his ear with a cotton swab and it draws wax which is visible and though he puts it in again and again, his fast will not be nullified.

- If any one draws back or swallows phlegm as most uncivilized people do, his fast will not be void. Similarly, if any draws back his saliva that has come down to his chin and hangs there, his fast will not be void but if it does not hang from his mouth yet he licks it back from the chin into the mouth, his fast will be void. Also, if a mouthful of phlegm is swallowed, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله holds that his fast will be void, but Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله regards that it will not be void. Imam shafi's رحمه الله said that if he is able to spit phlegm etc. yet he swallows it, then his fast is void.
- If one vomits involuntarily then his fast is not nullified howsoever much the vomit, a mouthful or more. Also if the involuntary vomit goes down the throat, the fast is not disturbed howsoever much it is. But, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله said that the fast is void in this case. If he swallows mouthful of vomit deliberately then his fast is void in the sight of all the imams, but expiation will not be necessary. If one does not vomit a mouthful then the fast is not affected. If anyone vomits deliberately a mouthful then, according to unanimous opinion, the fast becomes void. If it is not a mouthful, the fast will not be void in the sight of Imam Abu Yusuf and this is a correct opinion, but Imam Muhammad رحمه الله said that even if it is not a mouthful. The fast will be void. If anyone vomits deliberately less than a mouthful and it is swallowed down involuntarily, the fast will not be void but if it is swallowed deliberately then, though there are two opinions, the correct is that the fast will not be void.
- If any kind of food particles remains in the mouth on the teeth, for instance, overnight and is swallowed during the day, it does not invalidate the fast provided it is a tiny piece lesser than a gram and had not came out of the mouth before being swallowed.
- If blood from teeth or from some portion of the mouth goes into the throat, the last will not be affected provided it does not go to the stomach directly without mixing with saliva and being less than that does not leave its taste in the throat. If blood goes into the stomach and is more than one's saliva or equal to it then the fast will be nullified.
- If someone who is fasting puts into his mouth something as small as a speck and chews it and it spreads in his mouth, his fast is not voided provided he does not relish its taste in his mouth. If that thing does not spread in his mouth and its taste is felt in the throat, or he swallows in without chewing it and he does not even get its taste in his throat, his fast will be void. If it is among those things on which an expiation is necessary then he will have to make an expiation, otherwise it will be necessary to redeem the fast.

THOSE THINGS THAT NULLIFY A FAST & MAKE EXPIATION & REDEEMING NECESSARY

We must know first that if fast is invalidated, who is liable to make an expiation and when it becomes necessary. It becomes necessary when the person fasting is sensible and adult;

- The fast concerns the month of Ramadan and is observed in Ramadan itself, meaning that expiation does not become necessary on the redeeming fasts of R madan,
- He must have formed the intention (before dawn) in the night but if it was formed after dawn then expiation will not be necessary on breaking the fast before the lawful time to end it;

- Nothing should have happened after ending the fast before time as makes expiation necessary like onset of menses or lochia, and these will be explained later;
- Nothing must have transpired even before ending the fast as does not make expiation legal or necessary like undertaking a journey on beginning which one may and his fast without being called upon to make an expiation unless if he ends his fast before setting on a journey.

Hence, if all these conditions are found and one of the following nullifiers or fast occurs then expiation and redeeming of fast will become necessary they are:

- Having sexual intercourse of indulging in homosexuality in which cases both parties the perpetrator ad on whom it is perpetrated will be responsible to make expiation and to redeem the fast.
- Eating or drinking whether as nourishment or medicine. The ulama (Scholars) define nourishment as food one desires to eat and the stomach's demand is satisfied, or what corrects the body, or what is eaten customarily.
- Swallowing rain water, hail or snow, row meat, fat dried meat and wheat, but tiny grain of wheat inserted in the mouth where it spreads will not call for expiation.
- Swallowing the spit of one's wife or beloved because it is a desire, but not spit of any one else in which case only the fast is invalidated, and expiation does not become necessary but fast will have to be redeemed.
- Little quantity of salt calls for expiation but not large quantity. However, it is written in Khulasah and Bazariyah that the reliable and acceptable opinion is that expiation become necessary whatever the quantity of salt eaten.
- Expiation will not be called for on eating undissolved barley because raw barley is not eaten normally if it is dry. But if it is eaten from a fresh bunch even without dissolving it then expiation will be binding
- Armenian bole if it is eaten customarily, but if it is not normally consumed expiation will not be necessary
- According to a hadith (الغيبة تفطر الصيام) (backbiting nullifies fast). The ulama (Scholars) interpret it to mean that if one who fasts indulges in backbiting then he deprives himself of his reward.
- However, if anyone backbites someone and afterwards deliberately eats food then he is liable to make an expiation whether he knew the hadith or not, knew the foregoing interpretation or not knew the jurist's edict that an expiation is liable, or does not know because, the hadith aside, it is contrary to deduction that fast is nullified after backbiting.
- There is another hadith (افطر الحاجم والمحجوم) (The one who cups and the one who is cupped have nullified their fast). If one who fasts has himself cupped, he is likely to suffer weakness and may lose much blood, so might have to break his fast before time. The one who cups might swallow some drops of blood. Hence, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم stated so as a cautionary measure otherwise cupping does not nullify the fast.
- If anyone cups or is cupped and is aware of this hadith so eats or drinks on the assumption that his fast is nullified then only if he is aware of the foregoing interpretation, he will have to make an expiation. It will also be liable on him if he learns of jurist's edict that his fast is nullified on cupping or having oneself cupped, though the edict is against facts and the responsibility will rest on the jurists. If this person did not know the interpretation of the hadith then he will not be liable to make an expiation. The rulings for the previous hadith about backbiting and this one about cupping are different because in the former case it is contrary to reasoning that a fast should be nullified on backbiting and the ulama (Scholars) are unanimous about the ruling, while it is not contrary to reason that a fast might be nullified on cupping and moreover the ulama (Scholars) are not unanimous on its interpretation. Some like Imam Awza'I رحمه الله go by the literal meaning of the hadith.

- If a man is sensually excited and touches a woman, or kisses her, or sleeps with her, or acts in decently with her but there is no ejaculation, or he applies collyrium or has a vein burst or commits an unnatural at with an animal but has no ejaculation, or he inserts his finger in his back and assumes that his fast is nullified so deliberately eats and drinks something then an expiation will become necessary only when a jurist has ruled that in these cases the fast is nullified, though his edict will be erroneous. If the jurist does not issue an edict to the effect, expiation will not be necessary, because a fast is not invalidated by the aforementioned things.
- Expiation will be wajib (obligatory) on a woman who while fasting has sexual intercourse willingly and with desire with a man who is compelled to have the sexual intercourse. The expiation will be wajib (obligatory) only on the woman and not on the man.
- If a woman knows that dawn has risen but does not disclose it to her husband and persuades him to have sexual intercourse with her without his knowing that dawn has spread, then an expiation will be binding only on the woman and not on the man.

WHEN EXPIATION IS WAIVED

- A woman deliberately ate food or had sexual intercourse willingly (while fasting, so expiation became due on her) but during the course of the day, she had her menses. So, the responsibility to make an expiation ceases from her.
- Someone fell ill or suffered a hardship due to which it is permitted not to fast and the illness or suffering is natural, so the expiation liable on him will be waived.
- The condition of that being natural is applied because he might have broken his fast deliberately and then wounded himself to by pass the expiation. Clearly, this kind of suffering is created by himself (and expiation will not be waived). However, the ulama (Scholars) are divided on this issue. Some agree that expiation will be waived while other say that it will stand and not be waived. Kamal says that the expiation will not be waived and this is correct opinion.
- It is stated in Jama ul Uloom that if anyone (fasting) exerts himself too much by walking along distance or toiling heavily so that he feels thirsty in an unbearable manner and he drinks water and breaks the fast, an expiation becomes necessary. Some scholars, however, say that expiation need not be made. Baqai has opted for this opinion as stated in Tatar khaniyah.

RULINGS ABOUT EXPIATION

- The expiation for a fast is to set free a slave, even a (non Muslim) disbelieving slave. If one is unable to do that for want of sufficient means or non-availability of slaves, then he must fast for two months, which means sixty days, successively without break, that being wajib (obligatory). These fasts must be continuous and on such days on which the eed or the days of tashriq do not fall. (The days of tashriq are the 11th, 12th and 13th of Dhul Hijjah). It is allowed to fast on these days whatever the kind of fast. If he misses a fast before completing the sixty for a valid reason or without reason, then he will have to begin all over again. Those days on which he had fasted before the interruption will not be reckoned at all. The only exception is the woman who gets her menses while keeping these fasts. She will resume the count after her menses are over. But, if a woman has to interrupt because she has post natal bleeding then she will have to begin all over again.

- If anyone is sick or inform and very old and cannot fast for sixty days, then it is wajib (obligatory) for him to feed sixty needy people twice to a full stomach. He may feed them on the same day morning and evening, or on two days in the morning, or on two days in the evening, or at the time of isha and pre-dawn. However, it is a pre-requisite that he must feed the same needy people, whom he had fed the first time, again on the next time. If he feeds one set of people at one time and another set a second time, that will not do. He will have to feed one of these two groups a second time for his expiation to be valid of course, if he feeds, only needy person for sixty days continuously, then his expiation will have been discharged and he may even feed a new needy person every day for there is no harm in that.
- If he gives sadaqah on a single day to a single person equivalent to feeding sixty needy people, or a little less then that, then it will not count for every one but will be deemed to have been paid to only one person.
- It is enough to feed the sixty needy people only wheat bread without any accompaniment like gravy. But barley bread cannot be fed without gravy.

Moreover, it is a prerequisite that all the sixty people fed must really be hungry. Even if one of them is not hungry and does not eat like a hungry person then in his place another hungry person will have to be fed.

- An alternative is to give to every needy person half sa (1kg 633 grams) wheat or its flour or its parched meal. Or, they may be given one sa' barley or grapes or dates on their value in rupees. All these people may be given at one time or at different times.
- If anyone deliberately has sexual intercourse (many times) or eats deliberately (many times), and thus nullified many fasts, then only one expiation is enough provided he has not nullified any fast after making an expiation. For instance, having paid towards an expiation for ten fasts that he had broken deliberately, he again breaks one fast or two,he will have to make another expiation.
- The fast that he nullifies may not necessarily be of only one may not necessarily be of only one Ramadan. They may be spread over more than a single Ramadan. This is the correct ruling as stated in Dur Mukhtar. However, some authorities say that a separate expiation need be made for each Ramadan. This is what Fatawa Alamgiri prefers.

WHEN ONLY REDEEMING IS ENOUGH & EXPIATION IS NOT CALLED FOR

The general rule is that if a fast is invalidated with something that normally is not nourishment, or because of a (Shariah (divine law)) permitted excuse to eat or inject something, or indulging in sex but not obtaining complete sexual relief – then in these cases expiation is not necessary but only the fasts) must be redeemed.

- If one who is fasting eats uncooked rice, or dry or kneaded flour than his fast will break and he will have to redeem it.
- If anyone kneads flour of barley or wheat in water and sprinkles some sugar on the preparation and eats it then he will be bound to make an expiation for his broken fast.
- If someone eats or swallows such things as are not normally eaten, remembering all the while that he is fasting, then expiation is not wajib (obligatory) but he will only have to redeem his fast. Examples of such eaten things are: American bole, dust, mud, seed, cotton, swab, one's own saliva that has caught the colour of silk etc. other examples are paper, raw fruit, shell of apricot, iron gold, silver, precious stone.
- If anyone has enema injected, pours drops of medicine in his nose, keeps medicine in his mouth some of which dribbles down his throat or applies oil to his ear, then in these cases his fast must be redeemed, expiation is not wajib (obligatory).
- There are conflicting views on pouring water in the ear, on purpose. 'Hidayah,' Durr Mukhtar, Multaqi and 'Sharh Wiqayah' and many others rule that the fast is not voided in this case. But, 'Qadi Khan and Eath Qadeer'; write that the correct verdict is that the fast is nullified and it will be necessary to redeem it.
- In the following cases, only the fast should be redeemed and there will be no expiation to make.
  - medicine is applied to a wound in the stomach and it goes into it,
  - or, to a wound on the head and it creeps into the brain,
  - rain water or ice goes into the throat and is swallowed accidentally.
  - Fast is broken by mistake while rinsing mouth or sniffing of water which goes drown the throat,
  - Someone compels to break fast, say by having sexual intercourse, either wife or husband compelling the other, but in this case, the one who compels will have to make an expiation to alongwith redeeming the fast while the one who is compelled will have to redeem the fast as wajib (obligatory) and not make an expiation.
- If a female slave fear that she would fall ill and breaks her fast then she will have to redeem it.
- Also, if a female slave breaks her fast when she feels weakness because of her work of cooking or washing garments, then it is wajib (obligatory) on her to redeem the fast. However, it must be borne in mind that if her master assigns her such work as might preclude her from discharging her duty (fard (compulsory)) then she must refuse to obey him.
- If any one pours water in the mouth of a fasting one while he is asleep, or the fasting one himself drinks water during his sleep, his fast is invalidated and it will be wajib (obligatory) on him to redeem the fast. This case cannot be likened to eating or drinking out of forgetfulness. The same rule applies here as to slaughtering by one who is sleep or one whose senses take leave of him. For, it is not lawful to eat what they slaughter. But, if anyone forgets to say Bismillah while slaughtering then it is allowed to eat what he slaughters. The same ruling applies here: if anyone forgets and eats or drinks then his fast remains intact but if he eats or drink while he is asleep then his fast will break.

- In these cases, only fast will be redeemed and expiation is not binding:
    - anyone forgets that he is fasting and eats after which he continues to eat deliberately.
    - he has sexual intercourse through forgetfulness but afterwards he has it again deliberately,
    - he forms an intention to fast during the day but then deliberately eats or has sexual intercourse,
    - he forms intention in the night to fast and in the morning he sat out on a journey and then decided to reside there and ate something though it was not allowed to him to break his fast,
    - he forms an intention in the night to fast and was a resident in the morning and later embarked on a journey so become a traveller and, during his journey, he intentionally ate or had sexual intercourse though he was not permitted in this situation to break his fast.

In the forging the condition of travel is mentioned because if anyone who begins a journey remembers something and returns home to collect it and before resuming his journey he deliberately eats at his home, native city and dwellings then redeeming the fast and expiation for that will be binding on him.

- he abstains from food and drink and everything that is disallowed while fasting but he did neither form the intention to fast nor had iftar,
- he had the predawn meal or had sexual intercourse though he had doubts about dawn having risen and, in fact, dawn had risen,
- he presumed that the sun had set and had iftar though the sun had not set till then,

- in all these cases, only fast will be redeemed and no expiation will be necessary. As for anyone presuming that the sun had set and it had not set but he had his iftar, here are differing opinions on the expiation being necessary. The jurist Abu Ja'far رحمه الله said that expiation is necessary in this case. If anyone presumes that the sun has not set, yet he has iftar and, indeed, the sun has not set, then expiation will be binding on him.
- If anyone commits an unnatural act with an animal or a corpse and experiences ejaculation, or discharges semen by rubbing at anyone's navel or hand, or ejaculates on touching or kissing someone, or breaks a redeeming fast of Ramadan.
    - in all these cases, only fast will be wajib (obligatory) but only the fast will have to be redeemed.
- If anyone copulates with a fasting woman who is asleep, her fast is nullified and she will have to redeem it but no expiation will be binding on her.
- A woman forms an intention in the night to fast but in the morning she loses her sanity and some man has sexual intercourse with her. She will have to redeem her fast.
- If a woman puts water or medicine into her vagina, or someone inserts into his anus his finger moistened with oil or water, or someone makes istinja in such a way that water goes up to his anus though this is less likely, or he overdoes the intinja so that water seeps into his penis deep inside - then in al these cases it is wajib (obligatory) to redeem the fast.
- If anyone has piles and the swelling tissues protrude and he washes them, so as long they do not revert inside before drying, the fast will not break. However, should they revert inside before drying, water will go inside and the fast will become void.

- If a woman moists her finger with oil or water and inserts it in her vagina, or anyone inserts cotton, cloth or pebble in his (or her) anus or the woman in her vagina and they disappear inside, the fast will be void and will have to be redeemed. But, if one end of these things remains in the hand outside) or they reach only to the external portion of the vagina then the fast will not be void.
- If anyone swallows a thread holding one of its ends in his hand with which he pulls it out, then his fast remains intact. But, if he swallows it all then his fast will break and he will have to redeem it.
- If anyone intentionally inhales smoke into his brains or belly then expiation will become necessary. The some applies to the fumes of cigarette, etc.
- If anyone vomits deliberately even less than a mouthful then his fast will be void and he will have to redeem it. But, the preferred opinion is what Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله holds that if the vomit is not a mouthful then his fast will remain valid and he will not have to redeem it. This is a correct verdict.
- The fast will be invalid in all the following cases and will have to redeemed:
  - Someone vomited involuntarily a mouthful and swallows it,
  - Eats what was stuck to his teeth and was the size of a gram of larger,
  - Fails to form an intention in the night and even during the day and eats something forgetfully and then formed the intention.
- If one who fasts loses consciousness and even if he remains unconscious for a month he will have top redeem it, the fast but not of that particular day on which or on whose night he lost consciousness because he might have formed an intention in the night so that fast would be counted. After that day till he remained unconscious the fasts due will have to be redeemed.
- If anyone remains insane all though Ramadan then he is not bound to redeem the fasts, but if he was not insane for the whole month then he will have to redeem.
- If he suffered insanity in such a way that he regained sanity by day or after the time of forming intention was over then will be deemed to be insane and that command will apply to him and he will not be required to redeem the fasts.
- If anyone fails to form an intention to fast in Ramadan and eats during the day. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that the expiation will not be wajib (obligatory), but his two companions said that expiation will be wajib (obligatory).
- If someone's fast is invalidated for some reason, then he must respect the month of Ramadan and abstain from eating, drinking and whatever is forbidden to a fasting one.
- In the same way, the woman who begin the day with her menses but becomes pure in the course of the day must observe the same restrictions as one who fasts does.
- The same applies to a traveller who ends his journey and becomes a resident somewhere the sick person who recovers, the insane who regains sanity, a minor who attains puberty (adulthood) and a disbeliever who embraces Islam. All of them will have to respect the month of fasting and observe the restrictions. All of them will have to redeem the fast of this day, except the last two who are not required to redeem and fast.

The woman who experiences menstruation or post natal bleeding, the sick person and the traveller, are not required to abstain from food and drink. However, they are bound to eat and drink in private out of the view of the people's sight.

WHAT IS MAKRUH (UNBECOMING) &NOT MAKRUH (UNBECOMING) & WHAT IS MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE): If one who is fasting tastes something (and spits it out) without a cogent reason, then it is makruh (disapproved) for him. But, if he has an excuse for it then it is not makruh (disapproved) for instance, if anyone buys some eatables and is not sure if it is of proper standard then he is allowed to taste it and it is not makruh (disapproved).

It is stated in fatawa Nasfi that if a woman's husband is very particular about food ad loses his temper if the taste is not up to the mark then she is allowed to taste the food that the cooks. But, it he is considerate and well-mannered then she is not allowed to taste the food. The same applies to a female slave and the servants responsible for cooking.

It is makruh (disapproved) to chew anything for no reason. If a woman has a little child who must be given chewed food then she should try to get it done by a menstruating woman or some children who care not fasting. It she finds no one to do that for her, then it is not makruh (disapproved) to chew food herself before feeding the little child.

While fasting, it is makruh (disapproved) to chew mastic, both for men and woman. Even while he is not fasting, mastic is makruh (disapproved) for man unless there is an excuse for it and it is chewed in private. However, some people do say it is allowed to men to chew mastic and it is mustahab (desirable) for woman because they may use it instead of miswak.

It is makruh (disapproved) while fasting to kiss and embrace woman if there is a likelihood of it leading to ejaculation or sexual intercourse, otherwise it is not makruh (disapproved).

It is makruh (disapproved) to deliberately collect saliva in the mouth and then swallow it.

It is also makruh (disapproved) for the fasting one to do such things as cause weakness like having a vein opened. When there is no likelihood of that causing weakness then it is not makruh (disapproved).

It is not makruh (disapproved) while fasting to apply collyrium to apply oil to the moustaches, and to use the siwak even after zawal whether it is fresh or moistened.

It is not makruh (disapproved) to rinse the mouth and sniff water even while not making ablution . To have a both or wrap a moistened towel round to cool oneself is also not makruh (disapproved). It is mustahab (desirable) for one who fasts to:

have the predawn meal, have it as late as possible within lawful time, have iftar at its lawful time and make hast for it when the sky is not overcast, when the weather is cloudy delay the iftar by a couple of minutes.

WHEN IS IT PERMITTED NOT TO FAST

It is permitted not to fast in any of the ten cases:

(i) Illness.
(ii) travel
(iii) compulsion,
(iv) pregnancy,
(v) suckling.
(vi) hunger,
(vii) thirst,
(viii) decrepitude,
(ix) menstruation, and
(x) post natal bleeding.

They are explained in the following lines

(i) ILLNESS: If fasting might cause are to suffer from an illness or cause the illness he is afflicted with to grow one should desist from fasting. Also, if fasting could delay recovery then too one must not fast because that might prove destructive. The illness could be of any kind from headache to snake bite. Even if after one has begun to fast and the symptoms appear one should break the fast.

The ulama (Scholars) say that a warrior is allowed to not fast is fighting was likely to be hampered by weakness through fasting. It is allowed to not fast him whether he is a traveller or a resident

The ulama (Scholars) also say that a person who runs fever on alternate days may not fast on the day he is likely to get fever. Then it does not matter even if he is sound on that day, no expiation is wajib (obligatory). But, according to fatawa Alamgiri, expiation will be wajib (obligatory) in either case.

Similarly it, on 30th Ramadan, people hear drums or other announcements and presume that the announcement is for eed and they break their fast, only to learn that the announcement was about something else, then they will not have to make an expiation.

(ii) TRAVEL: It is allowed to go without fast during a journey whether it is a lawful journey and even if it is easy on a conveyance or otherwise. However, it is mustahab (desirable) to fast when the journey is not difficult, provided all his companions are fasting and their expenses are not borne together in a pool. If all one's co-travellers are not fasting and their expenses are from one pool then it is better not to fast. In this way the whole group will be alike.

If anyone embarks on a journey before dawn and so qualifies as a traveller, he is permitted to not fast. But, if he begins his fast and sets on his journey after down then it is not allowed to him to not fast. However, anyone who falls ill and begins his journey after dawn then he is allowed to not fast. In each case, expiation will not be necessary only redeeming the fast is wajib (obligatory) whether he breaks his fast during the journey because of an illness of otherwise.

(iii) COMPULSION: Shari'ah (divine law) permits a person, who is compelled not to fast or to break his fast, to skip the fast. For instance, someone may overpower a person who is fasting and insert something in his mouth, or he may force him on threat of death, or severe beating, or cutting off of a limb. In these cases, this person is allowed to break his fast or to not fast.

(iv) PREGNANCY: If a pregnant woman apprehends that she might suffer mental or physical weakness to a great extent or the unborn child might suffer loss of life or become weak, if she fasts, then she is allowed to not fast.

(v) SUCKLING: A woman who breast feeds her own child or another's against wages or out of goodwill, is allowed to not fast if fasting could prove detrimental to her or to the infant. Those who say that suckling here refers to the suckling by a wet nurse only are wrong. The hadith is clear that it could be any woman: the mother or a wet nurse. The words of the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying are:

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَضَعَ عَنِ الْمُسَافِرِ الصَّوْمَ وَشَطْرَ الصَّلٰوةِ وَعَنِ الْحُبْلٰى وَالْمُرْضِعِ الصَّوْمَ

"Surely Allah has forgiven fasting and half of the salah (prayer) to the traveller, and fasting to the pregnant woman and to the woman who suckles."

Moreover a mother has more right to it than a wet nurse because it is not wajib (obligatory) on a wet nurse to suckle anyone else's child. She does it on wages. On the other hand, it is wajib (obligatory) on a mother to feed her infant.

A woman who suckles may take medicine and go without fasting. She and the pregnant woman are allowed to forgo fasting on the advice of a pious Muslim doctor or on their fast experience in this regard that fasting could be harmful to them or their child.

(vi) & (vii) HUNGER & THIRST: If a person who is fasting is liable to die or suffer brain damage or lose consciousness because of hunger and thirst then he may not fast and, if he is already fasting, he may break his fast. He will not have to make an expiation but will have to redeem his fast. However, the condition applies that he must not have brought that out on himself. Through unnecessary strenuous exertion, like running long distances, etc, for, it is breaks his fast in such cases then he will be liable to make an expiation, though some scholars have ruled out an expiation.

Ali ibn Ahmad رحمه الله was asked about labourers who have to toil to make a living for themselves and their families what if fasting could make them ill if they continued to toil. He forbid them to work if that could not be done with fasting, but they could not forgo fasting. However, the correct ruling is that they must work to earn a living for a day and rest and the other half, but must not give up fasting, if they apprehend physical or mental illness.

(viii) DECREPITUDE: A man or a woman who is very old and infirm is allowed to go without fasting. They are ones in their final stage of life and are utterly helpless to discharge their fard (compulsory), and their physical strength erodes day by day. They have lost all hope of ever being able to fast again.

(ix) & (x) MENSTRUATION & POST NATAL BLEEDING: A woman who goes through menstruation or bleeding after child birth (or hemorrhage) may also not fast.

FIDYAH (REDEMPTION)* (REDEMPTION): In the foregoing cases, only the old, infirm, decrepit man and woman are permitted to pay fidyah (redemption) (a redemption or compensation) for not fasting Apart from them, payment of fidyah (redemption) is also allowed to a person who had vowed to keep fasts perpetually but is unable to maintain his vow. He may pay fidyah (redemption) every day. As for all the others who have one or more excuses, when their handicap is over they will have to redeem the fast, and payment of fidyah (redemption) will not absolve them of their obligation to fast. This is why if anyone with one of the foregoing excuses dies while he is handicapped, it is not wajib (obligatory) for him to leave instructions for the fidyah (redemption) to be paid for the fasts he has missed because of his handicap, nor is it wajib (obligatory) on his heirs to pay the fidyah (redemption) whatever the handicap; illness, travel etc any of the ten mentioned in the foregoing lines. However if anyone dies after the handicap was over and he was able to fast but he did not redeem the fasts, it was binding on him to leave behind instruction for the fidyah (redemption) to be paid.

If an old, infirm person died during journey then it will not be necessary to pay fidyah (redemption) for the days on which he was traveling. It is with everyone who dies while on a journey that the fasts during the journey are forgiven to him. So, it is with the old man.

If anyone who is bound to pay the fidyah (redemption) cannot pay it then the final course for him is that he should seek forgiveness from Allah. There is every hope that the most forgoing will forgive him.

AMOUNT OF FIDYAH (REDEMPTION): The fidyah (redemption) payable against each fast is half a sa (or 633 kg) wheat or its value. Either this payment be made every day or a hungry person may be fed two times as in the case of expiation. As against this, sadaqat ul fitr must be paid with transfer of ownership like zakah (Annual due charity). It must be understood that the word sadaqah that is used with the word (طعام الطعام) (to feed, food) embraces transfer of ownership and permission (to use), but the word sadaqah used with the word (ایتاء ادا) (to give) requires transfer of ownership compulsorily, but more permission to use is absolutely disallowed.

REDEEMING MISSED FASTS: It is not necessary to redeem the missed fasts in succession, but it certainly is mustahab (desirable) to keep them is quick succession to get over a wajib (obligatory) duty as soon as possible. Similarly, if anyone's preclusion or handicap is removed, then he must begin to redeem the fast forthwith. Delaying them is not proper, though it is not necessary to begin them immediately the reason for missing them is over. One has choice to redeem them when he likes. It is also not necessary to observe the sequence and even before one begins to redeem one's missed fasts, one may keep the freshly due current fasts.

KINDS OF FASTS: There are thirteen kinds of fasts defined in Shari'ah (divine law) seven of them have to be kept one after the other in succession. They are:

(i) The fasts of the month of Ramadan.
(ii) The fasts of expiation of zihar.
(iii) The fasts of expiation of murder.
(iv) The fasts of expiation of ooth.
(v) The fasts of expiation of deliberately broken fasts of Ramadan.
(vi) The fasts of vow that is specific.
(vii) The fasts of wajib I'tikaf (obligatory seclusion).

The six other kinds may be kept at the discretion of the person responsible for them: in succession or at intervals. They are:

(i) Optional fasts.
(ii) Redeeming fasts of Ramadan
(iii) Fasts of Muta'h (meaning Hajj (pilgrimage) tomattu)
(iv) Fasts of fidyah (redemption) halq (shaving the head of the pilgrim who had assumed the ihram).
(v) Fast of jaza 'eed
(vi) Fasts of vows (general).

As for optional fasts, it is not allowed to break them without any reason. They become wajib (obligatory) once the intention is formed and one begins an optional fast. Hence, if it is nullified, it becomes wajib (obligatory) to redeem it, except on five days. They are the two days of eed ul fitr and adduha and three days of tshriq (11th, 12th and 13th of Dhul Hijjah). It is forbidden to keep fast on these days, so if anyone begins a fast that is simply not wajb, it will not be wajib (obligatory) to redeem it.

If anyone vows to fast on these five days, or on every days of the year, then he must not fast on these days, but he may redeem them on some other days.

CHILDREN: When a child is strong enough to fast, he must be encouraged to fast. When he is ten years old, he must be compelled to fast if he does not it voluntarily. It is like the command of salah (prayer).

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

FALSEHOOD, VAIN TALK, ETC ARE CONTRARY TO FASTING

(١٩٩٩) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَّمْ يَدَعْ قَوْلَ الزُّوْرِ وَالْعَمَلَ بِهٖ فَلَيْسَ لِلّٰهِ حَاجَةٌ فِيْ اَنْ يَّدَعَ طَعَامَهٗ وَشَرَابَهٗ (رواه البخارى)

1999. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone (who is fasting) does not give up false hood and (evil) deeds conforming to it, then Allah has no need of his giving up his food and his drink."[1]

COMMENTARY: Falsehood and evil deeds conforming to it one things that are sinful spoken with one's tongue. They include words of disbelief, false testimony, foregoing lies, backbiting and so on.

The true objective of fasting is a abandon one's base desires and subject one's evil inciting soul' (nafs ammara) to the pleasure of Allah. If this cannot be achieved then there is no point in fasting.

Allah has no need of such a fast. So, He does not accept it.

The Shaykhs say that fasting is of three kinds: of the common man abstains from food, drink and sexual intercourse. The other kind is of the selected ones who keep all limbs away from whatever is forbidden, makruh (unbecoming), desires and pleasures, and even from such permissible things that are contrary to humility and giving up one's desires. The third kind is of the cream of the selected ones who abstain from everything but truth and do not even turn to anything other then Truth.

KISSING & TOUCHING WHILE FASTING

(٢٠٠٠) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُقَبِّلُ وَيُبَاشِرُ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ وَكَانَ اَمْلَكَكُمْ لِاَرَبِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

2000. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم would kiss and embrace (his wives) while fasting. He had more control over his desire than all of you."[2]

COMMENTARY: According to the Hanafis it is Makruh (unbecoming) for the common man to kiss or embrace one's wife while fasting if he could be led to indulge in sexual intercourse. If there is no fear of that, then it is not makruh (unbecoming).

FASTING INTENTION WHEN SEXUALLY DEFILED

(٢٠٠١) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُدْرِكُهُ الْفَجْرُ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ وَهُوَ جُنُبٌ مِنْ غَيْرِ حُلُمٍ فَيَغْتَسِلُ وَيَصُوْمُ (متفق عليه)

2001. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that (it happened sometimes that) Allah's

Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم would be defiled sexually at dawn in Ramadan and not because of a dream He would have a bath and fast.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم found dawn while he was sexually defiled because of sexual intercourse. He began his fast in that condition and then had a purifying bath. Thus, it is not necessary to have bath before dawn to purify oneself. Rather, one may form an intention to fast and have a bath later.

Since this is a voluntary act and one is allowed to begin the fast though impure, it is more correct to follow this procedure after a wet-dream because that condition is involuntary. In fact, even if one gets a wet dream while fasting, the fast will not be impaired.

The Prophet عليه السلام never had a wet dream because it is caused by the devil from whom they are safe.

CUPPING WHILE FASTING

(٢٠٠٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ إِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِحْتَجَمَ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ وَاحْتَجَمَ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ (متفق عليه)

2002. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had himself cupped while he had assumed the ihram and while he was fasting.[2]

COMMENTARY: Shaykh Juzri رحمه الله explained the hadith that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was fasting while he was in the state of ihram. He deduced this from the hadith of Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه in Abu Dawud (# 2373) which says so:

إِنَّهُ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِحْتَجَمَ هُوَ صَائِمًا مُّحْرِمًا

(The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had himself cupped while he had assumed the ihram and was fasting.)

Mazhar رحمه الله said that it is allowed to have oneself cupped when one is in a state of ihram provided no hair is pulled out or broken. Abu Hanifah رحمه الله. Shafi رحمه الله and Maalik رحمه الله have ruled so but Imam Ahmad رحمه الله ruled that the fast of the cupper and one who is cupped is nullified but an expiation is not wajib (obligatory).

EATING FORGETFULLY IS FORGIVEN

(٢٠٠٣) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ نَسِيَ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ فَأَكَلَ أَوْشَرِبَ فَلْيُتِمَّ صَوْمَهُ فَإِنَّمَا أَطْعَمَهُ اللّٰهُ وَسَقَاهُ (متفق عليه)

2003. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone who is fasting eats or drinks forgetfully, let him complete his fast. It is only Allah who feeds him and gives him to drink."[3]

COMMENTARY: This command applies to all kinds of fast. All the imam give their ruling, accordingly. However, Imam Maalik رحمه الله said that if this happens in Ramadan then the fast

According to Hidayah, if this relaxation is for eating or drinking then the same is available for having a sexual intercourse forgetfully. It will not cause a dent on fasting.

GIVING EXPIATION TO FAMILY MEMBERS

(۲۰۰٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ بَيْنَمَا نَحْنُ جُلُوْسٌ عِنْدَالنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذْجَاءَهُ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ
هَلَكْتُ قَالَ مَالَكَ قَالَ وَقَعْتُ عَلَى امْرَأَتِيْ وَاَنَاصَائِمٌ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلْ تَجِدُ رَقَبَةً
تُعْتِقُهَا قَالَ لَا قَالَ فَهَلْ تَسْتَطِيْعُ اَنْ تَصُوْمَ شَهْرَيْنِ مُتَتَابِعَيْنِ قَالَ لَا قَالَ هَلْ تَجِدُ اِطْعَامَ سِتِّيْنَ مِسْكِيْنًا

بِعَرَقٍ فِيْهِ تَمْرٌ وَالْعَرَقُ الْمِكْتَلُ الضَّخْمُ قَالَ اَيْنَ السَّائِلُ قَالَ اَنَا قَالَ خُذْ هٰذَا فَتَصَدَّقْ بِهٖ فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ اَعَلَى
اَفْقَرَ مِنِّيْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَوَاللّٰهِ مَا بَيْنَ لَابَتَيْهَا يُرِيْدُ الْحَرَّتَيْنِ اَهْلُ بَيْتٍ اَفْقَرُ مِنْ اَهْلِ بَيْتِيْ فَضَحِكَ النَّبِيُّ
صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى بَدَتْ اَنْيَابُهٗ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَطْعِمْهُ اَهْلَكَ (متفق عليه)

2004. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that they were sitting with the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when a man met him and complained, "O Messenger of Allah, I am ruined." (His name was Salamah ibn Fakhr ul Ansari al Biyadi). He asked "What is it with you?" He said, "I went to my wife (and had sexual intercourse with her) while I was fasting." So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "Do you have a slave to set free?" He said, "No!" He asked, "Can you fast two months consecutively?" He answered, "No!" He asked, "Can you feed sixty poor people?" He said, "No!" So, he said, "Sit down." The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم waited for some time during whifh an 'araq of dates was brought to him, an "araq being a huge basket. He asked, "Where the man with the request?" He said, "Here am I!" He said, "Take it and disburse it as sadaqah." The man asked, "O Messenger of Allah, shall I give it to one who is poorer than I am? By Allah, there is not between the two sides of Madinah a family poorer then mine." He meant the two mountains (to the east and west of Madinah). The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم laughted till his eye-teeth were visible. Then he said, "Feed it to your family."[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone nullifies a fast of Ramadan in the very month of Ramadan deliberately by eating, drinking or having sexual intercourse then expiation is wajib (obligatory) on him. It is discharged in the same sequence as stated in the hadith.
The ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone gives away the expiation binding on him to his family the that is not legally discharged. As for this man in the hadith, the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم permission to him was exclusive and his expiation was properly discharged in the view of most of the ulama (Scholars). It is not allowed to any one else.
Some ulama (Scholars) say that his expiation remained payable by him. The person liable to make an expiation must have with him enough after feeding himself and his family, otherwise it remains due on him, payable whenever he is in a position to pay it.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that this was t he procedure earlier but was abrogated later on. Now, the expiation cannot be used on one's own family.

SECTION II ٱلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

SUCKING WIFE'S TONGUE WHILE FASTING

(٢٠٠٥) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُقَبِّلُهَا وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ وَيَمُصُّ لِسَانَهَا (رواه ابوداؤد)

2005. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم used to kiss her while he was fasting and would suck her tongue.[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith is weak and all the ulama (Scholars) hold that one's fast is nullified is spit of anyone else if sucked. So, even if this hadith is regarded to be sahih then it will be presumed that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم spat the saliva after sucking the tongue of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنه. He did not swallow it.

EMBRACING

(٢٠٠٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا سَأَلَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الْمُبَاشَرَةِ لِلصَّائِمِ فَرَخَّصَ لَهُ وَأَتَاهُ آخَرُ فَسَأَلَهُ فَنَهَاهُ وَإِذَا الَّذِي رَخَّصَ لَهُ شَيْخٌ وَإِذَا الَّذِي نَهَاهُ شَابٌّ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2006. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that a man asked the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم if a man who is fasting could embrace his wife. He gave him permission (to do so). Then another man came to him and asked him (the same thing) but he disallowed him (to do so). The man whom he had given permission was an old man and he whom he had disallowed was a young man.[2]

COMMENTARY: The old man was less likely to succumb to his instinct while the same thing might not be said of the youth.
The ulama (Scholars) differ on whether the disallowance to the youth was of the category of nahi tahrimi or nahi tanzihi (almost unlawful or nearer lawful).

VOMITING INVOLUNTARILY

(٢٠٠٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ ذَرَعَهُ الْقَيْءُ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ فَلَيْسَ عَلَيْهِ قَضَاءٌ وَمَنِ اسْتَقَاءَ عَمَدًا فَلْيَقْضِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَأَبُوْ دَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ لَا نَعْرِفُهُ إِلَّا مِنْ حَدِيْثِ عِيْسَى بْنِ يُوْنُسَ وَقَالَ مُحَمَّدٌ يَعْنِي الْبُخَارِيَّ لَا أَرَاهُ مَحْفُوْظًا

2007. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He who vomits uncontrollably while fasting is not bound to make amends (with a redeeming fast). But, he who vomits deliberately is bound to redeem his fast."[3]

COMMENTARY: If anyone vomits intentionally knowing that he is fasting then his fast is nullified and it is wajib (obligatory) on him to redeem his fast. If he vomits intentionally not remembering his fast then it is not wajib (obligatory) on him to redeem the fast. However, this issue has been discussed threadbare in the introduction to this chapter (iv) 'keeping the fast perfect' so the relative portion may be studied there.

(٢٠٠٨) وَعَنْ مَعْدَانَ ابْنِ طَلْحَةَ اَنَّ اَبَاالدَّرْدَاء حَدَّثَهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَاء فَاَفْطَرَ قَالَ فَلَقِيْتُ ثَوْبَانَ فِيْ مَسْجِدِ دِمَشْقَ فَقُلْتُ اِنَّ اَبَاالدَّرْدَاء حَدَّثَنِيْ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَاء فَاَفْطَرَ قَالَ صَدَقَ وَاَنَا صَبَبْتُ لَهُ وَضُوْءهُ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والدارمی)

2008. Sayyiduna Ma'dan ibn Talhah رحمه الله reported that Sayyiduan Abu Darda رضی الله عنه narrated to him that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had vomited (while fasting, once). So, he broke his fast. Ma'dan reported further that he met Sayyiduna Thawban رضی الله عنه in the mosque of Damascus and told him that Abu Darda had narrated to him the hadith that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had vomited and had broken his fast. Thawban رضی الله عنه confirmed that Abu Darda رضی الله عنه has spoken the truth and that he himself (Thawban) رضی الله عنه was t he one who had poured out water for the Prophet Muhammad's صلی الله علیه وسلم ablution.[1]

COMMENTARY: For some reason the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم vomited deliberately and broke his fast otherwise, he had never broken a fast even an optional. So, there must have been a reason, for, Allah says:

لَا تُبْطِلُوْا اَعْمَالَكُمْ

{and do not make your deeds rain} (47:33)

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله deduce from the final words of the hadith that ablution is nullified by vomiting. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and other scholars hold that vomiting does not negate ablution. They say that reference to ablution in the hadith implies rinsing the mouth and washing the face.

SIWAK MAY BE USED

(٢٠٠٩) وَعَنْ عَامِرِ بْنِ رَبِيْعَةَ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَالَا اُحْصِيْ يَتَسَوَّكُ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد)

2009. Sayyiduna Aamir ibn Rabi'ah رضی الله عنه said, "I have seen the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم use the siwak while he was fasting an uncountable number of times."[2]

COMMENTARY: There are many other ahadith on this subject in the MIrqat.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله say that any kind of siwak may be used at any time while fasting. However, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله says that it is makruh (unbecoming) to use fresh and moist siwak while fasting and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله says that it is makruh (unbecoming) to use siwak after zawal.

APPLYING COLLYRIUM

(٢٠١٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ جَاء رَجُلٌ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اُشْتُكِيَتْ عَيْنِيْ اَفَاَكْتَحِلُ وَاَنَا صَائِمٌ

2010. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and said, "I have a complaint in my eyes. May I apply collyrium (to them) while I am fasting?" He said, "Yes."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is not makruh (unbecoming) to apply collyrium to the eyes while fasting even if it leaves a taste in the throat. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ gave ruling accordingly but Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ, Ishaq رحمہ اللہ and Sufyan رحمہ اللہ ruled that it is makruh (unbecoming) to do so. Some people report that Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ also said that it is makruh (unbecoming), but others say that he said that it is not makruh (unbecoming) to apply it.

MAY POUR WATER OVER HEAD

(٢٠١١) وَعَنْ بَعْضِ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْعَرْجِ يَصُبُّ عَلَى رَأْسِهِ الْمَاءَ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ مِنَ الْعَطَشِ أَوْ مِنَ الْحَرِّ (رواه مالك و ابوداؤد)

2011. One of the sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہم of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I had seen the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in al 'Arj pour water over his head while he was fasting to alleviate thirst or to mitigate (the severity of) heat."[2]

(٢٠١٢) وَعَنْ شَدَّادِ بْنِ أَوْسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَتَى رَجُلًا بِالْبَقِيعِ وَهُوَ يَحْتَجِمُ وَهُوَ آخِذٌ بِيَدِي لِثَمَانِي عَشْرَةَ خَلَتْ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ فَقَالَ أَفْطَرَ الْحَاجِمُ وَالْمَحْجُومُ۔ رَوَاهُ أَبُودَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ قَالَ الشَّيْخُ الْإِمَامُ مُحْيِ السُّنَّةِ رَحْمَةُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهِ وَتَأَوَّلَهُ بَعْضُ مَنْ رَخَّصَ فِي الْحِجَامَةِ أَيْ تَعَرَّضَا لِلْإِفْطَارِ الْمَحْجُومُ لِلضُّعْفِ وَالْحَاجِمُ لِأَنَّهُ لَا يَأْمَنُ مِنْ أَنْ يَصِلَ شَيْءٌ إِلَى جَوْفِهِ بِمَصِّ الْمَلَازِمِ

2012. Sayyiduna Shaddad ibn Aws رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was walking with me hand in hand on 18th Ramadan when he came upon a man in al-Baqi who was being cupped. He said, 'He who cups and he who is being cupped have broken their fast." Shaykh Muhyi us Sunnah said that those who say that cupping is allowed interpret the hadith to imply that these people were likely to break their fast. The one who was being cupped could become weak and the one who cupped could inhale or suck blood into his stomach.[3]

COMMENTARY: Most of the ulama (Scholars) say that there is risk of the one who cups and one who is cupped breaking their fast. The hadith of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ also testifies that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had himself cupped (# 2002).

Imam Abu Hanifah, رحمہ اللہ Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ also ruled according to Shaykh Muhiyus sunnah's interpretation. The fast could be in danger of being nullified. Some people say that it is makruh (unbecoming) to cup and have oneself cupped. Some others say that it applies only to those two people because during the process of cupping they also engaged in backbiting. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said that t hey risked their fast because he saw them backbiting thus warning them.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that the command was valid earlier but was abrogated later.

OMITTING TO FAST UNNECESSARILY

(٢٠١٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَفْطَرَ يَوْمًا مِنْ رَمَضَانَ مِنْ غَيْرِ رُخْصَةٍ وَلَا مَرَضٍ لَمْ يَقْضِ عَنْهُ صَوْمُ الدَّهْرِ كُلِّهِ وَاِنْ صَامَهُ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَالْبُخَارِيُّ فِيْ تَرْجَمَةِ بَابٍ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ سَمِعْتُ مُحَمَّدًا يَعْنِي الْبُخَارِيَّ يَقُوْلُ اَبُو الْمُطَوِّسِ الرَّاوِيْ لَا اَعْرِفُ لَهٗ غَيْرَ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثِ

2013. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone purposefully omits to fast any day in Ramadan without excuse or without illness, then even if he observes a perpetual fast it will not make amends for it."[1]

Tirmidhi cited Bukhari as saying that Abul Mutawwis was known to him to have transmitted only this hadith.

COMMENTARY: Omitting to fast without an excuse means that there is no relaxation in Shari'ah (divine law) to skip the fast but he does not observe it. Shari'ah (divine law) excuses a traveller, for instance. The introduction to this chapter (iv) elaborates on this question.

This hadith actually emphasizes the importance of a fast in Ramadan. The reward of each fast is such that fasting of a life-time would not match it. Apart from that, as far as rules are concerned, if anyone omits a fast of Ramadan, then one redeeming fast will make amends for it. And, if anyone omits a fast deliberately then he can make amends for it by fasting for two months consecutively.

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that the apparent meaning of the hadith is that even a life times's fasting will not at one for a fast of Ramadan deliberately omitted. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه went by the literal meaning of the hadith. Best most of the sahabah (companions) رضی الله عنهم and the ulama (Scholars) hold that a fast omitted in Ramadan may be redeemed by a fast any time other than Ramadan. It does not matter that the attaining fast is of a shorter duration then the missed fast.

Salah (prayer) also falls in the same category. If a salah (prayer) is missed then it may be redeemed later. There is no difference in the Command applied to the two. Rather, salah (prayer) is superior to fasting.

SOULLESS WORSHIP

(٢٠١٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَمْ مِنْ صَائِمٍ لَيْسَ لَهٗ مِنْ صِيَامِهٖ اِلَّا الظَّمَأُ وَكَمْ مِنْ قَائِمٍ لَيْسَ لَهٗ مِنْ قِيَامِهٖ اِلَّا السَّهَرُ۔ رَوَاهُ الدَّارِمِيُّ وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ لَقِيْطِ بْنِ صَبِرَةَ فِيْ بَابِ سُنَنِ الْوُضُوْءِ

2014. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم

said, "For many of those who fast there is nothing in their fasting but thirst. And, for many of those who stand in worship during the night there is nothing in their standing but sleeplessness."[1]

COMMENTARY: The meaning is that sincere intention and concentration are important. The aim should be to obtain Allah's pleasure. If not, then the worship lacks soul and is meaningless.

The hadith of Sayyiduna Laqit ibn Sabirah رضی اللہ عنہ has been reproduced in the chapter on the sunnah of ablution (# 405)

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

CUPPING VOMIT & NOCTURNAL DREAM DO NOT NULLIFY THE FAST

(۲۰۱۵) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثٌ لَا يُفَطِّرْنَ الصَّائِمَ الْحِجَامَةُ وَالْقَيْءُ وَالْإِحْتِلَامُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَيْرُ مَحْفُوْظٍ وَعَبْدُ الرَّحْمٰنِ ابْنُ زَيْدٍ الرَّاوِيُّ يُضَعَّفُ فِي الْحَدِيْثِ

2015. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-KHudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Three things do not nullify the fast of one who is fasting. They are: cupping, vomiting and nocturnal dream."[2]

The hadith is also transmitted by Daraqutni, Bayhaqi and Abu Dawud whose transmission is more sound.

(۲۰۱٦) وَعَنْ ثَابِتٍ الْبُنَانِيِّ قَالَ سُئِلَ أَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ كُنْتُمْ تَكْرَهُوْنَ الْحِجَامَةَ لِلصَّائِمِ عَلٰى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا إِلَّا مِنْ أَجْلِ الضُّعْفِ (رواه البخارى)

2016. Sayyiduna Thabit al Bunami رحمہ اللہ narrated that Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ was asked, "Did you people disapproved of cupping for one who was fasting during the time of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم?" He said, "No (we did not find it wrong) unless it caused weakness."[3]

COMMENTARY: They did not think of it as a nullifier of fasts. Rather, they disliked it if it brought about weakness and had a harmful effect on fasting.

(۲۰۱۷) وَعَنِ الْبُخَارِيِّ تَعْلِيْقًا قَالَ كَانَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ يَحْتَجِمُ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ ثُمَّ تَرَكَهُ فَكَانَ يَحْتَجِمُ بِاللَّيْلِ

2017. Imam Bukhari رحمہ اللہ reported as a chapter heading (without a full line of transmission) that Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to have himself cupped while he fasted. Then he gave it up to have himself cupped at night.[4]

COMMENTARY: Bukhari رحمہ اللہ transmitted some ahadith without mentioning its chain of narrators. Such ahadith are said to transmitted ta'liq (تعلیقا)

SWALLOWING MOISTNESS AFTER RINSING MOUTH

(٢٠١٨) وَعَنْ عَطَاءٍ قَالَ إِنْ مَضْمَضَ ثُمَّ أَفْرَغَ مَا فِي فِيهِ مِنَ الْمَاءِ لَا يَضُرُّهُ أَنْ يَزْدَرِدَ رِيقَهُ وَمَا بَقِيَ فِي فِيهِ وَلَا يَمْضَغُ الْعِلْكَ فَإِنِ ازْدَرَدَ رِيقَ الْعِلْكِ لَا أَقُولُ إِنَّهُ يُفْطِرُ وَلَكِنْ يُنْهَى عَنْهُ. رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ فِي تَرْجَمَةِ بَابٍ

2018. Sayyiduna Ata رحمه الله said that if one (who is fasting) rinses his mouth and ejects the water in his mouth. Swallowing his own saliva with what remains in his mouth (of the rinsing), it does not harm his fast. But, he should not chew gum. Though it may not nullify his fast if he swallows the saliva that the gum grows, yet it is disallowed. [1]

COMMENTARY: Al'ilk is a gum based medicine for the teeth. The prohibition to chew it is of the kind of tanzihi. The ulama (Scholars) say that it is makruh (unbecoming) to chew anything while fasting unless done to put it in a child's mouth.

However, as long as gum, etc. is chewed and no part of it is gulped down the throat, it is merely makruh (unbecoming), but the moment apiece of it goes down the throat, the fast is nullified.

If anyone puts coloured thread in his mouth and its colour transfers to his saliva and he swallows it, then his fast is nullified. If the colour does not dominate the saliva then the fast will not nullify.

CHAPTER - V

THE TRAVELLER'S FAST

بَابُ صَوْمِ الْمُسَافِرِ

Those ahadith will be reproduced in this chapter that reflect on the commands and rulings for a traveller's fast. Is it allowed to fast while travelling? Is it better for a traveler to fast or not?

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْأَوَّلُ

ALLOWED TO FAST & NOT TO FAST DURING JOURNEY

(٢٠١٩) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ حَمْزَةَ بْنَ عَمْرٍو الْأَسْلَمِيَّ قَالَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَصُومُ فِي السَّفَرِ وَكَانَ كَثِيرَ الصِّيَامِ فَقَالَ إِنْ شِئْتَ فَصُمْ وَإِنْ شِئْتَ فَأَفْطِرْ (متفق عليه)

2019. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that (Sayyiduna) Hamzah ibn Amr al Aslami رضی الله عنه asked the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, "May I fast during a journey?" And, he used to fast very often. He said, "If you wish, to fast and if you wish, go without fasting." [2]

COMMENTARY: A journey may be strenuous or convenient, the traveller may or may not fast. But, it is better to fast if the journey is not difficult and better not to fast if it is strenuous.

Moreover, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that this applies to all kinds of journeys; permissible or of disobedience and sin.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله said that the permission not to fast is valid only if the journey is for a pious and lawful purpose. If it is undertaken for an evil or sinful purpose then it is not allowed to go without fast of Ramadan.

(٢٠٢٠) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ غَزَوْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِسِتَّ عَشْرَةَ مَضَتْ مِنْ شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ فَمِنَّا مَنْ صَامَ وَمِنَّا مَنْ اَفْطَرَ فَلَمْ يَعِبِ الصَّائِمُ عَلَى الْمُفْطِرِ وَلَا الْمُفْطِرُ عَلَى الصَّائِمِ (رواه مسلم)

2020. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-KHudri رضی الله عنه narrated that they set out on an expedition with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم on 16th Ramadan. Some of them did fast and some of them did not fast. Neither did those who fasted pick fault with those who did not fast, nor did those who did not fast find fault with those who fasted. [1]

WHEN WEAK, TRAVELLER SHOULD NOT FAST

(٢٠٢١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ سَفَرٍ فَرَاٰى زِحَامًا وَرَجُلًا قَدْ ظُلِّلَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ مَا هٰذَا قَالُوا صَائِمٌ فَقَالَ لَيْسَ مِنَ الْبِرِّ الصَّوْمُ فِي السَّفَرِ (متفق علیه)

2021. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that on a journey Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم observed a crowd around a man who was being given shade. He asked, "What is this?" They told him that there was a man who was fasting (and had become weak). He said, "It is not piety that one should fast during a journey."[2]

(٢٠٢٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي السَّفَرِ فَمِنَّا الصَّائِمُ وَمِنَّا الْمُفْطِرُ فَنَزَلْنَا مَنْزِلًا فِيْ يَوْمٍ حَارٍّ فَسَقَطَ الصَّوَّامُوْنَ وَقَامَ الْمُفْطِرُوْنَ فَضَرَبُوا الْاَبْنِيَةَ وَسَقَوُا الرِّكَابَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَهَبَ الْمُفْطِرُوْنَ الْيَوْمَ بِالْاَجْرِ (متفق علیه)

2022. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that they were on a journey with the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. Some of them were fasting and some of them were not fasting. They halted at a place on a hot day, so those who had fasted fell down (and were unable to help in any kind of work), but those who not fasted rose actively and pitched tents and watered the riding beasts. Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم remarked, "Those who are not fasting have outstripped (the others) today with reward."[3]

COMMENTARY: The word 'today' stresses that those who had not fasted earned reward for being of service of those who had fasted. It is not a general ruling for always.

DURING JOURNEY FAST MAY BE GIVEN UP

(٢٠٢٣-٢٠٢٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ خَرَجَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ اِلٰى مَكَّةَ فَصَامَ حَتّٰى بَلَغَ عُسْفَانَ ثُمَّ دَعَا بِمَاءٍ فَرَفَعَهُ اِلٰى يَدِهٖ لِيَرَاهُ النَّاسُ فَاَفْطَرَ حَتّٰى قَدِمَ مَكَّةَ وَذٰلِكَ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ فَكَانَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ يَقُوْلُ قَدْ صَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَفْطَرَ فَمَنْ شَاءَ صَامَ وَمَنْ شَاءَ اَفْطَرَ. مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ عَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّهٗ شَرِبَ بَعْدَ الْعَصْرِ

2023. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set out (in the year of the conquest) from Madinah to travel to Makkah. He fasted till he came to 'usfan where he called for water and raised it for the people to see it and broke his fast till he came to Makkah. That was in Ramadan. So, Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ used to say, "Indeed, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did fast and broke it. Hence, he who wishes may fast and he who wishes may break the fast."[1]

2024. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he drank after the salah (prayer) of asr.[2]

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِیْ

FAST FORGIVEN DURING JOURNEY

(٢٠٢٥) عَنْ اَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ الْكَعْبِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَضَعَ عَنِ الْمُسَافِرِ شَطْرَ الصَّلٰوةِ وَالصَّوْمَ عَنِ الْمُسَافِرِ وَعَنِ الْمُرْضِعِ وَالْحُبْلٰى (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة)

2025. Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik al Ka'bi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah has forgiven the traveller half of the salah (prayer), and to the traveller, the woman who suckles and infant and the woman who is pregnant, (He has forgiven) fasting.[3]

COMMENTARY: The traveller will offer two raka'at salah (prayer) instead of four. He will not have to redeem the two raka'at later on.

Fasting is not wajib (obligatory) during a journey but after accomplishing it, the traveller must redeem it at home. The same applies to the two women. Fidyah (redemption) is not wajib (obligatory) according to Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ but Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Ahmad رحمہ اللہ say that fidyah (redemption) is wajib (obligatory) on them for not fasting.

IF IT IS CONVENIENT THEN MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE) TO FAST

(٢٠٢٦) وَعَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ الْمُحَبَّقِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَ لَهٗ حَمُوْلَةٌ تَأْوِيْ اِلٰى شِبَعٍ فَلْيَصُمْ رَمَضَانَ حَيْثُ اَدْرَكَهٗ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2026. Sayyiduna Salamah ibn Muhabbiq رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a person (traveller) has a riding beast that will take him to where it is easy and comfortable for him (to get ample provision, etc) then he should fast wherever he is when Ramadan comes to him."[4]

COMMENTARY: This command is of the kind of mustahab (desirable) and more excellent, otherwise all the ulama (Scholars) say that it is allowed not to fast during a journey. The journey may be very easy and comfortable to the extreme. Besides, this hadith is weak.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم DISPLEASURE AT THOSE WHO CONTINUED TO FAST IN THE JOURNEY

(٢٠٢٧) عَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ عَامَ الْفَتْحِ اِلٰى مَكَّةَ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ فَصَامَ حَتّٰى

2027. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set out for Makkah in Ramadan in the year of conquest (of Makkah). He was fasting till he came to Kura' al-Ghanim (between Makkah and Madinah near Usfan). The people were also fasting with him. Then he called for a bowl of water and raised it for the people to see and drank it. He was told later that some of the man had continued to fast. He said, "They are sinners! They are sinners!"[1]

FASTING DURING JOURNEY IS LIKE NOT FASTING WHILE AT HOME

(٢٠٢٨) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَائِمُ رَمَضَانَ فِي السَّفَرِ كَالْمُفْطِرِ فِي الْحَضَرِ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2028. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who fasts in Ramadan while travelling is like him who does not fast while he is a resident (meaning, not travelling)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that either this hadith is abrogated or refers to a strenuous journey in which there is risk of death of one who is fasting.

BETTER NOT TO FAST IN JOURNEY

(٢٠٢٩) وَعَنْ حَمْزَةَ بْنِ عَمْرٍو الْأَسْلَمِيِّ أَنَّهُ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنِّي أَجِدُ بِي قُوَّةً عَلَى الصِّيَامِ فِي السَّفَرِ فَهَلْ عَلَيَّ جُنَاحٌ قَالَ هِيَ رُخْصَةٌ مِنَ اللّٰهِ عَزَّوَجَلَّ فَمَنْ أَخَذَ بِهَا فَحَسَنٌ وَمَنْ أَحَبَّ أَنْ يَصُوْمَ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْهِ (رواه مسلم)

2029. Sayyiduna Hamzah ibn Amr al-Aslami رضی اللہ عنہ is reported to have said, "O Messenger of Allah, I find in myself strength to fast during a journey. Would it be sinful for me (if I fast)?" He said, "This is a concession from Allah, Mighty and Glorious. He who seizes it, has done well. And, he who likes to fast then there is no sin on him."[3]

COMMENTARY: Clearly, it is better not to fast during a journey.

CHAPTER - IV

AL-QADA (OR, REDEEMING THE MISSED) باب القضاء

There are three possibilities of not fasting or fasting and breaking it before its time.

(i) If it is broken by mistake, then neither is an expiation wajib (obligatory) nor is it not necessary to redeem it.

(ii) If a fast is broken deliberately for no reason whatsoever then an expiation is wajib (obligatory).

(iii) If a fast is missed or broken for some reason, like illness or journey or any other, hen it is wajib (obligatory) to redeem it.

The rules and manners of redeeming fasts are mentioned in this chapter. This refers to redeeming to fasts of Ramadan.

SECTION I الفصل الأول

REDEEMED FASTS OF SAYYIDAH AYSHAH رضي الله عنها

(٢٠٣٠) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ يَكُونُ عَلَيَّ الصَّوْمُ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ فَمَا أَسْتَطِيعُ أَنْ أَقْضِيَ إِلَّا فِي شَعْبَانَ قَالَ يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ تَعْنِي الشُّغْلُ مِنَ النَّبِيِّ أَوْ بِالنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ (متفق عليه)

2030. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that she had some fasts of Ramadan to be redeemed but she could not redeem them except in Sha'ban.
Yahya ibn Sa'eed that she meant to say that her occupation in the service of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did not allow her to redeem them earlier.[1]

COMMENTARY: She get time to redeem the fasts she missed in Ramadan because of the days of menstruation only in Sha'ban when the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم himself fasted often.

OPTIONAL FASTS ONLY WITH HUSBAND'S PERMISSION

(٢٠٣١) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَحِلُّ لِلْمَرْأَةِ أَنْ تَصُومَ وَزَوْجُهَا شَاهِدٌ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِهِ وَلَا تَأْذَنَ فِي بَيْتِهِ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِهِ (رواه مسلم)

2031. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "It is not allowed to be woman to fast (the optional fasts) while her husband is present without his permission. Also, must not allow anyone to enter his house without his permission."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith contradicts the contention of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله that a woman may fast on the day of Arafah and of Aashurah without her husband's permission. Unless she known that her husband will consent, she must not allow anyone in his house not even her relative, male or female.

REDEEM FASTS BUT NOT SALAH (PRAYER)

(٢٠٣٢) وَعَنْ مُعَاذَةَ الْعَدَوِيَّةِ أَنَّهَا قَالَتْ لِعَائِشَةَ مَابَالُ الْحَائِضِ تَقْضِي الصَّوْمَ وَلَا تَقْضِي الصَّلٰوةَ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ كَانَ يُصِيبُنَا ذٰلِكَ فَنُؤْمَرُ بِقَضَاءِ الصَّوْمِ وَلَا نُؤْمَرُ بِقَضَاءِ الصَّلٰوةِ (رواه مسلم)

2032. Sayyidah Mu'adhah Adawiyah رحمه الله (whose kuniyah was Umm as-Sahaba and who was great tabi'i) is reported to have asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه, "Why is it that a menstruating woman must redeem her fast but not the salah (prayer)?" Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "When it afflicted us (in the time of the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم, we were commanded to redeem the fast but were not commanded to redeem the salah (prayer)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها did not venture to give her the reason but simply said that they were commanded and servitude demands obedience. One must not try to probe the reason for an instruction. She could have said that if salah (prayer) were to be redeemed women would have found that very difficult to follow, because very many salah (prayer) are missed during the days of menstruation. As for fasting, that will have to redeemed only after a year for a few days.

PENDING FASTS OF THE DEED

(٢٠٣٣) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ مَاتَ وَعَلَيْهِ صَوْمٌ صَامَ عَنْهُ وَلِيُّهُ (متفق عليه)

2033. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone dies with some fasts due on him, then his heirs must fast on his behalf" (meaning they should pay the fidyah (redemption)).[2]

COMMENTARY: Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and most of the ulama (Scholars) hold that no one should fast on behalf of another. Rather, the heirs must give fidyah (redemption) tone poor person against each of his fasts. They say that 'must fast on his behalf' means 'must give fidyah (redemption) for him,' that being in lieu of fasting.

Imam Ahmad رحمه الله, however, says that the heirs must fast on behalf of the dead. He goes by the literal meaning of the hadith.

A hadith (# 2035) disallows that one may fast on behalf of a dead person.

The Hanafi ruling is that if the dead person had left instructions for fidyah (redemption) to be paid, then it is wajib (obligatory) on the heirs to pay it provided it can be paid from the one-third property of the dead person. If it is more than that, then the heirs are not bound to pay that amount in excess of one third. If they do pay it, then not only is it allowed but it is also a gesture of kindness towards the dead. However, the issue is subject to the dead person being liable to observe the fast (s) and being able to redeem them before his death. If he was unable to redeem them, then no fidyah (redemption) is payable for them nor is the deed guilty of sin for missed fasts. However, Tawus رحمه الله and Qatadah رحمه الله hold that redeeming and fidyah (redemption) of those fasts is also necessary before being able to redeem which he died.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله ruled that whether the dead person leaves instructions or not, it is necessary to pay fidyah (redemption) for the fasts he missed from his total property (before disbursement).

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

(٢٠٣٤) عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ مَاتَ وَعَلَيْهِ صِيَامُ شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ فَلْيُطْعَمْ عَنْهُ مَكَانَ كُلِّ يَوْمٍ مِسْكِيْنٌ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ وَالصَّحِيْحُ اَنَّهُ مَوْقُوْفٌ عَلَى ابْنِ عُمَرَ

2034. Sayyiduna Nafi رحمه الله narrated from Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone dies while fasts of the month of Ramadan are due on him, then against every day a poor man must be fed on his behalf."[1]
Tirmidhi said that it is mawquf at Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه.

COMMENTARY: To feed a poor man against every (missed) fast is the equivalent 1.75 seers of wheat, or 3.5 seers of barley, or its value. The same quantity makes up the fidyah (redemption) of the salah (prayer). Against every missed salah (prayer) this fidyah (redemption) is payable.
Though this h adith is mawquf, the command is from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه may have heard it from the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم because no sahabi رضى الله عنه can convey such a command of Shari'ah (divine law) on his own.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

SALAH (PRAYER) & FASTING CANNOT BE OBSERVED FOR ANOTHER

(٢٠٣٥) عَنْ مَالِكٍ بَلَغَهُ اَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ يُسْئَلُ هَلْ يَصُوْمُ اَحَدٌ عَنْ اَحَدٍ اَوْيُصَلِّي اَحَدٌ عَنْ اَحَدٍ فَقَالَ لَا يَصُوْمُ اَحَدٌ عَنْ اَحَدٍ وَلَا يُصَلِّي اَحَدٌ عَنْ اَحَدٍ(رواه في الموطا)

2035. (Sayyiduna) Imam Maalik رحمه الله is reported to have learnt that Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه was asked whether anyone may fast for another person or offer salah (prayer) for another. He said, "No one may fast on behalf of another person. And no one may offer salah (prayer) on behalf of another person.[2]

COMMENTARY: This is the ruling of the Imam Maalik رحمه الله, Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Shafi'i رحمه الله. It is not proper to observe fasting and salah (prayer) for another person to absolve him of his obligation. However, the Hanafis say that it is allowed to a person to consign reward of his worship to another person.

CHAPTER - VII

SUPEREROGATORY FASTS بَابُ صِيَامِ التَّطَوُّعِ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRACTICE

(٢٠٣٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَصُوْمُ حَتّٰى نَقُوْلَ لَا يُفْطِرُ وَيُفْطِرُ حَتّٰى نَقُوْلَ لَا يَصُوْمُ وَمَا رَاَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِسْتَكْمَلَ صِيَامَ شَهْرٍ قَطُّ اِلَّا رَمَضَانَ وَمَا

[1] Tirmidhi # 718, Ibn Majah # 1757.
[2] Muwatta # 43 (Siyam).

رَأَيْتُهُ فِيْ شَهْرٍ أَكْثَرَ مِنْهُ صِيَامًا فِيْ شَعْبَانَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَتْ كَانَ يَصُوْمُ شَعْبَانَ كُلَّهُ وَكَانَ يَصُوْمُ شَعْبَانَ إِلَّا قَلِيْلًا(متفق عليه)

2036. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated: "When Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم began to fast (the optional), we presumed that he would never stop fasting, and when he did not fast, we imagined that he would never again fast. I never saw Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم fast all through a month except in Ramadan, and never did I see him fast for a many days in a month as he did in Sha'ban." (That is, apart from Ramadan).
According to another version: She said, "He fasted all through Sha'ban (meaning) he fasted all, but a little of Sha'ban."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم fasted most of Sha'ban. Some people interpret the words to mean that he fasted for the whole month of Sha'ban one year and most of it the next year.

(۲۰۳۷) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ شَقِيْقٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِعَائِشَةَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَصُوْمُ شَهْرًا كُلَّهُ قَالَتْ مَا عَلِمْتُهُ صَامَ شَهْرًا كُلَّهُ إِلَّا رَمَضَانَ وَلَا أَفْطَرَهُ كُلَّهُ حَتّٰى يَصُوْمَ مِنْهُ حَتّٰى مَضٰى لِسَبِيْلِهِ(رواه مسلم)

2037. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Shaqiq رحمه الله said that he asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها whether the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم fasted a whole month. She said, "I do not know him to have fasted a whole month except Ramadan, and he did not stop fasting for all of a month so that he fasted on some of its days till he departed from this world."[2]

FASTING ON LAST DAYS OF SHA'BAN

(۲۰۳۸) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ سَأَلَهُ أَوْسَأَلَ رَجُلًا وَعِمْرَانُ يَسْمَعُ فَقَالَ يَا أَبَا فُلَانٍ أَمَا صُمْتَ مِنْ سَرَرِ شَعْبَانَ قَالَ لَا قَالَ فَإِذَا أَفْطَرْتَ فَصُمْ يَوْمَيْنِ(متفق عليه)

2038. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم asked him, or asked a man within Imran's رضی الله عنه hearing, "O so-and-so, did you not fast the last days of Sha'ban?" He said, "No." The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When you finish the fasts of Ramadan, you must fast for two days."[3]

COMMENTARY: This man had made a vow to fast on the last two days of every month. Since he could not fast on the last two days of Sha'ban, the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم suggested to him that he should make up for the omission after Ramadan. Some people say that (he had not made a vow but) it was his habit to fast on the last two days of every month.

EXCELLENCE OF OPTIONAL FASTS IN MUHARRUM

(٢٠٣٩) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَیْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَفْضَلُ الصِّیَامِ بَعْدَ رَمَضَانَ شَهْرُ اللّٰهِ الْمُحَرَّمِ وَاَفْضَلُ الصَّلَاةِ بَعْدَ الْفَرِیْضَةِ صَلَاةُ اللَّیْلِ (رواه مسلم)

2039. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "After Ramadan, the best fasts are in Allah's month al-Muharram. And, after the prescribed salah (prayer) is the salah (prayer) of the night (salat ul layl)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Some people say that the fast of Muharram refers to the fast of Aushura 10th of Muharram.

As for the ahadith about fasts in Rajab, some people say that they are forged mostly.

The month of Muharram is described as Allah's month because of its excellence, otherwise all the months are Allah's.

As for the salah (prayer) of the night (the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer))(supererogatory prayer), it is the best of all salah (prayer) after the fard (compulsory) salah (prayer) and sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) (emphasized prophet's practice), or, it is the best because it calls for more effort and is offered in the dark of the night, safe from showing off. The sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) are excellent because they are more stressed and are next to the fard (compulsory) or prescribed salah (prayer).

It must be remembered that witr is also like fard salah (compulsory prayer).

EXCELLENCE OF AASHURA

(٢٠٤٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ مَارَأَیْتُ النَّبِیَّ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ یَتَحَرّٰی صِیَامَ یَوْمٍ فَضَّلَهٗ عَلٰی غَیْرِهٖ اِلَّا هٰذَا الْیَوْمَ یَوْمَ عَاشُوْرَاء وَهٰذَا الشَّهْرَ یَعْنِیْ شَهْرَ رَمَضَانَ (متفق علیه)

2040. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he never observed the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم deciding to fast on any day and regarding it as more excellent than another day, except this day, the day of Aashura, ad this month, the month of Ramadan.[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ perhaps got this impression, otherwise, the day of Arafah and the fast on that day are better then the day of aashura and the fast on it.

THE FAST OF THE DAY OF AASHURA

(٢٠٤١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ حِیْنَ صَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ یَوْمَ عَاشُوْرَاء وَاَمَرَ بِصِیَامِهٖ قَالُوْا یَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّهٗ یَوْمٌ یُعَظِّمُهُ الْیَهُوْدُ وَ النَّصَارٰی فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَئِنْ بَقِیْتُ اِلٰی قَابِلٍ لَاَصُوْمَنَّ التَّاسِعَ (رواه مسلم)

2041. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

fasted on the day of Aashura and commanded (his sahabah) to fast on this day, they said, "O Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم it is a day that is sanctified by the Jews and the Christians." He said, "If I survive till the next year, I shall fast on the ninth."[1]

COMMENTARY: When the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Madinah, he found that the Jews fast ed on the day of aashura. They said that prophet Musa عليه السلام had fasted on this day by way of Thanks giving to Allah for deliverance from Fir'wan(pharoah), so they emulated him. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "We are nearer to Musa عليه السلام than you are. "So, he commanded the sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنهم to fast on this day.

In the beginning this command was wajib (obligatory). Later this become mustahab (desirable). The gives rise to the question whether the fast should be kept on ninth Muharram instead of t he tenth, for the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had said that he would fast on the 9th if he would be alive the following year. The ulama (Scholars) say that this resolve of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم means that it is a sunnah to fast on the ninth of Muharram. Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that it is mustahab (desirable) to fast on the day of aashura and also mustahab (desirable) to fast on the day prior to it or on the day following it. To fast only on the day of aashura is makruh (unbecoming) because it smacks of resembled to the Jews.

FAST ON DAY OF ARAFAH

(٢٠٤٢) وَعَنْ أُمِّ الْفَضْلِ بِنْتِ الْحَارِثِ أَنَّ نَاسًا تَمَارَوْا عِنْدَهَا يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ فِيْ صِيَامِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ هُوَ صَائِمٌ وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ لَيْسَ بِصَائِمٍ فَأَرْسَلَتْ إِلَيْهِ بِقَدَحِ لَبَنٍ وَهُوَ وَاقِفٌ عَلَى بَعِيْرِهِ بِعَرَفَةَ فَشَرِبَهُ (متفق عليه)

2042. Sayyidah Umm al Fadl bint al Harith رضى الله عنه narrated that on the day of Arafah, some people argued in her presence about whether Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was fasting. Some said, "He is fasting." Other said, "He is not fasting." So, she sent to him a bowl of milk while he was observing the wuquf at Arafah on his camel. He drank the milk.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Umm al-Fadl was the wife of Sayyiduna Abbas رضى الله عنه and the aunt of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The hadith shows that it is not masnun to fast on the day of arafah for the pilgrims, but masnun for other people.

FASTING IN FIRST TEN DAYS OF DHUL HIJJAH

(٢٠٤٣) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَارَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَائِمًا فِي الْعَشْرِ قَطُّ (رواه مسلم)

2043. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that that she never saw Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم fast during al-ashr (Arabic) - the first ten days of Dhul Hijjah).[3]

COMMENTARY: There is a hadith that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the reward of fasting on each day of this ashr (except the tenth, from the 1st to the 9th) is equivalent to reward of fasting for one year, and worship in each of its nights is like keeping vigil on the night of power (laylatul qadr). Hence, the ulama (Scholars) explain that Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا has merely said that she had not observed him fast. This does not mean that he had never fasted during these days. Or, perhaps, he had mentioned the excellence of these days but had not himself fasted.

OPTIONAL FASTS

(٢٠٤٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي قَتَادَةَ اَنَّ رَجُلًا اَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ كَيْفَ تَصُوْمُ فَغَضِبَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ قَوْلِهٖ فَلَمَّا رَاٰى عُمَرُ غَضَبَهٗ قَالَ رَضِيْنَا بِاللّٰهِ رَبًّا وَبِالْاِسْلَامِ دِيْنًا وَبِمُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيًّا نَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ غَضَبِ اللّٰهِ وَغَضَبِ رَسُوْلِهٖ فَجَعَلَ عُمَرُ يُرَدِّدُ هٰذَا الْكَلَامَ حَتّٰى سَكَنَ غَضَبُهٗ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ كَيْفَ مَنْ يَصُوْمُ الدَّهْرَ كُلَّهٗ قَالَ لَا صَامَ وَلَا اَفْطَرَ اَوْقَالَ لَمْ يَصُمْ وَلَمْ يُفْطِرْ قَالَ كَيْفَ مَنْ يَصُوْمُ يَوْمَيْنِ وَيُفْطِرُ يَوْمًا قَالَ وَيُطِيْقُ ذٰلِكَ اَحَدٌ قَالَ كَيْفَ مَنْ يَصُوْمُ يَوْمًا وَيُفْطِرُ يَوْمًا قَالَ ذٰلِكَ صَوْمُ دَاوٗدَ قَالَ كَيْفَ مَنْ يَصُوْمُ يَوْمًا وَيُفْطِرُ يَوْمَيْنِ قَالَ وَدِدْتُ اَنِّيْ طُوِّقْتُ ذٰلِكَ ثُمَّ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثٌ مِنْ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ وَرَمَضَانُ اِلٰى رَمَضَانَ فَهٰذَا صِيَامُ الدَّهْرِ كُلِّهٖ- صِيَامُ يَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ اَحْتَسِبُ عَلَى اللّٰهِ اَنْ يُّكَفِّرَ السَّنَةَ الَّتِي قَبْلَهٗ وَالسَّنَةَ الَّتِي بَعْدَهٗ وَصِيَامُ يَوْمِ عَاشُوْرَاءَ اَحْتَسِبُ عَلَى اللّٰهِ اَنْ يُّكَفِّرَ السَّنَةَ الَّتِي قَبْلَهٗ(رواه مسلم)

2044. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and asked. "How do you fast?" Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was displeased at his question. When Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ detected his anger, he said, "We are pleased with Allah as Lord, with Islam as religion and with Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as Prophet. We seek refuge in Allah form the displeasure of Allah and the displeasure of His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم." Umar رضی اللہ عنہ continued to repeat these words till his anger subsided, and asked, "O Messenger of Allah, how is he who fasts perpetually?" He said, "He has neither fasted nor broken his fast." Or he said, "He did not fast and did not break his fast." (The narrator was in doubt concerning the exact words). Then, he asked, "How is he who fasts two days and goes without fasting one day?" the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "Can anyone do it?" Then he asked about one who fasts one day and does not fast the next day, and he said, "That is the fast of Dawud علیہ السلام. "Then, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ asked, "How is he who fasts one day and goes without fast two days?" He said, "I hope that I am given strength to do that." Then Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There (fasts) every month and fasting in Ramadan each year -that is fasting perpetually. The fast of the day of Arafah – I hope from Allah will atone for the sins of the year preceding and the year following. And the fast of the day of Aashura – I hope from Allah will atone for the sins of the year preceding."[1]

COMMENTARY: The men should have asked about himself and how he might fast the optional, not about how the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم fasted. His situation differed much from the others in terms of numbers and wisdom and he did not fast the optional very much because he had to attend to the issues of the Muslims.

A person who fasts perpetually does not really fast because it is not in conformity with Shari'ah (divine law). At the same time, he does not go without fasting because he eats and drinks nothing.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله said, that this applies to one who fasts even on days, like eed, when it is forbidden to fast. If he does not fast on such days then this warning does not fast on such days then this warning does not apply to him. Sayyiduna Abu Talhah Ansari رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Hamzah ibn Amr Aslam رضى الله عنه fasted always excepting the forbidden fasts and the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did not forbid them. Or, the prohibition is because perpetual fasts may cause weakness. If they do not, then it is not disallowed. Ibn Humam said that to fast always is makruh (tanzihi) (disapproved purigation) because it causes weakness. This is also the verdict of fatawa Aalamgiri and Durr Mukhtar.

If anyone can fast two out of three days, then he may do so. Or, it is better to keep such fasts.

As for fasting on alternate days, they are what prophet Dawud عليه السلام fasted and are moderate form of worship. Islam does not go to extremes. The philosophers of Islam have defined the formula that one should engage in seeking knowledge to such an extent that he does not give up performance of deeds. Similarly one should not occupy oneself in deeds till he cannot find time to learn. One should be moderate in both things. The best of every affair is the middle course and the worst is to go to the extremes. Hence:

افضل الصيام صوم داؤد على نبينا وعليه السلام

"The best of (voluntary) fasts is the fast of Prophet Dawud. عليه السلام"

However, the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم wished that Allah should give him strength to fast on one of every three days, but others obligations should not be neglected. In other words, he conceded that he did not possess that much strength. He recommended this form of fasting too though he did not practice it because of lack of strength.

The three fasts every month are on the days of 13th, 14th and 15th. Some people, however, say that this reward is had on fasting on any three days of a month. This seems more correct as may be understood from the hadith (# 2046) of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه.

FASTING ON MONDAY

(٢٠٤٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي قَتَادَةَ قَالَ سُئِلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ صَوْمِ الْاِثْنَيْنِ فَقَالَ فِيْهِ وُلِدْتُّ وَفِيْهِ أُنْزِلَ عَلَيَّ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2045. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked about fasting on Monday. He said, "I was born on this day and the revelation was sent down to me on it."[1]

THREE FASTS EVERY MONTH

(٢٠٤٦) وَعَنْ مُعَاذَةَ الْعَدَوِيَّةِ اَنَّهَا سَاَلَتْ عَائِشَةَ اَكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَصُوْمُ مِنْ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ

[1] Muslim # 198-1162, Musnad Ahmad 5-299.

ثَلَاثَةَ اَيَّامٍ قَالَتْ نَعَمْ فَقُلْتُ لَهَا مِنْ اَيِّ اَيَّامِ الشَّهْرِ كَانَ يَصُوْمُ قَالَتْ لَمْ يَكُنْ يُبَالِيْ مِنْ أَيِّ اَيَّامِ الشَّهْرِ يَصُوْمُ (رواه مسلم)

2046. Sayyidah Mu'adhah al-Adwiyah رضی اللہ عنہ asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ, "Did Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم fast three days every month?" She said "Yes" She asked "On which days of the month did he fast?" She said, "He was not particular about the days of the moth on which he fasted."[1]

COMMENTARY: Thus there is no binding to fast on 13th, 14th, 15th of every month though more ahadith and aather give these dates. Other options also follow.

SITTAH SHAWWAL

(٢٠٤٧) وَعَنْ اَبِي اَيُّوْبَ الْاَنْصَارِيِّ اَنَّهُ حَدَّثَهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ صَامَ رَمَضَانَ ثُمَّ اَتْبَعَهُ سِتًّا مِّنْ شَوَّالٍ كَانَ كَصِيَامِ الدَّهْرِ (رواه مسلم)

2047. Sayyiduna Abu Ayyub Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who fasts during Ramadan and then on six days on Shawwal, that is (for him) like fasting perpetually."[2]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ prefers that these six fasts must be kept from the 2nd Shawwal to the 7th. Imam Abu Hanifah contends that it is better to fast on different days within the month of Shawwal.

DISALLOWED FAST

(٢٠٤٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ صَوْمِ يَوْمِ الْفِطْرِ وَالنَّحْرِ (متفق علیه)

2048. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade fasting on (eed) ul fitr and an-Nahr.[3]

COMMENTARY: An nahr covers all the days of sacrifice and the days of al-tashriq. This is from 10th of Dhul HIjjah to 13th which is four days and one day of eed ul fitr (1st Shawwal). It is forbidden to fast on these five days.

(٢٠٤٩) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا صَوْمَ فِيْ يَوْمَيْنِ الْفِطْرِ وَالْاَضْحٰى (متفق علیه)

(٢٠٥٠) وَعَنْ نُبَيْشَةَ الْهُذَلِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيَّامُ التَّشْرِيْقِ اَيَّامُ اَكْلٍ وَشُرْبٍ وَذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2050. Sayyiduan Nabayshah al-Hudhali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The days of al-tashriq are days of eating, drinking and remembering Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The days of tashriq are the 11th, 12th and 13th of Dhull Hijjah. Here, the word covers the day of eed ul Adha too and it is the real day and these others are auxiliary to it. It is forbidden to fast on these four days (as it is on eed ul fitr).

Ibn Hammanm رحمہ اللہ said that it is makruh (unbecoming) to fast on Nawruz and on Mihrjan (or Mahrajan) because fasting on these days will imply respect for them which Islamic Shari'ah (divine law) forbids. Of course, if anyone is fasting for days and these days happen to come in between then there is no blame on him, he may fast in continuation.

Though the eed days are days of festivity, one must not neglect to remember Allah, referring to وَاذْكُرُوا اللّٰهَ فِيْ اَيَّامٍ مَّعْدُوْدَاتٍ

{And remember Allah during the specified days} (2:203)

Remembrance of Allah also refers to takbir recited during the days of tashriq after each salah (prayer), the takbir while sacrificing the animals and the rami jamarat of these who perform Hajj (pilgrimage).

FASTING ON FRIDAY

(٢٠٥١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَصُوْمُ اَحَدُكُمْ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ اِلَّا اَنْ يَصُوْمَ قَبْلَهٗ اَوْ يَصُوْمَ بَعْدَهٗ (متفق عليه)

2051. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "None of you must fast on Friday, except that he has fasted a day prior to it or will fast on the day following it."[2]

COMMENTARY: The prohibition to fast on Friday alone is nahi tanzihi. Ibn Hammam رحمہ اللہ said that Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and Imam Muhammad رحمہ اللہ did not find harm in fasting on Friday alone.

(٢٠٥٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَخْتَصُّوْا لَيْلَةَ الْجُمُعَةِ بِقِيَامٍ مِنْ بَيْنِ اللَّيَالِيْ وَلَا تَخْتَصُّوْا يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ بِصِيَامٍ مِنْ بَيْنِ الْاَيَّامِ اِلَّا اَنْ يَكُوْنَ فِيْ صَوْمٍ يَصُوْمُهٗ اَحَدُكُمْ (رواه مسلم)

2052. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not set aside the night of Friday Preceding it) specifically for worship and not set aside the day, Friday, specifically for fasting, except that it follows the fast (s) any of you is fasting."[3]

COMMENTARY: The Muslims should not exaggerate the respect of Friday beyond what is assigned to it, like the Jews and Christians who have set aside Saturday and Sunday respectively as exclusively days of worship. A person must occupy in worship all the time. He must hope for Allah's mercy always. It is wrong to engage in worship at a specified time and he neglectful at other times.

If anyone fasts on a certain date regularly and that falls on Friday, then he is not precluded from fasting on Friday by this hadith.
Imam Nawawi رحمه الله said that this hadith clearly forbids that the night preceding Friday should be reserved for the salah (prayer) (of tahajjud (supererogatory prayer)). The ulama (Scholars) have cited this hadith also to declare that salat ur raghaib is a bidah and makruh (unbecoming). It is a salah (prayer) offered by some people exclusively on the night preceding the first Friday of Rajab. The ulama (Scholars) have written exhaustively on the straying of those who have invented this salah (prayer).
Mawlana Ishaq رحمه الله, however, said that he exponents of this hadith have elaborated their points of view. There is no need to do the same for the Hanafis because they do not say that it is makruh (unbecoming) to fast on Friday alone. Fatawa Alamgiri says that it is allowed to do so and Dur Makhtar goes so far as to call it mustahab (desirable). They cite the hadith (# 3058) of Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه Perhaps it is the abrogater of all these ahadith tht seem to say that fasting on Friday is disallowed.

REWARD FOR A FAST FOR ALLAH'S SAKE

(٢٠٥٣) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَامَ يَوْمًا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ بَعَّدَ اللّٰهُ وَجْهَهُ عَنِ النَّارِ سَبْعِيْنَ خَرِيْفًا (متفق عليه)

2053. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khurdri رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone fasts for a day in Allah's path (while engaged in jihad, or merely for Allah's pleasure), then Allah will remove his face (meaning, his person) to a distance of seventy years from hell."[1]

MODERATION IN WORSHIP

(٢٠٥٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا عَبْدَاللّٰهِ أَلَمْ أُخْبَرْ أَنَّكَ تَصُوْمُ النَّهَارَ وَتَقُوْمُ اللَّيْلَ فَقُلْتُ بَلٰى يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ فَلَا تَفْعَلْ صُمْ وَأَفْطِرْ وَقُمْ وَنَمْ فَإِنَّ لِجَسَدِكَ عَلَيْكَ حَقًّا وَإِنَّ لِعَيْنِكَ عَلَيْكَ حَقًّا وَإِنَّ لِزَوْجِكَ عَلَيْكَ حَقًّا وَإِنَّ لِزَوْرِكَ عَلَيْكَ حَقًّا لَا صَامَ مَنْ صَامَ الدَّهْرَ صَوْمُ ثَلَاثَةِ أَيَّامٍ مِنْ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ صَوْمُ الدَّهْرِ كُلِّهٖ صُمْ كُلَّ شَهْرٍ ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ وَاقْرَاءِ الْقُرْاٰنَ فِيْ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ قُلْتُ إِنِّيْ أُطِيْقُ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ قَالَ صُمْ أَفْضَلَ الصَّوْمِ صَوْمَ دَاوٗدَ وَصِيَامُ يَوْمٍ وَإِفْطَارُ يَوْمٍ وَاقْرَأْ فِيْ كُلِّ سَبْعِ لَيَالٍ مَرَّةً وَلَا تَزِدْ عَلٰى ذٰلِكَ (متفق عليه)

2054. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al Aas رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "O Abdullah, have I not been told that you fast during the day and stand in salah (prayer) during the night?" He said, "Yes, O Messenger of Allah." He said, "Do not do so. Fast and go without fasting Stand in salah (prayer) and sleep. Your body has a right over you. Your eyes have a right over you. Your wife has a right over you, and visitor have a right over you. He who fasts perpetually, (really) does not fast, but fasting three days in every month is like a perpetual fast, all of it. Fast three days every month and recite the Quran (from cover to cover) every month." He submitted. "I have strength to do more." So, he said, "Fast the best of fasts, the fast of Dawud عليه السلام, fasting on alternate days, and recite the Quran once every seven night. And, do not go beyond that.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith emphasizes moderation in affairs particularly optional worship. Fasting three days in a month will be equivalent to a months fast at the rate of ten pieties for every one.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

FASTING ON MONDAY & THURSDAY

(٢٠٥٥) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَصُوْمُ الْاِثْنَيْنِ وَالْخَمِيْسَ۔ (رواه الترمذى والنسائى)

2055. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to observe (optional) fasts on Monday and Thursday.[2]

(٢٠٥٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تُعْرَضُ الْاَعْمَالُ يَوْمَ الْاِثْنَيْنِ وَالْخَمِيْسِ فَأُحِبُّ اَنْ يُعْرَضَ عَمَلِيْ وَاَنَا صَائِمٌ (رواه الترمذى)

2056. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, Deeds (of men) are presented (To Allah) on Monday and Thursday. So, I like that mine should be presented while I am fasting."[3]

COMMENTARY: The deeds of the creatures are carried by the angels every morning and evening. Then they are presented to Allah every Thursday and Monday.

FASTING THREE DAYS IN A MONTH

(٢٠٥٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا اَبَا ذَرٍّ اِذَا صُمْتَ مِنَ الشَّهْرِ ثَلَاثَةَ اَيَّامٍ فَصُمْ ثَلَاثَ عَشْرَةَ وَاَرْبَعَ عَشْرَةَ وَخَمْسَ عَشْرَةَ۔ (رواه الترمذى والنسائى)

2057. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said (to him) "O Abu Dharr! If you fast three days in a month, then fast on the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth (of the month)."[4]

COMMENTARY: Of the many ways to observe fasting on three days a month, this is the best. These days are called. Ayyam beed (shining night, silvery night, moonlit).

ALLOWED TO FAST ON FRIDAY

(٢٠٥٨) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَصُوْمُ مِنْ غُرَّةِ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ ثَلَاثَةَ اَيَّامٍ وَقَلَّمَا كَانَ يُفْطِرُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ اِلٰى ثَلٰثَةِ اَيَّامٍ۔

he not fast on Friday.[1]

Abu Dawud has up to 'three days of the month.'

COMMENTARY: The Hanafis cite this hadith to establish that it is allowed to fast on Friday without fasting on the day before or after it.

FASTING ON EVERY DAY OF THE WEEK

(٢٠٥٩) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَت كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَصُوْمُ مِنَ الشَّهْرِ السَّبْتَ وَالْاَحَدَ وَالْاِثْنَيْنِ وَمِنَ الشَّهْرِ الْاٰخَرِ الثُّلَاثَاءِ وَالْاَرْبِعَاءِ وَالْخَمِيْسَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2059. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم fasted one month on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, and next month on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.[2]

COMMENTARY: The previous hadith mentions Friday and this hadith the rest of the days of the week. Thus, he fasted on every day of the week without distinction.

OPTIONAL FASTS FROM MONDAY OR THURSDAY

(٢٠٦٠) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَت كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَأْمُرُنِيْ اَنْ اَصُوْمَ ثَلَاثَةَ اَيَّامٍ مِنْ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ اَوَّلُهَا الْاِثْنَيْنِ وَالْخَمِيْسُ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

2060. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم commended her to fast three days each month beginning on Monday or Thursday.[3]

COMMENTARY: The choice is with the person who fast to commence on Monday or Thursday.

PERPETUAL FASTS DISALLOWED

(٢٠٦١) وَعَنْ مُسْلِمٍ الْقُرَشِيِّ قَالَ سَاَلْتُ اَوْسُئِلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ صِيَامِ الدَّهْرِ فَقَالَ اِنَّ لِاَهْلِكَ عَلَيْكَ حَقًّا صُمْ رَمَضَانَ وَالَّذِيْ يَلِيْهِ وَكُلَّ اَرْبِعَاءَ وَخَمِيْسَ فَاِذَا اَنْتَ قَدْ صُمْتَ الدَّهْرَ كُلَّهُ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی)

2061. Sayyiduna Muslim al-Qurashiy رضی الله عنه said that he asked, or someone else asked, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم about perpetual fasting. He said, "Surely, your family has a right over you. So, fast during Ramadan and the days that follow it (meaning, sitta shawwal), and every Wednesday and Thursday. In that case, you will have fasted fast always – all the time."[4]

MAKRUH (DISAPPROVED) TO FAST AT ARAFAT

(٢٠٦٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ صَوْمِ يَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ بِعَرَفَةَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2062. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade the fasting of the fast of the day of Arafah at Arafah.[5]

COMMENTARY: This prohibition nahi tanzihi in order that the pilgrim might retain strength to be able to perform other deeds at Arafat.

DISALLOWED TO FAST ONLY ON SATURDAY

(٢٠٦٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ بُسْرٍ عَنْ اُخْتِهِ الصَّمَّاءِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَصُوْمُوْا يَوْمَ السَّبْتِ اِلَّا فِيْمَا افْتُرِضَ عَلَيْكُمْ فَاِنْ لَّمْ يَجِدْ اَحَدُكُمْ اِلَّا لِحَاءَ عِنَبَةٍ اَوْ عُوْدَ شَجَرَةٍ فَلْيَمْضَغْهُ۔ (رواه احمد وابوداود والترمذی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2063. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Busr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated on the authority of his sister (Sayyidah) as Samma رضی اللہ عنہ that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not fast on Saturday unless it is made obligatory for you. And, if any of you cannot get anything but a grape skin or piece of wood from a tree, then he must chew it."[1]

COMMENTARY: The fast is disallowed on Saturday to act differently from the Jews who respect this day. If this day coincides with a day on which fasting is obligatory or mustahab (desirable) or sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) then the fast may be observed. If one does not find anything with which to break the fast then he may break it somehow or other.

EXCELLENCE OF FAST FOR ALLAH'S SAKE

(٢٠٦٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي اُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَامَ يَوْمًا فِي سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ جَعَلَ اللّٰهُ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ النَّارِ خَنْدَقًا كَمَا بَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْاَرْضِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2064. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone fasts for a day in Allah's path, Allah will put between him and hell a pit as wide as distance between heaven and earth."[2]

COMMENTARY: In the path of Allah could be jihad, Hajj (pilgrimage) or umrah, or seeking knowledge, or simply to please Allah. Just one day's fast with this objective will get him a tremendous obstruction between him and hell.

FASTING IN WINTER GETS REWARD WITHOUT TOIL

(٢٠٦٥) وَعَنْ عَامِرِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْغَنِيْمَةُ الْبَارِدَةُ الصَّوْمُ فِي الشِّتَاءِ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ

2065. Sayyiduna Aamir ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Fasting in winter is a cold booty (gaining reward without exhaustion).[3]

(٢٠٦٦) وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ مُرْسَلٌ وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ مَا مِنْ اَيَّامٍ اَحَبُّ اِلَى اللّٰهِ فِيْ بَابِ الْاُضْحِيَّةِ

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

WHY FAST OF AASHURA

(٢٠٦٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدِمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ فَوَجَدَ الْيَهُوْدَ صِيَامًا يَوْمَ عَاشُوْرَاءَ فَقَالَ لَهُمْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا هٰذَا الْيَوْمُ الَّذِىْ تَصُوْمُوْنَهٗ فَقَالُوْا هٰذَا يَوْمٌ عَظِيْمٌ اَنْجَى اللّٰهُ فِيْهِ مُوْسٰى وَقَوْمَهٗ وَغَرَّقَ فِرْعَوْنَ وَقَوْمَهٗ فَصَامَهٗ مُوْسٰى شُكْرًا فَنَحْنُ نَصُوْمُهٗ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَنَحْنُ اَحَقُّ وَاَوْلٰى بِمُوْسٰى مِنْكُمْ فَصَامَهٗ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَمَرَ بِصِيَامِهٖ (متفق عليه)

2067. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to Madinah, he found the Jews fasting on the day of aashura. So, he asked them about the peculiarity of the day on which they fasted. They said, "It is a great day. Allah delivered Musa and his people and drowned Fir'awn and his people on it. So, Musa fasted on it to give thanks and we too fast on it." He said, "We have more right (to it) and are nearer to Musa علیہ السلام than you are." So Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم fasted on it and commanded (the sahabah (companions) رضی اللہ عنہم to fast on it.[1]

FASTS ON SATURDAY & SUNDAY

(٢٠٦٨) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَصُوْمُ يَوْمَ السَّبْتِ وَيَوْمَ الْاَحَدِ اَكْثَرَ مَا يَصُوْمُ مِنَ الْاَيَّامِ وَيَقُوْلُ اِنَّهُمَا يَوْمَا عِيْدٍ لِلْمُشْرِكِيْنَ فَاَنَا اُحِبُّ اَنْ اُخَالِفَهُمْ (رواه احمد)

2068. Sayyidah Umm Salamah narrated that to fast on Saturday and Sunday more than he fasted on other days, saying, "These two (days) are eed (days of festival) for the polytheists, and I like to counter them.[2]
(They do not fast on these days).

COMMENTARY: The Jews and Christian are called polytheists because the former say that Prophet Uzayr علیہ السلام is the son of Allah and the latter name Prophet Easa علیہ السلام as his son. Previously the hadith (# 2063) disallows fasting on Saturday. This hadith speaks specifically of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that he did fast on Saturday and Sunday. The previous hadith (2063) speaks of what the umah should not do. Or, we may say that the disallowance is if the fast on these days is kept out of respects for them while it is liked if the polytheists are contradicted by fasting on these days. (In other words, it depends on the intention behind the fasting.)

FASTING ON AASHURA WAS EMPHASIZED BEFORE RAMADAN'S FASTS WERE PRESCRIBED

(٢٠٦٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَأْمُرُ بِصِيَامِ يَوْمِ عَاشُوْرَاءَ وَيَحُثُّنَا عَلَيْهِ وَيَتَعَاهَدُنَا عِنْدَهٗ فَلَمَّا فُرِضَ رَمَضَانُ لَمْ يَأْمُرْنَا وَلَمْ يَنْهَنَا عَنْهُ وَلَمْ يَتَعَاهَدْنَا عِنْدَهٗ (رواه مسلم)

2069. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to command them to fast on the day of aashura and would encourage them to do it, and was watchful over them when the day was on them. However, when (the fasting in) Ramadan was prescribed, he ceased to command or forbid them to fast on the day of aashua and he did not watch over them.[1]

SUNNAH MUWAKKADAH (EMPHASIZED PRACTICE OF HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم) FASTS

(٢٠٧٠) وَعَنْ حَفْصَةَ قَالَتْ اَرْبَعٌ لَمْ يَكُنْ يَدَعُهُنَّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صِيَامُ عَاشُوْرَاءَ وَالْعَشْرِ وَثَلَاثَةِ اَيَّامٍ مِنْ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ وَرَكْعَتَانِ قَبْلَ الْفَجْرِ۔ (رواه النسائی)

2070. Sayyidah Hafsah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم did not neglect four things (they being sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم*)*). They were; fasting on the day of aashura, the ten days of Dhul HIjjah (on the first nine of which he fasted), fasting on three days every month, and offering two raka'at before the fajr (fard (compulsory), the sunnah of fajr).[2]

FASTING IN THE MIDDLE OF THE MONTH

(٢٠٧١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُفْطِرُ اَيَّامَ الْبِيْضِ فِيْ حَضَرٍ وَلَا سَفَرٍ (رواه النسائی)

2071. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم never missed the fasts of the ayyam ul beed whether he was at home or travelling. (Ayyam beed are the 13th, 14th and 15th of each month).[3]

COMMENTARY: Ayyam ul beed are the days whose nights have moonlight almost all through. They are bright and shinning. Or, the days themselves are beed because fasting on them removes the darkness of sin and brightens hearts.

Also, when prophet Aadam علیه السلام was sent down to earth from heaven, his entire body turned black. When his repentance was accepted, he was commanded to fast on these three days. So when he fast ed on the thirteenth, one third of his body became white again. On the fourteenth two thirds of it was white and on the fifteenth all of his body reverted to its original whiteness.

THE SEQUENCE OF THREE FAST S EACH MONTH: As for the three masnun fasts every month, there are twelve combinations for them.

(i) Unspecified dates and may be kept at any dates during the month.
(ii) First three days of the month.
(iii) Any Saturday, Sunday and Monday during the month.
(iv) Any Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday during the month.
(v) On the ayyam ul beed, 13th, 14th and 15th of the month.
(vi) The first of these on Monday and the other two on Tuesday and Wednesday.
(vii) The first on Thursday and the other two on Friday and Saturday.
(viii) The first on the first Monday of the lunar month and the other two on two Thursdays.
(ix) The first on the first Thursday of the lunar month and the other two on two Mondays.

(x) On Monday, Thursday and again next Monday.
(xi) One fast every ten days.
(xii) During the last days of the month.

While one has choice, it is better to fast on the ayyam ul beed (13th, 14th, 15th). Reward will accrue in any case.

FIFTY ONE FASTS: The masnun fasts in the whole year are fifty-one. These three fasts each month come to thirty three (excluding Ramadan), nine of Dhull Hijjah from 1st to 9th, one of the day of aashura, one a day prior to it or a day after it, one on 15th Sha'ban and six in Shawwal called sitta Shawwal.

FASTING IS ZAKAH (ANNUAL DUE CHARITY) OF BODY

(٢٠٧٢) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ زَكَاةٌ وَزَكَاةُ الْجَسَدِ الصَّوْمُ

(رواه ابن ماجة)

2072. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is a zakah (Annual due charity) for everything and the zakah (Annual due charity) of the body is fasting."[1]

COMMENTARY: Zakah (Annual due charity) increases and purifies. The Zakah (Annual due charity) of the body makes it sound and purifies it spiritually. Though fasting seems to weaken the body, yet in reality, it makes it healthy and strong. It also purifies it of sins.

EXCELLENCE OF MONDAY & THURSDAY

(٢٠٧٣) وَعَنْهُ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَصُوْمُ يَوْمَ الْاِثْنَيْنِ وَالْخَمِيْسِ فَقِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ

إِنَّكَ تَصُوْمُ يَوْمَ الْاِثْنَيْنِ وَالْخَمِيْسِ فَقَالَ إِنَّ يَوْمَ الْاِثْنَيْنِ وَالْخَمِيْسِ يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ فِيْهِمَا لِكُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ إِلَّا

ذَا هَاجِرَيْنِ يَقُوْلُ دَعْهُمَا حَتّٰى يَصْطَلِحَا (رواه احمد وابن ماجة)

2073. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to fast on Monday and Thursday. Someone mentioned it to him, "O Messenger of Allah, you do fast on Monday and Thursday." He said, "Surely, on Monday and Thursday, Allah forgives every Muslim except the two who have severed ties of kinship. He says, Leave them alone till they reconcile with one another."[2]

FASTING FOR ALLAH'S PLEASURE

(٢٠٧٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَامَ يَوْمًا ابْتِغَاءَ وَجْهِ اللّٰهِ بَعَّدَهُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ جَهَنَّمَ كَبُعْدِ

غُرَابٍ طَائِرٍ وَهُوَ فَرْخٌ حَتّٰى مَاتَ هَرِمًا۔ رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَرَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ قَيْسٍ

2074. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone fasts for a day seeking to please Allah thereby, then Allah removes him from hell to such a distance as a crow flies from the time it is young till it dies of old age."[3]

[2] Ibn Majah # 1745, Musnad Ahmad 2-229.
[3] Musnad Ahmad 2-526.

2075. Sayyiduna Salamah ibn Qays رضی اللہ عنہ also narrated it.[1]

COMMENTARY: The crow is said to live for thousands of years. Allah will put one who fasts to please him to a distance traversed in that number of years.

Bayhaqi رحمہ اللہ has transmitted a hadith that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The sleep of one who fasts is recorded as worship. His silence is tasbih (glorification of Allah). His deed is multiplied and his prayer is granted and his sins are forgiven.

Bayhaqi رحمہ اللہ has also transmitted that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah said to a Prophet of Banu Isr'ail that he should inform his people, "Whoever fasts to please Allah, He will give strength and health to his body and grant him abundant reward."

Khatib رحمہ اللہ reported that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone observed supererogatory fasts in such a way that no one learn of it, then Allah is pleased with a reward for him that is not short of paradise."

Also, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah has table spread with such bounties as no eye has seen, no ear has heard of and no mind perceived. Only those who fast will sit at that table spread.

CHAPTER - VIII

SUPEREROGATORY FASTS & IFTAR باب

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

INTENTION TO FAST THE OPTIONAL DURING DAYTIME

(٢٠٧٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ دَخَلَ عَلَيَّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ فَقَالَ هَلْ عِنْدَكُمْ شَيْءٌ فَقُلْنَا لَا قَالَ فَإِنِّي إِذًا صَائِمٌ ثُمَّ اَتَانَا يَوْمًا اٰخَرَ فَقُلْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اُهْدِيَ لَنَا حَيْسٌ فَقَالَ اَرِنِيْهِ فَلَقَدْ اَصْبَحْتُ صَائِمًا فَاَكَلَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2076. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to her one day and asked if she had anything (to eat). She said that she had nothing. So, he said, "Then, I shall fast." On another day, when he came, she told him that someone had presented to them hays (a mixture of dates and clarified butter). He said, "Show it to me I had began the day fasting." But, he ate it.[2]

COMMENTARY: The question about forming an intention to fast has been discussed in the introductory pages of chapter IV. Except for Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ, all scholars agree that intention for the optional fast may be formed during the day.

The ulama (Scholars) agree on the basis of this hadith that an optional fast may be nullified without any reason. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and his follower-imams, however, hold that once an optional fast is begun, it is wajib (obligatory) to complete it, unless there is a cogent reason for it and even then it will have to be redeemed. They say that though no reason has been mentioned in this hadith, the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had a reason for breaking his optional fast.

CAN INVITATION BE AN EXCUSE

(٢٠٧٧) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ دَخَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى اُمِّ سُلَيْمٍ فَاَتَتْهُ بِتَمْرٍ وسَمْنٍ فَقَالَ اَعِيْدُوْا سَمْنَكُمْ فِيْ سِقَائِهٖ وَتَمْرَكُمْ فِيْ وِعَائِهٖ فَاِنِّيْ صَائِمٌ ثُمَّ قَامَ اِلٰى نَاحِيَةٍ مِنَ الْبَيْتِ فَصَلّٰى غَيْرَ الْمَكْتُوْبَةِ فَدَعَا لِاُمِّ سُلَيْمٍ وَاَهْلِ بَيْتِهَا۔ (رواه البخاری)

2077. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited (Sayyidah) Umm Sulaym رضی اللہ عنہ. She presented him some dates and clarified butter, but he excused himself, "Put back your butter in its pot and your eats in their bowl, for, I am fasting." Then he stood in a corner of the house and offered a salah (prayer) that was other than a prescribed salah (prayer), and prayed for (sayyidah) Umm Sulaym رضی اللہ عنہ and the people of her house. [1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not break his fast despite the invitation because he knew that Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضی اللہ عنہ would not be grieved at his refusal.

The ulama (Scholars) say that an invitation to eat is enough excuse for both the guest and host to break their optional fast, if either of them would feel grieved at the other's rejection. But, the fast should be redeemed later. If no one is likely to mind, then the fast should not be broken.

One who fast and is a visitor to anyone, must pray for the host and his family. It is mustahub.

(٢٠٧٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا دُعِيَ اَحَدُكُمْ اِلٰى طَعَامٍ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ فَلْيَقُلْ اِنِّيْ صَائِمٌ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ اِذَا دُعِيَ اَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيُجِبْ فَاِنْ كَانَ صَائِمًا فَلْيُصَلِّ وَاِنْ كَانَ مُفْطِرًا فَلْيَطْعَمْ (رواه مسلم)

2078. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If any of you is invited to a meal while he is fasting, he must say, 'I am fasting."
According to another version. He said. "If any of you is invited, he must accept it and if he is fasting, then he must pray (two raka'at optional salah (prayer)). But, if he is not fasting, then he must eat (the meal)."[2]

COMMENTARY: If he host is likely to be worried or revengeful that the guest does not eat his food the it is wajib (obligatory) for the guest to break the fast. If the host will be pleased that his guest had not eaten his meal then it is mustahab (desirable) to break the fast. If it is likely to be the same either way, then the guest must excuse himself, 'I am fasting.'

2079. Sayyiduna Umm Hani رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that on the day of the conquest of Makkah, Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہ came and sat to the left of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم while Sayyidah Umm Hani رضی اللہ عنہ sat to his right. A female slave brought a vessel containing something to drink she gave it to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He drank some and handed it over to (Sayyidah) Umm Hani رضی اللہ عنہ who too drank from it. Saying, "O Messenger of Allah, I was fasting and I broke my fast." He asked, "Were you redeeming a fast." She said, "No" He said, "If it was an optional fast, there is no harm."[1]

According to another version: she said, "O Messenger of Allah, I was fasting." He said, "One who fasts the optional is the decider for himself. If he likes, he may fast. If he likes, he may break his fast."[2]

COMMENTARY: If anyone breaks the optional fast for some reason, then he will have to redeem it.

The scholars of hadith question the soundness of this hadith Tirmidhi declared that its isnad is not sound. Mundhri said that it is not established and its isnad is disputed.

(٢٠٨٠) وَعَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كُنْتُ اَنَا وَحَفْصَةُ صَائِمَتَيْنِ فَعُرِضَ لَنَا طَعَامٌ اِشْتَهَيْنَاهُ فَاَكَلْنَا مِنْهُ فَقَالَتْ حَفْصَةُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّا كُنَّا صَائِمَتَيْنِ فَعُرِضَ لَنَا طَعَامٌ اِشْتَهَيْنَاهُ فَاَكَلْنَا مِنْهُ قَالَ اِقْضِيَا يَوْمًا اٰخَرَ مَكَانَهٗ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَذَكَرَ جَمَاعَةٌ مِنَ الْحُفَّاظِ رَوَوْا عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ مُرْسَلًا وَلَمْ يَذْكُرُوْا فِيْهِ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ وَهٰذَا اَصَحُّ وَرَوَاهُ اَبُوْ دَاوُدَ عَنْ زُمَيْلٍ مَوْلٰى عُرْوَةَ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ

2080. Sayyiduna Zuhri رحمہ اللہ reported on the authority of Sayyiduna Urwah رضی اللہ عنہ that Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated, "Hafsah and I were fasting and we were offered some food. We craved for it and ate a little of it. Then Hafsah said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we were fasting but food was brought to us and we were tempted to eat it and ate some of it.' He said, 'Redeem it by fasting on another day.'" Tirmidhi transmitted it and also named a number of traditions its who reported from zuhri from (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا in a mursal form without naming Urwah رحمہ اللہ and it is more sound. And Abu Dawud transmitted it from Zumayl رحمہ اللہ the freedman of Urwah رحمہ اللہ from Urwah رحمہ اللہ from Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہ.[3]

The Shafi's However, say that the command was of the nature of mustahab (desirable) and they maintain that it is not wajib (obligatory) to redeem an optional broken fast.

EATING IN THE PRESENCE OF ONE WHO IS FASTING

(٢٠٨١) وَعَنْ أُمِّ عُمَارَةَ بِنْتِ كَعْبٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا فَدَعَتْ لَهُ بِطَعَامٍ فَقَالَ لَهَا كُلِي فَقَالَتْ إِنِّي صَائِمَةٌ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الصَّائِمَ إِذَا أُكِلَ عِنْدَهُ صَلَّتْ عَلَيْهِ الْمَلَائِكَةُ حَتّٰى يَفْرُغُوا۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2081. Sayyidah Umm Umarah Bint Ka'b رضی الله عنه said that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم visited her. She had food brought for him, and he too invited her to eat with him, but she said, "I am fasting." So, he said, "When food is eaten in his presence, the angels invoke blessings on him who fasts till those who eat (in front of him) have finished."[1]

2082. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی الله عنه narrated that (Sayyiduna) Bilal رضی الله عنه visited Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم while he was having his breakfast (morning meal). He said, "Have the meal, O Bilal." He said , "I am fasting O Messenger of Allah." So Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "We eat our provision while Bilal's excellent provision is in paradise. Were you aware, O Bilal that the bones of one who is fasting glorify Allah and the angels seek forgiveness for him as long as food is eaten in his presence?"[2]

CHAPTER - IX

LAYLAT UL QADR (THE NIGHT OF POWER) بَابُ لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ

The greatness and excellence of the Night of Power - Laylat ul qadr - will be highlighted in this chapter. The signs when this night is most likely to appear will be mentioned. It is so called because on this night are decreed the provision, life span and death of the creatures for the year Some say that because it is great in estimation, it is called laylat ul qadr, 'qadr' being to value.

[1] Tirmidhi # 785, Ibn Majah # 1748, Darimi # 1738, Musnad Ahmad 6-365.
[2] Bayhaqi # 3582.

Many opinion are expressed on determining this night. Most of the ahadith place it in the month of Ramadan particularly during its last ten day s on it odd night. Most ulama (Scholars) place it on the twenty seventh night of Ramadan.

The opportunity of laylat'ul qadr is specifically bestowed on the ummah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم so that they might earn abundant reward in spite of their short lives. When the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم learnt of the very long lives of the past ummahs, he felt grieved that members of his ummah would not be able to amass pious deeds which those of the past ummahs had opportunity to amass. Hence, Allah, the exalted, granted this ummah the laylat ul qadr that is better than one thousand months - because of the prayer of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

According to another tradition carried by Ibn Abu Hatim رحمه الله the noble Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned four men of Banu Isra'il who had worshipped Allah, Mighty and Glorious, for as long as eighty years. They had not been disobedient to Allah for even a moment. They were:

(i) Prophet Ayyub عليه السلام (Job).
(ii) Prophet Zakariya عليه السلام (Zachariya),
(iii) Prophet Hizqil عليه السلام (Ezakiel), and;
(iv) Prophet Yusha ibn Noon عليه السلام (Joshuo).[1]

The sahabah (companions) رضى الله عنهم were surprised. (if they had a long life span they too could devote themselves to worship of Allah.) Sayyiduna Jibril عليه السلام came to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and disclosed that Allah had bestowed on them great good and he recited to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم the surah al Qadr: (انا انزلناه فى ليلة القدر) (to the end). He said laylat ul qadr that was given to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his ummah was better than that which he and his ummah craved. This pleased the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم very much.

One thousand months equal eighty - three years and four months. The verse says that laylat ul qadr is better than one thousand months or eighty three years and four months

On this night, Allah directs His mercy particularly on the lowest heaven from sunset to dawn. The angels and the pure souls descend to meet the righteous and the devoted worshippers. It was on this night that the noble Quran began to be revealed. The angels were created on this night, and the mould of Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام was put together. Trees were planted in paradise.

Reward for worship in this night is many times the reward for worship at other times. This is the night on which prayers of the creatures gain approval from the Mighty Lord.

Shari'ah (divine law) has not disclosed when laylat ul qadr falls. If the night was pointed out, then people would not have worshipped at other times as eagerly. They would have worshipped on that particular night and bear satisfied that they have accomplished worship of more than a year.

The ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone keeps vigil in every night of the year and worships Allah then, insha Allah, he will gain the good fortune of this night Hence, it is said:

[1] See stories of the Prophet عليه السلام (Ibn Khatir) respectively, p 165, 297 and 243 English translation, Dar ul Isha'at Karachi.

من لم يعرف قدر الليلة لم يعرف ليلة القدر

"He who does not esteem the night to keep vigil therein cannot recognize the greatness of laylat ul qadr."

Some ulama (Scholars) maintain that there are some signs of this night that are described in the ahadith and aathar, some of which the saintly persons have detected. Tabari رحمه الله has reported from some people that, on this night, the trees prostrate themselves before the Mighty Lord. They drop themselves on the ground and revert to their original condition. Similarly, every other things goes down in prostration on this night.

However, the correct thing is that it is not necessary to discern these things to fix this night. Many people find this night without observing the prostration of the trees or any thing else. It is very possible that of two man at one place. One may perceive the signs but the other may see nothing though both get the night and its blessings.

The greatest of these signs is that, on this sacred night, one is enabled and induced to worship and remember Allah and pray to him with humility and submission and sincerity. When this happens, he must know that he has seized the opportunity and good fortune.

If one can keep awake all night to worship Allah then it is the best thing, provided he does not fall ill or does not slacken in the discharge of the fard (compulsory) and sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*. If he is likely to fulter, then he must keep awake only as much as he can do easily. Insha Allah, he will achieve his aim.

(وَلَيْسَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ إِلَّا مَا سَعٰى وَكَانَ سَعْيُهُ مَشْكُوْرًا)۔ رزقنا الله

{And that there shall be for man naught except that for which he make effort} (53:39)

May Allah enable us!

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

POINTATION OF LAYLAT UL QADR

(٢٠٨٣) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَحَرَّوْا لَيْلَةَ الْقَدْرِ فِي الْوِتْرِ مِنَ الْعَشْرِ الْاَوَاخِرِ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2083. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "See laylat ul qadr in the last ten nights of Ramdan in its odd dated nights."[1]

COMMENTARY: These are the twenty first, twenty third, twenty fifth, twenty seven and twenty ninth nights of Ramadan.

(٢٠٨٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ اِنَّ رِجَالًا مِنْ اَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُرُوْا لَيْلَةَ الْقَدْرِ فِي الْمَنَامِ فِي السَّبْعِ الْاَوَاخِرِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَرٰى رُؤْيَاكُمْ قَدْ تَوَاطَاَتْ فِي السَّبْعِ الْاَوَاخِرِ فَمَنْ كَانَ مُتَحَرِّيْهَا فَلْيَتَحَرَّهَا فِي السَّبْعِ الْاَوَاخِرِ۔ (متفق علیه)

2084. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه said that some men among the sahabah of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم were shown the night of power to be in the last seven nights (of Ramadan) in their dream. So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'I see that your dreams concur concerning the last seven nights. Hence, whoever looks for it must search it in the last seven nights."[1]

COMMENTARY: The seven nights could be: from twenty first to twenty seventh, or the last seven from twenty third to twenty ninth. This last seems to be more correct.

(٢٠٨٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْتَمِسُوْهَا فِي الْعَشْرِ الْاَوَاخِرِ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ لَيْلَةَ الْقَدْرِ فِيْ تَاسِعَةٍ تَبْقٰى فِيْ سَابِعَةٍ تَبْقٰى فِيْ خَامِسَةٍ تَبْقٰى (رواه البخاری)

2085. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Seek it in the last ten nights of Ramadan – laylat ul qadr on the ninth remaining (which is the twenty first), seventh remaining (which is the twenty third), or fifth remaining (which is the twenty fifth)."[2]

COMMENTARY: One should engage in worship, dhikr and recitation of the Quran in these nights to earn the merit of laylatul qadr. The hadith has adopted a style of pointed these nights which has been interpreted in parenthesis. Although this seems to be a correct interpretation, Allamah Yahya رحمہ اللہ said that the hadith refers to the twenty third, twenty fourth and twenty sixth nights.

2086. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم observed I'tikaf (Seclusion(for worship in a mosque) in the first ten days of Ramadan. Then he observed I'tikaf (Seclusion(for worship in a mosque) in the middle (second) ten days in a Turkish tent. After that, he brought out his head (from the tent) and said, "I observed the I'tikaf (Seclusion(for worship in a mosque) to seek laylat ul qadr in the first ten days. Then, I observed the I'tikaf (Seclusion(for worship in a mosque) in the middle ten days. Then an angel came to me and told me that _laylat ul qadr_ appears in the last ten days (of _Ramadan_). Hence, whoever wishes to observe the _I'tikaf (Seclusion(for worship in a mosque)_ with me should do so in the last ten days. I was shown it in a dream, hen made to forget it. I saw myself prostrating in water and clay in the morning succeeding (the night). So seek it in the last ten (nights) and seek it in every odd dated night." The narrator continues to say: "That night (on which he saw the dream) it had rained. The mosque that had a thatched roof dripped, and my eyes saw Allah's Messenger's forehead with drops of water and clay on the morning succeeding the twenty first night."[1] Muslim has it up to 'it is in the last ten days." Bukhari has the remaining to. According to another version:

2087. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Unays رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (instead of twenty first night) the twenty third night."[2]

ANOTHER SIGN

(۲۰۸۸) وَعَنْ زِرِّ بْنِ حُبَيْشٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ أُبَيَّ بْنَ كَعْبٍ فَقُلْتُ إِنَّ أَخَاكَ ابْنَ مَسْعُودٍ يَقُولُ مَنْ يَقُمِ الْحَوْلَ يُصِبْ لَيْلَةَ الْقَدْرِ فَقَالَ رَحِمَهُ اللّٰهُ أَرَادَ أَنْ لَا يَتَّكِلَ النَّاسُ أَمَا إِنَّهُ قَدْ عَلِمَ أَنَّهَا فِي رَمَضَانَ وَأَنَّهَا فِي الْعَشْرِ الْأَوَاخِرِ وَأَنَّهَا لَيْلَةُ سَبْعٍ وَّعِشْرِينَ ثُمَّ حَلَفَ لَا يَسْتَثْنِي أَنَّهَا لَيْلَةُ سَبْعٍ وَّ عِشْرِينَ فَقُلْتُ بِأَيِّ شَيْءٍ تَقُولُ ذٰلِكَ يَا أَبَا الْمُنْذِرِ قَالَ بِالْعَلَامَةِ أَوْ بِالْآيَةِ الَّتِي أَخْبَرَنَا رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهَا تَطْلُعُ يَوْمَئِذٍ لَا شُعَاعَ لَهَا (رواہ مسلم)

2088. Sayyiduna Zirr ibn Hubaysh رحمہ اللہ said that he pointed out to Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ that his brother (in religion) Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ said that if anyone keeps vigil every night throughout the year, then he will find _laylat ul qadr_. Ubayy رضی اللہ عنہ said, "May Allah have mercy on him! He said so to prevent people from relying (only on that night). Rather, he was aware that it was in _Ramadan_ and one of its last ten nights and that is the twenty seventh." Then, he swore, without saying insha Allah, that it was the twenty seventy. Zirr رحمہ اللہ asked him on what basis he could assert that and called him (by his kunyah) Abu Mundhir. He said, 'By the sign, or indication, that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم informed us that the sun rises on its morning without rays."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ did not want the people to depend on any one night and sit the rest of the time out without action. His intention was that they must engage in worship regularly and sincerely.
Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ said that the twenty seventh was laylat ul qadr and swore about it without saying insha Allah. This was his strong presumption. If anyone says insha Allah at the same time as swearing about what he says then his oath is not only not a firm statement but also not fulfilled in Shari'ah (divine law).

EXTRA EXERTION DURING LAST TEN DAYS OF RAMADAN

(٢٠٨٩) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَجْتَهِدُ فِي الْعَشْرِ الْاَوَاخِرِ مَالَا يَجْتَهِدُ فِيْ غَيْرِهٖ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2089. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said that Allah's messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to make exceptional effort (in worship) during the last ten nights such as he did not do any other time.[1]

(٢٠٩٠) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا دَخَلَ الْعَشْرُ شَدَّ مِئْزَرَهٗ وَاَحْيٰى لَيْلَهٗ وَاَيْقَظَ اَهْلَهٗ۔ (متفق علیه)

2090. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم braced himself for more worship as the last ten nights commenced. He stayed awake and wake up his family.[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم remained awake for most of the night and also, sometimes, all the night in worship. He did not keep awake all through often. He awakened his wives, daughters, female slaves and male slaves during the last ten days of Ramadan. He get them to be engaged in worship and qualify for the blessing of laylat ul qadr.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

SUPPLICATION ON THE LAYLAT UL QADR

(٢٠٩١) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَرَاَيْتَ اِنْ عَلِمْتُ اَيُّ لَيْلَةٍ لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ مَا اَقُوْلُ فِيْهَا قَالَ قُوْلِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّكَ عَفُوٌّ تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ فَاعْفُ عَنِّيْ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَصَحَّحَهٗ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّكَ عَفُوٌّ تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ فَاعْفُ عَنِّيْ۔

2091. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, 'What, if I recognize the night that is laylat ul qadr, may I pray?" He said that she should say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّكَ عَفُوٌّ تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ فَاعْفُ عَنِّيْ

'O Allah, you are the forgiving you love to forgive. So, do forgive me"[3]

COMMENTARY: This supplication embraces all good of this world and the next. The greatest good fortune of anyone is forgiveness and pardon from Allah. It is the utmost of all goodness. Nothing is better from a creature than praying to Allah for forgiveness.

NIGHTS THAT COULD BE LAYLAT UL QADR

(٢٠٩٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بَكْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِلْتَمِسُوْهَا يَعْنِيْ لَيْلَةَ الْقَدْرِ فِيْ

2092. Sayyiduna Abu Bakrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "Seek it meaning laylat ul qadr -when nine nights remain or seven remain or five remain or those remain or in the last."[1]
(These are the 29th, 27th, 25th, 23rd or the last of Ramadan.)

BUT ONLY IN RAMADAN

(۲۰۹۳) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ سُئِلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ فَقَالَ هِيَ فِيْ كُلِّ رَمَضَانَ۔ وَرَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ رَوَاهُ سُفْيَانُ وَشُعْبَةُ عَنْ اَبِي اِسْحَاقَ مَوْقُوْفًا عَلَى ابْنِ عُمَرَ۔

2093. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was asked about laylat ul qadr. He said, "It is in every Ramadan."[2]
(It is mawquf at ibn Umar) رضی اللہ عنہ .

COMMENTARY: The word of the hadith (هر رمضان) could mean as translated, or 'throughout Ramadan on any of its nights, not merely the last ten nights. This second would imply that having given this information, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم later narrowed it down to the last ten nights of Ramadan.

TWENTY THIRD IS LAYLAT UL QADR

(۲۰۹٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ اُنَيْسٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ لِيْ بَادِيَةً اَكُوْنُ فِيْهَا وَاَنَا اُصَلِّيْ فِيْهَا بِحَمْدِ اللّٰهِ فَمُرْنِيْ بِلَيْلَةٍ اَنْزِلُهَا اِلٰى هٰذَا الْمَسْجِدِ فَقَالَ اَنْزِلْ لَيْلَةَ ثَلَاثٍ وَعِشْرِيْنَ قِيْلَ لِابْنِهٖ كَيْفَ كَانَ اَبُوْكَ يَصْنَعُ قَالَ كَانَ يَدْخُلُ الْمَسْجِدَ اِذَا صَلَّى الْعَصْرَ فَلَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهُ لِحَاجَةٍ حَتّٰى يُصَلِّيَ الصُّبْحَ فَاِذَا صَلَّى الصُّبْحَ وَجَدَ دَابَّتَهٗ عَلٰى بَابِ الْمَسْجِدِ فَجَلَسَ عَلَيْهَا وَلَحِقَ بِبَادِيَتِهٖ(رواه ابوداؤد)

2094. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Unays رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I have a home in the desert and I reside there. Praise belongs to Allah, I offer salah (prayer) there. Instruct me of a night on which I may come to this mosque." He said, "Come here on the twenty third night." (Later on) his son was asked about his father's practice. He said, "He would enter the mosque after having offered the salah (prayer) of asr and he never went out of it for any purpose (contrary to I'tikaf (Seclusion(for worship in a mosque)) till he had offered the salah (prayer) of fajr. After having prayed the fajr, he found his (riding) beast at the gate of the mosque. He then mounted it and returned to his desert."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith does not determine the date of laylat ul qadr. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had learnt of the date for that particular year, so he instructed Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ to go to the mosque on the twenty third. However, he misunderstood it to mean that laylat ul qadr was on the twenty third always. Also, the Prophet Muhammad صلی صلى الله عليه وسلم did not generally know of the night, but learnt of it sometimes.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

KNOWLEDGE OF LAYLAT UL QADR TAKEN AWAY FROM PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٢٠٩٥) عَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ خَرَجَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِيُخْبِرَنَا بِلَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ فَتَلَاحٰى رَجُلَانِ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ فَقَالَ خَرَجْتُ لِأُخْبِرَكُمْ بِلَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ فَتَلَاحٰى فُلَانٌ وَفُلَانٌ فَرُفِعَتْ وَعَسٰى اَنْ يَكُوْنَ خَيْرًا لَّكُمْ فَالْتَمِسُوْهَا فِي التَّاسِعَةِ وَالسَّابِعَةِ وَالْخَامِسَةِ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2095. Sayyiduna Ubadah ibn as-Samit رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم came out to tell them about laylat ul qadr. Two men among the Muslim quarrelled with one another. He said, "I came out to inform you of laylat ul qadr but so and so quarrelled with one another, so the knowledge was taken away (from me). Perhaps. This is better for you. So seek it on the ninth (twenty ninth), seventh (twenty seventh), and fifth (twenty fifth)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The two disputing men were Abdullah ibn Ubayy (or Abu) Hadhru and Kab ibn Maalik.

That the knowledge was taken away was better in the sense that people would now make more effort and not sit tight.

MERIT OF LAYLAT UL QADR

(٢٠٩٦) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا كَانَ لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ نَزَلَ جِبْرِيْلُ فِيْ كَبْكَبَةٍ مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ يُصَلُّوْنَ عَلٰى كُلِّ عَبْدٍ قَائِمٍ اَوْقَاعِدٍ يَذْكُرُ اللّٰهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ فَإِذَا كَانَ يَوْمُ عِيْدِهِمْ يَعْنِيْ يَوْمَ فِطْرِهِمْ بَاهٰى بِهِمْ مَلَائِكَتَهٗ فقَالَ يَا مَلَائِكَتِيْ مَا جَزَاءُ اَجِيْرٍ وَفّٰى عَمَلَهٗ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا جَزَاؤُهٗ اَنْ يُوَفّٰى اَجْرُهٗ قَالَ مَلَائِكَتِيْ عَبِيْدِيْ وَاِمَائِيْ قَضَوْا فَرِيْضَتِيْ عَلَيْهِمْ ثُمَّ خَرَجُوْا يَعُجُّوْنَ اِلَى الدُّعَاءِ وَعِزَّتِيْ وَجَلَالِيْ وَكَرَمِيْ وَعُلُوِّيْ وَارْتِفَاعِ مَكَانِيْ لَاُجِيْبَنَّهُمْ فَيَقُوْلُ ارْجِعُوْا قَدْ غَفَرْتُ لَكُمْ وَبَدَّلْتُ سَيِّئَاتِكُمْ حَسَنَاتٍ قَالَ فَيَرْجِعُوْنَ مَغْفُوْرًا لَهُمْ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2096. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'when it is laylat ul qadr, Jibril عليه السلام comes down with a number of angels. They pray for each of the men who stand (in salah (prayer)) or sit (making dhikr) to remember Allah, Might and Glorious, when it is the day of their eed, meaning eed ul fitr, Allah refers to them before the angels as his Pride and joy. He says "O my angels what is the recompense of one who is hired and who completes his work faithfully?' They say, our lord! His recompense is that he should be paid his wages in full. He says, 'My angels! My male slaves and My female slaves have discharged that which I have prescribed for them and have now come out (of their homes) entreating with voices raised in supplication. By my Might, My Glory, My Mercy, My power, My exalted station, I shall surely grant them their prayer.' Then, He says (to His slaves), 'Return! Indeed, I have forgiven you and replaced your evil deeds with good deed s,' So, they return having been forgiven."[1]

CHAPTER - X

I'TIKAF (REMAINING IN THE MOSQUE FOR SOME PERIOD OF TIME TO WORSHIP ALMIGHTY) بَابُ الْإِعْتِكَافِ

The dictionary meaning of I'tikaf (Seclusion) is 'to remain somewhere and to detain oneself at some place' In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law), it is 'to remain in the mosque where congregational salah (prayer) is offered with intention to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) for Allah's pleasure.'

The intention is valid only of a Muslim who is sane and free of sexual defilement, menstruation and lochia. The I'tikaf (Seclusion) in the last ten days of Ramadan is sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) because the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم observed it always in Ramadan in its last ten days. 'Mukhtar' has written that it is sunnah muwakkadah 'alal kifayah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but adequate) so that even if one person observes it, it will be enough for all the people and those who do not observe it are not blame worthy in this case.

It becomes wajib (obligatory) to observe the I'tikaf (Seclusion) if one declares his intention orally or makes a vow. It may be prompt and one may say, "I bind myself to observe itikaf for so many days." Or, one may make it conditional, saying "I vow to observe the I'tikaf (Seclusion) for so many days if my wish (for such and such a thing) is accomplished." These are two kinds of I'tikaf (Seclusion);

(i) Sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) that is observe during the last ten days of Ramadan, and

(ii) Wajib (obligatory) which concern a vow.

A third kind of I'tikaf (Seclusion) is mustahab (desirable) and it is observed at any time other than the final ten days of Ramadan. It may be observed during the initial twenty days of Ramadan or at any other time in any month.

There is no limit for the mustahab I'tikaf (desirable seclusion). If anyone forms an intention to observe it for all his life, then too it is allowed, but, the ulama (Scholars) differ on the minimum period for it. Imam Muhammad رحمه الله said that there is no minimum limit for a mustahab (desirable) I'tikaf (Seclusion) and it can be observed for a minute or less than that at any h our of day or night. The obvious ruling of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله is identical to it and the Hanafis abide by it. Hence, it is proper for every Muslim who enters a mosque, for salah (prayer) or otherwise, to form an intention to observe the I'tikaf (Seclusion), 'I intend to go through I'tikaf (Seclusion) as long as I am in the mosque.'

In this way one may earn the honour and merit of I'tikaf (Seclusion) very many times in a day. However, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله said that the minimum limit of I'tikaf (Seclusion) is most of the day, meaning more than half a day. A second opinion of Imam Abu hanifah رحمه الله is that the minimum period for which an I'tikaf (Seclusion) may be observed is one day but no ruling is issued on this opinion that is apart from his obvious opinion.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

WOMAN MAY OBSERVE I'TIKAF (SECLUSION) AT HOME

(٢٠٩٧) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَعْتَكِفُ الْعَشْرَ الْاَوَاخِرَ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ حَتّٰى تَوَفَّاهُ اللّٰهُ ثُمَّ اِعْتَكَفَ أَزْوَاجُهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهٖ (متفق عليه)

2097. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) during the last ten days of Ramadan till Allah took him. Then, his wives observed the I'tikaf (Seclusion) after him.[1]

COMMENTARY: After the death of the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم his wives observed I'tikaf (Seclusion) in their homes. The jurists say that it is mustahab (desirable) for women to do so in the mosques within their homes and if they have not set aside any such place in their homes as a mosque the any portion of the house would do. They must not move out of this place unnecessarily as that represents a mosque for them. It is makruh (unbecoming) for them to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) in a mosque.

HERE GENEROUS IN RAMADAN

(٢٠٩٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَجْوَدَ النَّاسِ بِالْخَيْرِ وَكَانَ اَجْوَدُ مَا يَكُوْنُ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ كَانَ جِبْرِيْلُ يَلْقَاهُ كُلَّ لَيْلَةٍ فِيْ رَمَضَانَ يَعْرِضُ عَلَيْهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْقُرْاٰنَ فَاِذَا لَقِيَهُ جِبْرِيْلُ كَانَ اَجْوَدَ بِالْخَيْرِ مِنَ الرِّيْحِ الْمُرْسَلَةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2098. Sayyiduna ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was the most generous of all men. In Ramadan, he was more generous than at other times. (Sayyiduna) Jibril علیہ السلام met him every night in Ramadan and the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited the Quran to him. When jibril علیہ السلام met him, he was more generous then the blowing wind.[2]

COMMENTARY: When Sayyiduna Jibril علیہ السلام came, the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم generosity knew no bounds. This indicates that during blessed times and when meeting sacred people one should be very generous.

This hadith does not touch I'tikaf (Seclusion) yet it is placed in the chapter of I'tikaf (Seclusion) in which the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم engaged in Ramadan. This is a piety of a high degree and the hadith asserts that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practiced much piety and generosity in this month.

REPETITION OF THE QURAN

(٢٠٩٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ يُعْرَضُ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْقُرْاٰنُ كُلَّ عَامٍ مَرَّةً فَعُرِضَ عَلَيْهِ مَرَّتَيْنِ فِي الْعَامِ الَّذِيْ قُبِضَ وَكَانَ يَعْتَكِفُ كُلَّ عَامٍ عَشْرًا فَاعْتَكَفَ عِشْرِيْنَ فِي الْعَامِ الَّذِى قُبِضَ۔

2099. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Quran was recited to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (by Jibril) علیہ السلام once every year. But, it was recited to him twice in the year in which he died. And, he used to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) for ten days every year, bu ' ' observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) for twenty days in the year he died.[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Jibril علیہ السلام recited the Quran to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and then he recited to him as the previous hadith says. So, it is sunnah to revise the Quran by reciting it to one another.

In the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم life, there is an example for his ummah that when they enter the final stage of their life they should increase their pious deeds. They should prepare themselves with more piety and obedience to met their Mighty Lord.

MANNER & ETIQUETTE OF I'TIKAF (SECLUSION)

(٢١٠٠) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاِذَا اعْتَكَفَ اَدْنٰى اِلَيَّ رَاْسَهُ وَهُوَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَأُرَجِّلُهُ وَكَانَ لَا يَدْخُلُ الْبَيْتَ اِلَّا لِحَاجَةِ الْاِنْسَانِ۔ (متفق علیه)

2100. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم engaged in I'tikaf (Seclusion), he put his head out towards her while he remained within the mosque. She would comb (his hair). He did not enter the house except to attend to human compulsion (to relieve himself)[2]

COMMENTARY: One who observe the I'tikaf (Seclusion) may stretch out of the mosque a limb. He may also comb himself.

Ibn Human رحمہ اللہ said that he may wash a limb within the mosque in a vessel provided the mosque is not polluted.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that if he goes out of his place even for a minute then his I'tikaf (Seclusion) is nullified.

The need for which he may go out is of two kinds.

(i) Natural like the urge to urinate of defecate and to have a purifying bath (after a wet dream), but there is no clear tradition about bath for Friday. Sharh Award does say, however, that he may got to have a bath whethere it is wajib (obligatory) (like when defiled) or optional (like for Friday).

(ii) Shar'I like for eed salah (prayer) and adhan. If the place from where the adhan is called is outside the mosque then going there is a need. The I'tikaf (Seclusion) does not break because of it. Both the mu'adhdhin and one who is not a mu'adhdhin are allowed to go (for the adhan). Going for the Friday slah is also a need.

However, he must go out at the time of zawal (not before) for the Friday salah (prayer). If the mosque where the salah (prayer) of Friday is held is far away then he must go sufficiently early to be able offer the tahiyatul masjid and the sunnah of Friday. It is allowed also to stay in that mosque after the salah (prayer) to offer the post salah (prayer) sunnah. If he stays there longer then though his I'tikaf (Seclusion) is not nullified, yet his over staying is makruh (unbecoming) tanzihi.

Similarly, if he has no servant or assistant then giving home for the meal or to fetch it is also a need.

If the mosque collapses or someone throws him out and he goes into another mosque without delay, then his I'tikaf (Seclusion) is not invalidated. The same applies when he rushes to another mosque if he fears for his life and property in the mosque in which he began his I'tikaf (Seclusion)

If he goes out of his place to relieve himself, for a natural reason or a need sanctioned by Shari'ah (divine law) and creditor detains him even for a minute then, according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله his I'tikaf (Seclusion) becomes void. However Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله hold that it is not nullified.

His I'tikaf (Seclusion) will become void if he comes out to save someone who is drawing or burning in fire, or to enlist for jihad if the call is made, or to give testimony.

In short, if he goes out even for a minute for anything apart from the natural needs or needs sanctioned by Shari'ah (divine law), then his I'tikaf (Seclusion) becomes void, even if he goes out by mistake. However, the two companions (named above) hold that his I'tikaf (Seclusion) will become void only if he is out for most of the day, We may deduced from this hadith that he may also have a haircut in the mosque during I'tikaf (Seclusion) provided his hair do not fall in the mosque.

VOW MADE DURING PRE-ISLAMIC PERIOD

(٢١٠١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ عُمَرَ سَأَلَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كُنْتُ نَذَرْتُ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ أَنْ أَعْتَكِفَ لَيْلَةً فِي الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ قَالَ فَأَوْفِ بِنَذْرِكَ (متفق عليه)

2101. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that (Sayyiduna) Umar رضى الله عنه asked the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم about a vow he had made during the jahiliyah to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) in the sacred mosque for a night (and day). He said, "Fulfil your vow."[1]

COMMENTARY: Jahliyah was the period before the commissioning of the prophet and the advent of Islam.

The Command to fulfil the vow made during the jihiliyah was of the nature of msuthab. If Umar رضى الله عنه had made the vow after embracing Islam, then the command was of the category of wajib (obligatory).

However, Teebi رحمه الله said that if the vow was made during the jihiliyah but conformed to the commands of Islam then after accepting Islam it is wajib (obligatory) to fulfil it. This is what Imam shafi'I رحمه الله abides by but Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله held that the vow itself is not valid what to say of fulfilling it after Islam? His arguments may be seen in books of fiqh. He takes the meaning mentioned earlier.

FASTING IS PRE-REQUISITE FOR WAJIB (OBLIGATORY) I'TIKAF (SECLUSION)

Allama Teebi رحمه الله said that this hadith proves that fasting is not a condition for the I'tikaf (Seclusion) to be correct. This is contention of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that while fasting is not a condition for a voluntary I'tikaf (Seclusion), yet it is wajib (obligatory) for a wajib (obligatory) I'tikaf (Seclusion). His two companions agree with him and the Hanafis abide by it. Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله according to his second opinion, hold that for I'tikaf (Seclusion) itself, whether wajib (obligatory) or optional, fasting is a pre-requisite.

The Hanafis say about this hadith that in its other versions, the I'tikaf (Seclusion) of Umar رضى الله عنه is mentioned with fasting. Thus the version in Abu Dawud, Nasai'I and Daraqutni say that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed him to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) and fast also. Moreover, the hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها which follows asserts that I'tikaf (Seclusion) is not valid without fasting, this is bout wajib I'tikaf (due Seclusion). If anyone makes a vow and observes I'tikaf (Seclusion) only in the night then that is invalid be cause night is not associated with fasting. If anyone vows to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) during Ramadan then the fasts of Ramadan will serve as complimentary to his I'tikaf (Seclusion). But if anyone keep on optional fast and vows to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) on that day then that is not correct.

If someone vows to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) during a certain Ramadan but fails to do it then he must redeem it no other days and keep fasts for the I'tikaf (Seclusion). However, this redeeming will not be proper in another Ramadan nor during such days when other wajib (obligatory) fasts are kept, whether these wajib (obligatory) are redeeming fasts or of some other kind.

If anyone forms an intention to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) for many days at a stretch then he will have to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) during their nights too. This if anyone vows to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) for two days then he will do it for their two nights also. But Imam Abu Yusuf said that he will do it for only night.

If anyone vows to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) for one month then he will have to do it at a stretch even if he had not said so when making the vow.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

REDEEMING SUNNAH MUWAKKADAH (EMPHASIZED PRACTICE OF HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم)

(٢١٠٢-٢١٠٣) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعْتَكِفُ فِي الْعَشْرِ الْاَ وَاخِرِ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ فَلَمْ يَعْتَكِفْ عَامًا فَلَمَّا كَانَ الْعَامُ الْمُقْبِلُ اعْتَكَفَ عِشْرِيْنَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ اَبُوْ دَاوٗدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْ اُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ۔

2102. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم used to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) during the last ten days of Ramadan. One year, however he did not observe the I'tikaf (Seclusion) and the year after that he observed I'tikaf (Seclusion) for twenty days.[1]

2103. Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضى الله عنه narrated this hadith.[2]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Teebi رحمه الله cites this hadith to say that if any one misses sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) then he must redeem it too. The essence is only to redeem, otherwise it is fard (compulsory) to redeem a fard (compulsory) and sunnah to redeem a sunnah, not fard or wajib (compulsory or obligatory).

THE COMMENCEMENT OF I'TIKAF (SECLUSION)

(٢١٠٤) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَرَادَ أَنْ يَعْتَكِفَ صَلَّى الْفَجْرَ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ فِيْ مُعْتَكَفِهٖ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2104. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم intended to engage in I'tikaf (Seclusion), he offered the salah (prayer) of fajr. Then he went into the place where I'tikaf (Seclusion) was to be observed.[1]

COMMENTARY: Awza'I رحمہ اللہ and Thawri رحمہ اللہ cite this hadith to say that I'tikaf (Seclusion) begin with the day. But, the four imams agree that if anyone decides to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) for one month or ten days, etc. then it begin towards the close of the day before sunset. On its final day, he should end it after sunset and come out of it. This hadith is explained by saying that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم formed intention to observe the I'tikaf (Seclusion) before sunset and came to the mosque. He stayed in the mosque all night and when he had offered the salah (prayer) of fajr, he went into that portion of the mosque which was set aside for I'tikaf (Seclusion) and on which judge bags were hung to seclude it from others. So, though he began his I'tikaf (Seclusion) at sunset, yet he entered the reserved place after fajr.

SICK VISIT DURING I'TIKAF (SECLUSION)

(٢١٠٥) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعُوْدُ الْمَرِيْضَ وَهُوَ مُعْتَكِفٌ فَيَمُرُّ كَمَا هُوَ فَلَا يُعَرِّجُ يَسْأَلُ عَنْهُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2105. She also narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم paid a sick visit while he was observing I'tikaf (Seclusion). He would go straight ahead and not stop with him but (only) ask after him.[2]

COMMENTARY: While going to the sick, he did not turn anywhere else, nor pause. He simply enquired how he was and walk back (to the mosque).

Hasan رحمہ اللہ and Nakha'I رحمہ اللہ said that one who observes the I'tikaf (Seclusion) is permitted to go out for the Friday salah (prayer) (if not held in the mosque in which he observes it) and to pay a sick visit. However, the four imams say that if he goes out to attend to a need natural or sanctioned by Shari'ah (divine law) and, before attending to his need or afterwards, he asks after a sick person or participates in a funeral salah (prayer) the there is no harm in it, provided he does not rear off course and does not pause beyond the (funeral) salah (prayer), otherwise his I'tikaf (Seclusion) will be invalid. If he will get out of his place merely to pay a sick visit of join a funeral salah (prayer) then his I'tikaf (Seclusion) will be void unless he had stipulated these things when forming his intention to observe the I'tikaf (Seclusion) that he would go out for such things.

MANNERS OF I'TIKAF (SECLUSION)

(٢١٠٦) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتِ السُّنَّةُ عَلَى الْمُعْتَكِفِ أَنْ لَا يَعُوْدَ مَرِيْضًا وَلَا يَشْهَدَ جَنَازَةً وَلَا يَمَسَّ الْمَرْأَةَ وَلَا يُبَاشِرَهَا وَلَا يَخْرُجَ لِحَاجَةٍ إِلَّا لِمَا لَا بُدَّ مِنْهُ وَلَا اِعْتِكَافَ إِلَّا بِصَوْمٍ وَلَا اِعْتِكَافَ إِلَّا فِيْ مَسْجِدٍ جَامِعٍ (رواه ابوداؤد)

---

[1] Muslim # 6.1173, Abu Dawud # 2464, Tirmidhi # 791, Nasai'i # 709, Ibn Majah # 1771.

[2] Abu Dawud # 2472.

2106. She also said that for one who is observing I'tikaf (Seclusion), it is sunnah not to pay a sick visit or join the funeral salah (prayer), or touch or embrace his wife, or go out for anything except that which cannot be avoided. I'tikaf (Seclusion) is not observed without fasting and is proper only in a jami masjid (mosque where congregational salah (prayer) is observed or Friday too).[1]

COMMENTARY: It is forbidden to one who observes the I'tikaf (Seclusion) to do any thing to his wife as leads to sexual intercourse which makes the I'tikaf (Seclusion) invalid whether it is done deliberately or by mistake, during the day or night. As for touching or embracing her, it will be void only if there is an ejaculation, not otherwise.

He who observes the I'tikaf (Seclusion) is allowed to eat, drink and sleep in the mosque. He may even engage in buying and selling provided the merchandise is not brought into the mosque, because it is makruh tahrimi(disapproved to forbidden) to bring trade merchandise into the mosque, Moreover, he can do that only for himself and his family for their needs but if he engages in business and trading then that is disallowed. Indeed, buying and selling in the mosque is also disallowed to everyone else other than one who is engaged in I'tikaf (Seclusion).

If one who observes I'tikaf (Seclusion) keeps absolute quiet presuming that it is part of worship then it is makruh (unbecoming) tahrimah. But, he must abstain from evil talk, falsehood, backbiting and such things. He must recite the Quran and read books of hadith and Islamic literature.

It is not any form of worship to observe silence during I'tikaf (Seclusion) and even unnecessary conversation of a permissible nature is makruh (unbecoming). It is stated in fath ul Qadir that to converse unnecessarily in the mosque wipes off good deeds jut like fire devours wood.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that I'tikaf (Seclusion) is proper only in a mosque where salah (prayer) of all five times are held in congregational form. Imam Ahmad رضی الله عنه agrees with him. However, Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله as also the two companions (of Abu Hanifah) رحمه الله said that I'tikaf (Seclusion) may be observed I any mosque.

If masjid jami is taken to mean where Friday salah (prayer) is held then it implies that it is better to observe I'tikaf (Seclusion) in a mosque where Friday salah (prayer) is offered. The ulama (Scholars) say that the most superior I'tikaf (Seclusion) is observed in Masjid al Harm (Makkah), the next best is in Masjid Nabawi, صلی الله علیه وسلم Masjid Aqsa (Bayt ul Maqdas) followed by any Jami Masjid and then in a mosque where there are very many worshippers.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِث

(٢١٠٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهٗ كَانَ إِذَا اعْتَكَفَ طُرِحَ لَهٗ فِرَاشُهٗ اَوْيُوْضَعُ لَهٗ سَرِيْرُهٗ وَرَاءَ اُسْطُوَانَةِ التَّوْبَةِ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2107. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه reported that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم observed I'tikaf (Seclusion) a bedding was placed for him or a bed was put down for him behind the pillar of repentance.[1]

COMMENTARY: One of the pillars of Masjid Nabawi صلی الله علیه وسلم is called ustwanatut tawbah (or satun tawbah) pillar of repentance. One of the Sahabah, Sayyiduna Abu Lubabah Ansari رضی الله عنه had committed a mistake because Ansari رضی الله عنه had committed a mistake because of which he had bound himself to the pillar. He remained in that condition for many days. When his repentance was accepted, the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم united him.

REWARD FOR ONE WHO OBSERVES I'TIKAF (SECLUSION)

(٢١٠٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فِي الْمُعْتَكِفِ هُوَ يَعْتَكِفُ الذُّنُوْبَ

وَيُجْرٰى لَهٗ مِنَ الْحَسَنَاتِ كَعَامِلِ الْحَسَنَاتِ كُلِّهَا (رواه ابن ماجة)

2108. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said about one who observes I'tikaf (Seclusion) that he is preserved from sins and continues to be rewarded for piety like one who does all good deeds.[2]

COMMENTARY: The word in the text could be (يعتكف) or (معتكف) both passive or active voice. Anyone who secludes himself in the mosque for I'tikaf (Seclusion) gets reward even for those deeds that he is unable to do like visiting sick people, participating in funeral salah (prayer) and so on, deeds which other people outside the mosque do but he is precluded from doing. He gets the some reward as those people get.

His heart is purged of the filth of the affairs of the world. He entrusts his soul to Allah. He is occupied incessantly in worship and remains in Allah's House. He is very near to Allah whose mercy covers him continuously. It is as though he is in Allah's fort and protection, safe from the deceit of the devil.

His example is like one who is at the doorstep of a king presenting his petition. He seems to plead, 'My Master, my Lord! I am at your doorstep but will not budge from it till you forgive me, grant me my wishes and relieve me of worldly sorrow and pain and religious shortcomings.

BOOK - VIII

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF THE QURAN كِتَابُ فَضَائِلِ الْقُرْاٰنِ

What is the glorious Quran? It is the most sacred and the greatest of Divine Books. Allah revealed it to the last and most supreme guide, the noble Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is the light in the darkness of ignorance and the last nail on the coffin of disbelief and polytheism. It is the last and most comprehensive law from Allah for the entire human fraternity. It is called Habl Matin (the strong rope).

It is enough to say for the greatness and excellence of the Quran that it is the word of the Creater of the universe and of everything. It is free from every defect and shortcoming and is the paragon of perfection, the peak of eloquence.

The reward for reciting the Quran and reciting it is great and very well known. The ulama (Scholars) are unanimous that no kin of dhikr (hallowing of Allah) earns as much reward as the Quran does. In fact, recitation of the Quran in salah (prayer) fetches so much reward and is so very meritorious that it cannot be described faithfully. Whenever it is recited, each of its letters fetches ten pieties and its recitation in salah (prayer) earns twenty five pieties for each letter.

Its recital brings the reciter nearer to Allah and illuminates his heart with Divine awareness and light of remembrance of Allah. It will intercede for him before Allah on the day of resurrection.

Recitation of the Quran leads to thinking and reflection over religion and hereafter. Doing it often reminds one of Allah's Commands so that they may be obeyed and lessons may be derived. Recital does not imply that one should beautify one's voice letting the heart linger in the darkness of Quran but does not abide by it, then the Quran is his enemy. This is why a hadith says that some people recite the Quran but the Quran curses them because it is not meant to merely recite. Rather, one must obey its commands. He who recites the Quran but does not obey it, really humiliates it. This is evidence against him and he will be a loser in the hereafter.

One can understand the Quran only if he recites it slowly, with respect, presence of mind and careful of the science of recital. Hence, it is imperative to observe its tajwid. It is legal and proper to recite little of it. Its right can be given by reciting it in forty days and it is enough even to recite it in a year. In worship, like tarawih, it may be recite complete in at least seven days, the better if more time is taken.

It anyone who recites the Quran does not know Arabic and cannot understand it, then he must nevertheless recite it with concentration and a conviction that it is Allah's word and His commands. He should recite it with such humility and submission as though he is not reciting it but listening to the word of the Jus test of the judges.

MANNER OF RECITING THE QURAN: The noble Quran is a collection of words revealed directly by Allah, the Mighty Lord. It is ascribed to the judge of all judges, the king of all kings and undisputed Master of the universe without an associate. Hence, manners befitting such words and the speaker of such words must be observed. So we explain here the manners of recitation of the Quran.

Begin by performing ablution using the siwak (twig) also. Then sit at a nice, clean place in a humble manner, facing the qiblah, considering yourself to be lowly and helpless. Let your mind and heart be attentive as if you are before Allah, Lord of Might, presenting your petition. Recite the ta'awwid (اعوذ بالله من الشيطان الرجيم) and the basmalah (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) and begin the recitation of the Quran. Imagine to yourself that you are listening to Allah's words without an intermediary. Recite slowly with pauses and concentration and tartil. When you come across a verse of assurance and mercy for the creatures, glorify Allah, and at a verse of warning and punishment, seek refuge in Allah. On reciting a verse about Allah's Might and Sanctity, glorify Him, saying subhan Allah, Be imploring and completely dependant and weep, but if you do not weep, be as though you are weeping. In short, behave as though you are before Allah.

Do not try to complete the recitation of the entire Quran rapidly because of which you will read it fast. It is better to recite a little with reflection and concentration than to read speedily throwing overboard the manner of recital. Beside, reading the Quran as many times as possible gets nothing apart from counting the complete recitals. Rather, this thing is forbidden and the current practice of reading the Quran from cover to cover in one day at accelerated pace is very bad and foolish (like a summary execution).

It is known of some scholars and saints that they recited very much and completed the Quran many times in a short period of time. This is their marvel. Do not emulate them. Rather, whatever you can recite with single-mindedness and following the etiquettes should satisfy you.

Do not recite the Quran in a noisy surrounding unless it is necessary to recite the there is no other place to do so, but in this case recite in a soft, low voice. If people are eager to listen to the Quran and are calm and quiet then it is better to recite in a loud voice because, according to a hadith(tradition), both the listener and the reciter of the Quran are equal partners in reward.

Also, it is better to recite the Quran looking at it then without looking at it because by looking at the passage of the Quran the eyes and other limbs also participate in worship and this also helps in concentration.

While reciting, place the Quran on a lectern or a raised base (like a pillow) so that it is honoured. Desist from conversation, eating and other work while reciting the Quran. If it is very necessary then close the cover of the Quran, speak or do what is required, (open the holy book) recite the ta'awwudh(اعوذ بالله من الشيطان الرجيم) and basmalah(بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) and resume the recitation. Refrain from wrong pronunciation but recite naturally in Tartil (with adequate stops) and tajwid (rules of recital)without a pretentious or affected manner. There is no need to over emphasize and over-act to produce an artificial voice.

Do not honour anyone while you are reciting the quran but it is permitted to stand up and honour a practicing scholar, a teacher and one's parents, When you are about to complete the recitation of the Quran to its final word, get together you relatives, friends and dependants. Recite the quran to its end in their presence and associate them in the supplication because that is an opportune time for prayers to be accepted. After completing the Quran, recite surah al-Fatihah (a chapter of Quran) and surah al-Baqarah (a chapter of Quran) up to (اولئک هم المفلحون) (first five verses) before you close the Book because this is better.

While it is permitted to recite the Quran while reclining or lying down, yet it is more excellent to sit respectfully and recite it. Also, it is allowed to recite the Quran while walking along somewhere. If it is in a wilderness then the Quran may be recited aloud, otherwise in a low voice. It is makruh(unbecoming) to recite it in an impure or dislike place, like the bathroom, slaughter house, etc.

A very small sized copy of the Quran must not be used not may it be divided into pieces lest it is shown dis-respect. However, it is necessary like to teach children or for some convenience, it is allowed to have it in its juza (parts, for it had thirty parts) or in seven surahs, etc.

It is not proper to take the Quran to an army which cannot be trusted for peace. The Qura may not be taken to an enemy territory too lest it come to the hands of the disbelievers who might show it disrespect.

It is fard(compulsory) on every Muslim to memorise so many verses of the Quran as may enable him to offer the salah (prayer). To memorise the entire Quran is fard Kifayah (adequate obligation) so t hat if even one person memorises it, then all the others will be absolved of the obligation. The jurists asserts that it is wajib (obligatory) on every Muslim to memorise surah al-Fatihah (chapter) and any other one surah. And, to memorise the rest of the Quran and learn its commands is better than offering the supererogatory salah (prayer).

It is not makruh(unbecoming) to stretch one's feet towards a copy of the Quran provided it is not near the feet. If it is kept high or in a chest then it is not makruh(unbecoming) to spread one's feet in that direction.

There is no harm if, during a journey, a copy of the Quran is kept in a bag or any case to preserve it and then to sit on that, or to place it under a pillow and sleep on it. Also, there is no harm in having sexual intercourse in the house or room in which the mashaf (copy of the Quran) is kept.

When you begin to recite the Quran. You must first make this supplication:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَشْهَدُ اَنَّ هٰذَا كِتَابُكَ الْمُنَزَّلُ مِنْ عِنْدِكَ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِكَ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَاٰلِهٖ
وَاَصْحَابِهٖ وَاَتْبَاعِهٖ اَجْمَعِيْنَ وَكَلَامُكَ النَّاطِقُ عَلٰى لِسَانِ نَبِيِّكَ جَعَلْتَهٗ هَادِيًا مِّنْكَ لِخَلْقِكَ وَحَبْلًا مُّتَّصِلًا
فِيْمَا بَيْنَكَ وَبَيْنَ عِبَادِكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ فَاجْعَلْ نَظَرِىْ فِيْهِ عِبَادَةً وَّقِرَاءَتِىْ فِكْرًا وَّفِكْرِىْ فِيْهِ اِعْتِبَارًا اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ
الرَّءُوْفُ الرَّحِيْمُ رَبِّ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ هَمَزَاتِ الشَّيَاطِيْنِ وَاَعُوْذُ بِكَ رَبِّ اَنْ يَّحْضُرُوْنِ

(O Allah, I bear witness that this your Book is revealed by you to your Messenger Muhammad ibn Abdullah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) may Allah's blessing be on him, his family and descendants, his companions and followers, all of them. And, (I bear witness that) it is your words spoken by the tongue of your Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, which you have made a means of guidance from you for your creatures and a connecting link between you and your slaves. O Allah cause my sight to be engaged in worship in it, my recitat and my pondering to take lesson from it. Surely, you are fu Lord, I seek refuge in you from the evil suggestion of th refuge in you, my Lord, lest they attend me.[1]

After this supplication, recite the surahs al-falaq and an-Naas (th

Then make this supplication:

نَزَّلَ اَللّٰهُمَّ عَظِّمْ رَغْبَتِىْ فِيْهِ وَاجْعَلْهُ نُوْرًا لِّبَصَرِىْ وَشِفَاءً لِّصَدْرِىْ وَذِهَابًا لِّهَمِّىْ

[1] Quran, 6:1

وَحُزْنِيْ وَبَيِّضْ بِهٖ وَجْهِيْ وَارْزُقْنِيْ تِلَاوَتَهٗ وَفَهْمَ مَعَانِيْهِ بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا اَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ

(O Allah, you have revealed the Quran with truth and it has come down with Truth, O Allah, cause my interest in it to increase greatly. Cause it to be light for my eyes, cure for my heart, and a remover of my sorrow and grief. Make my face radiant with it, and enable me to recite it and cause me to understand its meanings, O the Most Merciful of those who show mercy).

Every day after reciting the Quran, raise your hands and make this supplication:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلِ الْقُرْاٰنَ لَنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا قَرِيْنًا وَّفِي الْاٰخِرَةِ شَافِعًا وَّفِي الْقَبْرِ مُؤْنِسًا وَّفِي الْقِيَامَةِ صَاحِبًا وَعَلَى الصِّرَاطِ نُوْرًا وَفِي الْجَنَّةِ رَفِيْقًا وَمِنَ النَّارِ سِتْرًا۔

(O Allah, let the Quran be for us in this world, a companion; and, in the hereafter, an intercessor; and in the grave, a sympathizer; and, on the day of resurrection, a companion; and, on the sirat a light: and, in paradise, a friend; and from the Fire, a protection)

Then make every supplication you wish for your needs of this world and the next. Insha Allah, all your petitions shall receive the honour of acceptance from the one who grants the prayers.

Ibn Marduwayh رحمه الله has transmitted from Sayyiduna Abu Harayrah رضی الله عنه that then the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم completed the recitation of the Quran to its last verse, he stood up and made this supplication. Bayhaqi رحمه الله has transmitted in Shu'ab ul eeman that Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone recites the Quran, praises and glorifies Allah, invokes blessings on Muhammad رضی الله عنه and prays to his Lord to forgive him, then, indeed, he has prayed for goodness in the best way."

Bayhaqi رحمه الله has transmitted in Shua'ab ul eeman that whenever the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم completed the recitation of the Quran to the end, he stood up and praised and glorified Allah very much. His words of praise and glorification and prayer were:

(All praise belongs to Allah, Lord of the worlds. All praise belongs to Allah, who created the heavens and the earth and formed the darkness and light, yet those who disbelieve hold (others) as equal to their Lord. There is no God but Allah. Those who set equal with Allah lie and have strayed very far. There is no God but Allah. Those who associate with Allah lie be they of the Arabs, the magis, the Jews, the Christians, the sabis and those who ascribe to Allah a son and a wife, or idols or a like or an equal or in name or attribute, but you are our Lord, far greater than taking a partner from what you have created.

All praise belongs to Allah who has taken no wife or a son and has no partner in the dominion, and there is no protector through dependence for Him. And magnify him with (all) magnificence.[1]

Allah is the Greatest, very Great. And, all praise belongs to Him very much. And without blemish is Allah morning and evening. All praise belongs to Allah who has revealed the Book to His servant (Muhammad) and has not assigned to it any crookedness. (He made it) straightforward that it may warn of a severe punishment from him and give glad tidings to the believers, who do righteous deeds, and theirs shall be goodly reward (of paradise) abiding therein forever. And warn those who say, 'Allah has taken to himself a son.' They have no knowledge of it, nor (had) their fathers. Grievous is the word that comes out of their mouths. They speak nothing but a lie.[2]

All praise belongs to Allah whose is whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth, and his is the praise in the hereafter! And He is the wise, the Aware. He knows that which goes down into the earth and which comes forth from it, and that which descends from the heavens and that which ascends thereto. And He is the merciful, the Forgiving.[1]

All praise belongs to Allah, the Originator the heavens and the earth, the appointer of the angels as Messengers having wings two, three or four. He adds to the creation what He will surely Allah has power over everything. What so ever of mercy Allah opens to mankind, there is none to withhold, it and that which He holds back, none can grant thereafter And He is the mighty, the wise.[2]
All praise belongs to Allah, and peace be on His servants whom He has chosen! 'Is Allah better or what they associate (with Him).'[3]
Rather, Allah is best and He will abide. He is with a firm command and is possessor of Might and He is Nobler and Mightier than whatever they associate with Him. All praise belongs to Allah, but most of them know not. Allah has spoken the truth and His noble Messenger have conveyed the massage. And, I am over that a witness. O Allah, shower blessing on all the angels and the Messengers. And have mercy on your believing slaves from among the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth. And cause our and to be with goodness, and open for us the good. Bless us in the mighty Quran and give us benefit from the verses and the wise remembrance. Our Lord, accept from us. Surely you indeed, are the All-Hearing, the All-knowing.)

ONE WHO LEARNS & ONE WHO TEACHES THE QURAN

(٢١٠٩) عَنْ عُثْمَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُكُمْ مَّنْ تَعَلَّمَ الْقُرْاٰنَ وَعَلَّمَهٗ(رواه البخاری)

2109. Sayyiduna Uthman رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The best person of you is he who learns the Quran and teaches it."[4]

COMMENTARY: The Quran and its sciences are superior to all the Books and sciences. Hence, one who knows them is the most distinguished of all the people of the world.

EXCELLENCE OF RECITING THE QURAN

(٢١١٠) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ خَرَجَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنَحْنُ فِي الصُّفَّةِ فَقَالَ اَيُّكُمْ يُحِبُّ اَنْ يَغْدُوَ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ اِلٰى بُطْحَانَ اَوِالْعَقِيْقِ فَيَأْتِيْ بِنَاقَتَيْنِ كَوْمَاوَيْنِ فِيْ غَيْرِ اِثْمٍ وَلَا قَطْعِ رَحِمٍ فَقُلْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ كُلُّنَا نُحِبُّ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ اَفَلَا يَغْدُوْ اَحَدُكُمْ اِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ فَيُعَلِّمُ اَوْيَقْرَأُ اٰيَتَيْنِ مِنْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ خَيْرٌ لَّهٗ مِنْ نَاقَتَيْنِ وَثَلَاثٌ خَيْرٌ لَّهٗ مِنْ ثَلَاثٍ وَاَرْبَعٌ خَيْرٌ لَهٗ مِنْ اَرْبَعٍ وَمِنْ اَعْدَادِهِنَّ مِنَ الْاِبِلِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2110. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم came to them while they were in the suffah. He asked them if any of them would like to go out every morning to Buthan or al-Aqiq and bring back two largehumped she-camels without burdening himself of sin or severing ties of relationship? They said that all of them would like to do that. He said, "Any of you who comes to the mosque and teaches to anyone two verses of Allah's book or learns them himself that is better for him than two she camels. Three verses are better for him that three she camels and four verses are better for him than four she camel, and so on the (number of) verses better than their numbers in she camels."[1]

COMMENTARY: Suffah was a covered shelter opposite to Masjid Nabawi. The muhajir sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم who had no home and wife and children secluded themselves there. They were deeply devoted to worship and were great ascetics. They kept constant company of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. This was the first school of Islam whose teacher was the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم were its students.

Buthan was a valley near Madina. Aqiq was a place about three miles from Madinah. At both these places markets were held where camels were sold. The large humped camels were very valuable and considered to be a prized possession. The prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم invited the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم to what remains as against what perishes.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned to them the camels only by way of example. This can be extended to all the things of the world.

(٢١١١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُحِبُّ اَحَدُكُمْ اِذَا رَجَعَ اِلٰى اَهْلِهٖ اَنْ يَّجِدَ فِيْهِ ثَلَاثَ خَلِفَاتٍ عِظَامٍ سِمَانٍ قُلْنَا نَعَمْ قَالَ فَثَلَاثُ اٰيَاتٍ يَقْرَأُبِهِنَّ اَحَدُكُمْ فِيْ صَلَاتِهٖ خَيْرٌ لَّهٗ مِنْ ثَلَاثِ خَلِفَاتٍ عِظَامٍ سِمَانٍ (رواه مسلم)

2111. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked. "Does any one of you wish that when he returns to his family he should find with them three large, fat, pregnant she camel?" They said, "Yes!" He said, "Three verses that any of you recites in his salah (prayer) are better for him than three large, fat pregnant she camels."[2]

ONE WHO IS ADEPT IN THE QURAN

(٢١١٢) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْمَاهِرُ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ مَعَ السَّفَرَةِ الْكِرَامِ الْبَرَرَةِ وَالَّذِيْ يَقْرَأُ الْقُرْاٰنَ وَيَتَتَعْتَعُ فِيْهِ وَهُوَ عَلَيْهِ شَاقٌّ لَهٗ اَجْرَانِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2112. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The adept in the Quran is with the noble, righteous recording angels. He who stumbles as he recites the Quran and encounters difficulty (in reciting it) will earn a two fold reward."[3]

COMMENTARY: The adept in the Quran who knows it very well will be with the angels who record Allah's Books from the Preserved Tablet or who record deeds of men. He will perform deeds in this world that match deeds of those angels and will be their friend in the hereafter. The person who finds difficulty in reciting the Quran will earn a two fold reward because of his recital and the effort. However, he will not out do the adept.

(٢١١٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا حَسَدَ اِلَّا عَلٰى اثْنَيْنِ رَجُلٌ اٰتَاهُ اللّٰهُ الْقُرْاٰنَ فَهُوَ يَقُوْمُ بِهٖ اٰنَاءَ اللَّيْلِ وَاٰنَاءَ النَّهَارِ وَرَجُلٌ اٰتَاهُ اللّٰهُ مَالًا فَهُوَ يُنْفِقُ مِنْهُ اٰنَاءَ اللَّيْلِ وَاٰنَاءَ النَّهَارِ

2113. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Envy is not allowed except concerning two people; He whom Allah has granted the (blessing of the) Quran and he occupies himself with it by night and by day; and he whom Allah has bestowed wealth and he spends from it by night and by day."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word in the text is (حسد) (hasad - jealousy). It means that 'the blessings someone else enjoys may be taken away from him and awarded to the one who is jealous.' But, it is of two kind: (i) real and (ii) envious. The former is as defined and is forbidden. The second kind is a person's desire to possess those blessings without wishing for withdrawal from another. It is permitted for worldly possessions and mustahab (desirable) for religious issues like when someone does pious work and another wishes for being able to do the same.

The hadith (tradition) refers to the second kind, envy. It is allowed for these two blessings. Since they are the best, hence it is allowed for others two which are of a smaller kind.

HE WHO RECITES THE QURAN & HE WHO DOES NOT

(٢١١٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسَى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ الْمُؤْمِنِ الَّذِيْ يَقْرَاُ الْقُرْاٰنَ مَثَلُ الْاُتْرُجَّةِ رِيْحُهَا طَيِّبٌ وَطَعْمُهَا طَيِّبٌ وَمَثَلُ الْمُؤْمِنِ الَّذِيْ لَا يَقْرَاُ الْقُرْاٰنَ مَثَلُ التَّمْرَةِ لَا رِيْحَ لَهَا وَطَعْمُهَا حُلْوٌ وَمَثَلُ الْمُنَافِقِ الَّذِيْ لَا يَقْرَاُ الْقُرْاٰنَ كَمَثَلِ الْحَنْظَلَةِ لَيْسَ لَهَا رِيْحٌ وَطَعْمُهَا مُرٌّ وَمَثَلُ الْمُنَافِقِ الَّذِيْ يَقْرَاُ الْقُرْاٰنَ مَثَلُ الرَّيْحَانَةِ رِيْحُهَا طَيِّبٌ وَطَعْمُهَا مُرٌّ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ الْمُؤْمِنُ الَّذِيْ يَقْرَاُ الْقُرْاٰنَ وَيَعْمَلُ بِهٖ كَالْاُتْرُجَّةِ وَالْمُؤْمِنُ الَّذِيْ لَا يَقْرَاُ الْقُرْاٰنَ وَيَعْمَلُ بِهٖ كَالتَّمْرَةِ۔

2114. Sayyiduna Abu Musa al-Ash'ary رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said about a believer who recites the Quran that he is like a citron whose fragrance is sweet and whose taste is sweet.

and a believer who does not recite the Quran that he is like a date that lacks fragrance but whose taste is sweet.

and a hypocrite who does not recite the Quran that he is like a colocynth with no fragrance and a bitter taste, and a hypocrite who recites the Quran that he is like a basil with a sweet fragrance but a bitter taste.

According to another version, (he said about) a believer who recites the Quran and abides by it that he is like a citron.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5025, Muslim 266-815.

and a believer who does not recite the Quran but abides by it that he is like a date.[1]

COMMENTARY: The believer who recite the Quran is like a citron because he is of a sweet temperament and cheerful with the fragrance of faith ingrained in him and he is of a sweet nature in that other people earn reward when they hear his recitation of the Quran and even learn it from him.

THEIR RANKS ALSO DIFFER

(٢١١٥) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَرْفَعُ بِهٰذَا الْكِتَابِ اَقْوَامًا وَيَضَعُ بِهٖ اٰخَرِيْنَ (رواه مسلم)

2115. Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, Allah exalts people by this Book (the Quran) and lowers others by it."[2]

ANGELS EAGER TO LISTEN TO THE QURAN & CROWD AROUND

2116. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated about Sayyiduna Usayd ibn Hudayr رضی اللہ عنہ that he related; I was reciting surah al-Baqarah one night. My mare that was tied beside me began to jump. I pauses reciting and the mare calmed down. I resumed my recitation and it resumed its jumping about, so I paused my recital and it stopped hoping. When I resumed my recitation, the mare jumped again, so I ceased to recite because my son Yahya was near the mare and I was apprehensive lest it might hurt him. I moved him back and as I saw what looked like a canopy with sort of lamps inside it. In the morning, I disclosed it to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who said, "You ought to have continued reciting. Ibn Hudayr." I told him that I was afraid that the mare might have trampled on Yahya, who near to it, and when I went to him and raised my head to the sky, I saw what looked like a canopy with sort of lamps inside it. I went out but could find nothing. He asked, "can you say what that was?" I said, "No!" He said, "They were the angels who had come close to your voice. If you had continued to recite, morning would have begun with people looking at them without their concealing themselves."

The version in Muslim has: 'That thing (the canopy) went up into the atmosphere' instead of 'I went out' in the first person pronoun.[1]

COMMENTARY: The horse was alarmed on seeing the angels who disappeared when Sayyiduna Usayd رضی اللہ عنہ paused.

About the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words translated 'you ought to have continued reciting...' (اقراء), Ibn Majar رحمہ اللہ said that they mean; 'You should recite it always referring to surah al-Baqarah. 'If the same things happens again when you recite it, do not stop but continue to recite.'

However, Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that these words are in the past tense and the reply that he was afraid for his son justifies the translation, 'you ought to have continued...'

RECITATION BRINGS MERCY

(٢١١٧) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَ كَانَ رَجُلٌ يَقْرَأُ سُوْرَةَ الْكَهْفِ وَإِلَى جَانِبِهِ حِصَانٌ مَرْبُوْطٌ بِشَطَنَيْنِ فَتَغَشَّتْهُ سَحَابَةٌ فَجَعَلَتْ تَدْنُوْ وَتَدْنُوْ وَجَعَلَ فَرَسُهُ يَنْفِرُ فَلَمَّا أَصْبَحَ أَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَرَ ذٰلِكَ لَهُ فَقَالَ تِلْكَ السَّكِيْنَةُ تَنَزَّلَتْ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2117. Sayyiduna Al-Bar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man was reciting surah al-kahf while a horse was tied with two ropes at his side. A cloud overshadowed him and approached him getting nearer and nearer to him. His horse was alarmed (and began to jump). When it was morning, he met the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and mentioned that to him. He said, 'That was t he sakinah that descended because of the Quran."[2] (Sakinah is tranquility.)

COMMENTARY: Sakinah is peace of mind that purifies the heart and removes the darkness of the heart. Thought it is not tangible or perceptible by touch yet it does show itself sometimes as a mass.

MERIT OF SURAH AL-FATIHAH (CHAPTER)

(٢١١٨) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ الْمُعَلّٰى قَالَ كُنْتُ أُصَلِّيْ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَدَعَانِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمْ أُجِبْهُ ثُمَّ أَتَيْتُهُ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنِّيْ كُنْتُ أُصَلِّيْ قَالَ أَلَمْ يَقُلِ اللّٰهُ اسْتَجِيْبُوْا لِلّٰهِ وَلِلرَّسُوْلِ إِذَا دَعَاكُمْ ثُمَّ قَالَ أَلَا أُعَلِّمُكَ أَعْظَمَ سُوْرَةٍ فِي الْقُرْاٰنِ قَبْلَ أَنْ تَخْرُجَ مِنَ الْمَسْجِدِ فَأَخَذَ بِيَدِيْ فَلَمَّا أَرَدْنَا أَنْ نَخْرُجَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّكَ قُلْتَ لَأُعَلِّمَنَّكَ أَعْظَمَ سُوْرَةٍ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ قَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ هِيَ السَّبْعُ الْمَثَانِيْ وَالْقُرْاٰنُ الْعَظِيْمُ الَّذِيْ أُوْتِيْتُهُ۔ (رواه البخاری)

did not give him an answer. Then he went to him and said, "O Messenger of Allah, I was offering salah (prayer) (so could not come then)." He asked, "Does not Allah say; 'Respond to Allah and to the Messenger when the Messenger calls you.?" Then, he asked, "Shall I not teach you the greatest surah in the Quran before you go out of the mosque?" He then took him by the hand, and as they were about to go out, he reminded him." O Messenger of Allah, you had said to me that you would teach me the greatest surah in the Quran." He said, (الحمدلله رب العلمين) (surah 1:107). It is the seven aft-repeated and the mighty Quran (القرآن العظيم) that has been given to me."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words, 'Respond to Allah and to the Messenger...' are from the Quran (8:24). This means that if any one offering salah (prayer) responds to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم then his salah (prayer) will not become void. It is like addressing the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم while offering the salah (prayer).

Surah al-Fatihah (chapter) may be brief but its benefit and meanings are unlimited. Some saintly men did say that everything in the previous heavenly Books is found in the Quran and everything in the Quran is found in al-Fatihah (chapter) and whatever is in surah ul-fatihah is found in the basmalah(بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم).

The seven verses are often repeated in the salah (prayer) and they are surah al-Fatihah (chapter). The mighty Quran also refers to surah al-Fatihah (chapter). In terms of meaning and benefits, it is a great part of the Quran, so it is called the mighty Quran.

EXCELLENCE OF SURAH AL-BAQARAH

(٢١١٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَجْعَلُوْا بُيُوْتَكُمْ مَقَابِرَ اِنَّ الشَّيْطٰنَ يَنْفِرُ مِنَ الْبَيْتِ الَّذِيْ يُقْرَأُ فِيْهِ سُوْرَةُ الْبَقَرَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2119. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not turn your homes into graveyards. The devil flees from the house in which surah al-Baqarah is recited."[2]

COMMENTARY: Graveyards are places where w3orship is not practiced, If the same thing is done at home, then they are like graveyards and their dwellers are like the dead who do not engage in worship. Recitation of the Quran, particularly al-Baqarah, attracts Allah's mercy and preserves from the devil's mischief. Surah al-Baqarah has Allah's attributes and many commands too.

THE QURAN AS INTERCESSOR

(٢١٢٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اقْرَأُوا الْقُرْاٰنَ فَاِنَّهٗ يَاْتِيْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ شَفِيْعًا لِاَصْحَابِهٖ اقْرَأُوا الزَّهْرَاوَيْنِ الْبَقَرَةَ وَسُوْرَةَ اٰلِ عِمْرَانَ فَاِنَّهُمَا تَاْتِيَانِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ كَاَنَّهُمَا غَمَامَتَانِ اَوْغَيَايَتَانِ اَوْفِرْقَانِ مِنْ طَيْرٍ صَوَافَّ تُحَاجَّانِ عَنْ اَصْحَابِهِمَا اقْرَأُوْا سُوْرَةَ الْبَقَرَةِ فَاِنَّ اَخْذَهَا بَرَكَةٌ وَتَرْكَهَا حَسْرَةٌ وَلَا يَسْتَطِيْعُهَا الْبَطَلَةُ (رواه مسلم)

الله عليه وسلم say, "Recite the Quran, for on the day of resurrection it will come as an intercessor for its companions (meaning, those who recite it constantly). Recite the two radiant surahs, al-Baqarah and surah Aal Imran, for, on the day of resurrection, they will come as though two clouds or two shades or two flocks of birds in rows arguing for their companions (who recite them constantly). Recite surah al-Baqarah, for, being constant with it results in blessings but neglecting it will cause regret, And, the false and lethargic are unable to recite it."[1]

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمه الله explained that shade is provided in three ways according to those who recite these surahs, recite and understand them, and (recite, understand and) teach others too.

(٢١٢١) وَعَنِ النَّوَّاسِ بْنِ سَمْعَانَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ يُؤْتٰى بِالْقُرْاٰنِ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَاَهْلُهُ الَّذِيْنَ كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ بِهٖ تَقْدُمُهٗ سُوْرَةُ الْبَقَرَةِ وَاٰلِ عِمْرَانَ كَاَنَّهُمَا غَمَامَتَانِ اَوْ ظُلَّتَانِ سَوْدَاوَانِ بَيْنَهُمَا شَرْقٌ اَوْ كَاَنَّهُمَا فِرْقَانِ مِنْ طَيْرٍ صَوَافَّ تُحَاجَّانِ عَنْ صَاحِبِهِمَا (رواه مسلم)

2121. Sayyiduna An-Nawwas ibn Sam'ran said that he heard the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم say. "On the day of resurrection, the Quran and its people who abided by it will be brought, surah al-Baqarah and Aal Imran will lead the Quran, as though two black clouds or two canopies. There will be light between them. Or, they will be as though two flocks of birds in rows. They will dispute for their companion (who recited them both)."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) is evidence that only those who abide by the Quran are its people for whom it will intercede. The Quran will perhaps be given a form. The light between them is said by some to mean the basmalah(بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم).

AAYAT UL KURSI IS THE GREATEST VERSE.

(٢١٢٢) وَعَنْ اُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا اَبَا الْمُنْذِرِ اَتَدْرِىْ اَىَّ اٰيَةٍ مِنْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى مَعَكَ اَعْظَمُ قُلْتُ اللّٰهُ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ اَعْلَمُ قَالَ يَا اَبَا الْمُنْذِرِ اَتَدْرِىْ اَىَّ اٰيَةٍ مِنْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى مَعَكَ اَعْظَمُ قُلْتُ اَللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ قَالَ فَضَرَبَ فِىْ صَدْرِىْ وَقَالَ لِيَهْنِكَ الْعِلْمُ يَا اَبَا الْمُنْذِرِ (رواه مسلم)

2122. Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him, "O Abu al Mundhir, do you know which verse of Allah's Book is the greatest in your sight?" He said, "Allah and His Messenger know best." (But) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him again, "O Abu al-Mundhir, do you know which verse of the Book of Allah, the Exalted, is the greatest in your sight?" He said (this time) (اَللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ) (otherwise 255 of al-Baqarah)." He patted him on his chest and commanded him, "May knowledge be beneficial for you, O Abu al-Mundhir!"[3]

COMMENTARY: This verse is the aayat ul kursi. It asserts the unity of God, It speaks of 2123. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assigned to me the charge of the zakah of Ramadan (which is sadaqah (charity) of eed ul fitr). Someone came to me and began to collect handfuls of food (in his vessel). I seized him and said to him, "I will take you to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He pleaded, "I am needy with children and family dependent on me. I am very needy. "I let him go. In the morning, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked me, "What happened to your captive of last night, O Abu Hurayrah?" (Allah had informed him). I said, "O Messenger of Allah, he complained to me of his dire need and dependent children, so I was sorry for him and let him go." He said, "Beware! He has lied to you and will come back.' I was sure that he would return because Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said so. Hence, I waited for him. He arrived and began to collect handfuls of food. I caught him and told him that I would certainly take him to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He pleaded that I should let him go, for, he was needy and had children who depended on him. He assured me that he would not return. So, I felt sorry for him and released him. In the morning. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked me about my captive and I informed him of what had transpired and I felt sorry for him and let him go. He said that he had lied to me and would return. I wait ed for him as he came and collected handfuls of food, I aught him and said that I would definitely take him to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم since this was the third time that he asserted that he would not return, but he always did. He pleaded, "Let me go. I shall teach you some words whereby Allah will benefit you. When you go to your bed notice the aayat ul kursi (اللهُ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ) to the end of the verse. Then, a guardian from Allah will watch over you and no evil will approach you will morning." I let him go once again. In the morning. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked me, "What happened to your captive?" I said that he taught me some words whereby he assured me that Allah would benefit me. He said, "Certainly, he told you the truth but he is a liar otherwise, indeed. Are you aware who you have been talking to those three nights?" I said, "No," and he said, "He was the devil. (He had come to rob the property of sadaqah (charity))"[1]

(٢١٢٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ بَيْنَمَا جِبْرِيْلُ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ قَاعِدٌ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَمِعَ نَقِيْضًا مِنْ فَوْقِهٖ فَرَفَعَ رَأْسَهٗ فَقَالَ هٰذَا بَابٌ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فُتِحَ الْيَوْمَ لَمْ يُفْتَحْ قَطُّ إِلَّا الْيَوْمَ فَنَزَلَ مِنْهُ مَلَكٌ فَقَالَ هٰذَا مَلَكٌ نَزَلَ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ لَمْ يَنْزِلْ قَطُّ إِلَّا الْيَوْمَ فَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَبْشِرْ بِنُوْرَيْنِ أُوْتِيْتَهُمَا لَمْ يُؤْتَهُمَا نَبِيٌّ قَبْلَكَ فَاتِحَةُ الْكِتَابِ وَخَوَاتِيْمُ سُوْرَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ لَنْ تَقْرَأَ بِحَرْفٍ مِنْهُمَا إِلَّا أُعْطِيْتَهٗ (رواه مسلم)

2124. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said that Jibril (gabriel) عليه السلام was sitting with the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and he heard a creaking sound from above him (of a door opening). He raised his head and said, "This is a door of the heaven that is opened today. It was not opened until today." An angel descended from it. Jibril (gabriel) عليه السلام said, "This angel has come down to earth. He had never come down till today." He offered salaam (greetings to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and said, "Glad tidings to you for two lights that have been granted to you as have never been granted to any Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم you; fatihat ul kitab (surah al Fatihah) and the last verses of surah al Baqarah. For every letter (word) of them that you recite, you will be given the reward thereof, of your prayer will be answered."[2]

COMMENTARY: Surah al-Fatihah (chapter) and al-Baqarah's verses will lead their reciters with light on the day of resurrection.

The last verses of surah al-Baqarah begin from (لِلّٰهِ مَا فِى السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِى الْأَرْضِ) to the end of the surah (the final ruku). The prayers in these readings will be answered and the words will fetch reward on reading them. The letter in hadith stands for words (كلمة).

(٢١٢٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْآيَتَانِ مِنْ اٰخِرِ سُوْرَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ مَنْ قَرَأَ بِهِمَا فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ كَفَتَاهُ (متفق عليه)

2125. Sayyiduna Abu Mas'ud رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم

[2] Muslim # 254-806, Nasai'i # 912.

said, "The two verses at the end of surah al-Baqarah are enough for one who recites them at night."[1]

COMMENTARY: These verses are enough to preserve the reciter from the mischief of men and jinn. Or. They are enough to replace standing in prayer at night.

MEMORIZING FIRST TEN VERSES OF AL-KAHF

(٢١٢٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ حَفِظَ عَشْرَ اٰيَاتٍ مِنْ اَوَّلِ سُوْرَةِ الْكَهْفِ عُصِمَ مِنَ الدَّجَّالِ (رواه مسلم)

2126. Sayyiduna Abu ad-Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who memorizes ten verses at the beginning of surah al-Kahf will be protected from the dajjal (the great deceiver) ."[2]

COMMENTARY: The dajjal (the great deceiver) could be the one who will appear near the last Hour, or every liar and fraud who troubles the people.

The version of Tirmidhi (# 2146) to follow mention any one who recites three verses of al-kahf. Scholars say that while this hadith means one who will meet the dajjal (the great deceiver) will be safe from him, the next one (# 2146) mean one who does not encounter him will be safe. The trial be severe if one encounters the dajjal (the great deceiver) more than if one does not encounter him.

MERIT OF SURAH AL-IKHLAS

(٢١٢٧-٢١٢٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيَعْجِزُ اَحَدُكُمْ اَنْ يَقْرَأَ فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ ثُلُثَ الْقُرْاٰنِ قَالُوْا وَكَيْفَ يَقْرَأُ ثُلُثَ الْقُرْاٰنِ قَالَ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ تَعْدِلُ ثُلُثَ الْقُرْاٰنِ۔ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ عَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ۔

2127. Sayyiduna Abu ad-Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "Can any of you be unable to recite one third of the Quran in a night?" They (the sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہ asked, "How may one third of the Quran be recited?" He explained that (قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ) (surah al-Ikhlas) stands for one third of the Quran.[3]

2128. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (the same hadith).[4]

COMMENTARY: Basically, the topics of the Quran are the three kinds:

I. Stories of the past.
II. Commands.
III. Monotheism.

The unity of Allah is mentioned in Surah al-Ikhlas in a very strong and eloquent manner. The gist of tawhid (or monotheism) mentioned in the Quran is found in surah al-ikhlas. Reciting it is like reciting one third Quran.

Some scholars say that the reward of surah al-Ikhlas is multiplied to be equivalent to that of 2129. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent a man as amir (commander) of an expedition. (He also was their imam.) During the salah (prayer), when he recited for his men, he finished it with (قل هو الله احد) (Surah al-Ikhlas). When they returned, they mentioned it to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who instructed them to ask him why he did so. When they asked him, he said, "Because it is a description of Rahman (the compassionate) and I love to recite it (with the unity of God)." The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Inform him that Allah loves him."[1]

COMMENTARY: In the last raka'sh of every salah (prayer), he recited al-Ikhlas with surah al-Fatihah (chapter). However, Ibn Hajar رحمہ اللہ explained that in every raka'ah (complete part of a prayer), he recited surah al-Ikhlas either with surah al-Fatihah (chapter) alone or with surah al-Fatihah (chapter) and another surah. The first explanation is more plausible because all the ulama (Scholars) say that in this case, the salah (prayer) is correctly offered without distaste.

(٢١٣٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ اِنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ اُحِبُّ هٰذِهِ السُّوْرَةَ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ قَالَ اِنَّ حُبَّكَ اِيَّاهَا اَدْخَلَكَ الْجَنَّةَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَى الْبُخَارِيُّ معناه۔

2130. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man submitted. "O Messenger of Allah, I love this surah (al-Ikhlas) (قل هو الله احد)." (He meant that he recited it often.) He said, "Surely, your love for it will admit you to paradise."[2]

MERIT OF MU'AWWATAYN

(٢١٣١) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَمْ تَرَ اٰيَاتٍ اُنْزِلَتِ اللَّيْلَةَ لَمْ يُرَ مِثْلُهُنَّ قَطُّ قُلْ اَعُوْذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ وَقُلْ اَعُوْذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2131. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Very excellent verses have been revealed tonight. Their like has not been seen! They are: (قل اعوذ برب الفلق) and (قل اعوذ برب الناس) (al-Falaq and an-Naas)."[3]

AL-IKHLAS TO THE MU'AWWATAYN BEFORE RETIRING

2132. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that on retiring every night to his bed, the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم put his hands together and breathed into them. Then he recited (قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ), (قُلْ اَعُوْذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ) and (قُلْ اَعُوْذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ) (al-Ikhlas, al-Flaq and al-Naas). Then, he wiped his body as for as he could reach his hands. He began with his head, his face and the front of his body. He did it three times (meaning the whole exercise and after the front of his body, he wiped the rest of it).[1]

COMMENTARY: He first breathed into his hands and then recited. It is either that he did it to counter the securers who recited before breathing. Or it means that he decided to breathe before reciting. Then he recited and breathed into his hands.

THREE THINGS UNDER THE THRONE ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION

(٢١٣٣) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ ثَلَاثَةٌ تَحْتَ الْعَرْشِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ الْقُرْاٰنُ يُحَاجُّ الْعِبَادَ لَهٗ ظَهْرٌ وَبَطْنٌ وَالْاَمَانَةُ وَالرَّحِمُ تُنَادِی اَلَا مَنْ وَصَلَنِیْ وَصَلَهُ اللّٰهُ وَمَنْ قَطَعَنِیْ قَطَعَهُ اللّٰهُ۔ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

2133. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, three things will be under the Throne.

The Quran will content with men, in a clear, obvious sense and a obscure, complicated sense.

The trust, and,

Ties of relationship that will call, 'Allah will join those who joined me and sever those who severed me." [2]

COMMENTARY: These three things will be near Allah. The reward of those who respected them not be wasted.

The Quran will get those people punished who had neglected it in the world.

The verses of the Quran are very clear about the commands and most people comprehend them. Some however, are allegorical which need a deep thinking to understand them and only a few can fathom them.

RECITING THE QURAN WITH PAUSES

(٢١٣٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُقَالُ لِصَاحِبِ الْقُرْاٰنِ اقْرَأْ وَارْتَقِ وَرَتِّلْ كَمَا كُنْتَ تُرَتِّلُ فِي الدُّنْيَا فَإِنَّ مَنْزِلَكَ عِنْدَ اٰخِرِ اٰيَةٍ تَقْرَؤُهَا (رواه احمد والترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی)

2134. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn amir (commander) رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The man of the Quran (who recited and learnt it) will be told. "Recite and ascend. Recite gently with pauses (in tartil) as you were used to recite it gently in the world. Indeed, your goal will be at the last verse that you recite."[1]

COMMENTARY: The man of the Quran is he who recited the Quran regularly and abided by it. He is not one who recited the Quran but did not act according to its commands, for, he will deserve the curse that the Quran calls on such a one.

Rather, a person who abides by the Quran is as one who recites it always though he may not have recited it really.

Such a one will be asked to go on reciting and walk on in paradise. He will rise in ranks according to the verses he recites. The ranks or degrees in paradise are commensurate with the verses of the quran. Hence, if he recites the entire Quran, then he will get to the highest degrees of paradise and attain the one which he deserves and which is suitable for him.

Among the manners of the recitation of the Quran is that it should be recited with tartil (adequate pauses), meaning with pauses and proper articulation.

The number of verses of the Quran according to the kufis whose science is valid in our neighbourhood is six thousand two hundred thirty seven. There are other opinions too. See the books on tajwid (rules of recital)and qirat for details.

HEART WITHOUT QURAN IS A DESOLATE PLACE

(٢١٣٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الَّذِيْ لَيْسَ فِيْ جَوْفِهٖ شَيْءٌ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ كَالْبَيْتِ الْخَرِبِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2135. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He whose heart has nothing of the Quran in it is like a deserted house (he himself or his heart)."[2]

COMMENTARY: This applies to one who does not know anything of the Quran, or does not believe in it.

BEING OCCUPIED WITH THE QURAN

(٢١٣٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الرَّبُّ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالٰى مَنْ شَغَلَهُ الْقُرْاٰنُ عَنْ ذِكْرِيْ وَمَسْأَلَتِيْ اَعْطَيْتُهٗ اَفْضَلَ مَا اُعْطِي السَّائِلِيْنَ وَفَضْلُ كَلَامِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى عَلٰى سَائِرِ الْكَلَامِ كَفَضْلِ

2136. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that the Lord, Blessed and exalted, says, "He whom the Quran keeps occupied from my remembrance and from supplicating me, I grant him what is better than that which I grant the supplicants" And the excellence of Allah's words over all other words is like the excellence of Allah over His creation. [1]

COMMENTARY: This is a Hadith Qudsi(kind of tradition) from the words, "He whom the Quran keeps occupied..." The closing sentence, "The excellence of Allah's words...." Could be part of it or it could be a saying of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

TEN PIETIES AGAINST EACH LETTER

(٢١٣٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَ أَحَرْفًا مِّنْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ فَلَهٗ بِهٖ حَسَنَةٌ وَالْحَسَنَةُ بِعَشْرِ اَمْثَالِهَا لَا اَقُوْلُ الٓمّٓ حَرْفٌ اَلِفٌ حَرْفٌ وَلَا مٌ حَرْفٌ وَ مِيْمٌ حَرْفٌ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ اِسْنَادًا۔

2137. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who recites a letter from the Book of Allah is rewarded with a piety and each piety is rewarded ten times. I do not say that (الٓمّٓ) (alif laam meem) is one letter. Rather, alif is a letter, laam is a letter and meem is a letter."[2]

QURAN IS A SOURCE OF GUIDANCE

(٢١٣٨) وَعَنِ الْحَارِثِ الْاَعْوَرِ قَالَ مَرَرْتُ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَاِذَا النَّاسُ يَخُوْضُوْنَ فِي الْاَحَادِيْثِ فَدَخَلْتُ عَلٰى عَلِيٍّ فَاَخْبَرْتُهٗ فَقَالَ اَوَ قَدْ فَعَلُوْهَا قُلْتُ نَعَمْ قَالَ اَمَا اِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَلَا اِنَّهَا سَتَكُوْنُ فِتْنَةٌ قُلْتُ مَا الْمَخْرَجُ مِنْهَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ كِتَابُ اللّٰهِ فِيْهِ نَبَأُ مَا قَبْلَكُمْ وَخَبَرُ مَا بَعْدَكُمْ وَحُكْمُ مَا بَيْنَكُمْ هُوَ الْفَصْلُ لَيْسَ بِالْهَزْلِ مَنْ تَرَكَهٗ مِنْ جَبَّارٍ قَصَمَهُ اللّٰهُ وَمَنِ ابْتَغَى الْهُدٰى فِيْ غَيْرِهٖ اَضَلَّهُ اللّٰهُ وَهُوَ حَبْلُ اللّٰهِ الْمَتِيْنُ وَهُوَ ذِكْرُ الْحَكِيْمِ وَهُوَ الصِّرَاطُ الْمُسْتَقِيْمُ هُوَ الَّذِيْ لَا تَزِيْغُ بِهِ الْاَهْوَاءُ وَلَا تَلْتَبِسُ بِهِ الْاَلْسِنَةُ وَلَا يَشْبَعُ مِنْهُ الْعُلَمَاءُ وَلَا يَخْلَقُ عَنْ كَثْرَةِ الرَّدِّ وَلَا يَنْقَضِيْ عَجَائِبُهٗ هُوَ الَّذِيْ لَمْ تَنْتَهِ الْجِنُّ اِذَا سَمِعَتْهُ حَتّٰى قَالُوْا اِنَّا سَمِعْنَا قُرْاٰنًا عَجَبًا يَّهْدِيْ اِلَى الرُّشْدِ فَاٰمَنَّا بِهٖ مَنْ قَالَ بِهٖ صَدَقَ وَمَنْ عَمِلَ بِهٖ اُجِرَ وَمَنْ حَكَمَ بِهٖ عَدَلَ وَمَنْ دَعَا اِلَيْهِ هَدٰى اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ اِسْنَادُهٗ مَجْهُوْلٌ وَفِي الْحَارِثِ مَقَالٌ۔

of it and he asked, "Is it like that?" He said, "Yes!" Whereupon he said, "Indeed, I had heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say that a fitnah would overtake people and I asked him how we would find relief from it. He said, "The Book of Allah. It contains an account of those who preceded you, news of those who will follow you and commands on what you will encounter. It is unmistakable judgement, not a jest. If any despotic abandons it. Allah will deride him into pieces and if any one seeks guidance from something other than it, then Allah leaves him to stray. It is Allah's strong rope. It is the wise reminder. It is the straight path. It is whereby desires cannot divert and tongues cannot be confused. The scholars will never be satiated with it. It does not become stale by much repetition and its wonders are never exhausted. It is the Book of which the jinn were not shy to say on hearing it:

إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا قُرْآنًا عَجَبًا يَهْدِي إِلَى الرُّشْدِ فَآمَنَّا

{Surely we have heard a wonderful Quran. It guides to rectitude, so we believe in it} (22: 1-2)

He who affirms it, speaks the truth. He who abides by it is rewarded. He who judges by it, is just. He who invites to it is guided on the straight path."[1]

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمه الله said that if anyone stops to obey even one verse or one word of the Quran out of arrogance or to recite it then he is a disbeliever. But if he omits to recite it out of lethargy or weakness and respects the Quran at heart then he is not committing a sin though deprives himself of reward.

If we say that desires cannot divert then how is it that the innovators stray though they too deduce from the Quran? The first things is that they lie when they say that they make their conclusions from the Quran. Secondly, their arguments and evidences, too, are wrong because they ignore the ahadith (traditions) and other sources which are necessary to understand the Quran.

Therefore, they are misled because they do not follow the guidance of the Quran. Rather, they make it subservient to their ideology. Junayd رضى الله عنه describes a person who is satisfied with his ignorance as laughable.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said about this portion of the hadith that the innovators are not capable of altering the meaning of the Quran.

The tongue cannot be confused means that no other language howsoever fluent can compare with the Qur'an's eloquence, Or, that the recitation of the Quran is not difficult for the believers even if their mother-tongue is not Arabic. The recitation appeals to hearts. It is as Allah says:

وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ

{And certainly we made the Quran easy for admonition....} (54:17 etc)

The sciences of the Quran are so vast that with it. They cannot comprehend all of the them and they keep studying it for more knowledge.

No matter how much one may recite the quran yet he will not weary of it. Every time he begins a fresh recital, he finds more savour in it.

PARENTS OF SCHOLARS OF THE QURAN WILL BE CROWNED

(٢١٣٩) وَعَنْ مُعَاذٍ الْجُهَنِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ الْقُرْاٰنَ وَعَمِلَ بِمَا فِيْهِ اُلْبِسَ وَالِدَاهُ تَاجًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ ضَوْءُهٗ اَحْسَنُ مِنْ ضَوْءِ الشَّمْسِ فِيْ بُيُوْتِ الدُّنْيَا لَوْ كَانَتْ فِيْكُمْ فَمَا ظَنُّكُمْ بِالَّذِيْ عَمِلَ بِهٰذَا۔ (رواه احمد وابوداؤد)

2139. Sayyiduna Mu'adh al-Juhanni رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'The parents of one who recites the Quran and abides by what it says will be given to put on a crown on the day of resurrection. Its light will be more bright than the light of the sun in the homes of this world if it were among you. Hence, what do you say of one who abides by it?"[1]

COMMENTARY: Teebi said that it is about one who has memorized the Quran.

The hadith (tradition) concludes with the question that if the parents of this person who recites and puts into practice the Quran are made to wear a crown, what may be expected of one who abides by it?

A MIRACLE OF THE QURAN

(٢١٤٠) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَوْ جُعِلَ الْقُرْاٰنُ فِيْ اِهَابٍ ثُمَّ اُلْقِيَ فِي النَّارِ مَا احْتَرَقَ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

2140. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Say, "If the Qur'an were cased in a skin and cast into the fire, it would not burn."[2]

COMMENTARY: Some people say that this miracle was in the times of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. It is like the miracles of other Prophet علیہ السلام, that ceased with them. However, some people say that 'skin' refers to the humen heart cased in his body and hide. The fire of hell will not burn one in whose heart the Quran is preserved.

WILL INTERCEDE FOR TEN RELATIVES

(٢١٤١) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ الْقُرْاٰنَ فَاسْتَظْهَرَهٗ فَاَحَلَّ حَلَالَهٗ وَحَرَّمَ حَرَامَهٗ اَدْخَلَهُ اللّٰهُ الْجَنَّةَ وَشَفَّعَهٗ فِيْ عَشْرَةٍ مِّنْ اَهْلِ بَيْتِهٖ كُلُّهُمْ قَدْ وَجَبَتْ لَهُ النَّارُ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَ حَفْصُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ الرَّاوِيُّ لَيْسَ هُوَ بِالْقَوِيِّ يُضَعَّفُ فِي الْحَدِيْثِ۔

2141. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "As for him who recites the Quran and memories it, and respects its lawful as lawful and unlawful as unlawful, Allah will admit him to paradise and let him intercede for ten members of his family, each of whom would be otherwise eligible for hell."[3]

SURAH AL-FATIHAH (CHAPTER) IS INOCMPARABLE

(٢١٤٢) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاُبَىِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ كَيْفَ تَقْرَأُ فِى الصَّلٰوةِ فَقَرَأَ أُمَّ الْقُرْاٰنِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالَّذِىْ نَفْسِىْ بِيَدِهٖ مَآ اُنْزِلَتْ فِى التَّوْرَاةِ وَلَا فِى الْاِنْجِيْلِ وَلَا فِى الزَّبُوْرِ وَلَا فِى الْقُرْاٰنِ مِثْلُهَا وَاِنَّهَا سَبْعٌ مِّنَ الْمَثَانِىْ وَالْقُرْاٰنُ الْعَظِيْمُ الَّذِىْ اُعْطِيْتُهٗ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِىُّ وَرَوَى الدَّارِمِىُّ مِنْ قَوْلِهٖ مَا اُنْزِلَتْ وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ اُبَىَّ بْنَ كَعْبٍ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِىُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2142. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked (Sayyiduna) Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ, "How do you recite in the salah (prayer)?" He recited the umm ul quran. So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "By Him in whose hand is my soul, no surah like it is revealed in the Torah, the Injil or the Zabur and not even in the Quran. It is the sab'un minal mathani (the mighty Quran that is given to me."Darimi has it from 'no surah like it is revealed...' but does not name Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ [1]

COMMENTARY: See the commentary against the hadith (tradition) # 2118 on 'the seven oft repeated and the mighty Quran.'

LEARNING & ACTING ON QURAN

(٢١٤٣) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَعَلَّمُوا الْقُرْاٰنَ فَاقْرَأُوْهُ فَاِنَّ مَثَلَ الْقُرْاٰنِ لِمَنْ تَعَلَّمَ فَقَرَأَ وَقَامَ بِهٖ كَمَثَلِ جِرَابٍ مَحْشُوٍّ مِسْكًا تَفُوْحُ رِيْحُهٗ كُلَّ مَكَانٍ وَمَثَلُ مَنْ تَعَلَّمَهٗ فَرَقَدَ وَهُوَ فِىْ جَوْفِهٖ كَمَثَلِ جِرَابٍ اُوْكِئَ عَلٰى مِسْكٍ(رواه الترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة)

2143. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Learn the Quran and read it. Know that he, who learn it and recites it (always) and occupies himself in it by keeping awake in the night, is like a bag full of musk whose fragrance spreads throughout the place. And, he, who learns it and goes to sleep with it in his heart, is like a bag that has musk tied up in it."[2]

COMMENTARY: Abu Muhammad رحمہ اللہ said that it is a fard Kifayah(adequate obligation) to learn the Quran and to teach it to other people. Further, it is fard(compulsory) ayn on every Muslim to learn the surahs or verses to be able to recite in the salah (prayer).

Imam (leader)Nawawi رحمہ اللہ said that to occupy oneself in memorizing more than surah al-Fatihah (chapter) (at least enough for the fard(compulsory) recitation) whether verses or surah is better than occupying in offering the optional salah (prayer) because it is a fard kifayah (adequate obligation) and more important than optional salah (prayer). Some later day scholars rule that it is better to engage in memorizing the Quran than to occupy in acquiring the sciences that are fard kifayah (adequate obligation). However, it is not better to engage in memorizing the quran than to acquire those branches of knowledge as are fard(compulsory) ayn to acquire.

The heart of one who learns and reads the Quran which is like musk when he recites the Quran, its blessing spreads in his house up to the listeners. But, one who learns it but neither recites it nor acts on it, does not get the blessing of the quran and does not diffuse it to other people. He is like a sealed bag of musk that spreads no fragrance at all.

BLESSING OF AAYATUL KURSI & SURAH AL-MUMIN

(٢١٤٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ حٰمٓ اَلْمُؤْمِنَ اِلٰى اِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيْرُ وَاٰيَةَ الْكُرْسِيِّ حِيْنَ يُصْبِحُ حُفِظَ بِهِمَا حَتّٰى يُمْسِيَ وَمَنْ قَرَأَ بِهِمَا حِيْنَ يُمْسِيْ حُفِظَ بِهِمَا حَتّٰى يُصْبِحَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2144. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone recites in the morning (حٰمٓ اَلْمُؤْمِنَ) up to (اِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيْرُ) (40:1-3) and aayat ul Kursi (2:255), then he is protected till evening because of that. And if he recites them in the evening then he is protected thereby till it is morning."[1]

COMMENTARY: The first three verses of surah al-Mumin of Ghafir are;

حٰمٓ تَنْزِيْلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللّٰهِ الْعَزِيْزِ الْعَلِيْمِ غَافِرِ الذَّنْبِ وَقَابِلِ التَّوْبِ شَدِيْدِ الْعِقَابِ ذِى الطَّوْلِ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ اِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيْرُ

{Ha Meem. The revelation of the Book is from Allah, the Mighty, the knower, forgiver of sin and Acceptor of repentance, Severe in retribution Lord of bounty. There is no God but he, to Him is the eventual return} (40:1-3)

INSCRIBED ON THE PRESERVED TABLET

(٢١٤٥) وَعَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيْرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَتَبَ كِتَابًا قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّخْلُقَ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضَ بِاَلْفَيْ عَامٍ اَنْزَلَ مِنْهُ اٰيَتَيْنِ خَتَمَ بِهِمَا سُوْرَةَ الْبَقَرَةِ وَلَا تُقْرَاٰنِ فِيْ دَارٍ ثَلَاثَ لَيَالٍ فَيَقْرَبُهَا الشَّيْطَانُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2145. Sayyiduna Nu'man ibn Bashir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah wrote a Book two thousand years before He created the heavens and the earth. Of that, He sent down two verses with which surah al-Baqarah is concluded. If they are recited three nights in a house, then the devil does not approach it. [2]

FIRST THREE VERSES OF AL-KAHF

(٢١٤٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ ثَلَاثَ اٰيَاتٍ مِنْ اَوَّلِ الْكَهْفِ عُصِمَ مِنْ فِتْنَةِ الدَّجَّالِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2146. Sayyiduna Abu ad-Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If any one recites the first three verses of surah al-Kahf, then he is protected from the fitnah (trial) of the dajjal (the great deceiver) ."[1]

COMMENTARY: See the commentary against hadith (tradition) # 2126. Besides that, initially ten verses of surah al-Kahf were mentioned. Then, they may have been brought to three to allow for ease.

SURAH YASIN IS THE HEART OF THE QURAN

(٢١٤٧) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَلْبًا وَّقَلْبُ الْقُرْاٰنِ يٰسٓ وَمَنْ قَرَأَ يٰسٓ كَتَبَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ بِقِرَاءِ تِهَا قِرَائَةَ الْقُرْاٰنِ عَشْرَ مَرَّاتٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2147. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, there is a heart for everything, and the heart of the Quran is (surah) Yasin. For him who recites Yasin, Allah records (as if) he recited the Quran ten times."[2]

COMMENTARY: The surah Yasin contains the gist of the knowledge of the Quran. It mentions the last day and the objectives of the Quran.

SURAH TAHA & YASIN

(٢١٤٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى قَرَأَ طٰهٰ وَ يٰسٓ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّخْلُقَ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضَ بِاَلْفِ عَامٍ فَلَمَّا سَمِعَتِ الْمَلَائِكَةُ الْقُرْاٰنَ قَالَتْ طُوْبٰى لِاُمَّةٍ يَّنْزِلُ هٰذَا عَلَيْهَا وَطُوْبٰى لِاَجْوَافٍ تَحْمِلُ هٰذَا وَطُوْبٰى لِاَلْسِنَةٍ تَتَكَلَّمُ بِهٰذَا (رواه الدارمی)

2148. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed, Allah recited (the surah) TaHa and Yasin one thousand years before He created the heavens and the earth. When the angels heard the Quran (meaning, these two surahs), they said, "Happy, indeed, are the ummah (people/followers) to whom this will be revealed. Happy indeed, are the heart that will hold them! And, happy are the tongues that will recite them!" [3]

COMMENTARY: The words that Allah recited the Quran mean that He disclosed it, or that He made some angels recite to the others, or that He informed them of these surah.
The word 'Quran' is used for qirat (recital) and also any part of it.

BLESSING OF HA MEEM DUKHAN

(٢١٤٩) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ حٰمٓ الدُّخَانَ فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ اَصْبَحَ يَسْتَغْفِرُ لَهٗ سَبْعُوْنَ اَلْفَ مَلَكٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَعُمَرُ بْنُ اَبِيْ خَثْعَمٍ الرَّاوِيُّ يُضَعَّفُ وَقَالَ مُحَمَّدٌ يَعْنِي الْبُخَارِيَّ هُوَ مُنْكَرُ الْحَدِيْثِ۔

2149. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

said, "If anyone recites (the surah) Haa Meem ad-Dukhan in the night, then he will wake up in the morning with seventy thousand angels seeking forgiveness for Him."[1]

(٢١٥٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ حٰمٓ الدُّخَانَ فِيْ لَيْلَةِ الْجُمُعَةِ غُفِرَ لَهٗ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ ضَعِيْفٌ وَّهِشَامٌ اَبُو الْمِقْدَامِ الرَّاوِيُّ يُضَعَّفُ۔

2150. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He, who recites Haa Meem ad-Dukhan on the night of Friday (meaning, the night preceding Friday), will be forgiven (his sins)."[2]

MERIT OF THE MUSABBIHAT

(٢١٥١-٢١٥٢) وَعَنِ الْعِرْبَاضِ بْنِ سَارِيَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقْرَأُ الْمُسَبِّحَاتِ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّرْقُدَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ فِيْهِنَّ اٰيَةً خَيْرٌ مِّنْ اَلْفِ اٰيَةٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاؤدَ وَرَوَاهُ الدَّارِمِيُّ عَنْ خَالِدِ ابْنِ مَعْدَانَ مُرْسَلًا وَّقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2151. Sayyiduna al-Irbad ibn sariyah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet used to recite al-Musabbihat before going to sleep. He would say. "Indeed there is in them a verse that is better than one thousand verses."[3]

2152. Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Ma'dan also narrated it in a Mursal form.[4]

COMMENTARY: The musabbihat are the surahs that begin with the word (سُبْحَانَ) or (سَبَّحَ) or (يُسَبِّحُ) or (سَبِّحْ) and they are seven surahs;

1. Surah al-Isra # 17 (سُبْحَانَ الَّذِیْ اَسْرٰی بِعَبْدِهٖ الآیة)
2. Surah al-Hadid # 57.
3. Surah al-Hashr # 59
4. Surah as-Saff # 61.
5. Surah al-Jummah (people/followers) # 62
6. Surah al-Taghabun # 63
7. Surah al-A'la # 87.

About the verse that is better than me thousand verses some scholars say that it is the verse:

لَوْ اَنْزَلْنَا هٰذَا الْقُرْاٰنَ

{Had we sent this Qur'an on a mountain} (59:21)

Others say that it is:

هُوَ الْاَوَّلُ وَالْاٰخِرُ وَالظَّاهِرُ وَالْبَاطِنُ وَهُوَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ

{He is the first and the Last, and the Manifest and the Hidden, and He is the knower of everything.} (al-Hadid, 57:3)

However, Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that it is very difficult to determine the verse, He says, that like

EXCELLENCE OF OURAH AL MULK

(٢١٥٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ سُوْرَةً فِي الْقُرْاٰنِ ثَلَاثُوْنَ اٰيَةً شَفَعَتْ لِرَجُلٍ حَتّٰى غُفِرَلَهٗ وَهِيَ تَبَارَكَ الَّذِيْ بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ(رواه احمد والترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجة)

2153. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, a surah of the Quran containing thirty verses interceded for a man till he was forgiving (his sins). It is (تبارک الذی بیدہ الملک) (Surah al-Mulk # 67)" [1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) could refer to a man in the past who valued surah al-Mulk. When he died, this surah interceded for him with Allah so that he was preserved from punishment.

However, it could also mean to refer to the future. Whoever recites it, this surah will intercede for him on the day of resurrection. Allah will accept it intercession.

(٢١٥٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ ضَرَبَ بَعْضُ اَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خِبَاءَهٗ عَلٰى قَبْرٍ وَّهُوَ لَا يَحْسِبُ اَنَّهٗ قَبْرٌ فَاِذَا فِيْهِ اِنْسَانٌ يَّقْرَأُ سُوْرَةَ تَبَارَكَ الَّذِيْ بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ حَتّٰى خَتَمَهَا فَاَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَخْبَرَهٗ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هِيَ الْمَانِعَةُ هِيَ الْمُنْجِيَةُ تُنْجِيْهِ مِنْ عَذَابِ اللّٰهِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2154. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a companion of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم pitched a tent over a grave but did not know that there was a grave (underground). The grave dweller was a man who recited surah al-Mulk (# 67) to the end of it. He came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and informed him of it. He said, "It is the repeller. It is the rescuer. It rescues him from Allah's punishment."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم companion may have heard the grave dweller in his dream, or, what is more correct, he may have heard him in his wakening state.

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم PRACTICE BEFORE GOING TO SLEEP

(٢١٥٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ لَا يَنَامُ حَتّٰى يَقْرَأَ الٓمّٓ تَنْزِيْلُ وَتَبَارَكَ الَّذِيْ بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ صَحِيْحٌ وَكَذَا فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَفِي الْمَصَابِيْحِ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2155. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم never went to sleep without having recited (الٓمٓ تنزیل) (# 32) and (تبارک الذی بیدہ الملک) (# 67) [3]

MERIT OF THE SURAHS AZ-ZILZAL, AL-IKHLAS & AL-KAFIRUN

(٢١٥٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَّاَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا زُلْزِلَتْ تَعْدِلُ نِصْفَ الْقُرْاٰنِ وَقُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ تَعْدِلُ ثُلُثَ الْقُرْاٰنِ وَقُلْ يٰاَيُّهَا الْكٰفِرُوْنَ تَعْدِلُ رُبُعَ الْقُرْاٰنِ (رواه الترمذی)

2156. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه and Anas ibn Maalik رضی الله عنه both narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said (اذازلزلت) (# 99) is like half the Quran, (قل هو الله احد) is like a third of the Quran and (قل يايها الكفرون) is like one fourth of the Quran."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Quran speaks of this world and the next. The surah az-Zilzal describes the end emphatically, so it is called half of the Quran.

We have spoken of al-Ikhlas earlier (hadith # 2127). The Surah al Kifirun is described as one-fourth of the Quran because it mentions tawhid (monotheism) very succinctly, it being one of four topics of the Quran.

TEST THREE VERSES OF AL-HASHR

(٢١٥٧) وَعَنْ مَعْقِلِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَالَ حِيْنَ يُصْبِحُ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ السَّمِيْعِ الْعَلِيْمِ مِنَ الشَّيْطٰنِ الرَّجِيْمِ فَقَرَاَ ثَلَاثَ اٰيَاتٍ مِّنْ اٰخِرِ سُوْرَةِ الْحَشْرِ وَكَّلَ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ سَبْعِيْنَ اَلْفَ مَلَكٍ يُّصَلُّوْنَ عَلَيْهِ حَتّٰى يُمْسِيَ وَاِنْ مَاتَ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ الْيَوْمِ مَاتَ شَهِيْدًا وَمَنْ قَالَهَا حِيْنَ يُمْسِيْ كَانَ بِتِلْكَ الْمَنْزِلَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ

2157. Sayyiduna Ma'qil ibn Yasar رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone recites (اعوذ بالله السميع العليم من الشيطان الرجيم) three times in the morning and then recites the three last verses of surah al Hashr, then Allah deputes over him seventy thousand angels who invoke blessings on him till evening, end if he dies that days he will die a martyr And, he who observes this in the evening. he too will be of that rank."[2]

AL-IKHLAS TWO HUNDRED TIMES

(٢١٥٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَاَ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ مِّائَتَيْ مَرَّةٍ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ مُحِيَ عَنْهُ ذُنُوْبُ خَمْسِيْنَ سَنَةً اِلَّا اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَتِهٖ خَمْسِيْنَ مَرَّةً وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ اِلَّا اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ۔

2158. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "As for one who recites every day (قل هو الله احد) two hundred times, sins of fifty years will be erased from him unless he is indebt." (see commentary for in debt)

According to another version, it is fifty times (instead of two hundred times) and it does not mention, 'unless he is in debt.'[3]

COMMENTARY: 'Unless he is in debt' - the word for debt is (دین dayn). The Urdu translation says 'rights of fellow men over him. This could mean that dayn will not be forgiven, or that because of it, this concession will not be available to him at all and none of his sins will be erased for him. Dayn (دین) means right of fellow men.

AL-IKHLAS BEFORE GOING TO SLEEP

(٢١٥٩) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَرَادَ اَنْ يَّنَامَ عَلٰى فِرَاشِهٖ فَنَامَ عَلٰى يَمِيْنِهٖ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ اِذَا كَانَ يَوْمُ الْقِيَامَةِ يَقُوْلُ لَهُ الرَّبُّ يَا عَبْدِى ادْخُلْ عَلٰى يَمِيْنِكَ الْجَنَّةَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2159. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone decides to sleep on his bed and lies on his right side and recites (قل ھو اللہ احد) (al-Ikhlas) one hundred times, the Lord will say to him on the day of resurrection 'O My slave, enter paradise to your right side."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) to lie on the right side. This hadith (tradition) hints that the gardens on the right side of paradise are better than those to its left side.

MORE ABOUT AL-IKHLAS

(٢١٦٠) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَمِعَ رَجُلًا يَّقْرَأُ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ فَقَالَ وَجَبَتْ قُلْتُ وَمَا وَجَبَتْ؟ قَالَ الْجَنَّةُ (رواہ مالک والترمذی والنسائی)

2160. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم heard a man recite (قل ھو اللہ احد). He said, "It is become wajib (obligatory)!" He asked him, "what is wajib (obligatory)?" He said, "Paradise."[2]

MERIT OF AL-KAFIRUN

(٢١٦١) وَعَنْ فَرْوَةَ بْنِ نَوْفَلٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ اَنَّهُ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ عَلِّمْنِيْ شَيْئًا اَقُوْلُهُ اِذَا اَوَيْتُ اِلٰى فِرَاشِىْ فَقَالَ اقْرَأْ قُلْ يَا اَيُّهَا الْكٰفِرُوْنَ فَاِنَّهَا بَرَاءَةٌ مِّنَ الشِّرْكِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی وابوداؤد والدارمی)

2161. Sayyiduna Farwah ibn Nawfal رحمہ اللہ narrated on the authority of his father that he had asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to teach him something that he may say when he retired to bed. So, he instructed him to say (قل یاایھا الکفرون) because it is an acquittal from polytheism.[3]

MERIT OF MU'AWWADHATAYN

(٢١٦٢) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ بَيْنَا اَنَا اَسِيْرُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ الْجُحْفَةِ وَالْاَبْوَاءِ اِذْ غَشِيَتْنَا رِيْحٌ وَّظُلْمَةٌ شَدِيْدَةٌ فَجَعَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَتَعَوَّذُ بِاَعُوْذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ وَاَعُوْذُ بِرَبِّ

(٢١٦٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ خُبَيْبٍ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا فِيْ لَيْلَةِ مَطَرٍ وَّظُلْمَةٍ شَدِيْدَةٍ نَطْلُبُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَدْرَكْنَاهُ فَقَالَ قُلْ قُلْتُ مَآ اَقُوْلُ؟ قَالَ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ وَالْمُعَوِّذَتَيْنِ حِيْنَ تُصْبِحُ وَحِيْنَ تُمْسِيْ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ تَكْفِيْكَ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْئٍ(رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی)

2163. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Khubayb رضی الله عنه said that on a rainy and intensely dark night they went out not seek Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم They found him he said, "Recite!" He submitted, "what may I recite?" He instructed him to recite al-Ikhlas and al-Mu'awwidatayn three times each morning and evening saying. "They will suffice you for every purpose."[2]

(٢١٦٤) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَقْرَأُ سُوْرَةَ هُوْدٍ اَوْ سُوْرَةَ يُوْسُفَ قَالَ لَنْ تَقْرَأَ شَيْئًا اَبْلَغَ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ مِنْ قُلْ اَعُوْذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ۔ (رواه احمد والنسائی والدارمی)

2164. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی الله عنه narrated that he asked Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم whether he should recite surah Hud or surah Yusuf. He said, "You cannot recite anything better with Allah than (قل أعوذ برب الفلق) (Surah al-Falaq)." [3]

COMMENTARY: No other surah is as effective in seeking refuge from trials and tribulations as surah al-Falaq is.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that this hadith (tradition) refers to both surahs, al-Falaq and an-Naas. Ibn Maalik رحمه الله also said that both the surahs are recommended by this hadith (tradition). Though only one is mentioned, both are meant.

OBEY THE QURAN

(٢١٦٥) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْرِبُوْا الْقُرْاٰنَ وَاتَّبِعُوْا غَرَآئِبَهُ وَغَرَآئِبُهُ فَرَآئِضُهُ وَحُدُوْدُهُ۔

2165. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Explain the meaning of the Quran. Follow its gharib. Its gharib are its prescribed duties and its limits."[4]

COMMENTARY: The gharib of the Quran are the prescribed duties and the limits. They are what is disallowed. In short, those things that the Quran has commanded, should be done and those that it has prohibited, should be shunned.

RECITING THE QURAN

(٢١٦٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ قِرَاءَةُ الْقُرْاٰنِ فِي الصَّلٰوةِ اَفْضَلُ مِنْ قِرَاءَةِ الْقُرْاٰنِ فِيْ غَيْرِ الصَّلَاةِ وَقِرَاءَةُ الْقُرْاٰنِ فِيْ غَيْرِ الصَّلٰوةِ اَفْضَلُ مِنَ التَّسْبِيْحِ وَالتَّكْبِيْرِ وَالتَّسْبِيْحُ اَفْضَلُ مِنَ الصَّدَقَةِ وَالصَّدَقَةُ اَفْضَلُ مِنَ الصَّوْمِ وَالصَّوْمُ جُنَّةٌ مِّنَ النَّارِ۔

2166. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Recitation of the Quran in the salah (prayer) is better than recitation of the Quran outside the salah (prayer). And, recitation on the Quran outside the salah (prayer) is better than tasbih and takbir. And the tasbih is better than sadaqah (charity). And, sadaqah (charity) is better than fasting, and fasting is a shield from the fire."[1]

COMMENTARY: Reciting in salah (prayer) is better then at other times. In this way reciting in salah (prayer) that is offered in a standing posture is better than in salah (prayer) in sitting position.

Recitation at other times is better then glorifying and extolling Allah and other kinds of devotional exercises.

These other things like glorifying Allah are better than sadaqah (charity) or spending in Allah's path. Of course, it is generally presumed that worship profitable to others is better (like sadaqah (charity)) than worship whose benefit is localized (like tasbih), but dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is out of scope of it because dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is the best form of worship and the greatest. According to sahih ahadith (authentic traditions), dhikr (hallowing and glorifying Allah) is better than spending gold and silver in Allah's path.[2]

Sadaqah (charity is better than fasting because the letter is limited to oneself in the benefit accrued from it, but the former diffuses its benefit to other people. However, we must remember the hadith (tradition) that Allah assures the son of Aadam a reward of ten times for every deed he performs but he says, "Fasting is for Me and I alone shall reward it." The ulama (Scholars) say that he who fasts adopts Allah's attribute of not eating.

RECITATION FROM THE BOOK BETTER THAN FROM MEMORY

(٢١٦٧) وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ اَوْسٍ الثَّقَفِيِّ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قِرَاءَةُ الرَّجُلِ الْقُرْاٰنَ فِيْ غَيْرِ الْمُصْحَفِ اَلْفُ دَرَجَةٍ وَقِرَاءَتُهٗ فِي الْمُصْحَفِ تُضَعَّفُ عَلٰى ذٰلِكَ اِلٰى اَلْفَيْ دَرَجَةٍ۔

2167 Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Abdullah ibn Aws Thaqafi رحمہ اللہ reported on the authority of his grandfather that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A man's recitation of the Quran without (looking into) a copy of the Quran (but from memory) fetches a reward from one thousand degrees, but his recitation from a copy of the

[2] It is better than other worship profitable to other people but not than teaching religion. See the ahadith (traditions) in the Book of knowledge. In fact, teaching and knowledge of religion is itself a form of dhikr (hallowing of Allah). (Further from the urdu book 02 p 409)

Quran (looking into it) fetches a double reward up to two thousand degrees."[1]

COMMENTARY: One who recites the Quran by looking at its copy is enabled to study and ponder. He feels humble and submissive. He also sees the Quran and is rewarded for the sight and he also touches it. Many sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم and tabi'un رحمه الله recited the Quran by looking at the book. In this way, they could honour and esteem the Quran.

Sayyiduna Uthman always recited the Quran by looking at its copy. The result was that the two copies that he had were worn out from constant handling.

REMEMBERING DEATH & RECITATION KEEP HEART ALIVE

(٢١٦٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ هٰذِهِ الْقُلُوْبَ تَصْدَأُ كَمَا يَصْدَأُ الْحَدِيْدُ إِذَآ أَصَابَهُ الْمَآءُ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَمَا جِلَاؤُهَا قَالَ كَثْرَةُ ذِكْرِ الْمَوْتِ وَتِلَاوَةِ الْقُرْاٰنِ رَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ الْأَحَادِيْثَ الْأَرْبَعَةَ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

2168. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "These hearts, surely, become rusty like iron becomes rusty when water seeps into it." Someone asked, "O messenger of Allah, what is the cure for it?" He said, "Much remembrance of death and recitation of the Quran."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sin and neglect of piety cause hearts to rust. That can be removed by remembering death constantly and reciting the Quran very often.

THE MOST GLORIOUS SURAH

(٢١٦٩) وَعَنْ أَيْفَعَ ابْنِ عَبْدِ الْكَلَاعِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ يَّا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَيُّ سُوْرَةِ الْقُرْاٰنِ أَعْظَمُ قَالَ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ أَحَدٌ قَالَ فَأَيُّ اٰيَةٍ فِي الْقُرْاٰنِ أَعْظَمُ قَالَ اٰيَةُ الْكُرْسِيِّ اَللّٰهُ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ قَالَ فَأَيُّ اٰيَةٍ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ تُحِبُّ أَنْ تُصِيْبَكَ وَأُمَّتَكَ قَالَ خَاتِمَةُ سُوْرَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ فَإِنَّهَا مِنْ خَزَآئِنِ رَحْمَةِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى مِنْ تَحْتِ عَرْشِهٖ أَعْطَاهَا هٰذِهِ الْأُمَّةَ لَمْ تَتْرُكْ خَيْرًا مِّنْ خَيْرِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ إِلَّا اشْتَمَلَتْ عَلَيْهِ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

2169. Sayyiduna Ayfa ibn Abdul Kila'I رضی الله عنه narrated that a man asked 'O Messenger of Allah, which surah of the Quran is the greatest?" He said, (قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ أَحَدٌ) (al-Ikhlas)." Then, he asked, "which verse in the quran is the greatest?" He said, "Aayat ul Kursi: (اللّٰهُ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ). The man asked. "Which verse, O Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم of Allah, you would like should profit you and your ummah (people/followers)?" He said, "The concluding portion of surah al-Baqarah. It is one of the treasures of the mercy of Allah, the Exalted, from under His Throne. He gave it to this ummah (people/followers) and it had not left out any good of the good things of t his world and the next. It contains all of them."[3]

COMMENTARY: Previously, surah al-Fatihah (chapter) was called the greatest surah (hadith # 2118, 2142). It is the greatest in the sense that it comprises praise of Allah and supplication and is worship. It is also a synopsis of the Quran. As for surah al-Ikhlas, it is the greatest in the sense that it describes Allah's unity in a great manner and very eloquently.

[2] Bayhaqi in shaul eeman # 2024.

[3] Darimi # 9380.

The last portion of surah al-Baqarah means its last two (verses from (امن الرسول) to the end of it. They will bestow benefit to the ummah (people/followers). The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم would receive their blessing and his ummah (people/followers) would receive it too.

SURAH AL-FATIHAH IS A CURE

(٢١٧٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ مُرْسَلًا قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ فَاتِحَةِ الْكِتَابِ شِفَآءٌ مِّنْ كُلِّ دَآءٍ۔ رَوَاهُ الدَّارِمِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

2170. Sayyiduna Abdul Malik ibn Umayr رحمه الله narrated in a mursal form that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There is in Fatihat ul Kitab (meaning surah al-Fatihah (chapter)) cure for every disease."[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone recites suras al-Fatihah (chapter) with a firm conviction and belief, then with its blessing he will receive relief and deliverance from every kind of illness, affliction, and hardship.
The ulama (Scholars) say that whatever the kind of ailment, physical or spiritual, cure and relief can be had and the sick. Can get comfort if surah al-Fatihah (chapter) is written down and licked, drink or suspended.

EXCELLENCE OF LAST VERSES OF AAL IMRAN

(٢١٧١) وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَفَّانَ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَأَ اٰخِرَ اٰلِ عِمْرَانَ فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ كُتِبَ لَهٗ قِيَامُ لَيْلَةٍ۔

2171. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Affan رضى الله عنه said that if anyone recite the last portion of Aal-Imran in the night, then a reward is recorded for him for having stood in the night in worship.[2]

COMMENTARY: The last portion begins with the verses: (ان فى خلق السموات والارض) up to the end of the surah. One may recite these verses in the beginning of the night or towards the end of it. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم recited them when he got up for the tahajjud (midnight prayer), before he performed ablution, etc.

AAL IMRAN ON FRIDAY

(٢١٧٢) وَعَنْ مَّكْحُوْلٍ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَأَ سُوْرَةَ اٰلِ عِمْرَانَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ صَلَّتْ عَلَيْهِ الْمَلَآئِكَةُ إِلَى اللَّيْلِ۔ رَوَاهُمَا الدَّارِمِيُّ۔

2172. Sayyiduna Mukhul رحمه الله said, "If anyone recites surah Aal Imran on Friday the angels pray for him and seek forgiveness for him till it is night."[3]

TEACH WOMEN THE LAST VERSES OF AL-BAQARAH

(٢١٧٣) وَعَنْ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ نُفَيْرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ خَتَمَ سُوْرَةَ الْبَقَرَةِ بِاٰيَتَيْنِ أُعْطِيْتُهُمَا مِنْ كَنْزِهِ الَّذِيْ تَحْتَ الْعَرْشِ فَتَعَلَّمُوْهُنَّ وَعَلِّمُوْهُنَّ نِسَآءَكُمْ فَإِنَّهُمَا صَلَاةٌ وَّقُرْبَانٌ وَّدُعَآءٌ۔ رَوَاهُ

2173. Sayyiduna Jubayr ibn Nufayr narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, Indeed, Allah concluded surah al-Baqarah with two verses that have been given to me from the treasure that is under Throne So, learn them and teach them to your women, for they are a blessing, a means of nearness and a prayer (for the good of the world and the hereafter)."[1]

SURAH HUD ON FRIDAY

(٢١٧٤) وَعَنْ كَعْبٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اقْرَأُوْا سُوْرَةَ هُوْدٍ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ رَوَاهُ الدَّارِمِيُّ مُرْسَلًا۔

2175. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه reported that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone recites surah al-Kahf on Friday, then light will continue to shine for him brightly till the next Friday."[3]

MERIT OF SURAH ALIF LAAM TANZIL (# 32)

(٢١٧٦) وَعَنْ خَالِدِ بْنِ مَعْدَانَ قَالَ اقْرَأُ الْمُنْجِيَةَ وَهِيَ الٓمّٓ تَنْزِيْلُ فَاِنَّهُ بَلَغَنِيْ اَنَّ رَجُلًا كَانَ يَقْرَأُهَا مَا يَقْرَأُ شَيْئًا غَيْرَهَا وَكَانَ كَثِيْرَ الْخَطَايَا فَنَشَرَتْ جَنَاحَهَا عَلَيْهِ قَالَتْ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لَهُ فَاِنَّهُ كَانَ يُكْثِرُ قِرَاءَتِيْ فَشَفَّعَهَا الرَّبُّ تَعَالٰى فِيْهِ وَقَالَ اكْتُبُوْا لَهُ بِكُلِّ خَطِيْئَةٍ حَسَنَةً وَارْفَعُوْا لَهُ دَرَجَةً وَّقَالَ اَيْضًا اِنَّهَا تُجَادِلُ عَنْ صَاحِبِهَا فِي الْقَبْرِ تَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنْ كُنْتُ مِنْ كِتَابِكَ فَشَفِّعْنِيْ فِيْهِ وَاِنْ لَّمْ اَكُنْ مِنْ كِتَابِكَ فَامْحُنِيْ عَنْهُ وَاِنَّهَا تَكُوْنُ كَالطَّيْرِ تَجْعَلُ جَنَاحَهَا عَلَيْهِ فَتَشْفَعُ لَهُ فَتَمْنَعُهُ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَقَالَ فِيْ تَبَارَكَ مِثْلَهُ وَكَانَ خَالِدٌ لَا يَبِيْتُ حَتّٰى يَقْرَأَهُمَا وَقَالَ طَاؤُوْسٌ فُضِّلَتَا عَلٰى كُلِّ سُوْرَةٍ فِي الْقُرْاٰنِ بِسِتِّيْنَ حَسَنَةً (رواه الدارمی)

2176. Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Ma'dan رحمه الله said, "Recite that which rescues. It is (الٓمّٓ تنزیل) (Surah # 32). I have learnt that a man used to recite it and recite nothing else. He had committed many sins. This surah spread its wings over him and pleaded. 'My Lord, forgive him, for, he recited me very often.' So, the Lord accepted its intercession for him, and said, 'Record for him against every sin a good deed and raise him a degree.' It will dispute for its reciter when he is in the grave, saying. 'O Allah, if I am a part of your Book, make me an intercessor for him, but, if I am not from your Book, erase me from it.' It will be like a bird and put its wing on him and will intercede for him and protect him from the chastisement in the grave."

Khalid رحمه الله said the like of it about (تبرک الذی) (surah al-Mulk, 67).

And Khalid رحمه الله would not go to sleep till he had recited them.

Tawus رحمه الله said that both these surahs are given excellence over every other surah by sixty pious deeds.[1]

COMMENTARY: Khalid رحمه الله was a prominent tabi'i He had met seventy sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم Ta'wus رحمه الله too was a famous tabi'i. This hadith (tradition) is mursal from them.

These surah are given excellence in the sense that they will deliver their reciter while surah al-Fatihah (chapter) and al-Baqarah excel because of their contents.

MERIT OF SURAH YASIN.

(٢١٧٧) وَعَنْ عَطَآءِ بْنِ اَبِيْ رَبَاحٍ قَالَ بَلَغَنِيْ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَأَ يٰسٓ فِيْ صَدْرِ النَّهَارِ قُضِيَتْ حَوَائِجُهُ۔ رَوَاهُ الدَّارِمِيُّ مُرْسَلًا۔

2177. Sayyiduna Ata ibn Rabah رحمه الله narrated that he learnt that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had said, "If anyone recites surah Yasin in the beginning of the day then his needs will be granted."[2]

RECITE YASIN BEFORE THE DYING

(٢١٧٨) وَعَنْ مَعْقِلِ بْنِ يَسَارِنِ الْمُزَنِيِّ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَأَ يٰسٓ ابْتِغَآءَ وَجْهِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى غُفِرَ لَهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهٖ فَاقْرَأُوْهَا عِنْدَ مَوْتَاكُمْ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2178. Sayyiduna Ma'qil ibn Yasar al-Muzani رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He who recites (surah) Yasin with a longing for Allah's pleasure, is forgiven his past sins. So, recite it before those of you who are dying."[3]

COMMENTARY: The sins that are forgiven are minor sins. But, with Allah's mercy major sins may also be forgiven.

It should be recited before those on the death bed. It will be tantamount to his reciting himself. This surah may also be recited to gain pardon for the dead.

HUMP OF THE QURAN

(٢١٧٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ اَنَّهُ قَالَ اِنَّ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ سَنَامًا وَاِنَّ سَنَامَ الْقُرْاٰنِ سُوْرَةُ الْبَقَرَةِ وَاِنَّ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ لُبَابًا وَّاِنَّ لُبَابَ الْقُرْاٰنِ الْمُفَصَّلُ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

2179. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه said, "Everything has a raising or an elevation. The elevation of the Quran is surah al-Baqarah. And, everything has an essence and the essence of the Quran is al-Mufassal."[4]

COMMENTARY: Al-Baqarah is the hump of the Quran.

The mufassal of mufassalat are the surahs from surah al-Hujurat to the end of the Quran, surah an-Naas. These surahs are the gist or synopsis of the Quran.

THE ADORNMENT OF THE QURAN IS SURAH AR-RAHMAN

(٢١٨٠) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَرُوْسٌ وَعَرُوْسُ الْقُرْاٰنِ الرَّحْمٰنُ۔

2180. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that for everything there is an adornment, and the adornment of the Quran is (Surah) ar-Rahman.

COMMENTARY: It described the blessing of both worlds the maidens of paradise and their jewels and so on.[1]

THE EFFECT OF AL-WAQIAH

(٢١٨١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ سُوْرَةَ الْوَاقِعَةِ فِيْ كُلِّ لَيْلَةٍ لَمْ تُصِبْهُ

فَاقَةٌ اَبَدًا وَّكَانَ ابْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ يَّأْمُرُ بَنَاتِهٖ يَقْرَاْنَ بِهَا فِيْ كُلِّ لَيْلَةٍ۔ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ

2181. Sayyiduna Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone recites surah al-Waqiah every night he will never experience hunger. "Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ used to command his daughters to recite it every night.[2]

COMMENTARY: The word Hunger is (فاقة) in the text and it covers helplessness, want; Hence, one who recites surah al-Waqiah will not suffer dependence, loss and anxiety because he is enabled to endure patiently and to be content. Or, he is independent at heart even if he is afflicted outwardly. He is large hearted and has divine awareness, and he relies on Allah with a conviction.

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has disclosed this kind of worship and encouraged the ummah (people/followers) to engage in it. His aim was to keep them occupied in one form of worship or the other.

SURAH AL A'LA

(٢١٨٢) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُحِبُّ هٰذِهِ السُّوْرَةَ سَبِّحِ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْاَعْلٰى (رواه احمد)

2182. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم loved this surah (سَبِّحِ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْاَعْلٰى) (surah al A'la, # 87)[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم loved this surah (al A'la) because of its verse:

اِنَّ هٰذَا لَفِي الصُّحُفِ الْاُوْلٰى ۝ صُحُفِ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ وَمُوْسٰى

{Surely this is in the earlier Writs. The Writs of Ibrahim and Musa.} (87: 18-19)

It is a testimony of the truth of the Quran and a strong denial of the ideas and beliefs of the polytheists and the Peoples of the Book.

Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ disclosed that he asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about the (صحفه) (suhuf, writs) of Prophet ibrahim علیہ السلام. He said, "It has parables, like: O subdued one, the captive soul and the conceited king, I did not send you to the world that you might amass it, but that you may not invite the curse of the oppressed because I do not deny the prayer of those who are oppressed, even if any of them is a disbeliever.

[3] Masnad Ahmed 1-96

The intelligent must apportion his hours for four tasks:

i. for prayer to his Lord,
ii. to assess himself,
iii. to think over Allah's attributes and
iv. to occupy himself towards his own affairs.

The sane person should covet only three things:

i. the hereafter and work for it,
ii. improvement of his livelihood,
iii. to seek pleasure from what is not unlawful.

The intelligent must observe his times, attend to his condition, preserve his tongue.
He who compares his words with his deeds will not speak much. He will speak only what is necessary.'"
Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ then asked the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about the writs of Prophet Musa علیہ السلام. 'He said that it comprises admonition. For instance, '

'He surprises me who believes that death is imminent but the pleasures of the world overwhelm him.'
'He surprises me who knows about the Fire of hell, yet laughs.'
'He surprises me who is convinced of the decree yet is perturbed (over setbacks).'
'He surprises me who observes the reversals in the world, yet he is satisfied with it.'
'He surprises me who is certain of the day of reckoning, yet fails to perform deeds.'

COMPREHENSIVE SURAH

(٢١٨٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ اَتٰى رَجُلُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اَقْرِئْنِيْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ اقْرَأْ ثَلَاثًا مِّنْ ذَوَاتِ الٓرٰ فَقَالَ كَبُرَتْ سِنِّيْ وَاشْتَدَّ قَلْبِيْ وَغَلُظَ لِسَانِيْ قَالَ فَاقْرَأْ ثَلَاثًا مِّنْ ذَوَاتِ حٰمٓ فَقَالَ مِثْلَ مَقَالَتِهٖ قَالَ الرَّجُلُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَقْرِئْنِيْ سُوْرَةً جَامِعَةً فَاَقْرَأَهٗ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا زُلْزِلَتْ حَتّٰى فَرَغَ مِنْهَا فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ وَالَّذِيْ بَعَثَكَ بِالْحَقِّ لَآ اَزِيْدُ عَلَيْهِ اَبَدًا ثُمَّ اَدْبَرَ الرَّجُلُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَفْلَحَ الرُّوَيْجِلُ مَرَّتَيْنِ۔ (رواه احمد وابوداؤد)

2183. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, teach me to recite." He said, "Recite from the surahs beginning with (الر), any three. 'He said, "I have grown old. My heart has become hard and my tongue is thick (I cannot remember the surahs). "The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If you cannot recite these surahs, then recite three of those surahs that begin with (حٰم) (because they are shorter than the first mentions)". The man pleaded as he had pleaded before and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, teach me a comprehensive surah." So, Allah's messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made him recite {اذا زلزلت}. When he had finished with it, the man submitted, "By him who has sent you with the truth, I shall not go beyond it ever." Then, the man turned (and departed). Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to these present), "The little man prospers if he speaks the truth." He spoke these words twice.[1]

COMMENTARY: The surahs beginning with (الر) are five. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had asked the man to recite any three.
The surah (اذازلزلت) is called surah jami'ah (comprehensive surah) because of its verses

فَمَنْ يَّعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَّرَهٗ وَمَنْ يَّعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ شَرًّا يَّرَهٗ

{So, whosoever has done an atom's weight of grad shall see it And whosoever has done an atom's weight of evil shall see it.} (99: 7-8)

These two verses include all those things that we are commanded to do, all of which are called 'good'. And they include everything that we are forbidden to do, all of which are called 'evil.'

MERIT OF AT-TAKATHUR

(٢١٨٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا يَسْتَطِيْعُ اَحَدُكُمْ اَنْ يَّقْرَأَ اَلْفَ اٰيَةٍ فِيْ كُلِّ يَوْمٍ قَالُوْا وَمَنْ يَّسْتَطِيْعُ اَنْ يَّقْرَأَ اَلْفَ اٰيَةٍ فِيْ كُلِّ يَوْمٍ قَالَ اَمَا يَسْتَطِيْعُ اَحَدُكُمْ اَنْ يَّقْرَأَ اَلْهٰكُمُ التَّكَاثُرُ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2184. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, "Is not any of you capable of reciting one thousand verses every day? "The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم submitted, "Who can be able to recite one thousand verses every day? "So, he asked, "Is not any of you capable of reciting (الهكم التكاثر) (Surah At-Takathur #102)[2]

EFFECT OF SURAH AL-IKHLAS

(٢١٨٥) وَعَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ مُرْسَلًا عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَأَ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ عَشْرَ مَرَّاتٍ بُنِيَ لَهٗ بِهَا قَصْرٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَمَنْ قَرَأَ عِشْرِيْنَ مَرَّةً بُنِيَ لَهٗ بِهَا قَصْرَانِ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَمَنْ قَرَأَهَا ثَلَاثِيْنَ مَرَّةً بُنِيَ لَهٗ بِهَا ثَلَاثَةُ قُصُوْرٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ وَاللّٰهِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِذًا لَّنُكْثِرَنَّ قُصُوْرَنَا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهُ اَوْسَعُ مِنْ ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه الدارمى)

2185. Sayyiduna Saeed Ibn al-Musayyib رضى الله عنه narrated in a mursal form that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "For him who recites (قل هو الله احد) ten times a castle is built in paradise. And, if he recites it twenty times, two castles are built for him in paradise. And, if he recites it thirty times, three castles are built for him in paradise." So, Umar ibn Khattab رضى الله عنه said, "By Allah, O Messenger of Allah, then we shall have very many castles for ourselves." Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said. "Allah is more Generous than that."[3]

RECITATION IN THE NIGHT

(٢١٨٦) وَعَنِ الْحَسَنِ مُرْسَلًا اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَأَ فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ مِائَةَ اٰيَةٍ لَمْ يُحَاجَّهُ الْقُرْاٰنُ تِلْكَ اللَّيْلَةَ وَمَنْ قَرَأَ فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ مِائَتَيْ اٰيَةٍ كُتِبَ لَهٗ قُنُوْتُ لَيْلَةٍ وَمَنْ قَرَأَ فِيْ لَيْلَةٍ خَمْسَ مِائَةٍ اِلَى الْاَلْفِ اَصْبَحَ وَلَهٗ قِنْطَارٌ مِّنَ الْاَجْرِ قَالُوْا وَمَا الْقِنْطَارُ قَالَ اِثْنَا عَشَرَ اَلْفًا (رواه الدارمی)

2186. Sayyiduna Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ narrated in a mursal form that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone recites one hundred verses in a night, the Quran will not dispute against him that night. If he recites two hundred verses in a night, he will be regarded as having spent the night standing in worship. If he recites five hundred to one thousand verses in a night, then he will get a reward in the morning as much as a qintar." They (the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم) asked him, "And, what is a qintar?" He said, "It is twelve thousand (dinars or dirhams)."[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone does not recite the Quran, then the Quran antagonizes him and curses him. Reciting one hundred verses in a night appeases the Quran that night.

The disputing of the Quran is for two reasons: not reciting it and not obeying it. When both things are done, the Quran gives up its dispute. Rather, Quran will intercede for one who recites it and obeys it, fulfilling both duties.

Teebi رحمہ اللہ concluded from the hadith (tradition) that recitation of the Quran is wajib (obligatory) on everyone. If anyone does not recite it, then Allah is displeased. Hence, actually Allah is the one who is displeased but reference is made to the Quran only allegorically.

MERITS OF SOME SURAHS

The ahadith (traditions) narrated in the foregoing pages mention the merits of certain surahs and verses. It seems appropriate to conclude the chapter by recounting the merits of certain surahs in detail that find mention in Tafsir Azizi and durr Manthur. In this way, Muslims will be encouraged for acquire this blessing as best as they can.

BISMILLAH

Mawlana Abdul Aziz رحمہ اللہ quotes the exegetes as saying that when the tearful flood swept the world, Prophet Nuh علیہ السلام was also very afraid. In order to be safe, he prayed:

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ مُجْرٖهَا وَمُرْسٰهَا

So that his ask was safe. The exegetes point out that an incomplete expression was effective and prevented the ship from drowning. So, how can one who begins all his work during his life with the complete expression (بسم اللہ الرحمن الرحیم) be deprived of its benefit?

The scholars say that in (بسم اللہ الرحمن الرحیم) there are nineteen letters. There are nineteen keepers of hell, so the nineteen letters can defend him, each letter against each keeper.

The ulama (Scholars) say that twenty four hours make up a day and night. The five *salah (prayer)*s stand for five of these hours while these nineteen letters are given for the remaining nineteen hours. Each will produce blessing for an hour. The nineteen hours will be recorded as used for worship.

The ulama (Scholars) say that (بسم اللہ الرحمن الرحیم) does not begin surah Baraah (Tawbah). This surah calls for fighting the disbelievers while this expression is mercy, so it does not fit the situation.

---

[1] Darimi # 3459

Similarly, when an animal is slaughtered, it is prescribed to say only (بسم الله اكبر), not the whole expression because slaughtering is a kind of terror and chastisement while this expression is mercy and is not suitable here.

Hence, if anyone constantly recites this expression (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) which is at least seventeen times in the prescribed (fard(compulsory)) salah (prayer), then he is safe from terror and punishment and he earns reward too.

Among the peculiarities of this verse (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) is that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If any one goes to the privy, he must say (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) as he goes in. This will prevent the jinns from seeing his private parts." Since this verse becomes an obstruction between man and his sworn enemy (the jinns), we may hope fervently that this will surely come up as a hindrance between a Muslim and punishment of the hereafter.

MERITS OF AL-FATIHAH (CHAPTER)

There is the tradition in the sahah sittah (six authentic books of traditions) that if anyone was stung by a scorpion or snake, or had an attack or epilepsy or became insane, then the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم recited surah al-Fatihah (chapter) and blew over him. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم approved their action.

Daraqutni رحمه الله and Ibn Asakir رحمه الله have transmitted the hadith (tradition) of Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Saib رضى الله عنه that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم recited surah al-Fatihah (chapter) and blew over him. After reciting this surah, he rubbed his saliva on the painful portion of Zayd's رضى الله عنه body.

Bazzar رحمه الله has transmitted in his musnad (book) from Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضى الله عنه that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person places his side on his bed (to sleep) and recites surah al-Fatihah (chapter) and (قل هو الله احد) (al-Ikhlas) and then blows over himself, he thus protects himself from every trial and affliction, unless his term is over, for, nothing can prevent death.

Abd Humayd رحمه الله transmitted in his musnad (book) from Sayyiduna Ibn abbas رضى الله عنه in a marfu form that Fatihatul - Kitab (Surah at Fatihah) is like two-thirds of the Quran in terms of reward.

Tabarani, Ibn Marduwayh, Daylami and Diya Maqdisi report the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying that he is given four things from the treasures of the throne. No one else has been given anything apart from these four things. They are:

i. The Ilmm ul Kitab (Surah al-Fatihah (chapter))
ii. Aayat ul Kursi
iii. The last verses of surah al Baqarah
iv. Surah al-kawthar

Abu Nuaym رحمه الله and Daylami رحمه الله transmitted the hadith (tradition) of Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Surah al-Fatihah (chapter) suffices in a way no other surah of the Quran does. If surah al-Fatihah (chapter) is placed in a pan of the scale and the rest of the Quran in the other pan, then certainly surah al-Fatihah (chapter) will be seven times weightier.

Abu Ubayd رضى الله عنه reproduced the tradition of Hasan Busri رحمه الله in Fada'il Quran that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who recites surah al Fatihah is as though he recited the Torah, the Injil, the Zabur, and the Quran.

It is stated in Tafsir Waqi Kitab ul-Masahif of Ibn Anbari, kitab ul Uzmah of Abu Shaykh (Great religious Scholar) and Hilyatul-Awliya of Abu Nuaym that Iblis the accursed wailed and threw dust on his head four times:

i. When he was declared the accursed.
ii. When he was cast to earth from heaven.
iii. When the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was commissioned as Prophet.
iv. When surah al fatihah was revealed.

Abu Shaykh (Great religious Scholar) رحمه الله has written in kitab uth Thawab that if anyone has a need, he must recite surah al Fatihah and pray for his need. (Insha Allah he will get his want.)
Thalabi رضى الله عنه reported from Shabi رضى الله عنه that a man complained to him of pain in his kidney. He advised him to read asas ul Quran and breathe over the painful area. (Insha Allah, he would be cured.) The man asked him, "What is asas ul Quran?" Shabi رضى الله عنه said, "Futihatul kitab, or surah al-Fatihah (chapter)."
It is among the proved deeds of the mashaikh (saintly men) that surah al-Fatihah (chapter) is the ism azam (Greatest name of Allah). This surah must be recited for every wish and want. There are two methods of reciting it.
(i) Recite it for forty days between the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) and fard(compulsory) of the salah (prayer) of fajr, forty one times every day without pause between (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) and (الحمد) (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم الحمد لله رب العلمين). Insha Allah, the aim will be achieved if recited in the suggest manner for these many days. If it is for the healing of a sick person or one on whom a spell is cast, then after reciting in this manner blow on water and have the said person drink it. Insha Allah, he will be cured.
(ii) On the first Sunday of a lunar month, recite it seventy times between the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) and fard(compulsory) fajr in a normal manner without combining the last letter of (ميم) with the first of (لام). Thereafter, recite every morning at this time but cut down the number by ten each day so that the recitation will end on Saturday. The objective will be achieved, insha Allah. If not, then repeat the exercise the next month and the third month, if necessary.
For chronic sicknesses and those sicknesses that do not respond to treatment for a long time, surah al-Fatihah (chapter) must be written on a china bowl or plate with rose water, musk and saffron and the patient must be made to drink it. This is a proven prescription.
Surah al-Fatihah (chapter) must be recited seven times and blown over anyone suffering from toothache and other pains. This too is a tried remedy.

MERITS OF SURAH AL-BAQARAH

Surah al-Baqarah, too, has many merits. Muslim carries a hadith (tradition) of Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضى الله عنه that when anyone among them recited surah al-Baqarah and Aal Imran then his rank was regarded high among them. This statement is corroborated by the tradition that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم decided to send an army somewhere but it could not be decided who the amir (commander) would be. So, he asked them what surah they knew. Finally, a young man, the youngest among them, confirmed that he knew surah al-Baqarah and some other surahs. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم then made him the amir (commander) of the army on the basis of his knowing al-Baqarah.
Bayhaqi has reported in Shuab ul Eeman that Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضى الله عنه completed the study of surah al-Baqarah from all aspects in twelve years. The day he completed it, he slaughtered a camel and prepared a large meal for the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم of the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

Sayyiduna Ibn Umerرضی اللہ عنہ finished his perusal of this surah in eight years. This surah had a distinction in the sight of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his sahabahرضی اللہ عنہ as no other surah had.

This surah is also known to prevent small-pox. When this malady is spread, the child should be made to sit on an empty stomach before the person reciting who also must be on an empty stomach. He must recite it in, tajwid (rules of recital)and blow on the child. Insha Allah, the child will not have small-pox that year and if he has it, he will not suffer its ill effects. However, at the time of beginning this exercise, some rice (.625 seers or about .625Kg) must be soaked in yogurt and fed to someone deserving in that very gathering.

MERITS OF VERSES OF SURAH AL-KAHF

It is stated in Durr Manthur that if anyone memorises the initial ten verses of surah al-Kahf, he will be protected from the mischief of the dajjal (the great deceiver) .

He too will be safe from the fithah of the dajjal (the great deceiver) who memorises the last ten verses of this surah.

Anyone who recites ten verses of surah al-Kahf while he retires to bed will be preserved from the mischief of the dajjal (the great deceiver) .

Anyone who recited the concluding portion of this surah while going to sleep will have noor (light, radiance) on the day of resurrection from the place of his qiraah[1] to his feet.

According to a tradition, if any one recites surah al-Kahf on Friday, then it is an expiation for him (for his minor sins) form that Friday to the next Friday.

Yet another tradition says that the devil does not enter the house in the night if surah al kahf is recited

MARITS OF SURAH AL-MULK, YASIN & OTHER SURAHS

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone offers four rakaat salah (prayer) after the salah (prayer) of isha, reciting in the first two (قل یاایہاالکافرون) and (قل ھو اللہ احد) (al-Kafirun and al-Ikhlas).and, in the next two(تبارک الذی) and (الم تنزیل السجدہ) (al-Mulk and as-Sajdah), a reward will be recorded for him as though he had offered the four raka'at on laylat ul qadr (most important night of the year)."

According to another tradition, "If any recites, between maghrib and isha, the surahs (تبارک الذی) and (الم تنزیل السجدہ) he is as if he kept vigil on laylat ul qadr (most important night of the year)."

Sayyiduna Kab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that if anyone recites (الم تنزیل السجدہ) and (تبارک الذی) then seventy pious deeds are recorded for him, his seventy sins are erased and he is elevated by seventy degrees.

According to yet another narrative, "If anyone recites at night (الم تنزیل) and (تبارک الذی), Allah will record for him a reward equivalent to the reward of laylat ul qadr (most important night of the year)."

Bayhaqi reported that Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surah Yasin is called Ma'mah (معمہ) in the Torah. It means that this surah holds all kinds of good for its reciters, removes every kind of hardship from them and the terror of the hereafter, too. This surah is also called Rafi'ah (orDafi'ah), Khafidah (or Qadiyah) which means that his surah elevates the believers and degrades the disbelievers. It removes every wrong from its reciters and fulfils their want. If anyone recites it, then it is tantamount to hajj for him. As for him who listens to it, it is like a dinar for him that is spent for Allah's cause (in jihad). If anyone writes it and drinks it, then it turns in his stomach into one thousand lights, one thousand blessings, one thousand mercies, and it weeds out of him every kind of rancour and pain.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I like that surah Yasin should be in the heart of every member of my ummah (people/followers)." (This means that he should commit it to memory.)

He also said, "If anyone recites it (Yasin) every night regularly then when he dies he is blessed with Martyrdom."

He also said, "He who recites Surah Yasin early in the day will get his wishes."

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said that if anyone recites surah Yasin in the morning, then he finds everything easy till evening and if he recites it early in the night, he finds it easy till morning. Bayhaqi رحمه الله reported Abu Qatadah رضى الله عنه a prominent tabi', to have said that if anyone recites surah yasin then he is forgiven. If he recites it while he is hungry then he will be satiated. If he recites it when he is lost, then he will find his way. And, if he has lost his animal and he recites it, then he will find his animal. If he recites it at the time of the meal when he is apprehensive that his food will be enough. If he recites it before a dead (or a dying) person, then things will be easy for the dead (or dying). A woman who experiences rigorous travails (of child birth) will deliver the child effortlessly, if this surah is recited before her. He who recites this surah is as though he recited the Quran eleven times. He also said, "Know that everything has a heart and the heart of the Quran is surah Yasin."

Muqbari رحمه الله (مقبری) said that if anyone is tearful in any way, the milers make an unjust demand, or an enemy is likely to cause harm or difficulty, he must recite surah Yasin. Insha Allah he will be safe.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone recites surah Yasin and surah as Saffat on Friday and prays to Allah for something, then Allah will grant him that thing."

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said that they would that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had finished his salah (prayer) by his reciting the verse (سُبۡحٰنَ رَبِّکَ رَبِّ الۡعِزَّۃِ عَمَّا یَصِفُوۡنَ) to the end.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said that if anyone recites this verse to the end (سُبۡحٰنَ رَبِّکَ رَبِّ الۡعِزَّۃِ عَمَّا یَصِفُوۡنَ) three times after the salah (prayer) then he has certainly received the reward in full.

He also said that if anyone craves for a full reward on the day of resurrection, then at the end of the assembly (سُبۡحٰنَ رَبِّکَ رَبِّ الۡعِزَّۃِ عَمَّا یَصِفُوۡنَ) to the end.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he has been given the seven long (Surahs that are in the beginning of the Quran) in place of the Torah, and the surahs from (الرآت)[1] to (طواسین)[2]

In place of the Injil, and the surahs between (طواسین) and (حامیمون) in place of the Zabur, and that he has been granted distinction and excellence with the (الر)[3] and the mufassal (the concluding surahs of the Quran). He said, "No Prophet before me has read these surahs(chapters)."[4]

[3] The surahs that have (Arabic): as their first words, haa meem (pli - hameeuun).

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that there is a synopsis of everything and the synopsis of the Quran are the hameemun (حامیمون).
Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رضی اللہ عنہ reported in a marfu" manner that the (حامیمون) are gardens among the several gardens of paradise.
The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that the (حامیمون) are seven. (Seven surahs begin with(حم)). The gates of the hell are seven and each of the (حم) will stand at a gate of hell and plead with Allah, "O Lord, do not admit to hell through this gate one who believed in me and recited me."
He also said, "Just as a tree has its fruits, so too the Quran's fruit are the (حامیمون). They are gardens that provide, allow recreation and trading. Hence anyone who wishes to have recourse to the gardens of paradise must recite the (حامیمون).
(Al-Mulk) Bayhaqi has transmitted in Shuab ul Eeman that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not go to sleep without reciting the surahs (تبارک الذی) al-Mulk and (الم تنزیل السجدہ) as-Sajdah.
(Al-Dukhan) According to another tradition, "If anyone recites on the night preceding Friday (حم الدخان) ad-Dukhan and (یس) Yaseen, then he arises in the morning duly forgiven."
He also said, "If anyone recites on the night preceding Friday or during daytime on Friday surah ad-Dukhan, then Allah builds for him a house in paradise." And, "if anyone recites surah ad-Dukhan on the night preceding Friday, then he will awake duly forgiven and he will be married to hoorayn (a large eyed maiden of paradise)." "If anyone recites surah ad-Dukhan in the night then his previous sins are forgiven."
(Miscellaneous) The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said about one who recites (الم تنزیل), (یس), (اقتربت الساعۃ)and (تبارک الذی) (Sajdah Yasin, al-Anbiya and al-Mulk), these surahs will be light for him and a protection for him from the devil and polytheism. Further, his ranks will be elevated on the day of resurrection.
"If anyone recites (اقتربت الساعۃ) (al-Anbiya) every night, then Allah will raise him on the day of resurrection with his face shining like the full moon.
The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also said, "He who recites al-Waqiah and ar-Rehman will be known to the inhabitants of the world and heavens as Saakin ul-firdows. This fortunate one will reside in paradise in al-Firdows (the highest place in paradise)."
Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surah al-Waqiah is surah al-Ghina (rich surah). Recite it and teach it to your children." Also, "Teach it to your wives."
Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا used to tell the women that they should not be precluded from reciting surah al-Waqiah.
The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed a man to recite surah al-Hashr before going to sleep. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also said that if anyone seeks refuge in Allah from the devil and recites three times the last portion of surah al-Hashr then Allah sends seventy thousand angels who keep away the devils from him. If he does that in the night then Allah's angles keep the devils away till evening.
The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also said that if anyone recites the last verses of surah al-Hashr during day or night, and dies that day or night, then paradise will be wajib (obligatory) for him.
He also said that he loved for every member of his ummah (people/followers) to have surah al-Mulk committed to memory.
Ikrimah ibn Sayan رحمہ اللہ said that Ismail رضی اللہ عنہ instructed him to say after reciting surah ad-Duha and every surah thereafter surah ad-Duha and every surah thereafter till the end of the Qurani (الله اكبر) Allahu Akbar, saying that Abdullah ibn Kathirرحمه الله had instructed him to do so. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه also said so saying that Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضى الله عنه had told him that he was instructed by the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to do so.

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said that surah az-Zilzal is like half the Quran and al-Aadiyat is also like half the Quran. He also said, "If anyone recites one thousand verses in the night, he will meet Allah laughing." He was asked, "O Messenger of Allah, who can be able to recite one thousand verses?" He said, "Recite (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) and the surah (الهكم التكاثر) at Takathur till the end of it. By him who has my life in His hand, this surah is like one thousand verses."

Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه is reported by Abu Shaykh (Great religious Scholar)رحمه الله and Abu Muhammad Samarqandiرحمه الله to have said about surah al-Ikhlas that the Jews of Khaybar asked the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, "O Abu al-Qasim, Allah created the angels from the curtain of light, Aadam عليه السلام from black, filthy mud, Iblis (satan) from the spark of fire, the heaven from smoke and the earth from the foam of water. Tell us about your Lord (of what is He created)?" The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم gave them no reply till Jibril (gabriel) عليه السلام brought to him suah al-Ikhlas. It says, "(O Muhammad) say (to them): Allah is One. He has neither predecessors nor successors. And, He has no associate. (الله الصمد) He is Independent, neither does He eat nor does He drink, and He needs nothing." The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم recited to them the entire surah. There is no mention in this surah of paradise or hell, neither of the lawful nor of the unlawful. Rather, Allah has ascribed this surah to himself. Hence, it is specifically for him. He has described himself and His unity. Therefore, if anyone recites this surah three times then it is as though he has read the entire revelation. It he recites it thirty times, then no one in the would will match his excellence unless anyone has recited more than that. He who recites it twice will abide in paradise in al-Firdaws. If anyone recites it three times while going into his house, then poverty and dependence will be removed from him.

According to a tradition, once, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم spent all night reciting this surah, till morning. He said, "He who recites al-Ikhlas (قل هو الله احد) has recited one-third of the Quran." Also, If anyone recites it two hundred times, his sins of two hundred years are forgiven (meaning, very many of his sins are pardoned)."

Another tradition says that if anyone recites al-Ikhlas fifty times then his sins over fifty years are forgiven.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "If anyone recites al-Ikhlas twice every day then one thousand five hundred pious deeds are recorded for him and his sins over fifty years are forgiven, except if he is indebt."

Bayhaqi رحمه الله and others reported that Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه said that when the Prophet was in sham(Syria), Jibril (gabriel) عليه السلام came to him and informed him of the death of Muawiyah ibn Muawiyah Muzani, رضى الله عنه, 'Would you like to offer his funeral salah (prayer)?" He said, "Yes!" So, Jibril (gabriel) عليه السلام struck his wing on the ground whereby everything on it leveled with its surface and the funeral of Muawiyah رضى الله عنه was visible and the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم offered his funeral salah (prayer) in the two rows of the angels, there being six hundred thousand angels in each row. Jibril (gabriel) عليه السلام disclosed that it was because of his reciting the surah al-Ikhlas constantly. He recited it through all his movements and rest.

Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that they were in Tabuk with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. One day, the sun rose with such a light and rays as they had never seen before. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم expressed surprise at that. Suddenly, Jibril (gabriel) came and the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him about the exceptional light of the sun. He said, "It is because of the death today in Madinah of Muawiyah ibn Muawiyah Laythi رضی اللہ عنہ [1] and Allah has sent to him seventy thousand angels so that they might participate in his funeral salah (prayer)." The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him for the reason of this distinction and Jibril (gabriel) علیہ السلام disclosed that he was given to recite al-Ikhlas very often while standing, sitting, walking, by day and by night, at every time. He said, "This surah is about your Lord. If anyone recites it fifty times then Allah raises him by fifty thousand degrees, erases his fifty thousand evil deeds and records fifty thousand pious work for him If anyone exceeds that number, Allah gives him more reward than that." Then, he asked whether he should wrap up the earth to enable the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to join in his funeral salah (prayer). When the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Yes, he enabled him to offer his funeral salah (prayer).

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There are three things which if anyone adopts to perfect his faith then he will enter paradise from whichever gate he wishes, and marry the large eyed maiden of his choice. The three things are:

i. Pardon his killer
ii. Repay a secret debt
iii. Recite surah al-Ikhlas ten times after every fard(compulsory) salah (prayer)."

On hearing that, Sayyiduna Abu Bukr رضی اللہ عنہ asked about one who adopts any one of the three things.

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone recites al-Ikhlas fifty times every day then, on the day of resurrection, he will be summoned from his grave in these words, 'O you who had praised Allah, enter paradise."

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also said that if anyone forgets to say (بسم اللہ) Bismillah when he begins to eat, then on finishing his meal, he must recite (قل ھو اللہ احد) surah al-Ikhlas. He also said, "If anyone recites surah al-Ikhlas on entering his home, then poverty and need are removed not only from the members of his household but also from his neighbours.

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Jibril (gabriel) علیہ السلام came to me one day in a very excellent form, happiness writ on his face. He said, 'O Muhammad! Aliyy! Aliyy! (Allah's attribute) conveys salaam to you. He says: There is a line of descent for every being. My descent is described in: (قل ھو اللہ احد). So, if anyone of your Ummah (people/followers) comes to me having recited (قل ھو اللہ احد) one thousand times some time. I shall grant him My symbol and draw him nearer to My Throne and approve his intercession for such seventy people who deserve to be punished. If I had not bound Myself wth {(كُلُّ نَفْسٍ ذَائِقَةُ الْمَوْتِ) – Every soul shall taste of death} (3:185), then I would not have had his soul extracted."

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone recites after the salah (prayer) of Friday seven times each surahs al-Ikhlas, al-Falaq and an-Naas, Allah will preserve him from evil till next Friday."

[1] He is the same Muawiyah رضی اللہ عنہ mentioned in the preceding lines. He was Muzani because of the general tribe by that name and Laythi because of his particular tribe.

He also said, "If anyone recites al-Ikhlas one thousand times then this recitation is better in the sight of Allah than his contributing one thousand horses fully equipped in Allah's path (meaning jihad)."
Sayyiduna Ka'b Ahbar رضی اللہ عنہ said that if anyone recites al-Ikhlas then Allah forbids his flesh to the Fire. He also said, "If anyone observes a constant practice of reciting day and night surah al-Ikhlas and the aayat ul-Kursi ten times, then Allah's pleasure for him becomes binding and he will be with the Prophetsعلیہ السلام. Also, he will be protected from the devil.
According to one tradition, "If anyone recites on the day of Arafah after Zawal Surah al-Ikhlas one thousand times and prays to Allah for his want, then Allah will grant it to him."
Another tradition has it that if anyone recites this surah one thousand times then he has bought his soul from Allah, the Exalted, meaning that he is safe from hell.
Yet another tradition says, "If anyone recites this surah two hundred times, then he earns a reward of worship over five hundred years."
It is reported that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم joined Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہ in wedlock he called for water and rinsed his mouth in it, took him into his house and sprinkled the water on his collar and between his shoulders. He also recited the surahs al-Ikhlas, al-Falaq and an Naas, and entrusted the pair to Allah's care.
According to a tradition, "If anyone offers the salah (prayer) of fajr and, before conversing with anyone, recites surah al-Ikhlas seventy times, then the deeds of fifty siddiqs (truthful ones) are sent above on his behalf."

REFRESH YOUR KNOWLEDGE OF THE QURAN

(٢١٨٧) عَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسَى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَعَاهَدُوا الْقُرْاٰنَ فَوَالَّذِيْ نَفْسِيْ بِيَدِهٖ لَهُوَ اَشَدُّ تَفَصِّيًا مِنَ الْاِبِلِ فِيْ عُقُلِهَا (متفق عليه)

2187. Sayyiduna Abu Musa al-Ashariرضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Continue to revise your knowledge of the Quran. Indeed, by Him who has my soul in His hand, it is more liable to flee (from the hearts) than camels that are tethered[1].

COMMENTARY: If the camel herd is careless, the camel will escape, So, if the Quran is not recited regularly, it will escape from the hearts more quickly than the camel from its rope.

(٢١٨٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِئْسَ مَالِاَحَدِهِمْ اَنْ يَّقُوْلَ نَسِيْتُ اٰيَةَ كَيْتَ وَكَيْتَ بَلْ نُسِّيَ وَاسْتَذْكِرُوا الْقُرْاٰنَ فَاِنَّهٗ اَشَدُّ تَفَصِّيًا مِّنْ صُدُوْرِ الرِّجَالِ مِنَ النَّعَمِ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَزَادَ مُسْلِمٌ بِعُقُلِهَا

2188: Sayyiduna Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "It is bad for anyone to utter, I have forgotten this or that verse.' Rather, 'I have been made to forget,' Continue to learn the Quran, for, it may escape from people's minds more quickly than animals."
Another version in Muslim also has: "animals that are tethered."[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone says that he has forgotten a verse, it implies that he has given up learning the Quran and is careless. He is behind in being given the blessing.

(٢١٨٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّمَا مَثَلُ صَاحِبِ الْقُرْآنِ كَمَثَلِ صَاحِبِ الْإِبِلِ الْمُعَلَّقَةِ إِنْ عَاهَدَ عَلَيْهَا أَمْسَكَهَا وَإِنْ أَطْلَقَهَا ذَهَبَتْ (متفق عليه)

2189. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The student (or companion) of the Quran is like the owner of tethered camels who, as long as he attends to them, retains them, but if he lets them loose, they go away." (Thus, if the student is sllack, the Quran disappears from him.)[2]

GO ON RECITING TILL YOU ARE WEARY

(٢١٩٠) وَعَنْ جُنْدُبِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِقْرَأُوا الْقُرْآنَ مَا ائْتَلَفَتْ عَلَيْهِ قُلُوْبُكُمْ فَإِذَا اخْتَلَفْتُمْ فَقُوْمُوْا عَنْهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

2190. Sayyiduna Jundub Ibn Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Recite the Quran as long as your hearts are inclined to it, but when you are distracted, stop reciting."[3]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ said that one must cease to recite the Quran when he cannot concentrate on it because it is better not to recite it than to carry on with the mind unable to concentrate on it. However, one must train oneself to recite as much as one can and to be delighted with it.

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم RECITATION:

(٢١٩١) وَعَنْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ سُئِلَ أَنَسٌ كَيْفَ كَانَتْ قِرَاءَةُ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ كَانَتْ مَدًّا مَدًّا ثُمَّ قَرَأَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ يَمُدُّ بِبِسْمِ اللّٰهِ وَيَمُدُّ بِالرَّحْمٰنِ وَيَمُدُّ بِالرَّحِيْمِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2191. Sayyiduna Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ was asked about the recitation of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He said, "He recited prolonging the letters." Than he (demonstrated and) recited (بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ) prolonging (the alif in اللہ of) (الرحمن) and prolonging (the alif in) (بسم اللہ) and prolonging (the yaa in) (الرحیم).[4]
{The yaa may be emphasised or prolonged.}

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recitation was the basis of tajwid.

Teebi رحمه الله said that the letters of prolongation are three: waw(و), alif (ا) and yaa (ی). It is prolonged between two alif and five alif. One alif is like baa, yaa, taa. If there is a tashdid (the mark of emphasis and repetition of the letter) then it is prolonged upto four alifs as is (دابة) (daaaabbah) but if the following letter is sakin (with a ' mark of stopping on it) then it is prolonged up to two alifs as is (مار) (Maar) and (يعلمون) (ya'lamuun). If the following letter is other than then there is no prolonging but only the original sound as in (اياک)iyaka. The prolonging in بسم الله (Bismllah) are all of this kind.

THE VOICE BEST IN ALLAH'S SIGHT

(۲۱۹۲) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَاأَذِنَ اللّٰهُ لِشَيْءٍ مَّا أَذِنَ لِنَبِيٍّ يَتَغَنّٰى بِالْقُرْاٰنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2192. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Allah does not listen to anything (with approval) as He does to a Prophet reciting the Quran in a pleasant voice.[1]

COMMENTARY: The word of Allah recited by His Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم is bound to be charming and immensely appealing.

(۲۱۹۳) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَاأَذِنَ اللّٰهُ لِشَيْءٍ مَّاأَذِنَ لِنَبِيٍّ حَسَنِ الصَّوْتِ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ يَجْهَرُ بِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

2193 Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Allah does not listen to anything (with approval) as He does to a Prophet reciting the Quran with a good voice in a loud pitch."[2]

THE QURAN IN A SWEET VOICE

(۲۱۹٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ مِنَّا مَنْ لَّمْ يَتَغَنَّ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2194. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said. "He does not belong to us who does not recite the Quran in a sweet, pleasant voice.[3]

COMMENTARY: The Quran must be recited in a sweet, appealing voice, sticking to the rules of tajweed (science of recital). However, it is forbidden to recite it in a singsong, musical tone. If anyone does it deliberately then he perpetrates the unlawful.

LISTENING TO THE QURAN

(۲۱۹٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ اِقْرَأْ عَلَيَّ قُلْتُ اَقْرَأُ عَلَيْكَ وَعَلَيْكَ اُنْزِلَ قَالَ اِنِّيْ اُحِبُّ اَنْ اَسْمَعَهُ مِنْ غَيْرِيْ فَقَرَأْتُ سُوْرَةَ النِّسَآءِ حَتّٰى اَتَيْتُ اِلٰى هٰذِهِ الْاٰيَةِ فَكَيْفَ اِذَا جِئْنَا مِنْ كُلِّ اُمَّةٍ بِشَهِيْدٍ وَّجِئْنَابِكَ عَلٰى هٰؤُلَاءِ شَهِيْدًا قَالَ حَسْبُكَ الْاٰنَ فَالْتَفَتُّ اِلَيْهِ فَاِذَا عَيْنَاهُ تَذْرِفَانِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2195. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that while Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was on the pulpit, he instructed him to recite to him (the Quran). He submitted, "Shall I recite to you though the Quran is revealed to you?" He said, "I love to hear it from somebody else." So, he recited surah an Nisa till he came to the verse:

فَكَيْفَ إِذَا جِئْنَا مِنْ كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ بِشَهِيدٍ وَجِئْنَا بِكَ عَلَى هَؤُلَاءِ شَهِيدًا

{How then shall it be, when we bring from each people a witness, and we bring you (O Prophet) as a witness against these?} (4:41)

(At this point) he said, "That is enough for now." Ibn Masu'd رضی اللہ عنہ turned towards him and behold! His eyes were shedding tears.[1]

COMMENTARY: One who is blessed with Divine awareness prefers to observe silence sometimes, or to give liberty to his tongue sometimes. On listening to another person recite the Quran, one may ponder and reflect. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wept on thinking of the severity of the day of resurrection and the weakness of his ummah (people/followers). How kind he was to his ummah (people/followers).

صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ اَلْفَ اَلْفَ صَلٰوةٍ كُلَّمَا ذَكَرَهُ الذَّاكِرُوْنَ وَكُلَّمَا غَفَلَ عَنْ ذِكْرِهِ الْغَافِلُوْنَ

(May Allah shower on him thousands upon thousands blessings every time those who remember, remember him; and every time those who neglect, forget to remember him.)

GOOD FORTUNE OF UBAYY IBN KA'B رضی اللہ عنہ

(٢١٩٦) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ اَمَرَنِيْ اَنْ اَقْرَأَ عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْاٰنَ قَالَ آللّٰهُ سَمَّانِيْ لَكَ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ وَقَدْ ذُكِرْتُ عِنْدَ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ قَالَ نَعَمْ فَذَرَفَتْ عَيْنَاهُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ اَمَرَنِيْ اَنْ اَقْرَأَ عَلَيْكَ لَمْ يَكُنِ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا قَالَ وَسَمَّانِيْ قَالَ نَعَمْ فَبَكٰى (متفق عليه)

2196. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ, "Allah has commanded me to recite the Quran to you. "He submitted," Allah named me to you." He said, "Yes." He submitted again, "Have I indeed been mentioned before the Lord of the worlds?" He said, "Yes." So, his eyes began to shed tears. According to another version: (the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said,) Indeed, Allah has commanded me that I should recite to you: (لَمْ يَكُنِ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا) "(Surah 98) He submitted, "He named me?" He said, "Yes!" So, Ubayy رضی اللہ عنہ wept.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ was the greatest reciter of the Quran of all the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم confirmed that before them: (اقرأكم ابی) (Ubayy is the greatest of you as the reciter of the Quran).

Sayyiduna Ubayy رضی اللہ عنہ was overwhelmed by his humility and his great good fortune. This was given expression by his tears.

It is mustahab (desirable) to recite the Quran to one who is an adept in it even if the reciter is not superior to the listener.

PROHIBITION TO CARRY QURAN TO ENEMY TERRITORY

(٢١٩٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ يُّسَافَرَ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ اِلٰى اَرْضِ الْعَدُوِّ۔

مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِّمُسْلِمٍ لَا تُسَافِرُوْا بِالْقُرْاٰنِ فَاِنِّيْ لَا اٰمَنُ اَنْ يَّنَالَهُ الْعَدُوُّ۔

2197 Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade that the Quran be carried to enemy territory.

According to another version: (He said,) "Do not carry the Quran with you when you travel, for, I am not satisfied that the enemy might not snatch it.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Quran was not compiled in book form as we know it. However, it was written on parchments as and when it was revealed. People had them with them. This too was a sacred document. Or, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has foreseen that it would be put together as a Book and should not be carried in journeys.

Some Ulama (Scholars) say that it is Makruh(unbecoming) to carry the Quran to enemy territory. The ruling is that it is not wrong to write a verse of the Quran on a letter sent to the disbelievers. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had sent a letter to Heraclius in which he wrote the verse: (تعالوا الی کلمة الخ) {come now to a word (common between us and you)...} (3:64)

GLAD TIDINGS TO THE POOR MUHAJIRS

(٢١٩٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ جَلَسْتُ فِيْ عِصَابَةٍ مِنْ ضُعَفَآءِ الْمُهَاجِرِيْنَ وَاِنَّ بَعْضَهُمْ لَيَسْتَتِرُ بِبَعْضٍ مِّنَ الْعُرْىِ وَقَارِئٌ يَقْرَأُ عَلَيْنَا اِذْ جَآءَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَامَ عَلَيْنَا فَلَمَّا قَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَكَتَ الْقَارِئُ فَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ قَالَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَصْنَعُوْنَ قُلْنَا كُنَّا نَسْتَمِعُ اِلٰى كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْ جَعَلَ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ مَنْ اُمِرْتُ اَنْ اَصْبِرَ نَفْسِيْ مَعَهُمْ قَالَ فَجَلَسَ وَسْطَنَا لِيَعْدِلَ بِنَفْسِهٖ فِيْنَا ثُمَّ قَالَ بِيَدِهٖ هٰكَذَا فَتَحَلَّقُوْا وَبَرَزَتْ وُجُوْهُهُمْ لَهٗ فَقَالَ اَبْشِرُوْا يَا مَعْشَرَ صَعَالِيْكِ الْمُهَاجِرِيْنَ بِالنُّوْرِ التَّامِّ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ تَدْخُلُوْنَ الْجَنَّةَ قَبْلَ اَغْنِيَآءِ النَّاسِ بِنِصْفِ يَوْمٍ وَذٰلِكَ خَمْسُ مِائَةِ سَنَةٍ (رواه ابوداؤد)

he gestured with his hand 'like this' and they sat in a circle so that their faces were turned towards him. He addressed them as a group of poor muhajirs and said, "Rejoice at the tidings of perfect light that you will have on the day of resurrection. You will enter paradise half a day ahead of the rich, that being (equal to) five hundred years."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words that 'had no clothing' means that apart from their satr (which is essential to cover) their bodies were bare, so they crowded behind others so as not to be seen in their state. They were not totally naked. They were very pious and saintly people and could not but be ashamed and modest. It is contrary to ethics that the body that is usually covered should be bare.

This is mentioned here to highlight the poverty of these sacred sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم.

Salaam (greeting) is not offered to one who recites the Quran. If anyone offers salaam to one who is reciting the Quran then the reciter must not give a response.

The Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words that he was commanded to confine himself with them are suggestive of this verse (18 : 28):

وَاصْبِرْ نَفْسَكَ مَعَ الَّذِيْنَ يَدْعُوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَدٰوةِ وَالْعَشِيِّ يُرِيْدُوْنَ وَجْهَهٗ وَلَا تَعْدُ عَيْنٰكَ عَنْهُمْ تُرِيْدُ

زِيْنَةَ الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلَا تُطِعْ مَنْ اَغْفَلْنَا قَلْبَهٗ عَنْ ذِكْرِنَا وَاتَّبَعَ هَوٰهُ وَكَانَ اَمْرُهٗ فُرُطًا(پ۱۶،۱۵۶)

{And content yourself along with those who call upon their Lord morning and evening, desiring His countenance, and let not your eyes turn away from them, desiring the adornment of the life of the world, and obey not him whose heart we have made to neglect our remembrance, and he follows his own caprice, and his affair has become all excess.}

Those who rectify themselves for the next world will suffer in this world and those who devote themselves to this world will be losers there. Since this world is ephemeral, one must prefer the everlasting.

The reference to the poor is to those who are righteous and patient. So, too, the rich are they who are righteous, grateful and payers of what is due on their wealth. While they will be going through reckoning of their property, the poor will have entered paradise.

We also learn from it that on the day of resurrection, the poor will have a greater share of Allah's mercy and favour than the rich because the rich would have found comfort and help in the world, while the poor were deprived.

TAJWEED & TARTEEL

(۲۱۹۹) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ زَيِّنُوا الْقُرْاٰنَ بِاَصْوَاتِكُمْ۔

(رواہ احمد وابوداؤد وابن ماجۃ والدارمی)

2199. Sayyiduna Al-Bara ibn Aazib رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "adorn the Quran with your voices."[2]

COMMENTARY: To adorn the Quran is to recite it is tajweed and tarteel(science of recital), softening the voice and making it sweet. However, it is forbidden to recite the Quran in a musical, sing-song note prolonging or shortening letters out of place. It is wajib (obligatory) to forbid anyone who recites it in this manner, because it is a bidah(innovation). The science of recitation of the Quran with prescribed articulation, pauses and pronunciation is tarteel or tajweed.

WARNING TO THOSE WHO FORGET THE QURAN

(۲۲۰۰) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ عُبَادَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ امْرِئٍ يَقْرَأُ الْقُرْاٰنَ ثُمَّ يَنْسَاهُ إِلَّا لَقِيَ اللّٰهَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ أَجْذَمَ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد والدارمی)

2200. Sayyiduna Sad ibn Ubadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is no one who recites the Quran and forgets it but he shall meet Allah on the day of resurrection with his hand cut off."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Hanafis say that forgetting means 'not being able to read even by looking at the text.' The Shafi'is say that it means forgetting what was committed to memory. Or, it means that he abandons recitation of the Quran irrespective of whether he forgets it or not.

Mawlana Shah Muhammad Ishaq رحمہ اللہ used to say that it could mean that the forgetting of one who had ability is not to be able to read what he had memorized without looking at the text. And, the forgetting of one without ability is being unable to read even after looking at the text. Thus, it is a grave sin to forget the Quran after learning and memorising it. Therefore, one must not be negligent with the Quran, and careless, but one must recite the Quran always and very much.

COMPLETING RECITATION IN LESS THAN THREE DAYS

(۲۲۰۱) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَمْ يَفْقَهْ مَنْ قَرَأَ الْقُرْاٰنَ فِيْ أَقَلَّ مِنْ ثَلَاثٍ۔ (رواہ الترمذی وابوداؤد والدارمی)

2201. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn amir (commander) رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who recites the (entire) Quran in less than three nights has not understood the Quran."[2]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that if any one completes the recitation in less than three days or three nights, he may comprehend the literal meaning of the Quran but he cannot understand its deeper meanings, its truths and finer points. What to say of three days, these things cannot fathomed in a life-time, howsoever long one lives. Move over, let alone the entire Quran, one cannot comprehend a single verse or even an expression in this short time.

Nevertheless, understanding it apart, reward for the recitation will accrue. Further, not everyone has the same level of understanding. Some people are quick at grasping a passage while others have a poor grasping power.

Some of our predecessors have gone by the literal meaning of this hadith (tradition) and they did not finish recitation of the Quran in less than three days. They regarded it as makruh(unbecoming) to finish it in less than three days. Others, however, are known to have completed recital of the Quran in a day and night once, twice or even thrice. Rather, it is known of some people to have recited the entire Quran in just one rakaah of the salah (prayer).

[1] Abu Dawud # 1474,Darimi # 3340, Musnad Ahmad 5-284

[2] Abu Dawud # 1394, Tirmidhi # 2949, Ibn Majah # 347Darimi # 1493, Musnad Ahmad 2-164

Perhaps these people understood the hadith (tradition) to speak of those who had a weak grasping power. Or, they interpreted it to disallow complete recited in less than three days to those who read to study, but there was no prohibition to those who wished earn reward in the shortest possible time.

People completed recitation of the Quran in two months, in a month, in ten days or in seven days. Most sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم did it in seven days. Bukhari and Muslim transmit a hadith (tradition) that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, "Complete reciting the Quran in seven days and do not do more than that."

KHATM UL AHZAB

In the terminology of the mashaikh and the aarifin (the learned men of Allah), the completion of the recital of the Quran in seven days is known as Khatm ul-ahzab. (A complete reading from cover to cover is known as khatm.) Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ said the best manner of it is (فمی بشوق)[1]

(this is explained further down.) Some people say that the method of khatm ul-ahzab is to begin on Friday and to recite from the beginning of the Quran up to surah al-Maidah to the end of it. On Saturday, from surah al-Anam to the end of surah at-Tawbah. On Sunday, from surah Younus to the end of surah Maryam.

On Monday, from surah Ta Ha to the end of surah al-Qasas.

On Tuesday, from surah al-Ankabut to the end of surah Saad.

On Wednesday, from surah az-Zumar to the end of surah ar-Rehman.

And, on Thursday, from surah al-Waqiah to the end of the Quran.

This Khatm is said to be proved for most needs. Similarly, the sequence of (فمی بشوق) is also tested for enlarged provision and other needs and this sequence too is recommended to begin on Friday. However, these two methods are widely different. The gist of what Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ said is that the ulama (Scholars) have suggested many methods of Khatm ul-ahzab but the most correct is(فمی بشوق) and, according to him, the sequence of both khatm-ul ahzab and (فمی بشوق) fmibshawq is one and the same thing.

The sequence of fmibshawq is based on the seven sections of the Quran to be recited in seven days such that the letters of (فمی بشوق) occur at the beginning of each section. Thus:

(ف) faa begins surah al-Fatihah (chapter) (f)
(م) meem begins surah al-Maidah (m)
(ی) yaa begins surah Younus (y)
(ب) baa begins surah Bani Israil (b)
(ش) shi begins surah ash-Shuara (sh)
(و) waw begins surah was-saafaat (w)
(ق) qaaf begins surah Qaaf (q)

The combination of these initial letters forms (فمی بشوق) (famibshwq). This sequence is ascribed to sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. He recited the entire Quran in this sequence.

---

[1] Fmi b Shwq

Reverting to the meaning of the hadith (tradition), Nawawi رحمه الله said that it depends on the different people and differs, according to their power of understanding. This has been discussed earlier in this discourse. Those with a strong faculty of comprehension can recite faster and get the meaning as they recite. They must recite so much as will enable them to understand. If anyone is engaged in propagating knowledge or in judgment of disputes or such other public work, then he must recite only so much as will not disturb his tasks. The same applies to one who is occupied in learning or earning for the livelihood of his family. Other people may recite the Quran as much as they can provided it does not produce tedium and result in mispronunciation of words.

LOUD AUDIBLE OR SOFT INAUDIBLE RECITATION

(٢٢٠٢) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْجَاهِرُ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ كَالْجَاهِرِ بِالصَّدَقَةِ وَالْمُسِرُّ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ كَالْمُسِرِّ بِالصَّدَقَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ

2202. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Reciting the Quran loudly is like giving sadaqah (charity) openly and a soft, inaudible recital is like a secret sadaqah (charity)."[1]

COMMENTARY: To give sadaqah (charity) secretly is better than giving it openly. Hence, to recite the Quran softly is better than reciting it loudly.

Teebi رحمه الله said that ahadith (traditions) say that it is good to recite the Quran quietly and they also say that it is good to recite it loudly. It is better to recite it quietly when one is likely to be ostentatious with a loud recital. If there is no likelihood of showing off then one may recite loudly, provided the loud voice does not disturb anyone else. A loud voice enables others to listen to the Quran and earn reward for it. It is a symbol of religion and a demonstration of Allah's words. The reciter's heart becomes receptive and his mind does not wander. It removes the urge to sleep and encourages other people to worship. Thus even when only one benefit is achievable, it is better to recite allowed.

ABIDE BY THE QURAN COMPLETELY

(٢٢٠٣) وَعَنْ صُهَيْبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا اٰمَنَ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ مَنِ اسْتَحَلَّ مَحَارِمَهٗ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ لَيْسَ اِسْنَادُهٗ بِالْقَوِيِّ۔

2203. Sayyiduna Suhayb رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He has not believed in the Quran who regards as lawful what the Quran forbids."[2]

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی الله علیه وسلم RECITAL

(٢٢٠٤) وَعَنِ اللَّيْثِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ عَنِ ابْنِ اَبِيْ مُلَيْكَةَ عَنْ يَعْلَى بْنِ مَمْلَكٍ اَنَّهٗ سَاَلَ اُمَّ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ قِرَاءَةِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاِذَا هِيَ تَنْعَتُ قِرَاءَةً مُفَسَّرَةً حَرْفًا حَرْفًا (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی)

2204. Sayyiduna al Layth ibn Sa'd رحمه الله reported from Ibn Abu Mulaykah رحمه الله who from Yala ibn Mamlak رحمه الله that he asked Sayy9idah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه about the recitation of the Quran by the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم. She described it in detail word by word.[1]

COMMENTARY: Anyone could count the letters when the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم recited. He observed tarteel and tajweed (science of recital). Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه either merely described the Prophet Muhammad's صلی الله علیه وسلم recitation or she recited in the manner in which he did to demonstrate his recitation.

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said that it was dearer to him to recite one surah in tarteel than reciting the entire Quran without tarteel.

(٢٢٠٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ عَنِ ابْنِ اَبِيْ مُلَيْكَةَ عَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُقَطِّعُ قِرَآءَ تَهٗ يَقُوْلُ اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ ثُمَّ يَقِفُ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ ثُمَّ يَقِفُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ لَيْسَ اِسْنَادُهٗ بِمُتَّصِلٍ لِاَنَّ اللَّيْثَ رَوٰى هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثَ عَنِ ابْنِ اَبِيْ مُلَيْكَةَ عَنْ يَّعْلَى بْنِ مَمْلَكٍ عَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ وَحَدِيْثُ اللَّيْثِ اَصَحُّ

2205. Sayyiduna Ibn Jurayj رحمه الله reported from Ibn Abu Mulaykah رحمه الله from Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه that she said, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم used to observe pauses while reciting the Quran. He would say (اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ) and pause before saying (الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ) and pause.[2]

COMMENTARY: Some ulama (Scholars) hold that this hadith (tradition) is not worthy to cite, because according to rules a perfect pause is observed at (مالک یوم الدین) Tirmidhi said that the hadith (tradition) of Layth رحمه الله is more correct.

Most ulama (Scholars) say that in such verses as are tied to each other, it is better to read them together without pause. However, Jazri رحمه الله said that it is mustahab (desirable) to pause. The Shafi is too say the same thing. The majority say that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم paused as stated to show the commencement of the verses.

(٢٢٠٦) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ خَرَجَ عَلَيْنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنَحْنُ نَقْرَأُ الْقُرْاٰنَ وَفِيْنَا الْاَعْرَابِيُّ وَالْاَعْجَمِيُّ فَقَالَ اِقْرَأُ وَفَكُلٌّ حَسَنٌ وَسَيَجِيْئُ اَقْوَامٌ يُقِيْمُوْنَهٗ كَمَا يُقَامُ الْقِدْحُ يَتَعَجَّلُوْنَهٗ وَلَا يَتَأَجَّلُوْنَهٗ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2206. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم came to them while they were reciting the Quran Among them were the villagers and non Arabs too. He said, "Recite. Each of you is good at reciting. A people will come who will straighten it as an arrow is straightened. They will wish to have its reward soon (in this world) and will not wait to have it in the next."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه spoke of the assembly that included the sahabah

(Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم who were not Arabs. They were Persian, Roman and Ethiopian, like Sayyiduna Salman رضی اللہ عنہ, Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ and Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ.

Though the recitation of the (Arab) villagers was not like that of the non-Arabs, yet the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم commended the recitation of all of them because they preferred the hereafter to this world. He told them that it did not matter if they had not polished their pronounciation and voices. A people were to succeed them who would perfect their voices and the words of the Quran and observe correct articulation. However, their effort would not be for the hereafter but to gain name and fame in this world and to show off.

These people would prefer this world to the next and would sell their religion for the world.

In short, recitation of the Quran should be with sincerity, pondering and getting lost in the meanings of the verses. It is no use simply reading correctly with a sweet voice.

(٢٢٠٧) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِقْرَأُوا الْقُرْاٰنَ بِلُحُوْنِ الْعَرَبِ وَاَصْوَاتِهَا وَاِيَّاكُمْ وَلُحُوْنَ اَهْلِ الْعِشْقِ وَلُحُوْنَ اَهلِ الْكِتَابَيْنِ وَسَيَجِيْءُ بَعْدِىْ قَوْمٌ يُّرَجِّعُوْنَ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ تَرْجِيْعَ الْغِنَآءِ وَالنَّوْحِ لَا يُجَاوِزُ حَنَا جِرَهُمْ مَفْتُوْنَةٌ قُلُوْبُهُمْ وَقُلُوْبُ الَّذِيْنَ يُعْجِبُهُمْ شَاْنُهُمْ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِىُّ فِىْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَرَزِيْنٌ فِىْ كِتَابِهٖ۔

2207. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Recite the Quran in the style of the Arabs and their accent. But, beware of the sound and pitch of singers of romantic poetry and the sound and pitch of the people of the two books. There will come a people after me who will modify their voices to the style of singing and wailing while reciting the Quran, but it will not go beyond their throats (meaning that their recitation shall not be accepted). Their hearts and the hearts of those who appreciate their recitation will be involved in trail."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabs recite the Quran naturally without being pretentious. Their voices are in harmony with their hearts. They do not follow the rules of music.

Every Muslim is required to recite the Quran in the style and sound that befits the greatness of the Quran and the accent of the Arabs.

They should not produce an unnatural voice to impress listeners

RECITE WITH SWEET VOICE

(٢٢٠٨) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ حَسِّنُوا الْقُرْاٰنَ بِاَصْوَاتِكُمْ فَاِنَّ الصَّوْتَ الْحَسَنَ يَزِيْدُ الْقُرْاٰنَ حُسْنًا (رواه الدارمی)

2208. Sayyiduna al-Bara ibn Aazib رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say: "Let your voices beautify the Quran. A good voice adds to the beauty of the Quran.[2]

STANDARD OF GOOD RECITAL

(۲۲۰۹) وَعَنْ طَاؤُوسٍ مُرْسَلًا قَالَ سُئِلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّ النَّاسِ اَحْسَنُ صَوْتًا لِّلْقُرْاٰنِ وَ اَحْسَنُ قِرَآءَةً قَالَ مَنْ اِذَا سَمِعْتَهُ يَقْرَأُ اُرِيْتَ اَنَّهُ يَخْشَى اللّٰهَ قَالَ طَاؤُوسٌ وَكَانَ طَلْقٌ كَذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

2209. Sayyiduna Tawus رحمه الله narrated in a mursal form that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked "Who has the most beautiful voice for the Quran? And, who is the best reciter?" He said, "He whom when you hear him recite you are inclined to believe that he fears Allah.[1]
Tawus رحمه الله said, "Talq رضی الله عنه was like that."

COMMENTARY: When a person fears Allah, this is detected by the change of the colour of his face or his weeping much.
Talq رضی الله عنه was a tabi but the compiler of Mishkat describes him as a sahabi رضی الله عنه.

A FEW COMMANDS

(۲۲۱۰) وَعَنْ عَبِيْدَةَ الْمُلَيْكِيِّ وَ كَانَتْ لَهٗ صُحْبَةٌ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا اَهْلَ الْقُرْاٰنِ لَاتَتَوَسَّدُوا الْقُرْاٰنَ وَاتْلُوْهُ حَقَّ تِلَاوَتِهٖ مِنْ اٰنَاءِ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَ اَفْشُوْهُ وَتَغَنَّوْهُ وَتَدَبَّرُوْا مَافِيْهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُوْنَ وَلَا تُعَجِّلُوْا ثَوَابَهٗ فَاِنَّ لَهٗ ثَوَابًا۔ (رواه البيهقی فی شعب الايمان)

2210. Sayyiduna Abeedah al-Mulayki رضی الله عنه who was a companion narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "O people of the Quran! Do not recline on the Quran (meaning, do not be lazy). Rather, recite it as it deserves to be recited by night and day. Recite it aloud. Recite it with a sweet voice. Think over its contents that you may achieve your aim (the hereafter). Do not hasten to earn its reward (in this world), for, its reward will be great in the next world."[2]

COMMENTARY: Do not recline on the Quran is an idiomatic expression in Arabic to mean, 'do not neglect and be lazy in reciting the Quran.' Go on reciting it and giving it its right. Recite it correctly, understand it and abide by it.
Ibn Hajr رضی الله عنه said that it is forbidden to rest or recline on the Quran, to stretch one's legs towards it, to put something on it, to put one's back to it, to trample it and to throw it. It is makruh(unbecoming) to draw an omen from it and some Maalikis say that it is forbidden to do so.
While reciting the Quran, four things must be observed:

i. The words must be pronounced correctly.
ii. Its message and meaning must be grasped.
iii. The aim of the message must be understood.
iv. The message should be obeyed.

Recite the Quran aloud that others may hear it. Teach it to them. Abide by it. Write it down and publicise and circulate it. Respect it.
Consider its verses carefully and divert your attention from this world to the hereafter.

CHAPTER - III

VARIATIONS IN READINGS & COLLECTION OF THE QURAN

بَابٌ

Not all copies of Mishkat have this chapter heading. Some have no heading at all other than mentioning 'Chapter.'

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

VARIATIONS IN READING

(٢٢١١) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ هِشَامَ بْنَ حَكِيْمِ بْنِ حِزَامٍ يَقْرَأُ سُوْرَةَ الْفُرْقَانِ عَلٰى غَيْرِ مَا اَقْرَأُهَا وَكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَقْرَأَنِيْهَا فَكِدْتُ اَنْ اَعْجَلَ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ اَمْهَلْتُهُ حَتّٰى انْصَرَفَ ثُمَّ لَبَّبْتُهُ بِرِدَائِهِ فَجِئْتُ بِهِ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ هٰذَا يَقْرَأُ سُوْرَةَ الْفُرْقَانِ عَلٰى غَيْرِ مَا اَقْرَأْتَنِيْهَا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَرْسِلْهُ اِقْرَأْ فَقَرَأَ الْقِرَاءَةَ الَّتِيْ سَمِعْتُهُ يَقْرَأُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هٰكَذَا اُنْزِلَتْ ثُمَّ قَالَ لِيْ اِقْرَأْ فَقَرَأْتُ فَقَالَ هٰكَذَا اُنْزِلَتْ اِنَّ هٰذَا الْقُرْاٰنَ اُنْزِلَ عَلٰى سَبْعَةِ اَحْرُفٍ فَاقْرَأُوْا مَا تَيَسَّرَ مِنْهُ۔ (متفق عليه واللفظ لمسلم)

2211. Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Sayyiduna Hisham ibn Hakim ibn Nizam رضی اللہ عنہ recite surah al Furqan in a manner different from what he had been reciting and what Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had taught him to recite. He almost quarrelled with him but gave him respite till he had finished. Then he took hold of his cloak and putting it in his neck, brought him to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to whom he said, "O Messenger of Allah. I heard this one recite surah al-Furqan in a manner that it different from what you have taught me to recite it." He instructed him to release him and asked him to recite. So he recited in the manner Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had heard him recite. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "This is how it was revealed." Then, he asked Umer رضی اللہ عنہ to recite it and he recited it, and he said, "This is how it was revealed. In deed, the Quran is revealed in seven readings. So recite in the manner that is easiest."[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) have expressed nearly opinions about the meaning of this hadith (tradition), one of these holds that this hadith (tradition) is among the allegorical whose meaning no one knows comprehensively.

Some authorities say that variations in readings are more than seven but all of them return to seven reasons.

i. In the word itself, because of a deficiency or an addition.
ii. The tense varying from plural to singular.
iii. The gender varying from masculine to feminine.
iv. The letter itself having an accent for emphasis (Shaddah) or without it, a fath, a kasrah or a dammah (زِ،زَ،زُ), like a word may be (مَیت مَیّت) (یَقنَط یَقنِط) (یَعرُش یَعرِش) etc.

v. Variation of vowels.

vi. Variation of letters, like (لکن الشیاطین) which is recited with the Shaddah on (نون) (لکنّ) without it (لکن)

vii. Variation in language (grammar) like tafkhim and imalah (making sound broad and long, and inclining sound).

This chapter has been treated in greater detail than here in the Book of knowledge chapter on knowledge in volume 1 of Mazahir Haq)

EACH READING IS CORRECT

(٢٢١٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَجُلًا قَرَأَ وَسَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْرَأُ خِلَافَهَا فَجِئْتُ بِهِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَخْبَرْتُهُ فَعَرَفْتُ فِيْ وَجْهِهِ الْكَرَاهِيَةَ فَقَالَ كِلَاكُمَا مُحْسِنٌ فَلَا تَخْتَلِفُوْا فَاِنَّ مَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ اخْتَلَفُوْا فَهَلَكُوْا (رواه البخاری)

2212. Sayyiduna Ibn Masud narrated that he heard a man recite (a portion of the Quran) and he had also heard the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم recite it differently. So he took him to the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم and informed him (of the difference). He said detected a dislike his the Prophet Muhammad's صلی الله علیه وسلم face. Anyway, he said, "Both of you are correct, so do not disagree. Those who preceded you disagreed and were ruined."[1]

(They used to belie each other.)

COMMENTARY: The disagreement refers to rejection of any one of the reasons of the Quran. As already stated, all the readings of the Quran are genuine and one must not reject any of them because that would be tantamount to rejecting the Quran. Some of the readings are mutawatir (undoubted continuous), some ahad (reported by few, not matching mutawatir). The seven readings are mutawatir that are being recited.

(٢٢١٣) وَعَنْ اُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ كُنْتُ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَدَخَلَ رَجُلٌ يُصَلِّيْ فَقَرَأَ قِرَاءَةً اَنْكَرْتُهَا عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ اٰخَرُ فَقَرَأَ قِرَاءَةً سِوَای قراءة صَاحِبِهٖ فَلَمَّا قَضَيْنَا الصَّلٰوةَ دَخَلْنَا جَمِيْعًا عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ اِنَّ هٰذَا قَرَأَ قِرَاءَةً اَنْكَرْتُهَا عَلَيْهِ وَدَخَلَ اٰخَرُ فَقَرَأَ سِوٰى قِرَاءَةِ صَاحِبِهٖ وَاَمَرَهُمَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَرَءَا فَحَسَّنَ شَاْنَهُمَا فَسُقِطَ فِيْ نَفْسِيْ مِنَ التَّكْذِيْبِ وَلَا اِذْ كُنْتُ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ فَلَمَّا رَاٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا قَدْ غَشِيَنِيْ ضَرَبَ فِيْ صَدْرِيْ فَفِضْتُ عَرَقًا وَكَاَنَّمَا اَنْظُرُ اِلَى اللهِ فَرَقًا فَقَالَ لِيْ يَا اُبَيُّ اُرْسِلَ اِلَيَّ اَنِ اقْرَأِ الْقُرْاٰنَ عَلٰى حَرْفٍ فَرَدَدْتُ اِلَيْهِ اَنْ هَوِّنْ عَلٰى اُمَّتِيْ فَرُدَّ اِلَيَّ الثَّانِيَةَ اَقْرَأْهُ عَلٰى اُمَّتِيْ فَرُدَّ اِلَيَّ الثَّالِثَةَ اَقْرَأْهُ عَلٰى سَبْعَةِ اَحْرُفٍ وَلَكَ بِكُلِّ رِدَّةٍ رَدَدْتُهَا مَسْاَلَةٌ تَسْاَلُنِيْهَا فَقُلْتُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِاُمَّتِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِاُمَّتِيْ وَاَخَّرْتُ الثَّالِثَةَ لِيَوْمٍ

يَرْغَبُ إِلَيَّ الْخَلْقُ كُلُّهُمْ حَتّٰى إِبْرَاهِيْمَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2213. Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ said that he was in the mosque when a man came in and offered salah (prayer). He recited in such a manner that Ubayy رضی اللہ عنہ did not think it to be correct. Then another man came in and recited a recitation different from the first man. When they finished the salah (prayer), they went together to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Ubayy رضی اللہ عنہ reported to him that one of them had recited in a manner that he had rejected and the other came and recited in a way different from the other. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed them both and they recited. He regarded both of them as good. Ubbay رضی اللہ عنہ thought to himself the urge to reject such a doubt as had not grown in him during the days of ignorance. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم detected his condition and patted him on the chest and he perspired heavily and was overwhelmed with tear and it seemed to him that he was looking at Allah. He then said to Ubayy رضی اللہ عنہ. "It was conveyed to me that I should recite the Quran in a reading but I pleaded to make it easy for my ummah (people/followers). Again, it was conveyed to me that I should recite in two readings but I pleaded again for it to be made easy for my ummah (people/followers). It was conveyed to me a third time that I should recite in seven readings. I was also told the while that I might pray for something for each time I had received a command. So, I prayed, 'O Allah forgive my ummah (people/followers), o Allah, for give my ummah (people/followers)!' And, I have held the third prayer in abeyance for the day when all the creatures, including Ibrahimعلیہ السلام, will ask me to intercede.[1]

COMMENTARY: Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ became doubtful because the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم commended both recitals though they were quite different. He wondered how Allah's words could be recited in two ways.

During the jahiliyah, he was not a faithful, so could not distinguish doubt and temptation from rectitude.

The prayers that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made were for forgiveness. It is the real thing, for, without it deliverance is not possible.

He made two prayers for his ummah (people/ followers), and held back the third for all the creatures till the day of resurrection. This is shafaah al-Kubra, the great intercession.

All the Prophets علیہ السلام will crave for his intercession, but only Prophet Ibrahim علیہ السلام is named because, after the Prophetصلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, he is the most superior.

COMMANDS ARE NOT ALTERED BY READINGS

(٢٢١٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَقْرَأَنِيْ جِبْرِيْلُ عَلٰى حَرْفٍ فَرَاجَعْتُهُ فَلَمْ اَزَلْ اَسْتَزِيْدُهُ وَيَزِيْدُنِيْ حَتّٰى اِنْتَهٰى اِلٰى سَبْعَةِ اَحْرُفٍ قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ بَلَغَنِيْ اَنَّ تِلْكَ السَّبْعَةَ الْاَحْرُفَ اِنَّمَا هِيَ فِي الْاَمْرِ تَكُوْنُ وَاحِدًا لَا تَخْتَلِفُ فِيْ حَلَالٍ وَلَا حَرَامٍ (متفق علیه)

2214. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said,

[1] Muslim # 273. 520, Musnad Ahmad 5-124.

"Jibril (gabriel) عليه السلام made me recite the Quran in one reading. I repeated it and did not cease to ask for more (for the ease of my ummah (people/followers) so that I continued to get more) and more of it was given till it ended at seven readings." Ibn Shihab (Zuhri رحمه الله) said that he had learnt that the seven readings are one concerning commands. They do not differ about the lawful and the unlawful.[1]

COMMENTARY: If a verse means one thing in a reading, it will continue to have the same meaning in other readings too. Variation in modes of reading will not alter the command. The variation in reading is limited merely to style and voice, and it has not effect on rulings.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم DESIRE TO MAKE RECITATION EASY

(٢٢١٥) عَنْ أُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ لَقِيَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جِبْرِيْلَ فَقَالَ يَا جِبْرِيْلُ إِنِّي بُعِثْتُ إِلَى أُمَّةٍ أُمِّيِّيْنَ مِنْهُمُ الْعَجُوْزُ وَالشَّيْخُ الْكَبِيْرُ وَالْغُلَامُ وَالْجَارِيَةُ وَالرَّجُلُ الَّذِيْ لَمْ يَقْرَأْ كِتَابًا قَطُّ قَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ إِنَّ الْقُرْاٰنَ أُنْزِلَ عَلَى سَبْعَةِ أَحْرُفٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِأَحْمَدَ وَأَبِيْ دَاوُدَ قَالَ لَيْسَ مِنْهَا إِلَّا شَافٍ كَافٍ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِلنِّسَائِيِّ قَالَ إِنَّ جِبْرِيْلَ وَمِيْكَائِيْلَ أَتَيَانِيْ فَقَعَدَ جِبْرِيْلُ عَنْ يَمِيْنِيْ وَمِيْكَائِيْلُ عَنْ يَسَارِيْ فَقَالَ جِبْرِيْلُ اِقْرَأِ الْقُرْاٰنَ عَلَى حَرْفٍ قَالَ مِيْكَائِيْلُ اسْتَزِدْهُ حَتّٰى بَلَغَ سَبْعَةَ أَحْرُفٍ فَكُلُّ حَرْفٍ شَافٍ كَافٍ۔

2215. Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضى الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم met Jibril (gabriel)عليه السلام, he said, "O Jibril (gabriel), I am sent to an ummah (people/followers) who are unlettered. They include old women and old men, young boys and young girls, and these who have never read a book." He said, "O Muhammad, the Quran is revealed in seven readings.[2]

According to another version: "There is nothing in it but what heals (from the mischief of disbelief, etc) and is enough (to confirm your truth).[3]

And yet another version: He said, "Jibril (gabriel) عليه السلام and Mikail عليه السلام came to me. Jibril (gabriel) عليه السلام sat to my right and Mikail عليه السلام my left, and Jibirl عليه السلام said, 'Recite the Quran in one reading.' And Mikail said, 'Ask for more,' till it came to seven readings. Each is a healing and sufficient."[4]

COMMENTARY: The people were mostly unlettered and it was difficult for them to recite the Quran on a single form of reading. They could not all meet the demands of pronounciation in one, manner. Different readings (qiraat) would permit them to follow are that came naturally to them.

MAKE NOT QURAN A MEANS TO BEG

(٢٢١٦) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ أَنَّهُ مَرَّ عَلَى قَاصٍّ يَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَسْأَلُ فَاسْتَرْجَعَ ثُمَّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ

صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ قَرَأَ الْقُرْاٰنَ فَلْيَسْأَلِ اللّٰهَ بِهٖ فَإِنَّهٗ سَيَجِيْئُ اَقْوَامٌ يَقْرَأُوْنَ الْقُرْاٰنَ يَسْأَلُوْنَ بِهِ النَّاسَ۔ (رواه احمد الترمذی)

2216. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی الله عنه is reported to have passed by a story teller who recited the Quran and then begged. So, Imran رضی الله عنه first said (اِنَّ لِلّٰهِ وَاِنَّا اِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُوْنَ) 'to Allah we belong and to Him is our return.' Then he narrated that he had heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say. "He who recites the Quran must pray to Allah for a reward, for, soon such people will crop up who will recite the Quran and beg from people against it."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition)s sounds a note of warning to those who beg against recitation of the Quran. As it is, this thing violates human values that a person must forsake Allah and beg from a fellow human being thinking of him as the remover of his needs.

While reciting the Quran, the reciter must pray to Allah alone as he comes across different verses, and again after finishing the recitation.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

WARNING AGAINST USING THE QURAN FOR WORLDLY ENDS

(٢٢١٧) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ الْقُرْاٰنَ يَتَأَكَّلُ بِهِ النَّاسَ جَاءَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَوَجْهُهٗ عَظْمٌ لَيْسَ عَلَيْهِ لَحْمٌ (رواه البیهقی فی شعب الایمان)

2217. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone recites the Quran in order to earn thereby a living from the people, then on the day of resurrection, he will come with bones on his face. There will be no flesh on it."[2]

BISMILLAH IS A VERSE

(٢٢١٨) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَايَعْرِفُ فَصْلَ السُّوْرَةِ حَتّٰى يَنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2218. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم could not know the point of separation between two surah till (the bismalah) (بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ) was revealed.[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) proves beyond doubt that (بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ) is a verse of the Quran. It distinguishes one surah from another.

AN INCIDENT WITH IBN MASUD رضی الله عنه

(٢٢١٩) وَعَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ قَالَ كُنَّا بِحِمْصَ فَقَرَأَ ابْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ سُوْرَةَ يُوْسُفَ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ مَاهٰكَذَا اُنْزِلَتْ فَقَالَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ وَاللّٰهِ لَقَرَأْتُهَا عَلٰى عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اَحْسَنْتَ فَبَيْنَا هُوَ يُكَلِّمُهٗ اِذْوَجَدَ مِنْهُ

رِيْحَ الْخَمْرِ فَقَالَ اَتَشْرَبُ الْخَمْرَ وَتُكَذِّبُ بِالْكِتَابِ فَضَرَبَهُ الْحَدَّ۔ (متفق عليه)

2219. Sayyiduna Alqamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that while they were in Hims. Sayyiduna Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ recited to them the surah Yusuf. A man interrupted that it was not revealed in that way. Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "By Allah, I had recited it in the times of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (in this way) and he had commended me." While he was thus coversing, he detected the smell of wine on him. So, he asked, "Did you drink wine and belied the Book (of Allah)? Then he awarded him the prescribed punishment.[1]

COMMENTARY: If Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ wa، reciting a mushhur (established, known) reading, then this man belied the Quran and that amounted to disbelief. If he recited a Shaadh (rare) reading then he merely belied the reading, not the Quran. So, Ibn Masud's رضی اللہ عنہ saying that he had belied the Book was in anger and as a warning. This seems more correct because he did not blame him for apostacy. He only awarded him the punishment for consuming wine.

Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ had spoken the words in anger because if anyone rejects an expression of a reading and the Quran then it is disbelief but not if he belies the pronunciation and delivery.

This man had only rejected the pronounciation and delivery but not the Quran or the reading. That is why Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ only punished him for consuming wine.

The ulama (Scholars) say that the smell from the mouth is enough evidence against anyone of having consumed wine. However, the Hanafi and Shafii point of view is that mere odour from the mouth is not enough evidence of wine consuming against anyone and he cannot be awarded the prescribed punishment for it unless there is other evidence for it. Sometimes sour apple and guava also give out an odour like some kind of wine.

As for this particular incident Sayyiduna Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ may have had this man's confession or there may have been witnesses against him. So he awarded the prescribed punishment to the man (for wine-consuming).

COLLECTION OF THE QURAN

(٢٢٢٠) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ قَالَ اَرْسَلَ اِلَيَّ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ مَقْتَلَ اَهْلِ الْيَمَامَةِ فَاِذَا عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ عِنْدَهُ قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ اِنَّ عُمَرَ اَتَانِي فَقَالَ اِنَّ الْقَتْلَ قَدِ اسْتَحَرَّ يَوْمَ الْيَمَامَةِ بِقُرَّاءِ الْقُرْاٰنِ وَاِنِّي اَخْشٰى اِنْ اسْتَحَرَّ الْقَتْلُ بِالْقُرَّاءِ بِالْمَوَاطِنِ فَيَذْهَبُ كَثِيْرٌ مِّنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ وَاِنِّي اَرٰى اَنْ تَاْمُرَ بِجَمْعِ الْقُرْاٰنِ قُلْتُ لِعُمَرَ كَيْفَ تَفْعَلُ شَيْئًا لَمْ يَفْعَلْهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ هٰذَا وَاللّٰهِ خَيْرٌ فَلَمْ يَزَلْ عُمَرُ يُرَاجِعُنِي حَتّٰى شَرَحَ اللّٰهُ صَدْرِيْ لِذٰلِكَ وَرَاَيْتُ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ الَّذِيْ رَاٰى عُمَرُ قَالَ زَيْدٌ قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ اِنَّكَ رَجُلٌ شَابٌّ عَاقِلٌ لَا نَتَّهِمُكَ وَقَدْ كُنْتَ تَكْتُبُ الْوَحْيَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَتَتَبَّعِ الْقُرْاٰنَ فَاجْمَعْهُ فَوَاللّٰهِ لَوْ كَلَّفُوْنِيْ نَقْلَ جَبَلٍ مِنَ الْجِبَالِ مَا كَانَ اَثْقَلَ عَلَيَّ مِمَّا اَمَرَنِيْ بِهٖ مِنْ جَمْعِ الْقُرْاٰنِ قَالَ قُلْتُ

كَيْفَ تَفْعَلُوْنَ شَيْئًا لَمْ يَفْعَلْهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ هُوَ وَاللّٰهِ خَيْرٌ فَلَمْ يَزَلْ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ يُرَاجِعُنِيْ حَتّٰى شَرَحَ اللّٰهُ صَدْرِيْ لِلَّذِيْ شَرَحَ لَهٗ صَدْرَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَ عُمَرَ فَتَتَبَّعْتُ الْقُرْاٰنَ اَجْمَعُهٗ مِنَ الْعُسُبِ وَاللِّخَافِ وَصُدُوْرِ الرِّجَالِ حَتّٰى وَجَدْتُّ اٰخِرَ سُوْرَةِ التَّوْبَةِ مَعَ اَبِيْ خُزَيْمَةِ الْاَنْصَارِيِّ لَمْ اَجِدْهَا مَعَ اَحَدٍ غَيْرِهٖ لَقَدْ جَآءَكُمْ رَسُوْلٌ مِنْ اَنْفُسِكُمْ حَتّٰى خَاتِمَةِ بَرَاءَةٍ فَكَانَتِ الصُّحُفُ عِنْدَ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ حَتّٰى تَوَفَّاهُ اللّٰهُ ثُمَّ عِنْدَ عُمَرَ حَيَاتَهٗ ثُمَّ عِنْدَ حَفْصَةَ بِنْتِ عُمَرَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2220. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Tahabit رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ summoned him after the (large scale) killing of the warriors at al-yamamah. Indeed, Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ was with him. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ said to him that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had visited him and pointed out to the large-scale killing of the reciters of the Quran during the battle of al-Yamamah. He apprehended that if they continued to be killed at this scale during other battles, they could lose a great portion of the Quran. Therefore, he suggested that he should arrange for the Quran to be collected. But, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ asked Umar رضی اللہ عنہ how he could do what Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had never done. Nevertheless, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, 'By Allah, this is best" and he did not cease to persuade him till Allah made him see the wisdom in it, so he concurred with Umar's idea about it.

Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ said that then Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ said to him, "You are young and intelligent and cannot be suspected. Besides, you were a scribe who recorded the wahy that was revealed to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. So, search for the Quran and collect it together." Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ commented, 'By Allah, if they had assigned to me the shifting of a mountain among the mountain that would not have been as burdensome and difficult for me than the putting together of the Quran which task he had assigned to me."

Then he asked him. "How will you do something that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had never done?" He said, "By Allah, this is best." He continued to persuade him till Allah made him see the wisdom in it as He had made Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar see it. So, he began to search for the Quran collecting it from palm-branches white stones and hearts of men (who had memorized the Quran). He finally found the concluding portion of surah al-Bara'ah with Sayyiduna Abu Khuzaymah al-Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ. He was unable to find it with anyone else.(it was:)

لَقَدْ جَآءَكُمْ رَسُوْلٌ مِّنْ اَنْفُسِكُمْ

(Surely, a messenger has come to you from among yourselves...) (to the end of the surah. 9:128-129)

The suhuf (Sheets of the Quran that he had collected) were deposited with Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ till Allah took him away. Then they were with Umar رضی اللہ عنہ all his life. Then they were with (Sayyidah) Hafsah bint Umar رضی اللہ عنہ.[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه had sent an army to Yamamah under the command of Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Walid رضی الله عنه. In the ensuing fierce battle Muslamah Kadhdhab was killed. (He was claimant to prophet hood). The Muslims also suffered heavy reverses and many of those who had committed the Quran to memory were martyred. Between seven hundred and twelve hundred Muslims were martyred.
Till then, the Quran was preserved in complete form only in memories.
So, Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit رضی الله عنه was commissioned to put the Quran together. Zayd رضی الله عنه had written most of the revelation being one of the twenty four scribes who wrote it down. The four caliphs were also among them. Moreover, Zayd رضی الله عنه was trusted and dutiful.

THE FORM OF THE QURAN IN THE TIMES OF THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی الله علیه وسلم

The noble Quran was written down in the Prophet Muhammad's صلی الله علیه وسلم times too but it was not in book form or as a single collection. It was inscribed on palm-leaves, on stones, on bones and on other things and was in the custody of different people. The reason was that whenever it was revealed the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم dictated it to his scribes to inscribe on any of these things at hand at that time.
After the death of the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم, Sayyiduna Abu BAkr رضی الله عنه approved the suggestion of Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه. He had these different writings on various things collected and put down neatly in several sheets.
Furthermore, the Quran that we have now-a-days in a sequence of surahs, had not this arrangement in the times of the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم. Rather, after him, this sequence was decided by the ijtihad (independent judgment) of the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم. Of course, the verses were arranged in sequence in the Prophet Muhammad's صلی الله علیه وسلم times according to his instructions. The method was that whenever Jibril (gabriel) علیه السلام brought a revealation according to the situation land needs, he also said that the verse belonged to such-and-such surah before a certain verse or after it. The Quran is inscribed in the Preserved Tablet (Luh Mahfuz (لوح محفوظ) in the same sequence and arrangement. The noble Quran was brought from there to the lowest heaven. Then Jibril (gabriel) علیه السلام brought down to the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم surahs or verse of the Quran from there in keeping with the situation and need.
In short, the revelation of the Quran was not in the same sequence as it is recited these days. Every year in Ramadan, Jibril (gabriel) علیه السلام revised the Quran according to the sequence of revelation, and in Ramadan of the year when the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم died, he revised it with him twice.
Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit رضی الله عنه did not find the concluding portion of surah Bara'ah with anyone other than Abu Khuzaymah رضی الله عنه. Of course those sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم who had committed the Quran to memory also had these verses of Bara'ah with them in memory. Among the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم who had memorized the entire Quran in the times of the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم were Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی الله عنه, Mu'adh ibn Jabar رضی الله عنه, Zayd ibn Thabit رضی الله عنه, Abu Darda رضی الله عنه, and others.
When Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit رضی الله عنه accomplished his task at the behest of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه, all the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم concurred with it. Then, it was arranged in several scrolls or sheets. It had not taken the shape of a single book or collection till then. Those sheets were retained by Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and after him by Umar رضی اللہ عنہ all his life. After him, they were kept with his daughter, Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہ. Then Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ put together all the sheets in one mashaf (copy of Quran). The he had many copies of it made out and disbursed throughout most of the cities of the Islamic state. This will be seen in the next hadith (tradition).

THE ARRANGEMENT & COLLECTION OF THE QURAN BY UTHMAN رضی اللہ عنہ

(٢٢٢١) وَعَنْ اَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ اَنَّ حُذَيْفَةَ بْنَ الْيَمَانِ قَدِمَ عَلٰى عُثْمَانَ وَكَانَ يُغَازِيْ اَهْلَ الشَّامِ فِيْ فَتْحِ اَرْمِيْنِيَّةَ وَاَذَرْ بِيْجَانَ مَعَ اَهْلِ الْعِرَاقِ فَاَفْزَعَ حُذَيْفَةَ اِخْتِلَافُهُمْ فِي الْقِرَاءَةِ فَقَالَ حُذَيْفَةُ لِعُثْمَانَ يَا اَمِيْرَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ اَدْرِكْ هٰذِهِ الْاُمَّةَ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّخْتَلِفُوْا فِي الْكِتَابِ اخْتِلَافَ الْيَهُوْدِ وَالنَّصَارٰى فَاَرْسَلَ عُثْمَانُ اِلٰى حَفْصَةَ اَنْ اَرْسِلِيْ اِلَيْنَا بِالصُّحُفِ نَنْسَخُهَا فِي الْمَصَاحِفِ ثُمَّ نَرُدُّهَا اِلَيْكِ فَاَرْسَلَتْ بِهَا حَفْصَةُ اِلٰى عُثْمَانَ فَاَمَرَ زَيْدَ بْنَ ثَابِتٍ وَعَبْدَ اللّٰهِ بْنَ الزُّبَيْرِ وَسَعِيْدَ بْنَ الْعَاصِ وَعَبْدَ اللّٰهِ بْنَ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ هِشَامٍ فَنَسَخُوْهَا فِي الْمَصَاحِفِ وَقَالَ عُثْمَانُ لِلرَّهْطِ الْقُرَشِيِّيْنَ الثَّلَاثِ اِذَا اخْتَلَفْتُمْ اَنْتُمْ وَزَيْدُ بْنُ ثَابِتٍ فِيْ شَيْءٍ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ فَاكْتُبُوْهُ بِلِسَانِ قُرَيْشٍ فَاِنَّمَا نَزَلَ بِلِسَانِهِمْ فَفَعَلُوْا حَتّٰى اِذَا نَسَخُوا الصُّحُفَ فِيْ مَصَاحِفَ رَدَّ عُثْمَانُ الصُّحُفَ اِلٰى حَفْصَةَ وَاَرْسَلَ اِلٰى كُلِّ اُفُقٍ بِمُصْحَفٍ مِمَّا نَسَخُوْا وَاَمَرَ بِمَا سِوَاهُ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ فِيْ كُلِّ صَحِيْفَةٍ اَوْ مُصْحَفٍ اَنْ يُّحْرَقَ قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ فَاَخْبَرَنِيْ خَارِجَةُ بْنُ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ اَنَّهُ سَمِعَ زَيْدَ بْنَ ثَابِتٍ قَالَ فَقَدْتُ اٰيَةً مِنَ الْاَحْزَابِ حِيْنَ نَسَخْنَا الْمُصْحَفَ قَدْ كُنْتُ اَسْمَعُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْرَأُ بِهَا فَالْتَمَسْنَاهَا فَوَجَدْنَاهَا مَعَ خُزَيْمَةَ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ الْاَنْصَارِيِّ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ رِجَالٌ صَدَقُوْا مَا عَاهَدُوا اللّٰهَ عَلَيْهِ فَاَلْحَقْنَاهَا فِيْ سُوْرَتِهَا فِي الْمُصْحَفِ۔ (رواہ البخاری)

2221 Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik narrated that Sayyiduna Hudhayfah ibn Yaman رضی اللہ عنہ visited Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ when he was preparing war equipment for Shaam(syria) and Iraq for their battle against Armenia and Azerbayjan. He was alarmed at their difference in reading the Quran. So, he said to Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ, "O amir (commander) ul-muminin, put this ummah (people/followers) on the correct course before they differ about the Book, like the disagreement of the Jews and Christians (among themselves)." So Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ sent for the sheets which Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہا had (in safe-keeping) so that he would make their copies and then return them to her. She sent the sheets to Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ who instructed Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ, Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ, Sayyiduna Saeed ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn al-Harith ibn Hisham رضی اللہ عنہ and they made the copies of the sheets. Utham رضی اللہ عنہ also instructed the three men of Quraysh (entrusted with this task) that if they disagreed with Sayyiduna Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ about (the dialect of) the Quran then they should write it in the dialect of the Quraysh, for it had been revealed in their dialect. So, they did that. They produced several copies of the sheets and Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ returned them to Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہا. He dispatched a copy each of what they had produced to every region with orders that any sheet or book that had a part of the Quran in an other form should be burned. (One of the narrators) Sayyiduna Ibn Shihab رضی اللہ عنہ said that Sayyiduna Kharijah رضی اللہ عنہ, son of Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ, said to him that he heard Zayd ibn Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ say that when they were copying the Quran, he could not find a verse of surah al-Ahzab which he had heard Allah's Messneger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recite. On searching for it, he found it with Sayyiduna Khuzaymah ibn Thabit al-Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ. (It was:)

مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ رِجَالٌ صَدَقُوْا مَاعَاهَدُوْا اللّٰهَ عَلَيْهِ

{Among the believers are men who are true to the covenant they made with Allah.} (33:23)

So, they added it to the surah (where it belonged) in the copy of the mashaf (Quran).[1]

COMMENTARY: Kirmani رحمہ اللہ has explained in his Sharh (explanatory book) of Bukhari رضی اللہ عنہ that the word (یغازی) is used in the sense of (یغزی) so that the meaning given in the translation depicts it correctly Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ and Shaykh (Great religious Scholar) Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمہ اللہ have said that the noun of the verb (کان) and the subject of (یغازی) is Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ (so that not Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ but Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ had led the Syrians and Iraqis at the conquest).

The Jews and Christians had manipulated their Books and Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ was afraid that the Muslims might do that with Allah's Book. So, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ called a meeting and presented this fear before them. The members of the meeting numbered about fifty thousand men. He told them that the people disputed on the readings of the Quran and condemned each other practice of the reading though this nearly amounted to disbelief. Then it was decided to bring the people to one mashaf (copy of Quran).

The Quran was revealed in the dialect of the Quraysh but on the Prophet"s صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم request for making it easy for the people, the concession was made. Everyone was allowed to read in his own dialect. However, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was compelled to abrogate all dialects, save the Quraysh dialect, because of serious differences.

Sakhawi رحمہ اللہ has reported some places where these people charged with producing an official text differed. For instance, Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ had in mind (التابوہ) but the others held it to be (التابوت) and Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ upheld their contention. They also disagreed about (لم یتسن) and Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ had a (ہ) added to it (لم یتسنہ).

The copies that were ordered to be burnt included the sheets with Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہ and those with other people.

However, Sakhawi رضی اللہ عنہ said that Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ spared the sheets of Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہ and burnt those with other people. Later, when Marwan became governor of Madinah he called for the sheets from her that he might burn them but she refused to give them to him. When she died, Marwan got them from her brother, Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and burnt them lest they get into wrong hands and the differences might crop up again. The copies made out at Uthman's رضی اللہ عنہ behest were five. But, Abu Dawud says that they were seven. One of them was sent to Makkah. The others went to Shaam (syria), Yemen, Bahrain, Busrah, Kufah and Madinah.

---

[1] Bukhari # 4987, Musand Ahmad 5.188

THE WORN OUT PAGES OF THE MASHAF (QURAN)

The ulama (Scholars) differ on what should be done with the worn out pages of the Quran that cannot be used for reading. Should they be burnt or washed. Some of them say that they should be burnt because that leaves no possibility of their being misused or disrespected in any way, but if they are washed then the water will flow on the ground and possibly be trampled. However, some ulama (Scholars) prefer that the worn out pages should be washed and the water (and residue) should be placed on a pure place, or, better, its water should be drunk because it is a panacea and a cure for ills of the chest.

SAYYIDUNA UTHMAN'S رضی اللہ عنہ ACTION

If Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ had not burnt the other copies of the Quran and had spared them, then later on they could have become a means of dispute and troubles among the people,. His action had wisdom behind if and it cannot be proved that Shariah (Islamic law) disallows burning of the pages of the Quran or that it is disrespectful.

FIRST COMPILING

The ulama (Scholars) write that the Quran was put together three times; First it was collected in the times of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, but it was not compiled in a single mashaf (book/collection) all together. Secondly, it was collected in the era of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and, in fact, he was the first man to collect the entire Quran together and may Allah shower mercy on him. Then the third time Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ consulted all the Sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم and put the Quran together in a book form and made copies of that and it was authenticated in the dialect of the Quraysh, and he sent the copies to other neighbouring places, this was done in 25 AH.

Different motives: Sayyiduna Abu Bakr's رضی اللہ عنہ motive in putting together the entire Quran was his fear that some portion of the Quran might be lost if it was not compiled in a single form. As for Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ he was driven to do that to counter possibilities of disagreement in the ummah (people/followers). This means that he did not really put the Quran together but warded off possibility of disputes within the ummah (people/followers) and brought them to one dialect (that of the Quraysh)

WHY NO BISMILLAH TO BEGIN SURAH BARAAH

(٢٢٢٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِعُثْمَانَ مَاحَمَلَكُمْ عَلَى اَنْ عَمَدْتُمْ اِلَى الاَنْفَالِ وَهِيَ مِنَ الْمَثَانِيْ وَ اِلَى بَرَاءَةٍ وَهِيَ مِنَ الْمِئِيْنِ فَقَرَنْتُمْ بَيْنَهُمَا وَلَمْ تَكْتُبُوْا سَطْرَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ وَ وَضَعْتُمُوْهَا فِي السَّبْعِ الطُّوَلِ مَاحَمَلَكُمْ عَلَى ذٰلِكَ قَالَ عُثْمَانُ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِمَّا يَأْتِي عَلَيْهِ الزَّمَانُ وَهُوَ يُنْزَلُ عَلَيْهِ السُّوَرُ ذَوَاتُ الْعَدَدِ وَكَانَ اِذَا نَزَلَ عَلَيْهِ شَيْءٌ دَعَا بَعْضَ مَنْ كَانَ يَكْتُبُ فَيَقُوْلُ ضَعُوْا هٰؤُلَاءِ الْاٰيَاتِ فِي السُّوْرَةِ الَّتِيْ يُذْكَرُ فِيْهَا كَذَا وَكَذَا فَاِذَا نَزَلَتْ عَلَيْهِ الْاٰيَةُ فَيَقُوْلُ ضَعُوْا هٰؤُلَاءِ الْاٰيَةِ فِي السُّوْرَةِ الَّتِيْ يُذْكَرُ فِيْهَا كَذَا وَكَذَا وَكَانَتِ الْاَنْفَالُ مِنْ اَوَائِلِ مَانَزَلَتْ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ وَكَانَتْ بَرَاءَةٌ مِنْ اٰخِرِ الْقُرْاٰنِ نُزُوْلًا وَكَانَتْ قِصَّتُهَا شَبِيْهَةً بِقِصَّتِهَا فَقُبِضَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَلَمْ يُبَيِّنْ لَنَا اَنَّهَا

الطُّوَلِ۔ (روه احمد والترمذی وابوداؤد)

2222. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he asked Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ. "What brought you to place al-Anfal which is among al-mathani with Baraah which is among al-miin, joining them without distinguishing between them by writing (بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ), and why did you put it (al-Anfal) with the seven long ones (as sab'at-tool)? Why did you do it?" Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ answered, "With the passage of time, many surahs (chapters) were revealed to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. So, with every fresh revelation, he sent for some of his scribes and instructed them to insert the verses in the surah that mentions this or that; and when a verse was revealed, he instructed them to insert it in such-and-such surah with a certain subject matter. As for al-Anfal, it was among the first to be revealed in Madinah and Baraah was among the last of the Quran to be revealed, its subject-matter being similar to that of the other Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was taken away and he did not specify to us whether it belonged to it. It is for this reason, I paired them without writing(بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ) between them and put them among as-saba tool (seven long ones)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The surahs (chapters) of the Quran are divided in the manner mentioned in the hadith (tradition). From surah al Baqarah to surah Yunus are (at-tawal) which means lengthy. The first seven surahs (chapters) are saba tawal or seven long ones because they are lengthy. Then, from surah Yunus to surah ash-Suara are called al-mumin (of) the hundreds, mumin being the plural of miah (مائنه), meaning one hundred. These surahs (chapters) are made up of over one hundred verses, or near one hundred verses. Then, from surah ash-Shuara to al-Hujurat are called al-mathani. They are less than one hundred verses and their subject-matter is identical or repeated. Then from al-Hujurat to the end of the Quran are al-mufassal because the bismillah between them is very near. These are three kinds. The last of them al-mufassal is further divided into three kinds: tawal, awsat, and qisar (long average and short).

From al-Hujurat to al-Burooj are the tawal mufassal, from there to (لم یکن) (al-Bayyinah) are awsat mufassal and from there to the end of the Quran are qisar mufassal.

Now, let us look at the hadith (tradition), Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ asked that surah al-Anfal which is an al-Mathani being made up of less than one hundred verses and Baraah which is an al-miin made up of more than one hundred verses - why are they placed together within at-tawal. Al-Anfal should have been with al-Mathani and Baraah with almiin? And why is (بسم اللہ الرحمن الرحیم) not written between them?

Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ explained that there was a possibility that they were not two but one surah, so are placed with at-tawal without bismillah separting them. If they are two surahs (chapters) then they have to be separated, so are distinguished as two.

SUPPLICATIONS كتاب الدعوات

ABOUT DUA

Dua (Supplication) means 'to seek from the Elevated Being some of the base things with humility.' Imam (leader)Nawawi رضی اللہ عنہ said that the ulama (Scholars) of all times and every place have been unanimous that it is mustahab (desirable) to make supplication. They cite the exhortation in the Quran and hadith (tradition) as well as the practice of the Prophets علیہ السلام all of whom used to make supplication.

However, some ascetics and possessors of Divine awareness hold that it is better to not make supplication because it is an expression of being pleased with Divine pleasure and decree in a perfect way. Mawlana Shah Muhammad Ishaq رحمہ اللہ said about this opinion of the ascetics and possessors of Divine awareness that it depends on the peculiar condition that overtakes some saintly men at some times when an acceptance with willingness of decree is dominant. There is the example of Prophet Ibrahim علیہ السلام. When he was cast into the fire, Sayyiduna Jibril (gabriel) علیہ السلام advised him to pray to Allah for deliverance and peace. He said, "Allah, the Exalted, knows my plight. I have no need to make a supplication for this."

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

(٢٢٢٣) عَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ دَعْوَةٌ مُّسْتَجَابَةٌ فَتَعَجَّلَ كُلُّ نَبِيٍّ دَعْوَتَهُ وَاِنِّي اخْتَبَأْتُ دَعْوَتِي شَفَاعَةً لِاُمَّتِي اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ فَهِيَ نَائِلَةٌ اِنْشَاءَ اللّٰهُ مَنْ مَاتَ مِنْ اُمَّتِي لَا يُشْرِكُ بِاللّٰهِ شَيْئًا۔ (رواه مسلم و للبخاری اقصر منه)

2223. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "For every Prophet there is a supplication that is granted. So every Prophet has made his supplication promptly (in this world) but I have preserved it till the day of resurrection to intercede for my ummah (people/followers). Insha Allah, it will benefit those of my ummah (people/followers) who die without having ascribed anything with Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: A supplication for every Prophet was in the sense that Allah commanded them to pray against their enemies. Allah granted them the prayers that they made. For instance, Prophet Nuh علیہ السلام prayed for the destruction of his disobeying people. They were eliminated in the deluge. Prophet Salih علیہ السلام also prayed against his people and they disappeared on just one voice of Jibril (gabriel) علیہ السلام. However, Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was mercy to the worlds. He persevered persecution and kept his prayer in abeyance for his ummah (people/followers) to intercede for them on the day of resurrection even the sinners among them.

However, we must know that intercession will be of different kinds. As a result of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم intercession:

- Some people will not be sent to hell at all,
- Some will be released from hell soon, and,
- Some will have their ranks raised in paradise.

اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْزُقْنَا شَفَاعَةَ نَبِيِّنَا عَلَيْهِ اَلْفُ اَلْفُ صَلٰوةٍ

(O Allah, let us have the intercession of our Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم)

(٢٢٢٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اتَّخَذْتُ عِنْدَكَ عَهْدًا لَنْ تُخْلِفَنِيْهِ فَاِنَّمَا اَنَا بَشَرٌ فَاَيُّ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ اٰذَيْتُهُ شَتَمْتُهُ لَعَنْتُهُ جَلَدْتُّهُ فَاجْعَلْهَا لَهُ صَلٰوةً وَّزَكَاةً وَّقُرْبَةً تُقَرِّبُهُ بِهَا اِلَيْكَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ

(متفق عليه)

2224. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed (to Allah), "O Allah, I have presented before you my plea. So grant it and do not deny it to me. I am only a mortal. Whichever of the believers I have hurt, abused, cursed or beaten, let that be for him a mercy, a purification (from sin) and a means of nearness to you such that because of these you will bring him near to you on the day of resurrection."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words (فإنما انا بشر) – I am only a mortal – are a prefix for the reason for the likelihood of getting angry on someone sometimes.

The gist of the prayer is: If I have hurt any believer then let that be for him a mercy, etc.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها went to lengths to get this to the extent that she stood holding the edge of the garment of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He said,, when she did not let go, (قطع الله يدك) (May Allah cut off your hands!) She was hurt and let go of his garment and moved away. She sat down in her room, grieved and angry. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم followed her and, to please her, said: (اللهم اني اتخذت عندك عهدا الخ).

The ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone prays against another then it is masnun that he make this prayer for him.

MAKE SUPPLICATION WITH DETERMINATION

(٢٢٢٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا دَعَا اَحَدُكُمْ فَلَا يَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِيْ اِنْ شِئْتَ ارْحَمْنِيْ اِنْ شِئْتَ اُرْزُقْنِيْ اِنْ شِئْتَ وَلْيَعْزِمْ مَسْأَلَتَهُ اِنَّهُ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَلَا مُكْرِهَ لَهُ (روه البخارى)

2225. Sayyiduna Abu Huraryrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When one of you prays, he must not say, 'O Allah forgive me, if You wish. Have mercy on me, if You wish, Provide me (Sustenance), if you wish. Rather, he must make a determined, resolute supplication, for, He does what He wishes. There is no one to compel Him."[2]

COMMENTARY: Pray to Allah for your needs, "O Allah give us..." but do not qualify with, 'if You wish.' That smacks of doubt. One must be sure that his prayer will be answered because He has given an assurance that prayers will be answered and He does not go back on His promise.

DO NOT BE FED UP & STOP PRAYING

(٢٢٢٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَعَا أَحَدُكُمْ فَلَا يَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلِي إِنْ شِئْتَ وَلٰكِنْ لِيَعْزِمْ وَلْيُعَظِّمِ الرَّغْبَةَ فَإِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَتَعَاظَمُهُ شَيْءٌ أَعْطَاهُ (رواه مسلم)

2226. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When one of you prays, he must not say, 'O Allah forgive me, if You wish.' But, he must be resolute and cherish a strong wish, for, that which Allah gives is not difficult for Him."[1]

(٢٢٢٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُسْتَجَابُ لِلْعَبْدِ مَالَمْ يَدْعُ بِإِثْمٍ أَوْقَطِيْعَةِ رَحْمٍ مَالَمْ يَسْتَعْجِلْ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا الْإِسْتِعْجَالُ؟ قَالَ يَقُوْلُ قَدْ دَعَوْتُ وَقَدْ دَعَوْتُ فَلَمْ أَرَيُسْتَجَابُ لِيْ فَيَسْتَحْسِرُ عِنْدَ ذٰلِكَ وَيَدَعُ الدُّعَاءَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2227. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A person's prayer is granted provided he does not pray for anything sinful or for serving ties of kinship and provided he does not insist on a prompt answer." He was asked, "What is a prompt answer, O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "He says. 'I have prayed and I have prayed but do not see it being answered. 'He gets tired about it and ceases to supplicate."[2]

COMMENTARY: Apart from a true conviction, prayer should be made only for what is generally asked for and is permissible.

Asking for what is sinful includes asking for ability to kill an innocent (Muslim) person, for wine, etc., or for forgiveness of a disbeliever. It is being a daring person to hope for such prayers to be granted. Similarly, it is foolish to ask for impossible things, like vision of Allah in this world. To pray for snapping of ties of kinship is also an impossible prayer.

Prayer, too, is worship. So one should not give up praying if he thinks that he gets no answer. Moreover, delay in granting prayer is because that may not be due as yet. Everything is decreed and its time is specified. Or, the supplicant is not destined to get that thing in this world. He will get reward for the next world, instead. Or, the delay is to let the supplicant show determination, humility, submissiveness and a true spirit of servitude. Anyone who adopts these things in prayer is very dear to Allah.

PRAYER FOR THE ABSENT IS GRANTED

(٢٢٢٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعْوَةُ الْمَرْءِ الْمُسْلِمِ لِأَخِيْهِ بِظَهْرِ الْغَيْبِ مُسْتَجَابَةٌ عِنْدَ رَأْسِهِ مَلَكٌ مُوَكَّلٌ كُلَّمَا دَعَا لِأَخِيْهِ بِخَيْرٍ قَالَ الْمَلَكُ الْمُوَكَّلُ بِهِ اٰمِيْنَ وَلَكَ بِمِثْلٍ (رواه مسلم)

2228. Sayyiduna Abu Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A Muslim's prayer for his Muslim brother in his absence is granted. An angel is deputed to stand at the supplicant's head. Every time he prays for the good of his brother, the deputed angel prays, "Aameen! And, for you the like of it."

---

[1] Muslim # 9.2735

[2] Mulsim # 9.2735

COMMENTARY: While the supplication for an absent Muslim brother is mentioned here, it a prayer is made for a Muslim brother in his presence quietly in the heart, even that prayer falls under purview of this hadith (tradition). There is the element of sincerity in both. In return, the supplicant gets the angel's prayer too.

DISALLOWANCE TO PRAY AGAINST ANYONE

(٢٢٢٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاتَدْعُوْا عَلٰى اَنْفُسِكُمْ وَلَا تَدْعُوْا عَلٰى اَوْلَادِ كُمْ وَلَا تَدْعُوْا عَلٰى اَمْوَالِكُمْ لَا تُوَافِقُوْا مِنَ اللّٰهِ سَاعَةً يُسْئَلُ فِيْهَا عَطَاءً فَيَسْتَجِيْبُ لَكُمْ (رواه مسلم)

2229. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not pray against yourselves, against your children or against your properties lest you do it at an opportune time when Allah grants you what He is asked."[1]

COMMENTARY: There are certain hours when prayers are answered by Allah. If your curse coincides with that time then your prayer will receive an answer and you will suffer a loss and will have to regret.

The hadith (tradition) of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ about there being no veil between the prayer of the wronged one and Allah is at # 1722, Book of Zakah.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

SUPPLICATION IS WORSHIP

(٢٢٣٠) وَعَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيْرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلدُّعَاءُ هُوَ الْعِبَادَةُ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمُ ادْعُوْنِيْٓ اَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی و ابوداؤد و النسائی و ابن ماجة)

2230. Sayyiduna An-Numan ibn Bashir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Supplication itself is worship." Then, he recited (the verse 60 of surah al-Mumin or Ghafir):

قَالَ رَبُّكُمُ ادْعُوْنِيْٓ اَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ

{Pray to Me, I shall answer you.}[2]

COMMENTARY: It is an over-emphasis to say that supplication itself is worship. It is that kind of worship in which a person turns to Allah and shows indifference to every other being besides Allah. He fears none but Allah and places hope only in Him. There is sincerity in supplication, praise of Allah, gratitude to Him and He is beseeched. His unity is declared and only He is asked for one's needs. Prayer is made to Him and one humbles and lowers himself, demonstrating perfect servitude. Complaint is made to Allah and His help is sought.

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم confirmed his words and recited the relative verse of the Quran as evidence that we are commanded to make supplication. Moreover, when this command is obeyed and one makes supplication, he also earns a reward. Clearly, these elements are ingredients of worship, and whatever conforms to this description is worship.

[1] Abu Dawud # 1532 (Muslim similar # 7.920)

[2] Tirmidhi # 3383, Ibn Majah # 3828, Musnad Ahmad # 4-267

The concluding portion of the verse (cited in the hadith (tradition)) also establishes that supplication is worship. It is:

إِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَسْتَكْبِرُوْنَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِيْ سَيَدْخُلُوْنَ جَهَنَّمَ دَاخِرِيْنَ

{Surely those who are too arrogant too worship Me, they shall enter hell, disgraced.} (40:60)

SUPPLICATION IS ESSENCE OF WORSHIP

(٢٢٣١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلدُّعَاءُ مُخُّ الْعِبَادَةِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2231. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Supplication is the essence of worship."[1]

COMMENTARY: Being the essence of worship, supplication, too, is to humble oneself.

MERIT OF SUPPLICATION

(٢٢٣٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ شَيْءٌ اَكْرَمَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ مِنَ الدُّعَاءِ۔

رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2232. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is nothing nobler in Allah's sight than supplication."[2]

COMMENTARY: Of the forms of worship and devotional exercises nothing is equal in rank to supplication. This hadith (tradition) may be seen in the light of the verse:

اِنَّ اَكْرَمَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ اَتْقَاكُمْ۔

{Surely, the noblest among you in the sight of Allah is the most pious of you } (49:13)

SUPPLICATION ALTERS DESTINY

(٢٢٣٣) وَعَنْ سَلْمَانَ الْفَارِسِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَرُدُّ الْقَضَاءَ اِلَّا الدُّعَاءُ وَلَا

يَزِيْدُ فِي الْعُمَرِ اِلَّا الْبِرُّ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2233. Sayyiduna Salman al Farsi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Nothing but supplication alters decree and nothing increases one's life span but piety."

COMMENTARY: Here (القضاء) decree refers to that which is disliked and which man fears. So, the hadith (tradition) implies that when a man is inspired to make supplication, Allah removes from him such things.

Kinds of decree: There are two kinds of decrees: inevitable and suspended. The first is Allah's final decree and no kind of change is possible in whatever is destined. In the other kind (suspended), however, changes occur because of some causes. This hadith (tradition) says that supplication may avert the decree that is the suspended kind, but it does not overt the inevitable.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 33/282

[2] Tirmidhi # 3381, Ibn Majah # 3829, Musnad Ahmad 2-362

WHAT IS 'PIETY INCREASES LIFE'

This too is according to the suspended decree. It is destined about a man beforehand that if he does a certain pious work then he would live 'so many years' otherwise 'so many years.' Some authorities interpret the hadith (tradition) to mean that the life of the person who is pious is not wasted. In this sense, he lives longer by putting his life to optimum use.

SUPPLICATION WARDS OFF TRIAL

(٢٢٣٤-٢٢٣٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الدُّعَاءَ يَنْفَعُ مِمَّا نَزَلَ وَمِمَّا لَمْ يَنْزِلْ فَعَلَيْكُمْ عِبَادَ اللّٰهِ بِالدُّعَاءِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2234. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, supplication is beneficial for those things that have happened and those things that have not happened. So, it is binding on you, O slaves of Allah that you make supplication."[1]

2235. Sayyidduna Muadh Ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ also narrated this hadith (tradition).[2]

COMMENTARY: Prayer is beneficial for what has transpired if it is the suspended kind then supplication turns it away and the supplicant becomes peaceful and calm. But, if it is the inevitable type, the benefit of supplication is apparent nevertheless in the sense that Allah gives him patience so that he finds it easy to endure the trial and becomes pleased at it, rather, he does not aspire that he should not face the trail and affliction. The reason is that patience strengthens his will to obey to the extent that his affliction seems to be as sweet to him as worldly pleasures are to the men of the world.

As for that which has not transpired, supplication prevents such trials and afflictions as are of suspended decree.

(٢٢٣٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ يَدْعُوْا بِدُعَاءٍ إِلَّا آتَاهُ اللّٰهُ مَاسَأَلَ أَوْكَفَّ عَنْهُ مِنَ السُّوْءِ مِثْلَهُ مَا لَمْ يَدْعُ بِإِثْمٍ أَوْ قَطِيْعَةِ رَحِمٍ (رواه الترمذی)

2236. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No one makes a supplication to Allah but Allah lets him have what he asks, or removes from him evil of like amount of what he asks provided he does not pray for what is sinful, or for severing ties of kinship"[3]

ASK ALLAH FOR THE BEST

(٢٢٣٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَلُوا اللّٰهَ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ فَإِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُحِبُّ أَنْ يُّسْأَلَ وَأَفْضَلُ الْعِبَادَةِ انْتِظَارُ الْفَرَجِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2237. Sayyiduna Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Ask Allah for His favours, for, Allah surely loves that He is asked (for something). The best form of worship is to wait for supplication to be granted."[4]

COMMENTARY: Waiting for supplication to be granted means that the supplicant does not complain to other people nor express hopelessness but is confident that his prayer will be answered, insha Allah. He is not despaired by the delay. Patience is a strong weapon and it also fetches a great reward.

ALLAH IS DISPLEASED WHEN SUPPLICATION IS NOT MADE TO HIM

(٢٢٣٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَّمْ يَسْأَلِ اللّٰهَ يَغْضَبْ عَلَيْهِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2238. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Allah becomes angry with one who does not ask Him (for anything). (Not making supplication is a sign of arrogance and independence from Allah.)[1]

PRAY TO ALLAH FOR SECURITY

(٢٢٣٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ فُتِحَ لَهُ مِنْكُمْ بَابُ الدُّعَاءِ فُتِحَتْ لَهُ أَبْوَابُ الرَّحْمَةِ وَمَا سُئِلَ اللّٰهُ شَيْئًا يَعْنِي أَحَبَّ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ أَنْ يُسْأَلَ الْعَافِيَةَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2239. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He for whom the doors to supplication are opened, the doors of mercy are also opened for him. And, Allah is not asked for anything that is dearer to Him than being asked for security (and health)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The closing words are that Allah likes most that He should be asked for (العافیۃ)(security, health). It means: safety and preservation from every seen and unseen disliked thing of this world and the next, all trials and tribulations, distress, illnesses and afflictions. Therefore, he who asks for (العافیۃ) (al-aafiyah) really asks for all good of both worlds. We ask Allah for al-aafiyah. Aameen!

MUCH SUPPLICATION DURING PLEASANT TIMES

(٢٢٤٠) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَرَّهُ أَنْ يَسْتَجِيْبَ اللّٰهُ لَهُ عِنْدَ الشَّدَائِدِ فَلْيُكْثِرِ الدُّعَاءَ فِي الرَّخَاءِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2240. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He to whom it pleases that Allah should answer him during difficulty and distress must make many supplications during ease (and plenty)[3]

BE CONFIDENT OF RECEIVING AN ANSWER

(٢٢٤١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُدْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَأَنْتُمْ مُوْقِنُوْنَ بِالْإِجَابَةِ وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَسْتَجِيْبُ دُعَاءً مِنْ قَلْبٍ غَافِلٍ لَاهٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2241. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "Pray to Allah with cc nfidence that you will receive an answer. And, know that Allah does not grant a prayer from an indifferent, playful heart."[4]

COMMENTARY: When making a supplication, one must observe all conditions necessary for it, like doing pious work, keeping away from evil work, being sincere. He must be sure of receiving an answer. He must assure himself that Allah will not let him down.

PALMS UPWARDS

(٢٢٤٢-٢٢٤٣) وَعَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا سَأَلْتُمُ اللّٰهَ فَاسْأَلُوْهُ بِبُطُوْنِ أَكُفِّكُمْ وَلَا تَسْأَلُوْهُ بِظُهُوْرِهَا وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ سَلُوا اللّٰهَ بِبُطُوْنِ أَكُفِّكُمْ وَلَا تَسْأَلُوْهُ بِظُهُوْرِهَا فَإِذَا فَرَغْتُمْ فَامْسَحُوا بِهَا وُجُوْهَكُمْ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2242. Sayyiduna Maalik ibn Yasar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When you pray to Allah, pray to Him with the palms of your hands and do not pray to Him with the backs of your hands (towards your faces)."[1]
2243. The version of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ, is that he said, "Pray to Allah with the palms of your hands but not the backs upward. When you finish, wipe your faces with them."[2]

COMMENTARY: When you make supplication, your palms should be towards your face. Do not reverse them. The prayer for rain is exempted from this direction as mentioned in the chapter al-istisqa (or, praying for rain).

PRESERVES HONOUR OF HANDS

(٢٢٤٤) وَعَنْ سَلْمَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ رَبَّكُمْ حَيِيٌّ كَرِيْمٌ يَسْتَحْيِيْ مِنْ عَبْدِهٖ إِذَا رَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ أَنْ يَرُدَّهُمَا صِفْرًا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَأَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2244. Sayyiduna Salman رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, your Lord is modest, generous. He is ashamed to turn away empty the hands of his slave when he raises them."[3]

WIPE HANDS ON FACE

(٢٢٤٥) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا رَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فِي الدُّعَاءِ لَمْ يَحُطَّهُمَا حَتّٰى يَمْسَحَ بِهِمَا وَجْهَهٗ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

2245. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم raised his hands while making supplication, he did not lower them till he had wiped his face with them.[4]

COMMENTARY: These ahadith (traditions) say that it is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) to raise hands when making prayer and to wipe the face with them after having made it.

THE PROPHET PREFERRED COMPREHENSIVE PRAYERS

(٢٢٤٦) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْتَحِبُّ الْجَوَامِعَ مِنَ الدُّعَاءِ وَيَدَعُ مَاسِوٰى ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2246. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم liked supplications that were comprehensive and he left out those besides them.[1]

COMMENTARY: A comprehensive prayer is brief but all-embracing. It covers most of the needs of both the worlds, like:

رَبَّنَا اٰتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَفِي الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ

(Our Lord, grant us what is good in this world and what is good in the hereafter, and preserve us from the punishment in the Fire.)

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ فِي الدِّيْنِ وَالدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ

(O Allah, I ask You for forgiveness and security in religion, in the world and in the hereafter.)

There are other such comprehensive supplications mentioned in the ahadith (traditions). The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم left out other kinds of supplications. This does not mean that he never made them. Rather, once in a while, he made supplication for special occasions too.

PRAYER FOR THE ABSENT

(٢٢٤٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اَسْرَعَ الدُّعَاءِ اِجَابَةً دَعْوَةُ غَائِبٍ لِغَائِبٍ۔ (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

2247. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The supplication that receives the quickest response is one made by an out of sight person for another."[2]

COMMENTARY: Prayers for another person who is not there are sincere and, therefore, get a rapid response.

REQUEST THE GOOD PEOPLE FOR THEIR PRAYERS

(٢٢٤٨) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ اِسْتَاذَنْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْعُمْرَةِ فَاَذِنَ لِيْ وَقَالَ اَشْرِكْنَا يَا اُخَيَّ فِيْ دُعَائِكَ وَلَا تَنْسَنَا فَقَالَ كَلِمَةً مَايَسُرُّنِيْ اَنَّ لِيْ بِهَا الدُّنْيَا۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَانْتَهَتْ رِوَايَتُهٗ عِنْدَ قَوْلِهٖ وَلَا تَنْسَنَا

2248. Sayyiduna Uman ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he sought the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم permission to perform umrah. He gave him permission and said, "O brother, include us in your prayers. Do not forget us!" Then he said to him something about which Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said. "I would not agree to take in exchange of it the world."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم words for which Umar رضى الله عنه was unwilling to accept the world in exchange could be his request to pray for him, or something else not mentioned in the hadith (tradition). The Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم request to him to pray for him not only demonstrates his need for it and his servitude to Allah, but also encourages the members of his ummah (his followers) to get Allah's pious slaves pray for them even if they are of a rank lower than themselves. This also teaches people to include others in their prayer particularly when made at sacred places where prayers are likely to be granted.

In this way, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم also pointed out the greatness of Umar رضى الله عنه ibn al-Khattab رضى الله عنه, and his merit.

THE FORTUNATE ONES WHOSE PRAYERS ARE NOT REJECTED

(٢٢٤٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثَةٌ لَا تُرَدُّ دَعْوَتُهُمُ الصَّائِمُ حِيْنَ يُفْطِرُ وَ الْإِمَامُ الْعَادِلُ وَدَعْوَةُ الْمَظْلُوْمِ يَرْفَعُهَا اللّٰهُ فَوْقَ الْغَمَامِ وَيَفْتَحُ لَهَا أَبْوَابَ السَّمَاءِ وَيَقُوْلُ الرَّبُّ وَعِزَّتِيْ لَأَنْصُرَنَّكَ وَلَوْ بَعْدَ حِيْنٍ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2249. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The supplication of three people is not turned down:

(i) One who is fasting when he has iftar (on completing his fast).

(ii) The just ruler (who dispenses justice).

(iii) The prayer of the oppressed. Allah raises his supplication above the clouds and gates of heaven are opened for it. (Allah) the Lord says, 'By My Might, I shall help you certainly, though it might be after some time.'"[2]

COMMENTARY: It is a figurative speech, that the prayer of the oppressed is raised above the clouds and doors of heaven are opened for it, to imply that his prayer is granted soon.

(٢٢٥٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثُ دَعَوَاتٍ مُسْتَجَابَاتٌ لَا شَكَّ فِيْهِنَّ دَعْوَةُ الْوَالِدِ وَدَعْوَةُ الْمُسَافِرِ وَدَعْوَةُ الْمَظْلُوْمِ (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد و ابن ماجه)

2250. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There is no doubt that three supplications are granted: the prayer of the father, the prayer of the traveller and the prayer of the oppressed."[3]

COMMENTARY: A father's prayer whether for or against his children gets a quick response. This means that a mother's prayer would get a quicker answer, though the hadith (tradition) does not name her. She is more kind to her children than their father.

There can be two possibilities of a traveller's prayer. (i) His prayer for one who has been kind and benevolent to him and against one who has been unkind and difficult to him is also granted, or, (ii) his prayer is always answered no matter for whom he prays.

The prayer of the oppressed against the oppressor and his henchmen is accepted.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

PRESENT TO ALLAH YOUR LEAST SIGNIFICANT NEED TOO

(٢٢٥١-٢٢٥٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِيَسْأَلْ اَحَدُكُمْ رَبَّهُ حَاجَتَهُ كُلَّهَا حَتّٰى يَسْأَلَهُ شِسْعَ نَعْلِهِ اِذَا انْقَطَعَ زَادَ فِيْ رِوَايَةٍ عَنْ ثَابِتٍ الْبُنَانِيِّ مُرْسَلًا حَتّٰى يَسْأَلَهُ الْمِلْحَ وَحَتّٰى يَسْأَلَهُ شِسْعَهُ اِذَا انْقَطَعَ (رواه الترمذى)

2251. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Everyone of you must pray to his Lord for all his needs so much so that he should ask for the thong of his sandal when it snaps."[1]

2252 Sayyiduna Thabit al-Bunani رضى الله عنه narrated in a Mursal form another version with the addition: "Asking Him even for salt, and asking Him even for his thong when it snaps."[2]

COMMENTARY: A supplicant must ask for everything he needs, even the very little things. He is not prevented in any way from asking Allah who is very Kind to His creatures. They must rely on Him alone for all their needs.

Abu Ali Daqaq said that it is a sign of Divine awareness that a person submits all his needs to Allah, very large or very infinitesimal. He cites a very good example of Sayyiduna Musa عليه السلام. On the one hand, he prayed to Allah for His vision:

رَبِّ اَرِنِيْٓ اَنْظُرْ اِلَيْكَ

{O My Lord! Show me Yourself that I may see You}

On the other hand, when he was in need of provision, he prayed.

رَبِّ اِنِّيْ لِمَآ اَنْزَلْتَ اِلَيَّ مِنْ خَيْرٍ فَقِيْرٌ

{My Lord, whatever You have sent down to me of good (provision), I am in need of it}

HOW HIGH MAY HANDS BE RAISED

(٢٢٥٣) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ فِي الدُّعَاءِ حَتّٰى يُرٰى بَيَاضُ اِبْطَيْهِ

2253. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to raise his hands when making supplication so that the whiteness under his armpits was visible.

(٢٢٥٤) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كَانَ يَجْعَلُ اِصْبَعَيْهِ حِذَاءَ مَنْكِبَيْهِ وَيَدْعُوْ

2254. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Sa'd رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم used to level the tips of the fingers of both hands with his shoulders and make supplication.[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم used to raise his hands in supplication as mentioned in the foregoing hadith (tradition) (# 2254). As for the raising till the whiteness was seen under his armpits that happened when he was immersed deeply in supplication like when praying for rain or at times of severe distress.

[1] Tirmidhi # 3682

[2] Tirmidhi # 363

[3] These three ahadith (traditions) are from Bayhaqi, Kitab Da'awat Kabir.

(٢٢٥٥) وَعَنِ السَّائِبِ بْنِ يَزِيْدَ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا دَعَا فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ مَسَحَ وَجْهَهُ بِيَدَيْهِ۔ رَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ الْاَحَادِيْثَ الثَّلَاثَةَ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2255. Sayyiduna As-Sa'ib ibn Yazid رحمه الله narrated from his father that when the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم made supplication and raised his hands, he wiped his face with them.[1]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that this hadith (tradition) explains that the Prophet wiped his face with his hands then he did not wipe his face with them and this was his practice while offering salah (prayer), making tawaf, going to sleep, having his meals and such other times.

MANNERS OF SUPPLICATION

(٢٢٥٦) وَعَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ الْمَسْأَلَةُ اَنْ تَرْفَعَ يَدَيْكَ حَذْوَ مَنْكِبَيْكَ اَوْ نَحْوَهُمَا وَالْاِسْتِغْفَارُ اَنْ تُشِيْرَ بِاِصْبَعٍ وَاحِدَةٍ وَالْاِبْتِهَالُ اَنْ تَمُدَّ يَدَيْكَ جَمِيْعًا وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ وَالْاِبْتِهَالُ هٰكَذَا وَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ وَجَعَلَ ظُهُوْرَهُمَا مِمَّا يَلِيْ وَجْهَهُ(رواه ابوداؤد)

2256. Sayyiduna Ikrimah رحمه الله reported that Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said, "The (manners of) making supplication is to raise your hands in line with your shoulders or near them. The seeking of forgiveness is to point with one finger. And, the making of an imploring supplication is that you stretch out both hands." According to a version: he said, "A very humble, imploring supplication is made like this," and he raised both his hands putting their back near his face.[2]

COMMENTARY: He pointed with one finger means the forefinger. It is to blame the nafs amarah (the baser self) and the devil, and to seek refuge from them.

As for pointing with one finger, it is makruh(unbecoming) to point with two fingers. When the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم saw a man point with two fingers, he corrected him, saying, "Point with one finger, Point with one one finger."

When making an imploring supplication, Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه demonstrated with hands raised high enough for the whiteness under the armpits of the hands to be seen.

IT IS BID'AH TO RAISE HANDS FOR EVERY SUPPLICATION

(٢٢٥٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّهُ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ رَفْعَكُمْ اَيْدِيَكُمْ بِدْعَةٌ مَازَادَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى هٰذَا يَعْنِيْ اِلَى الصَّدْرِ(رواه احمد)

2257. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said, "Surely, your raising hands (very high) is an innovation. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did not raise them higher than this," meaning, only up to his chest.[3]

COMMENTARY: He called it a bid'ah because those people had begun to raise hands very high without making distinction between different situations. On some occasions, it is proper to raise them up to the shoulders and on some, higher than that, but generally upto the chest only. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made these distinctions, but the people had abandoned that and always raised hands higher than shoulders. This is why Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ corrected them.

PRAY FOR YOURSELF BEFORE YOU PRAY FOR OTHERS

(۲۲۵۸) وَعَنْ اُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا ذَكَرَ اَحَدًا فَدَعَا لَهٗ بَدَأَ بِنَفْسِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2258. Sayyiduna Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ rarrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mentioned someone and prayed for him, he began with himself.[1]

COMMENTARY: Thus if anyone decided to pray for another person, he must first pray for himself and then for the other.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِيْ وَلِفُلَانٍ

(O Allah, forgive me and so-and-so)

SUPPLICATION GETS ONE OF THREE THINGS

(۲۲۵۹) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَدْعُوْ بِدَعْوَةٍ لَيْسَ فِيْهَا اِثْمٌ وَلَا قَطِيْعَةُ رَحِمٍ اِلَّا اَعْطَاهُ اللّٰهُ بِهَا اِحْدٰى ثَلَاثٍ اِمَّا اَنْ يُّعَجِّلَ لَهٗ دَعْوَتَهٗ وَاِمَّا اَنْ يَّدَّخِرَهَا لَهٗ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ وَاِمَّا اَنْ يُصْرِفَ عَنْهُ مِنَ السُّوْءِ مِثْلَهَا قَالُوْا اِذًا نُكْثِرُ قَالَ اللّٰهُ اَكْثَرُ (رواہ احمد)

2259. Sayyiduna Abu Saeed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a Muslim makes a supplication which does not ask for anything sinful, or breaking of ties of relationship, then Allah gives him one of three things. He may give him a prompt answer to his prayer. Or, He may defer it for him for the next world. He may remove from him evil of like amount (of his prayer)."
The Sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم said, "Then, we shall make many supplications." He said, "Allah grants more" (Or, "His bounties are more.")[2]

COMMENTARY: Allah gives to you on your asking. But what He gives you without your asking is much more than that which He gives on your asking.

FIVE SUPPLICATIONS ARE NEVER REJECTED

(۲۲۶۰) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ خَمْسُ دَعَوَاتٍ يُسْتَجَابُ لَهُنَّ دَعْوَةُ الْمَظْلُوْمِ حَتّٰى يَنْتَصِرَ وَ دَعْوَةُ الْحَاجِّ حَتّٰى يَصْدُرَ وَ دَعْوَةُ الْمُجَاهِدِ حَتّٰى يَقْعُدَ وَ دَعْوَةُ الْمَرِيْضِ حَتّٰى يَبْرَأَ وَ دَعْوَةُ الْاَخِ لِاَخِيْهِ بِظَهْرِ الْغَيْبِ ثُمَّ قَالَ وَاَسْرَعُ هٰذِهِ الدَّعَوَاتِ اِجَابَةً دَعْوَةُ الْاَخِ بِظَهْرِ الْغَيْبِ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعَوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔ said, "Five supplications do get an answer (meaning, are granted).

(i) Prayer of the oppressed till he gets help.
(ii) Prayer of the pilgrim who performs haij till he returns (home).
(iii) Prayer of the warrior (in jihad) till he finishes (Or, it is a prayer of a student and a doer of deeds till he finishes.)
(iv) Prayer of the sick person till he recovers (or dies).
(v) Prayer of one for a distant brother."
Then, he said, "The quickest response to these prayers is to the prayer of one for a distant brother (who is not before him)."[1]

CHAPTER - II

REMEMBRANCE OF ALLAH, MIGHTY AND GLORIOUS, AND DRAWING NEAR TO ALLAH

بَابُ ذِكْرِ اللهِ عَزَّوَجَلَّ وَتقرب الى الله

This could also mean drawing near to Allah through dhikr (hallowing of Allah) or remembrance of Allah. And, it could also mean drawing near to Him through supererogatory effort.

Kinds of dhikr (hallowing of Allah): Allah's remembrance can be made with the heart and it can be made with the tongue also. The best way is to make it with both heart and tongue, but if it is to be done with one of these, then it is better to do it with the heart. There are also two kinds of dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart.

One of these is to ponder and be lost in reflecting over Allah's Greatness, the jabarut (Allah's majesty) and malakut (the Divine Kingdom, angelic world, spiritual world and the mystic world) and in the signs of Allah's omnipotence visible in the earth and the heavens. This kind of dhikr (hallowing of Allah), or remembrance of Allah, is called dhikr Khafi (soft rememberance).

According to a hadith (tradition), the dhikr (hallowing of Allah) khafi (or soft remembrance) is seventy times better if it is not heard even by those angels who record deeds of men. On the day of resurrection, Allah will assemble the creatures for reckoning and these angels will submit the records of deeds as put down by them. Allah will ask them about certain of His creatures, "Is something of their deeds missing from these records?" They will submit that they have recorded everything seen or heard by them. On that, Allah will say to His salve, "I have with Me, a piety of yours of which no one else knows. It is dhikr (hallowing of Allah) khafi and I shall reward you for it."

The second kind of dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart is to remember Allah at the time of discharging the commands of Allah whether they are of a positive nature (to do) or of a prohibitive kind (not to do).

Of the two kinds of dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart, the first kind is better and superior.

Some jurists, however, hold that 'dhikr (hallowing of Allah)' is applied only to making dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah with the tongue. The preferred opinion is that its lowest degree is: 'he (who makes dhikr (hallowing of Allah)) hears it himself; his tongue making dhikr (hallowing of Allah) at least that any dhikr (hallowing of Allah) less loud than this is not reliable. They also contend that dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart is merely of the type of knowledge and imagination at heart, but it cannot be called dhikr

[1] Bayhaqi in ad-Duawat al-Kabir.

(hallowing of Allah). Only that is dhikr (hallowing of Allah) which is made with the tongue. We do not know what the aim of these jurists is. If they mean that literally dhikr (hallowing of Allah) cannot be applied to the doings of the heart then it contradicts the (literary books and) dictionaries. The sihah (six authentic books) and the Qamus say that dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is the opposite of forgetfulness. Clearly, this is an action of the heart.. Just as forgetfulness is concerned with the heart, so too its opposite dhikr (hallowing of Allah) (remembering) is also from the heart. Of course, what is spoken by the tongue is also dhikr (hallowing of Allah).

The gist of it is that the word dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is common to both: the act of the heart and the act of the tongue. Just as the former is called dhikr (hallowing of Allah) so too the latter is called dhikr (hallowing of Allah). Hence, just as dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the tongue is reliable, so too dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart is reliable, and, in fact, dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart is better.

The mashaikh of the Sufis (leaders of mystries (رحمهما الله) رحمه الله also say that dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is of two kinds: with the heart and with the tongue. The effect or influence of the former is much more, stronger and better than the latter.

As for the jurists who have undermined dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart, perhaps they refer to those moments for which Shari'ah (Islamic law) (Islamic law) prescribes dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the tongue, like the tasbihs (specific hallowing/ glorifying), recitation of Quran, salah (prayer), the devotional exercises after salah (prayer), etc. when dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart is not enough, but dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the tongue is necessary. These jurists certainly do not mean that dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart does not fetch reward in the hereafter.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MERIT OF THOSE WHO MAKE DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH)

(٢٢٦١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ وَاَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَقْعُدُ قَوْمٌ يَذْكُرُوْنَ اللّٰهَ اِلَّا حَفَّتْهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ وَغَشِيَتْهُمُ الرَّحْمَةُ وَنَزَلَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّكِيْنَةُ وَذَكَرَهُمُ اللّٰهُ فِيْمَنْ عِنْدَهٗ (رواه مسلم)

2261. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abu S'eed رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "Whenever some people sit together and remember Allah, the angels surround them, mercy envelopes them, sakinah (peace) descends on them and Allah mentions them among those (angels and souls of the Prophets) who are with Him."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sakinah (peace) is peace of heart, solace, and calmness of mind. It drives out of the heart the pleasures of the world and of everything other than Allah. It brings one into the fold of the Being of Allah and presence before Him. The descent of sakinah (peace) is established by this verse too:

اَلَا بِذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ تَطْمَئِنُّ الْقُلُوْبُ

{Behold, in the remembrance of Allah hearts do find satisfaction}(13:28)

(٢٢٦٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسِيْرُ فِيْ طَرِيْقِ مَكَّةَ فَمَرَّ عَلٰى جَبَلٍ يُقَالُ لَهٗ

---

[1] Muslim # 39-2700

جُمْدَانُ فَقَالَ سِيْرُوْا هٰذَا جُمْدَانُ سَبَقَ الْمُفَرِّدُوْنَ قَالُوْا وَمَا الْمُفَرِّدُوْنَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ الذَّاكِرُوْنَ اللّٰهَ كَثِيْرًا وَّالذَّاكِرَاتُ(رواه مسلم)

2262. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that once Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was along his way to Makkah. He came by a mountain called Jumdan. He said, "Walk ahead! This is Jumdan. The mufarridun have overtaken." The sahabah asked, "And what is the mufarridun, O Messenger of Allah? He said, "The men and women who remember Allah much."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم described the mufarridun (real solitude) is to be alone to remember Allah. While they were very near Makkah, some of the Sahabah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم overtook the others to be home earlier. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The (real) mufarridun are who remember Allah when they are alone."

Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that remembering Allah after salah (prayer), morning and evening, with every movement, etc qualities one among 'those who remember Allah much.'

PARABLE OF THOSE WHO MAKE DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH) AND WHO DO NOT

(۲۲۶۳) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسٰى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ الَّذِيْ يَذْكُرُ رَبَّهٗ وَالَّذِيْ لَا يَذْكُرُ مَثَلُ الْحَيِّ وَالْمَيِّتِ(متفق علیہ)

2263. sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "the example of him who remembers Allah and of him who does not remember Allah is that of the living and the dead."

COMMENTARY: Remembering Allah is the life of the heart of one who remembers Allah. But not remembering Him is its death. The living person makes use of his life, so does he who remembers Allah make use of his dhikr (hallowing of Allah). Once a person is dead, he cannot derive anything of his state, so too one who neglects remembrance of Allah, cannot benefit from his illness.

MEANS OF NEARNESS TO ALLAH

(۲۲۶٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى اَنَا عِنْدَ ظَنِّ عَبْدِيْ بِيْ وَاَنَا مَعَهٗ اِذَا ذَكَرَنِيْ فَاِنْ ذَكَرَنِيْ فِيْ نَفْسِهٖ ذَكَرْتُهٗ فِيْ نَفْسِيْ وَاِنْ ذَكَرَنِيْ فِيْ مَلَاٍ ذَكَرْتُهٗ فِيْ مَلَاٍ خَيْرٍ مِّنْهُمْ

(متفق علیہ)

2264. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah, the Exalted, says, "I am as My slave perceives Me. I am with him when he remembers Me, so if he remembers Me to himself, I remember him to Myself and if he remembers Me in an assembly, I remember him in an assembly that is better than they."[2]

COMMENTARY: Allah is as His slave perceives Him. It means that He is for him just as he thinks of Him and treats him exactly as he expects of Him. If he expects Him to forgive him, Allah forgives him but if he thinks that he will punish him then Allah punishes him. In other words, this hadith (tradition) urges one to have higher hope of Allah's mercy and kindness than fear of His punishment. One must have a favourable idea of Him that He would favour one with His unlimited forgiveness and mercy.

[2] Bukhari # 7405, Muslim # 2-2675

According to a hadith (tradition), Allah will have a man sent to hell. At the brink of it, he will submit, "My Lord, I had expected a good treatment from You." Allah will command, "Bring him back. I am near the perception and expectation should be backed by deeds and then one must expect forgiveness. Great expectations without deeds are of no use.

"When he remembers Me, I am near him." This means that when he is occupies in remembering Me, I give him ability to be more pious and to do more good. I have mercy on him and I help and protect him.

A LITTLE THOUGHT OF ALLAH BRINGS MORE FAVOUR OF ALLAH

(٢٢٦٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ عَشْرُ اَمْثَالِهَا وَاَزِيْدُ وَمَنْ جَاءَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ فَجَزَاءُ سَيِّئَةٍ مِثْلِهَا اَوْ اَغْفِرُ وَمَنْ تَقَرَّبَ مِنِّيْ شِبْرًا تَقَرَّبْتُ مِنْهُ ذِرَاعًا وَمَنْ تَقَرَّبَ مِنِّيْ ذِرَاعًا تَقَرَّبْتُ مِنْهُ بَاعًا وَمَنْ اَتَانِيْ يَمْشِيْ اَتَيْتُهُ هَرْوَلَةً وَمَنْ لَقِيَنِيْ بِقُرَابِ الْاَرْضِ خَطِيْئَةً لَا يُشْرِكُ بِيْ شَيْئًا لَقِيْتُهُ بِمِثْلِهَا مَغْفِرَةً (رواه مسلم)

2265 Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah says, "He who does a good deed will have reward of ten such deeds and I shall add to that. But, he who does an evil deed, the return for it is the like of it, or I forgive him. I get nearer to him by a cubit. He who draws near to Me by a cubit, I get nearer to him by two cubits. He who comes to Me walking, I go to him running. He who meets Me with sins amounting to the size of the earth not having associated anything with Me, I meet him with forgiveness matching that amount."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) shows how very Merciful Allah is. The hadith (tradition) emphasizes that even a slight attention to Allah by a slave of His draws towards him abounding mercy.

ADVANTAGE OF DRAWING NEAR TO ALLAH

(٢٢٦٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى قَالَ مَنْ عَادٰى لِيْ وَلِيًّا فَقَدْ اٰذَنْتُهُ بِالْحَرْبِ وَمَا تَقَرَّبَ اِلَيَّ عَبْدِيْ بِشَيْءٍ اَحَبَّ اِلَيَّ مِمَّا افْتَرَضْتُ عَلَيْهِ وَمَا يَزَالُ عَبْدِيْ يَتَقَرَّبُ اِلَيَّ بِالنَّوَافِلِ حَتّٰى اُحِبَّهُ فَاِذَا اَحْبَبْتُهُ كُنْتُ سَمْعَهُ الَّذِيْ يَسْمَعُ بِهٖ وَبَصَرَهُ الَّذِيْ يُبْصِرُ بِهٖ وَيَدَهُ الَّتِيْ يَبْطِشُ بِهَا وَرِجْلَهُ الَّتِيْ يَمْشِيْ بِهَا وَاِنْ سَاَلَنِيْ لَاُعْطِيَنَّهُ وَلَئِنِ اسْتَعَاذَنِيْ لَاُعِيْذَنَّهُ وَمَا تَرَدَّدْتُ عَنْ شَيْءٍ اَنَا فَاعِلُهُ تَرَدُّدِيْ عَنْ نَفْسِ الْمُؤْمِنِ يَكْرَهُ الْمَوْتَ وَاَنَا اَكْرَهُ مَسَاءَتَهُ وَلَا بُدَّ لَهُ مِنْهُ (رواه البخاری)

2266. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

[1] Bukhari # 7405, Muslim # 22-2687, Trimidhi # 2395, 3614, Ibn Majah # 3821/2, Musnad Ahmad 5-169.

said that Allah the Exalted says, "If anyone antagonizes a wali (friend) of Mine, I declare war against him. No one draws near to Me with anything dearer to Me than that which I have prescribed for him. And, My slave does not cease to draw near to Me with the supererogatory till I love him. When I love him, I become his hearing with which he hears, his sight with which he sees, his hand with which he grasps and his foot with which he walks. If he prays to Me, I shall certainly grant it to him and if he seeks refuge in Me, I shall certainly give him refuge. And, I do not hesitate about anything I do as I hesitate to take the soul of a believer who hates death, for, I do not like to make him soul but there is no way out of it.[1]

COMMENTARY: Another meaning instead of 'I declare war against him' is 'he is at war against Me and this I declare.' He wages war against Me. The scholars say that there is no sin of which Allah has declared war against the perpetrator as this one which is to hurt a dear slave friend of Allah and against one who devours interest. Allah has said about the latter:

فَأْذَنُوا بِحَرْبٍ مِنَ اللهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ

{If you do not desist then listen to the declaration of war from Allah and His Messenger.}(2:279)

Both these are grave sins worth condemnation. Both spell utter ruin in this world and the next. The fate of one who fights Allah is very clear.

Whoever abides by what Allah has prescribed becomes Allah's dear slave. The ulama (Scholars) explain the relative portion of the hadith (tradition) that Allah makes his limbs a means of earning His pleasure. Or, Allah causes His love to dominate this slave so that he abides by Allah's commands and does what pleases Him and abstains from that which displeases Allah.

As for death, it is inescapable. However, Allah makes it easy for him and causes him to be pleased with death. Certain blessings can accrue only after death.

As for hesitancy on the part of Allah, the word in Arabic is (ترددت - I hesitate) which implies 'a decision between two things of which one doubts which is better.' Clearly, this meaning of the word cannot apply to Allah. So, He means that while He enforces His decisions promptly, in this case He delays a little to incline the believer's heart towards death.

ANGELS SEARCH FOR THOSE WHO MAKE DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH)

(٢٢٦٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ لِلّٰهِ مَلَائِكَةً يَطُوْفُوْنَ فِي الطُّرُقِ يَلْتَمِسُوْنَ اَهْلَ الذِّكْرِ فَإِذَا وَجَدُوْا قَوْمًا يَذْكُرُوْنَ اللهَ تَنَادَوْ هَلُمُّوا اِلٰى حَاجَتِكُمْ قَالَ فَيَحُفُّوْ نَهُمْ بِاَجْنِحَتِهِمْ اِلَى السَّمَاءِ الدُّنْيَا قَالَ فَيَسْأَ لُهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ وَهُوَ اَعْلَمُ بِهِمْ مَايَقُوْلُ عِبَادِي قَالَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ يُسَبِّحُوْنَكَ وَيُكَبِّرُوْنَكَ وَيُحَمِّدُوْنَكَ وَيُمَجِّدُوْنَكَ قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُ هَلْ رَأَوْنِيْ قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ لَا وَاللهِ مَارَأَوْكَ قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُ كَيْفَ لَوْرَأَ وْنِي قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ لَوْرَ أَوْكَ كَانُوْا اَشَدَّ لَكَ عِبَادَةً وَاَشَدَّ لَكَ تَمْجِيْدًا وَاَكْثَرَلَكَ تَسْبِيْحًا قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُ فَمَا يَسْأَلُوْنَ قَالُوْ يَسْأَلُوْنَكَ الْجَنَّةَ قَالَ يَقُوْلُ وَهَلْ رَأَوْهَا قَالَ فَيَقُوْلُوْنَ

2267. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that surely Allah has angels who go around the paths looking out for those who engage in the remembrance of Allah. When they find some people remembering Allah, they call each other, "Come! Here is what you look for." They surround them with their wings up to the lowest heaven. Their Lord asks them, although He knows better about them, "what do My salves say?" They say, "They glorify You, extol you, praise You and magnify You." He asks, "Have they seen Me?" They say, "No, by Allah,(1) meaning, 'certainly' for they are speaking to Allah Himself. They have not seen You." He asks, "How would they behave if they had seen Me?" They say, "If they had seen You, they would have been more keen in worshipping You, in magnifying You and in glorifying You." He asks, "What do they pray for?" They say. "They ask You for paradise." He asks "Have they seen it?" They say by Him that they have not seen it. He asks how it would have been if they had seen it. They submit that in that case they would have craved for it more and prayed for it more devotedly and would have had a greater longing for it. He asks, "From what do they seek refuge?" They say, "From hell!" He asks whether they have seen it. They say. "Certainly, our Lord, they have not seen it." He asks how it would be if they saw it and they submit that in that case they would have run away from it and feared it more severely. So, Allah says, "I make you witnesses that I have forgiven them." One of those angels submits, "There is among them so-and-so who does not belong to them having come there only for a need." Allah says, "They are such people sitting together that anyone who sits with them will not be downcast."

The version in Muslim is:

Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said that Allah has angels who travel round extensively to seek assemblies where dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah is made. When they locate one where dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is being made, they sit among them and surround each other with their wings such that the space between them and the lowest heaven is occupied. When the people disperse, the angels ascend to the heaven and Allah, though He knows best, asks them where they had been. They say, "We come from Your slaves on earth who were glorifying You, extolling You, declaring Your unity, praising You and praying to You." He asks, "What do they pray to me for?" They say, "They ask You for Your paradise." He asks, "Have they seen it?" They submit, "No, our Lord!" He asks, "How they would behave if they had seen it?" They submit, "they also seek refuge in You." He asks, "From what do they seek refuge?" They say, From hell, He asks "Have they seen it?" they say, No Our Lord, He asks "How would they behave if they had seen it?" The angels submit, "They also ask for Your forgiveness" He says, "I have forgiven them, granted them their prayer and given them refuge from what they seek refuge." They submit, "O our Lord, among them is a sinner who happened to pass by them and sat down with them." He says, "I have forgiven him too. They are such people that anyone associating with them will not be downcast."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah is the All-Knowing. He asks the angels about the different things only to remind them that they had asked Him why He had created Aadam علیه السلام, for, his children would make mischief on earth. These very children of Sayyiduna Aadam علیه السلام were engaged in dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah.

The version in Muslim does not have the answer to Allah's question, "What if they had seen paradise?" (and, hell?) This is because the question is itself enough as an answer.

The hadith (tradition) concludes with an encouragement to the ummah (people/followers) to keep company of those who make dhikr (hallowing of Allah). This ensures prosperity and success. A pious man had said, "Keep company of Allah but if you cannot do that then keep company of those who keep Allah's company by making dhikr (hallowing of Allah)."

A time for everything

(٢٢٦٨) وَعَنْ حَنْظَلَةَ بْنِ الرَّبِيْعِ الْأُسَيْدِيِّ قَالَ لَقِيَنِي اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ فَقَالَ كَيْفَ اَنْتَ يَا حَنْظَلَةُ قُلْتُ نَافَقَ حَنْظَلَةُ قَالَ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ مَاتَقُوْلُ قُلْتُ نَكُوْنُ عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُذَكِّرُنَا بِالنَّارِ وَالْجَنَّةِ كَاَنَّا رَأْيَ عَيْنٍ فَاِذَا خَرَجْنَا مِنْ عِنْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَافَسْنَا الْاَزْوَاجَ وَالْاَوْلَادَ وَالضَّيْعَاتِ نَسِيْنَا كَثِيْرًا قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ فَوَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّا لَنَلْقٰى مِثْلَ هٰذَا فَانْطَلَقْتُ اَنَا وَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ حَتّٰى دَخَلْنَا عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ نَافَقَ حَنْظَلَةُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَمَا ذَاكَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ نَكُوْنُ عِنْدَكَ تُذَكِّرُنَا بِالنَّارِ وَالْجَنَّةِ كَأَنَّا رَأْيَ عَيْنٍ فَاِذَا خَرَجْنَا مِنْ عِنْدِكَ عَافَسْنَا الْاَزْوَاجَ

وَالْاَوْلَادَ وَالضَّيْعَاتِ نَسِيْنَا كَثِيْرًا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالَّذِى نَفْسِى بِيَدِهٖ لَوْتَدُوْمُوْنَ عَلٰى مَاتَكُوْنُوْنَ عِنْدِى وَفِى الذِّكْرِ لَصَافَحَتْكُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ عَلٰى فُرُشِكُمْ وَفِىْ طُرُقِكُمْ وَلٰكِنْ يَاحَنْظَلَةُ سَاعَةً وَسَاعَةً ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ(رواه مسلم)

2268. Sayyiduna Hanzalah ibn Ar Rabi al Usaydi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ met him and asked him, "How do you do, O Hanzalah?" He said, "Hanzalah has become a hypocrite!" He said, "Subhan Allah, what do you say?" He said, "While we are with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, he tells us about hell and paradise as though we see them. But, as we go out from him and get occupied with our wives, children and properties, we forget much." Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ agreed that he too went through the same thing. Then, they went to meet Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and Hanzalah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Hanzalah has turned into a hypocrite, O Messenger of Allah." He asked, "What does that mean?" He said, "we be with you and you speak to us of hell and paradise and make us almost see them, but when we go out and depart from you, we get busy with our wives, children and properties and we forget much." Allah's Messenger said, "By Him Who has my soul in His hand, if you persisted in the same condition as you are with me and in remembering Allah, then the angels would shake hand with you whether you lie down or walk about. But, O Hanzalah, there is an hour and an hour!" saying this (last) three times.

COMMENTARY: The angels do shake hands of those who make dhikr (hallowing of Allah) without being seen, but here it is shaking hands in public view if that situation arises.

'Lying down and walking about' implies when you are unoccupied and when you are occupied. It is all the time whatever you do.

'There is an hour and an hour.' This means that there is a time for every little thing and it is not constant always. So do not think of yourself as a hypocrite, for, nights have to be given to everyone.

SECTION-II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِىْ

MERIT OF DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH)

(٢٢٦٩) عَنْ اَبِى الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا اُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِخَيْرِ اَعْمَالِكُمْ وَاَزْكَاهَا عِنْدَ مَلِيْكِكُمْ وَاَرْفَعِهَا فِىْ دَرَجَاتِكُمْ وَخَيْرٍ لَكُمْ مِنْ اِنْفَاقِ الذَّهَبِ وَالْوَرِقِ وَخَيْرٍ لَكُمْ مِنْ اَنْ تَلْقَوْا عَدُوَّكُمْ فَتَضْرِبُوْا اَعْنَاقَهُمْ وَيَضْرِبُوْا اَعْنَاقَكُمْ قَالُوْا بَلٰى قَالَ ذِكْرُ اللّٰهِ۔ رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ وَاَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِىُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ اِلَّا اَنَّ مَالِكًا وَقَفَهٗ عَلٰى اَبِى الدَّرْدَاءِ۔

2269. Sayyiduna Abu ad-Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم, "Shall I not tell you of a deed that is the best and purest of your deeds in the sight of your king, which raises your ranks highest, which is better for you than spending gold and silver, and which is better for you than that you encounter your enemy and that you should cut off each other's necks?" They said, "Of course, tell us!" He said, "It is dhikr (hallowing of Allah) (remembrance) of Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps this hadith (tradition) refers to dhikr (hallowing of Allah) both by the tongue and by the heart. It tells us too that dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is better than sadaqah (charity), jihad (crusade) and other deeds.

THE BEST DEED

(٢٢٧٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ بُسْرٍ قَالَ جَاءَ اَعْرَابِيٌّ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اَيُّ النَّاسِ خَيْرٌ فَقَالَ طُوبٰى لِمَنْ طَالَ عُمُرُهٗ وَحَسُنَ عَمَلُهٗ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَيُّ الْاَعْمَالِ اَفْضَلُ قَالَ اَنْ تُفَارِقَ الدُّنْيَا وَلِسَانُكَ رَطْبٌ مِنْ ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ۔ (رواه احمد و الترمذی)

2270. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Busr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a villager came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and asked, "Which of the people is best?" He said, "Blessedness is for him whose life is long and deeds are good." The man asked, "O Messenger of Allah, which deed is best?" He said, "That you should part from the world while your tongue is moist with remembrance of Allah."[2]

COMMENTARY: The tongue is said to be moist when it is engaged in dhikr (hallowing of Allah) till death overtakes one. The hadith (tradition) covers both dhikr (hallowing of Allah) jail (audible, with the tongue) and dhikr (hallowing of Allah) Khafi (quiet). Both can be made with the tongue. It can also refer to dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with the heart. If it is with both, the heart and tongue, then it is best.

GARDENS OF PARADISE

(٢٢٧١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا مَرَرْتُمْ بِرِيَاضِ الْجَنَّةِ فَارْتَعُوْا قَالُوا وَمَارِيَاضُ الْجَنَّةِ قَالَ حِلَقُ الذِّكْرِ (رواه الترمذی)

2271. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "when you pass by the gardens of paradise, eat(its) fruits." The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked, "What are the gardens of paradise?" He said, "The circles where Allah is mentioned."[3]
(His dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is made).

COMMENTARY: It means that if you come upon a group of people making dhikr (hallowing of Allah) then join them.

Nawawi رضی اللہ عنہ said that just as it is mustahab (desirable) to make dhikr (hallowing of Allah), so, too, it is mustahab (desirable) to sit with those who make dhikr (hallowing of Allah).

Dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is made with both tongue and heart, or with one of them, A man said to his shaykh (Great religious Scholar), "I remember Allah with my tongue but my heart is negligent." He said, "Be grateful to Allah and remember Him. He has kept one of your limbs occupied in His remembrance."

REFRAINING FROM DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH) WILL CAUSE REGRET

(٢٢٧٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَعَدَ مَقْعَدًا لَمْ يَذْكُرِ اللّٰهَ فِيْهِ كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ اللّٰهِ تِرَةٌ وَمَنِ اضْطَجَعَ مَضْجَعًا لَا يَذْكُرُ اللّٰهَ فِيْهِ كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ اللّٰهِ تِرَةٌ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2272. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who sits some where (or in an assembly) and does not remember Allah there, that will be for him a matter of regret from Allah. And, he who lies down on his bed and does not make dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah there, that will be for him a matter of regret from Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Whatever time is spent without making dhikr (hallowing of Allah) will be a course of regret on the day of resurrection.

MEETINGS WHERE ALLAH IS NOT REMEMBERED

(٢٢٧٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ قَوْمٍ يَقُوْمُوْنَ مِنْ مَجْلِسٍ لَا يَذْكُرُوْنَ اللّٰهَ فِيْهِ اِلَّا قَامُوْا عَنْ مِثْلِ جِيْفَةِ حِمَارٍ وَكَانَ عَلَيْهِمْ حَسْرَةٌ (رواه احمد و ابوداؤد)

2273. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If any people disperse from an assembly where they did not remember Allah then it is as though they arose from the corpse of an ass. That will be a cause of regret for them."[2]

(٢٢٧٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا جَلَسَ قَوْمٌ مَجْلِسًا لَمْ يَذْكُرُوا اللّٰهَ فِيْهِ وَلَمْ يُصَلُّوْا عَلٰى نَبِيِّهِمْ اِلَّا كَانَ عَلَيْهِمْ تِرَةً فَاِنْ شَاءَ عَذَّبَهُمْ وَاِنْ شَاءَ غَفَرَ لَهُمْ (رواه الترمذی)

2274. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If people sit in an assembly without remembering Allah and invoking blessings on their Prophet, then that assembly will be for them a means of regret. If Allah will, He may punish them, or if He wills, He may forgive them."[3]

COMMENTARY: This means that if they make remembrance of Allah, then He will forgive them definitely.

BENEFICIAL SPEECH

(٢٢٧٥) وَعَنْ اُمِّ حَبِيْبَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ كَلَامِ ابْنِ اٰدَمَ عَلَيْهِ لَا لَهٗ اِلَّا اَمْرٌ بِمَعْرُوْفٍ اَوْ نَهْيٌ عَنْ مُنْكَرٍ اَوْ ذِكْرُ اللّٰهِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2275. Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Every speech of the son of Aadam is against him, not for him, except enjoining the reputable and forbidding evil, and remembrance of Allah."[4]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) interpret this hadith (tradition) to refer to every kind of saying disliked by Shari'ah (Islamic law). Clearly, only that speech will be beneficial in the hereafter that is only for religion. Permissible speech is not disputed. Enjoining the reputable, forbidding the disreputed and dhikr (hallowing of Allah) and other words similar to these are the only words beneficial to the son of Aadamعليه السلام.

TOO MUCH CONVERSATION WITHOUT DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH) IS CAUSE OF HARDHEARTEDNESS

(٢٢٧٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُكْثِرُوا الْكَلَامَ بِغَيْرِ ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ فَإِنَّ كَثْرَةَ الْكَلَامِ بِغَيْرِ ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ قَسْوَةٌ لِلْقَلْبِ إِنَّ أَبْعَدَ النَّاسِ مِنَ اللّٰهِ الْقَلْبُ الْقَاسِي (رواه الترمذی)

2276. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "Do not talk much without making dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah. Indeed, excessive talk without dhikr (hallowing of Allah) causes hearts to harden and, surely, the farthest of the people from Allah is one with a hard heart."[1]

COMMENTARY: One who talks much, babbles lonely his words. He listens to none and thinks only of himself as correct. He does not fear Allah and is neglectful of the hereafter.

THE BEST ASSET

(٢٢٧٧) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ لَمَّا نَزَلَتْ وَ الَّذِيْنَ يَكْنِزُوْنَ الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ كُنَّا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ بَعْضِ أَسْفَارِهٖ فَقَالَ بَعْضُ أَصْحَابِهٖ نَزَلَتْ فِي الذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةِ لَوْ عَلِمْنَا أَيُّ الْمَالِ خَيْرٌ فَنَتَّخِذَهٗ فَقَالَ أَفْضَلُهٗ لِسَانٌ ذَاكِرٌ وَقَلْبٌ شَاكِرٌ وَ زَوْجَةٌ مُؤْمِنَةٌ تُعِيْنُهٗ عَلٰى إِيْمَانِهٖ (رواه احمد و الترمذی و ابن ماجة)

2277. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when (the verse 9:34):

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَكْنِزُوْنَ الذَّهَبَ وَالْفِضَّةَ الْآيَة

{Those who hoard gold and silver}

was revealed, they were with the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on one of his journeys. Some of the sahabahرضی اللہ عنہ said, "It is revealed concerning gold and silver. If we knew the property that is best , then we might acquire it." He said, "The best property is a tongue that remembers Allah, a grateful heart and a believing wife who helps a man with his faith."[2]

COMMENTARY: Though it seems that the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked about the normal worldly wealth of which some kind might be specified for them, yet, in reality, they had enquired about something apart from the worldly wealth, such that could be helpful in their needs that might arise. So, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم respected their real request and disclosed the beneficial assets of which is no doubt that they are the best.

The wife's helping her husband with his religion is to assist him in discharging his religious obligations. She also makes the atmosphere conducive to make it easy for him to engage in worship. She prevents him from indulging in sin and the unlawful.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ALLAH TAKES PRIDE BEFORE ANGELS IN THOSE WHO MAKE DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH)

(٢٢٧٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ خَرَجَ مُعَاوِيَةُ عَلٰى حَلْقَةٍ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَقَالَ مَا اَجْلَسَكُمْ قَالُوْا جَلَسْنَا نَذْكُرُ اللّٰهَ قَالَ آللّٰهِ مَا اَجْلَسَكُمْ اِلَّا ذٰلِكَ قَالُوْا آللّٰهِ مَا اَجْلَسَنَا غَيْرُهُ قَالَ اَمَا اِنِّيْ لَمْ اَسْتَحْلِفْكُمْ تُهْمَةً لَكُمْ وَمَا كَانَ اَحَدٌ بِمَنْزِلَتِيْ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَقَلَّ عَنْهُ حَدِيْثًا مِنِّيْ وَاِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ عَلٰى حَلْقَةٍ مِنْ اَصْحَابِهٖ فَقَالَ مَا اَجْلَسَكُمْ هٰهُنَا قَالُوْا جَلَسْنَا نَذْكُرُ اللّٰهَ وَنَحْمَدُهٗ عَلٰى مَا هَدَانَا لِلْاِسْلَامِ وَمَنَّ بِهٖ عَلَيْنَا قَالَ آللّٰهِ مَا اَجْلَسَكُمْ اِلَّا ذٰلِكَ قَالُوْا آللّٰهِ مَا اَجْلَسَنَا اِلَّا ذٰلِكَ قَالَ اَمَا اِنِّيْ لَمْ اَسْتَحْلِفْكُمْ تُهْمَةً لَكُمْ وَلٰكِنَّهٗ اَتَانِيْ جِبْرِيْلُ فَاَخْبَرَنِيْ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ يُبَاهِيْ بِكُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2278. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه narrated that Sayyiduna Muawiyah رضی الله عنه went to a circle in the mosque and asked, "What makes you sit together?" They said, "We sit together to remember Allah." He asked them by Allah if nothing but that had made them sit together and they confirmed, "By Allah, we do not sit together for anything else." He told them that he had not adjured them out of misgivings ab· . them and added, "No one of my standing before Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم .a· fewer ahadith (traditions) from him than I have. Once, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had went to a circle of his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم and had asked them what had brought them to sit there together and they had said that they were together to remember Allah and to praise Him for leading them to Islam and for bestowing favour on them. He had asked them (again), "I adjure you by Allah, has nothing else prompted you to sit together? 'They had said, 'By Allah, we have not sat together except for that.' He had said, 'I did not adjure by Allah out of suspicion about you, but Jibril (gabriel) came to me and informed me that Allah, Mighty and Glorious, takes pride in you before the angels."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah points out to the angels that, in spite of the devil and their desires, those people had sat together to mention Him. They were more praiseworthy because the angels had not to curb evil tendencies or exert themselves as much.

DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH) EASY BUT MORE REWARDING

(٢٢٧٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ بُسْرٍ اَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ شَرَائِعَ الْاِسْلَامِ قَدْ كَثُرَتْ عَلَيَّ فَاَخْبِرْنِيْ بِشَيْءٍ اَتَشَبَّثُ بِهٖ قَالَ لَا يَزَالُ لِسَانُكَ رَطْبًا مِنْ ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2279. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Busr رضی الله عنه narrated that a man submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, the injunctions of Islam are many for me. Do teach me something by which I might abide." He said, "Let your tongue not cease to be fresh

(or moist) with the remembrance of Allah."[1]

(۲۲۸۰) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ سَعِیْدٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰہِ صَلَّی اللّٰہُ عَلَیْہِ وَسَلَّمَ سُئِلَ اَیُّ الْعِبَادِ اَفْضَلُ وَاَرْفَعُ دَرَجَۃً عِنْدَ اللّٰہِ یَوْمَ الْقِیَامَۃِ قَالَ الذَّاکِرُوْنَ اللّٰہَ کَثِیْرًا وَالذَّاکِرَاتُ قِیْلَ یَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰہِ وَمِنَ الْغَازِیْ فِیْ سَبِیْلِ اللہ قَالَ لَوْ ضَرَبَ بِسَیْفِہٖ فِی الْکُفَّارِ وَ الْمُشْرِکِیْنَ حَتّٰی یَنْکَسِرَ وَیَخْتَضِبَ دَمًا فَاِنَّ الذَّاکِرَ لِلّٰہِ اَفْضَلُ مِنْہُ دَرَجَۃً۔ رَوَاہُ اَحْمَدُ وَ التِّرْمِذِیُّ وَقَالَ ھٰذَا حَدِیْثٌ غَرِیْبٌ۔

2280. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that someone asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, "Which worshipper will be most excellent and of highest rank in the sight of Allah on the day of resurrection?" He said, "Those men and women who remember Allah very often." He was asked, "O Messenger of Allah, even above the warriors in Allah's path?" He said, "Even if he swings his sword on the disbelievers and polytheists till it breaks and it smeared with blood, the one who makes dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah will have a higher rank than he."[2]

COMMENTARY: Not to say anything of one who is wounded in battle, even the warrior who is soaked in blood, the person who makes dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah is superior than he.

DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH) PRESERVES FROM THE DEVIL

(۲۲۸۱) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰہِ صَلَّی اللّٰہُ عَلَیْہِ وَسَلَّمَ الشَّیْطَانُ جَاثِمٌ عَلٰی قَلْبِ ابْنِ اٰدَمَ فَاِذَا ذَکَرَ اللّٰہَ خَنَسَ وَاِذَا غَفَلَ وَسْوَسَ (رواہ البخاری تعلیقا)

2281. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The devil remains fixed at the heart of the son of Aadam علیہ السلام. When he remembers Allah, the devil goes away, but when he neglects to remember Allah, the devil prompts evil suggestions."

EXAMPLE OF DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH)

(۲۲۸۲-۲۲۸۳) وَعَنْ مَالِکٍ قَالَ بَلَغَنِیْ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰہِ صَلَّی اللّٰہُ عَلَیْہِ وَسَلَّمَ کَانَ یَقُوْلُ ذَاکِرُ اللّٰہِ فِی الْغَافِلِیْنَ کَالْمُقَاتِلِ خَلْفَ الْفَارِیْنَ وَذَاکِرُاللّٰہِ فِی الْغَافِلِیْنَ کَغُصْنٍ اَخْضَرَ فِیْ شَجَرٍ یَابِسٍ وَفِیْ رِوَایَۃٍ مَثَلُ الشَّجَرَۃِ الْخَضْرَاءِ فِیْ وَسْطِ الشَّجَرِ وَذَا کِرُ اللّٰہِ فِی الْغَافِلِیْنَ مِثْلُ مِصْبَاحٍ فِیْ بَیْتٍ مُظْلِمٍ وَ ذَاکِرُ اللّٰہِ فِی الْغَافِلِیْنَ یُرِیْہِ اللّٰہُ مَقْعَدَہٗ مِنَ الْجَنَّۃِ وَھُوَ حَیٌّ وَذَاکِرُ اللّٰہِ فِی الْغَافِلِیْنَ یُغْفَرُ لَہٗ بِعَدَدِ کُلِّ فَصِیْحٍ وَاَعْجَمَ وَالْفَصِیْحُ بَنُوْ اٰدَمَ وَالْاَعْجَمُ الْبَھَائِمُ (رواہ رزین)

2282. Sayyiduna Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to say, "He who remembers Allah among those who are negligent (about it) is like the one who continues to fight after the others have fled. He who remembers Allah among those who are negligent is like a green branch on a dry tree."

2283. According to another version: "like a green tree among the trees. And, he who remembers Allah among those who are negligent is like a lamp in a dark house. He who remembers Allah among those who are negligent, Allah will show him his place in paradise. He who remembers Allah among those who are negligent will be forgiven his sins as many as there are the fasih and the a'jam (dumb)."[1]
Fasih refers to the human beings and a'jam (dumb) to the animals (who possess power of speech and who do not).

2285. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Surely, Allah, the Exalted, says 'I am with My salve when he remembers Me and his both lips move for Me."[3]
